Lev 17:11, the critical importance of blood in the life process. It was not found until the 1900s, by Joseph Lister (1827-1912), that the immune system is in the blood. Prior to this, doctors bled people to rid them of poisons.

Job 26:7, the earth hung upon nothing, the gravitational field.

Psa 8:9, water paths (ocean currents) exist in the sea.

Psa 102:25-27, the law of increasing entropy, life and death cycle.

Psa 104:6-8, under water mountains exist.

Psa 104:25, the vastness of the ocean.

Psa 104:25, creatures in the ocean are without number.

Prov 6:6-8, the ant harvests its food. This was not discovered until 1871 by a British naturalist.

Prov 17:22, a joyful mind makes age flourishing. It was not discovered until recently that happy people live longer.

Eccl 1:6, the circulation of the atmosphere.

Eccl 1:7, the hydrologic cycle.

Isa 40:22, the earth is round and a globe. This was not 'proven' by man until more than 2000 years after Isaiah wrote it, by Christopher Columbus, as the most popular story goes. Eratosthenes with his famous 'well' experiment in the third century BC, did make a close calculation of the circumference of the earth, indicating that it was round. However, man for centuries afterward still believed it to be flat.

Isa 42:5,45:12, the expanding universe, GOD stretched out the heavens.

Isa 55:9, the infinite size of the universe.

Jer 33:22, the infinite number of stars.

Lk 17:30-34, night and day at the same time on the earth. People thought the earth to be flat then. It was either all day, or all night for all earthly dwellers.

2Pet 3:7, the law of the conservation of mass and energy.

1Tim 5:23, wine is good for what ails you. FLASH ! This is a scientific 'breakthrough' announced by our scientists in February 1998.

Is it the Six 24 Hour Days of Creation in Genesis 1, or is it Billions of Years of Scientific Evolution?

Do we have a Biblical error here or a Scientific error?
Is it both that are in error or maybe neither?
Here we shall examine the evidence!

Deuteronomy 32:7: "Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations; ask your father, and he will show you; your elders, and they will tell you."

Are the first six days of creation written in Genesis 1, each really only 24 hours long?
If you go through the Old Testament and count the list of descendents, the begots or the begats or father of's as written in various Bibles and add the years listed you will arrive at a period of about 4000 years from Adam and Eve to the birth of Christ.

Add 2000 years since then to our time, and you arrive at about only 6000 years, which count is woefully short of dinosaur existence 65 million or more years ago.
If so, how could evolution of 13.7 to 15 billion years from the scientific Big Bang theory possibly be true?
Is the Bible wrong here or is evolution? It would seem that the Bible and science are on a 6000 year old collision course.

Genesis 1:1, In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

1:2, The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

1:3, And God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

1:4, And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

1:5, God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

1:6, And God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.

1:7, And God made the firmament and separated the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament. And it was so.

1:8, And God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

1:9, And God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so."

1:10, God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good."

1:11, And God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, upon the earth." And it was so.

1:12, The earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

1:13, And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

1:14, And God said, "Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years,

1:15 and let them be lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth." And it was so.

1:16 And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night; he made the stars also.

1:17 And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth,

1:18, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

1:19, And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

1:20, And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the firmament of the heavens."

1:21, So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

1:22, And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."

1:23, And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

1:24, And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds." And it was so.

1:25. And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the cattle according to their kinds, and everything that creeps upon the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

1:26, Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

1:27, So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

1:28, And God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

1:29, And God said, "Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.

1:30, And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.

1:31, And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

So here you have it, only 6 days for all of creation, for each verse emphatically says 'there was evening and there was morning' for each of the 6 days, and a day only has 24 hours. So the Bible cannot be wrong. It is God's word and God cannot lie.

Exodus 20:11, for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

Science cannot be lying either. For one reason, there are fossil records going way back in time for many millions of years.

So does this stalemate leave us in a quandary with no way out?

Father Dwyer of whom I have spoken many times in my writings taught us well.

One of his gems was, "There are no errors in the Bible, only APPARENT errors".

Maybe Holy Scripture will give us a clue to find our way out of this enigma.

Aha, here is an important clue from Holy Scripture:

Psalms 90:4, For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

That was one from the Old Testament and here is yet another one from the New Testament

2Peter 3:8, But do not ignore this one FACT, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

WOW! Doesn't the Bible in both testaments teach us that each of the six days of Genesis 1 could be both 24 hour days and many years each?

In Einsteins theory of relativity, a part of it is about the expanding universe. Well how about all of these Bible verses that mention God who is stretching out the heavens?

Isn't that expanding the universe?:

Isa 40:22, 42:5; 44:24, 45:12, 51:13. Psa 104:2, Jer 10:12, 51:15. Job 9:8, Zech 12:1. The heavens rolled up as a scroll, Isa 34:4, Rev 6:14.

Now let us see what science has to say regarding an answer to our enigma hidden in a quandry for many many years.

Have you noticed that in many centuries there is one outstanding genius that makes great strides in our human knowledge of the world we live in?

I can think of Galileo in the 16th century, Newton in the 17th century, Einstein in the 19th and 20th centuries. Newton, once asked by someone how he did so well, replied that he was standing on the shoulders of giants. Albert Einstein presented his theory of relativity in 1915 and scientists are still analyzing it today.

It has to do with the expansion of the universe and the speed of light and especially time as it changes with certain parameters and blends in with the time in Genesis. It is rather complex for a lay person but I wish to give you a url for Dr Gerald Schroeder who does a great job in explaining Einsteins Theory of Relativity and how it blends in with Holy Scripture in Genesis: Dr Gerald Schroeder It is about an hour long audio mp3, and is very interesting.

Here are a few helpful notes regarding Dr Schroeder's message that I received from my friend Dr Brent Maundy:

"I was able to pick up what I in fact had always suspected. That both the Bible and Science were correct and the reconciliation was due to the fact that time was "stretched" because of the universe expansion. It is the only way to logically reconcile the two apparent contradictions. We know that time on the moon and Mars and places far away are different, so it depends on your perspective. Hence I never really saw a contradiction. The keys for the regular Bible believer apart from faith in God's word (the Bible) as sovereign is to gain an appreciation for Einstein's theory of relativity and what is qualitatively known as time dilation. That is time does not pass at the same rate for everyone. A fast moving observer would measure time passing more slowly than someone who is moving relatively slower or stationary. Time began at the big bang 15 Billion years ago as a point. The earth was in the process of being formed. Looking back then at the big bang moment, it would have taken 15 billion years to observe the universe at its present age, but the account in Genesis describes man appearing on earth much later and to him, his time is slow relative to the start of the universe because the earth is moving much faster than he is even though he can't see or feel the earth moving. I hope that makes sense.

Further to what I said to help explain the time dilation phenomena just think the earth is moving about 30 km/s around the Sun, and spinning on its axis about 0.5 km/s. The Sun is orbiting the centre of our Galaxy, the Milky way about 200-250 km/s and we as in part of the Milky way are moving at 2.1 million km/hour=583 km/s away from the centre of the big bang. It is all this relative motion, which explains why 13.8 billion light years == 6000 years. Of course its not as simple as that because there is relative motion, but that is the gist of time dilation.

Here is a little tidbit from Wikipedia on Time dilation: "In the theory of relativity, time dilation is a difference of elapsed time between two events as measured by observers either moving relative to each other or differently situated from a gravitational mass or masses.

A clock at rest with respect to one observer may be measured to tick at a different rate when compared to a second observer's clock. This effect arises neither from technical aspects of the clocks nor from the propagation time of signals, but from the nature of spacetime."

2Cor 5:15, "...and that Christ died for all..."

Gal 2:2, "And I went up in consequence of a 'revelation', and I conferred with them on the Gospel which I preach among the gentiles..."

Gal 5:15, "But if you bite and devour one another, take heed or you will be consumed by one another."

Gal 6:9, "And in doing good let us not grow tired; for in due time we shall reap if we do not relax." Phil 1:21, "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain."

*Phil 2:10, "So that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in Heaven, on earth and under the earth."

Phil 4:9, "And what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, these things practice."

2Thes 2:15, "So then, brethren, stand firm, and hold the traditions that you have learned, whether by word or by letter of ours."

1Tim 4:16, "Take heed to thyself and to thy teaching, be earnest in them. For in so doing thou wilt save both thyself and those who hear thee."

1Tim 6:7, "For we brought nothing into the world, and certainly we can take nothing out."

Heb 6:4-6, there is no salvation for those who know the Catholic Church is the true Church and yet refuse to join it.

Also Heb 10:26-27, RR1-536

Jam 1:5, "But if any of you is wanting in wisdom, let him ask it of GOD, who gives abundantly to all men, and does not reproach; and it will be given to him."

Jam 4:2, "...you do not have because you do not ask."

Jam 4:3, "You ask and do not receive because you ask amiss..."

Jam 5:19-20, "My brethren, if any one of you strays from the truth and someone brings him back, he ought to know that he who causes a sinner to be brought back from his misguided way, will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins."

1Jn 2:21, "...and because no lie is of the truth."

Rev 3:15-16, "I know your works, you are neither cold nor hot...but because you are lukewarm..., I am about to vomit you out of my mouth."

Rev 12:1, "And a great sign appeared in Heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars."

The Covert Bible...

Do you realize that the Bible has some verses which have a covert or hidden meaning? These are sometimes not readily apparent to the average reader or Bible study student. However these covert meanings could shed a bit of light to understanding the message that Holy Scripture is presenting to us. Some of these meanings are definitive and others are of conjecture. They can be found in the beginning of Scripture and in the end (the bookends), and in many books in between.

Following are several examples.

I would not hesitate to say that there are probably hundreds more that would be beneficial as powerful teaching tools.

🌀 Genesis 1:3, the first day,

"And God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light."

But then in Genesis 1:13-18, not until the third day, did GOD make the sun and the moon to give this light.

So the covert message is, "what (or Who) gave the light on the first day?". Conjecture? Maybe, but maybe not. Let us look in the last book for an answer.

Revelation 21:22-24,

"And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. (23)

And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. (24) By its light shall the nations walk; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory into it,"

🌀 Genesis 1:26-27,

"And he said: Let us make man to our image and likeness: and let him have dominion over the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the air, and the beasts, and the whole earth, and every creeping creature that moveth upon the earth. (27) And God created man to his own image: to the image of God he created him: male and female he created them."

Notice in verse 26 that GOD referred to Himself as plural, 'Us' and 'Our'. But in verse 27 He has referred to Himself as 'his' and 'he'.

These verses covertly taught us that GOD is more than one person, yet in only one GOD.

🌀 Genesis, 2:21-22,

"Then the Lord God cast a deep sleep upon Adam: and when he was fast asleep, he took one of his ribs, and filled up flesh for it. (22) And the Lord God built the rib which he took from Adam into a woman: and brought her to Adam."

A covert addition to these verses is that the first woman came from man, and after that, all men came from woman.

🌺 Genesis 11:4-8,

"Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth." (5) And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men had built. (6) And the LORD said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them." (7) Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." (8) So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city.

Notice in verse 5 and 8, the word 'Lord' is singular and in verse 7 the Lord said "let us go down", plural, again showing a hint of the Holy Trinity.

Why was the Lord upset that the people were building the tower? It is because in the first verse they said they did not want to be scattered upon the face of the whole earth. That was against the previous commands of the Lord 'to fill the earth' in Genesis 1:28 and 9:1.

Genesis 1:28,

"And God blessed them, saying: Increase and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it, and rule over the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the air, and all living creatures that move upon the earth."

Genesis 9:1,

"And God blessed Noe and his sons. And he said to them: Increase, and multiply, and fill the earth."

"And the Lord appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day. (2) He lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, three men stood in front of him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the earth, (3) and said, "My Lord, if I have found favor in your sight, do not pass by your servant."

Did you see the hidden message in those three verses? The word 'Lord', singular, is used twice in those three verses, yet there are three men, not a singular man. Those verses taught us that there are three persons in one GOD, a reference to the Holy Trinity.

🌺 Exodus 12:37, King James.

"And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children."

The Douay, Septuagint, Vulgate, and Geneva Bible versions are about the same reading as the KJ.

It should be easy for you to see what is missing in this verse, what with all those men and all those children and yet no women.

Covertly, they must have been there. They simply were not mentioned. Interestingly, some later Bible versions do mention women in this verse, but as you can see, five of the older versions do not. Doesn't that suggest that the terms 'political correctness' and/or 'inclusive language' have been injected into the newer Bible versions?

🌺 2Kings 2:11,

"And as they went on, walking and talking together, behold, a fiery chariot and fiery horses parted them both asunder: and Elias went up by a whirlwind into heaven."

Was Elias really taken up to the heaven of GOD? If you think he was then you have a big problem, a Biblical conflict.

John 3:13,

"And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended from heaven, the Son of man who is in heaven."

In order to resolve this dilemma, you have to know something about Hebrew beliefs. They believed in multiple heavens with GOD in the highest. Elias was taken up to the heavens, the sky. See 2Corinthians 12:2 where Saint Paul mentioned a third heaven.

🌺 Micah 5:2,

"And thou Bethlehem Ephrata, art a little one among the thousands of Juda, out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be the ruler in Israel: and his going forth is from the beginning, from the days of eternity."

This is a covert message for those who are still awaiting the arrival of the Messiah. Anyone who has seen Bethlehem recently will note immediately that it is no longer a 'little one' but has had great growth. So doesn't that tell us that the Messiah must have already arrived sometime in the past?

🌺 Malachi 1:11,

"For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to my name a clean oblation: for my name is great among the Gentiles, saith the Lord of hosts."

This is a prophesy of the sacrifice of the Mass. Covertly or by conjecture, it is Gentiles who will offer the sacrifice of the Mass and not those who are still awaiting the arrival of the Messiah.

🌺 Matthew 2:1-3,

"When Jesus therefore was born in Bethlehem of Juda, in the days of king Herod, behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem, (2) Saying: Where is he that is born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and are come to adore him. (3) And king Herod hearing this, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him."

Why was Herod troubled? Well one reason is that he did not want to have another King to challenge him and his realm.

But there is another covert reason.

Herod was an Idumean (Greek for the Hebrew word Edomite), and he was well aware of a prophesy in the book of Numbers as Edom being dispossessed, as a Star rises from Jacob.

Numbers 24:17-18,

"I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not near. A STAR SHALL RISE out of Jacob and a sceptre shall spring up from Israel: and shall strike the chiefs of Moab, and shall waste all the children of Seth (18) And he shall possess Idumea: the inheritance of Seir shall come to their enemies, but Israel shall do manfully."

🌀 Matthew 11:11,

"Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Whoa! Some will say that this verse teaches us that John the Baptist is greater than the Blessed Virgin Mary since she was born of woman. This is a prime example of someone taking a verse out of context in order to make a point.

First of all, Jesus Himself was born of woman. Those who say John was greater than the BVM will then have to admit that he was also greater than Jesus.

Second, Jesus was talking about Prophets. See the two previous verses 11:9 and 11:10 for the context.

Third, take a look at Luke 7:28,

"For I say to you: Amongst those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist.

But he that is the lesser in the kingdom of God is greater than he." (Douay and KJ)

🌀 Matthew 13:10-11,

"Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" (11) And he answered them,

"To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given."

See Mark 4:10-11, and Luke 8:9-10 for similar verses.

Now, can you think of a reason why Jesus said what He said in those verses? I can think of one covert reason.

It was because He was setting up His Church as His teaching authority.

Saint Paul said it best in:

2Timothy 2:2,

"and what you have heard from me before many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also."

🌀 Matthew 28:19-20,

"Going therefore, teach ye all nations: baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. (20) Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. And behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world."

'Teach all nations' means 'universal', the meaning of the word 'Catholic'.

Again we see the word 'name', singular, for all three persons of the Holy Trinity. The last sentence is overt but in case someone doesn't realize it, this is where Jesus promised to be with His Church every day in every century until the end of time. This means there will be no gaps, not one single day, and not a chance of His Church going into apostasy, as some suggest that it did.

🌀 Mark 1:40-45,

"And a leper came to him beseeching him, and kneeling said to him, "If you will, you can make me clean." (41) Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I will; be* clean." (42) And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. (43) And he sternly charged him, and sent him away at once, (44) and said to him, "See that you say nothing to any one; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a proof to the people." (45) But he went out and began to talk freely about it, and to spread the news, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter a town, but was out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter."

Lepers were not allowed to enter towns and mingle with the people.

Leviticus 13:46,

"He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone in a habitation outside the camp."

So, what is the covert meaning regarding Mark 1:44?

Why did Jesus say to tell no one?

It was because He knew He could not enter towns anymore because of the crowds flocking to Him after hearing of His miraculous healings. However the cleansed lepers could now go into towns but Jesus could not.

🌺 Mark 6:3,

"Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him."

There are two covert messages in the underlined portion of that verse.

1. It says 'the son of Mary' instead of 'a son of Mary'. This taught us that Mary had only one son.
2. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus is not mentioned. This indicated that he was probably dead at the time.

Go here to see who were the true parents of the 'brothers' mentioned in that verse.

🌺 Luke 8:22-25,

"Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth. (23) But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. (24) And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. (25) And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him."

Did you see the covert association in these verses? Here are a couple of hints:

Isaiah 54:11,

"O poor little one, tossed with tempest, without all comfort, behold I will lay thy stones in order, and will lay thy foundations with sapphires,"

1Peter 3:20,

"Which had been some time incredulous, when they waited for the patience of God in the days of Noe, when the ark was a building: wherein a few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water."

The covert symbolism is that the Church which Jesus Christ founded is associated with ships caught in stormy seas. The only souls that were saved in the great flood were those who were inside the Ark. In the storm at sea as recounted in Luke 8, those who were aboard the ship were saved by Jesus. The covert message here is that Jesus will come to the aid of His Church when it appears to be under attack.

🌀 Luke 22:19,

"And he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

I will bet that almost everyone missed the covert fact that Jesus held His own body in His hands as He said those words.

🌀 John 7:3-5,

"So his brothers said to him, "Leave here and go to Judea, that your disciples may see the works you are doing. (4) For no man works in secret if he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." (5) For even his brothers did not believe in him.

This is a perfect covert message to make plain for those who claim that Blessed Mary had other children, the 'brothers' of Jesus.

Jesus lived with His mother and foster father until he started His ministry at age 30 (Luke 3:23). His supposed 'brothers' must have lived in the same household for many years with Jesus. His mother and foster father knew who he was. So are those who insist that Jesus had brothers are saying that His brothers did not know who he was, and did not 'believe in him'?

🌀 John 8:31,

"Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed him: If you continue in my word, you shall be my disciples indeed. (32) And you shall know the truth: and the truth shall make you free."

These verses are intentionally covert from many non-Catholic sources.

How many times have you heard them say, 'the truth will make you free'?

It is a classic example of taking a passage out of context and ignoring the rest. There is that little very BIG word 'IF' that makes 'the truth will make you free' a two way conditional statement.

1. First you must keep the word as Jesus said, "If you continue in my word", so all of the commands of Jesus must be kept.

2. Second, you must know the truth before it will make you free. So the converse is applicable too. If you do not know the truth then the truth will NOT make you free.

🌀 John 14:16-17,

"And I will ask the Father: and he shall give you another Paraclete, that he may abide with you for ever: (17) The spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, nor knoweth him. But you shall know him; because he shall abide with you and shall be in you."

This verse is very clear but some simply do not get the message. Let us put it into context. In these verses, said during the last supper, Jesus spoke to His Apostles, who will be the future leaders of His Church. Read all of John 13 and 14 and you will see several Apostles named. The 'Spirit of truth' will be given to the leaders of His Church only, and not to the world. It is a complimentary verse to 1Timothy 3:15, which states that it is the Church that is the foundation and pillar of truth. And why is it? We are given the answer to that question in John 14:17.

It is because the Spirit of Truth abides in the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

What about Judas Iscariot? Was this promise given to him also? No, notice that he left the last supper in John 13:30-31.

🌀 John 15:22,

"If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin."

Did this verse register with you? There is a lot of covert inspiration in it.

Remember, truth is a person, the person of Jesus the Christ (John 14:6).

Jesus did come and speak truth to the people, as He walked the Earth then.

Where do you find His truth today? Through what or whom does He speak today?

Holy Scripture told us where:

1Timothy 3:15,

"But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."

So you hear the truth through the one and only Church that Jesus the Christ founded.

1Timothy 3:15 does say 'church' (singular) and not churches, does it not?

Elucidation:

When you are told the truth through His Church today, you have no excuse for not believing it.

🌀 Acts 1:8,

"But you shall receive the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you, and you shall be witnesses unto me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the uttermost part of the earth."

Now what did that verse tell you that is not readily apparent? There are many verses in Holy Scripture similar to that one in that they may have additional common sense clues that are helpful in our understanding of the message that they convey to us.

It is in the last part where Jesus commissioned His Apostles to be witnesses for Him in Jerusalem (local), Judea and Samaria (spreading out) and even to the uttermost part of the world (world wide).

The Apostles can easily satisfy the first three locations in their lifetimes, but what about "to the uttermost part of the earth"? How will the Apostles accomplish that in one lifetime? The answer is, they cannot. There you can clearly see continuity. The Apostles will not live long enough to spread the word to the whole world, so they will have to pass to someone else the commission that Jesus bestowed upon them. The message of continuity of the Church which Jesus Christ founded was not readily apparent overtly, but it was however, there covertly.

Acts 1:8 has set the stage for Apostolic Succession, continuity of His Church without even overtly mentioning it, but covertly it did, and it did it quite well.

🌀 Acts 2:32,

"This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses."

Acts 10:39-40,

"And we are witnesses to all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; (40) but God raised him on the third day and made him manifest;"

There are many verses which state that GOD raised Jesus from the dead. There is no verse that said Jesus raised Himself from the dead.

Overtly, this is not explained by Holy Scripture, but covertly it is. Remember that Jesus the Christ has two natures, one divine (the Christ) and one human (Jesus). In His human nature, He could not raise Himself from the dead, but in His divine nature He did.

We must remember that the Holy Trinity consists of three distinct but not separate persons in one GOD. Where one is, so are the other two.

🍷 Acts 20:31,

"Therefore watch, keeping in memory that for three years I ceased not with tears to admonish every one of you, night and day."

This is an interesting verse. Since Saint Paul admonished the people of Ephesus for three years, then why is his letter to the Ephesians only six chapters long and can be read in one hour or less? Has this verse instructed us covertly that only a fraction of what Saint Paul taught the Ephesians night and day for three years is in the Bible (John 20:30,21:25)?

🍷 Romans 15:20,

"And I have so preached this gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man a foundation."

Non-Catholics try to show from this verse that Peter was not in Rome. However, Romans was written at Corinth during the winter of 57-58 and Peter went to Rome before that time. Eusebius wrote that St. Peter had been Bishop of Rome for 25 years. Since he was crucified in 67, that would place Peter in Rome in the year 42. St. Paul alluded to another Apostle in this verse, that he did not want to build upon another's foundation. That other was no doubt St. Peter. Why would St. Paul be writing an Epistle to the Romans unless the Church was already established there?

🍷 1Corinthians 11:26-29,

"For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. (27) Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. (28) Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. (29) For any one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself."

Those verses are glossed over or ignored by Non-Catholics, and yet, they are so clear.

Verse 26: Non-Catholics say that Catholics sacrifice Christ over and over again in the Mass. The key word in that verse is 'proclaim' which means to declare, preach, show, speak of, teach (Strong's). That is what the Catholic Church does.

Verse 27: Non-Catholics teach that the Holy Eucharist is only a symbol. Well if that were true, how could anyone profane a symbol?

Verse 28: 'Examine himself' means to take an examination of conscience to make sure that we are not in mortal sin before partaking of the Eucharist. If it were only a symbol, then why examine ourselves?

Verse 29: This verse said 'without discerning the body'. If it is only a symbol, then what body?

In these verses there is nothing covert to those who know the truth of what they teach us. But for those who do not know, or try to ignore the truth, then to them the messages are covert.

"Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days. (19) But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother."

The Lord's brother? The Lord had a brother? Well, Saint Paul told us in the same verse that James was also an Apostle, the covert message. There were two Apostles named James, so to delve into the covert meaning of the verse we must determine who the parents of each of them were. Scripture teaches us that one was the son of Alphaeus as shown in Acts 1:13, and the other was the son of Zebedee in Matthew 4:21. Consequently, neither James was the blood brother of the Lord.

🌺 2Timothy 3:15,

"And because from thy infancy thou hast known the holy scriptures which can instruct thee to salvation by the faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Well here is a stealthy verse, a very covert one indeed. Can you figure it out for yourself? If not, consider this:

2Timothy was written by Saint Paul just before his death, as he wrote in 2Timothy 4:6-8.

It is known that he was beheaded in 67. So this book, probably his last, was written in 66 or 67 A.D..

St Paul addressed this book to Timothy who was the Bishop of Ephesus at the time (1Timothy 1:3).

In order to be a bishop Timothy must have been at least 30 years old.

By simple subtraction, 66 or 67 minus 30 would put Timothy's infancy at about 36 or 37 A.D..

That date predates what is thought to be the first book written by Saint Paul (1Thessalonians, written about 52) by many years.

Consequently, the 'Holy Scriptures known by Timothy from his infancy' could be only the Old Testament.

🌺 Hebrews 13:17,

"Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you."

Who are those who 'have the rule over you' and 'for they watch for your souls'?

It can be none other than the Bishops in the Church which Jesus founded. It is the duty of the Bishop to guide us unto salvation.

We have a duty to be obedient to our Bishop and not cause him grief.

🌺 Revelation 13:18,

"Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast.

For it is the number of a man: and the number of him is six hundred sixty-six.

Aah, the infamous 463017 verse, the number of the beast. And who is the beast? Well the verse said it is a man. But does that mean it is really and truly a man?

Languages:

Holy Scripture was originally written in several languages, Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek. But are you reading it in the original language? No, you are reading Scripture in English if you are reading this page. The book of Revelation was written in Greek by Saint John, so you are reading an English translation of a Greek verse. Since every language has its own meaning of words that do not necessarily agree 100% with the English translation, then it becomes mandatory to go to the original language for the proper interpretation of a word in question. The word in question in this verse is 'man'. The Greek word used in this verse for 'man' is 'anthropos'.

Thayer Definition: Anthropos

1) a human being, whether male or female

1a) generically, to include all human individuals

1b) to distinguish man from beings of a different order

Usually the first of multiple definitions as this, carries the most weight. So the Thayer definition said that it could be either a man or a woman.

An additional note:

Throughout the Bible, women were sometimes not even mentioned even though covertly they must have been there.

Previously we looked at Exodus 12:37 where there were 600,000 men on foot, not counting children (KJ, DRB).

Children but no women? How in the world did those 600,000 men accomplish that?

🌟 Revelation 22:18-19,

"For I testify to every one that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book: If any man shall add to these things, God shall add unto him the plagues written in this book. (19) And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from these things that are written in this book."

Now covertly, do these words apply only to the book of Revelation, or do they apply to all of the books in the Bible? There are arguments on both sides of that question. Those that answer 'no' say that Revelation was written in around 95 A.D., so Saint John had no knowledge of an assemblage of the books to be included in Holy Scriptures centuries after his death. Those who answer 'yes', point to the fact that "All Scripture is inspired by GOD, and is useful for teaching:" (2Timothy 3:16). And therefore none of it can be added to or deleted.

That statement is reinforced by several additional verses in other books:

Deuteronomy 12:32,

"Everything that I command you you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to it or take from it."

Psalms 119:57,

"The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep thy words."

Proverbs 5:7,

"And now, O sons, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth."

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him. (6) Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you, and you be found a liar."

Wow! Some pretty potent warnings in that verse.

Ecclesiastes 3:14,

"I know that whatever God does endures for ever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has made it so, in order that men should fear before him."

Jeremiah 23:36, "And the burden of the Lord shall be mentioned no more, for every man's word shall be his burden: for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts our God."

Galatians 1:8-9,

"But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema. (9) As we said before, so now I say again: If any one preach to you a gospel, besides that which you have received, let him be anathema."

How many times have you seen a verse repeated as that one was? Why does anyone repeat himself?

1Peter 1:25,

"But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel hath been preached unto you."

2Peter 3:16-17, "As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are certain things hard to be understood, which the unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. (17) You therefore, brethren, knowing these things before, take heed, lest being led aside by the error of the unwise, you fall from your own steadfastness."

So by taking Revelation 22:18-19 and adding all of the above verses to it, the covert consensus from both the Old Testament and the New Testament is:

DO NOT ADD TO OR DELETE FROM THE HOLY WORDS OF GOD

---

One lifetime is not long enough for any human person to digest everything written overtly or extracted covertly from the one book that we call the Bible.

The Covert Bible, part II:

Do you realize that the Bible has some verses which have a covert or hidden meaning? These are sometimes not readily apparent to the average reader or Bible study student. However these covert meanings could shed a bit of light to understanding the message that Holy Scripture is presenting to us. Some of these meanings are definitive and others are of conjecture. They can be found in the beginning of Scripture and in the end (the bookends), and in many books in between.

Following are several examples.

I would not hesitate to say that there are probably hundreds more that would be beneficial as powerful teaching tools.

🌀 Genesis 1:1,

"In the beginning God created heaven and earth."

The word 'beginning' is a modifier for the word 'time'. Before this there was no time.

The creation of time is confirmed in Genesis 1:5,

"God named the light day, and the darkness he named night. There was evening, then morning-the first day."

🌀 Genesis 3:9-13,

"But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" (10) And he said, "I heard the sound of thee in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." (11) He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" (12) The man said, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate." (13) Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent beguiled me, and I ate."

GOD asked four questions in those five verses.

Since GOD knows all, including the answers to His questions, can you think of a covert reason why He asked them at all?

It is a prefigurement of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. GOD wanted to hear Adam and Eve confess their sin.

And what were their answers to GOD? Adam blamed Eve, and Eve blamed the serpent. Neither was willing to take the blame.

It is a classic example of passing the buck.

🌀 Exodus 2:1-2,

"Now a man from the house of Levi went and took to wife a daughter of Levi. (2) The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months."

Notice that both the father and mother of Moses are of the priestly tribe of Levi.

This alludes to Moses as being a figure of Christ, the High Priest.

🌀 Exodus 12:5-8,

"It shall be to you a lamb unblemished, a male of a year old: ye shall take it of the lambs and the kids. (6) And it shall be kept by you till the fourteenth of this month, and all the multitude of the congregation of the children of Israel shall kill it toward evening. (7) And they shall take of the blood, and shall put it on the two door-posts, and on the lintel, in the houses wherein they shall eat it. (8) And they shall eat the flesh in this night roast with fire, and they shall eat unleavened bread with bitter herbs."

Overtly these verses are quite clear as being a type of the Eucharistic sacrifice.

However, covertly note very carefully that the Hebrews had to eat the body of the lamb, and not a mere symbol of the body of the lamb.

Remember, an Old Testament type is always inferior to a New Testament reality.

Therefore a mere New Testament symbolic gesture of an Old Testament type is an impossibility.

🌀 2Samuel 2:1,

"And after these things David consulted the Lord, saying: Shall I go up into one of the cities of Juda?"

And the Lord said to him: Go up. And David said: Whither shall I go up? And he answered him: Into Hebron."

2Samuel 12:13,

"And David said to Nathan: I have sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said to David: The Lord also hath taken away thy sin: thou shalt not die.

Those verses have a meaning that are overt to some but covert to others.

Do you see one of the seven sacraments typed in those two verses?

Sometimes extracting short phrases from the verses one at a time will help in understanding the messages they convey.

1. In the first verse, David spoke directly to GOD and asked Him two questions.
  2. And GOD answered him directly both times.
  3. In the second verse, David confessed his sin to Nathan, a mere man, but a man of GOD.
  4. It was Nathan who said that GOD had taken away his sin.
  5. David received GOD's forgiveness not by Him speaking directly to David, but through a human person.
  6. It is the same today in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
  7. The priest, acting 'In Persona Christi' (in the person of Christ, 2Corinthians 2:10), conveys GOD's forgiveness of sins to the sinner.

🌀 2Samuel 6:6-9,

"And when they came to the floor of Nachon, Oza put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it: because the oxen kicked and made it lean aside. (7) And the indignation of the Lord was enkindled against Oza, and he struck him for his rashness: and he died there before the ark of God. (8) And David was grieved because the Lord had struck Oza, and the name of that place was called: The striking of Oza, to this day. (9) And David was afraid of the Lord that day, saying: How shall the ark of the Lord come to me?"

Just by touching the Ark of the Covenant, Oza was struck down by GOD.

The wooden Ark of the Old Testament is a type of the New Ark of the New Testament.

For those who say that Mary had other children, they simply do not see the connection to 2Samuel 6:6-9.

Compare "How shall the ark of the Lord come to me?" in the last verse (9) listed above to the following verse:

Luke 1:43

"And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

The old wooden ark contained the types of what the New Ark carried.

🌺 Isaiah 7:14,

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son and his name shall be called Emmanuel."

"And his name shall be called Emmanuel"?

I thought His name was to be called Jesus.

How can this be resolved?

Well the answer to that one is that Hebrew names had a meaning, a title, and that is explained very nicely in the following verses.

Matthew 1:21-23,

"And she shall bring forth a son: and thou shalt call his name Jesus. For he shall save his people from their sins. (22) Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which the Lord spoke by the prophet, saying: (23) Behold a virgin shall be with child, and bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

🌺 Isaiah 9:6-7,

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (7) Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this."

These two verses are absolutely loaded with overt and covert meaning. It is a very overt prophesy of the coming of the Christ and His founding of His one Church.

1. Notice that the word 'government' is singular, and it can only refer to His Church.

2. Of the increase of His 'government' (His Church), there shall be no end. Don't non-Catholics teach that His Church went into apostasy early on at some unknown and unprovable time and without a shred of documentation on their part to prove that it ever happened? Also, by claiming this heresy, aren't they saying that what Isaiah prophesied is untrue?

His Church has been growing and increasing for almost 2000 years, despite the attacks from heretics and others.

Today it has at least 1.1 billion members, and is still adding more and more every day.

3. Even the word 'government' disarms those who say that Jesus founded an invisible church. How can a governing body ever be invisible, (Matthew 5:14) what with legislatures, governors, courts, etc.?

4. The last part of verse 7 clearly says that He will establish His government and IT WILL LAST FOREVER.

And who will insure this? In the last line it is GOD Himself. Here is yet another verse that has to be denied by those who say His Church went into apostasy at some unknown time and with no documented proof whatsoever to support their false charge.

Since 'the LORD of hosts will perform this', does that mean that those who present these false charges are guilty of Acts 5:39, that they will be found to fight even against GOD?

🌸 Isaiah 11:10,

"And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious."

Jeremiah 16:19,

"O Lord, my might, and my strength, and my refuge in the day of tribulation: to thee the Gentiles shall come from the ends of the earth, and shall say: Surely our fathers have possessed lies, a vanity which hath not profited them."

Micah 5:8, "And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forests, and as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, when he shall go through, and tread down, and take there is none to deliver."

Acts 28:28,

"Be it known therefore to you that this salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles: and they will hear it."

Romans 3:29,

"Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also."

Romans 9:24,

"Even us, whom also he hath called, not only of the Jews but also of the Gentiles."

Romans 11:25,

"Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brethren: a hardening has come upon part of Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles come in."

Ephesians 3:6-7,

"That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs and of the same body: and copartners of his promise in Christ Jesus, by the gospel (7) Of which I am made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God, which is given to me according to the operation of his power."

Do you see a common thread among those verses?

Gentiles are mentioned in all of the verses.

Gentile: a person who is not of the Jewish faith, or is of a non-Jewish nation.

In the Old Testament it is prophesied that Gentiles will come to the same GOD of the Jews.
In the New Testament is the fulfillment of those prophecies.
Covertly they show that Christianity must be true.

🌟 Isaiah 65:14-15,

"Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. (15) And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:"

It is easy to see from the context (read Isaiah 65:1-13) that GOD is not pleased with His chosen people.

They will be slain (it happened in 70 A.D. by the hands of the Romans).

Now can you guess what 'another name' will be for His servants?

How about "Christians" (Acts 11:26)?

🌟 Jeremiah 17:13,

"O Lord, the hope of Israel: all that forsake thee shall be confounded: they that depart from thee, shall be written in the earth: because they have forsaken the Lord, the vein of living waters."

It has always been a mystery as to exactly what Jesus wrote in the dirt in John 8:6.

It is by conjecture that what He wrote might have been what Jeremiah said in the above verse.

Jesus certainly had many depart from Him. Read John 6:66 for one verse out of many.
666???

🌟 Matthew 16:15-17,

"He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" (16) Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (17) And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven."

Well, what have we here? It is a tailor-made verse for those who claim that Peter did not have the primacy.

It was only Peter who knew that Jesus was the Christ.

How did Peter know?

GOD the Father told him directly.

Throughout Holy Scripture there are verses where GOD spoke directly to His prime person, the Father figure.

Here are a few example verses out of many more:

Abram/Abraham in Genesis 12:1, and in many verses thereafter.

Moses in Exodus 3:4, and in many verses thereafter.

David, in 2Samuel 2:1, and in many verses before and after.

Show me a verse in the New Testament where GOD spoke directly to those that non-Catholics say had the primacy instead of Peter?

🌀 Matthew 18:15-18,

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. (16) But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. (17) If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. (18) Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

In those verses Jesus told us that the final authority is with His Church and that we must listen to it. He even told us what to do to those who refuse to listen to His Church.

One covert message in these verses is, if His Church fell into error or apostasy as some non-Catholic sects teach, then GOD has deliberately deceived us.

However, we know that GOD can neither deceive nor be deceived.

🌀 Mark 3:32-35,

"And the multitude sat about him; and they said to him: Behold thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. (33) And answering them, he said: Who is my mother and my brethren? (34) And looking round about on them who sat about him, he said: Behold my mother and my brethren. (35) For whosoever shall do the will of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

Some would charge that Jesus put down His mother in these verses.

However, the context shows that He is not talking about His natural family but about a higher order, His supernatural family.

🌀 Luke 1:28,

And when the angel had come to her, he said, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."

In order to uncover the covert exegesis in this verse we must revert to the original Greek language in which it was written.

The word 'Hail' (Chairo in Greek) is an honorable salutation given to royalty such as 'Hail Caesar' or 'Hail King of the Jews'.

Archangel Gabriel, using 'Hail', conveys to us that Mary is being addressed as royalty.

Did you notice that Gabriel did not call her by name by saying 'Hail Mary full of grace'?

It is an indication that she was given a new title, "Full of Grace".

The original Greek word used (kecaritomene) for 'Full of Grace' translates in English to 'a plenitude of Grace'.

St Jerome used the Latin words 'Gratia Plena' for the term in the Latin Vulgate, the first translation of the New Testament from Greek.

GOD used "The Lord is with thee" to embolden certain people to which He had given a special and difficult calling.

A few Old Testament recipients are Moses (Exodus 3:12), Joshua (Joshua 1:5,9), and Gideon (Judges 6:12-13,16).

Mary is the only person in the New Testament to be called "Blessed art thou among women". Those words are repeated again to her by Elizabeth in Luke 1:42.

🌺 Luke 1:41-42,

"And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost. (42) And she cried out with a loud voice and said: Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."

There is a very interesting covert message where Elizabeth 'cried out with a loud voice'. Here is an excellent example where reverting to the original Greek gives us much more to delve into and where the English translation falls short. The Greek word used here is 'Anaphoneo'. This is the only time this Greek word is used in the New Testament. This same Greek word appears five times in the Septuagint or LXX, the Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament where it describes Levitical priests praising GOD before the Ark of the Covenant.

1Chronicles 15:28,

"And all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of a horn, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, playing loudly (anaphoneo) on lutes and harps."

1Chronicles 16:4-5,

"And he appointed before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, Levites to minister and lift up the voice (anaphoneo), and to give thanks and praise the Lord God of Israel: (5) Asaph was the chief, and next to him Zacharias, Jeiel, Semiramoth, and Jeiel, Mattathias, Eliab, and Banaeas, and Abdedom: and Jeiel sounding with musical instruments, lutes and harps, and Asaph with cymbals: (anaphoneo)"

1Chronicles, 16:42,

"And with them there were trumpets and cymbals to sound aloud (anaphoneo), and musical instruments for the songs of God: and the sons of Idithun were at the gate."

2Chronicles 5:13,

"And there was one voice in the trumpeting and in the psalm-singing, and in the loud utterance (anaphoneo) with one voice to give thanks and praise the Lord; and when they raised their voice together with trumpets and cymbals, and instruments of music, and said, Give thanks to the Lord, for it is good, for his mercy endures for ever: then the house was filled with the cloud of the glory of the Lord."

So what do you see as the covert message here? It is praise given to GOD in front of the old wooden Ark of the Covenant, and the same praise given before the New Ark of the Covenant, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

🌺 Luke 2:6-7,

"While they were in Bethlehem, the time came for Mary to have her child. (7) She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger because there wasn't any room for them in the inn."

This is the Incarnation, when GOD took on a human nature.
All of the substance and DNA of Jesus the Christ came from the substance and DNA of His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

🌀 Luke 2:51,

"And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject to them. And his mother kept all these words in her heart."

How covert, the meaning of this verse.

Did you notice that the creator of the universe was subject to a mere human creature by the name of Mary until He started His ministry at the age of 30 (Luke 3:23)?

Name another woman so blessed?

🌀 Luke 24:30-31,

"When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them. (31) And their eyes were opened and they recognized him; and he vanished out of their sight."

In order to put what happened in these verses in context, you might want to read from verse 13 on. Two disciples were walking on the road to Emmaus when Jesus whom they did not recognize joined them.

The covert meaning here is that they did not recognize Him until He 'broke bread'.

Remember at the last supper when He broke bread He said, "This is my body".

Breaking of the bread is the Holy Eucharist, the true presence.

Now if that is only a symbol as some say, how could a mere symbol cause them to recognize Him immediately?

🌀 John 10:27-28,

"My sheep hear my voice. And I know them: and they follow me. (28) And I give them life everlasting: and they shall not perish for ever. And no man shall pluck them out of my hand."

This the classic verse that some non-Catholic sects use to 'prove' their 'once saved, always saved' false teaching.

Let us put this into context.

First of all, 'My sheep hear my voice', means that they obey His commands and follow Him, as He said in the second sentence.

The last sentence says nothing about those who voluntarily jump out of His hand and simply walk away from Him and His Church (John 6:66---again, for one).

🌀 John 20:17-18,

"Jesus said to her, "Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brothers and say to them, I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and My God, and your God." (18) Mary Magdalene came bringing word to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He told her these things."

In this very overt set of verses, for those who say verse 17 'proved' that Jesus Christ had 'brothers', a covert message that they did not see proved them wrong.

Jesus told Mary Magdalen to go to His 'brothers'. But who did she go to in verse 18? She went to His 'disciples'.

Those 'disciples' were the Apostles, and they were certainly not His blood brothers.

Also, some people might be confused since throughout the New Testament, His Apostles are sometimes called His disciples.

A disciple is one who follows Christ as do the Apostles. There are many disciples, but few Apostles. Apostles are disciples, but not all disciples are Apostles.

🌀 Acts 3:15,

"But the author of life you killed, whom God hath raised from the dead: of which we are witnesses."

Revelation 1:17-18,

"And when I had seen him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying: Fear not.

I am the First and the Last, (18) And alive, and was dead. And behold I am living for ever and ever and have the keys of death and of hell."

Revelation 2:8,

"And to the angel of the church of Smyrna write: These things saith the First and the Last, who was dead and is alive:"

This section is for those who say that GOD did not die on the cross.

Here are a few questions for you:

1. In the first verse, who is the author of life?
  2. Doesn't that verse say that He was killed?
  3. In the verses from Revelation, who is 'The First and the Last'?
  4. Do those verses from Revelation say that He was dead and by words from His own mouth?
  5. Did the 'Author of Life' and 'The First and the Last' die?
  6. Holy Scripture said He did...
  7. So then why do some say that He did not?

🌀 Acts 5:38-39,

"And now, therefore, I say to you: Refrain from these men and let them alone. For if this council or this work be of men, it will come to nought: (39) But if it be of God, you cannot overthrow it, lest perhaps you be found even to fight against God. And they consented to him."

This should be an easy verse for anyone to uncover its covert meaning.

Since truth is a person, the person of Jesus Christ (John 14:6),

He promised that His Church would last every day in every century until the end of time (Matthew 28:20).

Scripture also tells us that He is the Savior of His Church (Ephesians 5:23).

The one Church that He founded has endured the slings and arrows from myriads of sources and from every direction and in every century for almost 2000 years, proving beyond any doubt that His Church is not the work of men.

No man has been able to overthrow it, and those who have tried can only be fighting against GOD.

🌟 1Corinthians 10:9-12,

"We must not put the Lord to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents; (10) nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. (11) Now these things happened to them as a warning, but they were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come. (12) Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall."

Wow! If I were a member of the 'once saved always saved' crowd, those verses would have me shaking in fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12).

If I claim that I am already saved, isn't that putting the Lord to the test?

After all, it is He and not any human person that determines who is saved and who is not.

Verse 12 drives the final nail in the 'once saved always saved' coffin.

🌟 1Corinthians 11:18-19,

"For, in the first place, when you assemble as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it, (19) for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized."

In John 10:16 Jesus said,

"And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice.

So there shall be one flock, one shepherd."

In John 17:21-23 Jesus prayed,

"I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word, (21) that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. (22) The glory which thou hast given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, (23) I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that thou hast sent me and hast loved them even as thou hast loved me."

In both of the quotes in the Gospel of John, Jesus said that we must be one and not divided.

That is GOD's way. Satan is the divider. Divide and conquer is his way. Division is evil since it comes from Satan.

However, from this evil arises good in that true and genuine Christians are manifested as shown in 1Corinthians 11:19 as shown above.

Heresy must exist, for in studying it we can separate the truth from the lie.

So what is the covert message here? It is revealed in the following verse:

Genesis 50:20,

"Even though you planned evil against me, God planned good to come out of it.

This was to keep many people alive, as he is doing now."

See also Romans 3:8 and 8:28.

🌟 2Thessalonians 2:15,

"So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter."

That is a very important verse with a widely overlooked covert message.

"Hold to the traditions which you were taught by us."

'Taught by us' is Apostolic Tradition.

What is the Bible?

The Bible is tradition written down.

The best proof of this is right from the words of Saint Luke in the prolog to his Gospel:

Luke 1:1-4,

"Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things which have been accomplished among us, (2) just as they were delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, (3) it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, (4) that you may know the truth concerning the things of which you have been informed."

It is widely taught that Moses wrote the first five books of the Old Testament, commonly called The Torah.

Those books cover thousands of years, so the only way he could have written them was by tradition handed down from generation to generation.

🌟 1Peter 5:13,

"The church that is in Babylon, elected together with you, salute you. And so does my son, Mark."

So at the time of writing of 1Peter, was there a church in the Babylon, which lies in what is today called Iraq?

The covert answer to that question is no, simply because after 130 B.C., Babylon faded into obscurity, and ruins.

It wasn't until the mid 1800's that its location was found again and archeological unearthing began. So where is the Babylon that is mentioned in the verse?

Christians, especially the Apostles, were under constant persecution by both the Jews and the Romans from the very beginning and had to practice the faith underground in the homes of believers, and in the catacombs of Rome. In order to recognize one another as fellow Christians, they used code words and symbols. The fish symbol (ichthos) was used for recognition, and Babylon was the code word for Rome.

If Peter had said he was writing to a Church in Rome, then no doubt, it would have aroused Roman suspicion.

🌟 1John 4:6,

"We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

This Epistle by Saint John was written about the same time as his Gospel which was around 100 A.D..

By this time all of the other Apostles were dead.

John uses the plural 'we' and 'us' in that verse and obviously he could not mean the other Apostles. So who are the 'we' and 'us' that he refers? What is the covert answer?

It could only be the Bishops, a fine example of Apostolic Succession, and the priests.

🌀 Revelation 8:10-11,

"And the third angel sounded the trumpet: and a great star fell from heaven, burning as it were a torch. And it fell on the third part of the rivers and upon the fountains of waters: (11) And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became wormwood. And many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter."

Let us again extract short phrases from those verses one at a time, as those verses may contain a surprise for some.

1. "A great star fell from heaven".
  2. What makes a star? Nuclear energy.
  3. What makes an atomic reactor? Nuclear energy.
  4. "The name of the star is called Wormwood."
  5. In 1986 a nuclear reactor destroyed itself at Chernobyl Ukraine.
  6. This man made disaster killed thousands and contaminated the land and waters for miles around.
  7. So what is the point?
  8. The stars name was 'Wormwood'.
  9. Wormwood translated to the language of Ukraine is 'Chernobyl'.

🌀 Revelation 11:19-12:9,

"And the temple of God was opened in heaven: and the ark of his testament was seen in his temple. And there were lightnings and voices and an earthquake and great hail. (12:1) And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. (2) And being with child, she cried travailing in birth: and was in pain to be delivered. (3) And there was seen another sign in heaven. And behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns and on his heads seven diadems. (4) And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered: that, when she should be delivered, he might devour her son. (5) And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her son was taken up to God and to His throne. (6) And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared by God, that there they should feed her, a thousand two hundred sixty days. (7) And there was a great battle in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon fought, and his angels. (8) And they prevailed not: neither was their place found any more in heaven. (9) And that great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who seduceth the whole world. And he was cast unto the earth: and his angels were thrown down with him."

Whew! There is a lot of overt and covert meaning to those ten verses.

1. First of all, notice that we continue from the last verse of chapter 11 to the first verse of chapter 12.

This is because of that little word 'and' (kai in the Greek), the first word in 12:1, which ties the two chapters together, so that makes 12:1 a continuation of 11:9.

In 11:9 it is said that the Ark of the Covenant was seen in Heaven. Is that the wooden man-made ark of the Old Testament?

No, since the prophet Jeremiah hid it in Mount Nebo (2Maccabees 2:4-8). What was seen in Heaven is the New Ark.

Here is an interesting trivia question for you. Is there anything man-made in Heaven?

2. Who is the woman 'clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet'?

Remember to always hold to the context of a chapter.

There are four beings mentioned in those verses.

2a. There is a great red dragon mentioned in verse 3, and he is identified in verse 9 as the devil and Satan.

2b. There is the Archangel Michael, identified in verse 7.

2c. The man child who was to rule all nations with an iron rod in verse 5 could be none other than Jesus the Christ.

2d. The context demands that the fourth person be identified also as the Blessed Virgin Mary, who gave birth to Jesus the Christ.

Here is a flowchart representation of the 'woman' of Revelation 12:1.

3. Study of the book of Revelation could be likened to peeling back layers of a head of lettuce or an onion. As each layer is peeled back, it reveals a deeper layer of exegesis.

3a. The woman has been seen also as the Church as 'she cried travailing in birth: and was in pain to be delivered'. The Church which Jesus Christ founded has for almost 2000 years given birth to millions through Baptism, and not without travail, pain, and suffering.

3b. The woman has also been seen as Israel, since promised Messianic deliverance would come from inhabitants of Israel (Isaiah 26:16-21).

The Covert Bible, part III:

Do you realize that the Bible has some verses which have a covert or hidden meaning? These are sometimes not readily apparent to the average reader or Bible study student. However these covert meanings could shed a bit of light to understanding the message that Holy Scripture is presenting to us. Some of these meanings are definitive and others are of conjecture. They can be found in the beginning of Scripture and in the end (the bookends), and in many books in between.

Following are several examples.

I would not hesitate to say that there are probably hundreds more that would be beneficial as powerful teaching tools.

🌀 Genesis 28:16,

"Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place; and I did not know it." (17) And he was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

How many have glossed over these two verses and not seen the covert meaning?

It is the "House of GOD", and not the 'houses of GOD' that is the "Gate of Heaven".

There is only one GOD who dwells in only one house, not multiple houses.

See Psalms 127:1...as a refresher...

🌀 Genesis 29:3-4,

"and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place upon the mouth of the well. (4) Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They said, "We are from Haran."

Covertly, did you catch that phrase "My Brothers"?

Do not non-Catholics teach that the Blessed Virgin Mary had 'other children' because of the word 'brothers' mentioned in the New Testament?

Well, here we are in the Old Testament. Are those to whom Jacob spoke his blood brothers?

No! They were simple shepherds who were watering their sheep.

🌀 Exodus 9:6,

"And on the morrow the LORD did this thing; all the cattle of the Egyptians died, but of the cattle of the people of Israel not one died."

Exodus 9:19-20,

"Now therefore send, get your cattle and all that you have in the field into safe shelter; for the hail shall come down upon every man and beast that is in the field and is not brought home, and they shall die. (20) Then he who feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his slaves and his cattle flee into the houses."

Whoa! What is happening here? Verse 9:6 said that all of the cattle of the Egyptians died, but just a few verses later the Egyptians were urged to take their cattle to shelters if they did not want them to die.

Is this a Biblical conflict? Is this an error in the Bible?

THERE ARE NO ERRORS IN THE BIBLE, ONLY 'APPARENT' ERRORS.

So where is the 'apparent' here?

What is the covert message here?

It is the original language words used in Hebrew for the Old Testament, and Greek for the New Testament that were translated to the English word 'all'. In both Hebrew and Greek translations when the English word 'all' is used, it does not necessarily mean 'every', but 'many' or 'a great many'.

"What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun."

Ecclesiastes 1:9

🌀 Exodus 13:17,

"When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest the people repent when they see war, and return to Egypt."

This is a prime example of having to know Biblical geography and history in order to see the covert meaning of Exodus 13:17.

The land of the Philistines is now the land of the Palestines (Palestinians) and includes Gaza.

So GOD, who was leading the Exodus (Exodus 13:16, 21-22), led the Israelies away from Gaza by a longer route in order to avoid a possible war with the Philistines.

The Exodus is thought to have happened around 1440 B.C., over 3400 years ago.

Here we are 3400 years later and today the Israelites and Palestinians are still at it.

Perhaps that could be the worlds longest war.

🌀 Exodus 31:16-17,

"Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the sabbath, observing the sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant. It is a sign for ever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed."

How many have simply glossed over those two very important verses? Surely the sabbatarians have. Seventh-Day Adventists, sabbath keeping Baptists, and other non-Jewish sabbatarian sects have apparently ignored them completely.

To put those verses in context, GOD is speaking directly to Moses (Exodus 31:1).

It is so clear in those two verses that it is the Israelites, the Jews, who are commanded to keep the sabbath as a "perpetual covenant".

There is no verse in the entire Bible where GOD commands Gentiles (anyone other than a Jew), to keep the sabbath.

Next time when you are in conversation with sabbatarians who call themselves Christian, ask them if they are Jews.

If they are not, then the onus is upon them to show you the verse(s) where GOD commands Gentiles to keep the sabbath.

🌀 Numbers 30:1-16,

For brevity, I have included just a few verses of this important and interesting section of Holy Scripture.

I would suggest that the reader go to the Bible and read all sixteen verses to put them in the proper context.

(3) "Or when a woman vows a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by a pledge, while within her father's house, in her youth, (4) and her father hears of her vow and of her pledge by which she has bound herself, and says nothing to her; then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand."

(6) "And if she is married to a husband, while under her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself, (7) and her husband hears of it, and says nothing to her on the day that he hears; then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand."

Can you see the covert message in those verses?

The Blessed Virgin Mary, no doubt, knew the Old Testament very well and must have known about the vows.

Those verses provide justification for her to have taken a vow of perpetual virginity.

🌀 Isaiah 7:14,

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son and his name shall be called Emmanuel."

Ah, the famous prophesy of Isaiah, "Behold a virgin shall conceive".

The problem here is that in a few bibles the translation reads, "a young woman shall conceive".

The covert message that is evident with that translation is that Isaiah's prophesy becomes no prophesy at all since 'young women' conceive all of the time.

Not only that but a translation which reads "a young woman shall conceive" (the type), loses meaning with its antitype of Luke 1:26-38 and Luke 2:1-7, the story of the virgin birth of Jesus the Christ..

🌀 Matthew 5:1,

"Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him.

(2) And he opened his mouth and taught them..."

We have at least two important covert meanings hidden within those two verses.

1. Jesus 'went up upon a mountain'.

Throughout Holy Scripture, important things happened high on a mountain.

GOD give Moses the tablets of the Ten Commandments from high on a mountain (Exodus 31:18).

Moses is a type of Jesus Christ (Deuteronomy 18:15, Acts 3:22, 7:37).

The Transfiguration of Jesus took place on a high mountain (Matthew 17:1-8).

From a mountain Jesus gave us the Beatitudes.

2. After Jesus had sat down, He taught. In the following verses of Matthew 5, He taught the Beatitudes.

Jesus taught while sitting in the barque of Peter (Luke 5:3).

Sitting while teaching is a sign of teaching with authority.

Kings rule while sitting on thrones (1Kings 2:19).

Judges make decisions while sitting in judgment seats (John 19:13).

The Pope teaches infallibly on faith and morals while sitting in the Chair of Peter.

---

🌀 Matthew 12:30,

"He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters."

This is a covert message for non-Catholics who fail to see it at all.

Who does the gathering?

When a person gathers, that person ends up with one assembly or Church.

Jesus founded only one Church, and He said that we must be one.

Who does the scattering?

When a person scatters, that person ends up with multiple assemblies or sects.

There are now more than 39,000* sects in the world today that call themselves Christian.

How can those who have done the scattering, ever call themselves followers of the Bible?

*Global Christian Statistics, mid 2008, a Protestant publication. See line #43.

🌀 Matthew 17:8,

"And they lifting up their eyes, saw no one, but only Jesus."

This is the last verse of the story about the Transfiguration of Our Lord.

Are you troubled, worried, bothered, or upset over how things are going in the world today?

Then if you cannot remember anything else, please remember that one short verse.

It will give you much comfort, as it is the only thing that really matters.

The covert meaning is to blot out everything else by concentrating only on that one verse.

So when you are feeling down, lift up your eyes and see no one but Jesus the Christ.

🌀 Luke 2:7,

"And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn."

John 19:41,

"Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. (42) There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day for the sepulchre was nigh at hand."

Can you see the covert meaning of those three verses taken together?

He was born from a virgin womb.

He was buried in a virgin tomb.

Another note:

There was no place in the city for Him to be born (Bethlehem).

There was no place in the city for Him to die (Jerusalem).

He was crucified on Mount Calvary (Luke 23:33), which is outside of the walls of Jerusalem (Hebrews 13:12).

Yet one more note:

After His mother brought Him into the world she wrapped Him in swaddling clothes.

Then we see in Mark 15:46,

"And Joseph, buying fine linen and taking him down, wrapped him up in the fine linen and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewed out of a rock."

He was wrapped after He was born and wrapped after He died.

🌟 Luke 5:3,

"Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat."

There is a covert meaning to that verse that probably most people do not see.

Notice that there was more than one boat for Jesus to board but He chose Simon's. Why?

Could it be that Simon Peter held the primacy among the other Apostles?

It certainly adds to the fact that it was Simon Peter who was chosen to be the visible head of the Church which Jesus Christ founded (Matthew 16:18-19, John 21:15-19).

Could it be that the boat was to hold an important symbolic message to proper understanding of Holy Scripture?

We remember Noah's Ark, where the only people who were saved were those who were aboard it when the flood came (Hebrews 11:7, 1Peter 3:20, 2Peter: 2:5).

Notice that Jesus first sat down in the boat and then He taught from it.

Part of the interior of Catholic Churches is called the 'Nave'. It is the place of worship in the Church.

The word 'Nave' comes from the Latin word 'Navi' which means 'ship'. From the Latin word 'Naves' we get the plural word 'ships'.

Mark 4:36, "et dimittentes turbam adsumunt eum ita ut erat in navi et aliae naves erant cum illo."

Mark 4:36, "And sending away the multitude, they take him even as he was in the ship: and there were other ships with him."

As Christ taught from the boat of Saint Peter, so does the Catholic Church teach the Gospel to the whole world from the nave of the successor of Saint Peter.

🌀 Luke 10:16,

"He who hears you hears me, and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me."

Those are simple but oh so powerful words from Our Savior.

There is the obvious meaning to that verse, and there is the covert meaning that is not grasped by many.

First, establish the context. To whom was Jesus speaking?

The first verse in this chapter told us:

Luke 10:1,

"After this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to come."

So the Lord Himself appointed others to speak in His behalf.

Through Apostolic Succession it is the same today, men of His Church appointed by the Lord Himself to speak in His behalf.

The first six words of verse 16 are the promise of Jesus Christ that His Church would not, and could not, teach other than what He Himself has said and taught, and that could only be the fullness of truth.

Anything coming from the teaching of His Church comes from Him, and He is truth personified (John 14:6).

He speaks to His Church and His Church in turn speaks His Word to the whole world.

If you reject the word of His Church, then you have rejected His word, since His Church is His body (Ephesians 1:22-23, 5:23).

🌀 John 1:1,

"In the beginning was the Word: and the Word was with God: and the Word was God."

This is an extremely important verse since covertly it refutes three heresies.

1. The Word was there from the beginning. GOD is more than one person.
  2. The Word was with GOD. The Word is a distinct person.
  3. The Word was GOD. There is only one GOD.

🌀 John 2:4,

And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come."

Some interesting covert meaning is hidden in that one verse.

When Jesus called His mother "woman", He has acknowledged that He is the second Adam (1Corinthians 15:45), because it brings to mind the first words of Adam when he called Eve "woman".

Genesis 2:23,

Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man."

John 2:4 also implies that His mother is the second Eve.

After all, we have the first Adam and the New Adam.

And we have the first Eve, so the context demands that there must be the New Eve.

🌺 John 2:5,

"His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

The covert meaning to that verse is that Mary started Jesus in His ministry by saying. "Do whatever He tells you."

The miracle of Jesus changing water into wine at Cana did start His ministry:

John 2:11,

"This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him."

In the previous example of John 2:4, Jesus said, "My hour has not yet come."

Yet He acquiesced to His mother and performed His first miracle for all to see.

GOD obeyed His mother, a mere human creature.

One last note regarding John 2:5;

The words spoken by Mary in John 2:5 are the last words that she spoke in Holy Scripture.

However, her last words are words that we all should live by, as they are the gist of the message of the New Testament to "Do whatever HE tells you."

🌺 John 2:19-20,

"Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." (20) The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?"

John 2:20 is one of those verses which at first glance seems irrelevant. However, covertly it is extremely relevant.

Sometimes we must go outside of the Bible in order to understand just what it is teaching us.

Josephus,* a Jewish historian of the time, wrote that Herod started rebuilding the temple in the 18th year of his reign.

(Josephus, Antiquities, 15.11.1.) It was in 37 B.C. that Herod began his reign so his 18th year would be in 20 B.C.

when he started rebuilding the temple.

Now add 46 years to that date and it comes to 26 A.D. when Jesus started his ministry.

Remember also that when you go from B.C. to A.D. there is no year zero.

You go from 1 B.C. to 1 A.D..

* Flavius Josephus 37-101 A.D. was a Jew and a Jewish historian. He wrote many books about Jewish history from their very beginnings until the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.. His writings are valued by scholars, as some of what he wrote is the only source for some of the events. He also dated the events which very few writers in the early times did.

🌀 John 14:6,

"Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me."

Acts 9:1-2,

"But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest (2) and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem."

Acts 19:9,

"but when some were stubborn and disbelieved, speaking evil of the Way before the congregation, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the hall of Tyrannus."

Acts 19:23,

"About that time there arose no little stir concerning the Way."

Acts 24:14,

"But this I admit to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the law or written in the prophets,"

Acts 24:22, "But Felix, having a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case."

Jesus called Himself "the Way" in John 14:6.

The covert message in these verses is that His Christian movement, at first, was called "the Way".

🌀 Acts 12:16-17,

"But Peter continued knocking; and when they opened, they saw him and were amazed. (17) But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Tell this to James and to the brethren." Then he departed and went to another place."

There is a covert and conjecture mixture in those verses.

It would be helpful to keep the following verse in mind:

Matthew 10:23,

"And when they shall persecute you in this city, flee into another."

In the Acts verses, Peter had been under persecution and imprisoned, and was miraculously unchained and escaped.

So he was a wanted man and had to flee to another city.

"Then he departed and went to another place."

That other place had to be far enough away from those who persecuted him and it is thought that 'other place' was Rome.

St Luke wrote the book of Acts, and it is possible that he did not name the 'other place' because Emperor Claudius had commanded that all Jews depart from Rome (Acts 18:2), and Peter was a Jew.

🌀 The Book of Romans - all,

"St. Paul had not been at Rome when he wrote this epistle, which was in the year fifty-seven or fifty-eight..."

(Haydock* Introduction to Romans).

*Haydock Catholic Bible Commentary, 1859.

Also the Confraternity Catholic Bible intro to Romans lists the same dates and sets the place of writing in Corinth.

So the covert message here is that if the Church which Jesus Christ founded was not already established in Rome, then why did St. Paul write an epistle to the Romans at all?

He gave us a hint of who founded the Church in Rome in the following verses:

Romans 15:19-20,

" By the virtue of signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Ghost, so that from Jerusalem round about, as far as unto Illyricum, I have replenished the gospel of Christ. (20) And I have so preached this gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man a foundation."

St. Paul admitted that at this time he had not preached the Gospel any farther than Illyricum which is present day Dalmatia.

So obviously he was not to be found preaching in Rome by this time, but he hinted that another man laid a foundation that is no doubt in Rome, since here he is writing to the Romans. St. Peter was already in Rome as genuine historical writings show.

At the time of the writing of the Book of Romans, the Church in Rome was under great persecution and had to practice underground in the catacombs. Consequently, St. Paul would dare not reveal St. Peter's name for fear of jeopardizing his safety.

🌀 Romans 3:10-12,

As it is written: "None is righteous, no, not one; (11) no one understands, no one seeks for God. (12) All have turned aside, together they have gone wrong; no one does good, not even one."

Overtly these verses seem to say that none of us are righteous. Some teach that this is true.

However, the covert meaning of these verses is quite different.

The key to the correct understanding of these verses is in the first few words, "As it is written".

Paul is quoting Psalms 14:1-3, and Psalms 14 clearly refers to the righteous and the corrupt.
Psalms 14:1-3,

"To the choirmaster. Of David. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none that does good. (2) The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any that act wisely, that seek after God. (3) They have all gone astray, they are all alike corrupt; there is none that does good, no, not one."

Paul is talking about the corrupt, not all mankind.

Trivia for Psalms 14:1: "The fool says in his heart, "There is no God.""

Did you know that the people mentioned in that verse have their own holiday?

That is easy. It's April first.

🌸 1Thesalonians 5:23,

"And may the God of peace himself sanctify you in all things: that your whole spirit and soul and body may be preserved blameless in the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Here Saint Paul has separated a human person into its three distinct entities*.

*Entity: That which is perceived or known or inferred to have its own distinct existence.

Many times you have probably seen or heard of body and soul, or body and spiritual soul, in reference to a human person.

How many times have you seen them separated as in the verse above?

Covertly or by conjecture can you see a miniature trinity pattern for each human person?

🌸 James 2:10,

"For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one, he is guilty of all."

How many cafeteria Catholics see this covert message aimed directly at themselves?

How many simply ignore it?

This verse sends a strong message to those Catholics who accept some Catholic teaching and reject what they see as not befitting themselves.

The verse strongly admonishes all Catholics to either accept all of what the Church teaches, or they have rejected it all.

Remember:

"He who hears you hears me..."

So who are cafeteria Catholics really rejecting?

"To reject but one article of faith taught by the Church is enough to destroy faith, as one mortal sin is enough to destroy charity..."

St. Thomas Aquinas

Logical Discernment Can Be Both Positive and Negative At The Same Time.

Or If You Prefer,
Discernment is Perception of That Which is Obscure.

True meanings of some Bible verses can be made more manifest by using common sense and by coming to a logical conclusion. However, there are verses with reverse meanings that are sometimes not readily apparent. In some cases, those hidden meanings can be made more pronounced by using negative logic.

For example:

In 1Corinthians 10:16, St Paul had told us that the bread of which we break is the Body of the Lord. The Catholic Church teaches that the Body of Christ is truly present in the Holy Eucharist.

Then he said:

"Because the bread is one, we though many, are one body, all of us who partake of the one bread".

1Corinthians 10:17

That verse sounds superficially simple enough, but by applying negative logic, can we also say that those who do not partake of the one bread are not members of the one body?

Doesn't that verse fit perfectly with John 6:53-54 where Jesus, gave us his "true presence" discourse by saying, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

What about this verse?

"You are my friends if you do what I command you."

John 15:14

Negative logic would say, 'You are not my friends if you do not do what I command you'.

For some, by using negative logic, the verse may seem to have a much deeper meaning. Do you agree?

As you wend your way through Holy Scripture, do so slowly and apply negative logic to some verses that you have just read. You may be surprised to find that some verses do have a counter meaning if only you would apply negative logic and find subtle additional meanings that you may have missed completely. Holy Scripture in some verses does in fact have counter meanings, deeper meanings, that you may have not noticed the first time through and that you may open another door to deeper understanding of it.

This is merely yet another useful tool in order to glean a whole new world of understanding of Holy Scripture.

As I have written in another page of mine:

'In the Beginning, there was a little acorn tightly packed with layer upon layer of truth.'

For proper understanding of the depth of Holy Scripture these layers can be peeled back one by one using various methods. In this page I have presented one method which I have used many times on The Catholic Treasure Chest and what I have called Negative Logic.

Exegesis or Eisegesis...

Are you an Exegete or an Eisete?

Exegesis:

The investigation and study of Sacred Scripture through tradition, history, archaeology, and criticism, to find the true meaning.

Eisegesis:

Is the antonym for exegesis, which means reading into a text something that simply is not there.

So which are you, an Exegete or an Eisete?

Scripture warns us in so many verses,

DO NOT ADD TO OR DELETE FROM THE HOLY WORDS OF GOD:

That is a good definition of Exegesis, and here are several verses which back it up:

Deut 4:2, 12:32, Psa 12:7, 33:4, 50:16-17, 107:10-11, 119:57, 139-140, Prov 5:7, 30:5-6, Eccl 3:14, Jer 23:36, Gal 1:8-9, 1Pet 1:24-25, 2Pet 3:15-16, Rev 22:18-20.

Eisegesis would apply to all of those who ignore those listed verses and would omit knowing or unknowingly the warning above by deleting that little word NOT.

So which is the honest and truthful person here, the Exegete or the Eisete?

Here is a good example of what an Eisete would say that Holy Scripture says:

Revelation 17:1-9:

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who is seated upon many waters, (2) with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and with the wine of whose fornication the dwellers on earth have become drunk." (3) And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns. (4) The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and bedecked with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her fornication; (5) and on her forehead was written a name of mystery: "Babylon the great, mother of harlots and of earth's abominations." (6) And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her I marveled greatly. (7) But the angel said to me, "Why marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her. (8) The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is to ascend from the bottomless pit and go to perdition; and the dwellers on earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will marvel to behold the beast, because it was and is not and is to come. (9) This calls for a mind with wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated.

Ahh yes, that last line. I like the first part, "This calls for a mind with wisdom".

Let us see if it is the Exegete or the Eisegete who has that "mind with wisdom"?

The second part of verse 9 contains the false charge made by some non-Catholic Eisegetes that verse 9 "proves" that the "Whore of Babylon" could be none other than the Catholic Church, since it is situated in Rome the city of seven hills. Eisegetes have written books trying to tie the Catholic Church to the "Whore of Babylon". Not one of those authors used exegesis, but merely their usual practice of eisegesis, which is no more than their personal opinion.

What a great example is this verse 9 for showing the error of, and proof of the existence of Eisegetes. Let us delve into this one and see how many errors we can find with this sort of thinking, and we will be using Exegesis and common sense and not Eisegesis.

1. The city of Rome is not mentioned anywhere in the book of Revelation. Eisegetes reply?

2. The Catholic Church is not mentioned by name anywhere in the book of Revelation. Eisegetes reply?

3. Rome does indeed sit upon seven hills, and all at the time of writing of the book of Revelation were encompassed by the Servian wall erected in 387 B.C., and all are east of the Tiber river.

Go here for a map and a more detailed explanation. Eisegetes reply?

4. However there is an eighth hill in Rome appropriately called "Vatican Hill" where the seat of the Catholic Church is located.

Unfortunately for the eisegetes, that hill is west of the Tiber river and was not encompassed by Rome until 275 A.D., when the Aurelian wall was constructed hundreds of years after the book of Revelation was written.

Eisegetes reply?

5. But interestingly, there is one very well known city that sits upon seven hills and that city is Jerusalem. Eisegetes reply?

The word "Whore" has no Biblical connection whatsoever to the city of Rome, and here is the proof, as on that link there is a listing of every verse in the Bible that mentions Rome by name. Eisegetes reply?

6. Wow! But let us look at Jerusalem and see how many verses there are regarding it to being less than honorable.

Check that same link as above to see those verses. Eisegetes reply?

7. Now that you have seen all of the pertinent verses that apply to Jerusalem and those of Rome, which city seems to better fit the description that St. John presented in Revelation 17:1-9?

Eisegetes reply?

Bible Twisting by the Cults.

Bible Twisting:

There are at least 20 ways in which various cults, and others, 'twist' the Bible to suit 'their' own teaching. See 2Pet 3:15-16.

1. INACCURATE QUOTATION:

A biblical text is referred to but is either not quoted in the way the text appears in any standard translation or is wrongly attributed. Example:

The Maharishi Mahesh Yogi says, "Christ said, 'Be still and know that I am God.'" Whereas this text is found ONLY in Psalms. (Old Testament)

2. TWISTED TRANSLATION:

The biblical text is retranslated, not in accordance with sound Greek scholarship, to fit a preconceived teaching of a cult. Example:

The Jehovah's Witnesses translate John 1:1 as "In [the] beginning the Word was, and the Word was with God, and the word was 'a' god."

3. BIBLICAL HOOK:

A text of Scripture is quoted primarily as a device to grasp the attention of readers or listeners and then followed by a teaching which is so non biblical that it would appear far more dubious to most people had it not been preceded by a reference to Scripture. Example:

Mormon missionaries quote James 1:5 which promises God's wisdom to those who ask him, and then, follow this by explaining that when Joseph Smith did this he was given a revelation from which he concluded that God the Father has a body.

4. IGNORING THE IMMEDIATE CONTEXT:

A text of Scripture is quoted but removed from the surrounding verses which form the immediate framework for its meaning. Example:

Alan Watts quotes the first half of John 5:39 ("You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life"), claiming that Jesus was challenging His listeners over emphasis of the Old Testament, but the remainder of the immediate context reads, "and it is they that bear witness to me; yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life" (verses 39-40), which shows that Jesus was upholding the value of the Old Testament as a testimony to Himself.

5. COLLAPSING CONTEXTS:

Two or more verses which have little or nothing to do with each other are put together as if one were a commentary of the other(s). Example:

The Mormons associate Jeremiah 1:5 with John 1:2,14 and thus imply that both verses talk about the premortal existence of all human beings; Jeremiah 1:5, however, speaks of God's foreknowledge of Jeremiah (Not his premortal existence) and John 1:2 refers to the pre-existence of God the Son and not to human beings in general.

6. OVER SPECIFICATION:

A more detailed or specific conclusion than is legitimate is drawn from a biblical text. Example:

The Mormon missionary manual quotes the parable of the virgins from Matthew 25:1-13 to document the concept that "mortality is a probationary period during which we prepare to meet God." But the parable of the virgins could, and most probably does, mean something far less specific, for example, that human beings should be prepared at any time to meet God or to witness the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

7. WORD PLAY:

A word or phrase from a biblical translation is examined and interpreted as if the revelation had been given in that language. Example:

Mary Baker Eddy says the name Adam consists of two syllables, A DAM, which means an obstruction, in which case, Adam signifies "the obstacle which the serpent, sin, would impose between man and his Creator."

8. THE FIGURATIVE FALLACY:

Either (1) mistaking literal language for figurative language or (2) mistaking figurative language for literal language. Example of (1):

Mary Baker Eddy interprets EVENING as "mistiness of mortal thought; weariness of mortal mind; obscured views; peace and rest."

Example of (2):

The Mormon theologian James Talmage interprets the prophesy that "thou shalt be brought down and speak out of the ground" to mean that God's Word would come to people from the Book of Mormon which was taken out of the ground at the hill of Cumorah.

9. SPECULATIVE READINGS OF PREDICTIVE PROPHECY:

A predictive prophesy is too readily explained by the occurrence of specific events, despite the fact that equally committed biblical scholars consider the interpretation highly dubious. Example:

The stick of Judah and the Stick of Joseph in Ezekiel 37:15-23 are interpreted by the Mormons to mean the Bible and the Book of Mormon.

10. SAYING BUT NOT CITING:

A writer says that the Bible says such and such but does not cite the specific text (which often indicates that there may be no such text at all). Example:

A common phrase "God helps those who help themselves" is not found in the Bible.

11. SELECTIVE CITING:

To substantiate a given argument, only a limited number of text is quoted. The total teaching of Scripture on that subject would lead to a conclusion different from that of the writer. Example:

The Jehovah's Witnesses critique the traditional Christian notion of the Trinity without considering the full text which scholars use to substantiate the concept.

12. INADEQUATE EVIDENCE:

A hasty generalization is drawn from too little evidence. Example:

The Jehovah's Witnesses teach that blood transfusion is nonbiblical, but the biblical data that they cite fails either to speak directly to the issue or to adequately substantiate their teaching.

13. CONFUSED DEFINITION:

A biblical term is misunderstood in such a way that an essential biblical doctrine is distorted or rejected.

Example:

One of Edgar Cayce's followers confuses the eastern doctrine of reincarnation with the biblical doctrine of being born again.

14. IGNORING ALTERNATIVE EXPLANATIONS:

A specific interpretation given to a biblical text or set of text which could well be, and often have been, interpreted in quite a different fashion, but these alternatives are not considered. Example: Erich von Daniken asks why in Genesis 1:26 God speaks in the plural ("us"), suggesting that this is an oblique reference to God's being one of many astronauts and failing to consider alternative explanations that either God was speaking as "Heaven's king accompanied by His heavenly host" or that the plural prefigures the doctrine of the Trinity expressed more explicitly in the New Testament.

15. THE OBVIOUS FALLACY:

Words like OBVIOUSLY, UNDOUBTEDLY, CERTAINLY, ALL REASONABLE PEOPLE HOLD THAT, and so forth are substituted for logical reasons. Example:

Erich von Daniken says, "Undoubtedly the Ark [of the Covenant] was electrically charged!"

16. VIRTUE BY ASSOCIATION:

Either (1) a cult writer associates his or her teaching with those of figures accepted as authoritative by traditional Christians; (2) cult writings are likened to the Bible; or (3) cult literature imitates the form of the Bible writing such that it sounds like the Bible. Example of (1):

Rick Chapman list 21 gurus, including Jesus Christ, St. Francis and St. Theresa, that "you can't go wrong with." Example of (2):

Juan Mascaro in his introduction to the Upanishads cites the New Testament, the Gospels, Ecclesiastes and the Psalms, from which he quotes passages supposedly paralleling the Upanishads. Example of (3): The Mormon DOCTRINE AND COVENANTS 93 interweave phrases from the Gospel of John and maintains a superficial similarity to the Gospel such that it seems to be like the Bible.

17. ESOTERIC INTERPRETATION:

Under the assumption that the Bible contains hidden, esoteric, meaning which is open only to those who are initiated into its secrets, the interpreter declares the significance of biblical passages without giving much, if any, explanation for his or her interpretation. Example: Mary Baker Eddy gives the meaning of the first phrase in the Lord's Prayer, "Our Father which art in heaven," as "Our Father-Mother God, all harmonious."

18. SUPPLEMENTING BIBLICAL AUTHORITY:

New revelation from post biblical prophets either replaces or is added to the Bible as authority.

Example:

The Mormons supplement the Bible with the Book of Mormon, the Doctrine and Covenants and the Pearl of Great Price.

---

19. REJECTING BIBLICAL AUTHORITY:

Either the Bible as a whole or texts from the Bible are examined and rejected because they do not square with other authorities, such as reason or revelation, do not appear to agree with them. Example: Archie Matson holds that the Bible contains contradictions and that Jesus himself rejected the authority of the Old Testament when He contrasted His own views with it on the Sermon on the Mount.

20. WORLD-VIEW CONFUSION:

Scriptural statements, stories, commands or symbols which have a particular meaning or set of meanings when taken within the intellectual and broadly cultural framework of the Bible itself are lifted out of that context, placed within the frame of reference of another system and thus given a meaning that markedly differs from their intended meaning. Example:

The Maharishi Mahesh Yogi interprets "Be still, and know that I am God" as meaning that each person should meditate and come to the realization that he is essentially Godhood itself.

The Importance of The Word.

"The beginning is the power of the Word".
Tatian, Address to the Greeks, 165 A.D.

---

"In the beginning was the Word: and the Word was with God: and the Word was God."

John 1:1

"And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us and we saw his glory, the glory as it were of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth."

John 1:14

---

---

Elucidation:

- 1. The Word is a person, the person of Jesus Christ. John 1:1,14
  - 2. Truth is a person, the person of Jesus Christ. John 14:6
  - 3. Therefore, a word spoken by Jesus Christ is the truth.
  - 4. "Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority; but the Father who dwells in me does his works." John 14:10
  - 5. The power of the word, "Arise, take up thy bed and walk." John 5:8, Acts 3:6
  - 6. The power of the word, "Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." John 20:22-23
  - 7. The Word of GOD came to us in truth in all its beauty.
  - 8. But look what mere human beings are trying to do to it.

Since we are all called "the salt of the earth (Matt 5:13)", and salt is used as a preservative, it is our duty to preserve the Word of GOD in all of its purity.

Wording problems arise when translating from one language to another:

Not often enough do words in one language have the same exact meaning as a complimentary word in a second language. Saint Jerome recognized this problem when he translated Greek and Hebrew Biblical texts into Latin and produced the first Christian Bible, the Latin Vulgate. Hebrew is a comparatively simple language with few words. But the words can have different meanings depending on the context in which they are used. Koine Greek (Greek used at the time of Christ) however, is a complex language where several words could have a similar meaning. Now when Greek is translated into English, we run into several problems. Here are two examples:

1. "all have sinned" (Rom 3:23). The Greek word 'pas' used here could mean all, or a great many, or any. The translators chose the English word 'all', when clearly that verse does not mean every single person, as there are exceptions as shown in the link 'all'.
2. "Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joseph, and Jude, and Simon?" (Mark 6:3). In Greek, in which the Gospel of Mark was written, the word 'brother' used here is 'adelphos', meaning a blood brother, or belonging to the same people, or a countryman, or a fellow believer. Even today, the word is used in a larger meaning, so that friends, allies, fellow believers, and fellow citizens can be included in the same brotherhood. It was no different in the time of Christ.

In both of these examples, if we assume that the Bible was originally written in English, as many people seem to believe, then the meanings are taken at face value. However when we go to the original Greek, the English translation falls apart.

An even worse translation problem arose when we read a verse that was translated from its original Aramaic, to Greek, and finally to English. Go here for the details.

Here is an example of accurate wording, versus an inaccurate nuance:

It cannot be stressed enough that His undefiled word must be preserved in all of its purity. A slight change in one word can change the true meaning of a Scripture verse or even an entire passage.

For example:

2Thess 2:15 reads,

"So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter."

Since 2Thess was originally written in Greek we can go to the Greek and find which word was used by St. Paul for the word 'traditions':

That Greek word is 'paradosis', and it means, "that which is handed down, tradition, giving over which is done by word of mouth or in writing."

Some Bibles have substituted the word 'teachings' for traditions. Now by doing this can you see the subtle change in the meaning of that verse?

1. 'Tradition', something which is handed down from generation to generation, clearly brings time into the equation.
2. 'Teachings' could bring to mind contemporary teaching and with no sense of time.
3. The leaders of the reformation, in separating themselves from the Catholic Church, knew that they could not claim Apostolic Tradition, so some of their leaders simply lumped together all tradition, Apostolic Tradition, and man-made tradition, and denied both.
4. Consequently, by that one word change of some Bible translations, Apostolic Tradition whether by word or by letter was denied by some non-Catholic sects.

When in dialogue with others:

At the beginning of every discussion is the understanding of the meaning of the word.

Prov 16:23, A wise person's heart controls his speech, and what he says helps others learn.

When writing:

No matter how hard you try, the simple fact of the matter is, "It is not possible to put together any selection of words in which some ingenious person may find a meaning not meant by the writer of the verse." A quote from Frank Sheed.

Job 18:2, "How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and then we will speak."

Prov 16:20, "He who gives heed to the word will prosper, and happy is he who trusts in the LORD."

Prov 16:21, "The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and he that is sweet in words, shall attain to greater things."

When reading Holy Scripture:

Thou shalt interpret Holy Scripture according to the meaning of the words in the languages that they were written, and not necessarily the English translation of them today. Meanings of some words change over time.

One recent example of the meaning of a word changing is the word 'gay'.

You must take into account the senses of Scripture. Many verses and passages have more than one sense.

It is context context context. So many verses are taken out of context, and one word or phrase is used to try to 'prove' a case that is simply not there. One example is "Call no man your father" in Matt 23:9.

The whole Bible is harmonious and a verse of interest to you must be compared with other verses to get the proper meaning. For instance in John 14:28, Jesus said, "The Father is Greater than I". Yet in John 10:30, Jesus said, "I and the Father are one". There is an apparent conflict here for the uninformed. Jehovah's witnesses accept John 14:28, but reject John 10:30, thereby downgrading Jesus to being a lesser GOD than the Father. However, the informed can see no problem here simply because Jesus is a divine person with two natures. He could speak in His divine nature as GOD in John 10:30, and in His human nature as man in John 14:28. Consequently, there is no conflict between these two verses when the harmony of the Bible is taken into the context.

Then there is the danger of using Eisegesis (eye-si JEE-sis), an interpretation of Scripture, that expresses the interpreters own opinions, bias, etc., rather than the true meaning of what the author had intended.

One prime example of those using Eisegesis is that "Jesus did not know He was divine until he was older". Where is that in the Bible?

Another tool of Scripture word study is Exegesis, which is the investigation and study of Sacred Scripture through Tradition, history, archaeology, and criticism, to find the true meaning. The antonym for exegesis is eisegesis which means reading into a text something that simply is not there.

"And they read in the book of the law of God distinctly and plainly to be understood: and they understood when it was read."

Neh 8:8

When teaching Holy Scripture:

Be careful because you are dealing with GOD's Holy Word. Make sure that you have an accurate Bible translation.

Conform your teaching to Holy Scripture and do not try to twist Holy Scripture to conform to your personal opinion.

View this prime example of twisting Holy Scripture to conform to false teaching.

We Learn:

Only 10% of what we read.

20% of what we hear.

30% of what we see.

50% of what we both see and hear.

70% of what is discussed with others.

80% of what we experience personally.

95% of what we teach to someone else.

(figures by William Glaser)

You learn best by teaching because when you have to teach someone, you have to make sure that your wording is true and correct. You are teaching others who may in turn teach yet many more. Teaching others is a great responsibility. Teachers can easily lead many astray with false teaching. You must not teach something that is simply not true. Remember that the truth can always be proven but the lie cannot.

According to an old saying, "What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied." In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof." Also you will want to avoid the embarrassing situation of being corrected by a well informed student.

"Add not any thing to his words, lest thou be reprov'd and found a liar." Proverbs 30:6

Be aware of the pitfalls and traps of trying to use modern dictionaries to define Biblical words:

Here is a prime example of using a modern dictionary to 'interpret' a Biblical word:

The word "Blessed" means a favor dispensed by GOD on a person, place, or object. Notice the GOD intone.

A modern dictionary lists: "Blessed" as:

1. Holy

2. Held in veneration

3. Revered

4. Happiness.

Jehovah's Witnesses obviously took advantage of a modern dictionary in order to deliberately downgrade the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In their bible called the 'New World Translation' (NWT), they translated Luke 1:48 which in other Bibles have, "all generations will (or shall) call me blessed", to "all generations will pronounce me happy". Notice that they chose the fourth contemporary meaning, and ignored the more important first three meanings. Where in this verse is the GOD intone in the NWT? Their translation even sounds strange and makes little or no sense.

---

Are you simply hearing, or are you listening?

When a person is speaking, are you hearing or listening to him or to her? Did you know there is a difference?

Hearing is sensing any sound, a noise, a voice, etc.. If the sound happens to be words from another person, you may not be attentive to the text being presented. Hearing is easy. We cannot help but hear. Why did GOD give us eyelids so we could block out sight, but He neglected to give us built in earplugs or a switch to block out sound? Consequently, we will hear every sound that is presented to our ears.

Listening however, involves being more aware of the words and their meaning that are presented to us by a speaker.

In contrast to hearing, listening is more involved. It requires the brain to work harder. Consequently if we are merely hearing someone speak, we may or may not comprehend what they are really saying. By listening, we have a much better chance of understanding their message.

Or are some deliberately prone to ignore verses which do not agree with their false teaching?

One glaring example is Gal 1:8-9, a warning from GOD that is so important that it is repeated twice, a rarity in Holy Scripture:

Gal 1:8 "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach a gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema." Gal 1:9 "As we said before, so now I say again: If any one preach to you a gospel, besides that which you have received, let him be anathema."

Elucidation:

1. 'Let him be anathema' means let him be accursed or excommunicated.
  2. Mormonism claims an angel from heaven, Moroni, supposedly brought another gospel, The Book of Mormon (BOM), to Joseph Smith.
  3. Neither did St. Paul nor any other Apostle preach the BOM to anyone.
  4. Ask a Mormon to explain Gal 1:8-9 to you.
  5. The words of GOD in these two verses are clearly written and are repeated for emphasis, and yet are still ignored by some who would rather follow the false prophet.

Our built in filtering system:

GOD gave us two ears but only one mouth so we would listen to Him twice more than what we say to Him.

What we hear enters the ear, and what we read enters the eye, and both are filtered by the brain and stored. Since each person is a unique human being, these filtering systems can vary from person to person. What one interprets after it is filtered can be different from what another interprets, thus a difference of opinion results.

Job 34:2, "Hear my words, you wise men, and give ear to me, you who know;"

Job 34:3, "for the ear tests words as the palate tastes food."

Eze 3:10, "Moreover he said to me, "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.""

---

GOD's relationship with those who follow His Word to the letter:

Prov 23:16, "My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right."

Psa 119:57, "The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep thy words."

Luk 24:8, "And they remembered his words,"

1Cor 2:13, "And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who possess the Spirit."

Rev 1:3, "Blessed is he who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written therein; for the time is near."

Deut 29:9, "Therefore be careful to do the words of this covenant, that you may prosper in all that you do."

2Tim 1:13, "Follow the pattern of the sound words which you have heard from me, in the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus;"

2Tim 1:14, "guard the truth that has been entrusted to you by the Holy Spirit who dwells within us."

Job 26:4, "With whose help have you uttered words, and whose spirit has come forth from you?"

Rev 22:6, "And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place.""

Rev 22:7, "And behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

Rev 22:9, "but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brethren the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God.""

John 15:7, "If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you."

Mat 12:37, "for by your words you will be justified,"

---

What does Scripture say about those who refuse to follow the Word of GOD to the letter?:

Prov 14:7, "Leave the presence of a fool, for there you do not meet words of knowledge."

Psa 119:139, "My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget thy words."

Jer 7:8, "Behold, you trust in deceptive words to no avail."

Jer 23:36, "But 'the burden of the LORD' you shall mention no more, for the burden is every man's own word, and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God."

Jer 23:16, "Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you, filling you with vain hopes; they speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.""

Jer 25:8, "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words,"

Jer 25:9, "behold, I will send for all the tribes of the north, says the LORD, and for Nebuchadrez'zar the king of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about; I will utterly destroy them, and make them a horror, a hissing, and an everlasting reproach."

Jer 22:5, "But if you will not heed these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation."

John 8:47, "He who is of God hears the words of God; the reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God."

Eze 35:13, "And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it."

Eph 5:6, "Let no one deceive you with empty words, for it is because of these things that the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience."

Prov 19:7, "The brethren of the poor man hate him: moreover also his friends have departed far from him. He that followeth after words only, shall have nothing."

Deut 28:58, "If you are not careful to do all the words of this law which are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awful name, the LORD your God,"

2Pet 2:3, "And in their greed they will exploit you with false words; from of old their condemnation has not been idle, and their destruction has not been asleep."

Deut 28:15, "But if thou wilt not hear the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep and to do all his commandments and ceremonies, which I command thee this day, all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee."

Prov 29:20, "Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him."

Prov 19:27, "Cease, my son, to hear instruction only to stray from the words of knowledge."

Josh 1:18, "Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

Eze 2:6, "And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you sit upon scorpions; be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house."

Eze 2:7, "And you shall speak my words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear; for they are a rebellious house."

1Tim 6:3, "If any one teaches otherwise and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching which accords with godliness,"

1Tim 6:4, "he is puffed up with conceit, he knows nothing; he has a morbid craving for controversy and for disputes about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, base suspicions,"

1Tim 6:5, "and wrangling among men who are depraved in mind and bereft of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain."

John 14:24, "He who does not love me does not keep my words; and the word which you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me."

Mat 12:37, "by your words you will be condemned."

Tit 3:9-11, "But avoid stupid controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels over the law, for they are unprofitable and futile. As for a man who is factious, after admonishing him once or twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is perverted and sinful; he is self-condemned."

Some additional notes regarding the importance of using the correct wording:

Fine words are no substitute for fine deeds.

What cannot be understood, never can edify.

The hardest thing to open is a closed mind.

But a spark or word at the right time can open a closed mind.

The Word, (the Son) does not exist without a speaker (the Father), and one cannot be a speaker without a breath (the Holy Spirit).

What does Holy Scripture teach us regarding correct wording?:

Job 13:17, "Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration be in your ears."

Deut 12:28, "Be careful to heed all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you for ever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God."

Out of Kontext = Out of Kilter...

Bible Christians teach that the Bible is all that is needed as it, 'makes the man of GOD perfect, equipped for every good work'. 2Tim 3:17

They also teach that proper interpretation of the Bible is essential, yet each does his own private interpretation.

They also teach one of the basic rules of Bible interpretation...

"Thou shalt not take Holy Scripture out of context."

This is what they 'say', but it is not what they 'do', especially when they wish to attack the Catholic Church.

Then, there is no such word in their vocabulary as "context".

Points in question:

1. 2 Tim 3:16-17 ONLY is what they point to to try and prove their false 'Bible Only' doctrine called Sola Scriptura.

See 'For Whom the Bell Tolls' on this website. This file puts these verses IN context. When taken in context, the meaning is just the opposite of what Bible Christians teach.

2. 1Tim 2:5 ONLY is quoted by non-Catholic Bible Christians to 'prove' that they go to Jesus Alone and there is no need whatsoever for another 'mediator' as this one verse indicates.

See 'There is Only One Mediator'. It puts the out of context verse, used by Bible Christians, back into context and there again the true meaning of this verse is quite different from what they claim it is.

3. Mark 6:3 ONLY is quoted by Bible Christians to 'prove' that the Blessed Virgin Mary had other children. Not only do they take it out of context, but they also ignore another rule of the Bible, "Thou shalt interpret Holy Scripture with the meaning of the words used THEN and not the meaning of the words NOW."

See 'Genealogy of the Brethren'. This file puts that one verse in context and shows who the real parents of the 'brothers' and 'sisters' of Jesus Christ were, and it is all right from Scripture. Also see 'Mary's Perpetual Virginity' for more on this subject.

4. Matt 11:11 ONLY is quoted to try and deliberately downgrade the Blessed Virgin Mary. If the accusers would only put this verse in context by reading from Matt 11:7-15, they would clearly see that Jesus was not talking about His Mother at all, but about the prophets.

---

5. Matt 23:9 ONLY is quoted to 'prove' that Catholics violate this explicit verse because they call a priest 'Father'. Once again, this one verse is taken out of context. When put in context and when not ignoring other teachings of the Bible regarding 'Father', the meaning of this one verse is quite different.

See 'Call No Man Your Father'. It puts that one verse in context, and again, the meaning is quite different from what Bible Christians charge.

6. Ex 20:4 ONLY is quoted to 'prove' Catholics worship statues. Once again, this verse is taken out of the context of the whole. When put in proper context, the meaning AGAIN is not what Bible Christians claim it to be.

See 'Those Catholics Worship Idols'. It puts Ex 20:4 in context and once again, the meaning is not what Bible Christians say it means.

7. Matt 6:7 ONLY is quoted to 'prove' Catholics practice repetitious prayers, such as the Rosary. This is yet another example of taking one verse out of context and ignoring the context of the Bible. See, 'Why Pray to Blessed Mary' for the true meaning of Matt 6:7.

---

8. Acts 15:13 ONLY is quoted to 'prove' that the primacy of the Apostles was given to James and not to Peter. This argument is so weak, it is non-existent. Literally scores of Bible verses attest to the fact that Peter indeed was given primacy, and he was given this honor by GOD Himself. Here are many more verses ignored by non-Catholic Bible Christians.

See 'The Primacy of Peter'. That link is like swatting a false charge 'fly' with an 'elephant'.

Other non-Catholic Bible Christian charges answered on this website...

1. Peter was never in Rome. Oh No? Read this, 'Peter in Rome'.
  2. The Catholic Church was never given authority. Wrong again! See 'Who Has The Authority?'
  3. The Catholic Church is not the true Church. Wrong still! See 'Catholic', and many others in the Church category'.
  4. There is no record of Popes back to St. Peter. Then what is this? See 'Popes, The unbroken Line'.
  5. Mary was not Immaculately Conceived. Sorry, but she was, see 'Immaculate Conception'.
  6. We should not honor Mary. Why not? See many files under 'Blessed Virgin Mary's Corner'.
  7. Purgatory does not exist. You will believe that it does when you get there. See 'Purgatory'.
  8. There is no true presence. It is only a symbol. Oh Yeah? See 'John Chapter 6' and my challenges.
  9. Catholics added 7 books to the Bible. Another false charge. See 'The Deuters'.

The Pendant...

By Fr. David Moser...

Picture a beautiful jeweled pendant. The centerpiece is a brilliant flawless diamond and it is set in pure radiant gold, intricately worked and designed to set off the diamond in its greatest beauty. Surrounding the diamond are carefully chosen stones, lesser gems, but no less flawless and beautiful, rubies, emeralds, sapphires, pearls, etc. These are chosen and arranged to compliment and augment the brilliance of the diamond and in no way detract from the diamond's beauty, but rather everything together presents a beautiful whole.

The pendant is the whole of Holy Tradition, which is the expression of the revelation of Christ in the Church. The central diamond is the Holy Scripture and the surrounding gems and gold are the lives of the saints, the writings of the fathers, the services and traditions of the Church. Now if someone were to see this pendant who did not like pearls, he might think to himself, "if only we took off the pearls, this would be much better" and if he did so we would still have a beautiful pendant but somehow lessened.

Then perhaps portions of the pendant are allowed to become tarnished so that they no longer reveal their beauty and instead of cleaning off the tarnish and restoring the gems, those portions are removed - perhaps even replaced by rhinestones. Then along comes someone else who doesn't like emeralds and removes all the emeralds. And again along comes someone else who removes the remaining sapphires etc. Finally someone views this once beautiful pendant and not having seen its former beauty thinks that it is an ugly thing but the diamond is beautiful and so removes the diamond and trashes the rest.

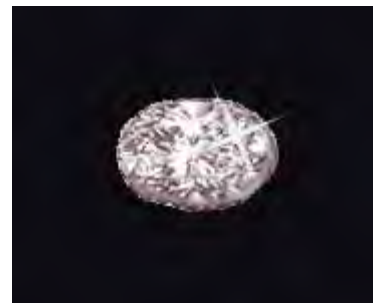

The diamond is still beautiful, brilliant and valuable. It is set apart and displayed by itself - a truly beautiful thing, rescued from an ugly setting. But only those who never saw the original setting could say that for the diamond, when removed from the pendant is somehow lessened and there is no longer the gold work and the other gems to set it off and make it a part of a greater whole.

This is what has happened to the Holy Scriptures in the protestant Church. Slowly, gradually all of Holy Tradition has been stripped away either because someone didn't like this or that piece or perhaps the true beauty of a portion was tarnished and it was tossed away without knowing its true value or perhaps a cheap substitute attempting to replace that which was lost, was done away with etc., until all that remains of the Tradition of the Church is the Bible.

And so they have it - a beautiful gem of the Church but out of context, out of place and its true beauty, revealed by the setting, is lost and in fact the horror stories of the distorted condition of that setting have led to the opinion that this gem is better off without and any attempts to place it back in context are resisted, in some cases violently.

I hope this little story helps to provide some understanding of how the Holy Scripture is a part (a beautiful, brilliant, central part) of Holy Tradition and to remove it from the context of Tradition is to lessen it and hide its true beauty.

Fr. Damen's Famous Homily...

The Church or the Bible by Fr. Arnold Damen, S.J. (1815-1890)

Introduction...

The following sermon is as relevant today as it was over 100 years ago when it was first preached by Father Arnold Damen, S.J. That Father Damen's message was and still is a challenge to the many who pride themselves "Bible-and-Bible-alone Christians" is evident from the title, "The Church or the Bible." "One cannot have God for his Father, who will not have the Church for his Mother," and likewise one cannot have the Word of God for his faith who will not have the Church for his teacher. It is the infallible teaching authority of the Church, as promised by Christ, which alone preserves God's Word from erroneous interpretation. This is the essence of the zealous priest's doctrine. It is also the essence of true Christianity, as Father Damen amply proves from Scripture itself and from just plain common sense. Every sincere Bible reader deserves to know the true relation God has established between His Church and Holy Scripture. We, therefore, invite all who love the Bible to read Father Damen's exposition with an open mind, lest while reading the Scriptures "they wrest them to their own destruction."

I. Dearly Beloved Christians: --- When our Divine Saviour sent His Apostles and His Disciples throughout the whole universe to preach the Gospel to every creature, He laid down the conditions of salvation thus: "He that believeth and is baptized," said the Son of the Living God, "shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be condemned" (Mark 16:16). Here, then, Our Blessed Lord laid down the two conditions of salvation: Faith and Baptism. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that believeth not shall be condemned --- or is damned. Hence, then, two conditions of salvation: Faith and Baptism.

I will speak this evening on the condition of Faith. We must have Faith in order to be saved, and we must have Divine Faith, not human faith. Human faith will not save a man, but only Divine Faith. What is Divine Faith? It is to believe, upon the authority of God, the truths that God has revealed; that is Divine Faith. To believe all that God has taught upon the authority of God, and to believe without doubting, without hesitation; for the moment you commence to doubt or hesitate, that moment you commence to mistrust the authority of God, and, therefore, insult God by doubting His word. Divine Faith, therefore, is to believe without doubting, without hesitating. Human faith is when we believe a thing upon the authority of men --- on human authority. That is human faith. But Divine Faith is to believe without doubting, without hesitating, whatsoever God has revealed upon the authority of God, upon the word of God. Therefore, my dear people, it is not a matter of indifference what religion a man professes, providing he be a good man. You hear it said nowadays in this Nineteenth Century of little faith that it matter not what religion a man professes, providing he be a good man. That is heresy, my dear people, and I will prove it to you to be such.

If it be a matter of indifference what a man believes, providing he be a good man, why then it is useless for God to make any revelation whatever. If a man is at liberty to reject what God revealeth, what use for Christ to send out His Apostles and disciples to teach all nations, if those nations are at liberty to believe or reject the teachings of the Apostles or disciples? You see at once that this would be insulting God. If God reveals a thing or teaches a thing, He means to be believed. He wants to be believed whenever He teaches or reveals a thing.

Man is bound to believe whatsoever God has revealed, for, my dear people, we are bound to worship God, both with our reason and intellect, as well as with our heart and will. God is master of the whole man. He claims his will, his heart, his reason, and his intellect. Where is the man in his reason, no matter what denomination, church, or religion he belongs to, that will deny that we are bound to believe what God has taught? I am sure there is not a Christian who will deny that we are bound to believe whatsoever God has revealed. Therefore, it is not a matter of indifference what religion a man professes. He must profess that true religion if he would be saved. But what is the true religion? To believe all that God has taught.

I am sure that even my Protestant friends will admit this is right; for, if they do not, I would say they are no Christians at all. "But what is the true Faith?" "The true Faith," say Protestant friends, "is to believe in the Lord Jesus." Agreed, Catholics believe in that. Tell me what you mean by believing in the Lord Jesus? "Why," says my Protestant friend, "you must believe that He is the Son of the Living God." Agreed again. Thanks be to God, we can agree on something. We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God, that He is God. To this we all agree, excepting the Unitarians and Socinians, but we will leave them alone tonight. If Christ be God, then we must believe all He teaches. Is this not so, my dearly beloved Protestant brethren and sisters? And that's the right Faith, isn't it? "Well, yes," says my Protestant friend, "I guess that is the right Faith. To believe that Jesus is the Son of the Living God we must believe all that Christ has taught." We Catholics say the same, and here we agree again. Christ, then, we must believe, and that is the true Faith. We must believe all that Christ has taught --- that God has revealed --- and, without that Faith there is no salvation; without that Faith there is no hope of Heaven; without that Faith there is eternal damnation! We have the words of Christ for it: "He that believeth not shall be condemned," says Christ.

II. But if Christ, my dearly beloved people commands me under pain of eternal damnation to believe all that He has taught, He must give me the means to know what He has taught. If, therefore, Christ commands me upon pain of eternal damnation, He is bound to give me the means of knowing what He has taught. And the means Christ gives us of knowing this must have been at all times within the reach of all people.

Secondly, the means that God gives us to know what He has taught must be a means adapted to the capacities of all intellects --- even the dullest. For even those of the dullest of understandings have a right to salvation, and consequently they have a right to the means whereby they shall learn the truths that God has taught, that they may believe them and be saved. The means that God give us to know what he has taught must be an infallible means. For if it be a means that can lead us astray, it can be no means at all. It must be an infallible means, so that if a man makes use of that means, he will infallibly, without fear of mistake or error, be brought to a knowledge of all the truths that God has taught. I don't think there can be anyone present here --- I care not what he is, a Christian or an unbeliever --- who can object to my premises. And these premises are the groundwork of my discourse and of all my reasoning, and, therefore, I want you to bear them in mind. I will repeat them, for on these premises rests all the strength of my discourse and reasoning. If God commands me under pain of eternal damnation to believe all that He has taught, He is bound to give my the means to know what He has taught. And the means that God gives me must have been at all times within the reach of all people -- must be adapted to the capacities of all intellects, must be an infallible means to us, so that if a man makes use of it he will be brought to a knowledge of all the truths that God has taught.

III. Has God given us such means? "Yes," say my Protestant friends, "He has." And so says the Catholic: God has given us such means. What is the means God has given us whereby we shall learn the truth that God has revealed? "The Bible," say my Protestant friends, "the Bible, the whole of the Bible, and nothing but the Bible." But we Catholics say, "No; not the Bible and its private interpretation, but the Church of the Living God." I will prove the facts, and I defy all my separated brethren --- and all the preachers in the bargain --- to disprove what I will say tonight.

I say, then, it is not the private interpretation of the Bible that has been appointed by God to be the teacher of man, but the Church of the Living God. For, my dear people, if God has intended that man should learn His religion from a book --- the Bible --- surely God would have given that book to man; Christ would have given that book to man. Did He do it? He did not. Christ sent His Apostles throughout the whole universe and said: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Christ did not say, "Sit down and write Bibles and scatter them over the earth, and let every man read his Bible and judge for himself." If Christ had said that, there would never have been a Christianity on the earth at all, but a Babylon and confusion instead, and never one Church, the union of one body. Hence, Christ never said to His Apostles, "Go and write Bibles and distribute them, and let everyone judge for himself." That injunction was reserved for the Sixteenth Century, and we have seen the result of it. Ever since the Sixteenth Century there have been springing up religion upon religion, and churches upon churches, all fighting and quarreling with one another. And all because of the private interpretation of the Bible. Christ sent His Apostles with authority to teach all nations, and never gave them any command of writing the Bible. And the Apostles went forth and preached everywhere, and planted the Church of God throughout the earth, but never thought of writing. The first word written was by Saint Matthew, and he wrote for the benefit of a few individuals. He wrote the Gospel about seven years after Christ left this earth, so that the Church of God, established by Christ, existed seven years before a line was written of the New Testament. Saint Mark wrote about ten years after Christ left this earth; Saint Luke about twenty-five years, and Saint John about sixty-three years after Christ had established the Church of God. Saint John wrote the last portion of the Bible --- the Book of Revelation --- about sixty-five years after Christ had left this earth and the Church of God had been established. The Catholic religion had existed sixty-five years before the Bible was completed, before it was written.

Now, I ask you, my dearly beloved separated brethren, were these Christian people, who lived during the period between the establishment of the Church of Jesus and the finishing of the Bible, were they really Christians, good Christians, enlightened Christians? Did they know the religion of Jesus? Where is the man that will dare to say that those who lived from the time that Christ went up to Heaven to the time that the Bible was completed were not Christians? It is admitted on all sides, by all denominations, that they were the very best of Christians, the first fruit of the Blood of Jesus Christ. But how did they know what they had to do to save their souls? Was it from the Bible that they learned it? No, because the Bible was not written. And would our Divine Saviour have left His Church for sixty-five years without a teacher, if the Bible is the teacher of man? Most assuredly not. Were the Apostles Christians, I ask you, my dear Protestant friends? You say, "Yes, sir; they were the very founders of Christianity."

Now, my dear friends, none of the Apostles ever read the Bible; not one of them except perhaps, Saint John. For all of them had died martyrs for the Faith of Jesus Christ and never saw the cover of a Bible. Every one of them died martyrs and heroes for the Church of Jesus before the Bible was completed. How, then, did those Christians that lived in the first sixty-five years after Christ ascended --- how did they know what they had to do to save their souls? They knew it precisely in the same way that you know it, my dear Catholic friends. You know it from the teachings of the Church of God, and so did the primitive Christians know it.

IV. Not only sixty-five years did Christ leave the Church He had established without a Bible, but over three hundred years. The Church of God was established and went on spreading itself over the whole globe without the Bible for more than three hundred years. In all that time the people did not know what constituted the Bible. In the days of the Apostles there were many false gospels. There was the Gospel of Simon, the Gospel of Nicodemus, of Mary, of Barnabas, and the Gospel of the Infancy of Jesus. All of these gospels were spread among the people, and the people did not know which of these were inspired and which were false and spurious. Even the learned themselves were disputing whether preference should be given to the Gospel of Simon or that of Matthew --- to the Gospel of Nicodemus or the Gospel of Mark, the Gospel of Mary or that of Luke, the Gospel of the Infancy of Jesus or the Gospel of Saint John the Evangelist.

And so it was in regard to the epistles: Many spurious epistles were written, and the people were at a loss for over three hundred years to know which was false or spurious, or which inspired. And, therefore, they did not know what constituted the books of the Bible. It was not until the Fourth Century that the Pope of Rome, the Head of the Church, the successor of Saint Peter, assembled together the Bishops of the world in a council. And there in that council it was decided that the Bible, as we Catholics have it now, is the Word of God, and that the Gospels of Simon, Nicodemus, Mary, the Infancy of Jesus, and Barnabas, and all those other epistles were spurious or, at least, unauthentic; at least, that there was no evidence of their inspiration, and that the Gospels of Saints Luke, Matthew, Mark and John, and the Book of Revelation, were inspired by the Holy Ghost.

Up to that time the whole world for three hundred years did not know what the Bible was; hence, they could not take the Bible for their guide, for they did not know what constituted the Bible. Would our Divine Saviour, if He intended man to learn his religion from a book, have left the Christian world for three hundred years without that book? Most assuredly not.

V. Not only for three hundred years was the world left without the Bible, but for one thousand four hundred years the Christian world was left without the Sacred Book. Before the art of printing was invented, Bibles were rare things; Bibles were costly things. Now, you must all be aware, if you have read history at all, that the art of printing was invented only a little more than four hundred years ago --- about the middle of the Fifteenth Century --- and about one hundred years before there was a Protestant in the world. As I have said, before printing was invented books were rare and costly things.

Historians tell us that in the Eleventh Century --- eight hundred years ago --- Bibles were so rare and costly that it took a fortune, a considerable fortune, to buy oneself a copy of the Bible! Before the art of printing, everything had to be done with the pen upon parchment or sheepskin. It was, therefore, a tedious and slow operation --- a costly operation. Now, in order to arrive at the probable cost of a Bible at that time, let us suppose that a man should work ten years to make a copy of the Bible and earn a dollar a day. Well, then, the cost of that Bible would be $3,650. Now, let us suppose that a man should work at the copying of the Bible for twenty years, as historians say it would have taken him at that time, not having the conveniences and improvements to aid him that we have now. Then, at a dollar a day, for twenty years, the cost of a Bible would be nearly $8,000. Suppose I came and said to you, "My dear people, save your soul, for if you lose your soul all is lost." You would ask, "What are we to do to save our souls?" The Protestant preacher would say to you, "You must get a Bible; you can get one at such-and-such a shop." You would ask the cost and be told it was $8,000. You would exclaim: "The Lord save us! And can we not go to Heaven without that book?" The answer would be: "No; you must have the Bible and read it." You murmur at the price, but are asked, "Is not your soul worth $8,000?" Yes, of course it is, but you say you do not have the money, and if you cannot get a Bible, and your salvation depends upon it, evidently you would have to remain outside the Kingdom of Heaven. This would be a hopeless condition, indeed. For fourteen hundred years the world was left without a Bible --- not one in ten thousand, not one in twenty thousand, before the art of printing was invented, had the Bible. And would our Divine Lord have left the world without that book if it was necessary to man's salvation? Most assuredly not.

VI. But let us suppose for a moment that all had Bibles, that Bibles were written from the beginning, and that every man, woman, and child had a copy. What good would that book be to people who did not know how to read it? It is a blind thing to such persons. Even now one-half the inhabitants of the earth cannot read. Moreover, as the Bible was written in Greek and Hebrew, it would be necessary to know these languages in order to be able to read it.

But it is said that we have it translated now in French, English, and other languages of the day. Yes, but are you sure you have a faithful translation? If not, you have not the Word of God. If you have a false translation, it is the work of man. How shall you ascertain that? How shall you find out if you have a faithful translation from the Greek and Hebrew? "I do not know Greek or Hebrew," says my separated friend; "for my translation I must depend upon the opinion of the learned." Well, then, my dear friends, suppose the learned should be divided in their opinions, and some of them should say it is good, and some false? Then your faith is gone; you must commence doubting and hesitating, because you do not know if the translation is good.

Now with regard to the Protestant translation of the Bible, allow me to tell you that the most learned among Protestants tell you that your translation --- the King James edition --- is a very faulty translation and is full of errors. Your own learned divines, preachers, and bishops have written whole volumes to point out all the errors that are there in the King James translation, and Protestants of various denominations acknowledge it. Some years ago, when I lived in St. Louis, there was held in that city a convention of ministers. All denominations were invited, the object being to arrange for a new translation of the Bible, and give it to the world. The proceedings of the convention were published daily in the Missouri Republican. A very learned Presbyterian, I think it was, stood up, and, urging the necessity of giving a new translation of the Bible, said that in the present Protestant translation of the Bible there were no less than thirty thousand errors. And you say, my dear Protestant friends, that the Bible is your guide and teacher. What a teacher, with thirty thousand errors! The Lord save us from such a teacher! One error is bad enough, but thirty thousand is a little too much.

Another preacher stood up in the convention --- I think he was a Baptist --- and, urging the necessity of giving a new translation of the Bible, said for thirty years past the world was without the Word of God, for the Bible we have is not the Word of God at all. Here are your own preachers for you. You all read the newspapers, no doubt, my friends, and must know what happened in England a few years ago. A petition was sent to Parliament for an allowance of a few thousand pounds sterling for the purpose of getting up a new translation of the Bible. And that movement was headed and carried on by Protestant bishops and clergymen.

VII. But, my dear people, how can you be sure of your faith? You say the Bible is your guide, but you do not know if you have it. Let us suppose for a moment that all should have a Bible. Should all read it and have a faithful translation, even then it cannot be the guide of man, because the private interpretation of the Bible is not infallible, but, on the contrary, most fallible. It is the source and fountain of all kinds of errors and heresies, and all kinds of blasphemous doctrines. Do not be shocked, my dear friends; just be calm and listen to my arguments. There are now throughout the world three hundred and fifty different denominations or churches, and all of them say the Bible is their guide and teacher. And I suppose they are all sincere. Are all of them true churches? This is an impossibility. Truth is one as God is one, and there can be no contradiction. Every man in his senses sees that every one of them cannot be true, for they differ and contradict one another, and cannot, therefore, be all true. The Protestants say the man that reads the Bible right and prayerfully has truth, and they all say that they read it right.

Let us suppose that here is an Episcopal minister. He is a sincere, an honest, a well-meaning and prayerful man. He reads his Bible in a prayerful spirit, and from the word of the Bible, he says it is clear that there must be bishops. For without bishops there can be no priests, without priests no Sacraments, and without Sacraments no Church. The Presbyterian is a sincere and well-meaning man. He reads the Bible also, and deduces that there should be no bishops, but only presbyters. "Here is the Bible," says the Episcopalian; and "here is the Bible to give you the lie," says the Presbyterian. Yet both of them are prayerful and well-meaning men.

Then the Baptist comes in. He is a well-meaning, honest man, and prayerful also. "Well," says the Baptist, "have you ever been baptized?" "I was," says the Episcopalian, "when I was a baby." "And so was I," says the Presbyterian, "when I was a baby." "But," says the Baptist, "you are going to Hell as sure as you live." Next comes the Unitarian, well-meaning, honest, and sincere. "Well," says the Unitarian, "allow me to tell you that you are a pack of idolaters. You worship a man for a God who is no God at all." And he gives several texts from the Bible to prove it, while the others are stopping their ears that they may not hear the blasphemies of the Unitarian. And they all contend that they have the true meaning of the Bible.

Next comes the Methodist, and he says, "My friends, have you got any religion at all?" "Of course we have," they say. "Did you ever feel religion," says the Methodist, "the spirit of God moving within you?" "Nonsense," says the Presbyterian, "we are guided by our reason and judgment." "Well," says the Methodist, "if you never felt religion, you never had it, and will go to Hell for eternity."

The Universalist next comes in, and hears them threatening one another with eternal hellfire. "Why," says he, "you are a strange set of people. Do you not understand the Word of God? There is no Hell at all. That idea is good enough to scare old women and children," and he proves it from the Bible.

Now comes in the Quaker. He urges them not to quarrel, and advises that they do not baptize at all. He is the sincerest of men, and gives the Bible for his faith. Another comes in and says: "Baptize the men and let the women alone. For the Bible says, unless a man be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, he cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. "So," says he, "the women are all right, but baptize the men."

Next comes in the Shaker, and says he: "You are a presumptuous people. Do you not know that the Bible tells you that you must work out your salvation in fear and trembling, and you do not tremble at all. My brethren, if you want to go to Heaven shake, my brethren, shake!"

VIII. I have here brought together seven or eight denominations, differing one from another, or understanding the Bible in different ways, illustrative of the fruits of private interpretation. What, then, if I brought together the three hundred and fifty different denominations, all taking the Bible for their guide and teaching, and all differing from one another? Are they all right? One says there is a Hell, and another says there is not Hell. Are both right? One says Christ is God; another says He is not. One says they are unessential. One says Baptism is a requisite, and another says it is not. Are both true? This is an impossibility, my friends; all cannot be true. Who, then, is true?

He that has the true meaning of the Bible, you say. But the Bible does not tell us who that is --- the Bible never settles the quarrel. It is not the teacher. The Bible, my dear people, is a good book. We Catholics allow that the Bible is the Word of God, the language of inspiration, and every Catholic is exhorted to read the Bible. But good as it is, the Bible, my dear friends, does not explain itself. It is a good book, the Word of God, the language of inspiration, but your explanation of the Bible is not the language of inspiration. Your understanding of the Bible is not inspired --- for surely you do not pretend to be inspired! It is with the Bible as it is with the Constitution of the United States.

When Washington and his associates established the Constitution and the Supreme Law of the United States, they did not say to the people of the States: "Let every man read the Constitution and make a government unto himself; let every man make his own explanation of the Constitution." If Washington had done that, there never would have been a United States. The people would all have been divided among themselves, and the country would have been cut up into a thousand different divisions or governments. What did Washington do? He gave the people the Constitution and the Supreme Law, and appointed his Supreme Court and Supreme Judge of the Constitution. And these are to give the true explanation of the Constitution to all the American citizens --- all without exception, from the President to the beggar.

All are bound to go by the decisions of the Supreme Court, and it is this and this alone that can keep the people together and preserve the Union of the United States. The moment the people take the interpretation of the Constitution into their own hands, that moment there is an end of union. Ad so it is in every government --- so it is here and everywhere. There is a Constitution, a Supreme Court or Law, a Supreme Judge of that Constitution, and that Supreme Court is to give us the meaning of the Constitution and the Law. In every well-ruled country there must be such a thing as this --- a Supreme Law, Supreme Court, Supreme Judge, that all the people abide by. There is in every country a Supreme Law, Supreme Court, Supreme Judge; and all are bound by decisions, and without that no government could stand. Even among the Indian tribes such a condition of affairs exists. How are they kept together? By their chief, who is their dictator.

So our Divine Savior also has established His Supreme Court --- His Supreme Judge --- to give us the true meaning of the Scriptures, and to give us the true revelation and doctrines of the Word of Jesus. The Son of the Living God has pledged His Word that this Supreme Court is infallible, and therefore, the true Catholic never doubts. "I believe," says the Catholic, "because the Church teaches me so. I believe the Church because God has commanded me to believe her. He said: 'Hear the Church, and he that does not hear the Church let him be to thee as a heathen and a publican.' 'He that believeth you believeth Me.' said Christ, 'and he that despiseth you despiseth Me.'" Therefore, the Catholic believes because God has spoken, and upon the authority of God. But our Protestant friends say, "We believe in the Bible." Very well; how do you understand the Bible? "Well," says the Protestant, "to the best of my opinion and judgment this is the meaning of the text." He is not sure of it, but to the best of his opinion and judgment.

This, my friends, is only the testimony of a man --- it is only human faith, not Divine Faith. It is Divine Faith alone by which we give honor and glory to God, by which we adore His infinite wisdom and veracity, and that adoration and worship is necessary for salvation. I have now proved to you that private interpretation of the Scripture cannot be the guide or teacher of man. In another lecture I shall prove that the Catholic Church is the only true Church of God, and that there is no other.

Individual Interpretation of the Bible is Prohibited by Holy Scripture.

It was a sad day when I read that the internet was being used with avid interest by those who are scrambling to form their own churches. These people comb the internet searching for the beliefs of these various sects, just so they can find a niche to make theirs different from all the others. They completely disregard the teaching of Our Lord when He said, "...and there shall be ONE FOLD and ONE SHEPHERD." John 10:16

There are over 38,000 individual non-Catholic sects in the world now, with more being added every day. With the advent of millions of potential 'customers' who are easily reached on-line, that number is expected to increase at an accelerated rate. This hurts the Christian cause, as it is satan's way to divide and conquer, and it is GOD's way to unite into one Church with one Shepherd. It is making Protestantism even more and more impotent.

The primary root cause of this is the false belief of individual interpretation of the Bible. Protestant churches cannot teach that they are the 'One True Church' which Jesus Christ founded because none of them can trace their origin back 2000 years to Jesus Christ when He founded His Church in Matt 16:18. If all Protestantism was united in the Holy Spirit, then how can you explain that Calvinists believe Baptism is a Sacrament, but Baptists do not? How do you explain that Lutherans say that Mary is the Mother of GOD, but Evangelicals say she is not? How do you explain that Episcopalians believe man has free will, yet Presbyterians deny it? You can go on and on through all 38,000 non-Catholic Christian sects and see differences of opinion as presented in this sampling. If all Christian Churches taught the same thing then there would be only one Church, as there was for the first 1500 years of Christianity.

---

In all of the above examples, the one side interprets the Bible this way, and the other side interprets it that way. "The simple fact of the matter is, that it is not possible to put together any selection of words in which some ingenious person may not find a meaning not meant by the writer of the verse." Frank Sheed.

"Only a public authority, divinely guided, can spell out without error, a public message divinely revealed." Fr. Pere Benoit...

The Pope, in accordance with the Magisterium of the Catholic Church, is the public authority, divinely guided, of which Fr. Benoit speaks.

There are many Bible verses which tell us that individual interpretation of the Bible simply cannot be done without divine assistance...

Luke 24:45, "Then He opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures."

So it took Jesus Christ to open the minds of the Apostles so that they could teach others in the truth. Do you believe likewise that Jesus Christ opened the minds of each of the leaders of all those 38,000 non-Catholic sects? If so, why is there so much disagreement between them?

Acts 8:27-40, the eunuch was trying to read Isaiah when Philip asked him, "Do you understand what you are reading?" But he said, "Why, how can I, unless someone shows me?"

Since Philip had been filled by the Holy Spirit in Acts 2:4, he was able to explain the truth of Isaiah to the eunuch.

2Pet 1:20, St. Peter said, "This then you must understand first of all, that NO PROPHECY OF SCRIPTURE IS MADE BY PRIVATE INTERPRETATION." I do not see how Peter could have said it any plainer than he did here. Why do Protestants ignore verses such as this one?

2Pet 3:16-17, St. Peter said, "...In these Epistles there are certain things difficult to understand, WHICH THE UNLEARNED AND UNSTABLE DISTORT, JUST AS THEY DO THE REST OF THE SCRIPTURES ALSO, TO THEIR OWN DESTRUCTION. YOU THEREFORE, BRETHREN, SINCE YOU KNOW THIS BEFOREHAND, BE ON YOUR GUARD LEST, CARRIED AWAY BY THE ERROR OF THE FOOLISH, YOU FALL AWAY FROM YOUR STEADFASTNESS." Here is a very clear warning that it is easy to fall into error by private interpretation of Scripture.

Who would you prefer to believe...

A group of thousands of learned Bishops with impeccable qualifications, and the Holy Spirit to guide them, or some individuals interpretation of the Bible, who has questionable qualifications, and who does not have the truth of the Holy Spirit to guide him?

Prefigurements of Scripture...

Prefigurements:

Many Bible verses prefigure happenings which came later. Many times the later happening is in reverse of the first...

---

Gen 1:9.....Land rises from the sea and brings life on the third day. Jesus rises on the third day and brings eternal life.

Gen 1:27.....Man in the image of GOD. Lk 2:7, GOD in the image of man.

Gen 2:8,3:6....Adam went to a garden and then to a tree. Jesus did the same.

Gen 2:9.....Tree of life, GOD. Tree of knowledge of good and evil, satan.

Gen 2:9.....Tree of life. Jn 1:4,15:5, Christ is the life and the vine.

Gen 2:21-22.....Bride of Adam. Jn 19:34, Bride of the second Adam, Christ. Both 'Brides' were formed from 'wounds' near the heart.

Gen 3:3.....Tree that brought death, the cross-wood that brought life.

Gen 3:15.....Mary and her 'seed', the Savior.

Gen 3:22.....Take from the tree of life & live forever. Christ, Jn 1:4,15:5.

---

Gen 7:1-19.....Noah's Ark, no one outside it was saved, the Catholic Church.

Gen 12:21-29.....Blood of the lamb saves, blood of Christ, the Lamb, saves.

Gen 17:5.....Name change Abram-Abraham. Mt 16:18, Simon-Peter, a sign of authority.

Gen 21:2.....Sarah, a barren woman, gave birth to Isaac. Mary, a virgin, gave birth to Jesus.

Gen 22:6-10.....Isaac carried wood on his back to his sacrifice. Jesus carried the cross on His back to His sacrifice..

Gen 22:13.....The ram caught in the briar bush. Jesus crowned with thorns.

Ex 1:15-6...Pharaoh tried to kill Moses when he was a child. Herod tried to kill Jesus when Jesus was a child. Mt 2:16.

Ex 2:5.....Moses is saved by a handmaid and he later saves all of Israel. Jesus, born of a handmaid (Luke 1:38) saves the whole world.

Ex 12:3-22.....The Lamb is killed and its blood was shed, but that was not enough. It had to be eaten, vs 8. Jesus Christ, the Lamb, was killed, His Blood shed and his body is to be eaten in the Holy Eucharist, John 6:51-60.

Ex 16:13-15.....Manna from heaven, the Holy Eucharist.

Ex 16:33-34.....The Ark of the Covenant. Mary the new Ark of the Covenant.

Num 21:8-9.....Seraph on a pole. Christ on the cross.

Isa 22:20-22.....The presentation of the keys (a symbol of authority), to the 'Father (Pope means Papa or Father) of the Inhabitants of Jerusalem' (a symbol of the Church). Compare this verse with Matt 16:19, where Peter (the first Pope), only, is given the keys of authority.

Ez 34:23.....One shepherd only. Jn 10:16, Jesus Christ the one shepherd.

Jonah 2:1.....Jonah in the fish 3 days. Mt 12:40, Christ in the tomb 3 days.

Mic 5:2.....The Bread of Life, Jesus Christ, was born in Bethlehem which means 'House of Bread'. He was laid in a manger, a feeding trough for animals.

Mt 4:18.....Peters net for catching fish. Mk 1:16-17, net to catch men.

Mt 5:14.....City set on a mountain cannot be hidden, the Catholic Church.

Mk 6:43.....Fragments of bread gathered. Holy Eucharist fragments saved.

Lk 2:46.....The child Jesus 'lost' for 3 days. Jesus 'lost' in the tomb.

Lk 5:2-3.....Jesus Christ boarded ONE of the boats, the 'Barque of Peter', the Catholic Church, and He teaches from Peter's 'boat', and none other. As Christ taught from the boat of St. Peter, so the Church teaches the Gospel to the world.

Lk 5:4-7.....Jesus commanded to lower the nets for a catch of fish. The 'catch' are the souls of men. When the Apostles labored without Christ, they were 'fruitless'. With Him, the 'catch' was great. In the other boat they caught nothing until they came to the aid of 'Peter's Barque'.

Jn 2:6-10.....Jesus changed water into wine. Later He would change wine into His blood. Water makes grapes grow. Grapes make wine. Wine becomes the blood of Christ. Therefore, water is changed into His blood.

Jn 6:1-13.....Loaves and fishes, Jn 6:30-70 the Holy Eucharist.

Jn 21:17.....Feed My sheep. Feed with the Liturgy and the Holy Eucharist.

Acts, the Catholic Church Personified. The Living Body of Christ...

---

The Book of Acts:

Acts is divided into 3 main sections and fulfills GOD's plan for worldwide salvation for all people.

The first covenant was the Adamic Covenant - Marriage, Gen 3:16-19.

The second was the Noahic - the Family, Gen 9:8-17.

The third was the Abrahamic - the Tribal, or uniting of many families, Gen 17:1-8.

The fourth was the Mosaic - many tribes united in a National Covenant, Gen 19:4-6.

The fifth was the Davidic - the National Kingdom Covenant - many nations, 2Sam 7:14-16,23:5.

You can see the pattern here, each covenant encompassed a larger and larger group of people, so the next covenant must include more than many nations.

The sixth - the New Covenant... 2Cor 3:6, Worldwide, Universal, all encompassing, Catholic.

It is the evolution of the Catholic Church, and of the rules it must follow for all time.

All of the covenants preceding this one were for GOD's chosen people, the Hebrews and Jews.

Now, Gentiles enter into salvation history for the first time.

This all begins to unfold in Acts 1:8, "..but you shall receive POWER when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you shall be witnesses for me in Jerusalem (local), and in all Judea and Samaria (spreading out), and even to the very ends of the earth (worldwide, Universal, Catholic).

These are the three main sections of Acts...

Acts 1:1 to 8:5 is about the Church in Jerusalem.

Acts 8:5 to 13:1 is about the Church spreading to Judea and Samaria.

Acts 13:1 to 28:31 is about the Universal Church of GOD, the Catholic Church.

The Apostles preached to the Gentiles (Act 14:20) but met with opposition for doing this (Acts 15:1-5), so they called the first Church Council, the Council of Jerusalem (Acts 15:6) to deal with the matter.

Then in Acts 15:7-11, Peter voiced his authority, and after, "The whole meeting quieted down (Acts 15:12). This was the first example of "Rome has spoken, The matter is settled."

Please read "The Magisterium" and the files about authority, on this website for much more on this subject.

The Canon of Scripture...

Who Fired The Decisive Shot?

---

I have read many Protestant articles regarding the origins of the Canons of both the Old and New Testaments. They all fell short of the truth of what really happened. What they chose to relate, only told half of the story and though at first glance, it seemed to enhance their position, it was laced with inaccuracies.

---

As I have pointed out in another page on this website, called, 'Is Half of the Story Sufficient', "HALF of the TRUTH is NO TRUTH at all."

---

As you probably know, Catholic Bibles have 73 books, 46 in the Old Testament, and 27 in the New Testament. Protestant Bibles have 66 books with only 39 in the Old Testament. The books missing from Protestant Bibles are: Tobit, Judith, Baruch, Wisdom, Sirach, 1 and 2 Maccabees, and parts of Esther and Daniel. They are called the 'Deuterocanonicals' by Catholics and 'Apocrypha' by Protestants. Martin Luther, without any authority whatsoever, removed those seven books and placed them in an appendix during the reformation. They remained in the appendix of Protestant Bibles until about 1826, and then they were removed altogether.

Please see, "The Origin of Sola Scriptura", found elsewhere on this website for the details of Martin Luther's actions in doing this.

Please be mindful of the fact that those seven books had been in Bibles used by all Christians from the very foundation of Christianity.

A short history lesson...

*Hellenistic Greek was the language of the day during the time of Christ. This was due to the fact that Alexander the Great had conquered the region several hundred years before. The Hebrew language was on its way out, and there was a critical need for a translation of the Hebrew Old Testament for dispersed Greek speaking Jews. This translation, called the Septuagint, or LXX, was completed by Jewish scholars in about 148 B.C. and it had all of the books, including the seven removed by Martin Luther over 1650 years later. The New Testament has about 350 references to Old Testament verses. By careful examination, scholars have determined that 300 of these are from the Septuagint and the rest are from the Hebrew Old Testament*. They have shown that Jesus Christ Himself, quoted from the Septuagint. Early Christians used the Septuagint to support Christian teachings. The Jews were upset that these new Christians were using their translation for Christian advantage.*

*About 90-95 A.D., or several decades after the beginning of Christianity, the Jews called a council to deal with the matter. In this council, called the "Council of Jamnia*", Jewish Pharisees, who survived the devastating destruction of Jerusalem and of their temple in 70 A.D., decided to remove books that were helpful to Christians. They removed the seven books, using various reasons as their "authorization" to do so. Keep in mind, that the Greek speaking Jews had been using the Septuagint for well over two centuries by this time. It was the Bible of the Greek speaking "Bereans" of Acts 17:10-15 for which Protestants like to quote to try to "prove" their false man-made doctrine of "Sola Scriptura". Some non-Catholics charge that the seven books were not added to the Septuagint until the fourth century. If that were true, how could the Council of Jamnia have removed them in the first century if they were not there?*

By the actions of Protestant reformers in acceptance of the 39 book Old Testament, which was declared the whole of Scripture by the Jewish Pharisees at Jamnia, the Protestants have made it tantamount to approval of the Pharisaic Jews who rejected Jesus and persecuted the Church. In doing so they have shown that they believed that the Jews had more authority in deciding the Canon of Scripture than did the Christian Church that Jesus Christ founded, which by the time of the Council of Jamnia, had existed for about 60 years. A rejection of the authority of Christ's Church, then as well as now, is a rejection of Him.

Please see, "The Deuters", elsewhere on this website for more details regarding the actions of this council.

*Christians continued using the Septuagint with all of the books**, and they ignored the decision of the Jewish Council. About 1450 years later, Martin Luther, on his own recognizance and without any authority, removed those seven books, claiming the decision of that Jewish Council was his "authority" to do so. At this point, I am forced to ask, "If the Jews called a council next month with the expressed desire to remove Isaiah because it supports the virgin birth in Isaiah 7:14, and Jeremiah, for various reasons which support Christian beliefs, and they did it, would the Protestants in turn support the decision of this new Jewish Council and remove the same books from their King James Bible?" If not, what are their reasons for not doing so? After all, they have already set a precedent. What is the difference between almost 1450 years and almost 2000?*

For the first 300 years of Christianity, there was no Bible as we know it today. Christians had the Old Testament Septuagint, and literally hundreds of other books from which to choose. The Catholic Church realized early on that she had to decide which of these books were inspired and which ones weren't. The debates raged between theologians, Bishops, and Church Fathers, for several centuries as to which books were inspired and which ones weren't. In the meantime, several Church Councils or Synods, were convened to deal with the matter, notably, Rome in 382, Hippo in 393, and Carthage in 397 and 419. The debates sometimes became bitter on both sides. One of the most famous was between St. Jerome, who felt the seven books were not canonical, and St. Augustine who said they were. Protestants who write about this will invariably mention St. Jerome and his opposition, and conveniently omit the support of St. Augustine. I must point out here that Church Father's writings are not infallible statements, and their arguments are merely reflections of their own private opinions. When some say St. Jerome was against the inclusion of the seven books, they are merely showing his personal opinion of them. Everyone is entitled to his own opinion. However, A PERSONS PRIVATE OPINION DOES NOT CHANGE THE TRUTH AT ALL. There are always three sides to every story, this side, that side, and the side of truth. Whether Jerome's position, or Augustine's position, or Augustine's position was the correct position, it had to be settled by a third party, and that third party was the Catholic Church.

Now the story had a dramatic change, as the Pope stepped in to settle the matter. In concurrence with the opinion of St. Augustine, and being prompted by the Holy Spirit, Pope St. Damasus I, at the Council of Rome in 382, issued a decree appropriately called, "The Decree of Damasus", in which he listed the canonical books of both the Old and New Testaments. He then asked St. Jerome to use this canon and to write a new Bible translation which included an Old Testament of 46 books, which were all in the Septuagint, and a New Testament of 27 books.

ROME HAD SPOKEN, THE ISSUE WAS SETTLED.

"THE CHURCH RECOGNIZED ITS IMAGE IN THE INSPIRED BOOKS OF THE BIBLE. THAT IS HOW IT DETERMINED THE CANON OF SCRIPTURE." Fr. Ken Baker

The decisive shot had been fired.

*St. Jerome acquiesced under obedience (Hebrews 13:17) and began the translation, and completed it in 404 A.D.. In 405, his new Latin Vulgate* was published for the first time.*

**The word "vulgate" means, "The common language of the people, or the vernacular".*

The Decree of Pope St. Damasus I, Council of Rome. 382 A.D....

ST. DAMASUS I, POPE, THE DECREE OF DAMASUS:

It is likewise decreed: Now, indeed, we must treat of the divine Scriptures: what the universal Catholic Church accepts and what she must shun.

The list of the Old Testament begins: Genesis, one book; Exodus, one book; Leviticus, one book; Numbers, one book; Deuteronomy, one book; Jesus Nave, one book; of Judges, one book; Ruth, one book; of Kings, four books; Paralipomenon, two books; One Hundred and Fifty Psalms, one book; of Solomon, three books: Proverbs, one book; Ecclesiastes, one book; Canticle of Canticles, one book; likewise, Wisdom, one book; Ecclesiasticus (Sirach), one book; Likewise, the list of the Prophets: Isaiah, one book; Jeremias, one book; along with Cinoth, that is, his Lamentations; Ezechiel, one book; Daniel, one book; Osee, one book; Amos, one book; Micheas, one book; Joel, one book; Abdias, one book; Jonas, one book; Nahum, one book; Habacuc, one book; Sophonias, one book; Aggeus, one book; Zacharias, one book; Malachias, one book. Likewise, the list of histories: Job, one book; Tobias, one book; Esdras, two books; Esther, one book; Judith, one book; of Maccabees, two books.

Likewise, the list of the Scriptures of the New and Eternal Testament, which the holy and Catholic Church receives: of the Gospels, one book according to Matthew, one book according to Mark, one book according to Luke, one book according to John. The Epistles of the Apostle Paul, fourteen in number: one to the Romans, two to the Corinthians, one to the Ephesians, two to the Thessalonians, one to the Galatians, one to the Philippians, one to the Colossians, two to Timothy, one to Titus one to Philemon, one to the Hebrews. Likewise, one book of the Apocalypse of John. And the Acts of the Apostles, one book. Likewise, the canonical Epistles, seven in number: of the Apostle Peter, two Epistles; of the Apostle James, one Epistle; of the Apostle John, one Epistle; of the other John, a Presbyter, two Epistles; of the Apostle Jude the Zealot, one Epistle. Thus concludes the canon of the New Testament.

Likewise it is decreed: After the announcement of all of these prophetic and evangelic or as well as apostolic writings which we have listed above as Scriptures, on which, by the grace of God, the Catholic Church is founded, we have considered that it ought to be announced that although all the Catholic Churches spread abroad through the world comprise but one bridal chamber of Christ, nevertheless, the holy Roman Church has been placed at the forefront not by the conciliar decisions of other Churches, but has received the primacy by the evangelic voice of our Lord and Savior, who says: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it; and I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you shall have bound on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you shall have loosed on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

*This list of 46 Old Testament and 27 New Testament books was reconfirmed in the Council of Carthage in 397 A.D.. St. Jerome's translation, "The Latin Vulgate"**, is to this day, the official Bible of the Catholic Church. The Bibles which Catholics use today, have the same 46 books in the Old Testament as they have had since before the beginning of Christianity.*

I have not seen a Protestant writing giving recognition to Pope St. Damasus I, or of even the barest mention of his decree, or of the Council of Rome. This is more than half of the truth which is "conveniently" left out of Protestant arguments. See? Half of the truth really is no truth at all.

---

The Council of Hippo in 393 reaffirmed the canon put forth by Pope Damasus I...

AD 393:

Council of Hippo. "It has been decided that besides the canonical Scriptures nothing be read in church under the name of divine Scripture.

But the canonical Scriptures are as follows: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua the Son of Nun, Judges, Ruth, the Kings, four books, the Chronicles, two books, Job, the Psalter, the five books of Solomon (included Wisdom and Ecclesiastes \(Sirach\)), the twelve books of the Prophets, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Daniel, Ezekiel, Tobit, Judith, Esther, Ezra, two books, Maccabees, two books."

(canon 36 A.D. 393). At about this time St. Jerome started using the Hebrew text as a source for his translation of the Old Testament into the Latin Vulgate.

AD 397:

Council of Carthage III. "It has been decided that nothing except the canonical Scriptures should be read in the Church under the name of the divine Scriptures. But the canonical Scriptures are: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, four books of Kings, Paralipomenon, two books, Job, the Psalter of David, five books of Solomon (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom, Sirach), twelve books of the Prophets, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Daniel, Ezekiel, Tobit, Judith, Esther, two books of Esdras, two books of the Maccabees."

(canon 47 A.D. 397).

It is to be noted that the book of Baruch was considered by some Church Fathers to be a part of the book of Jeremiah and as such was not listed separately by them.

The Fourth Council of Carthage in 419 again reaffirmed the Canons as defined in previous councils...

CANON XXIV. (Greek xxvii.)

"That nothing be read in church besides the Canonical Scripture.

*ITEM, that besides the Canonical Scriptures nothing be read in church under the name of divine Scripture. But the Canonical Scriptures are as follows: * Genesis * Exodus * Leviticus * Numbers * Deuteronomy * Joshua the Son of Nun * The Judges * Ruth * The Kings (4 books) * The Chronicles (2 books) * Job * The Psalter * The Five books of Solomon (includes Wisdom and Sirach) * The Twelve Books of the Prophets * Isaiah * Jeremiah * Ezechiel * Daniel * Tobit * Judith * Esther * Ezra (2 books) * Maccabees (2books).*

*The New Testament: * The Gospels (4 books) * The Acts of the Apostles (1 book) * The Epistles of Paul (14) * The Epistles of Peter, the Apostle (2) * The Epistles of John the Apostle (3) * The Epistles of James the Apostle (1) * The Epistle of Jude the Apostle (1) * The Revelation of John (1 book).*

Let this be sent to our brother and fellow bishop, [Pope] Boniface, and to the other bishops of those parts, that they may confirm this canon, for these are the things which we have received from our fathers to be read in church."

[This is Canon xxxvj. of Hippo., 393. The last phrase allowing the reading of the "passions of the Martyrs" on their Anniversaries is omitted from the African code.]

---

The Council of Florence, also called Basel, 1431-1445, was yet another Council which confirmed the Canons of both testaments of the Bible...

SESSION 11 4 February 1442:

"We, therefore, to whom the Lord gave the task of feeding Christ's sheep', had abbot Andrew carefully examined by some outstanding men of this sacred council on the articles of the faith, the sacraments of the church and certain other matters pertaining to salvation. At length, after an exposition of the catholic faith to the abbot, as far as this seemed to be necessary, and his humble acceptance of it, we have delivered in the name of the Lord in this solemn session, with the approval of this sacred ecumenical council of Florence, the following true and necessary doctrine. Most firmly it believes, professes and preaches that the one true God, Father, Son and holy Spirit, is the creator of all things that are, visible and invisible, who, when he willed it, made from his own goodness all creatures, both spiritual and corporeal, good indeed because they are made by the supreme good, but mutable because they are made from nothing, and it asserts that there is no nature of evil because every nature, in so far as it is a nature, is good. It professes that one and the same God is the author of the old and the new Testament -- that is, the law and the prophets, and the gospel -- since the saints of both testaments spoke under the inspiration of the same Spirit.

It accepts and venerates their books, whose titles are as follows. Five books of Moses, namely Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy; Joshua, Judges, Ruth, four books of Kings, two of Paralipomenon, Esdras, Nehemiah, Tobit, Judith, Esther, Job, Psalms of David, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom, Ecclesiasticus, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, Ezechiel, Daniel; the twelve minor prophets, namely Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi; two books of the Maccabees; the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; fourteen letters of Paul, to the Romans, two to the Corinthians, to the Galatians, to the Ephesians, to the Philippians, two to the Thessalonians, to the Colossians, two to Timothy, to Titus, to Philemon, to the Hebrews; two letters of Peter, three of John, one of James, one of Jude; Acts of the Apostles; Apocalypse of John."

The Council of Florence was held over 100 years before the Council of Trent, and about 80 years before the start of the reformation.

The Council of Trent 1546-1565, the longest lasting Council in Church history.

AD 1546:

The Catholic Council of Trent, called to counter changes made by Martin Luther, again reaffirmed the canonicity of all 46 books of the Old Testament. Some Protestant reformers who attended, tried to get the Church to accept the list of books which the Jewish rabbis had chosen at Jamnia.

The Church refused and upheld her teaching from Pope Damasus I, and the Council of Florence. As a result, Protestants have the same New Testament books as Catholics, but their Old Testament differs because it does not contain the books rejected by the rabbis at Jamnia, and much later, rejected by Martin Luther.

It is interesting that for 1500 years all Christians accepted the same canon for the Old Testament. Only in the last 480 years, since the reformation, has there been disagreement from Protestants.

Here are some of the claims made by Protestants regarding the finalizing of the canon of Scripture...

---

1. God passed the canons directly to man.

Okay, what men? Who, what, where, when and why?

Documentary proof please. How do you know this? Show me the Bible verse? Show me the list as passed down by GOD?

2. Luther did not remove the 7 books, the Jews did at Jamnia, so they weren't there to begin with.

If they were never there to begin with, then how do you explain the fact that they are, and always have been, in the Latin Vulgate, which has been in use by the Catholic Church for over 1500 years?

Explain why so many history books are wrong, by saying Luther removed them during the reformation? I must ask also, "By what authority does a Jewish Council, which was convened decades after the dawn of Christianity, have any claim regarding the nature of Christian doctrine?"

3. The Council of Trent in 1546-1565 "added" the 7 books.

If so, then how could Luther have removed them 20 years earlier if they were not there?

How could Trent have added them if they were already in the Latin Vulgate from 404 A.D.?

4. Jesus Christ did not reference the Deuterocanonical books, so they cannot be canonical.

Well, let us see just which books He did reference...

In...

Matthew 4:4, He referred to Deuteronomy 8:3

Matthew 4:7, He referred to Deuteronomy 6:16

Matthew 4:10, He referenced Deuteronomy 6:13 and 10:20

Matthew 6:10, He referenced 1Maccabees 3:60

Matthew 6:12, He referenced Sirach (Ecclesiasticus) 28:2

Matthew 6:13, He referenced Sirach 33:1

Matthew 7:12, and Luke 6:31, He referenced Tobit 4:16

Matthew 9:13, He quoted Hosea 6:6
Matthew 11:25, He quoted Tobit 7:18
Matthew 12:42, He quoted the Book of Wisdom itself
Matthew 13:43, He quoted Wisdom 3:7
Matthew 16:18, He quoted Wisdom 16:13
Matthew 22:32, He quoted Exodus 3:6
Matthew 22:37, He quoted Deuteronomy 6:5
Matthew 22:39, He quoted Leviticus 19:18
Matthew 22:44, He quoted Psalms 110:1
Matthew 24:16, He quoted 1Maccabees 2:28
Mark 4:5,16-17, He quoted Sirach 40:15
Mark 7:6-8, He quoted Isaiah 29:13
Mark 9:47-48, He quoted Judith 16:17
Luke 13:29, He quoted Baruch 4:37
Luke 21:24, He quoted Sirach 28:18
John 1:3, He quoted Wisdom 9:1
John 3:13, He quoted Baruch 3:29
John 4:48, He quoted Wisdom 8:8
John 5:18, He quoted Wisdom 2:16
John 6:35-59, He quoted Sirach 24:21
John 14:23, He referenced Sirach 2:15-16, (Septuagint) or Sirach 2:18 (Confraternity).
John 15:6, He referenced Wisdom 4:5

He quoted Deuteronomy, Hosea, Exodus, Leviticus, Isaiah, and Psalms, as I have listed here, and there are more, but He did not quote all of the books of the Old Testament.

Of these books, neither Jesus Christ nor the Apostles referenced:

Song of Songs, Ecclesiastes, Esther, Obadiah, Zephaniah, Judges, 1Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Lamentations, and Nahum.

Does this make these books any less canonical simply because they were not referenced by them?

However, did you notice that I have referenced six of the Deuterocanonical books in my list, Tobit, Judith, Wisdom, Sirach, Baruch and 1Maccabees? As pointed out above, the Septuagint was referenced by Christ and the Apostles, many more times than they referenced the Hebrew Old Testament, and the Septuagint had all 46 books. These four references lend much credibility to the books removed by Luther, and to the Greek Septuagint.

The Deuterocanonical book of Wisdom has, however, a stunning prophecy of Jesus Christ, which adds immensely to its canonicity...

"Therefore let us lie in wait for the righteous; because he is not for our turn, and he is clean contrary to our doings: he upbraided us with our offending the law, and objecteth to our infamy the transgressions of our education. He professeth to have the knowledge of GOD: and he calleth himself the child of the Lord. He was made to reprove our thoughts. He is grievous unto us even to behold: for his life is not like other men's, his ways are of another fashion. We are esteemed of him as counterfeits: he abstaineth from our ways as from filthiness: he pronounceth the end of the just to be blessed, and maketh his boast that GOD is his Father. Let us see if his words be true; and let us prove what shall happen in the end of him. For if the just man be the Son of GOD, he will help him, and deliver him from the hand of his enemies. Let us examine him with despitefulness and torture, that we may know his meekness and prove his patience. Let us condemn him with a shameful death: for by his own saying he shall be respected."

See Matthew 27:42-43

5. There is no New Testament reference to any of the disputed books.

As I pointed out in the previous question, this is absolutely not true as there are several references to the "Deuterocanonicals", and at least three from "Apocrypha" which I have found...

Bible references (N.T.) to Apocryphal books:

1. Jude 1:9, Yet when Michael the archangel was fiercely disputing with the devil about the body of Moses, he did not venture to bring against him an accusation of blasphemy, but said, "May the Lord rebuke thee."

This is found in the Apocryphal book, "The Assumption of Moses".

2. Jude 1:14, Now of these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold the Lord has come with thousands of His holy ones..." This prophecy is from the Apocryphal Book of "Enoch", 1:9.

3. 2Tim 3:8, "Just as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so these men also resist the truth, for they are corrupt in mind, reprobate as regards the faith." Although this is a reference to Ex 7:11, the 'magicians' of Pharaoh, they are not named in Exodus. They are found in the Apocryphal book "Gospel of Nicodemus" 5:1. They are also found in the "Narrative of Aeneas Account of the Suffering of the Lord Jesus Christ," 5:4.

Rev 8:3-4, prayers of the saints presented to GOD by angels. Found in Tobit 12:12-15

Rev 8:7, raining hail and fire. Found in Wisdom 16:22 and Sirach 39:29

Rev 9:3, killing by locusts. Found in Wisdom 16:9

Rev 11:19, the new Ark of the Covenant prophesied. Found in 2Maccabees 2:6-8

Rev 17:14, King of Kings. Found in 2Maccabees 13:4

Rev 19:1, a great crowd saying Halleluia. Found in Tobit 13:18

Rev 19:11, the Lord on a horse. Found in 2Maccabees 3:25

Rev 21:18, "And the material of its wall was jasper; but the city itself was pure gold, like pure glass."

Similar to Tobit 13:18.

These are just a few that I have found, and with very little effort. There are references listed for all of the Deuterocanonical books. Most of them were found just by reading the cross references in Bibles. There are many more.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW TESTAMENT CANON:

AD 51-125:

The New Testament books are written, but during this same period other early Christian writings are produced--for example, the Didache (c. AD 70), 1 Clement (c. 96), the Epistle of Barnabas (c. 100), and the 7 letters of St. Ignatius of Antioch (c. 107).

AD 140:

Marcion, a businessman in Rome, taught that there were two Gods:

Yahweh, the cruel God of the Old Testament, and Abba, the kind father of the New Testament. Marcion eliminated the Old Testament as scriptures and, since he was anti-Semitic, kept from the New Testament only 10 letters of Paul and 2/3 of Luke's gospel (he deleted references to Jesus's Jewishness). Marcion's "New Testament", the first to be compiled, forced the mainstream Church to decide on a core canon: the four Gospels and Letters of Paul.

AD 200:

The periphery of the canon is not yet determined. According to one list, compiled at Rome c. AD 200 (the Muratorian Canon), the NT consists of the 4 gospels; Acts; 13 letters of Paul (Hebrews is not included); 3 of the 7 General Epistles (1-2 John and Jude); and also the Apocalypse of Peter.

AD 367:

The earliest extant list of the books of the NT, in exactly the number and order in which we presently have them, is written by Athanasius, Bishop of Alexandria, in his Festal letter # 39 of 367 A.D..

AD 382:

Pope Damasus I, in a letter, listed the New Testament books in their present number and order.

AD 393:

The Council of Hippo affirmed the Canon written by Bishop Athanasius.

AD 397:

The Council of Carthage reaffirmed the Canons of the Old and New Testaments.

AD 1442:

At the Council of Florence, the entire Church recognized the 27 books, though does not declare them unalterable. This council confirmed the Roman Catholic Canon of the Bible which Pope Damasus I had published a thousand years earlier.

AD 1536:

In his translation of the Bible from Greek into German, Luther removed 4 N.T. books (Hebrews, James, Jude, and Revelation) and placed them in an appendix saying they were less than canonical.

AD 1546:

At the Council of Trent, the Catholic Church reaffirmed once and for all the full list of 27 books as traditionally accepted.

---

Interestingly, some Protestants who have studied the origins of the Canons of Scripture, accept the decisions of Pope St. Damasus I, and the various councils when they finalized the New Testament canon, but reject the decisions of the same councils for the canon of the Old Testament. In doing so, they have to admit that the Catholic Church, by infallible decision, determined the canon of the New Testament. By whose authority then, do they reject the canon of the Old Testament, which was decided by the same Bishops at the same council?

Here is a perfect example of acceptance of "half of the truth".

The only way Protestants can know which are the inspired books of the Bible is for them to accept the teaching of the Catholic Church. If this is not acceptable, then please, someone show me the listing of the inspired books in the Bible?

---

Is The Catholic Church The Mother Of The Bible, Or The Daughter?

---

By simple deduction...

The Catholic Church was founded at the end of Christ's ministry on earth, or about 29-30 A.D..

The first book of the New Testament was not even written until about 20 years later.

The Catholic Church could not possibly have come from the Bible.

Instead, the Bible came from the Catholic Church.

Consequently, the Catholic Church is the mother of the Bible, and not the daughter.

By the time Revelation, the last book of the Bible, was written around 100 A.D., the Catholic Church was already on its fifth Pope, St. Evaristus.

A Bible Teaser For You...

In this short paragraph are hidden 16 names of books in the Bible.

Can you find them all?

---

I once made a remark about the hidden books of the Bible. It was a lulu, kept people looking so hard for facts, and for others it was a revelation. Some were in a jam, especially since the names of the books were not capitalized. But the truth finally struck home to numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few moments for you. Yes, there will be some really easy ones to spot. Others may require judges to help find them. I will quickly admit it usually takes a minister to find one of them, and there will be loud lamentations when it is found. A little lady says she brews a cup of tea so she can concentrate better. See how well you can compete. Relax now, for there really are sixteen names of books of the Bible in this paragraph.

Author Unknown, April 5, 1999

---

If by now you are tearing your hair out trying to find the sixteenth book, relax, as the answer to this teaser is found elsewhere on this website.

If...??? Some Questions Go Unanswered in the Bible.

Maybe you can provide the answers to these questions.

---

If the Blessed Virgin Mary had other children by Joseph, as some claim...

Then why did NOT Jesus give His mother to one of them instead of to John, in John 19:27? After all, Jewish law would have demanded it.

---

If the word 'until' means something happened AFTER that point as in Matthew 1:25, as some claim...

Then why does NOT the Bible mention the births of these 'brothers' and 'sisters' of Christ?

Then why does the dictionary define the word 'until' as: 'up to the time of', or 'before a specified time', or 'UNTO'. Not once is it even implied that something happened after that 'specified time'. American Heritage Dictionary.

Then why does the Bible say in 2Samuel 6:23 that 'Michol had no child UNTO the day of her death'? Is Scripture implying she had a child AFTER she died?

The same dictionary defines the word 'unto' as: 'to', 'Until', 'see until'.

If the word 'brethren' or 'brother' as used in Scripture only means 'blood brother', as some say...

Then why aren't the mother and the father of the 120 'brethren' in Acts 1:15, or the mother and father of the 500 'brethren' in 1Corinthians 15:6, ever mentioned?

Then why does Abram call Lot 'brethren' (KJ) in Genesis 13:8, when Lot clearly was his nephew in Genesis 11:27-28?

Then in Galatians 1:19, why did St. Paul call James the 'brother' of the Lord, when clearly the parents of James (the Less) were shown in Matthew 10:2-3, 27:56 and 61,28:1 and John 19:25, as being Cleophas (Alphaeus) and the 'other Mary'?

See 'Genealogy of the Brethren' for a clarifying map of the parents of James.

If you believe everything is in the Bible...

Then why can't these words of Jesus Christ, be found anywhere in it?

Acts 20:35 says, "Remember the word of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive'".

Then why does St. John say everything is NOT in the Bible? John 20:30,21:25

Then what is the purpose of John 16:13 where the Holy Spirit WILL teach you all the truth?

---

If the Holy Eucharist is but a symbol and not the true presence of Jesus Christ as some say...

Then why in Matthew 26:26 did Jesus NOT say, 'Take and eat; this is A SYMBOL of My Body'?
After all Jesus IS the truth...right? (John 14:6)

---

If you believe in the doctrine of the Holy Trinity...

Then please tell me where the Holy Trinity, by word, is found in the Bible.

If the Bible is the foundation and the pillar of truth...

Then why does the Bible say in 1Timothy 3:15, 'the CHURCH is the pillar and the foundation of truth'?

If the Bible is the supreme authority in Christendom...

Then why in Matthew 18:17, on the third and last appeal, did Jesus NOT say, 'appeal to the BIBLE'?
Then why in Ephesians 3:10 does it say, 'in order that through the CHURCH there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of GOD', and not through the Bible?

If the Bible is meant to be interpreted on an individual basis...

Then why in 2Peter 1:20 does it say, 'This then you must understand first of all, that NO Prophecy of Scripture is made by private interpretation'?

If faith is obtained by reading the Bible as some believe...

Then why in Romans 10:17 does it NOT say, 'Faith then depends on READING the Word of Christ'?

If the Bible is self authenticating as some believe...

Then where in the Bible does it say that it is?

If the revelation of Jesus Christ ended with the death of the last Apostle...

Then where is this shown in the Bible? How do you know this to be true?

If you believe the books in the Bible ARE, in fact, the inspired Bible...

Then show me where in the Bible does it list the inspired books? If you cannot find such a list, then please tell me how you know you are using inspired books at all?

If you believe that ALL scripture is inspired, 2Timothy 3:16...

Then please explain to me why the Gospels of Peter and Thomas are not in your Bible?

Types, Antitypes, Signs, and Shadows, are Absolutely Indispensable for proper Scriptural Interpretation.

---

A 'Type' is: A Biblical person, thing, action, event, ceremony, structure, furniture, color, or number, that prefigures an 'antitype' of the same in the New Testament.

A likeness must exist between the 'type', the Old Testament prefigurement, also called an 'archetype', and the 'antitype', the New Testament reality. The 'antitype' is always greater. Both are independent of each other.

'Types' are explained in Rom 5:14 and Heb 9:9, as a figure, 1Cor 10:6 and 2Thess 3:9 and 2Pet 2:6, as examples, 1Cor 10:11 and Heb 11:19, as a type. Much of Heb 11 is devoted to Old Testament 'typology'.

The Exodus, Ex 12:37-42, is a 'type' of Jesus Christ's return from His flight to Egypt, Matt 2:21. The manna in the desert, Ex 16:31, is a 'type' of its 'antitype' the Holy Eucharist, Matt 26:26. The water from the rock which Moses struck in Ex 17:1-6, is a 'type' of the Blood of Christ. Uzzah died a physical death by touching the Ark in 2Sam 6:7. That is a 'type' of dying a spiritual death by partaking of the Holy Eucharist unworthily as in 1Cor 11:27. The reality of dying a spiritual death is greater than the physical death of the 'type'.

The 'antitype' of the New Testament is vastly superior to its 'type' in the Old Testament.

Adam is a 'type' of Christ, as is Melchisedech, Moses, and King David.

'Types' are referred to in the following verses, sometimes under different wording:

Rom 5:14, 1Cor 10:2,6,11, Heb 3:1 to 4:11,11:19, 1Thes 1:7 (pattern), 1Pet 3:21 (counterpart), 1Pet 5:3 (pattern) (KJ - ensamples), Rev 21:1 to 22:5.

The New Testament reality is infinitely greater than the Old Testament prefigurement here.

A 'shadow' is an image cast by a person or object, as that person or object intercepts a light source. The dictionary defines a 'shadow' as, "an imperfect image or copy".

This is interesting as it shows the 'shadow' is far removed from its cause, and is therefore to be seen as vastly inferior to its 'antitype', the person or object which forms it.

A 'shadow' therefore could also be seen as a 'type', since it 'foreshadows', or prefigures an 'antitype'.

---

"For the Law, having but a 'shadow' of the good things to come, and NOT THE EXACT IMAGE OF THE OBJECTS, is NEVER ABLE BY THE SACRIFICES WHICH THEY OFFER CONTINUALLY, YEAR AFTER YEAR THE SAME, TO PERFECT THOSE WHO DRAW NEAR:" Hebrews 10:1

---

This brings us to some interesting conclusions and provides an important key to Bible understanding.

---

"Let no one, then, call you to account for what you eat or drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ."

Col 2:16-17

The Sabbath is but just a shadow of the Sunday Mass.

The New Testament reality is greater than the Old Testament prefigurement.

"For we are sojourners before thee, and strangers, as were our fathers. Our days upon earth are as a 'shadow', and there is no stay." 1Chron 29:15

The short life on earth is the 'type' of the 'antitype' of eternal life promised to us after death.

Eve was created without original sin.

If Blessed Mary had original sin as some say, then that would make her inferior to her 'type', Eve.

The New Testament reality is greater than the Old Testament prefigurement, not inferior to it.

Eve is the mother of all mankind, Gen 3:20. Her 'antitype', the Blessed Virgin Mary, is the Mother of GOD, John 1:1,14.

---

The Ark of the Covenant of the Old Testament contained within it, the Word of GOD written on stone tablets. It is a 'type' of the New Testament 'antitype', the New Ark of the Covenant, the Blessed Virgin Mary, who 'contained' within her womb, the Word of GOD incarnate.

The New Testament reality is greater than the Old Testament prefigurement.

The manna in the desert is infinitely inferior to the Holy Eucharist described in John 6:1-70.

If the Holy Eucharist were not the Body, Blood, Soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ, then that would make the Old Testament prefigurement, the miraculous manna, superior to its 'antitype'.

"Thus it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these."

Hebrews 9:23

The context of this verse from 18-22 describes the animal blood sacrifices of the Old Testament. Verse 23 clearly teaches that "copies" of heavenly things is the "type" of the heavenly realities of a better sacrifice. That "better" sacrifice could not be a symbol of the reality, but of the reality itself.

Never in Scripture does an Old Testament "type" point to a New Testament symbol.

---

More examples of 'types' and 'antitypes'...

GOD created man in His image, Gen 1:27, and GOD was born in the image of man, Luke 2:7.

Noah's Ark and the flood, only 8 were saved through water, and Baptism, all potentially saved through water, 1Pet 3:20-21.

The tree of the forbidden fruit in Eden, Gen 3:6, which brought death to us all, and the tree of the cross which brought eternal life to us all, Acts 5:30.

Isaac carried the wood of the sacrifice on his back, Gen 22:6, and Jesus carried His cross on His back, John 19:17.

Moses is rescued by a handmaid, Ex 2:5 and Jesus is born by a handmaid, Luke 1:38.

Joshua got the better of the battle with Amalek as long as Moses kept his hands raised, Ex 17:8-13. The figure of Moses is a 'type' of the cross. This is from the Epistle of Barnabas, Chapter XII.

A few interesting notes regarding the Book of Romans.

Do you strive to Elucidate* all of Holy Scripture?

or

Do you Elide** verses that do not agree with your beliefs?

<><><><><><><>

"It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"

Matthew 4:4

---

*Elucidate: To make clear and comprehensible.

**Elide: To ignore or to omit.

For a person to elide parts of Holy Scripture, it is counter to "but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God" in Matthew 4:4.

Romans 1:8, "Your faith is proclaimed all over the world."

Elucidations:

What does 'all over the world' mean? It means Universal, or in Greek, Katholikos, which was later Latinized into Catholicus, and then into English as Catholic.

Psalms 19:3-5, "Day to day pours forth this word, night to night sends out this knowledge.

There is no speech and no utterance whose sound may not be heard; into all the earth their sound goes forth, and unto the ends of the world their tidings."

---

Romans 1:18, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth."

Elucidation:

For those who teach against the Church founded by Jesus Christ, they had best do their homework first.

They must go to the source, that same Church, for the truth of what it teaches, before they start teaching at all, else they face the fury of GOD if they do not teach absolute truth regarding it.

Romans 2:1, "Therefore you have no excuse, O man, whoever you are, when you judge another; for in passing judgment upon him you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things."

Elucidation:

Do you recall, "Do not judge, and you shall not be judged; do not condemn and you shall not be condemned. Forgive and you shall be forgiven"? Luke 6:37

---

Romans 2:6, "who will render to every man according to his works."

Elucidation:

Yet another verse to counter those who teach that works are useless.

---

Romans 2:8, "...but wrath and indignation to those who are contentious, and who do not submit to the truth but assent to iniquity."

Elucidation:

Yet another verse which admonishes us to 'submit to the truth'.

How can anyone teach the truth of what the Catholic Church teaches unless they have first gone to the source, to the Catholic Church itself, to find out what it really teaches, and not listen to those non-Catholics who have not done so?

Romans 2:13, "For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified."

Elucidation:

What good is being a hearer only of Church teaching when the person doing the hearing will not be a doer also of what is heard?

---

Romans 3:23, "...all have sinned..."

Elucidation:

Here is that pesky word 'all'. As used in this verse, does the word really mean everyone? Did Jesus Christ sin? Have new born babies sinned? Have those who are out of mind sinned?

The Greek word, 'PAS', meaning 'ALL', can have different meanings as shown in other verses of Scripture...

Mt 3:5-6, "There went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region about the Jordan; and they were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins." Was all Judea, or all Jerusalem, baptized in the Jordan? The word 'all' is used in several senses in Scripture, and it is rarely that 'all' means all persons, taken individually.

Rom 11:26, "'ALL' Israel shall be saved." Will all be saved here, or does the biblical sense for 'pas' have a meaning of a great many in this verse?

Rom 15:14, "...you yourselves are full of love, filled with 'ALL' knowledge..." Here we know for sure that the only person filled with 'ALL' knowledge is GOD Himself. 'Pas' in many verses in Scripture simply means a 'great number', or 'a lot'.

Romans 6:7, "For he who has died is freed from sin."

Elucidation:

This must have been the verse which inspired Saint Louis Marie de Montfort to say that he will never sin again, as he lay dying.

---

Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Elucidation:

Which would you rather choose?

---

Romans 8:16-17, "The Spirit Himself gives testimony to our spirit that we are sons of GOD. But if we are sons, we are heirs also: heirs indeed of GOD and joint heirs with Christ, provided, however, we suffer with Him that we may also be glorified with Him."

Elucidation:

Why is there so much suffering in the world? We have asked that question many times. We have seen it and experienced it ourselves. Those two verses explain the reason 'why' in a very clear and concise manner.

How many who have asked the question have elided those two simple verses?

Those verses could easily be directed at His Church also, since that Church is His body (Eph 1:22-23) and therefore is subject to the same scourges as was His human body.

I would suggest that you read the Book of Job for much more on the subject of suffering.

Romans 8:28, "Now we know that for those who love GOD all things work together unto good, for those who, according to his purpose, are saints through his call."

Elucidation:

We have heard many times that GOD brings good out of bad situations.

We cannot know the mind of GOD and cannot immediately see any good in bad situations.

However remember that we are in time and can only see what we experience at any moment.

GOD is out of time and can take something bad and turn it into something good in a time that He chooses.

The best explanation that I have ever seen regarding GOD and time is to imagine that our lives are likened to a video tape. We can see only one frame at a time as life passes by, whereas GOD sees the whole tape from beginning to end all at once.

Romans 8:31, "...If GOD is for us, who is against us?"

Elucidation:

This is one of my favorite verses. Why be afraid of anything other than possibly losing our souls? What force on earth would give you trepidation, if the Lord of Lords and the King of Kings is with you?

---

Romans 10:14-15, "How then are they to call upon him in who they have not believed? But how are they to believe him whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear, if no one preaches? And how are men to preach unless they be sent?"

Elucidation:

For me this is one of the best sequential threads in Holy Scripture. How many preachers do you suppose elide this one, simply because they cannot show that they were sent by GOD?

---

Romans 10:16, "But all do not obey the gospel. For Isaias saith: Lord, who hath believed our report?"

Elucidation:

I know that tens of thousands in recent centuries who did not obey the gospel when they encountered the words, "That they may be one". Many of those are the 40,000+ individuals who founded their own ecclesial communities without any authority whatsoever to do so. And many still elide the words "That they may be one" today.

---

Romans 10:17-18, "Faith depends on hearing, and hearing on the Word of Christ. But I say: Have they not heard? Yes, verily: Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth: and their words unto the ends of the whole world."

Elucidation:

Sounds like the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN) doesn't it?

---

Romans 11:16-21, "If the dough offered as first fruits is holy, so is the whole lump; and if the root is holy, so are the branches. But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in their place to share the richness of the olive tree, do not boast over the branches. If you do boast, remember it is not you that support the root, but the root that supports you. You will say, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast only through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you."

Elucidation:

'A wild olive shoot', doesn't that sound like one who is not worthy of being a true branch since he or she does not fully accept all of the truths of the root from which it is attached? The rest of the verses have said it all. I can add nothing.

---

Romans 12:2, "Be not conformed to this world..."

Elucidation:

Do you remember these verses from another page of mine, the Book of James in which I quoted from John also?

"Do not love the world, or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of GOD abides for ever."

1John 2:15-17

I repeated these verses as an example of the harmony within the Bible, of how the various authors conform to and reinforce one another.

Romans 12:19, "Revenge not yourselves, my dearly beloved; but give place unto wrath, for it is written: Revenge is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

Elucidation:

This in a complimentary verse to the command that we should 'love our neighbor'. Did you get the message?

---

Romans 13:1-5, "Let every person be subject to the governing authorities.

For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.

(2) Therefore he who resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.

(3) For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of him who is in authority?

Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, (4) for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; he is the servant of God to execute his wrath on the wrongdoer. (5) Therefore one must be subject, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience."

Elucidation:

There is a lot to digest in those verses. They should have given Martin Luther and those who followed in his footsteps trepidation, that is if they did not elide them from the onset of what they did. The very basic topic for the different Christian religions is who has the authority and who does not. The second line of the first verse is very clear and ties in with those who are sent with the authority from GOD.

---

Romans 14:8, "Owe no man anything except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law."

Elucidation:

How many verses are in Holy Scripture regarding the laws that must be followed? This verse should give many of us some comfort.

---

Romans 15:5, "Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind, one towards another, according to Jesus Christ:"

Elucidation:

One God, one Church, one faith, one belief, etc, etc, etc.
What part of 'one' is so hard to understand by so many?

Romans 15:14, "...I am convinced with regard to you that you yourselves are full of love, filled with all knowledge, so that you are able to admonish one another."

Elucidation:

When you see error you must admonish the person(s) in error in order to correct it or else. Be sure to read the link to the error page for the important reason of why you must do it to avoid the 'or else'.

"Not to oppose error is to approve it; and not to defend truth is to suppress it".

Pope St. Felix III (483-492)

Romans 16:17-18, "I exhort you brethren, that you watch those who cause dissensions and scandals contrary to the doctrine that you have learned, and avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by fair and flattering words they deceive the hearts of the simple minded."

Elucidation:

This is for those who refuse to listen to the truth. See Titus 3:10 for more on this important topic. I have used these verses on a few that have attacked me and who have closed minds to the truth.

As my dear Fr Dwyer would tell us, "The hardest thing to open is a closed mind."

A few notes regarding the Book of Ephesians.

Do you strive to Elucidate* all of Holy Scripture?

or

Do you Elide** verses that do not agree with your beliefs?

---

*Elucidate: To make clear and comprehensible.

**Elide: To ignore or to omit.

---

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace you are saved through faith: and that not of yourselves, for it is the gift of God. Not of works, that no man may glory."

Elucidation:

These verses are a classic example of those who elide parts of Holy Scripture and who take one verse and run with it to try and make a case against what Holy Scripture truly teaches us.

Many non-Catholics take these verses as 'proof' that we are not saved by works but by faith alone working through the grace of GOD. If that were true then how can they ever reconcile Ephesians 2:8-9 with the following verses and yet not admit that there are indeed conflicts within Holy Scripture?

"Work out your salvation with fear and trembling." Philippians 2:12. See also 1Corinthians 9:24-27.

"...who will render to every man according to his works." Romans 2:6

"But their end will be according to their works." 2Corinthians 11:15

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying, 'Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.

Yes, says the Spirit, let them rest from their labors, FOR THEIR WORKS FOLLOW THEM.'" Revelation 14:13

Go here for many more verses which extol the value of good works.

So what is the answer of how to reconcile Ephesians 2:8-9 with all of those other examples given?

What does Haydock, one of the finest Bible commentaries ever written, have to say:

"Ver. 8. Faith is the beginning, foundation, and the root of justification, and the first of all other virtues, without which it is impossible to please God. (Bristow)

Ver. 9. Not of works, as of our own growth, or from ourselves: but as from the grace of God. (Challoner)."

So now you can readily see that the key to resolving this 'conflict' is in verse 8,

"and that not of yourselves, for it is the gift of God".

So Ephesians 2:8-9 teach us of a distinction between works inspired through the grace of GOD, and works performed by man alone. See, there are no conflicts within Holy Scripture, only apparent conflicts. The entire Bible is harmonious. It has many books, yet it is one book.

To properly understand a verse there may be many other verses even in other books that must be considered for extraction of its true meaning.

If the readers had not compounded their error by eliding the very next verse, maybe they could have found the true meaning themselves:

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus in good works, which God hath prepared that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10

Ephesians 2:19-22, "Now therefore you are no more strangers and foreigners: but you are fellow citizens with the saints and the domestics of God, Built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone: In whom all the building, being framed together, groweth up into an holy temple in the Lord. In whom you also are built together into an habitation of God in the Spirit."

Elucidation:

Did you understand the meaning of these verses?

They are a metaphor of the one Church which Jesus Christ founded.

Here we have a foundation, a chief corner stone, a building, framed together, a temple, built together, and a habitation of GOD in the Spirit.

The singular nature of the wording seems to rule out the thousands of sects that call themselves Christian that have sprung up starting with the Reformation, do they not?

Do any of those sects have a true "habitation of God in the Spirit" within them?

In each Catholic Church there is a tabernacle of which therein is a habitation for GOD in the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:6, "That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs and of the same body: and copartners of his promise in Christ Jesus, by the gospel..."

Elucidation:

This is an easy one to understand. His Church is expanding. First came the Jews, then add Gentiles, (who make up all the rest of the world) into the Universal Church.

Here is another verse regarding the expansion of the Church which Jesus Christ founded:

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem (local) and in all Judea and Samaria (expanding past local) and to the end of the earth (encompassing the entire earth)." Acts 1:8

Ephesians 3:8-10, "...and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in GOD, who created all things; IN ORDER THAT THROUGH THE CHURCH THERE BE MADE KNOWN to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of GOD according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Elucidation:

Who or what do these verses say dispenses the manifold wisdom of GOD?

I see it as being the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

Ephesians 3:21, "To Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus down through all the ages of time without end. Amen."

Elucidation:

Here is yet another verse which proclaims that the Church which Jesus Christ founded will last for all eternity. Why then do some continue to elide this verse and instead declare that His Church fell into apostasy soon after it was founded? Do you prefer to believe those who cannot supply a single genuine historical document of proof of what they claim, and not even a date of such a monumental happening, or do you believe the Word of GOD in Holy Scripture? See Acts 5:29 for the Holy Scripture answer to that one.

---

Ephesians 4:4-6, "One body and one Spirit, even as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one Baptism, one GOD and Father of all, who is above all, and throughout all, and in us all."

Elucidation:

It cannot be denied that "One faith" = One Church.

How many 'ones' can you count in those verses?

What part of 'one' is simply not understood by millions of non-Catholics?

Ephesians 4:11, "And He Himself gave some men as Apostles, and some as prophets, others again as evangelists, and others as pastors and teachers."

Elucidation:

This is yet another verse regarding those who are sent by GOD with the authority to preach in His behalf.

There are false preachers and teachers who claim they were sent by GOD, but were they really?

How can you tell who were truly sent by GOD and who were not?

The question that you must ask yourself is what does Holy Scripture say regarding authority?

Who has it and who does not?

Go to this link to find out who or what entity was given the only authority to speak in behalf of GOD?

Ephesians 4:14, "And this he has done that we may be now no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about by every wind of doctrine devised in the wickedness of men, in craftiness, according to the wiles of error."

Elucidation:

Wouldn't you agree that the last two lines of this verse are running rampant what with the tens of thousands of sects that call themselves Christian that have sprung up like weeds in our era?

---

Ephesians 4:16, "For from Him the whole body...derives its increase to the building up of itself in love."

Elucidation:

Is the splintering and dissensions of Christianity a building up the whole body in love?
It is yet another verse elided by those who do the splintering and dissention.

---

Ephesians 4:17-18, "...you are not to walk as the Gentiles walk in the futility of their mind, having their understanding clouded in darkness, estranged from the life of GOD through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart."

Elucidation:

How many ex-Gentiles that now call themselves Christian are clouded in darkness today because they continue to follow the false prophet and are not members of the the one and only Church that Jesus Christ founded?

---

Ephesians 4:25, "...put away lying and speak the truth."

Elucidation:

What can be added to this one? Just remember that truth is a person, the person of Jesus Christ who said in John 14:6, "I Am the way, and the truth, and the life".

There is only one Jesus Christ so therefore there can be only one truth.

With only one truth, then how could there ever be even one splinter in Christianity, much less that the tens of thousands of splinters that we find today?

Ephesians 4:29, "Let no ill speech proceed from your mouth."

Elucidation:

Why then do so many elide this verse and espouse ill speech against the only Church that Jesus Christ founded?

---

Ephesians 4:30, "Do not grieve the Holy Spirit..."

Elucidation:

Are we grieving the Holy Spirit when we ignore, the plea of Jesus Christ that we may be one?

---

Ephesians 4:31, "Let all bitterness and wrath, and indignation, and clamor, and reviling be removed from you, along with all malice."

Elucidation:

Why then do so many elide this verse and espouse bitterness and wrath, and indignation, and clamor, and reviling against the only Church that Jesus Christ founded?

---

Ephesians 5:6-7, "Let no one lead you astray with empty words; for because of these things the wrath of GOD comes upon the children of disobedience. Do not, then, become partakers with them."

Elucidation:

These verses would cause me trepidation if I were guilty of leading others astray. Can you imagine your being subjected to "the wrath of GOD"? It is no wonder that those who do lead others astray would elide these verses.

---

Ephesians 5:8, "..once you were in darkness, but now you are light in the world."

Elucidation:

Yes, the light of the world so long as we follow all of the teachings of the "Light of the World".

---

Ephesians 5:11, "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them."

Elucidation:

When we see error we must expose it else we are guilty of abetting those who are in error. Exposing error and those who are in error is one of my axioms that motivated me to write what I have posted on this site.

---

Ephesians 5:14, "Awake sleeper, and arise from among the dead, and Christ will enlighten thee."

Elucidation:

This is an interesting verse in that it seems to apply to those who are asleep in mind to the truth. The hardest thing to open is a closed mind. If those with a closed mind to the truth would simply awaken and open themselves to search for the truth, then I believe that Christ will surely enlighten them.

---

Ephesians 5:23-24, "...just as Christ is head of the Church, being Himself savior of the body. But just as the Church is subject to Christ..."

Elucidation:

Who is "the body" spoken of here? It is His Church and its members, meaning all of us who are baptized into it.

Who is the "savior of the body"? It is none other than Jesus the Christ Himself.

So for those who persecute His Church, who are they really persecuting?

They persecute Jesus the Christ, its founder.

Acts 9:4, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

Why didn't Jesus say "Why do you persecute my Church" instead?

After all, Saul thought he was persecuting His Church did he not?

Ephesians 5:25, "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the Church, and delivered Himself up for her."

Elucidation:

Christ delivered Himself up for His Church. That is very clear in that verse. For those who persecute His Church, aren't you really crucifying Him again?

---

Ephesians 5:26-27, "that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish."

Elucidation:

Those who persecute His Church, aren't they saying that it is not without spot or wrinkle? Aren't they accusing it of apostasy, and of many other faults, and saying that it is not the true Church that Jesus Christ founded? Do they elide these verses also simply because they do not agree with what they teach? They fail to realize that His only Church has two sides to it, the Heavenly side without spot or wrinkle, and the human side comprised of sinners and future saints.

---

Ephesians 5:32, "This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church."

Elucidation:

The Haydock Bible commentary has this to say regarding this "great mystery":

Ver. 32. *This....sacrament, (or mystery)....in Christ, and in the Church. This sacrament, in construction, must be referred to what immediately went before, i.e. to the conjunction of marriage betwixt man and wife; and this is called a great sacrament, or mystery, as representing the union or spiritual nuptials of Christ with his spouse, the Church. (Witham)

You can read more about the mystery of Christ and His spouse, the Church, in the Book of Canticles or Songs.

Ephesians 6:12, "For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the Principalities and the Powers, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness on high."

Elucidation:

Haydock:

Ver. 12. *Flesh and blood, which may either signify temptations of the flesh, or raised by mortal men.

--- *Principalities and powers; i.e. devils, or apostate angels, who before their fall were in such ranks of spirits, and who are permitted to rule over the wicked in this world of darkness. (Witham) -

-- *By which we are to understand the fallen angels. For as by nature, and from their creation, they were the governors of this corporeal world, and were deprived of this their power on account of their pride, they received it (though limited by certain restrictions) in order to tempt man. (Estius) --- *Rulers of the world of this darkness. By these are meant the devils who exercise their power and authority in our inferior and dark atmosphere, by raising winds, storms, tempests, &c.

By darkness may be understood the wicked, in whom Satan reigns as in a citadel. (Menochius)

--- Our inferior world is called dark and misty in comparison of the world above, which is always bright, serene, and clear.

Our atmosphere is called the cloudy and dark heavenly.

--- Against the spirits of wickedness: or wicked spirits in the air, says St. Jerome. Literally, in celestials. (Witham)

--- High places. That is to say, in the air, the lowest of the celestial regions in which God permits these wicked spirits or fallen angels to wander. (Challoner)

A few notes regarding the Book of Hebrews.

Do you strive to Elucidate* all of Holy Scripture?

or

Do you Elide** verses that do not agree with your beliefs?

---

*Elucidate: To make clear and comprehensible.

**Elide: To ignore or to omit.

---

Hebrews 1:1-2, "In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world."

Elucidation:

The first line of those two verses has said that in times past GOD spoke through the prophets. In these last days or end times, He does not speak through the prophets anymore but through His Son.

Why then have there been so many false prophets running around forming their own churches ever since Jesus Christ walked the earth? The head of Mormanism is even called "The Prophet". These two verses are quite clear, so why do so many 'elide' many of the words within them?

Hebrews 2:1, "Therefore ought we the more earnestly to observe the things that we have HEARD, lest perhaps we drift away."

Elucidation:

Now that verse even defines the word 'elucidate' from a different view point.

Have we 'listened' to what we have 'heard'? After all, in today's English there is a difference between listening and hearing.

However the verse equates listening to what we have heard to "observe the things that we have heard".

We can hear words without comprehending the meaning thereof.

Not listening to what may be heard, could that not be yet another definition of the word 'elide'?

Hebrews 2:12, "I will declare thy name to my brethren; in the midst of the church I will praise thee."

Elucidation:

Did you notice the singular 'the church' and not 'churches'?

---

Hebrews 3:6, "But Christ, as the Son in his own house: which house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and glory of hope unto the end."

Elucidation:

Again we see the singular word 'house' (His Church) mentioned twice here and not houses. Notice also, that this verse is conditional. Do not 'elide' the second line of it.

---

Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

Elucidation:

Did you notice that the words 'soul' and 'spirit' are treated as two separate entities? Also there is a hint of a body with the words 'joints' and 'marrow'. In 1Thessalonians 5:23, St. Paul clearly shows that body, soul, and spirit are separate. Also, do not elide the facts that GOD is a 'discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart'.

---

Hebrews 5:4-6, "And one does not take the honor upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, "Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee"; as he says also in another place, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchiz'edek."

Elucidation:

Oh so many elide words from this one. It is referencing the priesthood since Aaron was mentioned as being called by GOD. How many have set up their own churches without being sent by GOD? How many denominations have priests, ministers, pastors, elders, etc., who have not been sent by GOD? Notice that Jesus Christ did not even exalt Himself, so by whose authority did they? See also 2Corinthians 10:18.

---

Hebrews 5:9, "And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him;"

Elucidation:

How many times have you heard the phrase "Are you saved"? Some Protestants in particular ask this of many. They read in the Bible where Saint Paul wrote: "For if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is the Lord, and believe in your heart that GOD has raised Him from the dead, You shall be saved." Romans 10:9, also "For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 10:13. Granted that eternal salvation will be for those who believe in Him, but the "Are you saved" crowd never fails to elide the conditional last part of Hebrews 5:9, "to all who obey him". When He prayed that we all shall be one, are all of those who are not in the one Church that He founded in obedience to Him?

For those in the "Are you saved crowd", are you in obedience to His words?

Do you truly obey all that He commanded of us, or do you pick and choose what appeals to you and discard (elide) what does not?

Hebrews 5:12-14, "For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need some one to teach you again the first principles of God's word. You need milk, not solid food; for every one who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their faculties trained by practice to distinguish good from evil."

Elucidation:

Are you existing on milk, that is, not knowing the word of GOD and not in obedience to all of it? Are you in the Church which Jesus Christ founded which has the fullness of truth (1Timothy 3:15)? If not, then you are "unskilled in the word of righteousness". Your church may have some of the truth but it does not have the fullness of truth. Since it does not contain the fullness of truth, how much of the fullness of truth has been elided by it? Some sects a little, some sects much. Would you rather have all of the truth, or are you satisfied with only some of it?

---

Hebrews 6:4-6, "For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, (5) and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, (6) if they then commit apostasy, since they crucify the Son of God on their own account and hold him up to contempt."

Elucidation:

If you are in the Church which Jesus Christ founded and then leave it for one reason or another, then have you not put yourself into verse (6) above? Or perhaps you or maybe your church elided it? Isn't one crucifixion of Jesus Christ enough that some individuals are willing to do it yet again?

---

Hebrews 6:9-10, "For God is not unjust, that he should forget your work and the love which you have shown in his name, you who have ministered and do minister to the saints."

Elucidation:

For those who insist that works are useless, need I say more?

If your answer is yes, then I implore you to read Matthew 16:27:

"For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels: and then will he render to every man according to his works."

Want More? Try this one, James 2:24-26:

"For even as the body without the spirit is dead; so also faith without works is dead!"

Still not convinced? Here is yet another out of many, Revelation 14:13:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth. Yes, says the Spirit, let them rest from their labors, for their works follow them."

Hebrews 8:3, "...every High Priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; therefore it is necessary that this one (Jesus Christ) also should have something to offer."

Elucidation:

In the Old Testament the high priest offered daily animal sacrifices to GOD. What did the High Priest spoken of in this verse have to offer as a sacrifice? Himself.

In the New Testament, instead of daily animal sacrifices, Jesus the Christ is both the High Priest and the victim.

---

Hebrews 12:28, "Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe;"

Elucidation:

This 'kingdom that cannot be shaken' is yet another verse that shows that the Church which Jesus Christ founded on rock (Mt 16:18) will endure forever.

A few interesting notes regarding the Book of James.

Do you strive to Elucidate* all of Holy Scripture?

or

Do you Elide** verses that do not agree with your beliefs?

"Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."

Matthew 4:4

*Elucidate: To make clear and comprehensible.

**Elide: To ignore or to omit.

For a person to elide parts of Holy Scripture, it is counter to the 'every word that comes forth from the mouth of God' in Matthew 4:4.

James 1:4-6, "Let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing."

But if any of you is wanting in wisdom, let him ask it of GOD, who gives abundantly to all men, and does not reproach; and it will be given to him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, which is moved and carried about by the wind."

Elucidation:

Does the first line of those verses sound familiar to you? Compare this verse:

2Timothy 3:16-17, "All Scripture is inspired by GOD, and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correcting, for instructing in justice; that the man of GOD may be perfect, equipped for every good work."

Those verses are used by non-Catholics to try and prove the false doctrine of Sola Scriptura, yet the James verse essentially says that you may be perfect by patience.

In verse 6 of James above is interesting since one that is wavering is one who may be searching for the truth, but the winds of false prophets are pulling and pushing them from all directions.

James 1:8, "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways."

Elucidation:

Have you ever heard of the term 'doublethink'?

In today's world it is all around us.

George Orwell described it best:

From George Orwell's book, "1984":

"To know and not to know, to be conscious of complete truthfulness while telling carefully constructed lies, to hold simultaneously two opinions which canceled out, knowing them to be contradictory and believing in both of them, to use logic against logic, to repudiate morality while laying claim to it, to believe that democracy was impossible and that the Party was the guardian of democracy, to forget whatever it was necessary to forget, then to draw it back into memory again at the moment when it was needed, and then promptly to forget it again, and above all, to apply the same process to the process itself -- that was the ultimate subtlety; consciously to induce unconsciousness, and then, once again, to become unconscious of the act of hypnosis you had just performed. Even to understand the word 'doublethink' involved the use of doublethink."

James 2:20, "Faith without works is useless."

James 2:24, "...by works a man is justified, and not by faith only."

James 2:26, "For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith also without works is dead."

Elucidation:

Here are three verses that refute the teaching of many non-Catholics, that works are of no avail.

---

James 3:1, "Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that you will receive a greater judgment."

Elucidation:

Why do you suppose that teachers will receive a greater Judgment?

Those who teach error should be especially mindful of this verse and realize that the more they lead others astray by false teaching, the harsher the punishment they will receive.

James 3:8-12, "...but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings who are made in the likeness of God.

From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. This need not be so, my brothers.

Does a spring gush forth from the same opening both pure and brackish water?

Can a fig tree, my brothers, produce olives, or a grapevine figs? Neither can salt water yield fresh.

Elucidation:

How many have elided those verses? What can I say? A word spoken cannot be recalled.

There is much food for thought here. How many times have you regretted saying something to another and hurt him or her and wished that you had never said it in the first place?

Years ago, and I do not recall the figures, but I read where a sound decreases in intensity so much in a split second, for example by half every half second. So theoretically the sound will never decrease to zero.

Think about that? Maybe the first sounds that you ever made are still reverberating, ever so minutely.

No doubt they are recorded in each persons individual chapter of the book of life by which we are all to be judged.

James 3:14, "But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth."

Elucidation:

For those who attack the only Church which Jesus Christ founded, I would strongly recommend that they heed the message of this verse and go to the source of what that Catholic Church teaches instead of listening to what they are taught by their own sect, or peers, else they might find themselves guilty of this verse.

---

James 4:2-4, "...you do not have because you do not ask. (3) You ask and do not receive because you ask amiss, that you may spend it upon your passions. (4) Do you not know that the friendship of this world is enmity with GOD? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God."

Elucidation:

How many times have you asked GOD for something and are disappointed that you did not receive it?

Did you ask for money, power, or some other worldly personal benefit?

Do you not know that GOD knows what is best for you better than you yourself know?

Have you ever read and absorbed the teaching of the following verses before?

"Do not love the world, or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of GOD abides for ever."

1John 2:15-17

Those verses should clear things up when you pray to GOD for something.

The love of the Father is not in you when you ask Him for worldly things.

But if your request conforms to His will then it could most likely be granted.

James 5:19-20, "My brethren, if any one of you strays from the truth and someone brings him back, he ought to know that he who causes a sinner to be brought back from his misguided way, will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins." (see Ezekiel 3:21)

Elucidation:

Of what better way can you think of to save your soul from death?

These are comforting verses for those who bring others to the true Church.

A few interesting notes regarding the Book of 2Peter.

Do you strive to Elucidate* all of Holy Scripture?

or

Do you Elide** verses that do not agree with your beliefs?

---

*Elucidate: To make clear and comprehensible.

**Elide: To ignore or to omit.

---

2Peter 1:4, "Through which He has granted us the very great and precious promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the Divine nature, having escaped from the corruption of that lust which is in the world."

Elucidation:

This is a banner verse. Can anyone see it waving? The underlined words can only mean exactly what they say. How can non-Catholics partake of the Divine nature when they call it a mere symbol? Well they are correct. For them it really is a mere symbol, crackers and grape juice, since they have no valid priesthood that can transform bread and wine into the Body and Blood, the Divine nature of Jesus Christ.

However, they have no right to say that it is only a symbol in the Church that Jesus Christ founded. Read John chapter six. Elucidate every word, and you will see for yourself that a mere symbol is never mentioned or even hinted at anywhere in the chapter.

2Peter 1:20, "...no prophecy of Scripture is made by private interpretation."

Elucidation:

This verse is really a gem. All of the tens of thousands of non-Catholic sects that call themselves Christian, are guilty of eliding this verse. Each of their millions of members strive to be their own Pope.

They will take a verse completely out of context and try to make a case out of it, simply because it appears to bolster their false teaching.

Think about it?

Ignoring this verse is the main reason why today we have tens of thousands of non-Catholic sects who formed those splits in the Body of Christ over differences in individual Bible interpretations.

"Has Christ been divided up?" 1Corinthians 1:13

Wouldn't you agree that 2Peter 1:20 has been widely ignored by millions?

Do you really think that GOD would have given us an infallible book without first giving us an infallible interpreter for it?

If not then please explain why 2Peter 1:20 is even in the Bible at all?

---

2Peter 1:21, "For prophecy came not by the will of man at any time: but the holy men of God spoke, inspired by the Holy Ghost."

Elucidation:

I suppose that the first Protestant, Martin Luther, thought that he was inspired by the Holy Ghost when he added to and deleted from Holy Scripture that had been intact for well over a thousand years before he was even born. Were the Scriptures in error all that time? Or did he do it by the "will of man"?

2Peter 1:21 does say "not by the will of man", does it not?

What does Haydock, one of the most respected Biblical commentaries have to say for this verse?

Haydock: Ver. 21. For prophecy came not by the will of man at any time. This is to shew that they are not to be expounded by any one's private judgment, because every part of the holy Scriptures is delivered to us by the divine spirit of God, wherewith the men were inspired who wrote them; therefore they are not to be interpreted but by the spirit of God, which he left, and promised to his Church to guide her in all truth to the end of the world. Our adversaries may perhaps tell us, that we also interpret prophecies and Scriptures; we do so; but we do it always with a submission to the judgment of the Church, they without it. (Witham)

2Peter 2:1, RSV, "But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies ('sects of perdition' in the DRB, 'damnable heresies' in the KJ), even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction."

Elucidation:

'Destructive heresies', 'sects of perdition', 'damnable heresies'???

If you are not familiar with the word 'perdition', please Google it or consult a dictionary. It is scary. These are very strong words from Holy Scripture to say the least. Never should anyone elide them.

Isn't dividing the Body of Christ into tens of thousands of pieces* destructive?

What ever happened to another verse, elided by those that split the Body of Christ, where He prayed to the Father that they be one?

For those who are the authors of those divisions, do you think that they ever read the last five words of 2Peter 2:1?

*There are over 40,000 individual sects that call themselves Christian at the time of this writing. World Christian Encyclopedia, a Protestant publication.

2Peter 2:2, "And many will follow their licentiousness, and because of them the way of truth will be reviled.

Elucidation:

This is a very interesting verse. Did you know that the early followers of Jesus Christ were called "The Way" before they were called Christian?

See these verses: Mk 1:3, 12:14, Lk 3:4,20:21, Jn 1:23,14:4-5,*14:6, Acts 9:2,16:17,18:25-

26,*19:9,23,22:4,24:*14,22.

2Peter 2:2 also said "the way", and not "the ways", since there can be only one way of truth. "The way of truth will be reviled" is certainly true even to this day what with all of the never ending attacks against the only Church that Jesus Christ founded.

2Peter 2:12, "But these men, like irrational animals created by nature for capture and destruction, deride what they do not understand, and will perish in their own corruption...".

Elucidation:

Here is a quote from Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen (1895-1979) which fits perfectly with this verse:

"There are not more than 100 people in the world who truly hate the Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they perceive to be the Catholic Church."

How many to this day "deride what they do not understand" about the Catholic Church?

They do so because of what they believe in what they are taught by false teachers, rather than by going to the source, the Catholic Church, for the truth of what it teaches.

Read about how I got started in apologetics whereas to know what non-Catholics were taught, I did not listen to them but went directly to their sources for the truth of what they were taught. I obtained their own teaching materials, and saw for myself the misconceptions they had regarding the Catholic Church.

Here is what is said about 2Peter 2:12 from the Haydock Bible commentary:

Ver. 12. But these men, &c. These infamous heretics of whom he speaks, like brutes, void of reason, naturally following the disorderly inclinations of their nature corrupted by sin, tend, or run headlong into the snares of the devil, to their own destruction and perdition, blaspheming against the mysteries of religion, and against what they do not understand. (Witham)

2Peter 3:16, "In these epistles there are certain things difficult to understand, which the unlearned and unstable distort, just as they do the rest of the Scriptures also, to their own destruction."

Elucidation:

Again we see a verse that reverts back to:

2Peter 1:20, "...no prophecy of Scripture is made by private interpretation."

Essentially it is the same instruction but using different wording.

Why does a person repeat himself? It is to add emphasis to the lesson because of its importance. If anyone sees himself or herself imbedded in this verse, please do not avoid the last four words.

Biblical Promises, Prophecies, and Commands...

Are they to be heeded, wished away, or ignored?

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD, or those who deny it?

---

Some Promises from Scripture:

"...and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it". Matthew 16:18

That is what the Bible promises, but many insist that the gates of hell did prevail against the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD or those who deny it?

"Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world."

Matthew 28:19-20

That is what the Bible says, but many insist that Jesus Christ left His Church soon after the last Apostle died because, as they say, His Church fell into apostasy.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD or those who deny it?

Some Prophecies from Scripture:

"When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come." John 16:13

That is what Jesus Christ prophesied to us, but many instead insist on something called "Sola Scriptura", where "everything" is in the Bible already, and therefore there are no "things that are to come".

Many insist that this verse applies to them, and therefore each of them is "guided into all the truth", by the "Spirit of Truth". What they fail to see is that Jesus Christ was not speaking to every individual, or to the crowds here, but to His Apostles only. The Apostles will be the ones guided into all the truth, and not the public at large. He left it up to the Apostles and their successors to guide the whole world (Acts 1:8) into all the truth through the teaching Church which He founded (Matthew 16:18, Matthew 28:20, John 21:15-17, Acts 15:28). Jesus spoke to the crowds in John 12 for the last time. After that He spoke only to His disciples in John chapters 13 through 17.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD or those who deny it?

Some Commands from Scripture:

"Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or letter."

2Thessalonians 2:15

That is what the Bible says, but many insist that we should disobey this command of GOD, and not hold the traditions.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD or those who deny it?

"For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;" Luke 1:48

That is what the Bible says, but in my experience with non-Catholics, not one has ever called her blessed.

"Henceforth", means from the moment she said it until the end of time.

"All generations", certainly includes every Christian from the time she said it almost 2000 years ago until this very day.

"Will", is a command and not a suggestion.

"Call me blessed".

This is a direct command from Scripture and yet non-Catholics ignore it almost completely.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD, or those who deny it, disobey it, or simply ignore it?

---

The forgoing examples are what the Bible has instructed us to obey, but many ignore them all.

Who should we believe, the Word of GOD or those who deny it?

The Lame, Lamer, and Lamest Excuses of Them All.

Regarding John 6:66; I am told that those non-Catholics who say this chapter is only symbolic, that this verse was not about them, since Jesus was talking to the Jews and they are not Jews. So it is okay for them to call John 6 symbolic while taking the rest of the Bible literally.

So let us throw out the Gospel of John chapter 6 since it applies only to the Jews who do not even believe in the New Testament anyway.

Regarding Galatians 1:8-9; I am told by Mormons that those verses do not apply to them since St. Paul was only addressing the Galatians, and they are not Galatians. So it is perfectly alright for Mormons to have "another Gospel", the book of Mormon, given to them by "an angel" named Moroni.

So let us throw out the Epistle to the Galatians since it applied only to the Galatians who lived at that time.

Regarding 1 Timothy 3:15; I am told that this verse only applied to Timothy to whom this Epistle was addressed.

So let us throw out the Epistle of 1 Timothy and 2 Timothy as well, since they only applied to Timothy, and he is long dead.

Using the same twisted logic, we might as well throw out 1 and 2 Corinthians since those books only apply to the Corinthians who lived at that time.

Then we can throw out the book of Romans since we are not Romans, and also 1 and 2 Thessalonians since we are not Thessalonians.

We can also throw out Ephesians, Colossians, Philippians, Philemon, James, and Hebrews, all for the same reasons.

Why can't we throw out 1, 2, and 3 John, Jude, and 1 and 2 Peter while we are at it, since none of those books address us as well?

Then there is the Book of Acts which only applied to the primitive Church founded by Jesus Christ and which soon went into apostasy, as taught by many non-Catholic sects, despite the guarantees that Jesus Christ gave that it would last forever. So we might as well throw out the whole book of Acts also since much of it was addressed to the Jews again, and the readers of Acts are not Jews.

What about Revelation? Shall we throw it out too since it was not addressed to us?

Now to the Gospels. What about the rest of the Book of John? Under the same rules as used above, I think we can safely throw out all the verses that pertain to the Jews.

The Book of Matthew can certainly be thrown out as it was written entirely for the Jews, and practicing Jews would not read it anyway.

The Book of Mark can be thrown out also since it was addressed to the Romans, and the Romans of that time have been long dead.

The Book of Luke can be thrown out as it was written for the Gentiles which is a very little used word of today. Does any Christian call himself a Gentile?

Now we come to the easy one, the Old Testament. It is easy because it is nothing but old Jewish and Hebrew history, and none of us were around then. Besides, we certainly are not present day Hebrews or Jews, but Christians. We can safely throw out all of the books within it.

---

So what do we have left? We have a front and back cover. We have an index of books which is useless since there are no books between the covers. Well we certainly did clean up Holy Scripture, and it now can be easily read in just a few seconds from cover to cover.

---

But wait a minute? We have a problem and quite a big problem too.

DO NOT ADD OR DELETE FROM THE HOLY WORDS OF GOD (THE HOLY BIBLE): *Deut 4:2, Deut 11:32, *13:1, Psa 12:7,33:4,50:16-17,107:10-11,119:57,139-140, Prov 5:7,*****30:5-6, Eccl 3:14, Jer 23:36, *Gal 1:8-9, 1Pet 1:24-25, *2Pet 3:15-16, *Rev 22:18-20.

Oh I forgot! Didn't we just throw out those books? Then why should anyone be concerned about all those verses listed above?

Deu 4:2 You shall not add to the word that I speak to you, neither shall you take away from it: keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you.

Deu 12:32 "Everything that I command you you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to it or take from it.

Psa 50:16 But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes, or take my covenant on your lips?

Psa 50:17 For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you.

Psa 107:10 Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and in irons,

Psa 107:11 for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High.

Psa 119:57 The LORD is my portion; I promise to keep thy words.

Psa 119:138 Thou hast appointed thy testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness.

Psa 119:139 My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget thy words.

Pro 5:7 And now, O sons, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Pro 30:5 Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

Pro 30:6 Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

Ecc 3:14 I know that whatever God does endures for ever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has made it so, in order that men should fear before him.

Jer 23:36 But 'the burden of the LORD' you shall mention no more, for the burden is every man's own word, and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.

Gal 1:8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to that which we preached to you, let him be accursed.

Gal 1:9 As we have said before, so now I say again, If any one is preaching to you a gospel contrary to that which you received, let him be accursed.

2Pe 3:15 And count the forbearance of our Lord as salvation. So also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, 2Pe 3:16 speaking of this as he does in all his letters. There are some things in them hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other scriptures.

Rev 22:18 I warn every one who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if any one adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book,

Rev 22:19 and if any one takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Holy Scripture is not a selection of books specifically targeting single groups of people such as Jews or Gentiles, Mormons or Catholics, Protestants or Evangelicals, but is a guideline in matters of faith and morals for the whole human race and for all time.

To try to deny certain verses or even whole books of Holy Scripture simply because their creed, race, or sect was not specifically mentioned in them is the lamest excuse on their part that I have ever heard.

The Didache...

The Didache (did-akh-ay), is a Greek word meaning "teaching", or "that which is taught". It is the teaching of the twelve Apostles, and was thought to have been written between 65 and 80 A.D., and was highly regarded by the early Church Fathers. It gives interesting insights into the early practices of the Catholic Church. Remember, for several centuries there was no New Testament for Christians to use until the Council of Carthage in 397.

CHAPTER 1

1:1 There are two paths, one of life and one of death, and the difference is great between the two paths.

1:2 Now the path of life is this -- first, thou shalt love the God who made thee, thy neighbour as thyself, and all things that thou wouldest not should be done unto thee, do not thou unto another.

1:3 And the doctrine of these maxims is as follows. Bless them that curse you, and pray for your enemies. Fast on behalf of those that persecute you; for what thank is there if ye love them that love you? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? But do ye love them that hate you, and ye will not have an enemy.

1:4 Abstain from fleshly and worldly lusts. If any one give thee a blow on thy right cheek, turn unto him the other also, and thou shalt be perfect; if any one compel thee to go a mile, go with him two; if a man take away thy cloak, give him thy coat also; if a man take from thee what is thine, ask not for it again, for neither art thou able to do so.

1:5 Give to every one that asketh of thee, and ask not again; for the Father wishes that from his own gifts there should be given to all. Blessed is he who giveth according to the commandment, for he is free from guilt; but woe unto him that receiveth. For if a man receive being in need, he shall be free from guilt; but he who receiveth when not in need, shall pay a penalty as to why he received and for what purpose; and when he is in tribulation he shall be examined concerning the things that he has done, and shall not depart thence until he has paid the last farthing.

1:6 For of a truth it has been said on these matters, let thy almsgiving abide in thy hands until thou knowest to whom thou hast given.

CHAPTER 2

2:1 But the second commandment of the teaching is this.

2:2 Thou shalt not kill; thou shalt not commit adultery; thou shalt not corrupt youth; thou shalt not commit fornication; thou shalt not steal; thou shalt not use soothsaying; thou shalt not practise sorcery; thou shalt not kill a child by abortion, neither shalt thou slay it when born; thou shalt not covet the goods of thy neighbour;

2:3 Thou shalt not commit perjury; thou shalt not bear false witness; thou shalt not speak evil; thou shalt not bear malice;

2:4 Thou shalt not be double-minded or double-tongued, for to be double tongued is the snare of death.

2:5 Thy speech shall not be false or empty, but concerned with action.

2:6 Thou shalt not be covetous, or rapacious, or hypocritical, or malicious, or proud; thou shalt not take up an evil design against thy neighbour;

2:7 Thou shalt not hate any man, but some thou shalt confute, concerning some thou shalt pray, and some thou shalt love beyond thine own soul.

CHAPTER 3

3:1 My child, fly from everything that is evil, and from everything that is like to it.

3:2 Be not wrathful, for wrath leadeth unto slaughter; be not jealous, or contentious, or quarrelsome, for from all these things slaughter ensues.

3:3 My child, be not lustful, for lust leadeth unto fornication; be not a filthy talker; be not a lifter up of the eye, for from all these things come adulteries.

3:4 My child, be not an observer of omens, since it leadeth to idolatry, nor a user of spells, nor an astrologer, nor a traveling purifier, nor wish to see these things, for from all these things idolatry ariseth.

3:5 My child, be not a liar, for lying leadeth unto theft; be not covetous or conceited, for from all these things thefts arise.

3:6 My child, be not a murmurer, since it leadeth unto blasphemy; be not self-willed or evil-minded, for from all these things blasphemies are produced;

3:7 but be thou meek, for the meek shall inherit the earth;

3:8 be thou long suffering, and compassionate, and harmless, and peaceable, and good, and fearing always the words that thou hast heard.

3:9 Thou shalt not exalt thyself, neither shalt thou put boldness into thy soul. Thy soul shall not be joined unto the lofty, but thou shalt walk with the just and humble.

3:10 Accept the things that happen to thee as good, knowing that without God nothing happens.

CHAPTER 4

4:1 My child, thou shalt remember both night and day him that speaketh unto thee the Word of God; thou shalt honour him as thou dost the Lord, for where the teaching of the Lord is given, there is the Lord;

4:2 thou shalt seek out day by day the favour of the saints, that thou mayest rest in their words;

4:3 thou shalt not desire schism, but shalt set at peace them that contend; thou shalt judge righteously; thou shalt not accept the person of any one to convict him of transgression;

4:4 thou shalt not doubt whether a thing shall be or not.

4:5 Be not a stretcher out of thy hand to receive, and a drawer of it back in giving.

4:6 If thou hast, give by means of thy hands a redemption for thy sins.

4:7 Thou shalt not doubt to give, neither shalt thou murmur when giving; for thou shouldest know who is the fair recompenser of the reward.

4:8 Thou shalt not turn away from him that is in need, but shalt share with thy brother in all things, and shalt not say that things are thine own; for if ye are partners in what is immortal, how much more in what is mortal?

4:9 Thou shalt not remove thine heart from thy son or from thy daughter, but from their youth shalt teach them the fear of God.

4:10 Thou shalt not command with bitterness thy servant or thy handmaid, who hope in the same God as thyself, lest they fear not in consequence the God who is over both; for he cometh not to call with respect of persons, but those whom the Spirit hath prepared.

4:11 And do ye servants submit yourselves to your masters with reverence and fear, as being the type of God.

4:12 Thou shalt hate all hypocrisy and everything that is not pleasing to God;

4:13 thou shalt not abandon the commandments of the Lord, but shalt guard that which thou hast received, neither adding thereto nor taking therefrom;

4:14 thou shalt confess thy transgressions in the Church, and shalt not come unto prayer with an evil conscience. This is the path of life.

CHAPTER 5

5:1 But the path of death is this. First of all, it is evil, and full of cursing; there are found murders, adulteries, lusts, fornication, thefts, idolatries, soothsaying, sorceries, robberies, false witnessings hypocrisies, double-mindedness, craft, pride, malice, self-will, covetousness, filthy talking, jealousy, audacity, pride, arrogance;

5:2 there are they who persecute the good -- lovers of a lie, not knowing the reward of righteousness, not cleaving to the good nor to righteous judgment, watching not for the good but for the bad, from whom meekness and patience are afar off, loving things that are vain, following after recompense, having no compassion on the needy, nor labouring for him that is in trouble, not knowing him that made them, murderers of children, corrupters of the image of God, who turn away from him that is in need, who oppress him that is in trouble, unjust judges of the poor, erring in all things. From all these, children, may ye be delivered.

CHAPTER 6

6:1 See that no one make thee to err from this path of doctrine, since he who doeth so teacheth thee apart from God.

6:2 If thou art able to bear the whole yoke of the Lord, thou wilt be perfect; but if thou art not able, what thou art able, that do.

6:3 But concerning meat, bear that which thou art able to do. But keep with care from things sacrificed to idols, for it is the worship of the infernal deities.

CHAPTER 7

7:1 But concerning baptism, thus baptize ye: having first recited all these precepts, baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, in running water;

7:2 but if thou hast not running water, baptize in some other water, and if thou canst not baptize in cold, in warm water;

7:3 but if thou hast neither, pour water three times on the head, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

7:4 But before the baptism, let him who baptizeth and him who is baptized fast previously, and any others who may be able. And thou shalt command him who is baptized to fast one or two days before.

CHAPTER 8

8:1 But as for your fasts, let them not be with the hypocrites, for they fast on the second and fifth days of the week, but do ye fast on the fourth and sixth days.

8:2 Neither pray ye as the hypocrites, but as the Lord hath commanded in his gospel so pray ye: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done as in heaven so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debt, as we also forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil: for thine is the power, and the glory, for ever.

8:3 Thrice a day pray ye in this fashion.

CHAPTER 9

9:1 But concerning the Eucharist, after this fashion give ye thanks.

9:2 First, concerning the cup. We thank thee, our Father, for the holy vine, David thy Son, which thou hast made known unto us through Jesus Christ thy Son; to thee be the glory for ever.

9:3 And concerning the broken bread. We thank thee, our Father, for the life and knowledge which thou hast made known unto us through Jesus thy Son; to thee be the glory for ever.

9:4 As this broken bread was once scattered on the mountains, and after it had been brought together became one, so may thy Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth unto thy kingdom; for thine is the glory, and the power, through Jesus Christ, for ever.

9:5 And let none eat or drink of your Eucharist but such as have been baptized into the name of the Lord, for of a truth the Lord hath said concerning this, Give not that which is holy unto dogs.

CHAPTER 10

10:1 But after it has been completed, so pray ye.

10:2 We thank thee, holy Father, for thy holy name, which thou hast caused to dwell in our hearts, and for the knowledge and faith and immortality which thou hast made known unto us through Jesus thy Son; to thee be the glory for ever.

10:3 Thou, Almighty Master, didst create all things for the sake of thy name, and hast given both meat and drink, for men to enjoy, that we might give thanks unto thee, but to us thou hast given spiritual meat and drink, and life everlasting, through thy Son.

10:4 Above all, we thank thee that thou art able to save; to thee be the glory for ever.

10:5 Remember, Lord, thy Church, to redeem it from every evil, and to perfect it in thy love, and gather it together from the four winds, even that which has been sanctified for thy kingdom which thou hast prepared for it; for thine is the kingdom and the glory for ever.

10:6 Let grace come, and let this world pass away. Hosanna to the Son of David. If any one is holy let him come (to the Eucharist); if any one is not, let him repent. Maranatha. Amen.

10:7 But charge the prophets to give thanks, so far as they are willing to do so.

CHAPTER 11

11:1 Whosoever, therefore, shall come and teach you all these things aforesaid, him do ye receive;

11:2 but if the teacher himself turn and teach another doctrine with a view to subvert you, hearken not to him; but if he come to add to your righteousness, and the knowledge of the Lord, receive him as the Lord.

11:3 But concerning the apostles and prophets, thus do ye according to the doctrine of the Gospel.

11:4 Let every apostle who cometh unto you be received as the Lord.

11:5 He will remain one day, and if it be necessary, a second; but if he remain three days, he is a false prophet.

11:6 And let the apostle when departing take nothing but bread until he arrive at his resting-place; but if he ask for money, he is a false prophet.

11:7 And ye shall not tempt or dispute with any prophet who speaketh in the spirit; for every sin shall be forgiven, but this sin shall not be forgiven.

11:8 But not every one who speaketh in the spirit is a prophet, but he is so who hath the disposition of the Lord; by their dispositions they therefore shall be known, the false prophet and the prophet.

11:9 And every prophet who ordereth in the spirit that a table shall be laid, shall not eat of it himself, but if he do otherwise, he is a false prophet;

11:10 and every prophet who teacheth the truth, if he do not what he teacheth is a false prophet;

11:11 and every prophet who is approved and true, and ministering in the visible mystery of the Church, but who teacheth not others to do the things that he doth himself, shall not be judged of you, for with God lieth his judgment, for in this manner also did the ancient prophets.

11:12 But whoever shall say in the spirit, Give me money, or things of that kind, listen not to him; but if he tell you concerning others that are in need that ye should give unto them, let no one judge him.

CHAPTER 12

12:1 Let every one that cometh in the name of the Lord be received, but afterwards ye shall examine him and know his character, for ye have knowledge both of good and evil.

12:2 If the person who cometh be a wayfarer, assist him so far as ye are able; but he will not remain with you more than two or three days, unless there be a necessity.

12:3 But if he wish to settle with you, being a craftsman, let him work, and so eat;

12:4 but if he know not any craft, provide ye according to you own discretion, that a Christian may not live idle among you;

12:5 but if he be not willing to do so, he is a trafficker in Christ. From such keep aloof.

CHAPTER 13

13:1 But every true prophet who is willing to dwell among you is worthy of his meat,

13:2 likewise a true teacher is himself worthy of his meat, even as is a labourer.

13:3 Thou shalt, therefore, take the firstfruits of every produce of the wine-press and threshing-floor, of oxen and sheep, and shalt give it to the prophets, for they are your chief priests;

13:4 but if ye have not a prophet, give it unto the poor.

13:5 If thou makest a feast, take and give the firstfruits according to the commandment;

13:6 in like manner when thou openest a jar of wine or of oil, take the firstfruits and give it to the prophets;

13:7 take also the firstfruits of money, of clothes, and of every possession, as it shall seem good unto thee, and give it according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 14

14:1 But on the Lord's day, after that ye have assembled together, break bread and give thanks, having in addition confessed your sins, that your sacrifice may be pure.

14:2 But let not any one who hath a quarrel with his companion join with you, until they be reconciled, that your sacrifice may not be polluted,

14:3 for it is that which is spoken of by the Lord. In every place and time offer unto me a pure sacrifice, for I am a great King, saith the Lord, and my name is wonderful among the Gentiles.

CHAPTER 15

15:1 Elect, therefore, for yourselves bishops and deacons worthy of the Lord, men who are meek and not covetous, and true and approved, for they perform for you the service of prophets and teachers.

15:2 Do not, therefore, despise them, for they are those who are honoured among you, together with the prophets and teachers.

15:3 Rebuke one another, not in wrath but peaceably, as ye have commandment in the Gospel; and, but let no one speak to any one who walketh disorderly with regard to his neighbour, neither let him be heard by you until he repent.

15:4 But your prayers and your almsgivings and all your deeds so do, as ye have commandment in the Gospel of our Lord.

CHAPTER 16

16:1 Watch concerning your life; let not your lamps be quenched or your loins be loosed, but be ye ready, for ye know not the hour at which our Lord cometh.

16:2 But be ye gathered together frequently, seeking what is suitable for your souls; for the whole time of your faith shall profit you not, unless ye be found perfect in the last time.

16:3 For in the last days false prophets and seducers shall be multiplied, and the sheep shall be turned into wolves, and love shall be turned into hate;

16:4 and because iniquity aboundeth they shall hate each other, and persecute each other, and deliver each other up; and then shall the Deceiver of the world appear as the Son of God, and shall do signs and wonders, and the earth shall be delivered into his hands; and he shall do unlawful things, such as have never happened since the beginning of the world.

16:5 Then shall the creation of man come to the fiery trial of proof, and many shall be offended and shall perish; but they who remain in their faith shall be saved by the rock of offence itself.

16:6 And then shall appear the signs of the truth; first the sign of the appearance in heaven, then the sign of the sound of the trumpet, and thirdly the resurrection of the dead

16:7 -- not of all, but as it has been said, The Lord shall come and all his saints with him;

16:8 then shall the world behold the Lord coming on the clouds of heaven.

Fathers of the Church...

Church Fathers were the closest to the Apostles and whatever we have, came to us through them. To qualify as a Church Father, four conditions had to have been met.

1. He had to have lived before the year 800.

The last Father in the East was St. Damascene 674-749, and of the West was, St. Bede the Venerable 672-735.

2. He had to have followed the orthodox teaching, faithful to the true doctrines of the Church.

3. He had to have Sanctity. All major Fathers and most minor Fathers were canonized Saints, and lived virtuous lives.

4. He had to have the sanction of the Church, a general acceptance.

They are divided into 2 groups, 39 Latin and 49 Greek Fathers. Some of the most prominent ones are:

Latin Fathers, Western:

St. Irenaeus of Lyons (d 202), Bishop.

St. Cyprian (d 258), Bishop.

St. Damasus I (d 384),

St. Ambrose of Milan (d 397), Bishop of Milan.

St. Jerome (d 420), priest.

St. Augustine (d 430), Bishop of Hippo.

St. Peter Chrysologus (d 450), Archbishop of Ravenna.

St. Leo the Great (d 461), Pope.

St. Fulgentius (d 533), Bishop of Ruspe.

St. Benedict (d 546), father of Western monasticism.

St. Gregory the Great (d 604), Pope.

St. Isadore (d 636), Archbishop of Seville.

St. Bede the Venerable (d 735), Doctor, last Father of Western Church.

---

Greek Fathers, Eastern... * means an Apostolic Father.

St. Clement of Rome * (d 97), Pope

St. Ignatius of Antioch * (d 107), Bishop of Antioch.

St. Polycarp * (d 155), Bishop of Smyrna.

St. Justin Martyr (d 165), apologist.

St. Clement of Alexandria (d 215), theologian.

St. Hippolytus (d 236), martyr.

Eusebius (d 340), Bishop of Caesarea.

St. Julius I (d 352), Pope.

St. Athanasius (d 373), Archbishop of Alexandria.

St. Basil the Great (d 379), Archbishop of Caesarea.

St. Gregory of Nazianzus (d 390), Bishop of Sasima

St. Gregory of Nyssa, Basil's brother (d 395)

St. John Chrysostom (d 407), Patriarch of Constantinople.

St. Nilus (d 430), priest and monk.

St. John Damascene (d 749), last Father of the Eastern Church.

Here is a comprehensive list by subject, of some of their writings.

St Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop, and an Apostolic Father of the Church, wrote a letter to the Smyrneans... (Rev 1:11)

---

St. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.), an Apostolic Father of the Church, and the Bishop of Antioch, wrote the following letter as he was being taken in chains to Rome to be martyred. It is believed that in this letter, the words Catholic Church, were used for the first time. See the New Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) ref 830, note 307.

---

Ignatius, also called Theophorus, to the Church of God the Father and the beloved Jesus Christ; a church mercifully endowed with every gift; overflowing with faith and love; lacking in no gift; radiant with God's splendor, and fruitful mother of saints. To the Church at Smyrna in Asia I send best wishes for irreproachableness of sentiment and loyalty to the word of God.

---

1. I extol Jesus Christ, the God who has granted you such wisdom. For I have observed that you are thoroughly trained in unshaken faith, being nailed, as it were, to the Cross of the Lord Jesus Christ both in body and in soul, and that you are well established in love through the Blood of Christ and firmly believe in Our Lord: He is really of the line of David according to the flesh, and the Son of God by the will and power of God; was really born of a virgin, and baptized by John in order to comply with every ordinance. Under Pontius Pilate and the tetrarch Herod He was really nailed to the cross in the flesh for our sake--of whose fruit we are, in virtue of His most blessed Passion. And thus, through the Resurrection, He raised a banner for all times for His saints and faithful followers, whether among the Jews or the Gentiles, that they might be united in a single body, that is, His Church.

2. All these sufferings, assuredly, He underwent for our sake, that we might be saved. And He suffered really, as He also really raised Himself from the dead. It is not as some unbelievers say, who maintain that His suffering was a make-believe. In reality, it is they that are make-believes: and, as their notion, so their end: they will be bodiless and ghostlike shapes!

---

3. For myself, I know and believe that He was in the flesh even after the Resurrection. And when He came to Peter and Peter's companions, He said to them: "Here; feel me and see that I am not a bodiless ghost." Immediately they touched Him and, through this contact with His Flesh and Spirit, believed. For the same reason they despised death and, in fact, proved stronger than death. Again, after the Resurrection, He ate and drank with them like a being of flesh and blood, though spiritually one with the Father.

4. I am urging these things on you, beloved, although I know that you are of the same mind. I am cautioning you betimes, however, against wild beasts in human form, whom you ought not only not to receive, but, if possible, even avoid meeting. Only pray for them, if somehow they may change their mind--a difficult thing! But that is in the power of Jesus Christ, our true Life. Surely, if those things were done by Our Lord as a mere make-believe, then I in my chains, too, am a make-believe! Why, moreover, did I surrender myself to death, to fire, to the sword, to wild beasts? Well, to be near the sword is to be near God; to be in the claws of wild beasts is to be in the hands of God. Only let it be done in the name of Jesus Christ! To suffer with Him I endure all things, if He, who became perfect man, gives me the strength.

5. Some disown Him through ignorance, or, rather, were disowned by Him, being advocates of death rather than the truth. They were not convinced by the prophecies or by the Law of Moses; no, not even to this day by the Gospel or the sufferings of our own people; for they entertain the same view of us. Really, what good does anyone do me if he praises me, but blasphemes my Lord by not admitting that He carried living flesh about Him? He who does not admit this, has absolutely disowned Him, and what he carries about him is a corpse. Their names--names of unbelievers they are! -I do not think advisable to write down. In fact, I even wish I did not remember them, until they change their mind concerning the Passion, which is our resurrection.

6. Let no one be deceived! Even the heavenly powers and the angels in their splendor and the principalities, both visible and invisible, must either believe in the Blood of Christ, or else face damnation. Let him grasp it who can. Let no rank puff up anyone; for faith and love are paramount--the greatest blessings in the world. Observe those who hold erroneous opinions concerning the grace of Jesus Christ which has come to us, and see how they run counter to the mind of God! They concern themselves with neither works of charity, nor widows, nor orphans, nor the distressed, nor those in prison or out of it, nor the hungry or thirsty.

7. From Eucharist and prayer they hold aloof, because they do not confess that the Eucharist is the flesh of our Savior Jesus Christ, which suffered for our sins, and which the Father in His loving-kindness raised from the dead. And so, those who question the gift of God perish in their contentiousness. It would be better for them to have love, so as to share in the resurrection. It is proper, therefore, to avoid associating with such people and not to speak about them either in private or in public, but to study the Prophets attentively and, especially, the Gospel, in which the Passion is revealed to us and the Resurrection shown in its fulfillment. Shun division as the beginning of evil.

8. You must all follow the lead of the bishop, as Jesus Christ followed that of the Father; follow the presbytery as you would the Apostles; reverence the deacons as you would God's commandment. Let no one do anything touching the Church, apart from the bishop. Let that celebration of the Eucharist be considered valid which is held under the bishop or anyone to whom he has committed it. Where the bishop appears, there let the people be, just as where Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church. It is not permitted without authorization from the bishop either to baptize or to hold an agape; but whatever he approves is also pleasing to God. Thus everything you do will be proof against danger and valid.

9. It is consonant with reason, therefore, that we should come to our senses, while we still have time to change our ways and turn to God. It is well to revere God and bishop. He who honors a bishop is honored by God. He who does anything without the knowledge of the bishop worships the devil. May all things, then, be yours in abundance through grace, for you deserve it. You have brought relief to me in every respect, and may Jesus Christ do so to you! Whether I was absent or present, you have shown me love. Your reward is God, to whom you will come if you endure all things for His sake.

10. As to Philo and Rheus Agathopus, who accompanied me in the name of God, it was good of you to give them a warm reception as to servants of Christ God. For their part, they thank the Lord on your behalf, because you offered them ransoms. A ransom for you are my life and my chains, which you did not despise and of which you were not ashamed. Neither will Jesus Christ, our consummate hope, be ashamed of you.

---

11. Your prayer made its way to the Church at Antioch in Syria. Coming from there in chains radiant with divine splendor, I send greetings to all. Not that I deserve to belong to that community, being the least of its members; but by the will (of God) I was granted this favor--no, not because of any conscious deed, but because of the grace of God. Would that this grace were given me in perfection, that through your prayer I may make my way to God! Now, that your own work may be made perfect both on earth and in heaven, it is proper, for the honor of God, that your Church should send a God-empowered delegate to go to Syria and congratulate the people on enjoying peace, having recovered their normal greatness, and having their full status restored to them. It therefore appears to me to be a God-inspired undertaking to send one of your number with a letter for the purpose of joining in the celebration of their God-given tranquility, and because they have, thanks to your prayer, at last made port. Be perfect, therefore, and devise a perfect method. You need only be willing to do well, and God is ready to assist you.

12. In their affection the brethren at Troas wish to be remembered to you. It is from here that I send this letter through the kindness of Burrus, whom you conjointly with your brethren, the Ephesians, commissioned to accompany me. He has given me every possible comfort. And would that all might imitate him, for he is a pattern of what a minister of God should be. God's grace will reward him in every way. Greetings to the bishop, that man of God, to the God-minded presbytery, to the deacons my fellow servants, to the whole community, individually and collectively, in the name of Jesus Christ, in His Flesh and Blood, in His Passion and Resurrection, both corporal and spiritual, in unity with God and with you. Grace be to you and mercy and peace and patient endurance forever.

13. Greetings to the families of my brethren, including their wives and children, and to the virgins who are enrolled among the widows. Farewell in the power of the Father! Philo, who is with me, wishes to be remembered to you. Offer my respects to the household of Tavia, and I pray that she may be firmly rooted in faith and love, both carnal and spiritual. Give my regards to Alce, that most dear friend of mine, and to the incomparable Daphnus, and to Eutecnus, and to all the rest by name. Farewell in the grace of God!

◆Gems From Saint Athanasius◆

Saint Athanasius (295-373), one of the Fathers of the Church and Archbishop of Alexandria, was a most prolific writer, and defender of the Catholic Church. He is quoted by Catholics and non-Catholics alike. In his many writings, he mentioned the Catholic Church by name many times.

Here are some of his "Gems".

"Thus it is that sinners, and all those who are aliens from the Catholic Church, heretics, and schismatics, since they are excluded from glorifying (God) with the saints, cannot properly even continue observers of the feast."

Festal Letters VII, 335 A.D.

"Who then is so negligent, or who so disobedient to the divine voice, as not to leave everything, and run to the general and common assembly of the feast? which is not in one place only, for not one place alone keeps the feast; but 'into all the earth their song has gone forth, and to the ends of the world their words.' And the sacrifice is not offered in one place, but 'in every nation, incense and a pure sacrifice is offered unto God'. So when in like manner from all in every place, praise and prayer shall ascend to the gracious and good Father, when the whole Catholic Church which is in every place, with gladness and rejoicing, celebrates together the same worship to God, when all men in common send up a song of praise and say, Amen."

Festal Letters XI,11, 339 A.D.

"For the faith which the Council confessed in writings is the faith of the Catholic Church."

Letter on the Council of Nicaea, 27, 350 A.D., J757

"Well then, what is there in common between the heresy of Arius and the opinion of Dionysius: or why is Dionysius to be called like Arius, when they differ widely? For the one is a teacher of the Catholic Church, while the other has been the inventor of a new heresy."

Letter on the Opinion of Dionysius, 6, 350 A.D.

"The Arians then ought, if their intelligence were sound, thus to have thought and held concerning the Bishop: 'for all things are manifest to them that understand, and right to them that find knowledge' (Prov. viii. 9). But since, not having understood the faith of the Catholic Church, they have fallen into impiety, and consequently, maimed in their intelligence, think that even straight things are crooked and call light darkness, while they think that darkness is light, it is necessary to quote also from the other letters of Dionysius, and state why they were written, to the greater condemnation of the heretic, For it was from them that we ourselves have learned to think and write as we are doing about the man."

Letter on the Opinion of Dionysius, 12, 350 A.D.

"But let the impiety of Sabellius and of Paul of Samosata also be anathematised by all, and the madness of Valentinian and Basilides, and the folly of the Manichaens. For if this be done, all evil suspicion will be removed on all hands, and the faith of the Catholic Church alone be exhibited in purity."

Tomas ad Antiochenos, 3

---

"How then can they be Christians, who for Christians are Ario-maniac? Or how are they of the Catholic Church, who have shaken off the Apostolical faith, and become authors of fresh evils?"

Discourse Against the Arians, I-4, 356 A.D.

"Let us note that the very tradition, teaching, and faith of the Catholic Church from the beginning, which the Lord gave, was preached by the Apostles, and was preserved by the Fathers. On this was the Church founded; and if anyone departs from this, he neither is nor any longer ought to be called a Christian."

St. Athanasius, Letter to Serapion of Thmuis, 359 A.D..

"A desire to learn and a yearning for heavenly things is suitable to a religious Emperor; for thus you will truly have 'your heart' also 'in the hand of God'. Since then your Piety desired to learn from us the faith of the Catholic Church, giving thanks for these things to the Lord, we counselled above all things to remind your Piety of the faith confessed by the Fathers at Nicaea. For this certain set at nought, while plotting against us in many ways, because we would not comply with the Arian heresy, and they have become authors of heresy and schisms in the Catholic Church."

Letter of Athanasius to Jovian

"For a certain Arius and those with him attempted to corrupt it, and to introduce impiety in its place, affirming that the Son of God was from nought, and a creature, and a thing made and changeable. But with these words they deceived many, so that even 'they that seemed to be somewhat were carried away', with their blasphemy. And yet our holy Fathers, as we said before, came promptly together at the Synod at Nicaea, and anathematised them, and confessed in writing the faith of the Catholic Church, so that, this being everywhere preached, the heresy kindled by the heretics might be quenched. This faith then was everywhere in every Church sincerely known and preached."

"But those who say, that the Son was from nothing, or from other subsistence and not from God; and that there was a time or age when He was not, the Catholic and Holy Church regards as aliens. Likewise those who say, that there are three Gods (Mormonism); or that Christ is not God (Jehovah's Witnesses); or that before the ages He was neither Christ nor Son of God; or that Father and Son, or Holy Ghost, are the same; or that the Son is Ingenerate; or that the Father begat the Son, not by choice or will; the Holy and Catholic Church anathematizes."

De Synodis, 463, 359 A.D.

*My insertions are in parentheses, to show there is nothing new under the sun. Ecclesiastes 1:10
Old heresies recycle themselves.*

---

"Although you have already subscribed to the letter I addressed to Arius and his fellows, exhorting them to renounce his impiety, and to submit themselves to the sound Catholic Faith, and have shewn your right-mindedness and agreement in the doctrines of the Catholic Church: ..."

Deposition of Arius by St Athanasius, 360 A.D.

"As there is one body of the Catholic Church, and a command is given us in the sacred Scriptures to preserve the bond of unity and peace, it is agreeable thereto. that we should write and signify to one another whatever is done by each of us individually; so that whether one member suffer or rejoice, we may either suffer or rejoice with one another."

Deposition of Arius by St Athanasius, I, 360 A.D.

"Since then our Lord and Saviour Jesus, Christ has instructed us by His own mouth, and also hath signified to us by the Apostle concerning such men, we accordingly being personal witnesses of their impiety, have anathematized, as we said, all such, and declared them to be alien from the Catholic Faith and Church. And we have made this known to your piety, dearly beloved and most honoured fellow-ministers, in order that should any of them have the boldness to come unto you, you may not receive them, nor comply with the desire of Eusebius, or any other person writing in their behalf. For it becomes us who are Christians to turn away from all who speak or think any thing against Christ, as being enemies of God, and destroyers of souls; and not even to "bid such God speed," lest we become partakers of their sins, as the blessed John hath charged us. Salute the brethren that are with you. They that are with me salute you."

"Again it is not tedious to speak of the [books] of the New Testament. These are, the four Gospels, according to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Afterwards, the Acts of the Apostles and Epistles (called Catholic), seven, viz. of James, one; of Peter, two; of John, three; after these, one of Jude. In addition, there are fourteen Epistles of Paul, written in this order. The first, to the Romans; then two to the Corinthians; after these, to the Galatians; next, to the Ephesians; then to the Philippians; then to the Colossians; after these, two to the Thessalonians, and that to the Hebrews; and again, two to Timothy; one to Titus; and lastly, that to Philemon. And besides, the Revelation of John."

Festal Letters XXXIX, 5, 367 A.D.

"ATHANASIUS to the presbyters and deacons and the people of the Catholic Church in the Mareotis, brethren beloved and longed for, greeting in the Lord."

Festal Letters XLVI

---

"Being well in body by God's favour, we have now sent our most beloved deacon Eutyches, that your most pious holiness, as is much desired by us, may be pleased to inform us of the safety of yourself and those with you. For we believe it is by the life of you Confessors and servants of God that the state of the Catholic Church is renewed; and that what heretics have assayed to rend in pieces, our Lord Jesus Christ by your means restores whole."

First Letter to Lucifer

"For who, except the Arians, does not clearly see from your teaching the true faith and the taint of the Arians. Forcibly and admirably, like light from darkness, you have separated the truth from the subtlety and dishonesty of heretics, defended the Catholic Church, proved that the arguments of the Arians are nothing but a kind of hallucination, and taught that the diabolical gnashings of the teeth are to be despised."

Second Letter to Lucifer

---

"Since then you are such a man, we ask the Lord in prayer that you may pray for us, that in His mercy He may now deign to look down upon the Catholic Church, and deliver all His servants from the hands of persecutors; in order that all they too who have fallen on account of temporal fear may at length be enabled to raise themselves and return to the way of righteousness, led away from which they are wandering, poor people, not knowing in what a pit they are."

Second Letter to Lucifer

"But those who say that He is a creature, or made, or of nothing, or that there was once a time when He was not, the Catholic Church anathematises."

To the Bishops of Africa, 9, 368 A.D.

"Now it would be proper to write this at greater length. But since we write to you who know, we have dictated it concisely, praying that among all the bond of peace might be preserved, and that all in the Catholic Church should say and hold the same thing. And we are not meaning to teach, but to put you in mind. Nor is it only ourselves that write, but all the bishops of Egypt and the Libyas, some ninety in number. For we all are of one mind in this, and we always sign for one another if any chance not to be present. Such being our state of mind, since we happened to be assembled, we wrote, both to our beloved Damasus, bishop of the Great Rome, giving an account of Auxentius..."

To the Bishops of Africa, 10, 368 A.D.

---

"For this Synod of Nicaea is in truth a proscription of every heresy. It also upsets those who blaspheme the Holy Spirit, and call Him a Creature. For the Fathers, after speaking of the faith in the Son, straightway added, 'And we believe in the Holy Ghost', in order that by confessing perfectly and fully the faith in the Holy Trinity they might make known the exact form of the Faith of Christ, and the teaching of the Catholic Church. For it is made clear both among you and among all, and no Christian can have a doubtful mind on the point, that our faith is not in the Creature, but in one God, Father Almighty, maker of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ His Only-begotten Son, and in one Holy Ghost; one God. known in the holy and perfect Trinity, baptized into which, and in it united to the Deity, we believe that we have also inherited the kingdom of the heavens, in Christ Jesus our Lord, through whom to the Father be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen."
To the Bishops of Africa, 11, 368 A.D.

---

Several non-Catholics have quoted to me from writings of Saint Athanasius. From the samples which I have shown here, if I were a non-Catholic, and was determined to remain one, I would not ever quote from him again.

His work, "Confessions" is a 13 volume series and is considered to be one of the greatest writings of all time. It is entirely addressed to GOD.

---

"We must hold to the Christian religion and to communication in her Church which is Catholic, and which is called Catholic not only by her members but even by all her enemies. For when heretics or the adherents of schisms talk about her, not among themselves but with strangers, willy-nilly they call her nothing else but Catholic. For they would not be understood unless they distinguish her by this name which the whole world employs in her regard."

The True Religion, 7,12, 397 A.D.

But see what you must beware of, see what you must take note of, see what you must fear. It happens that in the human body, or rather, off the body, some member, whether hand, finger, or foot, may be cut away. And if a member be cut off, does the soul go with it? # ◆Gems From Saint Cyprian◆

---

Saint Cyprian of Carthage (205-258), Bishop of Carthage. He was a staunch defender of the Catholic Church and was the first African Bishop to die a martyr's death. He mentioned the Catholic Church by name, many times in his prolific writings.

---

"There is one GOD and one Christ, and one Church, and one Chair founded on Peter by the Word of the Lord. It is not possible to set up another altar or for there to be another priesthood besides that one altar and that one priesthood. Whoever has gathered elsewhere is scattering."

Letter of Cyprian to All His People, 43,40,5, 251 A.D.

"And lest their raging boldness should ever cease, they are striving here also to distract the members of Christ into schismatical parties, and to cut and tear the one body of the Catholic Church, so that, running about from door to door, through the houses of many, or from city to city, through certain districts, they seek for companions in their obstinacy and error to join to themselves in their schism."

Epistle XL-2, to Cornelius.

"Cyprian to Cornelius his brother, greeting. I have thought it both obligatory on me, and necessary for you, dearest brother, to write a short letter to the confessors who are there with you, and, seduced by the obstinacy and depravity of Novatian and Novatus, have departed from the Church; in which letter I might induce them, for the sake of our mutual affection, to return to their Mother, that is, to the Catholic Church."

Epistle XLII, to Cornelius.

"Some persons, however, sometimes disturb men's minds and spirits by their words, in that they relate things otherwise than is the truth. For we, who furnish every person who sails hence with a plan that they may sail without any of-fence, know that we have exhorted them to acknowledge and hold the root and matrix of the Catholic Church. But since our province is wide-spread, and has Numidia and Mauritania attached to it; lest a schism made in the city should confuse the minds of the absent with uncertain opinions, we decided--having obtained by means of the bishops the truth of the matter, and having got a greater authority for the proof of your ordination, and so at length every scruple being got rid of from the breast of every one--that letters should be sent you by all who were placed anywhere in the province; as in fact is done, that so the whole of our colleagues might decidedly approve of and maintain both you and your communion, that is as well to the unity of the Catholic Church as to its charity. That all which has by God's direction come to pass, and that our design has under Providence been forwarded, we rejoice."

Epistle XLIV, to Cornelius

"When this error was removed, light was infused into the breasts of all, and the Catholic Church has been shown to be one, and to be able neither to be cut nor divided. Nor can any one now be easily deceived by the talkative words of a raging schismatic, since it has been proved that good and glorious soldiers of Christ could not long be detained without the Church by the deceitfulness and perfidy of others. I bid you, dearest brother, ever heartily farewell."

Epistle XLVI-2, to Cornelius

"Cyprian to Antonianus his brother, greeting. I received your first letters, dearest brother, firmly maintaining the concord of the priestly college, and adhering to the Catholic Church, in which you intimated that you did not hold communion with Novatian, but followed my advice, and held one common agreement with Cornelius our co-bishop. You wrote, moreover, for me to transmit a copy of those same letters to Cornelius our colleague, so that he might lay aside all anxiety, and know at once that you held communion with him, that is, with the Catholic Church."

Epistle LI-1, to Antonianus

---

"Let the lapsed, however, who acknowledge the greatness of their sin, not depart from entreating the Lord, nor forsake the Catholic Church, which has been appointed one and alone by the Lord; but, continuing in their atonements and entreating the Lord's mercy,"

Epistle LXIII-5, to Epictetus

---

"Whence you ought to know that the bishop is in the Church, and the Church in the bishop; and if any one be not with the bishop, that he is not in the Church, and that those flatter themselves in vain who creep in, not having peace with God's priests, and think that they communicate secretly with some; while the Church, which is Catholic and one, is not cut nor divided, but is indeed connected and bound together by the cement of priests who cohere with one another."

Epistle LXVIII-8, to Florentius Pupianus

---

"And therefore, because there can be nothing common to falsehood and truth, to darkness and light, to death and immortality, to Antichrist and Christ, we ought by all means to maintain the unity of the Catholic Church, and not to give way to the enemies of faith and truth in any respect."

Epistle LXX-2, to Quintus

---

"Wherefore, dearest brother, we ought both firmly to maintain the faith and truth of the Catholic Church, and to teach, and by all the evangelical and apostolical precepts to set forth, the plan of the divine dispensation and unity."

Epistle LXXII-20, to Jubaianus

"But if the baptism of heretics can have the regeneration of the second birth, those who are baptized among them must be counted not heretics, but children of God. For the second birth, which occurs in baptism, begets sons of God. But if the spouse of Christ is one, which is the Catholic Church, it is she herself who alone bears sons of God. For there are not many spouses of Christ, since the apostle says, "I have espoused you, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ;" and, "Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, for the King hath greatly desired thy beauty;" and, "Come with me, my spouse, from Lebanon; thou shalt come, and shalt pass over from the source of thy faith; " and, "I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse." We see that one person is everywhere set forward, because also the spouse is one. But the synagogue of heretics is not one with us, because the spouse is not an adulteress and a harlot. Whence also she cannot bear children of God; unless, as appears to Stephen, heresy indeed brings them forth and exposes them, while the Church takes them up when exposed, and nourishes those for her own whom she has not born, although she cannot be the mother of strange children. And therefore Christ our Lord, setting forth that His spouse is one, and declaring the sacrament of His unity, says, "He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth." For if Christ is with us, but the heretics are not with us, certainly the heretics are in opposition to Christ; and if we gather with Christ, but the heretics do not gather with us, doubtless they scatter."

Epistle LXXIV-14, to Firmilian

"But the enemies of the one Catholic Church in which we are, and the adversaries of us who have succeeded the apostles, asserting for themselves, in opposition to us, unlawful priesthoods, and setting up profane altars, what else are they than Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, profane with a like wickedness, and about to suffer the same punishments which they did, as well as those who agree with them, just as their partners and abettors perished with a like death to theirs?"

---

"For our Lord Jesus Christ, when He testified in His Gospel that those who were not with Him were His adversaries, did not point out any species of heresy, but showed that all whatsoever who were not with Him, and who, not gathering with Him, were scattering His flock, were His adversaries; saying, "He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth." Moreover, the blessed Apostle John himself distinguished no heresy or schism, neither did he set down any as specially separated; but he called all who had gone out from the Church, and who acted in opposition to the Church, antichrists, saying, "Ye have heard that Antichrist cometh, and even now are come many antichrists; wherefore we know that this is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us." Whence it appears, that all are adversaries of the Lord and antichrists, who are known to have departed from charity and from the unity of the Catholic Church."

Saint Cyril of Jerusalem (315-386), one of the Fathers of the Church and Bishop of Jerusalem, was a most prolific writer, and defender of the Catholic Church, and of the Council of Nicaea of 325. He is quoted by Catholics and non-Catholics alike. In his many writings, he mentioned the Catholic Church by name, many times.

Here are some of his "Gems".

"EVERY deed of Christ is a cause of glorying to the Catholic Church, but her greatest of all glorying is in the Cross; and knowing this, Paul says, But God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of Christ."

Catechetical lecture # 13, 1

---

"Faith therefore in the Resurrection of the dead, is a great commandment and doctrine of the Holy Catholic Church; great and most necessary, though gainsaid by many, yet surely warranted by the truth. Greeks contradict it, Samaritans disbelieve it, heretics mutilate it; the contradiction is manifold, but the truth is uniform."

"The Faith which we rehearse contains in order the following, "AND IN ONE BAPTISM OF REPENTANCE FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS; AND IN ONE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH; AND IN THE RESURRECTION OF THE FLESH; AND IN ETERNAL LIFE." Now of Baptism and repentance I have spoken in the earliest Lectures; and my present remarks concerning the resurrection of the dead have been made with reference to the Article "In the resurrection of the flesh." Now then let me finish what still remains to be said for the Article, "In one Holy Catholic Church," on which, though one might say many things, we will speak but briefly."

"It is called Catholic then because it extends over all the world, from one end of the earth to the other; and because it teaches universally and completely one and all the doctrines which ought to come to men's knowledge, concerning things both visible and invisible, heavenly and earthly; and because it brings into subjection to godliness the whole race of mankind, governors and governed, learned and unlearned; and because it universally treats and heals the whole class of sins, which are committed by soul or body, and possesses in itself every form of virtue which is named, both in deeds and words, and in every kind of spiritual gifts."

"But since the word Ecclesia is applied to different things (as also it is written of the multitude in the theatre of the Ephesians, And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the Assembly), and since one might properly and truly say that there is a Church of evil doers, I mean the meetings of the heretics, the Marcionists and Manichees, and the rest, for this cause the Faith has securely delivered to thee now the Article, "And in one Holy Catholic Church;" that thou mayest avoid their wretched meetings, and ever abide with the Holy Catholic Church in which thou wast regenerated. And if ever thou art sojourning in cities, inquire not simply where the Lord's House is (for the other sects of the profane also attempt to call their own dens houses of the Lord), nor merely where the Church is, but where is the Catholic Church. For this is the peculiar name of this Holy Church, the mother of us all, which is the spouse of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son of God (for it is written, As Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it, and all the rest,) and is a figure and copy of Jerusalem which is above, which is free, and the mother of us all; which before was barren, but now has many children."

◆Gems From Saint Irenaeus◆

Saint Irenaeus of Lyons (130-202), one of the Fathers of the Church, and Bishop of Lyons, was a most prolific writer, and defender of the Catholic Church against the heresies of his day. He is often quoted. In his many writings, he mentioned the Catholic Church by name several times.

Here are some of his "Gems".

---

"...as these teachers who are destitute of truly divine wisdom maintain; while the Catholic Church possesses one and the same faith throughout the whole world, as we have already said."

Adversus Haereses, Book I, chapter 10

---

"Since, however, it would be very tedious, in such a volume as this, to reckon up the successions of all the Churches, we do put to confusion all those who, in whatever manner, whether by an evil self-pleasing, by vainglory, or by blindness and perverse opinion, assemble in unauthorized meetings; [we do this, I say,] by indicating that tradition derived from the apostles, of the very great, the very ancient, and universally known Church founded and organized at Rome by the two most glorious apostles, Peter and Paul; as also [by pointing out] the faith preached to men, which comes down to our time by means of the successions of the bishops. For it is a matter of necessity that every Church should agree with this Church, on account of its preeminent authority -- that is, the faithful everywhere -- inasmuch as the Apostolic Tradition has been preserved continuously by those who are everywhere."

Adversus Haereses, Book III, chapter 3-2

"The blessed apostles, then, having founded and built up the Church, committed into the hands of Linus the office of the episcopate. Of this Linus, Paul makes mention in the Epistles to Timothy. To him succeeded Anacletus; and after him, in the third place from the apostles, Clement was allotted the bishopric. This man, as he had seen the blessed apostles, and had been conversant with them, might be said to have the preaching of the apostles still echoing [in his ears], and their traditions before his eyes. Nor was he alone [in this], for there were many still remaining who had received instructions from the apostles. In the time of this Clement, no small dissension having occurred among the brethren at Corinth, the Church in Rome despatched a most powerful letter to the Corinthians, exhorting them to peace, renewing their faith, and declaring the tradition which it had lately received from the apostles, proclaiming the one God, omnipotent, the Maker of heaven and earth, the Creator of man, who brought on the deluge, and called Abraham, who led the people from the land of Egypt, spake with Moses, set forth the law, sent the prophets, and who has prepared fire for the devil and his angels. From this document, whosoever chooses to do so, may learn that He, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, was preached by the Churches, and may also understand the apostolical tradition of the Church, since this Epistle is of older date than these men who are now propagating falsehood, and who conjure into existence another god beyond the Creator and the Maker of all existing things. To this Clement there succeeded Evaristus. Alexander followed Evaristus; then, sixth from the apostles, Sixtus was appointed; after him, Telephorus, who was gloriously martyred; then Hyginus; after him, Pius; then after him, Anicetus. Sorer having succeeded Anicetus, Eleutherius does now, in the twelfth place from the apostles, hold the inheritance of the episcopate. In this order, and by this succession, the ecclesiastical tradition from the apostles, and the preaching of the truth, have come down to us. And this is most abundant proof that there is one and the same vivifying faith, which has been preserved in the Church from the apostles until now, and handed down in truth."

Adversus Haereses, Book III, chapter 3-3

---

"The truth is to be found nowhere else in the Catholic Church, the sole depository of apostolical doctrine. Heresies are of recent formation, and cannot trace their origin up to the apostles."

Adversus Haereses, Book III, chapter 4 Prologue

---

"Since therefore we have such proofs, it is not necessary to seek the truth among others which it is easy to obtain from the Church; since the apostles,"

---

"In accordance with this design, Mary the Virgin is found obedient, saying, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word." But Eve was disobedient; for she did not obey when as yet she was a virgin. And even as she, having indeed a husband, Adam, but being nevertheless as yet a virgin (for in Paradise "they were both naked, and were not ashamed," inasmuch as they, having been created a short time previously, had no understanding of the procreation of children: for it was necessary that they should first come to adult age, and then multiply from that time onward), having become disobedient, was made the cause of death, both to herself and to the entire human race; so also did Mary, having a man betrothed [to her], and being nevertheless a virgin, by yielding obedience, become the cause of salvation, both to herself and the whole human race... And thus also it was that the knot of Eve's disobedience was loosed by the obedience of Mary. For what the virgin Eve had bound fast through unbelief, this did the virgin Mary set free through faith."

"Wherefore it is incumbent to obey the presbyters who are in the Church -- those who, as I have shown, possess the succession from the apostles; those who, together with the succession of the episcopate, have received the certain gift of truth, according to the good pleasure of the Father. But [it is also incumbent] to hold in suspicion others who depart from the primitive succession, and assemble themselves together in any place whatsoever, [looking upon them] either as heretics of perverse minds, or as schismatics puffed up and self-pleasing, or again as hypocrites, acting thus for the sake of lucre and vainglory. For all these have fallen from the truth. And the heretics, indeed, who bring strange fire to the altar of God -- namely, strange doctrines -- shall be burned up by the fire from heaven, as were Nadab and Abiud. But such as rise up in opposition to the truth, and exhort others against the Church of God, [shall] remain among those in hell (apud inferos), being swallowed up by an earthquake, even as those who were with Chore, Dathan, and Abiron. But those who cleave asunder, and separate the unity of the Church, [shall] receive from God the same punishment as Jeroboam did."

Adversus Haereses, Book IV, chapter 26-2

"He shall also judge those who give rise to schisms, who are destitute of the love of God, and who look to their own special advantage rather than to the unity of the Church; and who for trifling reasons, or any kind of reason which occurs to them, cut in pieces and divide the great and glorious body of Christ, and so far as in them lies, [positively] destroy it -- men who prate of peace while they give rise to war, and do in truth strain out a gnat, but swallow a camel. For no reformation of so great importance can be effected by them, as will compensate for the mischief arising from their schism. He shall also judge all those who are beyond the pale of the truth, that is, who are outside the Church; but he himself shall be judged by no one."

"Now all these [heretics] are of much later date than the bishops to whom the apostles committed the Churches; which fact I have in the third book taken all pains to demonstrate. It follows, then, as a matter of course, that these heretics aforementioned, since they are blind to the truth, and deviate from the [right] way, will walk in various roads; and therefore the footsteps of their doctrine are scattered here and there without agreement or connection. But the path of those belonging to the Church circumscribes the whole world, as possessing the sure tradition from the apostles, and gives unto us to see that the faith of all is one and the same..."

Adversus Haereses, Book V, chapter 20-1

---

"And indeed, although he writes again to the Corinthians and to the Thessalonians for their correction, nevertheless it is shown that there is one Church spread abroad through the whole world; for John, too, in the Apocalypse, though he writes to only seven Churches, yet speaks to all. Besides these, there is one to Philemon, and one to Titus, and two to Timothy, in affection and love, but nevertheless regarded as Holy in the Catholic Church, in the ordering of churchly discipline. There is also circulated one to the Laodiceans and another to the Alexandrians, forged under the name of Paul, in regard to the heresy of Marcion; and there are several others which cannot be received by the Church, for it is not suitable that gall be mixed with honey. The Epistle of Jude, indeed, and the two ascribed to John, are received by the Catholic Church."

◆Gems From Saint Jerome◆

Saint Jerome (347-420), one of the Fathers of the Church, was a most prolific writer, and defender of the Catholic Church. His Latin Vulgate was the first Bible to contain both Old and New Testaments. He is quoted by Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

---

"I follow no leader but Christ and join in communion with none but Your Blessedness, that is, with the chair of Peter. I know that this is the rock on which the Church has been built. Whoever eats the Lamb outside this house is profane. Anyone who is not in the ark of Noah will perish when the flood prevails."

Letter of Jerome to Pope Damasus, 374 A.D. 15,2 J1346

"He who is joined to the chair of Peter is accepted by me!"

Letter of Jerome to Pope Damasus, 374 A.D., 16,2 J1346a

"Yet, though your greatness terrifies me, your kindness attracts me. From the priest I demand the safe-keeping of the victim, from the shepherd the protection due to the sheep. Away with all that is overweening; let the state of Roman majesty withdraw. My words are spoken to the successor of the fisherman, to the disciple of the cross. As I follow no leader save Christ, so I communicate with none but your blessedness, that is with the chair of Peter. For this, I know, is the rock on which the church is built! This is the house where alone the paschal lamb can be rightly eaten. This is the ark of Noah, and he who is not found in it shall perish when the flood prevails. But since by reason of my sins I have betaken myself to this desert which lies between Syria and the uncivilized waste, I cannot, owing to the great distance between us, always ask of your sanctity the holy thing of the Lord. Consequently I here follow the Egyptian confessors who share your faith, and anchor my frail craft under the shadow of their great argosies. I know nothing of Vitalis; I reject Meletius; I have nothing to do with Paulinus. He that gathers not with you scatters; he that is not of Christ is of Antichrist."

Letter of Jerome to Pope Damasus, 376 A.D., 2

"Heretics bring sentence upon themselves since they by their own choice withdraw from the Church, a withdrawal which, since they are aware of it, constitutes damnation."

Commentaries on the Epistle to Titus, 376 A.D. 3,10 J1371a

"Christ Himself is a virgin; and His mother is also a virgin; yea, though she is His mother, she is a virgin still. For Jesus has entered in through the closed doors, and in His sepulchre--a new one hewn out of the hardest rock--no man is laid either before Him or after Him. Mary is "a garden enclosed ... a fountain sealed," and from that fountain flows, according to Joel, the river which waters the torrent bed either" of cords or of thorns; the cords being those of the sins by which we were beforetime bound, the thorns those which choked the seed the goodman of the house had sown. She is the east gate, spoken of by the prophet Ezekiel, always shut and always shining, and either concealing or revealing the Holy of Holies; and through her "the Sun of Righteousness," our "high priest after the order of Melchizedek," goes in and out. Let my critics explain to me how Jesus can have entered in through closed doors when He allowed His hands and His side to be handled, and showed that He had bones and flesh," thus proving that His was a true body and no mere phantom of one, and I will explain how the holy Mary can be at once a mother and a virgin. A mother before she was wedded, she remained a virgin after bearing her son. Therefore, as I was going to say, the virgin Christ and the virgin Mary have dedicated in themselves the first fruits of virginity for both sexes."

Letter of Jerome to Pammachius, 393 A.D., 21

---

"I thank you for your reminder concerning the canons of the Church. Truly, "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth." Still I would assure you that nothing is more my aim than to maintain the rights of Christ, to keep to the lines laid down by the fathers, and always to remember the faith of Rome; that faith which is praised by the lips of an apostle, and of which the Alexandrian church boasts to be a sharer."

Letter of Jerome to Pope Theophilus, 397 A.D., 2

"Just as in the Old Testament the priest makes the leper clean or unclean, so in the New Testament the bishop and presbyter binds or looses not those who are innocent or guilty, but by reason of their office, when they have heard the various kinds of sins, they know who is to be bound and who loosed."
Commentaries on the Gospel of Matthew, 398 A.D. 3,16,9 J1386

"That is to say, he has set in the forefront of his book John, an undoubted Catholic and saint, by his means to introduce to the church the heretics mentioned farther on. But who can adequately characterize the rashness or madness which has led him to ascribe a book of the Pythagorean philosopher Xystus, a heathen who knew nothing of Christ, to Sixtus a martyr and bishop of the Roman church?"

Letter to Caetesiphon 415 A.D.

"That you fight Christ's battles against the enemies of the Catholic Faith your own letters have informed me as well as the reports of many persons, but I am told that you find the winds contrary and that those who ought to have been the world's champions have backed the cause of perdition to each other's ruin."

Letter to Riparius, 417 A.D.

"The truth is that all we who hold the Catholic faith, wish and long that, while the heresy is condemned, the men may be reformed. At all events, if they will continue in error, the blame does not attach to us who have written, but to them, since they have preferred a lie to the truth."

Against the Pelagians, 417 A.D., book I-2

"He slays a heretic who allows him to be a heretic. But when we rebuke him we give him life; you may die to your heresy, and live to the Catholic faith."

Against the Pelagians, 417 A.D., book III-17

"Jude, the brother of James, left a short epistle which is reckoned among the seven Catholic epistles, and because in it he quotes from the apocryphal book of Enoch it is rejected by many. Nevertheless by age and use it has gained authority and is reckoned among the Holy Scriptures."

De viris Illustribus 4, 400 A.D.

"Clement, of whom the apostle Paul writing to the Philippians says "With Clement and others of my fellow-workers whose names are written in the book of life, "the fourth bishop of Rome after Peter, if indeed the second was Linus and the third Anacletus, although most of the Latins think that Clement was second after the apostle. He wrote, on the part of the church of Rome, an especially valuable Letter to the church of the Corinthians, which in some places is publicly read, and which seems to me to agree in style with the epistle to the Hebrews which passes under the name of Paul but it differs from this same epistle, not only in many of its ideas, but also in respect of the order of words, and its likeness in either respect is not very great. There is also a second Epistle under his name which is rejected by earlier writers, and a Disputation between Peter and Appion written out at length, which Eusebius in the third book of his Church history rejects. He died in the third year of Trajan and a church built at Rome preserves the memory of his name unto this day."

"Optatus the African, bishop of Milevis, during the reign of the Emperors Valentinianus and Valens, wrote in behalf of the Catholic party six books against the calumny of the Donatian party, in which he asserts that the crime of the Donatists is falsely charged upon the Catholic party."

As true today as it was then.

Timeless writings of the Church Fathers, which are as true today as they were on the day they were written.

---

"The Church, instituted by the Lord and confirmed by the Apostles, is one for all men; but the frantic folly of the diverse impious acts sects has cut them off from her. It cannot be denied that this tearing asunder of the faith has arisen from the defect of poor intelligence, which twists what is read to conform to its opinion, instead of adjusting its opinion to the meaning of what is read. However, while individual parties fight among themselves, the Church stands revealed not only by her own doctrines, but by those also of her adversaries. And although they are all arranged against her, she confutes the most wicked error which they all share, by the very fact that she is alone and One. All the heretics, therefore, come against the Church; but while all the heretics can conquer each other, they can win nothing for themselves. For their victory is the triumph of the Church over all of them. One heresy struggles against that teaching of another, which the faith of the Church has already condemned in the other heresy, - for there is nothing which the heretics hold in common, and the result is that they affirm our faith while fighting among themselves."

Saint Hilary of Poitiers... The Trinity, 7:4, Jurgens 865, 356 A.D.

"When, therefore, we have such proofs, it is not necessary to seek among others the truth which is easily obtained from the Church. For the Apostles, like a rich man in a bank, deposited with her most copiously everything which pertains to the truth; and everyone whosoever wishes draws from her the drink of life."

Saint Irenaeus... Against Heresies, 3:4:1, Jurgens 213, 180 A.D.

"This Church is holy, the one Church, the true Church, the Catholic Church, fighting as she does against all heresies. She can fight, but she cannot be beaten. All heresies are expelled from her, like the useless loppings pruned from a vine. She remains fixed in her root, in her vine, in her love. The gates of hell shall not conquer her."

Saint Augustine of Hippo... Sermon to Catechumens, on the Creed, 6:14, Jurgens 1535, 395 A.D.

"If you want GOD to forgive, you must confess. Sin cannot go unpunished. It were seemingly, improper, and unjust for sin to go unpunished. Since, therefore, sin must not go unpunished, let it be punished by you, lest you be punished for it. Let your sin have you for its judge, not its patron. Go up and take the bench against yourself, and put the guilt before yourself. Do not put it behind you, or GOD will put it in front of you."

Saint Augustine of Hippo... Sermons, 20:2, J1494, 410 A.D.

---

"We must understand that the divine operation, if comprehended by reason, is not remarkable; nor does that faith which human reason puts to the test have merit... The body of the Lord came into the presence of the disciples through closed doors, which body, in truth, at His birth came forth to human eyes from the closed womb of the Virgin. What wonder then, if after His Resurrection and about to reign victorious in eternity, He entered through closed doors, who, coming so that He might die, came forth from the unopened womb of the Virgin?"

Saint Gregory I... Homilies on the Gospels, 2:26:1, J2331, 590 A.D.

*"Nothing under the sun is new, neither is any man able to say: Behold this is new; for it has already gone before in the ages that were before us."
Ecclesiastes 1:10*

Has "His-Story" ended?

Yes, "His-story" about the growth of His Church did end after the last verse in the book of Acts was written and it did not begin again until 1521 when the Protestant revolt started!

That is what we are told to believe by some non-Catholics, but NOT by GOD.

Others try to tell us that His-story ended when the Book of Revelation was finished. However, there were one or two documents written over that 1400+ year period until 1521, and they believe, "If I can use (twist) them to my advantage, I'll do so", say some anti-Catholics. "If I cannot use them, then they simply do not exist", the same anti-Catholics say.

Did "His-Story" really end with the completion of the last book of the Bible, or do the events of "His-Story" march on and accumulate unbroken and unfettered throughout all time?

Well what does Holy Scripture say about the "end of His-Story"?

"But when he, the Spirit of Truth, has come, he will (future tense) teach you all the truth. For he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he will hear he will speak, AND THE THINGS THAT ARE TO COME HE WILL DECLARE TO YOU."

John 16:13

Holy Scripture clearly says that His-Story will continue into the future.

How far into the future? Let us examine another verse.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them all that I have commanded you; and behold, I AM WITH YOU ALL DAYS, EVEN UNTIL THE CONSUMMATION OF THE WORLD."

Matthew 28:19-20

Verse 20 means, "He will be with us every day in every century until the end of time with no gaps".

Does that sound like a time limit has been imposed by GOD on "His-Story"?

No time limit was imposed by GOD, but a time limit was imposed by man, according to some anti-Catholics, since they have created a veritable "Black Hole" of "His-Story" from the time the last book of the Bible was written about 95-100 A.D., until 1521, a period of over 1420 years.

If something is not in the Bible, then I will simply reject it. That is the false thinking of some non-Catholics.

What does Holy Scripture say regarding "everything is in it"?

"Many other signs also Jesus worked in the sight of his disciples, WHICH ARE NOT WRITTEN IN THIS BOOK."

John 20:30

"There are, however, many other things that Jesus did; but if everyone of these should be written, not even the world itself, I think, could hold the books that would have to be written."

John 21:25

Some questions for those who refuse to believe anything, if they cannot find it in the Bible. Tell me then, how can you find answers to these questions?

- 1. Show me in the Bible the list of inspired books in it? If you cannot find such a list then how do you know the book you call the Bible is the Bible?*
- 2. Show me in the Bible where the word "Trinity" is defined? If you cannot find the word in the Bible, then why do you believe in the doctrine? From where did the word "Trinity" come?*
- 3. Same question for the word "Incarnate"?*
- 4. Show me in the Bible where the Bible tells you that all the books within it are inspired?*
- 5. Show me in the Bible where Jesus said what Luke said He said in this verse?
'...and REMEMBER the WORD of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive'.'" Acts 20:35*
- 6. Show me in Scripture the reference of Matthew 2:23 that "he shall be called a Nazarene"?*
- 7. Show me in Scripture the reference of Matthew 5:43 that "you shall hate your enemy"?*
- 8. Show me in Scripture the reference of 2Timothy 3:8 that "Jamnes and Mambres resisted Moses"?*
- 9. Tell me, where did your Bible come from? Documents please?*
- 10. Since you believe all Scripture is inspired, then show me where the Bible excludes the Gospel of Peter and the Gospel of Thomas? Can't find it? Then why are these books not in your Bible?*
- 11. Show me the verses which say the Bible claims to be the sole authority for Christians in matters of faith and morals?*

As you can clearly see, the Bible is far from complete. Some very important questions simply cannot be answered with Scripture alone. Some of these are examples of Apostolic Tradition, for which we are commanded to keep by WORD or by letter in 2Thessalonians 2:15. Apostolic tradition is quite removed from man-made tradition.

Now, where would you go to find the answers to the questions I have just put forth?

Will you just simply ignore the questions and prefer to have no answers?

Or do you honestly want to seek the truth?

---

What have we learned from Holy Scripture so far?

- 1. That Scripture says "His-Story" will continue until the end of time, and with no gaps whatsoever.*
  - 2. That Scripture says that learning will continue until we have been taught all things.*
  - 3. That Scripture says, and shows us that everything is NOT within its pages.*

What then, is this "Historical Black Hole"?

---

*It is the 1420 plus years of "His-Story" from the time of the finishing of the Book of Revelation, until Martin Luther came along and started the Protestant Reformation. These 1420 years are filled with genuine historical documents that are suppressed by the leaders of most of the 33,800* non-Catholic ecclesial communities.*

What do these leaders of the 33,800 ecclesial communities tell, or refrain from telling their flocks?

- 1. They do not teach their subjects that genuine historical documents for this time period even exist.*
- 2. There are literally thousands of historical documents written by hundreds down through the ages.*
- 3. The documents are available for all to see, "But there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known." Luke 12:2*
- 4. If any of their subjects find that these documents do exist, they are told not to read them.*
- 5. They are told that they will become corrupted if they do read them. Their subjects are purposely kept* in "Spiritual Darkness".

6. The truth is, however, that whoever reads these documents will find the real truth for themselves and not what someone else just tells them is the truth.

7. We are all obligated to search for the truth (1Timothy 2:4). Since truth is a person (John 14:6), if you have not searched for the truth, then you have not found the truth, and thus you have not found the person who is GOD.

You cannot find the fullness of truth by ignoring 1420 years of His-Story.

"For they have not received the love of truth that they might be saved. Therefore GOD sends them a misleading influence that they may believe falsehood, that all may be judged who have not believed the truth, but have preferred wickedness."

2Thessalonians 2:10-12

Who, or what, is this misleading influence? Holy Scripture gives us the answer to this question...

"For the WRATH of GOD is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness OF THOSE MEN WHO IN WICKEDNESS HOLD BACK THE TRUTH OF GOD."

Romans 1:18

Some of the various authors of genuine historical documents are:

Josephus (Flavius Josephus 37-101 A.D.) was a Jew and a Jewish historian. He wrote many books about Jewish history from their very beginnings until the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.. His writings are valued by scholars, as some of what he wrote is the only source for several of the historical events. He also dated the events which very few writers in the early times did. In his book XVIII, chapter 3, he wrote of Jesus Christ:

"About this time lived Jesus, a man full of wisdom, if indeed one may call Him a man. For He was the doer of incredible things, and the teacher of such as gladly received the truth. He thus attracted to Himself many Jews and many of the Gentiles. He was the Christ. On the accusation of the leading men of our people, Pilate condemned Him to death upon the cross; nevertheless those who had previously loved Him still remained faithful to Him. For on the third day He again appeared to them living, just as, in addition to a thousand other marvelous things, prophets sent by God had foretold. And to the present day the race of those who call themselves Christians after Him has not ceased."

Evodius was the first Bishop of Antioch, and he is credited with being the first person to call the followers of Christ, "Christians", as shown in Acts 11:26. See Eusebius, book 3, chapter 22.

Saint Ignatius (35-107), the second Bishop of Antioch wrote a letter to the Smyrneans in 107 A.D.. In this letter is recorded the first known use of the words "Catholic Church"...

Paragraph #8

"You must all follow the lead of the bishop, as Jesus Christ followed that of the Father; follow the presbytery as you would the Apostles; reverence the deacons as you would God's commandment. Let no one do anything touching the Church, apart from the bishop. Let that celebration of the Eucharist be considered valid which is held under the bishop or anyone to whom he has committed it. Where the bishop appears, there let the people be, just as where Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church. It is not permitted without authorization from the bishop either to baptize or to hold an agape; but whatever he approves is also pleasing to God. Thus everything you do will be proof against danger and valid."

Some non-Catholics teach that the Catholic Church did not even come into existence until the Emperor of Rome,

*Constantine, issued the "Edict of Milan"* in 313 A.D..*

*How then, can they explain this letter of Saint Ignatius written over 200 years earlier?
Here is an additional sampling of titles of writings** where the Catholic Church is mentioned by name, and with all of them penned before 313 A.D.:*

Lactantius, Divine Institutions 4:30:1. J637, 304 A.D.

**The "Edict of Milan", available on the Internet for all to see, did not "start" the Catholic Church, but merely allowed the open existence of Christianity. It allowed Christianity to continue without fear of Roman persecution. Prior to this event, Christians were persecuted mercilessly by both the Romans and the Jews, and they had to practice the faith underground, and in secret.*

Read the "Edict of Milan" for yourself and you will see the truth of what I said.

\*The "J" numbers refer to Jurgens book set, "The Faith of the Early Fathers".*

All of the writings listed above are available on the Internet for free.

---

Saint Justin the martyr (105-165), is recognized as the "First Christian Apologist".

He wrote extensively in the defense of the early Church.

---

Saint Irenaeus (140-202), wrote a monumental volume entitled "Against Heresies" which scholars use to this day. Yes, there were heretics then also, and right from the very beginning of Christianity.

---

Bishop Eusebius of Caesarea (263-339), is called, "The Father of Church History", and wrote 10 volumes of the history of the Catholic Church. His His-Storical writings span the time period from before the birth of Jesus Christ until about 330 A.D.. He quoted some of the writings of Josephus.

---

Saint Athanasius (295-373), Bishop of Alexandria. Read about how he championed the Church against the heresy of Arianism. In his Festal Letter #39, which he wrote in 367, is a list of the New Testament Canon, which just a few years later was accepted by the Church.

---

Saint Jerome (341-420), was the person who gave the world the first Bible with both Old and New Testaments, the "Latin Vulgate" in 404. The Vulgate is the official Bible of the Catholic Church to this day. Saint Jerome, as a great defender of the Catholic Church has many other outstanding writings to his credit.

---

Saint Augustine (354-430), one of the greatest writers in defense of the Catholic Church of all time. He wrote hundreds of documents and mentioned the Catholic Church by name over 300 times. His "Confessions" is considered to be one of the most outstanding works ever written.

---

Saint Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274), was one of the greatest Christian thinkers of all time. His monumental "Summa Theologica" embraces practically every facet of Christianity. In it he presents the objections to Christian doctrine and then gives the supporting arguments. His "Summa" is widely used by serious scholars and is considered to be one of the greatest writings of all time.

---

This is only a small sampling of the plethora of genuine historical documents written by early Christians, and these writings are available for everyone to study.

A comprehensive list of genuine historical documents with many different writers and covering many subjects, can be seen here. There are URL's posted in that file, that will allow you to find these writings and see for yourself the wealth of genuine historical documents that are just a click away.

---

There are also voluminous writings of Christianity by Roman, Greek, Jewish and other authors of the time, such as Pliny, Tacitus, and the Jewish Talmud.

---

How can anyone who is serious about their salvation afford to ignore these treasures from the past?

---

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

John 8:32

Half of the Truth is no truth at all.

How then, can you get the full truth if you ignore 1420 plus years of genuine historical documents?

Cardinal John Newman, a convert from Anglicanism said it best in regards to historical documents:

"To be deep in history is to cease to be Protestant."

That is the real reason why non-Catholic ministers and elders tell their flocks to ignore the "Black Hole" of "His-Story". You see, there is absolutely nothing written about the 33,800 ecclesial communities during this 1420 year period, as none of them existed then, but there are plentiful writings of Christianity and of the Church which Jesus Christ founded. "His-Story" flowed from century to century with no "gaps" whatsoever. The only "Historical Black Holes" which exist, are those in the minds of some who choose to ignore 1420 plus years of historical writings, and, as mentioned earlier from Romans 1:18, "...who in wickedness hold back the truth of GOD."

Do you ignore the history of your country? No? Then why do you ignore the history of Christianity? Christian history is of much greater value for you, as it will gratuitously profit you in your quest for eternal salvation.

"What is it that has been? The same thing that shall be. What is it that has been done? The same thing that shall be done. Nothing under the sun is new, neither is any man able to say: Behold this is new; for it has already gone before in the ages that were before us. There is no remembrance of former things; nor indeed of those things which hereafter are to come, shall there be any remembrance with them that shall be in the latter end."

Ecclesiastes 1:10-11

So why would anyone want to ignore the former things? We can profit enormously from what has been accomplished by millenniums of ancestral writings by thousands of others who went before us. One of the worlds great scientists was asked how he was able to accomplish so much in his lifetime.

He replied, "It was because I stood upon the shoulders of giants".

Could he still have soared as he had done, by ignoring the scientific giants that lived before him?

Wouldn't the same logic also apply to us regarding the theological giants who lived before our time?

---

Those who ignore history fail to profit from its good deeds, and are doomed to repeat its mistakes.

---

No one should allow themselves to be dragged into the "Black Hole" of spiritual darkness.

"If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and are not practicing the truth. But if we walk in the light as He also is the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin."

1John 1:6-7

"Because you have rejected knowledge, I will reject you, that you shall not do the office of priesthood to me."

Hosea 4:6

The Edict of Milan

313 A.D.

---

---

When Roman Emperor Constantine Augustus of the western Empire, and Licinius Augustus of the eastern, proclaimed this Edict in 313 A.D., persecution of Christians by the Roman Empire ended. Some non-Catholics try to show from this document that it was the beginning of the Catholic Church. This is absolutely not true as the document clearly shows.

*When I, Constantine Augustus, as well as I, Licinius Augustus, fortunately met near Mediolanurn (Milan), and were considering everything that pertained to the public welfare and security, we thought, among other things which we saw would be for the good of many, those regulations pertaining to the reverence of the Divinity ought certainly to be made first, so that we might grant to the Christians and others full authority to observe that religion which each preferred; whence any Divinity whatsoever in the seat of the heavens may be propitious and kindly disposed to us and all who are placed under our rule. And thus by this wholesome counsel and most upright provision we thought to arrange that no one whatsoever should be denied the opportunity to give his heart to the observance of the Christian religion, of that religion which he should think best for himself, so that the Supreme Deity, to whose worship we freely yield our hearts, may show in all things His usual favor and benevolence. Therefore, your Worship should know that it has pleased us to remove all conditions whatsoever, which were in the rescripts formally given to you officially, concerning the Christians and now any one of these who wishes to observe Christian religion may do so freely and openly, without molestation. We thought it fit to commend these things most fully to your care that you may know that we have given to those Christians free and unrestricted opportunity of religious worship. When you see that this has been granted to them by us, your Worship will know that we have also conceded to other religions the right of open and free observance of their worship for the sake of the peace of our times, that each one may have the free opportunity to worship as he pleases; this regulation is made that we may not seem to detract from any dignity or any religion.

Moreover, in the case of the Christians especially we esteemed it best to order that if it happens anyone heretofore has bought from our treasury from anyone whatsoever, those places where they were previously accustomed to assemble, concerning which a certain decree had been made and a letter sent to you officially, the same shall be restored to the Christians without payment or any claim of recompense and without any kind of fraud or deception, Those, moreover, who have obtained the same by gift, are likewise to return them at once to the Christians. Besides, both those who have purchased and those who have secured them by gift, are to appeal to the vicar if they seek any recompense from our bounty, that they may be cared for through our clemency. All this property ought to be delivered at once to the community of the Christians through your intercession, and without delay. And since these Christians are known to have possessed not only those places in which they were accustomed to assemble, but also other property, namely the churches, belonging to them as a corporation and not as individuals, all these things which we have included under the above law, you will order to be restored, without any hesitation or controversy at all, to these Christians, that is to say to the corporations and their conventicles: providing, of course, that the above arrangements be followed so that those who return the same without payment, as we have said, may hope for an indemnity from our bounty. In all these circumstances you ought to tender your most efficacious intervention to the community of the Christians, that our command may be carried into effect as quickly as possible, whereby, moreover, through our clemency, public order may be secured. Let this be done so that, as we have said above, Divine favor towards us, which, under the most important circumstances we have already experienced, may, for all time, preserve and prosper our successes together with the good of the state. Moreover, in order that the statement of this decree of our good will may come to the notice of all, this rescript, published by your decree, shall be announced everywhere and brought to the knowledge of all, so that the decree of this, our benevolence, cannot be concealed.

The BreastPlate...

By St. Patrick...

---

The Deer's Cry I arise today, through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the threeness, through confession of the oneness, of the Creator of Creation.

I arise today, through the strength of Christ's birth with his baptism, through the strength of his crucifixion with his burial, through the strength of his resurrection with his ascension, through the strength of his descent for the judgment of Doom.

I arise today, through the strength of the love of the Cherubim, in obedience of angels, in the service of archangels, in the hope of the resurrection to meet with reward, in the prayers of patriarchs, in prediction of prophets, in preaching of apostles, in faith of confessors, in innocence of holy virgins, in deeds of righteous men.

I arise today, through the strength of heaven; light of sun, radiance of moon, splendor of fire, speed of lightning, swiftness of wind, depth of sea, stability of earth, firmness of rock.

I arise today, through God's strength to pilot me: God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak to me, God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me, God's host to save me, from the snares of devils, from temptations of vices, from every one who shall wish me ill, afar and anear, alone and in a multitude.

I summon today, all these powers between me and those evils, against every cruel merciless power that may oppose my body and soul, against incantations of false prophets, against black laws of pagandom, against false laws of heretics, against craft of idolatry, against spells of women and smiths and wizards, against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ to shield me today, against poisoning, against burning, against drowning, against wounding, so there come to me abundance of reward.

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of every one who speaks of me, Christ in the eye of every one that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today, through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the threeness, through confession of the oneness, of the Creator of Creation.

Maxims of St. Teresa of Avila...

Maxims of St. Teresa of Avila...

St. Teresa of Avila is one of the great Saints of the Church, canonized for her heroic life of virtue and holiness. A successful imitator of Christ. She and all of the Saints were not born that way however; they were born like everyone else in original sin, and had to be corrected by their parents. One particular thing that they DID do was to have the "desire" to be a Saint. As St. Thomas Aquinas said, if you want to be a Saint "will it".

The Saints willed it with a constant desire, and used the ordinary means given to us by Our Lord - the Church and Her sacraments - which were instituted for that very reason for all men. Above this the Saints followed their personal vocation in life pointed out by God as would best secure their own salvation. For a great many people the married life will best secure salvation. For Saint Teresa, she was to enter the Carmelite order as a cloistered religious nun, and work towards that pinnacle of perfection by taking the vows and devoting her life to prayer and the imitation of the Saints.

For those who are called to remain in the world single or married, they must also strive 'according their vocation' for spiritual perfection. According to "The Spiritual Life" by A. Tanqueray, so often used as a text book in seminaries this century, we read of the obligation that all Catholics have to make constant progress in the spiritual life: "in the state of fallen nature, one cannot for long remain in the state of grace without striving at the same time to make progress in the spiritual life and to exercise oneself from time to time in the practice of some of the evangelical counsels."

"It is evident that one who would merely aim at avoiding mortals sin would not be living according to the standard of moral conduct outlined in the Gospel. Our Lord proposes to us as the ideal of holiness the very perfection of Our Heavenly Father: "Be ye therefore perfect, as also your heavenly Father is perfect." Hence, all having God for their Father must approach this divine perfection - which evidently cannot be accomplished without progress." Saint Teresa of Avila fought "the good fight". To help her fulfill her desire to become a Saint she followed "maxims" which helped remind her what she must do according to Catholic moral doctrines.

---

"MAXIM - A concise formulation of some fundamental principle or rule of conduct."

Below are the "maxims of St. Teresa". Those who are religious can follow these at face value since they pertain especially to those who are in the "state of perfection" in the religious life. For those whose vocation is single or married in the world, they can determine how to apply these in their own state in life. Virtue is the mean between two extremes. It takes desire, prayer and effort to follow these according to ones state in life without going to extremes by excess or defect. For instance, when we look at #3 "Let thy words be few in the midst of many", we realize that a salesman or politician must know how to speak-out when practicing his business without failing to follow it to some degree at other times when he is not acting officially.

THE MAXIMS OF ST. TERESA OF AVILA:

1. Untilled ground, however rich, will bring forth thistles and thorns; so, also, the mind of man.
  2. Speak well of all that is spiritual, such as religious, priests, and hermits.
  3. Let thy words be few when in the midst of many.
  4. Be modest in all thy words and works.
  5. Never be obstinate, especially in things of no moment.
  6. In speaking to others be always calm and cheerful.
  7. Never make a jest of anything.
  8. Never rebuke any one but with discretion, and humility, and self-abasement.
  9. Bend thyself to the temper of whomever is speaking to thee: be merry with the mirthful, sorrowful with the sad: in a word, make thyself all things to all, to gain all.
  10. Never say anything thou hast not well considered and earnestly commended to our Lord, that nothing may be spoken which shall be displeasing unto Him.

11. Never defend thyself unless there be very good reasons for it.
  12. Never mention anything concerning thyself which men account praiseworthy, such as learning, goodness, birth, unless with a hope of going good thereby, and then let it be done with humility, remembering that these are gifts of God.
  13. Never exaggerate, but utter thy mind in simplicity.
  14. In all talking and conversation let something be always said of spiritual things, and so shall all idle words and evil-speaking be avoided.
  15. Never assert anything without being first assured of it.
  16. Never come forward to give thine own opinion about anything unless asked to do so, or charity requires it.
  17. When any one is speaking of spiritual things do thou listen humbly and like a learner, and take to thyself the good that is spoken.
  18. Make known to thy superior and confessor all thy temptations, imperfections, and dislikes, that he may give thee counsel and help thee to overcome them.
  19. Do not stay out of thy cell, nor go forth from it without cause, and when thou goest forth beg of God the grace not to offend him.

20. Never eat or drink except at the usual times, and then give earnest thanks to God.
  21. Do all thou doest as if thou didst really see His Majesty: a soul makes great gains thereby.
  22. Never listen to, or say, evil of any one except of thyself, and when that gives thee pleasure thou art making great progress.
  23. Whatever thou doest, offer it up to God, and pray it may be for His honor and glory.
  24. In thy mirth refrain from immoderate laughter, and let it be humble, modest, kindly, and edifying.
  25. Imagine thyself always to be the servant of all, and look upon all as if they were Christ our Lord in person; and so shalt thou do Him honor and reverence.
  26. Be ever ready to perform the duties of obedience, as if Jesus, in the person of the prior or superior, had laid His commands upon thee.
  27. In all thy actions, and at every hour, examine thy conscience; and, having discerned thy faults, strive, by the help of God, to amend them, and by this way thou shalt attain to perfection.
  28. Do not think of the faults of others, but of what is good in them and faulty in thyself.
  29. Desire earnestly always to suffer for God in every thing and on every occasion.
  30. Offer thyself unto God fifty times a day, and that with great fervor and longing after God.

31. Call to mind continually throughout the day the matter of the morning meditation: be very careful herein, for it will do thee much good.
  32. Lay up carefully what our Lord may say to thee, and act upon the desires He may have filled thee with in prayer.
  33. Always avoid singularity to the utmost of thy power, for it does great harm in a community.
  34. Read often the rules and constitutions of the order, and observe in sincerity.
  35. In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks.
  36. Withhold thy heart from all things: seek God, and thou shalt find Him.
  37. Do not show signs of devotion outwardly when thou hast none within, but thou mayest lawfully hide the want thereof.
  38. Let not thine inward devotion be visible unless in great necessity: St. Francis and St. Bernard used to say, "My secret is mine."
  39. Never complain of the food, whether it be well or ill dressed; remembering the gall and vinegar of Jesus Christ.
  40. Speak to no one at table, and lift not thine eyes to another.

41. Think of the table of heaven, and of the food thereon - God Himself: think of the guests, the angels: lift up thine eyes to that table, longing for it.
42. In the presence of thy superior - thou art to see Jesus Christ in him - utter not a word that is not necessary, and that with great reverence.
43. Never do anything that thou canst not do in the presence of all.
44. Do not compare one person with another: it is a hateful thing to do.
45. When rebuked for anything receive the rebuke with inward and outward humility, and pray to God for the person who gives the rebuke.
46. When one superior bids thee do a certain thing, do not say that another superior has given a contrary order; but obey in what thou art commanded, and consider that the intentions of all are good.
47. Be not curious about matters that do not concern thee; never speak of them, and do not ask about them.
48. Keep in mind thy past life and present lukewarmness, to bewail them, and what is still wanting to thee for thy going into heaven, that thou mayest live in fear, which is a source of great blessings.

49. What those in the house bid thee do, do always, unless it be against obedience; and answer them humbly and gently.
50. Ask for nothing particular in the way of food or raiment, unless there be great need.

51. Never cease to humble and mortify thyself in all things, even unto death.
52. Habitually make many acts of love, for they set the soul on fire and make it gentle.
53. Make acts of all the other virtues.
54. Offer every thing to the Father Everlasting, in union with the merits of His Son Jesus Christ.
55. Be kind to all and severe to thyself.
56. On the days kept in honor of the saints consider their virtues, and beg the like of God.
57. Be very exact every night in thy examination of conscience.
58. The morning of communion remember in thy prayer that thou art about to receive God, notwithstanding thy wretchedness; and in thy prayer at night that thou hast received Him.
59. Never when in authority rebuke any one in anger, but only when anger has passed away; and so shall the rebuke bring forth good fruit.
60. Strive earnestly after perfection and devotion, and by the help thereof thou shalt do all things.

61. Exercise thyself much in the fear of our Lord, for that will make the soul contrite and humble.
62. Consider seriously how quickly people change, and how little trust is to be had in them; and cleave fast unto God, who changeth not.
63. As to the affairs of thy soul, labor to have a confessor who is spiritual and learned, make them known unto him, and abide by his judgment throughout.
64. Each time of communion beg some gift of God, by the compassion wherewith He has entered thy poor soul.
65. Though thou hast recourse to many saints as thine intercessors, go specially to St. Joseph, for he has great power with God.
66. In time of sorrow and of trouble cease not from the good works of prayer and penance which thou art in the habit of doing, for Satan is striving to make thee uneasy, and then to abandon them; on the contrary, do thou apply thyself thereunto more earnestly than before, and thou shalt see quickly our Lord will come to thy succor.
67. Never make thy temptations and imperfections known to those in the community whose progress is the least, for that will hurt thyself and the others, but only to those most advanced in perfection.
68. Remember that thou hast but one soul; that thou canst die but once; that thou hast but one life, which is short, and peculiar to thyself; that there is but one blessedness, and that for ever; and thou wilt despise many things.
69. Let thy desire be the vision of God, thy fear the loss of Him, thy sorrow His absence, and thy joy in that which may take thee to Him; and thy life shall be in great peace.

Saint Dominic and the Rosary...

Saint Dominic: 1170-1221...

Born Dominic Guzman in 1170 in Calaroga, Castile, Spain.

The Moors had swept across many regions of Spain turning Christian temples into Moorish Mosques. At 14 he entered the University of Palencia and later graduated with a degree in liberal arts and sacred sciences. At age 24 he was ordained a priest. At age 33 he came in contact with the Albigensian heresy. He preached to the Albigensians to try to get them to change their ways but was met with jeers and insults and they pelted him with stones and he had little success.

In 1208 in the Church of Prouille, he complained to Our Lady while in pious prayer. She in turn answered him saying,

'Wonder not that you have obtained so little fruit by your labors, you have spent them on barren soil, not yet watered with the dew of Divine Grace. When GOD willed to renew the face of the earth, He began by sending down on it the fertilizing rain of the Angelic Salutation. Therefore preach my Psalter composed of 150 Angelic Salutations and 15 Our Fathers, and you will obtain an abundant harvest'.

This revelation of the origin of the Rosary was affirmed by Pope Leo XIII, and the tradition that Mary first revealed the Rosary to St. Dominic is supported by 13 Popes. St. Dominic now found great success in this new devotion and brought about the conversion of the Albigensians. Our Blessed Lady made known to St. Dominic, a kind of preaching then unknown; which she said would be one of the most powerful weapons against future errors and in future difficulties.

---

St Dominic found the 'Order of Preachers', or 'Dominicans', in 1216. Soon after, the friars were sent in all directions. Friaries were established in Spain, France, England, and Italy. St. Dominic was appointed master general of the order in 1220, by Pope Honorius III. St. Dominic died on August 6, 1221, in Bologna. His feast day is August 8.

---

In 1240, a seemingly invincible Mongolian army, called the Golden Horde, swept in from the East and destroyed every European army sent against it. The Knight Templars were defeated in battle after battle. As the Horde was on the verge of overrunning all of Europe in complete victory, as there was no army left to stop them, they suddenly ceased hostilities and returned to Mongolia. This miracle was attributed by many, to European survivors who prayed the Rosary.

On October 7, 1571, members of the Confraternity of the Rosary, which was started by St. Dominic in 1218, prayed the Rosary for a blessing for the Christian fleet fighting the Turks at Lepanto. Pope St. Pius V, a Dominican, joined them, and GOD revealed to him that Mary had at that hour obtained a glorious victory for the Christian fleet. This great victory saved Europe from the Mohammedan peril.

Saint Joseph...

---

Devotion to St. Joseph...

*"In October I will perform a miracle so that everyone can believe in the apparitions....
St. Joseph will come with the Holy Child to bring peace to the world."
Our Lady's prediction of the miracle of Fatima, 1917.*

---

St. Teresa of Avila's devotion to St. Joseph.

From "The Autobiography of St. Teresa", chapter 6...

"I took for my advocate and lord the glorious Saint Joseph and commended myself earnestly to him; and I found that this my father and lord delivered me both from this trouble and also from other and greater troubles concerning my honor and the loss of my soul, and that he gave me greater blessings than I could ask of him. I do not remember even now that I have ever asked anything of him which he has failed to grant. I am astonished at the great favors which God has bestowed on me through this blessed saint, and at the perils from which He has freed me, both in body and in soul. To other saints the Lord seems to have given grace to succor us in some of our necessities but of this glorious saint my experience is that he succors us in them all and that the Lord wishes to teach us that as He was Himself subject to him on earth (for, being His guardian and being called His father, he could command Him) just so in Heaven He still does all that he asks. This has also been the experience of other persons whom I have advised to commend themselves to him; and even to-day there are many who have great devotion to him through having newly experienced this truth."

---

"I wish I could persuade everyone to be devoted to this glorious saint, for I have great experience of the blessings which he can obtain from God. I have never known anyone to be truly devoted to him and render him particular services who did not notably advance in virtue, for he gives very real help to souls who commend themselves to him. For some years now, I think, I have made some request of him every year on his festival and I have always had it granted. If my petition is in any way ill directed, he directs it aright for my greater good."

"I only beg, for the love of God, that anyone who does not believe me will put what I say to the test, and he will see by experience what great advantages come from his commending himself to this glorious patriarch and having devotion to him. Those who practice prayer should have a special affection for him always. I do not know how anyone can think of the Queen of the Angels, during the time that she suffered so much with the Child Jesus, without giving thanks to Saint Joseph for the way he helped them. If anyone cannot find a master to teach him how to pray, let him take this glorious saint as his master and he will not go astray."

Novena to St. Joseph...

O Glorious St. Joseph, faithful follower of Jesus Christ, to thee do we raise our hearts and hands to implore thy powerful intercession in obtaining from the benign Heart of Jesus all the helps and graces necessary for our spiritual and temporal welfare, particularly the grace of a happy death, and the special favor we now implore.

O guardian of the Word Incarnate, we feel animated with confidence that thy prayers in our behalf will be graciously heard before the throne of God. [Then the following V. and R. are to be said seven times, in honor of the seven joys or sorrows of St. Joseph.]

*V. O glorious St. Joseph, through the love thou dost bear to Jesus Christ, and for the glory of His name,
R. Hear our prayers and obtain our petitions.*

Prayer...

O Glorious St. Joseph, spouse of the immaculate Virgin, obtain for me a pure, humble, and charitable mind, and perfect resignation to the divine will. Be my guide, father, and model through life, that I may merit to die as thou didst in the arms of Jesus and Mary.

St. Joseph, friend of the Sacred Heart, pray for us.

The Seven Joys and Sorrows of St. Joseph...

1. The sorrow St. Joseph had when he was minded to put away his stainless spouse. The joy he had when the archangel revealed the sublime mystery of the Incarnation.

2. The sorrow St. Joseph had in seeing the infant Jesus born in abject poverty. The joy he had in hearing the harmony of angel choirs, and beholding the glory of that night.

3. The sorrow St. Joseph had when the Precious Blood of the infant Savior was shed at His circumcision. The joy given with the Name of Jesus.

4. The sorrow St. Joseph had at the prophecy of Simeon foretelling the sufferings of Jesus and Mary. The joy given, at the same time, of the prediction of salvation and glorious resurrection of innumerable souls.

5. The sorrow St. Joseph had in his toil to nurture and to serve the Son of the Most High, especially in the flight he made with Him into Egypt. The joy he had in having God Himself always with him, and to see the overthrow of the idols of Egypt.

6. The sorrow St. Joseph had by the fear of Archelaus. The joy he had in returning with Jesus from Egypt to Nazareth, and the reassurance of the angel.

7. The sorrow St. Joseph had when through no fault of his, he lost Jesus, the holy Child, and searched for Him in great anguish for three days. The joy he had when finding Him amidst the doctors in the Temple.

Tony, Tony, Look Around...

Saint Anthony of Padua is the Patron Saint of lost items.

---

He is very good at finding things that you have lost or misplaced. I personally, have called on St. Anthony many times to find something I needed, for which I had looked high and low, but to no avail. I then remembered this little poem.

---

'Tony, Tony, look around. Somethings lost and must be found.'

---

Many times I have found the missing item within a very short period of time.

---

I mentioned this little poem to my dear priest several years ago. He did not say much at the moment. Later that day, he called me and he was laughing, and he told me that a parishioner had called him, and she was very upset that she had lost her cherished Rosary and that she had looked high and low for it and she just couldn't find it. She asked Father to keep his eye open for it in the Church. He told her to say this little poem to Saint Anthony, and before he even got to the last word of the poem, she interrupted him with, 'I found it'. He said that both he and she were amazed. And so was I.

---

Try asking St. Anthony, by using this little poem, and see if it works for you...

Jesus Christ, The Incomparable...

Jesus Christ, the Incomparable...

More than nineteen hundred years ago there was a man born contrary to the laws of life.

This man lived in poverty and was reared in obscurity.

He did not travel extensively.

Only once did He cross the boundary of the country in which He lived; that was during His exile in childhood.

He possessed neither wealth nor influence.

His relatives were inconspicuous and had neither training nor formal education.

In infancy He startled a king; in childhood He puzzled doctors; in manhood He ruled the course of nature, walked upon the billows as if pavements, and hushed the sea to sleep.

He healed the multitudes without medicine and made no charges for His service.

He never wrote a book, yet all the libraries of the country could not hold the books that have been written about Him.

He never wrote a song, and yet He has furnished the theme for more songs than all the songwriters combined.

He never founded a college, but all the schools put together cannot boast of having as many students.

He never marshaled an army, nor drafted a soldier, nor fired a gun; and yet no leader ever had more volunteers who have, under His orders, made more rebels stack arms and surrender without a shot being fired.

He never practiced medicine and yet He healed more broken hearts than all the doctors far and near.

Every seventh day the wheels of commerce cease their turning and multitudes wend their way to worshipping assemblies to pay homage and respect to Him.

The names of past, proud statesmen of Greece and Rome have come and gone.

The names of past scientists, philosophers, and theologians have come and gone, but the name of this man abounds more and more.

Although nineteen hundred years between the people of this generation and the scene of His crucifixion have passed, yet He still lives.

Herod could not destroy Him and the grave could not hold Him.

He stands forth upon the highest pinnacle of heavenly glory, proclaimed of GOD, acknowledged by angels, adored by saints, and feared by devils, as the living personal Christ, our Lord and Savior.

One Solitary Life...

He was born in an obscure village.
He worked in a carpenter shop until he was about thirty.
He then became an itinerant preacher.
He never held an office.
He never had a family or owned a house.
He didn't go to college.
He had no credentials but Himself.
After preaching three years, the public turned against Him.
His friends ran away.
He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial.
He was nailed to a cross between two thieves.
While He was dying, His executioners gambled for His clothing, the only property He had on earth.
He was laid in a borrowed grave.
Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today He is the central figure of the human race.
All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned have not affected the life of man on the earth as much as that

I Am The Vine

---

---

---

---

"I am the true vine, and My Father is the Vine-dresser. Every branch in Me that bears no fruit He will take away; and every branch that bears fruit He will cleanse, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean because of the Word I have spoken to you. Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it remain on the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. I AM THE VINE AND YOU ARE THE BRANCHES. He who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; FOR WITHOUT ME YOU CAN DO NOTHING." John 15:1-5

Elucidation...

- 1. The grapevine changes water in its root into grapes in its fruit.
- 2. The Divine 'Vine' changed water into wine at Cana. John 2:1-10
- 3. Later the Divine 'Vine' changed wine into His Precious Blood at the last supper. Matt 26:27-28
- 4. Therefore, water is changed into the Blood of Christ.
- 5. As long as the branch is attached to the 'Vine' and bears 'fruit' it will be spiritually nourished by the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.
- 6. A branch that bears fruit is one who believes in Jesus Christ and who keeps His Commandments.
- 7. What did Jesus mean when He said "Abide in Me"? The answer to that question can be found in John 6:56:

"HE WHO EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD, ABIDES IN ME AND I IN HIM."

It is the "true presence" of our Lord in the Holy Eucharist, the food provided by the vine, so that eternal life is imparted into each and every branch and which allows the branches to bear fruit.

"If anyone does not abide in Me, he shall be cast outside as the branch and wither; and they shall gather them up and cast them into the fire, and they shall burn ." John 15:6

Elucidation...

- 1. "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood, has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day." John 6:53-54

"The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor the staff from between His feet, until He comes to whom it belongs. To Him shall be the obedience of nations. He tethers His ass to the vine; His ass's colt to the choicest vine. He washes His garments in wine, his robe in the blood of grapes." Gen 49:10-11

Elucidation...

1. The 'Sceptre' is a prefigurement of Jesus Christ. "But of the Son, Thy Throne, O GOD, is forever and ever, and a 'Sceptre' of equity is the 'Sceptre' of thy kingdom." Heb 1:8

2. The wine and the blood are prefigurements of the Last Supper changing of wine into his Blood, and of our sins being washed away by the Blood of Christ.

The Shoulder Wound of Christ Prayer.

By Saint Bernard of Clairvaux, 1090-1153.

---

St. Bernard asked Our Lord which was His greatest unrecorded suffering, and He answered:

"I had on My Shoulder while I bore My Cross on the Way of Sorrows, a grievous Wound which was more painful than the others,
and which is not recorded by men.

Honor this Wound with thy devotion, and I will grant thee whatsoever thou does ask through its virtue and merit.

And in regard to all those who shall venerate this wound,
I will remit to them all their venial sins, and will no longer remember their mortal sins."

---

Prayer to the Shoulder Wound of Christ:
Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

"Most loving Jesus, meek Lamb of God, I, a miserable sinner, salute and worship
the most Sacred Wound of Thy Shoulder on which Thou didst bear Thy heavy Cross which so tore Thy flesh and laid bare Thy Bones as to inflict on Thee an

the crushing burden of Thy heavy Cross to be merciful to me, a sinner, to me all my mortal and venial sins, and to lead me on towards Heaven along

the
Way of Thy Cross. Amen."
(Imprimatur: +Thomas D. Beven, Bishop of Springfield.)

---

Recent scientific examiners of the Shroud of Turin reported that there are marks and blood spots which show that the person in the shroud carried the Patibulum, the crossbar of the cross on his shoulders. The Patibulum was thought to weigh about 75 pounds and that weight on the shoulders alone was capable of inflicting shoulder wounds in a fall as described by Saint Bernard.

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ Through Mary...

---

*But that is not Biblical, so it is said by many.
Well let us look and just see what we can find...*

Jesus Christ is descended from David:

If He is from the line of David, then certainly Joseph could not be of his immediate paternal bloodline since Joseph was not his natural father. The bloodline could only be traced through His mother, Mary. She alone provided 100% of His genetic material, and thus provided the "flesh of the offspring of David", as shown in Rom 1:3,

"...concerning His Son who was born to Him according to the flesh of the offspring of David."

Matt 1:1, "The book of the origin of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham."

John 7:42, "...Does not the Scripture say that it is of the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived, that the Christ is to come."

2Tim 2:8, Remember that Jesus Christ rose from the dead and was descended from David."

Luke 1:32, "He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord GOD will give Him the throne of David, His father, and He shall be king over the house of Jacob forever."

Gal 4:4, "But when the fullness of time came, GOD sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the law."

See also all of these verses which refer to Jesus Christ as the Son of David:

Matt 9:27,12:23,15:22,20:30-31,21:9,21:15,22:42,22:45, Mark 10:47-48,12:35,12:37, Luke 18:38-39, Luke 20:44.

---

I have shown so far that Jesus Christ is descended from David, but through the genealogy of Mary it is only implied. However, Jesus had no human father. There was no human exchange for the conception of Jesus and so the human bloodline cannot be traced through Joseph.

---

Jewish law required that genealogies were to be through the line of the males, and not the females...

Num 1:17-18, "So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated, and assembled the whole community on the first day of the second month. Every man of twenty years or more then declared his name and lineage according to clan and ancestral house."

*Keeping accurate records of genealogies was very important to the Jews. The Jewish historian, Josephus, wrote that Public Records* recorded genealogies from the oldest to the youngest, and Private Records went from the youngest back to the oldest, and these genealogies were passed down through the generations. This was done in part in order to prevent unqualified persons from gaining positions through their ancestry. See Ezra 2:61-63, and Neh 7:63-65 where some priests were rejected because they could not prove their Levitical ancestry.*

Since the custom was of using male genealogies only, then how could an ancestral line of Jesus be shown through Mary?

It appears that GOD left a convenient loophole in this law that would allow women to be included in the ancestral line if they met two stringent conditions...

- 1. Num 27:8, "Therefore, tell the Israelites; If a man dies without leaving a son, you shall let his heritage pass on to his daughter."*
  - 2. Num 36:6-7, "This is what the Lord commands with regard to the daughters of Salphahad: They may marry anyone they please, provided they marry into a clan of their ancestral tribe, so that no heritage of the Israelites will pass from one tribe to another, but all the Israelites will retain their own ancestral heritage."*

So now, all we have to show is that:

- 1. The father of Mary had no sons.*
  - 2. Mary married within her own tribe of Judah. Gen 49:8-12*

Regarding the first condition, did Mary have brothers?

We have no record of it. The Bible does not mention brothers, but it does say she had a sister.

John 19:25, "Now there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother and his mother's sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene." It is thought that the sister of Mary was Salome, the wife of Zebedee and the mother of James and John (Matthew 20:20, Mark 15:40).

Please see "The Genealogy of the Brethren", for more.

In the Jewish culture in those days, the mother who was widowed (assuming that Joseph was dead at this time) would have gone to her father, or brother, or to her other children. Apparently, her father was dead, she had no brothers, and she had no other children, so Jesus gave her to John in John 19:27. The words of Jesus in John 19:27, and lack of evidence of male siblings, strongly suggest that the first condition was satisfied.

---

The second condition is a bit more involved:

Matthew 1:1-16, "(1) The book of the origin of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the son of Abraham. (2) Abraham begot Isaac, Isaac begot Jacob, Jacob begot Judah.....(5)...Jesse begot David the king. (6) And David the king begot Solomon of the former wife of Uriah." (Bathsheba)

This Genealogy continues and we see in verse 16, "And Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, and of her was born Jesus who is called Christ."

Notice that the descendant of David is Solomon. We shall see in Luke's genealogy, a different son of David.

Matthew clearly shows that the bloodline of Joseph does go back to the tribe of Judah, and through king David. If Jesus Christ is the Son of David, then His mother, Mary has to be also of the house of David and therefore by implication, of the tribe of Judah. As we have already seen in Romans 1:3, it could have not been said that the Son was born according to the flesh of the offspring of David unless Mary were of Davidic descent. We shall delve into this further later on.

Luke 1:26-27, "Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from GOD to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary."

We have already seen that Mary is implied as being of the house of David in Luke 1:32. If she were not of the house of David, then clearly, Jesus Christ could not have been descendant of David as do so many verses attest. She married within her tribe (by implication) and so the second condition appears to be satisfied.

Luke 2:4-5, "And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child."

Thus Mary, in order to be betrothed to Joseph, had to be of the same house of David as he. Consequently, both conditions for the bloodline to continue through the female line are satisfactorily met by Mary.

Now, let us look at the evidence:

First, a review of the bloodline of Joseph with some added observations.

Saint Matthew addressed his Gospel to the Jews, who followed the Law of Moses (Mosaic Law). He wrote the genealogy of Jesus Christ in Matt 1:1-17, and he was careful to meet the legal requirements of the Mosaic Law. His was of the Public Record as explained earlier. In it he begins with Abraham and shows the line going through David and then Solomon and all the way down to Jesus Christ. Remember in verse 16, "And Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, and of her was born Jesus who is called Christ." Matthew depicts Jesus Christ as "The Messiah".

Clearly Matthew said that the blood father (begot) of Joseph was Jacob. Matthew had satisfied the Mosaic Law by showing the male ancestry of Jesus by going through Joseph instead of Mary. Keep in mind that this genealogy shows the legal, or royal, or public record, of descent and not the human descent. More evidence that Matthew shows the legal line of descent is in Matt 1:11-12 where a man named Jechonias is mentioned.

See Jer 22:28-30 regarding Jechonias, as it states, "...for there shall not be a man of his seed that shall sit on the throne of David..."

Saint Luke has quite a different account of the genealogy of Jesus Christ. He wrote his Gospel to address the Gentiles who were not under the Mosaic Law, and for the most part were unfamiliar with it. He was also a physician, (Col 4:14). His interest, no doubt, was not in the legal aspect of the Genealogy of Jesus Christ, but of the human or natural bloodline, by depicting Jesus as the "Son of Man". Luke's Genealogy begins with Jesus Christ and goes backward in time, just the opposite of Matthew who started back and came forward. Luke's genealogy follows the custom of Private Records as explained above. Notice in Luke 3:23-38, that Luke's genealogy does go from Jesus Christ, through David, and back to Judah, continuing all the way to Adam, and then to GOD. By doing this he shows a tie between the "New Adam" (1Cor 15:45) and the first Adam. However, Luke shows the descendant of David to be Nathan (31), and not Solomon, as does Matthew. This alludes to the possibility that Luke's genealogy is for a different person other than Joseph. Let us have a closer look at verse 23 with three different Bibles.

"And Jesus Himself, when He began His work, was about thirty years of age, -being as was supposed- the Son of Joseph, the Son of Heli, the Son of Matthat."

Challoner-Rheims-Confraternity

"When Jesus began His ministry he was about thirty years of age. He was the Son, as was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli, the son of Matthat..."

"And Jesus Himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the Son of Joseph, which was the Son of Heli, which was the son of Matthat..."

King James

This verse at first reading might seem to say that we have something amiss:

1. This verse appears to say that the father of Joseph is Heli, yet in Matthew we just saw that it was Jacob. How can Joseph have two fathers?

In many places in Holy Scripture we must revert to the underlying Greek text in order to fully understand the verse. The Greek word used for "as was supposed, or, as was thought" is "Nomizo", which means:

- 1. To hold by custom or usage.*
- 2. To follow by custom or usage.*
- 3. It is the custom.*
- 4. It is the received usage.*
- 5. To deem, to think, to suppose.*

This matter can be made clearer by interpreting the verse as:

"When Jesus began His ministry he was about thirty years of age. He was the Son (so it was thought, of Joseph) of Heli."

The underlying Greek text supports this interpretation as, "...Joseph son of Heli", in the English translation, simply reads, "...Joseph of Eli". The word 'son' before Heli, is not in the Greek text.

So in order to trace the bloodline of Jesus through Heli, we would first have to go through Mary, His mother. This shows that Heli would be the blood father of Mary, and the father in law of Joseph. Even though the name of Mary is not listed, in order to comply with Jewish custom, it is certainly implied.

Matthew 1:15, shows that Matthan is the father of Jacob, and Luke 3:23-24, show that Matthat was the father of Heli. It is not known if Matthan and Matthat are the same person. If they are the same person, that would indicate that Jacob and Heli could be brothers if they had the same mother, or half brothers if they had different mothers, or one of them could have even been adopted from the tribe of Judah. Julius Africanus (160-240) wrote in his Epistle to Aristides that Jacob and Heli were half brothers. The Bible makes no distinction between genetic birth and adoption. See 2Sam 6:23, where Michol the daughter of Saul and the wife of David (1Sam 18:27) had no children. Yet in 2Sam 21:8, it says Michol had five sons. In reality, they were adopted sons of Merob. Jacob was the genetic father of Joseph. Heli, the father of Mary, was Joseph's father in law, his legal father.

Some additional notes:

1. Saint Luke was devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary as evidenced by his beautiful accounts of her in his Gospel. Knowing full well that Joseph was not the human father of Jesus Christ, and being a physician, he would naturally show the ancestral blood line to go through Mary.

---

2. Matthew's genealogy lists three breaks in the Mosaic Law. This indicates in the first few verses of the New Testament, that the Old Covenant, and with it the Mosaic Law, is coming to an end, being fulfilled (Matt 5:17), and soon to be superseded by the New Covenant of Jesus Christ.

a. Females are listed. (3) Tamar Gen 38:6, 1Chron 2:4, (5) Rahab Josh 2:1,17, (5) Ruth, book of Ruth, (6) Bathsheba (former wife of Uriah) 2Sam 11:12,24.

b. Sinners are listed. (3) Tamar, a deceiver, (5) Rahab, a harlot, (6) Bathsheba, an adulteress, (6) Solomon, idolatry. By naming sinners, GOD has shown that His ways are not our ways.

c. Gentiles are listed. (3) Tamar, a Canaanite, (5) Rahab, a Canaanite, (5) Ruth, a Moabite, (6) Bathsheba, a Hittite. Foreigners like these symbolized GOD's desire to save all, with no distinction between Jew and Gentile, Col 3:11.

---

3. What about Joachim? I thought he was the father of Mary with Anne as her mother?

Joachim is mentioned as the father of Mary in the following apocryphal books: The Protoevangelium of James, The Gospel of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, and The Book of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Joachim is another form of Joakim and Eliakim. Take a look at these two verses:

2Kings 23:34, "And Pharaoh Nechao made Eliakim the son of the Josias king in the room of Josias his father, and turned his name to Joakim..."

2Chron 36:4, "And he made Eliakim his brother king in his stead over Judah and Jerusalem; and he turned his name to Joakim..."

Subsequently, over the centuries, it is probable that the name Eliakim was shortened to Eli or Heli. Heli is merely the Greek form of the Hebrew Eli. The high priest in 1Sam 1:3 is called Heli in the Challoner-Rheims, and Eli in the New American Bible. You can see that the differences in translations will show different names at times.

There are many name changes and different spellings of persons names in Scripture. For example, Matthew himself, was also called Levi in Luke 5:27, and in Mark 2:14.

Joachim and Heli appear to be one and the same person.

Do not forget that Biblical names spanned many centuries and names evolved and changed then, just as they do now.

The Jewish Talmud, in the Gemara, also mentions that the father of Mary was Heli. Chagigah 77:4

The meaning of some of the names we have used here...

Eliakim - resurrection of GOD.

Eli - my GOD.

Joachim/Joakim - YAHWEH prepares.

Heli - ascending, climbing up.

Names with 'EL', meaning GOD, are from the Hebrew name for GOD, Elohim.

Notice that Joachim simply is meaning another name for GOD, 'Yahweh'.

Here is one last thought on this subject. The name Heli (as the father of Mary) is Biblical, as shown in Luke 3:23, while the name, Joachim, (as being the father of Mary), is found only in Apocrypha.

Jesus the Christ, High Priest, King of Kings, Lord of Lords, and the Sacrificial Victim.

---

---

The High Priest Melchisedech, a type of Jesus the Christ:

Genesis 14:18-20

18. "And Melchisedech, the king of Salem, bringing forth bread and wine, for he was the priest of the most high God,

19. Blessed him, and said: Blessed be Abram by the most high God, who created heaven and earth.

20. And blessed be the most high God, by whose protection, the enemies are in thy hands. And Abram gave him the tithes of all."

Elucidation:

18. Melchisedech was both a King and High Priest. Note the singular 'the priest' of the most high GOD.

Salem, later named Jerusalem, means peace. From it we get shalom (Jewish) and shalem (Arabic). Melchisedech was 'King of Peace'.

Note that He brought forth 'bread' and 'wine'. It is the first time bread and wine are mentioned together in Holy Scripture. It foretells the use of bread and wine in the sacrifice of the Holy Mass of today.

19-20. Doesn't the fact that Abram was blessed by Melchisedech, and paid tithes to him, imply that Melchisedech had a fundamental superiority over Abram? This superiority becomes self evident in Hebrews chapter 7 as is shown subsequently.

Psalms 110:2-6

2. "The Lord will send forth the sceptre of thy power out of Sion: rule thou in the midst of thy enemies.

3. With thee is the principality in the day of thy strength: in the brightness of the saints: from the womb before the day star I begot thee.

4. The Lord hath sworn, and he will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedech.

5. The Lord at thy right hand hath broken kings in the day of his wrath.

6. He shall judge among nations, he shall fill ruins: he shall crush the heads in the land of many."

Elucidation:

2. The 'sceptre' is a wand used by kings as a symbol of authority.

Here it is symbolic of the coming of Jesus the Christ (Matthew 16:20 DRB, KJ) in the flesh, Gen 49:10, Psa 45:6(7), Heb 1:8.

4. Once a priest, always a priest, for all eternity.

Hebrews 5:1-10

1. "For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in the things that appertain to God, that he may offer up gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2. Who can have compassion on them that are ignorant and that err: because he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3. And therefore he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4. Neither doth any man take the honour to himself, but he that is called by God, as Aaron was.
5. So Christ also did not glorify himself, that he might be made a high priest: but he that said unto him: Thou art my Son: this day have I begotten thee.
6. As he saith also in another place: Thou art a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchisedech.
7. Who in the days of his flesh, with a strong cry and tears, offering up prayers and supplications to him that was able to save him from death, was heard for his reverence.
8. And whereas indeed he was the Son of God, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered.
9. And being consummated, he became, to all that obey him, the cause of eternal salvation:
10. Called by God a high priest, according to the order of Melchisedech."

Hebrews 5:1-10

Elucidation:

4. No one can call himself to become a priest, but only those called by GOD.
9. Note that eternal salvation is for those who obey Him.

Hebrews 6:20

20. "Where the forerunner Jesus is entered for us, made a high priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedech."

Hebrews 7:1-24

1. "For this Melchisedech was king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him:
2. To whom also Abraham divided the tithes of all: who first indeed by interpretation is king of justice: and then also king of Salem, that is, king of peace:
3. Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but likened unto the Son of God, continueth a priest for ever.
4. Now consider how great this man is, to whom also Abraham the patriarch gave tithes out of the principal things.
5. And indeed they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is to say, of their brethren: though they themselves also came out of the loins of Abraham.
6. But he, whose pedigree is not numbered among them, received tithes of Abraham and blessed him that had the promises.
7. And without all contradiction, that which is less is blessed by the better.
8. And here indeed, men that die receive tithes: but there, he hath witness that he liveth.
9. And (as it may be said) even Levi who received tithes paid tithes in Abraham:
10. For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedech met him.
11. If then perfection was by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchisedech: and not be called according to the order of Aaron?
12. For the priesthood being translated, it is necessary that a translation also be made of the law,
13. For he of whom these things are spoken is of another tribe, of which no one attended on the altar.
14. For it is evident that our Lord sprung out of Juda: in which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.
15. And it is yet far more evident: if according to the similitude of Melchisedech there ariseth another priest,
16. Who is made, not according to the law of a law of a carnal commandment, but according to the power of an indissoluble life.

17. For he testifieth: Thou art a priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedech.

18. There is indeed a setting aside of the former commandment, because of the weakness and unprofitableness thereof:

19. For the law brought nothing to perfection: but a bringing in of a better hope, by which we draw nigh to God.

20. And inasmuch as it is not without an oath (for the others indeed were made priests without an oath:

21. But this with an oath, by him that said unto him: The Lord hath sworn and he will not repent: Thou art a priest for ever).

22. By so much is Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23. And the others indeed were made many priests, because by reason of death they were not suffered to continue:

24. But this, for that he continueth for ever, hath an everlasting priesthood:"

Elucidation:

1-2. This is a recap of Genesis 14:18-20

3. This description of Melchisedech, 'without father or mother, and with no genealogy and likened unto the Son of GOD', is a perfect description of the second person of the Holy Trinity, the eternal Christ. It also tells us that the priesthood of Melchisedech was not one of descent as was the Aaronic priesthood (Ezra 2:62, Nehemiah 7:64), but one of appointment or direct calling by GOD.

4, 6, and 7. Three examples of the superiority of Melchisedech over Abraham.

5. Coming out of the 'loins of Abraham' defines a priesthood of descent.

11-12. The end of the Levitical priesthood, it being replaced by the everlasting priesthood of the order of Melchisedech.

13-14. The new priesthood of Jesus Christ will not come from the Aaronic tribe of Levi, but from Judah.

23. Levitical priests were not priests forever. This is yet another sign of the superiority of the priesthood of the order of Melchisedech.

Hebrews 9:11

"But Christ, being come an high Priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this creation:"

The King of Kings and Lord of Lords:

As presented above, Melchisedech is a King and is also a figure of Christ. That makes Christ a King also.

John 18:33-37

33. "Pilate therefore went into the hall again and called Jesus and said to him: Art thou the king of the Jews?

34. Jesus answered: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or have others told it thee of me?

35. Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Thy own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee up to me. What hast thou done?

36. Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from hence.

37. Pilate therefore said to him: Art thou a king then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a king. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony to the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice."

Elucidation:

36-37. Jesus the Christ has said that He is a King.

1 Timothy 6:13-16

13. "I charge thee before God who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate, a good confession:

14. That thou keep the commandment without spot, blameless, unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15. Which in his times he shall shew, who is the Blessed and only Mighty, the King of kings and Lord of lords:

16. Who only hath immortality and inhabiteth light inaccessible: whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and empire everlasting. Amen."

Revelation 17:14

14. "These shall fight with the Lamb. And the Lamb shall overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings: and they that are with him are called and elect and faithful."

Revelation 19:16

16. "And he hath on his garment and on his thigh written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS."

---

The Lamb of GOD is the Sacrificial Victim:

John 1:29

29. "The next day, John saw Jesus coming to him; and he saith: Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him who taketh away the sin of the world."

John 1:36

36. "And beholding Jesus walking, he saith: Behold the Lamb of God."

Elucidation:

In those two verses, John the Baptist equated Jesus the Christ to the "Lamb of GOD".

Exodus 12:3-8, 12-14

3. "Speak ye to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, and say to them: On the tenth day of this month let every man take a lamb by their families and houses.

4. But if the number be less than may suffice to eat the lamb, he shall take unto him his neighbour that joineth to his house, according to the number of souls which may be enough to eat the lamb.

5. And it shall be a lamb without blemish, a male, of one year; according to which rite also you shall take a kid.

6. And you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; and the whole multitude of the children of Israel shall sacrifice it in the evening.

7. And they shall take of the blood thereof, and put it upon both the side posts, and on the upper door posts of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8. And they shall eat the flesh that night roasted at the fire, and unleavened bread with wild lettuce."

12. "And I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and will kill every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast: and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments; I am the Lord.

13. And the blood shall be unto you for a sign in the houses where you shall be; and I shall see the blood, and shall pass over you; and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I shall strike the land of Egypt.

14. And this day shall be for a memorial to you; and you shall keep it a feast to the Lord in your generations, with an everlasting observance."

Elucidation:

Here we see the Old Testament symbolism or typology of the New Testament "Lamb of GOD", of which John the Baptist spoke.

5. The lamb must be an unblemished male. Jesus Christ is an unblemished male.

6. The lamb is sacrificed in a bloody manner. Jesus Christ was sacrificed on the cross in a bloody manner.

7. The blood of the lamb is spread around the doorways of the homes of the Hebrews in order to save those inside from the Angel of Death. The blood of Jesus saves us all (from eternal death), just as the blood of the lamb saved the Hebrews in Exodus 12.

8. Then the Hebrews had to eat the flesh of the lamb.

We are commanded to eat the flesh of the "Lamb of GOD" in John 6:53-56.

"So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.""

The blood of Jesus saves us all, just as the blood of the lamb saved the Hebrews in Exodus 12.

13. This is the first verse to use the term "pass over", words of remembrance for the Jewish holy day celebration of "Passover".

Note that only those who were saved were Hebrews inside of the houses that were protected by the blood of the Lamb.

Likewise in the days of Noah, the only ones that were saved were inside the ark (Genesis 7:20-24, Hebrews 11:7, 1Peter 3:20-22).

Noah's ark is a prefiguration of the Church which Jesus Christ founded in the New Testament. The connection between the Old Testament type, the ark, and the New Testament reality, the Church, is readily apparent. Those to be saved are likewise inside the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

The blood of the "Lamb of GOD" is salvation offered for all the world.

14. GOD commanded that this holy day (of Passover) be a perpetual memorial for the Hebrews. To this day the Jews celebrate Passover.

Catholics offer a perpetual memorial ("Do this in remembrance of me", Luke 22:19-20) in every sacrifice of the "Lamb of GOD" in every Mass offered.

Malachi 1:11:

"For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice and there is offered to my name a clean oblation: for my name is great among the Gentiles, saith the Lord of hosts."

Elucidation:

11. This is a very graphic and key Old Testament prophesy of many changes to come. "For from the rising of the sun even to the going down", indicates that a daily sacrifice will be performed. The Catholic Church performs daily sacrifices in the Mass. Then there are the words that the name of GOD "is great among the Gentiles", meaning that not only the Jews will be GOD's chosen people, but people from all over the world (Colossians 3:11) will participate in the sacrifice. This indicates a "universal" Church will be performing these daily sacrifices. The word "Catholic", or "Katholikos" in Greek, means "universal". The "clean oblation" indicates the end of bloody animal sacrifices for an unbloody one, as is performed in the Catholic Mass.

The bloody sacrifice:

"According to John (John 19:14), Christ died on the cross at the exact moment when in the temples nearby, the lambs were being slaughtered for the Pascal feast. His death coincides with the sacrifice of the lambs. That however means that he died on the eve of Passover ... Most of the exegetes were of the opinion that John did not want to give us the exact, historic date of Christ's death, but had instead chose a symbolic date to highlight the one profound truth: Jesus is the true Lamb of God who shed his blood for us."

His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI, sermon, 5 April 2007, Holy Thursday

The unbloody sacrifice:

Luke 22:19-20:

19. "And he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

20. "And likewise the cup after supper, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood."

Elucidation:

19. When Jesus said, "This is my body" He was actually holding His own body in His hands. This is the "clean oblation" prophesied in Malachi 1:11.

Revelation 5:6:

"And I saw: and behold in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the ancients, a Lamb standing, as it were slain, having seven horns and seven eyes: which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth."

Revelation 5:12:

"Saying with a loud voice: The Lamb that was slain is worthy to receive power and divinity and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and benediction."

Revelation 13:8:

"And all that dwell upon the earth adored him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb which was slain from the beginning of the world."

Some final notes:

1. We have seen from Holy Scripture that Jesus the Christ, the Lamb of GOD, is both the High Priest and the Sacrificial Victim. The High Priest performs the sacrifice and the Sacrificial Victim is the sacrifice.

2. The Levitical priesthood offered many animal sacrifices to atone for sins, which could never take away sins (Hebrews 10:11), and those atonements were offered only for the Hebrew - Jewish nation.

3. Jesus the Christ offered only one sacrifice of Himself (Hebrews 10:10, 12, 14) to atone for sins, and He did it for all peoples of all nations. His sacrifice is commemorated in the Mass every day as the prophet Malachi had prophesied. His sacrifice opened the door to salvation, but there is no "Once saved always saved". Sins are ongoing, therefore the commemoration of the one sacrifice of Jesus the Christ is ongoing as well. Recall when He said, "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). When this is done, that is when Heaven and earth meet in the sacrifice of the Mass.

Who Died on the Cross?

Who died on the cross?

In My Experience, only about 1 in 10 Catholics know the correct answer to this question.

---

*Some of the Answers Given for that Question:
Which is the correct answer?*

A1. Jesus Christ died on the cross.

Q1. Yes, but who is Jesus Christ?

A2. The human person of GOD died on the cross.

Q2. Was Jesus Christ a human person?

A3. The human nature of GOD died on the cross.

Q3. Is it the nature of a person that dies?

A4. The Son of GOD died on the Cross.

Q4. Yes, but who is the Son of GOD?

A5. GOD died on the cross.

Q5. You get the gold star. ★ You are the 1 in 10 who knows the truth.

---

A1 is technically correct, but there is more to the correct answer.

A2 is wrong because Jesus Christ is not a human person.

Now you may ask, "Well, didn't He have all the characteristics of a human person except for sin?"

Almost right, except for one important point. Jesus Christ is a divine person, and if He were a human person, that would make Him 2 persons, each with a nature, and one human. He is a divine person with a divine and a human nature, one person with 2 natures.

A3 is wrong because persons die on crosses, not natures.

A4 is again technically correct, but we are looking for more here.

A5 is the correct answer because Jesus Christ is a divine person, and persons die on crosses, not natures. While dying in His human nature, Jesus Christ was living in His divine nature. He was both living and dead at the same time, but the person died. Therefore, GOD died on the Cross.

"But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses."

Acts 3:15

"When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand upon me, saying, "Fear not, I am the first and the last, and the living one; I died, and behold I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades."

Rev 1:17-18

Why Don't They Believe Me?

---

---

Of all of the founders of the earths various religions, only one came pre-announced. I sent My prophets ahead of Me, to tell My children in advance, to forewarn them, of what I would do, and of what they would do in return, during the time in which I would walk in their midst. They responded by killing My prophets.

---

Isa 6:9-10, "And He said: Go and thou shalt say to this people; Hearing, hear, and understand not; and see the visions, and know it not. Blind the heart of this people, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted and I heal them."

---

I have told them over and over again, repeating Myself, and yet they still do not believe what I say. Do you know why I insisted that the three 'synoptic' Gospels, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, be included in My Holy Word, the Bible? After all, the messages of all three have similarities, but with each focusing on its own individual audience. Why wouldn't only one suffice? It is because I knew they would not believe Me unless I pressed home My message as I did in these three books.

In Matthew 26:26, Mark 14:22, and Luke 22:19, I said, "THIS IS MY BODY." Yet some, twist My words and insist I did not say that. They add to My Holy Word, by saying that I said, 'this represents My body', or, 'this is only a symbol of My body. Yet they cannot find those words in My Holy Bible. They do not believe Me.

After those three books were written, and since they still refused to believe Me, I commissioned My Apostle John to write a fourth Gospel, the Book of John. I told him to write it in a different way from the other three and to write a chapter to convince them of what I had meant when I said "THIS IS MY BODY." My faithful servant did as I commanded him, and wrote of the promise of the Holy Eucharist in John Chapter Six. John emphasized nine times what I had said, and in the end, many still refused to believe it saying, "This is a hard saying. Who can listen to it?" Then many turned away from Me and refused to walk with me. Did I call them back and say, "Hey, I was only kidding?" No, I let them go, and in verse 68, I was willing to let My faithful followers go, if even they too refused to believe Me. I figured that if they still didn't believe Me after witnessing all that I had done, then what was the use of pleading with them. Many, to this day, still do not believe Me, even after having read, "THIS IS MY BODY", in all four Gospels. I even commanded My servant Paul to write about it in a fifth book, 1Corinthians 11:24-30, and rather forcefully at that, but to no avail. They do not believe My servant Paul either. What am I to do to convince them?

In Genesis 17:4-5, I renamed My faithful servant Abram, to Abraham, and gave him the title of the 'Father of a Multitude of Nations'. You see, when I gave someone authority, I changed his name at the same time. This was a sign that I gave to them, that they do indeed have the authority for which I gave them. I did the same thing in Genesis 17:15-16, when I renamed Sarai to Sarah, and gave to her the authority of becoming the Mother of Nations. I did it again in Matthew 16:18, when I renamed Simon to Peter. He received the authority directly from Me to be the 'Rock' upon which I will build My Church, and I gave him supremacy over the other Apostles by that name change. But there are still those who refuse to believe what I had said. They say My beloved Peter does NOT have the authority, and yet they cannot tell Me why they say this, or who does if it is not Peter.

---

I knew when I asked my Apostles to write the New Testament, that in order to include everything possible that I did, the books would become too cumbersome to carry. So I asked My servant John to include a mention of this in his Gospel. He did this in John 21:25. I saw immediately that some would think the Holy Scriptures would contain everything needed by My children, which it could not. I asked My faithful Paul to include a verse in his Epistle, 2Thessalonians 2:15, which said, "So then, brethren, stand firm, and HOLD THE TRADITIONS THAT YOU HAVE LEARNED, WHETHER BY WORD OR BY LETTER OF OURS." Since the book could not hold everything, I asked that the oral teachings or TRADITIONS, be perpetuated as well. But, alas, there are still some of those who simply do not believe Me. In fact, they say just the opposite of what I commanded. They say, 'do NOT keep the traditions'.

---

I told them who had the final authority on earth to speak in My behalf. It is My Holy Church, as My dear servant Matthew wrote in verses 18:15-18. However some refuse to believe Me, and insist it is the Bible, for which I did not give the final authority. I also had My dear Apostle Paul tell you in 1Timothy 3:15, that it is My Church which is the pillar and the foundation of truth . Yet many of you ignore My words in this verse and insist that it is the Bible and not My Church.

---

I made so many promises to My dear children that I would watch over and protect My Holy Church forever. Just read the words of dear Matthew in 28:20, where I promised I would be with My Church every day in every century until the end of time, and with not a single days gap. Yet many say My Holy Church apostatized soon after My last dear Apostle, John, came home to Me, and I left My Holy Church, only to return to the reformers over 1000 years later. I even told them that My Spirit would dwell with them forever, as My dear John wrote in his Gospel 14:16. My hard-headed, stubborn creatures, who have resisted my words since the days of Adam and Eve, still refuse to believe Me. Children, have you not read in Acts 5:29, "We must obey GOD rather than men"?

---

I emptied myself and came down from Heaven as a humble servant to My people. They didn't believe what I had said was true. In fact, they believed just the opposite. They called Me names such as blasphemer, and liar, and impostor. They stripped Me of My only possessions, My clothing. Then they nailed Me in agonizing pain on a wooden cross, where I expired. I thought that after conquering death in My spectacular resurrection, then all of my children would surely believe Me. But, alas, even My rising from the dead did not convince so many, as I had predicted in My dear servant Luke's Gospel 16:31.

How then am I to convince them that I did not only speak the truth, but I AM the truth, as My faithful servant John recorded in his Gospel 14:6?

How will I ever convince them to believe Me?

---

"He who does not believe the Son, makes Him a liar;" 1John 5:10

The SUN and the SON

a Biblical Comparison.

"The heavens are telling the glory of GOD..."

Psalms 19:1

---

---

"...For Without Me you can do nothing."

John 15:5

That verse holds true for both Jesus Christ who said it, and for the sun, for without the sun, there would be no life on earth.

Everything alive owes its existence to the sun and ultimately to the Son (John 14:6).

GOD is a Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

They are three persons in one GOD. They are distinct but not separate.

The sun can be likened to a trinity also, with the Father as being analogous to the sun, the Son proceeding from the sun (Father) as the light that we see, and the Holy Spirit proceeding from both the sun and the light (Father and the Son) as the heat that we feel. There again, we have a trio of the sun, light, and heat, with each being distinct from the others but not separate.

Holy Scripture is replete with verses depicting GOD as analogous to the sun...

---

In the Holy Spirit we find fire, and from fire comes heat:

"When he came to Lehi, the Philistines met him with shouts of triumph. But the LORD'S Spirit came over him. The ropes on his arms became like strings burned in a fire, and those on his hands snapped."

Judges 15:14

"Bless the Lord, fire and heat, sing praise to him and highly exalt him for ever."

Daniel 3:67

"The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me;"

Ezekiel 3:14

"For a burning place has long been prepared; yea, for the king it is made ready, its pyre made deep and wide, with fire and wood in abundance; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, kindles it."

Isaiah 30:33

The "breath" of the Lord is what GOD breathed into the body of Adam and which brought him to life in Genesis 2:7.

"The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with every one who is born of the Spirit."

John 3:8

Since the word "Spirit" means breath, it is depicted as wind also.

From the sun we have the hot solar wind which blows out over the solar system.

A hot and burning wind:

"And when the sun was risen, the Lord commanded a hot and burning wind: and the sun beat upon the head of Jonas, and he broiled with the heat: and he desired for his soul that he might die, and said: It is better for me to die than to live."

Jonas 4:8

A mighty wind ushers in tongues as of fire:

"When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

Acts 2:1-4

"I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire."

Matthew 3:11

"Extinguish not the spirit."

1Thessalonians 5:19

---

In the Son we find light:

"The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word." Hebrews 1:3

"And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light."

Matthew 17:2

"In his right hand he held seven stars, from his mouth issued a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in full strength."

Revelation 1:16

"But for you who fear my name the Sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings."

Malachi 4:2

Did you notice that the word, Sun, is capitalized?

For what purpose is it capitalized other than to connect the Sun with the Son?

Malachi 4:2 is a direct Biblical connection between the sun and the Son, for it is the Son, the second person of the Holy Trinity who is the righteous one:

"My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;"

1John 2:1

"But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day."

Proverbs 4:18

"The people that walked in darkness, have seen a great light. To them that dwelt in the region of the shadow of death, light is risen."

Isaiah 9:2

"So they shall fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come like a rushing stream, which the wind of the Lord drives. "And he will come to Zion as Redeemer, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, says the Lord."

Isaiah 59:19-20

"Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you.

And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising."

Isaiah 60:1-3

"And a star shall come forth out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel..."

Numbers 24:17

"I Jesus have sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

Revelation 22:16

And just what is the "Bright Morning Star"? The sun is a star, and it rises in the morning, and it certainly is bright.

"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life"."

John 8:12

The sun is the light of the earthly world, for without it, the earth would be in total darkness.

"I have come as light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness."

John 12:46

Just as the physical sun casts off physical darkness, so does the spiritual Son cast off spiritual darkness, for He is "the Light of the World".

"It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last."

Luke 23:44-46

Did you see the message here? The "sun's light failed"...The SON, the light of the world failed as He had given up His Spirit.

"And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen."

Mark 16:2

In this verse is yet another connection which many miss. The "sun had risen", and on Sunday, "the first day of the week".

The SON had also risen, and on the same Sunday.

From the parallels which I have shown in the above verses, it looks as if the spelling of Sunday could also be SONday.

"At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who journeyed with me."

Acts 26:13

"The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you by night; but the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. Your sun shall no more go down, nor your moon withdraw itself; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended."

Isaiah 60:19-20

The light of the sun prefigures the light of the Son.

---

The birthplace of Jesus in the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem:

Notice that the exact spot where Jesus the Christ was born is marked as a sunburst, or a star, of which the sun is!

As the Sun rules over all the earth...

"And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night; he made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good."

Genesis 1:16-18

"...to him who made the great lights, for his steadfast love endures for ever; the sun to rule over the day, for his steadfast love endures for ever;"

Psalms 136:7-8

So does the Son rule over all the earth...

"For he that made thee shall rule over thee, the Lord of hosts is his name: and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, shall be called the God of all the earth."

Isaiah 54:5

"And when the angel had come to her he said, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women." When she had heard him she was troubled at his word, and kept pondering what manner of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son; and thou shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he shall be king over the house of Jacob forever. And of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Luke 1:28-33

---

In the Father we find the sun:

"For the Lord GOD is a sun and shield, he bestows favor and honor. No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly."

Psalms 84:11

This is another direct Biblical analogous connection between the sun and GOD.

"So perish all thine enemies, O Lord! But thy friends be like the sun as he rises in his might."

Judges 5:31

The sun is a "he". The Father is likewise addressed as "He".

"Thus says the Lord, who gives the sun for light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— the Lord of hosts is his name..."

Jeremiah 31:35

"Once for all I have sworn by my holiness; I will not lie to David. His line shall endure for ever, his throne as long as the sun before me."

Psalms 89:35-36

"Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear."

Matthew 13:43

"Bless the Lord, sun and moon, sing praise to him and highly exalt him for ever."

Daniel 3:63

"Bless the Lord, stars of heaven, sing praise to him and highly exalt him for ever."

Dan 3:64

"And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. By its light shall the nations walk; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory into it."

Revelation 21:22-24

"And night shall be no more; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they shall reign for ever and ever."

Revelation 22:5

---

GOD and the sun compared:

The Sun:	GOD:
Is a trinity* with the body, light, and heat.	Matthew 28:19, The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit.
Appears to be on fire but is not consumed.	Exodus 3:2, "...the bush, though on fire was not consumed."
Is the light of the world.	John 8:12, " I am the light of the world. "
Has great power as a result of nuclear fusion.	Hebrews 1:3, "..upholding all things by the word of His power."
Holds the planets in their orbits.	Job 38:37, "Who can declare the order of the heavens..."
Is the source of all life on Earth.	Genesis 1-2, GOD created everything out of nothing.
Has a breath which is called the solar wind.	John 20:22, GOD has a breath and He is called the Holy Spirit.

*The sun is a trinity in more ways than one:

In its makeup of three main parts, it has a core, a radiative zone, and a convective zone.

It has an atmosphere consisting of three parts, a photosphere, a chromosphere, and a corona.

It has three unusual surface features, sunspots, solar prominences, and solar flares.

---

From which direction does the sun rise? It rises from the east.

The Sunrise.

Picture taken on September 29, 2007

From which direction does the Son rise? He also rises from the east.

"For as the lightning comes forth from the east and shines even to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Matthew 24:27

"Who hath raised up the just one from the east, hath called him to follow him? he shall give the nations in his sight, and he shall rule over kings: he shall give them as the dust to his sword, as stubble driven by the wind, to his bow."

Isaiah 41:2

The East, the direction of the sunrise, has great significance in Scripture...

"And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the Lord; and behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east, worshiping the sun toward the east."

Ezekiel 8:16

Worshiping the sun is a form of idol worship and is forbidden by Holy Scripture. See 2Kings 23:5 and Jeremiah 8:2.

We worship the Son, and not the sun.

However, Ezekiel 8:16 is a type of the coming of "Son" worship which would be announced in the New Testament.

"For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to my name a clean oblation, for my name is great among the Gentiles, says the Lord of hosts."

Malachi 1:11

Even for the prefigurement of the Holy Eucharist and the daily Mass, the sun plays a prominent role.

"Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate facing east. And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the east; and the sound of his coming was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shone with his glory. And the vision I saw was like the vision which I had seen when he came to destroy the city, and like the vision which I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face. As the glory of the Lord entered the temple by the gate facing east, the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the temple."

Ezekiel 43:1-5

"Hear, O Jesus thou high priest, thou and thy friends that dwell before thee, for they are portending men: for behold, I Will bring my servant the Orient."

Zechariah 3:8 (DRB)

Christ is called 'My Servant the Orient', who according to His humanity, is the servant of GOD, and is called 'The Orient', from His rising like the sun in the east to enlighten the world: Zechariah 3:8,12, Luke 1:78

"And those to encamp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, having charge of the rites within the sanctuary, whatever had to be done for the people of Israel; and any one else who came near was to be put to death."

Numbers 3:38. See also Isaiah 41:2, 43:5, and Ezekiel 11:23,46:12.

"Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and have come to worship him... When they had heard the king they went their way; and lo, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest over the place where the child was."

Matthew 2:2,9

"And you, child, will be called prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give his people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins, because of the tender mercy of our God by which the daybreak from on high will visit us to shine on those who sit in darkness and death's shadow, to guide our feet into the path of peace."
Luke 1:76-79

The Monstrance...

A Monstrance is the sacred vessel which holds the consecrated Host when it is exposed, and when it is carried in procession.

Many Monstrances have a radiating pattern for all 360 degrees around the center, and they are a reminder of a sunburst with radiating rays, and for a very good reason. In the center of the sunburst is the "SON" in glory and brightness, the Holy Eucharist.

---

Light...

"This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all."

1John 1:5

There are four kinds of light:

A. Physical light, the light by which we are able to see with our eyes.

B. The light of knowledge, intellectual light.

C. Teaching, or prophetic light. It comes through wisdom and common sense.

D. To know. The light of GOD which makes all things clear. It comes through the theological virtues of faith, hope, and love.

All four kinds of light are represented by the letters A-D, in Psalms 19:1-7...

Psalms 19:1, "The heavens declare the glory of GOD; and the firmament showeth His handiwork." For those who have eyes to see His Glory and His handiwork, they are those who have wisdom and common sense (C).

Psalms 19:2, "Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge." This verse gives us physical light of day (A) in the first part, and the light of knowledge (B) in the second part.

Psalms 19:3, "There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard."

Psalms 19:4, "Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world."

Psalms 19:5, "In them he has set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race."

Psalms 19:6 "His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof."

Psalms 19:7, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple." This verse is an example of the light of GOD (D) making all things clear.

These seven verses of Psalms 19 also present to us an abundance of images for which we should not let pass without gleaning the full richness of them.

(vs1) The first verse again relates the glory of GOD to the heavens and thereby to the sun which exists in the heavens.

(vs2) The second verse relates to the sun again as "day unto day".

(vs3-4) The third and fourth verses are a description of the Catholic Church, a prefigurement of Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 1:8, where all that we have been taught is spread to all nations for all time until the end of the world. The three "ALLS" for all teaching, for all nations, and for all time is the definition of the word Catholic.

(vs5) The tabernacle (Sirach 24:12, Hebrews 9:1-11) for the sun, is another direct connection between the sun and the Son, for the tabernacle is the dwelling place of GOD in the Holy Eucharist even to this day in the Catholic Church.

Notice too that the sun is as a bridegroom, again prefiguring Jesus Christ (John 3:29).

(vs6) The sixth verse makes reference to heat, and from what we have previously learned by association, to the Holy Spirit.

Notice that there is a double "his" in this verse, a human male term for the sun.

(vs7) The seventh verse shows that GOD is a perfect being and therefore His Word is perfect and everlasting. GOD is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. Therefore, how could a perfect being become even more perfect? He could not. It is impossible because change implies that imperfection existed in the first place.

The City of the Sun...

"In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt which speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the Lord of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun. In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the Lord at its border. It will be a sign and a witness to the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the Lord because of oppressors he will send them a savior, and will defend and deliver them."

Isaiah 19:18-20

The "City of the Sun" in Egypt was Heliopolis, located north of modern Cairo. Helios is the Greek word for sun. Heliopolis was the center of worship for the Egyptian sun god Ra, until about 2100 B.C..

Alexandria, a very important city in Egypt at the time, lies about 100 miles northwest of Heliopolis. It was, no doubt, another one of the "five cities in the land of Egypt" mentioned by Isaiah since at one time it was the second greatest city in the world, with Rome being the greatest. In Alexandria, Christianity rose to great heights through the efforts of Saint Mark. Alexandria spawned theologians Clement of Alexandria, and Origen. The Church in Alexandria was governed by several Catholic Bishops, notably Saints Athanasius and Cyril, both of whom are Doctors of the Church. The Son (sun) of Christianity had displaced the pagan sun god, Ra.

A final note: The woman clothed with the sun...

"And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars."

Revelation 12:1

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son and his name shall be called Emmanuel."

Isaiah 7:14

"And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her son was taken up to God and to his throne."

Revelation 12:5

1Jn 1:5

From what I have presented in this writing regarding the analogies between GOD and the sun, it should be easy for you to reason out the meaning of "a woman clothed with the sun".

Here is an additional hint:

"Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, thou art very great! Thou art clothed with honor and majesty, who coverest thyself with light as with a garment, who hast stretched out the heavens

"Mary's role is to make her Son Shine".
Pope John Paul II

In Persona Christi...

---

'In the person of Christ'.

---

In the confessional, as the priest gives absolution, he says, 'I absolve you of your sins'.
He does not say Jesus Christ absolves you of your sins.
The priest is acting in the person of Christ,
'In Persona Christi'.

Think about this for a minute, as it is an awesome truth.

During the consecration of the host, the priest says,
'This is MY Body'.
He does not say, this is the Body of Christ.
The priest is acting in the person of Christ,
'In Persona Christi'.

Again it is almost incomprehensible, that it is possible for any human person to act in the person of Christ.
However, it is a teaching of the Church, and is therefore to be believed.

---

What we do not realize is that GOD has given each one of us a specific talent of one kind or another, and if we in turn give that talent back to GOD in His service,
then each one of us is acting
'In Persona Christi'.

What could be more rewarding to anyone than to know that when we give back to GOD the fruits of the talents He has given to us, we are doing it
'In Persona Christi'?

---

"Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything,
I have done for your sakes, in the person of Christ." 2Corinthians 2:10

Is Jesus the Christ a Human Person?

Think before you answer that question.

---

I asked that question of so many of my friends recently and almost all, save for only one, gave me the wrong answer.

Some even became indignant for my even asking the question. Why they became indignant, I have no clue.

Nevertheless it is an important question about the person of Jesus the Christ.

1. Is Jesus the Christ a human person?

2. Is Jesus the Christ a Divine person?

3. Is He both?

4. Is He neither?

What answer do you have for each of those four simple questions?

In order to come to the correct answers to those four questions, we must first lay some groundwork as to definitions.

Person;

The subject of action. The center of attribution in a rational nature.

Person has a body, a soul, a spirit, and five senses with which to communicate with the outside world.

1Thessalonians 5:23:

"May the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Some Biblical references to the word 'person';

Job 32:21, Ezekiel 44:25, Matthew 22:16, Mark 12:14, 1Corinthians 15:44-47, Galatians 2:6, 1Thessalonians 5:23, and Hebrews 4:12.

Nature;

That which makes a person or thing be what it is. The essential characteristics and qualities of a person, or of a thing. What does it do?

What can be done to it? Nature decides what a being can do, but the person does it. Nature presents the question 'what', while person presents the question 'who'.

Everything has a nature but everything is not a person.

Various natures mentioned in Scripture;

female-Romans 1:26, the law-Romans 2:14, uncircumcised-Romans 2:27, tree-Romans 11:24, hair-1Corinthians 11:14, Jewish-Galatians 2:15, not divine-Galatians 4:8, children of wrath-Ephesians 2:3, divine-2Peter 1:4.

Person possesses a nature. Nature does not possess a person. Nature describes what a person can do, but the person does it. That is a very important point as we shall soon see.

Person poses the question 'who'.

Nature poses the question 'what'.

Persons (who's) die on crosses, not natures (what's). Persons with a nature are born of mothers.

Mothers cannot give birth to natures only.

Persons are those who can say 'I' because they reflect in some way the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit from whom all personhood comes.

Here is a very good publication regarding these subjects, and many more about basic theology: "Theology and Sanity" by Frank Sheed.

---

A son takes on the nature of his father.

The son of a cat is a cat.

The son of a man is a man.

The Son of GOD is GOD.

Jesus was born of the Holy Spirit and of His Blessed Mother Mary.

Since Jesus was born of GOD a Divine person, He is GOD, a Divine person.

Jesus did not have a human father so He could not be a human person.

The substance of the body of Jesus was provided from the substance of Blessed Mary.

Mary gave birth to a Divine person and is rightfully called 'Theotokos', the Mother of GOD. Council of Ephesus 431 A.D.

---

Here are two verses that should prove to everyone that Jesus was NOT a human person:

Philippians 2:6-8:

"...though he was by nature GOD, did not consider being equal to GOD a thing to be clung to, but emptied Himself, taking the nature of a slave and being made like unto men.

And appearing in the form of man, He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to death, even to death on a cross."

Elucidation of Philippians 2:6-8;

1. He was by nature GOD.

2. He took the nature of a slave (man).

3. He was made like unto men. Likened to a human person, but it does not say that He was one.

4. He appeared in the form of man. Again, in the form of a human person but it does not say that He was one.

'Haydock' is considered to be one of the best Bible commentaries ever written.

Let us see what it has to say about the above.

Haydock;

Ver. 6. Who being in the form of God, (that is truly, properly, and essentially God from eternity, as the ancient Fathers here observed against the Arians) taking the form of a servant, (i.e. taking upon him our human nature) became truly a man, and as man the servant of God, but remaining always God as before, thought it not robbery, no injury to his eternal Father, to be equal, to be esteemed, and to declare himself equal to God, to be one thing with him: as on divers occasions he taught the people, as we have observed in the notes on St. John's gospel, (Witham)

---

The Nestorian Heresy, Jesus was two persons, one divine and one human.

Nestorianism (5th Century);

This heresy about the person of Christ was initiated by Nestorius, bishop of Constantinople, who denied Blessed Mary the title of Theotokos (Greek: "God-bearer" or, less literally, "Mother of God"). Nestorius claimed that she only bore Christ's human nature in her womb, and proposed the alternative title Christotokos ("Christ-bearer" or "Mother of Christ").

The teachings of Nestorius were opposed by Cyril who argued that Nestorius was actually denying the reality of the incarnation by making Jesus Christ into two different persons, one human, one divine, sharing one body.

The Council of Ephesus 431 A.D. was called to settle the matter.

This council (reinforced by the Council of Chalcedon in 451) clarified orthodox Catholic doctrine, pronouncing that Jesus, true God and true man, has two distinct natures that are inseparably joined in one person and partake of the one divine substance.

Nestorius was removed from office after the Council of Ephesus.

---

Here are a few more verses, Biblical proof that Jesus is not a human person.

2Corinthians 2:10;

"And to whom you have pardoned any thing, I also. For, what I have pardoned, if I have pardoned any thing, for your sakes have I done it in the person of Christ."

Did you notice that the verse said 'person' of Christ, singular, and not 'persons'?

1Corinthians 15:45-48;

(45) "Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

(46) But it is not the spiritual which is first but the physical, and then the spiritual.

(47) The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven.

(48) As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven."

Elucidation to 1Corinthians 15:45-48;

- 1. 'The last Adam' is Jesus Christ. 'A life-giving spirit' cannot be a human person.
- 2. The second man, Jesus, was not a 'man of dust', as a human person would be.
- 3. The second man, Jesus, came from Heaven.

4. Since Jesus came from Heaven, He could not be a human person.

Did you notice in the above graphic, those two verses in RED, that it was ONE and the same person of Jesus Christ who spoke both as GOD and as Man?

So, let us review those first two very important questions one last time.

Is Jesus the Christ a human person?

NO!

Holy Scripture has clearly instructed us that He could not be a human person.

Is Jesus the Christ a Divine person?

YES!

Holy Scripture has clearly taught us that He is a Divine person.

THE TRIPLE BIRTH OF CHRIST.

He was born into eternity of a Father without a mother.

He was born into time of a Mother without a father.

He is born into us at Baptism.

Did Jesus Always Exist?

---

See if you can spot the clues in these verses?

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with GOD; and the Word was GOD."

John 1:1

"I will tell of the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my son, today I have begotten you"."

Psalms 2:7

"And we bring you the good news that what God promised to the fathers, this he has fulfilled to us their children by raising Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, 'Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee'."

Acts 13:32-33

Elucidation:

1. In John 1:1, 'In the beginning was', implies time, since eternity has no beginning, and it has no ending. "The Word", was already in existence when GOD created time in Genesis 1:1-5.

Consequently, the Word existed before the beginning of time, He thus being outside of time. The Word already 'was' in the beginning. The Word is therefore eternal.

2. In Psalms 2:7, 'today I have begotten you', very clearly refers to a happening in time, by use of the word of time, 'today'.

3. Acts 13:32-33, 'raising Jesus', also implies to a happening in time, and a repeat of the 'today' of Psalms 2:7.

4. We can conclude then that the Word always existed outside of time, but Jesus was born into time.

"But when the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons."

Galatians 4:4-5

"And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus."

Luke 1:31

The imminent coming of Jesus in future tense.

---

It is necessary that we define some terms for which the reader might not be familiar:

1. Hypostasis: Any of the three persons of the Holy Trinity. The essential person of Jesus Christ in which His human and divine natures are united.

2. Hypostatic union: The mystery of the union of the divine nature of Christ with His human nature. Christ has two minds and two wills, united in the Divine Word.

Did the Hypostatic Union always exist?

No, it did not and could not, since the human nature of Christ did not exist before the conception of Jesus in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Hypostatic Union began with the conception of Jesus.

"And Mary said: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it done to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.""

Luke 1:38

That verse was the beginning of the human nature of Christ, whose name would be Jesus, and thus that of the Hypostatic Union as well.

"The Hypostatic Union of Christ's human nature with the Divine Logos (the Word) took place at the moment of conception."

"There never was a mere man Jesus before the connection and unification of GOD with Him."

"Mary's true Divine Motherhood demands that the conception of Jesus and the beginning of the Hypostatic Union should coincide in time."

Dr. Ludwig Ott, Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma, pg 150.

It stands to reason that there could be no Hypostatic Union without the human nature of Christ, whose name is Jesus.

Isa 7:14, Mt 1:22-23,4:1-11, Lk 2:51,5:21-26, Gal 4:7, Heb 1:1-14, 2Jn 1:7

Some of the attributes of the two natures of Christ in the Hypostatic Union:

As GOD in His Divine Nature	As Man in His Human Nature
He is eternally begotten, Gen 1:1-5, Jn 1:1.	He was born into time, Lk 2:7.
He is worshiped, Mt 2:2,11, 14:33.	He worshiped the Father, Jn 17:1-26.
He was called God, Jn 20:28, Heb 1:8.	He was called man Mk 15:39, Jn 19:5.
He was called Son of God, Mk 1:1.	He was called Son of Man, Jn 9:35-37.
He is prayed to, Act 7:59.	He prayed to the Father, Mt 26:39.
He is sinless, 1Pet 2:22, Heb 4:15.	For our sake He made him to be sin, 2Cor 5:21.
He knows all things, Jn 21:17.	He grew in wisdom, Lk 2:52.
He gives eternal life, Jn 10:28.	He died, Rom 5:8.
He is the fullness of deity, Col 2:9.	He has a flesh and bone body, Luke 24:39.

The triple birth of Christ:

- 1. He was begotten of the Father without a mother. He was born into eternity, John 1:14, Colossians 1:15.
- 2. He was born of a mother without a father. He was born into time, Luke 2:7,11
- 3. He was born into us at Baptism, Galatians 2:20.

Christ is mentioned in the Old Testament as:

- 1. "The Messiah", Dan 9:25-26, King James (KJ).
- 2. "The Anointed One", 2Chron 6:42, Psa 132:10, Dan 9:25-26, Revised Standard Version (RSV).
- 3. "The Christ", 1Sam 2:10, 2Sam 23:1, Psa 2:2, Psa 84:9, Lam 4:20, Dan 9:25-26, Hab 3:13, Douay Rheims (DR).

The correct title of Jesus is, Jesus the Christ

Did Christ always exist?

Christ existed for all eternity. He is the only begotten Son of the Father, the second person of the Holy Trinity.

Did Jesus always exist?

Jesus, the human nature of the Divine person of Christ, did not always exist.

He was born into time. His existence began with His conception in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

There was no human nature of Christ in heaven before the incarnation of Jesus.

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall (denotes future tense) conceive, and bear a son and his name shall be called Emmanuel (GOD with us, a title)."

Isaiah 7:14

"And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus."

Luke 1:31

Does Jesus Christ Live Within You?

---

Here is how you can determine if Christ is living within you.

Answer the following ten questions with a firm yes, a weak yes, or no.

Mary is the person who possessed her Son within her more than anyone else. If we imitate her by following her example, we will surely have Christ living within us. She is our role model.

---

1. How important is it in your life to know GOD's will?

Mary, Luke 2:39, "And when they had fulfilled all things prescribed in the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, into their own town of Nazareth."

2. Are you responding to the will of GOD or to your own will?

Mary, Luke 1:38, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to thy word."

3. When you learn of a friend or family in need, do you drop everything to help them? How well do you respond? Do you visit the sick and the imprisoned? Do your feet rush to help them?

Mary, Luke 1:39, "And in those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town of Judah. And she entered the house of Zachary and saluted Elizabeth."

4. Does your conversation with others bring healing hope and joy to them?

Elizabeth and Mary, Luke 1:41, "And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit."

5. Do you find yourself remarking of the goodness of GOD in your life and of giving Him praise?

Mary, Luke 1:46-49, And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in GOD my Savior; because He has regarded the lowliness of his handmaid; for, behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed..."

6. Does your presence bring alive the best (yes), mediocre (weak yes) or worst (no) in others?

Elizabeth, Luke 1:41-45, And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and she cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And how have I deserved that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, the moment that the sound of thy greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed is she who has believed, because the things promised her by the Lord shall be accomplished."

7. Do you celebrate GOD's gifts with open hands and are you ready to return them to GOD when He asks for them?

Mary, Luke 2:22, "And when the days of her purification were fulfilled according to the law of Moses, they took Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord..."

8. Are you ready to share in Christ's redeeming love that comes through the love of others? Do you accept the pain as well as the joy which goes with it?

Mary, Luke 2:34-35, And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and for the rise of many in Israel, and for a sign that shall be contradicted. And thy own soul a sword shall pierce, that the thoughts of many hearts shall be revealed."

9. When you have lost contact with Christ in your life, do you know how and where to find Him?

Mary, Luke 2:46, "And it came to pass after three days, that they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions."

10. Does Christ hold first place in your mind, in your heart, in your memory, in your imagination, and in your emotions?

Mary, Luke 2:51, "And His mother kept all these things carefully in her heart."

If you can answer "Yes" to all ten of these questions, then you truly have Christ dwelling within you...

If you cannot answer all ten with a resounding "Yes", then this little self test will show you the areas in which you need to improve.

Eucharistic Miracles...

For those who believe, no explanation is necessary. For those who do not believe, no explanation is possible.

---

Real human blood coming from the true presence of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

---

There have been many Eucharistic Miracles recorded throughout the centuries, beginning in the 700's and continuing even until today. I was blessed by having seen one in April 1996. It was one large host and 2 small ones in a ciborium. They were exuding an oil which was tested and found to be a pure olive oil from a species of olive not found on earth. I actually witnessed creation in a small way, something being made out of nothing. I will never forget it.

The Holy Spirit Told Me...

There are approximately 41,000* non-Catholic Christian sects in the world today with more new ones appearing every week. All use the same Bible, yet each interprets it differently, and consequently they end up teaching "another Gospel" (Galatians 1:8-9). The sad part is that they all try to justify their existence, and thus their actions of further dividing the Body of Christ by claiming, "The Holy Spirit Told Me".

*World Christian Encyclopedia, 2010, a Protestant publication.

Common sense and reasoning by intelligent people quickly show that this mentality is not in line with the teaching of Jesus Christ, as He called for "One Fold with One Shepherd" (John 10:16). These divisions of the Body of Christ are in opposition to the teaching of Holy Scripture, so how could it ever be possible that the Holy Spirit is prompting those who cause them?

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, THAT YOU ALL SAY THE SAME THING; AND THAT THERE BE NO DISSENSIONS AMONG YOU, BUT THAT YOU MAY BE PERFECTLY UNITED IN ONE MIND AND IN ONE JUDGMENT."
1Corinthians 1:10. See also 1Corinthians 11:17-22

"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand."
Matthew 12:25

"Anyone who advances and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ, HAS NOT GOD; he who abides in the doctrine, he has both the Father and the Son."
2John 1:9

"For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?"
1Peter 4:17

---

The Bible is very clear that those who cause these divisions are not from GOD, so therefore, the Holy Spirit could not possibly be prompting them.

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of GOD; because many false prophets have gone forth into the world. By this is the spirit of GOD known: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is of GOD. AND EVERY SPIRIT THAT SEVERES JESUS, IS NOT OF GOD, BUT IS OF ANTICHRIST, of whom you have heard that He is coming, and now is already in the world."
1John 4:1-3

Satan will give you 99 truths if he can get you to swallow one lie.

---

"And I will ask the Father and He will give you another Advocate to dwell with you forever, THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH WHOM THE WORLD CANNOT RECEIVE, BECAUSE IT NEITHER SEES HIM NOR KNOWS HIM. BUT YOU SHALL KNOW HIM, BECAUSE HE WILL DWELL WITH YOU AND BE IN YOU."

John 14:16-17

"Many things yet I have to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. But when HE, THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH, has come, HE WILL TEACH YOU ALL THE TRUTH. For He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He will hear He will speak, and THE THINGS THAT ARE TO COME HE WILL DECLARE TO YOU."

John 16:12-13

What message do these verses convey? First we must conform to one of the basic rules of Bible interpretation. We must examine the context.

*To whom did Jesus speak in these verses?

This dialogue was during the Last Supper and the only ones present with Him were the Apostles. He told them that the Holy Spirit will dwell within the Church which He will found. He was not speaking to the masses here.

*That ALL is NOT in the Bible since there will be future declarations.

*That since truth is ONE, and is the person of Jesus Christ (John 14:6), that the Spirit certainly cannot declare a differing truth to each of 40,000 divisions of the Body of Christ.

So how do we answer each of those 40,000 divisions when they make the claim that "The Holy Spirit told them"?

---

For those who claim that "The Holy Spirit told them", I must ask, "Are there 40,000 Holy Spirits telling each division a different truth, or is there only one Spirit which speaks truth to the only Church which Jesus Christ founded and speaks lies to the rest?" Which option would answer the question? It is obvious that neither does, for Holy Scripture gives us the answer.

"We are of GOD. He who knows GOD listens to us; he who is not of GOD does not listen to us. BY THIS WE KNOW THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH AND THE SPIRIT OF ERROR."

1John 4:6

---

There are three spirits, of which any one of them could be prompting a person.

- 1. There is first the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, and His prompting is from GOD.
- 2. Then there is the human spirit which manufactures the prompts through the imagination and other human traits.
- 3. Finally, there is the evil spirit and its prompting is straight from Satan.

The Spirit of truth is in the Church of truth, the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

"But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in THE HOUSE OF GOD, WHICH IS THE CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD, THE PILLAR AND GROUND OF THE TRUTH."

1Timothy 3:15

How do we determine which Spirit is prompting each of us? Holy Scripture gives us the answer.

"And we are witnesses to these things, and SO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN TO ALL WHO OBEY HIM."

Acts 5:32

All who obey Him are prompted by the Holy Spirit. The disobedient are prompted by one of the other spirits.

"Obey your prelates and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls: that they may do this with joy and not with grief. For this is not expedient for you."

Hebrews 13:17

This is a command from GOD.

Was Martin Luther and the other reformers obedient to their superiors?

Did they obey GOD's command in this verse? No? Then which of the other two spirits was guiding them?

We obey GOD by keeping His Commandments and His Word whether by word or by letter. In the first Commandment, GOD tells us that He must be first in our lives.

What is most important in our lives is the god of our lives. Do we put GOD first, or do we put money, or power, or worldly things, or the flesh first? If GOD is first in your lives, it is a good sign that the Holy Spirit is prompting you.

Pascal's Wager...

Blaise Pascal (1623-1662) was a world famous French Mathematician, as well as a great Christian thinker. His contributions to the field of geometry in particular are well known today. Pascal developed many arguments in favor of the existence of God. Therefore he proposed what has come to be known as Pascal's Wager. This is a common sense analysis of the benefits and consequences of belief or unbelief in the existence of GOD.

---

When it comes to God's existence, there are two possibilities: either God exists or God does not exist. In terms of our response, there are also two possibilities: either we believe in God or we don't.

If God does not exist, and we wager that he does (by believing), then we lose nothing, since, presumably, there is no afterlife or eternal reward or punishment for belief or unbelief.

If God does exist, however, and offers us the free gift of eternal life, and we wager that he does not (by unbelief), then we risk losing everything by spending eternity separated from God.

If God does exist, and we wager that he does, then we potentially gain eternal life and happiness.

So, said Pascal, a reasonable person who even considers the possibility that God exists to be about 50-50 should wager that he does, since that person stands to lose nothing and gain everything, whereas the person who wagers that God does not exist stands to gain nothing (if God does not exist), or lose everything (if God does exist).

It should be noted that Pascal also held that the possibility of God's existence was much greater than 50-50.

While this is not a proof for God's existence, it does demonstrate the seriousness of the consequences of either belief or unbelief which a reasonable person ought to carefully consider.

God Exists!

A Few Observations to Ponder...

---

GOD exists, because of creation, miracles, and fulfilled prophecies. He is recognized through the things He has made: Psa 19:1, Wis 13:1-5, Sir 42:15-25, Rom 1:19-20. Ponder the following observations...

The sun is just the right type of star to harbor life giving planets.

The earth is the right distance from the sun. A little farther out and we would freeze and a little closer in and we would boil.

The earth has an optimal rotational period for more even heat distribution. If it were any longer or shorter, we would either overheat or freeze. Also this fact is critical for atmospheric circulation, any faster and we would have too strong of winds and any slower, we would stagnate.

The earth has an optimum tilt on its axis so the northern and southern hemispheres have a more even temperature distribution.

The earth takes just the right amount of time to orbit the sun. That combined with the tilt, generates the seasons, so plants can grow to feed the inhabitants.

The earth has just the right density atmosphere to protect its inhabitants from meteorites and asteroids, and yet allow air flight.

The atmosphere has just the right chemical balance to support life and to shield it from the harmful rays of the sun.

The earth has an abundance of volcanoes and plant life to maintain the chemical balance of the atmosphere.

The earth has an abundance of both salt and fresh water, essential to the support of life in the sea and on land.

The earth has a temperature average that keeps the water liquid, which is crucial to life forms.

The moon is just the right size to create tides that aren't too great to flood wide areas, nor too small to clean the inlets and bays every day.

The earth has an amazing food chain - all life is provided for.

The earth has an iron core that creates a magnetic field so we can find our way around the planet.

This magnetic field also protects us from the violent solar winds and high energy outbursts from the sun.

The earth has mountains to hold the snows and store the water for irrigation in the spring when plants grow.

The earth has an abundance of minerals to satisfy all our needs.

---

Now do you really think all of this was by accident, or was it by design?

The Five Proofs by St. Thomas Aquinas, (1225-1274):

The demonstration of GOD's existence in Church teaching is not based solely upon revelation. It is and has been declared, following St. Paul's statement: "GOD's eternal power and divinity, have become visible, recognized through the things He has made" (Rom 1:20), that human beings can by use of reason, deduce the certitude of GOD's existence. As stated by St. Pius X in his 'Moto Proprio Sacrarum Antistitum' (Those in Charge of Holy Things) of 1910, this is a kind of proof called demonstration. One knows through faith of GOD's existence, but humans should always seek the amplitude of knowledge or the highest truth that is knowable. Thus apart from faith, GOD can best be known from material things or things existing within human experience, by reasoning from something secondary in being to something prior or first, a prime or first cause, GOD. In Catholic thought, the first formerly presented proofs for GOD's existence, were the five most valid proofs offered by St. Thomas Aquinas...

1. The first argument reasons from motion to a prime or first mover, which means that something progresses from a state of potentiality to actuality, with a cause bring about such movement without the movement acting independently.

---

2. The second argument reasons from an order of efficient causes to a first efficient cause, or things happening in a reasonable manner, which could not happen without being subordinate to a prior cause.

---

3. The third argument indicates the necessity of a being or one who brings material being, because matter cannot of itself generate into existence and then go on to corruption or dissolution.

---

4. The fourth argument goes from the degrees of goodness, truth, nobility, or beauty, which are observed in things and could not be present unless they had their origin in a cause that has these qualities to their highest perfection.

---

5. The fifth argument arises from the purposefulness of things, which is observed in nonknowing things, for this demands an intelligent agent or cause, because man of himself cannot order things to intelligent, effective ends, so there must be a supreme source from which purposefulness arises.

---

In all of these arguments the cause is GOD, manifest in the observed truths that man's reason declares to him. The metaphysical truth is attained, not without effort, by seeing the entire universe in its dependence upon GOD as the prime mover, the efficient cause, and the perfect being worthy of our faith.

Ezekiel 3:21, "Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you will have saved your life."

Hebrews 6:10-12, "For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love which you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do.

(11) And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness in realizing the full assurance of hope until the end, (12) so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises."

Hebrews 10:32-34, "But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, (33) sometimes being publicly exposed to abuse and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. (34) For you had compassion on the prisoners, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one."

1Thessalonians 1:2-3, "We give thanks to God always for you all, constantly mentioning you in our prayers, (3) remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ."

James 5:19-20, "My brethren, if any one of you strays from the truth and someone brings him back, (20) he ought to know that he who causes a sinner to be brought back from his misguided way, will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins."

A NOTE FROM BOB STANLEY, THE SCRIBE FOR THIS WEBSITE...

Assisting in doing GOD's work is the most exciting and rewarding work that I have ever done in my life.

For those of you who have the time, please assist Him some way in His work, and you will be rewarded in the same way, I am sure.

For those of you who do not have the time, I will repeat what my dear Fr Dwyer once said to me.

"Are you telling me that you do not have the time to do GOD's work?"

Oops, I found the time!

What are your priorities?

Are any of them higher than assisting in GOD's work?

Building this website has taken a great deal of my time for many years now.

You can pursue other ways to assist in GOD's work than the way that I have chosen, ways that would take only a fraction of the time that I have put in here.

What could be more comforting in this life than the promise given to us in James 5:20 in red above?

GOD Bless...

GOD of Mercy or GOD of Justice?

---

"Therefore the Lord waits that He may have Mercy on you; and therefore shall He be exalted sparing you, because the Lord is the GOD of Judgment."

Isaiah 30:18

"You who in times past were not a people, but are now the people of GOD; who had not obtained Mercy, but now have obtained Mercy." 1Peter 2:10

"Keep yourselves in the love of GOD, looking for the Mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto life everlasting." Jude 1:21

"For He says to Moses, I will have Mercy on whom I have Mercy, and I will show pity to whom I will show pity." Romans 9:15

"For neither does the Father Judge any man, but all Judgment He has given to the Son." John 5:22

"Perhaps these are poor and foolish, that they know not the way of the Lord, the Judgment of their GOD." Jeremiah 5:4

"You have wearied the Lord with your words, and you said: Wherein have we wearied Him? In that you say: Everyone that does evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and such please Him, or surely where is the GOD of Judgment?" Malachi 2:17

---

I am the GOD of Mercy!

I am the GOD of Justice!

---

Does this sound mutually excludable to you? How can the GOD of infinite Mercy, be at the same time, the GOD of Judgment and Justice?

---

The answer of course is that as long as we live, we have recourse to repentance, and therefore we petition the GOD of Mercy. At the point when we will leave this world, the time of repentance is over, and the GOD of Mercy becomes the GOD of Justice...

By that time it is too late for us to petition the GOD of Mercy...

Think about it.

The Many 'Voices' of God.

Are You Really Listening For Them?

"And he said, "Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice."

1Kings 19:11-12 RSV

Instead of "a still small voice", the DRB calls it "a gentle air", the Septuagint "a gentle breeze", the NAB "a tiny whispering sound".

At any rate it is the voice of God.

How many times have you asked God for something but heard nothing from Him, not even 'a still small voice'?

Have you ever wondered why? Was it discouraging for you? I am here to tell you please do not be discouraged.

Maybe He did not fail to answer you. It just could be your fault because you were not listening properly.

Did you know that there is a big difference between hearing and listening?

You may hear what someone said but did not listen and so you failed to get the message.

Maybe it was not the fault of God at all, but because you were not listening correctly.

What? How can anyone not listen correctly? If he or she has ears to hear, let them hear.

Now you have asked a very important question and I will attempt to answer it.

How many senses are we born with? That is a grammar school question.

We have five: sight, sound, taste, smell, and touch.

There are actually more than that when we add the senses of balance, pressure, temperature, pain, and motion.

Some scientists say that there are even more than that.

I once had a three way problem that I was greatly concerned about and I did not know the best way to solve it.

So I asked the 'Little Flower' to please help me resolve it by sending me a red rose for option one, a yellow one for the second option, and a white rose for the third. Just minutes later I flipped open a magazine that I had not read and was surprised to see a full page ad that said, "I picked this rose especially for you". It had a picture of a red rose and that was the correct option to solve my problem. Did I hear anything? No, nothing but the sound of the magazine as I flipped it open.

I had a brush with death and I prayed for the name of the person who saved me so I could thank him or her.

Immediately a picture of the face of my dead uncle George appeared in my mind but I heard nothing.

Expecting an audible voice message, I wondered why the mental image of my uncle appeared since he had passed away many years before, and so I did not connect it to my prayer and I simply ignored it.

To my utter amazement almost a year later, I found out that mental image was the answer to my prayer.

That person's name was George.

So you see in those two examples, neither prayer was answered by a voice to be heard.

One was for those who have eyes to see and the other came through a mental image.

Here is one more true story of mine. This time with a photograph of the ending:
August 23, 1983, Tuesday, Rick:

My wifes nephew, Rick, age 28, was a tree faller. Six months before the above date, the following happened:

He loved having a bar-b-que and visiting us on our few acres in the tree covered foothills in the mountains.

There was a seven acre parcel next to ours and Rick told me, "If that parcel ever goes up for sale, you had better buy it or someone else will buy it and build a three story house right there". He pointed to a spot that was the closest to my house.

I told him I was not interested in buying it.

Right after that, while he was tending the bar-b-que, our conversation somehow turned to religion.

Rick, being an atheist said, "You know I do not believe in that". I replied that I knew it, and that he would have to agree on only one thing, that one of us has to be right and one of us has to be wrong. He laughed and agreed. I then said, "If I am wrong, all I have done is to waste a few years of my life in practicing my religion.

But if you are wrong, you will have all of eternity to pay for it".

He laughed and said, "If I go first I will come back and tell you who was right and who was wrong".

That was the end of that conversation.

Six months later on the above date he was accidentally electrocuted.

He felled a branch across a twenty thousand volt powerline. The voltage traveled from the powerline through the branch, down through his chainsaw, through him and out through his climbing spikes and into the grounded tree.

August 25, 1983, Thursday:

Rick loved our few acres and had mentioned many times that if anything happened to him he wanted to be 'planted' beneath a large pine tree on our property. He was to be cremated and we agreed to his wish.

However the area of the large pine was covered with small trees, brush, and manzanita.

I had a large loader-backhoe Case 530 Construction King, and I was using it to clear the brush.

It mowed down everything that got in front of it, ripping it out by the roots.

While doing this I became angry with Rick, reminding him that he said he would come back and tell me who was right and who was wrong, and he had not done so. I told him that a promise is a promise and I expected him to keep his promise to me.

No sooner had I said that in my mind, I had made another cut with the tractor and had a pile of brush in front of it.

It was a hot August day and I was thirsty to get a drink of water, so I backed up the Case 530 for a bit and to my amazement up popped a small pine tree that was not uprooted and it had formed a perfect cross. I was stunned. Rick had somehow passed a message to me that I was right. I realized later that the message could not be from Rick but from an infinitely higher authority.

I examined the little cross and found that the Case 530 had cut the little pine in half and peeled off its bark, and that piece of bark swung around and formed the crossbar. Now the mystery here is that there was no visible means of support for that piece of bark other than a tiny thread of wood material attached to the top of the cross on one end and to the extreme left end of the crossbar at about a 45 degree angle. There was nothing in the center of the crossbar that would hold it to the little vertical damaged pine tree. I dared not touch the crossbar for fear that it would fall to the ground. However I did gently blow on it as a slight breeze would do, and it merely rotated back and forth on the vertical part of the cross, and did not fall.

A week or so later Rick's family and friends, seventeen people in all, were at my home with his ashes in a sealed plastic container. Yet there was something else very strange that happened just minutes before the burial.

Carrying Rick's ashes, we started in a stretched out procession by ones in line walking a path from my house to the burial site a few hundred feet away. It was warm and clear and not a breath of a breeze was present.

Grandma was the slowest in the procession and after she had passed a large apple tree loaded with apples, we heard a loud crack followed by a loud thump. That tree had suddenly split in two and almost half of it crashed down in our pathway behind us missing Grandma by only about 3 feet. It would have killed or maimed anyone in our procession had it happened only seconds earlier. The previous day was very windy. Why didn't it fall that day? Who held back the fall of that tree until the last person had safely passed it? Or for the reverse of that question, who pushed it over on a calm day?

Was this a strong message for the atheists in the group? If so, I doubt if any of them got the message.

I then formed an axiom in my mind and I live by it to this day.

"All of life is a matter of timing, a minute or two here, or a second or two there."

This axiom will hold true in my life as more examples of it will come to light in later years.

We then buried Ricks ashes at the foot of his favorite pine tree.

The little cross was still standing and everyone saw it. I would check it every day afterwards and about two weeks later the crossbar had fallen to the ground. Here is a picture of that little cross. The tree that Rick wanted to be buried under is just out of the picture to the right.

Note the tracks on both sides of the cross that my large Case 530 had made:

Oh, and that is not yet the end of this story. Remember Rick telling me to buy the next door property or someone else will buy it and build a 3 story house as close as they could get it to my house?

Well, someone else did buy that property and there is now a 3 story house sitting in the exact spot that Rick pointed out.

So yes there is a God, and He does indeed answer the requests of those of whom He wishes.

However, He may not answer with "a still small voice", but by any method that He opts to use.

It is up to us to be open to the 'voices of God', by whatever method that He chooses to answer our prayers.

He could answer by any of our five senses. or by a way not even of those basic senses, such as a mental idea, a thought, or a picture. He could use a method such as a 'coinsign' of which I have seen so many. He could answer you by simply opening a magazine to a certain page for you to read as what happened to me as I have mentioned earlier in this page. It is up to each one of us to maintain an open mind and to not reject even the simplest ways that God may speak to us, as I did with that mental picture of my uncle. God already knows the prayer petitions that we are going ask of Him before we ask them, so he could answer them immediately after it is presented to Him. But then again He may delay it for a reason of His own. Just attune yourself to the fact that His response could come from any source and any direction at any time and by practically any means and please do not have a closed mind so you can be open to it.

My dear Father Dwyer of whom I have written about so many times once said:
"The hardest thing to open is a closed mind."

The Holy Trinity (Tri-Unity) Doctrine: in its barest outline, 1Jn 5:7-8

1. In the one divine nature, there are three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
  2. No one of the persons is either of the others, each is wholly Himself.
  3. The Father is GOD, the Son is GOD, the Holy Spirit is GOD.
  4. They are not three GODS but one GOD. They are distinct but are NOT separate. Where one is, all are.
  5. The Holy Trinity, one GOD, and three divine persons, functions in an individual yet collective way:
1Cor 12:4-6.

A Word, (the Son) does not exist without a Speaker (the Father), and one cannot be a Speaker without a Breath (the Holy Spirit); just as the Word cannot exist without a Breath. Thus GOD acts as one. He does not send the Son independently from the fullness of the divine nature. It is the Father and the Son and the Spirit doing the speaking. It cannot be otherwise, since They are consubstantial in Their divinity.

The Genealogy Of The Brethren

MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN...? Or did she?

MATTHEW 13:55-56, and MARK 6:3, both say, "Is not this the carpenter, the Son of Mary, the brother of JAMES, and JO'SES (JOSEPH), and of JUDE and SIMON? And are not His sisters here with us?" (Note! Only the 'carpenter' is called 'THE Son of Mary', not 'A Son of Mary') Some people refer to these verses as 'proof', that Mary had other children. See also: Mt 12:46, Mk 3:31, Lk 8:19, Jn 7:5.

---

Let us examine this more closely, using your bible...

The word: 'Brethren'...appears over 530 times in the Bible.

'Brother' ....appears over 350 times.

'Brothers' ...appears only once, in Num 36:11.

'Sister' .....appears over 100 times.

'Sisters' ....appears over 15 times.

BRETHREN: This is a plural word for 'brother' as shown in dictionaries.

BROTHER: The Hebrew word 'ACH', is ordinarily translated 'brother'. Since Hebrew, and Aramaic in which the Gospel of Matthew was written, had fewer words than our English, the Jews at that time, used it in a broader sense to express kinship. The Hebrew terms for different levels and degrees of relationship did not exist. 'Brother' meant the sons of the same father, and all the male members of the same clan or tribe. In Greek, in which the Gospel of Mark was written, the word "brother" is "adelphos" (adelphos), meaning a blood brother, or belonging to the same people, or a countryman, or a fellow believer. Even today, the word is used in a larger meaning, so that friends, allies, fellow believers, and fellow citizens can be included in the same brotherhood. It was no different in the time of Christ. Four dictionaries I have checked list three or four classes of meanings of the word 'brother'. The first class concerns sons of the same parents. The other two or three classes say, kinsman, fellow man, a close friend, a pal, a member of a religious order, a fellow member of a Christian Church, etc. How many times have you seen T.V. Evangelists address their audiences as 'Our brothers and sisters'? Marian detractors accept the last three meanings to suit themselves, but when it comes to Mary, the mother of GOD, they always refer to the first meaning. Is this fair to her? How do you explain this?

In the words of Jesus Christ Himself, look at John 20:17, where He said to Mary Magdalen, "Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father, but go to My 'BRETHREN' ('BROTHERS' in some Bibles) and say to them, 'I ascend to My Father and to your Father, to My GOD and your GOD.'"

Now in the very next verse, to whom did she go?

John 20:18, "Mary Magdalene came, and announced to the "DISCIPLES", "I have seen the Lord, and these things He said to me."

When Jesus said "BRETHREN", He meant His "DISCIPLES", and not blood brothers.

See Matt 28:10, Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go, take word to My BRETHREN that they are to set out for Galilee; there they shall see Me."

Now who did go to Galilee to meet Jesus?

Matt 28:16, "But the eleven DISCIPLES went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them to go."

Yet again, when Jesus said "BRETHREN", He meant His "DISCIPLES", and not blood brothers.

Matt 23:8, Jesus said, "...and you are all brothers."

Are we all blood brothers?

Lk 22:31-32, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and when you have turned again, strengthen your brethren." Jesus spoke to Simon Peter here and the word "brethren" is plural. Did Jesus mean Peter's blood brothers or the other Apostles?

Another example of the words of Jesus Christ...

Jesus tells us who his "Brothers" and "Sisters" are in Matt 12:50, and Mk 3:34-35, "For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, HE IS MY BROTHER AND SISTER AND MOTHER."

So for those who insist that the word "brother" or "sister" means blood siblings only, or from the same womb, they will have to adjust their thinking to conform to what was said here. If not, then everyone in the whole world will have to be seen as a blood brother or sister of Jesus Christ.

Here is yet another important verse regarding "the brothers":

Jn 7:5, "Even his brothers didn't believe in him."

Now if those were blood brothers of Jesus as many non-Catholics claim they were, then they must have lived with Him for much of His first 30 years on earth. Those who claim He had brothers, know full well that His mother and foster father knew who He was, and of course believed in Him. Would they then also have us believe that His siblings did not know who He was and did not believe in Him?

Here is one from the Old Testament that I would like someone to explain who believes that Mary had 'other children' simply because the Bible uses the word 'brethren' in several verses.

1Chronicles 23:22: King James Bible...

"And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them."

Please explain how the daughters of Eleazar were taken by their blood brothers when Eleazar had no sons?

See also: Num 8:26, 1Sam 30:23, 2Sam 1:26, 1King 9:13, 2Chron 29:34, Acts 2:37, Acts 3:22, Acts 7:23.

For Example...

If you will read Gen 29:15, "And Laban said to Jacob, because thou art my brother..." At first you would think Jacob and Laban are blood brothers. Now compare Gen 29:5, "...know ye Laban, the son of Nahor..." Compare Gen 25:21-26, and you will see Jacob was the son of Isaac and Rebekah. Laban was the son of Nahor. They were not blood brothers but fellow citizens. Christ tells the Multitude and His disciples in Mt 23:1-8, "AND ALL YE ARE BRETHREN." Did He mean they were all blood brothers? Of course not.

In 1Cor 15:6, Jesus appeared to five hundred 'brothers' at one time. Could all of these be blood brothers? Hardly. Then there is Peter speaking before one hundred and twenty brothers in Acts 1:15-16. 1Chron 26:30 tells us that Hashabiah had seventeen hundred 'brothers'. How did his mother ever accomplish that feat?

Paul speaks of one 'called a brother', in 1Cor 5:11 and 1Cor 8:11-13. Paul asks 'BRETHREN, pray for us. Greet all the BRETHREN with a holy kiss', in 1Thes 5:25-26.

The Bible has many more similar verses. No one has a problem with these verses. Why then do they have a problem when 'Mary' is introduced into the verse?

Now we have four 'brothers', JAMES, JO'SES, SIMON, and JUDE to account for as written in Mk 6:3...

Mk 15:40, "There were also women looking on afar off: among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of JAMES the less and of JO'SES, and Salome." These people were at the crucifixion.

Jn 19:25, "Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother (Mary) and His mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene."

Note that if in this verse the word "sister" meant blood sister, that she is not named here. The context and placement of the commas preclude that there were two girls in the same family, both having the same name of Mary. Would not this cause much confusion in the family? By careful comparison to Mk 15:40 it is seen that Mary the Mother of Jesus is not mentioned, but Salome is. Also Salome is indirectly mentioned in Matt 27:56 as the mother of the sons of Zebedee. It can therefore be assumed that Salome is the unnamed sister of Mary in this verse.

Mt 10:2-3, "...JAMES' the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddeus." Alphaeus is an alternate translation of Cleophas (Clopas) and so he is the same person.

Acts 1:13, "...JAMES, the son of Alphaeus, and SIMON Zelo'tes, and JUDE the brother of JAMES."

From these four passages, we see we have another 'Mary', who was the wife of Cleophas (Alphaeus), and the mother of three of Jesus's 'brethren', JAMES (the less), and JO'SES, and JUDE. This clearly shows that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was not the mother of JAMES, JO'SES, and JUDE of Mk 6:3. To keep Mk 6:3 in harmony, since three are not children of Mary, the mother of Jesus, then SIMON is not either. SIMON is the Canaanite Mk 3:18, also called the 'Zealot' (Zelo'tes), Mt 10:4, Lk 6:15, Acts 1:13. Jude, who authored the Epistle of Jude, says he is the brother of James in Jude 1:1. Jude was also called 'Thaddeus' in Mt 10:3, and in Mk 3:18. This was to distinguish him from Judas Iscariot. Lk 6:16 further distinguishes the two by saying, "And Judas (Jude) the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor."

More on the topic of 'Mary's other children', I have another point to make...

Jn 19:26-27, "When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple standing by, whom He loved..." The disciple was John, the author of the Gospel of John. "Then He said to the disciple, BEHOLD THY MOTHER." Was John a child of Mary and blood brother of Jesus?

Read the following verses to see...

Mk 1:19, "...He saw James, the son of Zebedee, and 'JOHN', his brother."

Mk 3:17, "And James the son of Zebedee, and 'JOHN' the brother of James."

In neither of these passages is it said that Jesus saw a blood brother or even recognized them as men that He knew.

Mt 27:56, "Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, (the less) and Jo'ses (Joseph), and the mother of Zebedee's children."

Mt 20:20, "Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons..."

Mk 15:40, "...among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joseph, and Salome (the mother of Zebedee's children)."

Lk 24:10, "It was Mary Magdalene...and Mary ('the other Mary') the mother of James (the less)..."

A comparison of Mt 27:56, and Mk 15:40, clearly shows that Zebedee had a wife whose name was Salome. She is called the 'mother of Zebedee's children' in Mt 27:56, and 'Salome' in Mk 15:40. They had two children, JOHN and JAMES, Mk 3:17. JOHN at the foot of the cross to whom Jesus gave His mother, was not a child of Mary, the mother of Jesus, but of Zebedee and Salome. If Jesus had blood brothers, why then did He not give His mother to them? Jewish law would have demanded it...

This 'Genealogy' shows who the real parents of the 'brothers' in Mark 6:3, and Matthew 13:55, are, and makes the word 'brother' a non-argument.

"Christ . . . was the only Son of Mary, and the Virgin Mary bore no children besides Him . . . 'brothers' really means 'cousins' here, for Holy Writ and the Jews always call cousins brothers."
Martin Luther, (Sermons on John, chapters 1-4, 1537-39).

Additional notes...

Mt 1:25, "And knew her not till...". The meaning of the word 'till' or 'until', means an action did not occur up to a certain point. It does not imply the action did occur later.

Gen 8:7, "He sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, 'until' the waters were dried up off the earth." Did the raven stop flying after?

Deut 34:6, Moses died, "...and no one knows his grave 'until' this day." Have we found Moses' grave?

2Sam 6:23, "...the daughter of Saul had no child 'until' the day of her death." Did she have a child after she died?

1Cor 15:25, "For He must reign 'until' He has put all His enemies under His feet." Does He stop reigning after He has put His enemies under His feet? If you think so, then compare Luke 1:33, "and of His kingdom there shall be no end".

1 Macc 5:54, "...not one of them was slain 'until' they had returned in peace." Were they slain afterward?

Luke 1:80, John the Baptist "...was in the deserts 'until' the day of his manifestation to Israel." Did he stay in the desert? (Matt 3:1; Mark 1:3-4; Luke 3:2-4)

Rom 8:22, "For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain 'until' now." Does it still groan?

1 Tim 4:13, "'Until' I come, be diligent in reading, in exhortation and in teaching." When Paul has come is there no more reading, no more exhorting, and no more teaching?

1 Tim 6:14, "...that you keep the commandment without stain, blameless 'until' the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" When Jesus comes back, do we still obey the commandment?

Rev 2:25-26, "But that which you have hold fast 'til' I come. And to him who overcomes, and who keeps My works 'until' the end, I will give authority over the nations." Should we stop holding fast and stop keeping His works when He returns?

Lk 1:34, "Then said Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?" This shows Mary had no relations with a man before and was virgin.

Lk 2:7, "And she brought forth her 'firstborn' Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes..." Firstborn, at the time of the writing of the Gospels, meant, 'the child that opened the womb'. See Ex 13:2 and Num 3:12. Firstborn does not imply that Mary had other children, as an ONLY son, IS a 'FIRSTBORN SON'. The author of this letter is one.

---

NOWHERE IN THE BIBLE DOES IT SAY THAT MARY, THE MOTHER OF JESUS, HAD OTHER CHILDREN. WHY THEN, DO SOME INSIST THAT SHE DID?

THE FIRST PERSON TO CALL MARY 'BLESSED' IS GOD, THROUGH THE ARCHANGEL GABRIEL IN LK 1:28.

MARY IS THE ONLY PERSON IN THE ENTIRE BIBLE TO BE CALLED "BLESSED ART THOU AMONG WOMEN."

YES, SHE IS A MOTHER LIKE ANY OTHER MOTHER, BUT WHAT A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE SONS.

LIKE ANY GOOD SON, JESUS CHRIST WILL DEFEND HIS MOTHER AGAINST ALL OF HER DETRACTORS.

THE BRIDE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS MANY CHILDREN SPIRITUALLY, FOR SHE IS THE MOTHER OF US ALL...

The "Brothers and Sisters" of Jesus Christ...

---

If you have not read the first of my files in this 2 part series, "Genealogy of the Brethren", please do so now before continuing with this one.

---

Some insist the Mother of GOD had children other than Jesus Christ, because of the use of the words "Brethren, Brothers, and Sisters", in several verses such as, Matthew 13:55-56 and Mark 6:3. I have discussed who the real parents of the "brethren" are in "Genealogy of the Brethren" the first part of this series. In this writing, I will show the fallacy of the charges made against the Blessed Virgin Mary by those who tend to downgrade her, and who even resort to calumny and judgment of GOD's masterpiece.

---

The charge:

"Mary obviously had 'other children' because the Bible says Jesus had 'brothers and sisters'."

Let us look at the charge itself, as it has no merit whatsoever from the very beginning...

The word "brothers" and "sisters", as used in the context of the detractors, means a sibling of the same parents. Let us use reasoning and common sense on this issue.

- 1. The "brothers" of Jesus Christ would obviously have to have the same parents as He.*
  - 2. The parents of Jesus Christ are the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Holy Spirit.*
  - 3. Children receive their nature from their father.*
  - 4. Therefore, Jesus Christ has a divine nature from the Holy Spirit. That makes Him a divine person.*
  - 5. If Jesus Christ had brothers and sisters, then their natures would be the same as His.*
  - 6. Therefore, all "brothers and sisters" of Jesus Christ would be divine as He is, thus giving us multiple god's. Not only that, it would give us goddesses, or female god's as well.*
  - 7. The statement, "Jesus Christ has brothers and sisters" is obviously ambiguous and is an incorrect usage of the English language.*
  - 8. The false charge that "Mary had other children" assumes that the father of the siblings is Saint Joseph.*
  - 9. If Saint Joseph is the father of the "brothers and sisters", then using rule #3 above, would show that the siblings are of his human nature and are not divine.*
  - 10. The "other children" of Saint Joseph and Mary, however, would be "half brothers and half sisters" to Jesus Christ, and not "brothers and sisters" as the accusers charge.*
  - 11. However, the Bible does not say, Jesus Christ had "half brothers and half sisters" either does it? In fact, it really does not say that Jesus Christ had any brothers or sisters at all.*

For those who believe that Jesus Christ had "brothers and sisters", I encourage you to answer the following questions...

- 1. This would be a monumental revelation for the creator of the universe to have siblings. Just think if YOU were a brother or sister of Jesus Christ. Wouldn't you feel slighted if you were not mentioned in Holy Scripture?*
- 2. What are their names? Why are they not more prominent in Scripture?*
- 3. When were they born? Where were they born? When did they die? If they are divine, could they even die?*
- 4. Why did Jesus Christ give His mother to Saint John in John 19:27?*
- 5. Why did He not give her to one of His "siblings"? As I explained in the "Genealogy of the Brethren", Jewish law would have demanded it.*
- 6. How can GOD have siblings?*
- 7. Why are not the "siblings" of Jesus Christ mentioned in the writings of the Church Fathers?*
- 8. The question of the "brothers and sisters" of Jesus Christ did not rise to prominence until Protestantism began in the 16th century. How do you explain this fact?*
- 9. Why do you interpret the meaning of the word "brethren" as you do, in today's English, instead of determining the meaning of it in the language of the time of writing? After all, that is one of the basic rules of Bible interpretation, is it not? Also, since you insist on using the definition of brothers and sisters in today's English, why do you not use the correct terminology of "half brothers and half sisters" when you make your false charges?*
- 10. Based on such flimsy evidence as you have, what is your real reason for slighting the Mother of GOD? Aren't you judging her? Aren't you calumnizing her?*
- 11. Don't you realize that by making the false accusation that the Mother of GOD had other children that you are insulting the Holy Family as well as the Holy Trinity?*
- 12. If someone deliberately spread gossip about your very own mother that simply was not true, how would you feel? What would you do? How would Jesus Christ feel? What will He do?*

Veneration Of The Blessed Virgin Mary...

---

---

"Why do Catholics worship Mary? After all, she is just a mother like any other mother."
This is a question I have received many times from non-Catholics.

A quick answer to that question is,

"Yes, she is a mother like any other mother, but what a difference between the Sons."

Name another mother where the word "son" for her offspring is always capitalized?

---

---

A longer, and more comprehensive answer is to point to several errors in that one query alone.

---

First, Catholics do not worship Blessed Mary, but we do take great pride in venerating her. I always ask the person who makes this charge to show me a genuine official Catholic document which instructs Catholics to "worship" Mary.

Strangely, or maybe not so strangely, not one person who has been asked, has been able to provide such a document. Have you noticed that those who make false charges against the Catholic Church never have documented proof, taken in context, of what they charge?

Second, she is not "just a mother like any other mother", as the critic suggested.

Name another mother who was addressed by a messenger from GOD, the Angel named Gabriel, who asked that she consent to be the Mother of GOD?

The words given to Gabriel by the Father:

"Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women." Luke 1:28.

Mary is the only person in the entire Bible to be called "Blessed art thou among women".

Did you notice that the first person to begin praising Mary is GOD?

Name another mother who was chosen, or even asked, by GOD to carry His only begotten Son?

She was chosen by GOD, as GOD had chosen Abraham, and Moses, and many prophets before her.

---

Name another mother who was called,

"the Mother of my Lord (which means the mother of my GOD), by the Holy Spirit filled Elizabeth?
Luke 1:41-43

"In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." Luke 1:39-45

---

---

Since Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, then it was the Spirit, the Third Person of the Holy Trinity, who supplied the words with which Elizabeth spoke. Consequently it was the Holy Spirit who really called Blessed Mary, the Mother of GOD.

Mary had now been called "Blessed" by GOD the Father, the First Person, and by the Holy Spirit, the Third Person, as she carried the Second Person in her womb.

The Holy Trinity was well represented in these verses.

Name another woman who conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit? Luke 1:35-38

Name another mother who carried the Divine Person of GOD in her womb for nine months?

Name another mother, whose child she carried, was the cause of a child in another mothers womb to leap for joy? Luke 1:44

Name another mother who gave birth to a person with two natures, one human and one divine?

Name another mother from whom Jesus Christ received all of His genes?

Name another mother from whom Jesus Christ received His flesh, blood, and bone?
He is bone of her bone and flesh of her flesh.

Name another mother from whom He received His eyes with which to see, His ears with which to hear, and His mouth with which to speak to us?

Name another mother who gave us our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ? Without her we would have no Savior and no Gospel, just as without your mother there would be no you reading this now.

Name another mother who retained her perpetual virginity from conception to the birth of her child, and then forever after?

Name another mother who is so calumnized by non-Catholics who insist that she had other children besides the Lord Jesus Christ, when in fact she did not?

Name another mother who could look down upon the infant Creator of the universe as she held him in her arms? All other mothers have looked up to GOD, not down.

Name another mother in which the Creator of the universe was subject to her for many years?
Luke 2:51

Name another mother who nursed the Creator of the universe and bathed Him?

Name another mother who tucked in the Second Person of the Holy Trinity every night for years?

Name another mother who taught the Creator of the universe the same things that all mothers teach their children? Luke 2:51-52

Name another mother who, for thirty years, told the creator of the universe what to do?

Name another mother who served the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, three meals a day?

Name another mother who sat across the table from the Holy Trinity every day for years at each meal? Think about it? Can the three persons of the Holy Trinity be separated? Are they three separate persons or are they three inseparable persons in one GOD? Since we all know that they are distinct but not separate, then all three persons are present wherever one is.

Name another mother who lived with the Second Person of the Holy Trinity for 30 years?
Just imagine, Jesus taught His disciples for only 3 years, but He taught His mother for many more.

Name another mother who started the Creator of the universe on His ministry? John 2:3-11

Name another mother who was assumed into Heaven body and soul?

After all of this, how could anyone ever say, Mary is just a mother like any other mother?
Now I will ask those detractors, "Do you still think she was a mother just like any other mother?"
Now do you still wish to ask why Catholics venerate the Mother of GOD ?

---

Third, did you notice that the first part of the question that non-Catholics ask only contains five words, "Why do Catholics worship Mary"?

The question should have at least one more word in it, for Holy Scripture demands it...
Here are four applicable verses from "The Magnificat", the Canticle of Mary, from Luke 1:46-55...

And Mary said,

"My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed; for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and Holy is His name." Luke 1:46-49

Mary is the only person in the entire Bible to say "All generations will call me blessed".
There! Did you find the missing word?

Now check your dictionary:

"Behold", means to perceive visually and mentally, to comprehend, to understand what follows.

"Henceforth", means from the time she said it until the end of time in an unbroken continuity. It does not mean, "some indefinite time in the future", as I have been told.

"All generations", means just that, all generations, yours, mine, and every generation for the last 2000 years and all of those future generations as well. Not one person is exempted.

"Will", denotes a command and not a suggestion.

"Call me blessed".

So far we have seen that Mary was called "Blessed" by the Father in Luke 1:28, and she was twice called "Blessed" by Elizabeth, being filled with the Holy Spirit, in Luke 1:42 and 45. Two persons of the Holy Trinity had already called Mary "Blessed", and we are commanded to do likewise in Luke 1:48. When GOD called Mary "Blessed", He venerated her. Since Holy Scripture was inspired by GOD, then aren't Mary's words here also inspired by GOD?

Would any one of us dare to do less?

As you can readily see, the Blessed Virgin Mary is closely intertwined with all three persons of the Holy Trinity. She is the daughter of the Father. She is the spouse of the Holy Spirit, and she is the mother of the Second Person, Jesus Christ.

Name another mother with such impressive Trinitarian affirmation?

Did the persons who posed the question, "Why do Catholics worship Mary", call her "blessed"?
No, they did not. The word, "Blessed", was always the "missing" word.

Out of the scores of times I have been asked that question, not one single non-Catholic has ever called her "Blessed Mary".

What message do we get from all of this? It tells me that many of those who claim that they follow the Bible, in fact really do not. They pick parts of it (out of context) and then reject what they seem to think goes against their personal "feelings".

A person's personal feelings have no bearing whatsoever on doctrinal truth.

Personal "feelings" cannot be used as an excuse to reject parts of Holy Scripture.

Either you accept it all, or you reject it all.

Jesus Christ was the only person ever who was able to choose His own mother.

Why then did He choose Mary?

Why then do you, who posed the question at the beginning of this file, dare to reject her?

I have given you the Scriptural authority as why we should venerate the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Now I ask that someone show me the Scriptural authority which says we should not venerate her?

If you cannot find such a verse then you will have to admit that Catholics are correct to venerate her.

---

No Mary, no Jesus. It is as simple as that.

---

---

"Let no one presume to hope for the mercy of GOD, who dares to slight or offend GOD's mother."

Do Catholics worship the Blessed Virgin Mary?

---

Some non-Catholics make the false claim that Catholics worship the Blessed Virgin Mary.

---

For this statement to be true, then the Church must be telling us to do this. Therefore, if the Church is telling us to do this, then it must be written somewhere in official Catholic Church documents.

I have repeatedly asked the people who make this false charge, to please show me the official written Catholic document which directs us to WORSHIP the Blessed Virgin Mary. I do not mean a Protestant mis-translation of a document but an original document in the original language in which it was written.

One reply I have received to that request was a quote from the Papal Encyclical 'Lumen Gentium':

LG 50. "...The Church has always believed that the Apostles and Christ's martyrs, who gave the supreme witness of faith and charity by the shedding of their blood, are closely united with us in Christ; she has always VENERATED them, together with the Blessed Virgin Mary and the holy angels, with a special love, and has asked piously for the help of their intercession."

Now, where in this quote does it say that Catholics WORSHIP the Blessed Virgin Mary? The plain truth is that it does not say that unless you think to VENERATE someone, means to WORSHIP them.

The simple truth is that NOWHERE in Catholic literature will you ever find a document which directs Catholics to WORSHIP her. You will, however, find many documents which say we VENERATE her.

---

Here is what the dictionary says regarding the words venerate and worship:

Venerate: "To regard with respect, reverence, or heartfelt deference."

One of the 10 Commandments is "Honor your Father and your Mother." Do you honor your father and mother? Do you respect them? These are the things Catholics do for their parents, and for the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Worship: "The reverent love and devotion accorded a deity, an idol, or sacred object."

Do you worship your parents? Certainly not, and neither do Catholics worship theirs. However, it is perfectly alright to venerate them and for Catholics to venerate the Blessed Virgin Mary.

---

I would say the two words have quite different meanings wouldn't you? Why then, do some people continue to make this false charge?

---

I will ask again. Show me the original official, authentic Catholic document which directs Catholics to worship the Blessed Virgin Mary?

Blessed Mary, Why Honor Her?

---

Why would anyone want to honor Mary? After all, Jesus Christ is paramount and we should go directly to Him. We do not need her.....or do we? Let us examine this question with Scripture and with our own GOD given powers of reason.

1. Who is the first person in Scripture to call Mary 'Blessed'? The first place in the Bible where you will find the answer is Luke 1:28. If your answer is Gabriel, then it is the wrong answer. Gabriel is an Archangel, and the Greek word 'angel', means 'messenger'. So Gabriel was only a messenger for someone, but who? Gabriel was sent by GOD, so it was GOD's message that Gabriel delivered. If GOD was the first person to call Mary 'Blessed', can any of GOD's creatures do less? Dare you, or I, or anyone else refute a clear statement from GOD Himself? Anyone who attempts to do so is putting himself above GOD. Others in Scripture called her 'Blessed' also. Elizabeth did in Luke 1:42, and a 'woman from the crowd' did in Luke 11:27. Mary herself said in Luke 1:48, "...for behold, henceforth ALL GENERATIONS 'SHALL' CALL ME BLESSED". Can you dispute the fact that the word 'henceforth' means from this moment on, and that the word 'shall' is a command, and not a suggestion? If you look up the word 'Blessed' in the dictionary, it means, 'Holy', held in 'Veneration', 'Revered'. GOD is telling us that Mary is Holy, and she should be venerated and revered. How can any person refuse to abide by this specific command in Luke 1:48 and still claim they follow the Bible?

2. Okay, so she is 'Blessed', but that does not mean we need her! Well, what did GOD say through Gabriel in Luke 1:30-33? "You have found favor with GOD." Right there, GOD 'venerated' Mary over all other women. In verse 31 He tells her that she will conceive. Who will she conceive? None other than Jesus Christ, the second person of the Holy Trinity, who will manifest Himself as the 'Incarnate Word'. GOD Himself needed Mary to conceive His very own Son, and to carry Him for nine months to term. GOD needed Mary to be the vessel to give birth to His Divine Son. If GOD needed her, can we not need her also?

3. So she gave birth to a male child! She is a mother like any other mother! Why does that make her special? This brings us to a basic theological question. Who is Jesus Christ? We know that He is the second person of the Holy Trinity, the only Son of GOD. We know He is also the 'Incarnate Word' as explained in John 1:14, "...the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us." John 1:1 teaches us that the "WORD WAS GOD." Mary gave birth to the 'Incarnate Word', and the 'Word' was GOD. I ask, to whom did Mary give birth? The only possible answer is that she gave birth to GOD. Some insist that she only gave birth to the 'humanity' of GOD, but what does that mean? Jesus Christ was the only person ever born with two natures, one human and one divine. He was but one person however, not two. He could not be a human person and a divine person, as that would make Him two persons. The question then becomes, 'was Jesus Christ a human person, or was He a divine person'? Back to John 1:1 and 14, the 'Incarnate Word' was GOD. Jesus Christ is a divine person. Mothers give birth to persons, each with a nature. They do not give birth to natures. GOD Himself, calls Jesus Christ His divine Son (Heb 1:5-8). Yes, she is a mother like any other mother, but what a difference between the sons.

4. Well, I am still not convinced you said? We have established that Jesus Christ is GOD, that He was born of Mary, and that GOD needed her for this 'Incarnation'. Let us look at what Scripture says. Jesus Christ did not come to destroy the 'Law', but to fulfill it. In Matthew 5:17-20, Jesus stated this and He also said in verse 18-19, "...not one jot or tittle shall be lost from the law till all things have been accomplished. Therefore whoever does away with one of these least commandments, and so teaches men, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven..." He very plainly said to 'keep the commandments', all of them. Now don't you suppose Jesus Christ Himself, kept the commandments that He Himself had written? Of course He did, all of them, for He said: "If you keep My commandments you will abide in My love, AS I HAVE ALSO KEPT MY FATHER'S COMMANDMENTS, AND ABIDE IN HIS LOVE.", John 15:10.

Now what about 'honor thy father and thy mother'? Don't you think He kept that one too? There is certainly ample Scriptural evidence to show that He honored His Father, and there is evidence that He honored His mother as well. In fact, He, GOD Himself, must have obeyed His mother's, everyday living, 'mother to child' commands as He was growing up. This is shown in Luke 2:51, "And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was SUBJECT to them." That is a very profound verse if you think about it. In effect it says, that for many years, the 'Creator of the Universe' obeyed the commands of a little Jewish girl, by the name of...Mary. Jesus also acted on her suggestion that the wedding guests were out of wine at Cana, by performing His first public miracle when He turned water into wine in John 2:1-5. Jesus Christ therefore kept the commandment 'honor thy mother', as well. If Jesus Christ honored His mother, can we do less? Jesus Christ loves His mother like any good son would. He will defend her from all attacks against her. If you have not honored Mary, what will you tell her Son after you have taken your last breath, and when you meet Him face to face, and He asks you why? Remember, at that point in time, the 'GOD of Mercy' becomes the 'GOD of Justice'. Then it is too late to correct the injustice done to the Mother of GOD. St. Louis Marie Grignion de Montfort said it best in his book 'True Devotion to Mary', "Let no one presume to hope for the mercy of GOD, who dares to slight or offend GOD's mother."

5. In Summary:

- a. GOD called Mary Blessed, and He venerated her.
- b. GOD needed her to bear His Divine Son.
- c. GOD chose Blessed Mary above all women.
- d. Blessed Mary gave birth to the divine 'Incarnate Word'.
- e. As a child, Jesus Christ obeyed the commands of His mother.
- f. Jesus Christ honors His very own mother.
- g. Jesus Christ will defend His mother as any good son would. Doesn't that make Blessed Mary special?

Does not this make her worthy of our honor? Can we do less than what GOD Himself did? Does any man or woman have the right, or the authority, to say we should not honor Blessed Mary? I have given you the Scriptural authority to honor her. Ask the person who tells you otherwise to show in Scripture where it says not to honor her. Jesus Christ was the only person in history who was able to choose His own mother. Why did He choose Mary? Because she is special, that's why...

In Defense of The Blessed Virgin Mary

---

You are so beautiful, so humble, and you are the Mother of GOD...

Why is there so much controversy about Mary?

1. People will admit that she is the mother of Jesus Christ in His humanity, but could not be the mother of GOD.
  2. They will say she could not have been immaculately conceived.
  3. They will say she was not perpetually virgin and had other children.
  4. They will say she could not have been assumed into Heaven body and soul.

Let us examine each one of these statements...

I. Is Mary the Mother of GOD?

A. The definition of 'PERSON' is, 'The center of attribution in a rational nature'. For a person the question is 'WHO'. Who is that person?

1. Each person has a body. Messages come to the body through the five senses.
2. Each person has a soul, the principal of life.
3. Each person has a spirit. It has the intellect and free will.

B. The definition of 'NATURE' is, 'That which makes a thing be what it is'. A dog has a dog nature, a fish has a fish nature. A dog cannot 'meow' because it doesn't have a cat nature. Everything has its own nature. A person possesses a nature. Nature does not possess a person. I cannot move your arm because my person does not possess your nature. For a nature the question is 'WHAT'. What kind of nature, human, fish, cat, dog?

C. Jesus Christ is a person, as you are a person, and I am a person.

D. Jesus Christ has two natures, a Divine nature and a human nature. He is unique in being the only person ever born with two distinct natures.

E. He can do everything that GOD can do, and at the same time do everything that a man can do except to sin.

F. As GOD, He knew everything. As man, He had to learn everything, as you and I have to do. Lk 2:52

G. His foster father, St Joseph, taught the creator of the universe how to be a carpenter. Mk 6:3

H. It is a mystery as to how these two natures co-existed in His one person. This mystery is known as the 'Hypostatic Union'.

I. Jesus Christ is but one person, with two natures.

J. He is not two persons, each with His own nature.

K. A son receives his nature from his father, male, human etc.

L. Jesus Christ received His nature from His father, a Divine nature.

M. Since Jesus Christ is His Fathers Son, He is a divine person. He cannot be a human person also, as that would make Him two persons, each with a nature.

N. A woman gives birth to a 'PERSON' and that person possesses a nature, male, female etc. She cannot give birth to a nature only.

O. Mary gave birth to Jesus Christ, a 'DIVINE PERSON'.

P. Since Mary gave birth to a Divine person, that makes her the Mother of GOD.

---

II. Was Mary immaculately conceived?

A. This means she had no stain of sin at her conception, no 'Original Sin'.

B. GOD and sin are mutually excludable. God cannot co-exist with sin. Rev 21:27

C. When Adam and Eve sinned, they were thrown out of Eden and the gates of Heaven were closed (Gen 3:24). There was no salvation of mankind into Heaven until Jesus Christ died on the cross, and the gates were reopened.

D. When GOD gave the plans of the Ark of the Covenant to the people, He was very meticulous as to just how the 'container' of His 'WORD', the stone tablets of the 'Ten Commandments', was to be constructed. It had to be perfect and without blemish. Ex 25:8-40

E. The 'New Ark of the Covenant', the vessel that was to 'contain' the 'WORD', Jesus Christ Incarnate, had to be 'made' without blemish also.

F. The 'New Ark of the Covenant' is Mary. She was to give birth to the 'WORD', Jesus Christ. Jn 1:1,14

G. Read Luke 1:28, 'And when the Angel had come to her he said, "Hail full of Grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women'.'" Luke 1:30, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for thou hast found Grace with GOD'. 'Full of Grace', and 'Grace with GOD', could only mean Mary was without sin. John the Baptist had not yet appeared to start his baptism of repentance, symbolic of the coming Sacrament of Baptism. If GOD created the entire universe out of nothing, don't you think that GOD who imposed Adam and Eve's sin on all mankind could exempt one little Jewish girl of original sin?

H. She had to be 'Immaculately Conceived' to satisfy the fact that GOD cannot coexist with sin.

III. Was Mary always a virgin? Did she have other children?

A. Mt 13:55-56 and Mk 6:3 say, "Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, the 'brother' of James, and Joseph, and of Jude and Simon? And are not His 'sisters' here with us?"

B. At first it looks like Jesus had brothers and sisters. These are the main two verses that some say 'prove' He did. Lets look at the definitions.

C. From four different dictionaries, the word 'brother' means, sons of the same parents, OR, friend, ally, kinsman, fellow man, member of the same clan, fellow member of a Church etc. Which definition fits the verses?

D. Compare Mt 10:2-4, Mk 15:40, Jn 19:25, and Acts 1:13 and you will find that James, Joseph, and Jude were sons of Cleophas (Alphaeus) and 'the other Mary', not Mary the Mother of GOD. Simon was the 'Canaanite' of Mk 3:18, and the 'Zealot'.

E. NONE of the four 'brothers' were sons of Mary, the Mother of GOD. They were 'fellow men'. This makes the word 'brother' a non-argument. Mt 12:50

IV. Was Mary Assumed into Heaven, body and soul?

A. Nay sayers point to 1Cor 15:50, "...flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of GOD", therefore she could not possibly have been assumed body and soul. The verse means, 'the gulf between creatures and GOD is too wide to be bridged unless GOD Himself transforms us'.

B. Jesus Christ ascended into Heaven body and soul. Jn 20:17

C. The Bible points out that no less than two persons from the Old Testament were assumed into "heaven" bodily.

Gen 5:24, "And Enoch walked with GOD; and he was not; for GOD took him."

Heb 11:5, "...Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found because GOD had translated him." 2Kings 2:11, "And Elijah went up by a whirlwind into Heaven."

It is to be noted that the Bible does not mentioned that either died first. Also it is to be assumed that they were taken up to the "heavens", and not the heaven for which we are striving. Old Testament "heaven" had several meanings including the "heavens", everything above the surface of the earth. See 2Cor 12:2 where St. Paul mentions the third heaven, and St. Peter mentions "heavens" in 2Pet 3:5. See also John 3:13 where Jesus said that no man ascended to heaven except He that came down from heaven...

D. As for Mary, read Psa 16:10, "For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine 'Holy One' to see corruption." This verse could apply to Mary as well as to the 'Messiah'. See also, 1Cor 15:52.

E. Mary certainly is a 'Holy One', for in Lk 1:28, an angel said to her, "Hail full of Grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women." In Lk 1:30, the angel said, "...thou hast found grace with GOD" In Lk 1:42 Elizabeth said, "...Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb." In Lk 1:48 Mary herself says, "...henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."

I question those who claim to be Bible followers and yet, in fact, have never called her 'blessed' and have no intention of ever doing so.

The verse clearly says:

"Henceforth", which means from the time she said it until the end of time.

"All generations", I would presume includes all of those who refuse to call her blessed today.

"Shall ('will', in some Bibles)", denotes a command and not a suggestion.

"Call me blessed". Why is this simple verse ignored by millions who claim to be Bible believers?

F. Since Mary, as the Mother of GOD, and Queen of Saints, is higher than Enoch or Elijah, why would anyone believe she was not taken up as they were, except to a higher place? Remember, the gates of heaven were opened when GOD died on the cross.

G. The early Churches scrambled for 'relics' of the early Saints as they died. There is no record of any Church obtaining 'relics' of the Blessed Virgin. Her 'relics' would be the most prized of all. There are no first class 'relics' of an assumed person, because there is no body of that person left on earth from which to obtain them.

H. Just because the Bible, at first glance, says little about the Assumption of Mary, does not indicate that she was not assumed. To turn that statement around, Holy Scripture does not say that she was not assumed either.

I. For GOD's ways are not our ways, Isa 55:8, so why do people try to bring Him down to our human level? He can do whatever He wants without asking us first. Since He made everything out of nothing, why then could He not Assume the mother of Jesus Christ into heaven body and soul?

Why Pray to the Blessed Virgin Mary?

That is what non-Catholics say to Catholics. We should only pray to GOD, they say. But do Catholics really pray to Blessed Mary or is there something others do not understand? I would be willing to bet they do not even examine the prayers we use to 'petition' Blessed Mary. Have you ever heard of the word 'intercession'? It is when we ask someone to pray for us. Lets look at a few Bible verses...

---

Rom 15:30, "...help me by your prayers to GOD for me."
Col 1:9, "This is why we too have been praying for you unceasingly."
1Thes 3:10, "Night and day we pray more and more..."
2Thes 1:11, "To this end we pray always for you."
2Thes 3:1, "In conclusion brethren, pray for us..."
Jam 5:16, "...and pray for one another that you may be saved."
Rev 8:3-4 "...that he may offer it with the prayers of all the saints..."
According to Scripture, are the saints in Heaven dead or alive?

---

The Bible is asking you to pray for one another. Have you ever asked someone to pray for you? Have you ever told someone you will pray for them? Why then, when the name of Mary is introduced, is it not to be asked of her? Was she not a created being like all the rest of us? Why can we ask everyone else to pray for us, but we can't ask it of Mary? Does it not stand to reason that her Son would listen to her and grant her requests? He turned water into wine at Cana just by Mary making a remark, "They have no wine", Jn 2:3. He was subjected to her in Lk 2:51, and no doubt for many years until His ministry started at age 30. He listens to her now, just as He did then. She must have a lot more influence with Him than any of us do, since she is His mother. Now let us see if Catholics 'pray' to Blessed Mary.

---

Have you ever listened to the words of the most used Marian prayer of all, the Hail Mary?

*** "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee." ***

This is nothing more than the salutation of Gabriel in Luke 1:28.

*** "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb (Jesus)." ***

That is Elizabeth's greeting to Mary in Lk 1:42.

***"Holy Mary, mother of GOD." ***

She is a saint which makes her holy, and she is the Mother of GOD, because Elizabeth calls her the 'Mother of Our Lord' in Lk 1:43. Also if you take Jn 1:1 "...and the Word was GOD", and add it to Jn 1:14, "...and the Word was made flesh", GOD was made flesh, and who was His mother? Mary!

*** "Pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, amen." ***

This is nothing more than petitioning Mary to PRAY FOR US, just like in the Bible verses I presented. Do we 'pray to' Mary, or are we only petitioning her to pray for us?

Now the next question is, 'Yes, but it is repetitious (the Rosary) and that is forbidden by scripture'. (Mt 6:7)

OK, look at the entries listed above which have the asterisk (*) in front of them.

Are not Col 1:9, "This is why we have been praying for you unceasingly...", 1Thes 3:10, "Night and day we pray more and more...", and 2Thes 1:11, "To this end we pray always for you...", repetitious? Is this one of those so called 'Bible Conflicts' you hear about from time to time?

No, not at all.

The answer is that the Bible refers to two types of prayer repetition '(V)ain', in the manner of heathens, and '(U)seful', NOT in the manner of heathens.

The Rosary is not vain repetition. Here is a list of some in each category that you can check in your Bible. (V) 1King 18:25-29, (U) Isa 6:3, (U) Dan 3:52-90, (V) *Mt 6:7, (U) Mt *26:44, (U) *Lk 6:12, (U) Lk 18:1,9-14,*21:36, (U)*Col 1:9, (U) 1Thes 3:10,5:17, (U) *Jam 5:16, (U) **Rev 4:8

One final note:

Many non-Catholics have the false belief that praying to "dead" people is useless. This is a mis-interpretation of what Holy Scripture teaches us, for the Blessed Virgin Mary and others who have gone on before us are not dead but live forever.

All Have Sinned

Romans 3:23

---

"...as all have sinned and have need of the glory of GOD."

Rom 3:23

Non-Catholics point to this verse as 'proof' against the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Immaculate Conception means the Blessed Virgin Mary was conceived and born without original sin. However this verse does not even address 'Original Sin', which is imputed to almost all of mankind by the sin of Adam and Eve. I said almost all, simply because a few did not have original sin imputed to them, namely Adam, Eve, Jesus Christ, and the New Eve, Blessed Mary.

Romans 3:23 addresses only the sins that we commit of our own free will.

Are there any exceptions to the word 'All'?

What about Jesus Christ? Did He in His humanity ever sin?

What about babies and those with a mental retardation who have no reasoning power? Have they sinned? Have children below the age of reason sinned? Have comatose and senile people sinned? As you can see, there are exceptions.

Luke 1:6, regarding Zachary and Elizabeth, the parents of John the Baptist, "Both were just before GOD, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord".

Luke 1:15, regarding John the Baptist, "For he shall be great before the Lord; he shall drink no wine or strong drink, and shall be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mothers womb".

Do these verses sound as if Zachary, Elizabeth, and John the Baptist have sinned?

You can readily see that there are many exceptions to the term 'All have sinned'. Since I have shown there are many exceptions to the word 'ALL', why then should anyone not allow one more exception, the Mother of GOD?

---

The Greek word, 'PAS', meaning 'ALL', can have different meanings as shown in other verses of Holy Scripture.

John 12:19, "The entire world has gone after him!" Did everyone in the entire world really go after Christ?

Mt 3:5-6, "Then went out to Him Jerusalem, and ALL Judea, and ALL the region about the Jordan; and they were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins."

Were all of the people of Judea, and the region about the Jordan baptized?

The phrase 'the whole world', does not really mean everybody in the world. The words 'whole world' and 'all' are used in several different senses of Scripture, and seldom do they literally mean all persons.

Rom 11:26, "ALL Israel shall be saved." We know for certain that 'ALL' in Israel will not be saved.

Rom 15:14, "...you yourselves are full of love, filled with 'ALL' knowledge..." Here we know for sure that the only person filled with 'ALL' knowledge is GOD Himself.

The Greek word 'pas' in many verses in Scripture simply means a 'great number', or 'a lot'. Since there are exceptions for Jesus Christ, and for others as shown above, the meaning could be seen as, 'ALL are subject to sin'. In the case of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a prevention of sin was brought about by a special grace from GOD.

Prayer Repetition is Forbidden By The Bible...

---

Or Is It???

---

Matthew 6:7, "But when you pray, use not 'vain' repetitions, as the 'heathens' do; for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

This is the only verse in the Bible to which detractors of the Rosary refer. The emphasis in this verse is on the word "vain" and not on the word "repetitions". Let us look at the meaning of the keywords, 'vain', and 'heathen', which portray the meaning of the entire verse...

---

VAIN:

- 1. Not yielding the desired outcome.
  - a. Many desired outcomes have been realized by praying the rosary.
- 2. Lacking substance or worth.
  - a. The same reasoning applies here too.
- 3. Excessively proud of one's appearance, or accomplishments, conceited.
  - a. Not applicable here.
- 4. Foolish.
  - a. Not so with the excellent fruits received by so many who pray the rosary.
- 5. To no avail: our labor was in vain.
  - a. Certainly not this one, see 1a.
- 6. Irreverently, i.e, took the name of the Lord in vain.
  - a. Definitely not this meaning.

To which of these meanings do detractors refer?

---

HEATHEN:

- 1. One who adheres to the religion of a people or nation that does not acknowledge the GOD of Judaism, Christianity, or Islam.
  - a. All Christians are off the hook here.
- 2. The unconverted.
  - a. Same as 1a.
- 3. One who is regarded as irreligious, uncivilized, or unenlightened.
  - a. Same as 1a.

Hmmm, it seems to me that Christians do not fall under any of these meanings.

---

The simple fact of the matter is that there is (V)ain repetition, and there is (U)seful repetition. Holy Scripture refers to far more Useful repetition, than to Vain...

---

Useful repetition of prayer...

1. Isaiah 6:3, "And they cried one to another, and said; Holy, Holy, Holy, the Lord GOD of hosts, all the earth is full of His glory."

a. The Seraphim repetitiously praising GOD.

2. Daniel 3:51-90, this is the famous 'Canticle of the three children'.

a. A great number of repetitions here.

3. Matthew 26:36-44, "...And leaving them he went back again, and prayed a third time, saying the same words over."

a. Jesus Christ Himself in repetitious prayer. Can we do less?

4. Luke 6:12, "Now it came to pass in those days, that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to GOD."

a. All night prayer, any repetition here?

5. Luke 18:1,3-5, "And He told them a parable that they must always pray and not lose heart." Vs 3-5, is the parable of the GODless judge..."...yet because this widow bothers me, I will do her justice, lest by her continual coming she finally wear me out."

6. Luke 21:36, "Watch then, praying at all times..."

7. Acts 12:5, "So Peter was being kept in the prison; but prayer was being made to GOD for him by the Church without ceasing."

8. Romans 1:9-10, "For GOD is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Gospel of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always imploring in my prayers..."

9. Ephesians 6:18, "With all prayer and supplications pray at all times in the spirit..."

10. Colossians 1:9, "This is why we too have been praying for you unceasingly..."

11. 1 Thessalonians 3:10, "Night and day we pray more and more that we may see you again..."

12. 1Thessalonians 5:17, "Pray without ceasing."

a. 'Without ceasing', you would have to pray repetitiously.

13. 2Timothy 1:3, "...that I remember you without ceasing in my prayers night and day."

a. How can anyone do this without repetitious prayer?

14. James 5:16, "For the unceasing prayer of a just man is of great avail."

a. I would say 'of great avail', is just the opposite of 'vain', wouldn't you?

b. I would say praying the Rosary fits rather nicely right here wouldn't you agree?

15. Revelation 4:8, "And they do not rest day and night saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, the Lord GOD Almighty, who was, who is, and who is coming."

a. My oh my, even the angels before GOD do repetitive prayer.

16. Psalms 136 has 25 verses. In every one of those 25 verses, there is the prayer, "for His mercy endures forever." How do those who use Matthew 6:7 to detract from the rosary explain that?

17. Psalms 150 has only 5 verses and yet either "Praise the Lord", or "Praise him", is repeated 11 times in those 5 verses.

18. Exodus 17:8-13, as long as Moses held up his hands in prayer, Joshua and Israel had the better of the battle with Amalek. As soon as he let his hands rest, Amalek gained the better of the battle. How could Moses have prayed for the better part of a day without being repetitive? This is a shining example of the power of prayer.

19. Luke 18:1-8, a persistent woman pestered the judge with a repetitive request for a long time. In verse 5, the judge became weary and finally granted her request. Now what do you suppose would have happened if the woman had twenty of her friends to speak (pray) in her behalf? No doubt the judge would have caved in sooner.

Vain repetition of prayer...

1. 1 kings 18:25-29, They were praying to Baal, and in vs 29, "...and there was no voice heard, nor did anyone answer, nor regard them as they prayed."

---

*The Rosary is certainly not "vain" repetition for praying, as it has brought much joy to many people. Just as one example, on January 28, 1998, Mother Angelica of EWTN was miraculously healed of a crippling back injury after forty years of pain and having to wear three braces.
She was healed while she prayed the Rosary...*

"And a great sign appeared in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars."

Revelation 12:1

---

Kings and Queens wear crowns.

---

In Scripture, Queens were the mothers of the Kings, not the wives.

---

"And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and He that sat upon him was faithful and true..."

...and His name is called The Word Of GOD...

...and He had on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

You can take it anywhere.

It is practically indestructible.

It takes almost no room. It is only a little larger than a quarter.

With it, you can say the Rosary while driving. You don't have to worry about it wrapping itself around the steering wheel, like a standard Rosary has a tendency to do. It is not distracting while driving. Now all that commute time can be put to good use.

You can say the Rosary while walking, shopping, fishing, golfing, in short, during leisure time.

You can say the Rosary during wasted time such as waiting in lines, being on hold on the telephone, filling your gas tank, waiting for doctor or dentist appointments etc..

If you spend time watching television, you can say the Rosary during commercials or during slow or dull parts of what you are watching.

You can say the Rosary while doing everyday things such as cooking, washing, dishes, doing laundry, house cleaning, or even taking a shower, as water will not hurt a ring rosary.

We all have times as listed above to say our Rosary every day. You will be surprised at how fast and painlessly 15 decades of the Rosary will zip by. Our 'Blessed Mother' will thank you.

After a short period of time you will find, as I have, that the Ring Rosary goes with you wherever you go. I will not leave home without one.

The Immaculate Conception, A Stumbling Block For Protestants...

But Not For Catholics...

---

The Immaculate Conception:

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the "New Ark of the Covenant".

GOD was very meticulous as to how the Hebrews were to construct the wooden 'Ark of the Covenant' in Exodus 25. The Ark was destined to be the most sacred object on earth by GOD because it contained GOD'S "Word", written on the stone tablets handed down by Him to Moses. It was so sacred that Uzzah, who had good intentions, died instantly just by just touching it as it was about to tip over in 2Sam 6:2-8. Since the wooden Ark of the Old Testament was but a "type" of the "New Ark" of the New Testament, and therefore inferior to it, then how much more for merely a man not to touch the "New Ark of the Covenant"? What is reserved for GOD only, is GOD's only. GOD and sin are mutually exclusive (Rev 21:27). Does not it stand to reason that when GOD created the "New Ark of the Covenant", the vessel that contained "His Word" (Jesus Christ, John 1:1) that He would be equally or more meticulous in creating it? Can GOD co-exist with original sin in the same vessel, the womb of Mary? That 'vessel', Mary, had to be worthy of the 'Treasure' she carried, Jesus The Christ, the Word Incarnate.

What is the purpose of Baptism? It is to remove the stain of original sin. When we are baptized, sin goes out and GOD comes in. Baptism to remove sin and allow GOD to come in was not instituted until after Jesus had started His ministry (John 3:22-23, 4:2).

So The Blessed Virgin had to have a stainless sin-free body and soul in order for GOD incarnate to dwell within her. GOD imputes the stain of original sin into the soul of each person He creates. However, He did not do so for His only Son. What makes you think He could not do so for His Son's mother as well?

Who was the first person to call Mary "Blessed"?

It was GOD Himself through the Angel Gabriel in Luke 1:28. If GOD said "Hail, full of Grace, the Lord is with thee", in the same verse, could Mary have been 'full of grace' or 'blessed' or have the 'Lord with her', had she been stained by original sin? If you say 'yes' to that one, then please explain your answer to me?

By being "full of Grace", and being told "the Lord is with thee", is she not higher than Eve who was never told these things? If so, was Eve created with original sin? No? Then why do you think Mary, who is higher than Eve, was born with original sin? Wouldn't having original sin make Mary lower than Eve? Eve is a "type" of Mary, who is the "antitype". "Types" are always inferior to "antitypes" and always point to a much greater reality, and never to a symbol.

GOD will not join Himself with anything defiled, Wis 1:4-5, Isa 59:1-4, Rom 1:18-32, Rev 21:27.

For these reasons, Mary had to be immaculately conceived: Gen 3:15, Ex 25:8-40, Psa *4:4,18:23,51:10, Psa 132:8, *Song 4:7, *Wis 1:4, Isa 59:2, *Ez 44:1-3, Lk 1:28,42, *John 1:1 and 1:14 together, Eph 5:27, Tit 3:7.

Some non-Catholics have a problem with the Immaculate Conception of Mary. It is a major 'stumbling block' for them. They miss several very important points.

They try to bring GOD down to our human level in order to explain His ways. If they cannot explain it in a human way, then they say, "It simply could not have happened." This is as bad as to try to raise our human ways up to GOD's divine level. It simply cannot be done. They fail to realize that GOD's ways are not our ways, nor are GOD's thoughts our thoughts'. Isa 55:8-11

---

The first Protestant had this to say of the Blessed Virgin Mary:

"It is a sweet and pious belief that the infusion of Mary's soul was effected without original sin; so that in the very infusion of her soul she was also purified from original sin and adorned with God's gifts, receiving a pure soul infused by God; thus from the first moment she began to live she was free from all sin."

Martin Luther, (Sermon: "On the Day of the Conception of the Mother of God," 1527).

Isn't it strange that most of Protestantism does not believe in the Immaculate Conception today? Who was the first Protestant to discard this doctrine in which the founder of Protestantism believed?

---

Jesus Christ was born without original sin since He is GOD.

John the Baptist was born without original sin also. Luke 1:15

Why then could anyone say that the Mother of GOD could not have been immaculately conceived?

---

The human way is inadequate to explain the ways of GOD:

The finite human mind is woefully inadequate to comprehend the infinite mind of GOD.

Do you believe the doctrine of the Holy Trinity? Why?

Is the doctrine defined in the Bible?

No, it is not.

Can anyone explain the doctrine of the Holy Trinity in a human way?

How can there be three persons in one GOD?

Since you believe in the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, which is not defined in the Bible, and cannot be defined in a human way, why do you not believe in the Immaculate Conception under the same conditions?

Do you believe Jesus Christ has both a divine and a human nature? Why?

How can there be two natures of Jesus Christ co-existing together, with the divine knowing all things as in John 21:17, and the human having to learn and gain wisdom as in Luke 2:52? Try to explain it in a human way?

Do you believe in creation? Why?

Explain the act of creation with all visible things being made out of nothing.

Science, the human way, tells you that you have to at least have atoms with which to start.

Do you believe Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit with the co-operation of a little Jewish girl named Mary? Why?

Explain the conception of Jesus Christ in a human way. Where did the 'seed' of man come from?

---

Theotokos Doctrine:

Theotokos is Greek and it's meaning is 'GOD Bearer'. And who is the 'GOD Bearer'? Mary, the Mother of GOD. Who else bore GOD? This is shown in John 1:1, "...and the Word was GOD", and in John 1:14, "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us." So the Word, who was GOD, was made flesh. Where did the substance of the flesh come from? It came from the substance of Mary. Could the substance of the flesh and blood of Jesus Christ come from a person stained by original sin?

Mothers give birth to persons, not natures. The person of Jesus Christ is divine, not human. Mary gave birth to a divine person. That makes her the 'Theotokos', the 'GOD Bearer', the 'Mother of GOD'.

In Luke 1:41-43, '...Elizabeth, being filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And how have I deserved that the MOTHER OF MY LORD should come to me?"'

Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, called Mary the 'Mother of my Lord'. Since being 'filled with the Holy Spirit' means the same throughout the Bible, then it was the Holy Spirit who gave her the words to say, isn't that true?

"And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak," Acts 2:4.

Who is 'my Lord', is it not GOD? Did she then not call Mary, the 'MOTHER OF GOD'? If that is what she said, then the Holy Spirit called Mary the 'Mother of GOD' did He not? If you say 'no' to these questions in this paragraph, then please explain your reason(s) why to me.

If the third person of the Holy Trinity called Mary the 'Mother of GOD', would any one of us dare to deny it?

Can the 'Mother of GOD' have original sin on her soul?

The doctrine of Mary, the 'Mother of GOD' was first proclaimed by the Church at the Council of Ephesus in 431.

I will ask you, 'Will GOD join Himself to anything defiled'?

---

There are two ways to handle a disease:

It can be cured by treatment, and it can be dealt with by prevention.

Original sin can be seen as a disease of the soul and can be handled two ways. It can be cleansed away by Baptism, the cure, or it can be prevented by the grace of GOD. This preventative way is what we Catholics believe was bestowed upon Mary.

When conception occurs, GOD creates the soul for the one conceived. It was a simple matter for the Creator of the Universe to prevent original sin from staining the human soul of Jesus Christ, and He no doubt, did the same thing for Mary when she was conceived.

Isaiah 64:8, "And now, O Lord, Thou art Our Father, and we are clay; and Thou art our maker, and we all are the works of Thy hands."

Jeremiah 18:4-6, "And the vessel was broke which he was making of clay with his hands; and turning he made another vessel, as it seemed good in his eyes to make it. Then the Word of the Lord came to me saying: 'Cannot I do with you as this potter, O house of Israel, said the Lord? Behold as clay is in the hand of the potter, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel.'"

So GOD is the Potter, and we are the clay to mold as He sees fit.

Romans 9:21, "OR IS NOT THE POTTER MASTER OF HIS CLAY, TO MAKE FROM THE SAME MASS ONE VESSEL FOR HONORABLE, ANOTHER FOR IGNOBLE USE?"

The Potter and the Clay, and Romans 9:21 give Biblical justification to the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception.

---

"For nothing is impossible with GOD." Luke 1:37.

---

Remember He knew she would become the mother of the Word Incarnate.

---

Venerable Pope Pius IX declared the dogma of the Immaculate Conception on December 8, 1854:

The decree of the bull reads:

"Accordingly, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, for the honor of the Holy and undivided Trinity, for the glory and adornment of the Virgin Mother of GOD, for the exaltation of the Catholic faith and for the furtherance of the Catholic religion, by the authority of Jesus Christ Our Lord, of the Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul and our own, we declare, pronounce, and define that the doctrine which holds that the most Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instant of her Conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by Almighty GOD, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ the Savior of the human race, was preserved free from all stain of original sin, is a doctrine revealed by GOD and therefore to be believed firmly and constantly by all the faithful."

---

The 'Blessed Virgin Mary' appeared to St. Bernadette in Lourdes France only four years later in 1858. When St. Bernadette asked her name, Blessed Mary replied, "I AM THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION." This confirmed the dogma.

---

This doctrine of the Immaculate Conception is no "stumbling block" for Catholics.
Why is it one for some non-Catholics?

The Perpetual Virginity of Mary...

A Major Stumbling Block For Protestants...

---

Before writing this file I wondered, "Why would anyone be interested in the virginity of a little Jewish girl who lived 2000 years ago?" Can you think of another person in history that is so controversial regarding this subject?

I couldn't.

Then the answer came to me...

It is either because the persons questioning Blessed Mary's virginity, have no love for GOD and wish to hurt Him in any way they can, or it is because the Catholic Church teaches the perpetual virginity of Mary and this is just another way to put down the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

If someone can come up with a better answer, I would certainly like to hear from you. However, before you contact me, please read another file on this website called, "Genealogy of the Brethren".

While dying on the cross, Jesus gave his mother to St. John (John 19:27). Why didn't He give her to one of her other children (as Protestants insist she had) instead? Jewish law would have demanded it. It is simply because Mary had no other children for Him to do so.

---

FOR ANYONE TO SAY THAT MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN IS A DIRECT INSULT TO GOD THE FATHER, WHO SENT HIS ANGEL, GABRIEL, TO PROCLAIM TO HER, AND ONLY TO HER, "HAIL, FULL OF GRACE, THE LORD IS WITH THEE. BLESSED ART THOU AMONG WOMEN".

---

FOR ANYONE TO SAY THAT MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN IS A DIRECT INSULT TO THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHO SANCTIFIED HER AS HIS SPOUSE, AND TO BE THE VESSEL TO CARRY THE WORD INCARNATE, THE SECOND PERSON OF THE HOLY TRINITY.

---

FOR ANYONE TO SAY THAT MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN IS AN INSULT TO JESUS CHRIST, WHO WAS THE ONLY BEGOTTEN OF HIS MOTHER, AS HE HIMSELF WAS THE ONLY BEGOTTEN OF HIS FATHER IN HEAVEN.

---

FOR ANYONE TO SAY THAT MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN IS AN INSULT TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, WHO WOULD HAVE TO HAVE CARRIED THE GUILT OF INGRATITUDE TO GOD FOREVER, IF SHE HAD DISCARDED THE PRECIOUS GIFT OF HER VIRGINITY WHICH GOD HAD SO METICULOUSLY PREPARED FOR HER IN THE CONCEPTION OF HIS WORD INCARNATE.

---

FOR ANYONE TO SAY THAT MARY HAD OTHER CHILDREN IS AN INSULT TO ST. JOSEPH. Knowing full well that Mary had given birth to the Word Incarnate, and that her Son was the second person of the Holy Trinity, the Son of GOD, he must have been awestruck by the event. He knew that just by her being the one chosen (Luke 1:27-33), and by an act of GOD, in protecting her virginity (Luke 1:34-38), that she was special, and by the special graces given to her, elevated her far above any other woman. After all what could possibly follow the honor and graces given her by the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit is her spouse and St. Joseph knew it when he was informed by the Angel in a dream (Matthew 1:20). Would any sane man be so vain as to father mere human children with her? The idea of the spouse of the Holy Spirit becoming a mother to one not by the Holy Spirit, would have been repulsive, and would have had all the ingredients of sacrilege to him.

The Protestant Reformer Ulrich Zwingli had this to say:

"It was not enough that the conception of Jesus take place without a male role, for if a woman who had previously known a man had conceived him even through the Holy Spirit, 'who would ever have believed that the child that was born was of the Holy Spirit? For nature knows no birth that is not besmirched with stain.' For the same reason she had to be ever a virgin, she who bore the one in whom there could not be even the least suspicion of blemish. For the birth of Jesus to be absolutely pure of every stain, Mary herself had to be free of any pollution of normal child-bearing..." Zwingli

Why do his followers deny his words today?

There is absolutely nothing in Scripture which says that Mary had other children. Those who say she did, are committing calumny and slander, and are offending the Holy Trinity and the Holy Family. They are playing 'You Bet Your Soul'. Is it worth it? When they meet Jesus Christ face to face one day, how are they going to explain to Him, why they slandered His mother? What will they say to Him then?

The Seven Privileges of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

By Saint Bonaventure

---

---

Saint Bonaventure, 1221-1274

This is an excerpt from his writing, "Mirror of the Blessed Virgin Mary"...

---

---

The seven privileges of Mary:

- 1. The first privilege of Mary was that she was, above all men, free from sin and most pure. For she was so abundantly sanctified by grace in her mother's womb that it is believed she was never in the least degree inclined to the slightest venial sin. Therefore St. Bernard saith: "It behoved the Queen of Virgins, by a singular privilege of sanctity, to lead a life free from every sin, so that, while she brought forth the slayer of sin and death, she should obtain for all the gift of life and justice."
- 2. The second privilege of Mary is that, above all men, she was full of grace. St. Jerome saith: "On others grace was bestowed in measure; but the whole fullness of grace was poured into Mary." And, therefore, well doth this same Blessed Doctor, comparing the grace of Mary with that of the angels and preferring it, say: "It is to be believed that the glorious Virgin Mary merited greater privileges of virtue, and received grace praised by the angels."
- 3. The third privilege of Mary was that she alone was a mother and at the same time an inviolate virgin. St. Bernard, praising this privilege, says: "Mary chose for herself the better part. Clearly the better, because conjugal fecundity is good, but virginal chastity is better, but the best is virginal fecundity, or fecund virginity. The privilege of Mary will not be given to another, because it will not be taken away from her."
- 4. The fourth privilege of Mary is that she alone is the ineffable Mother of the Son, the Mother of that Son of whom alone God is the Father; wonderful above measure that so great a privilege should be granted to a creature. Of this privilege St. Bernard saith: "This is the singular glory of our Virgin, and the excellent prerogative of Mary, that she merited to have her Son in common with God the Father."
- 5. The fifth privilege of Mary is that she alone above all creatures was in the body most familiar with God. For, what was never granted to any other creature, nor will ever be granted again in eternity -- she bore God for nine months in her womb, she nourished God from her breasts full of heaven, for many years she sweetly brought up our Lord, she had God subject to her, she handled and embraced her God in pure embraces and kisses with tender familiarity, as St. Augustine says: "No wonder, Mary, that God reigning in Heaven deigns to rejoice with thee, whom, when He was a little child born of thee, thou didst so often kiss on earth." (Serm. de Sanct., XXV, CCVIII, n. II, appendix.)
- 6. The sixth privilege of Mary was that she alone, above all creatures, is most powerful with God. St. Augustine says: "She merited to be the mother of the Redeemer." He also says: "Beg for what we ask, excuse what we fear, because we shall never find one more powerful in merit than thee, who hast merited to be the Mother of the Redeemer and of the Judge. It is a great privilege that she is more powerful with God than all the Saints, as St. Augustine declares: "There is no doubt that she who brought forth the price by which all were freed, can above all others pay the suffrage of holy liberty." But what would it avail us for Mary to have such great power if she cared nothing for us?"

Therefore, brethren, we must hold it for certain, and incessantly give thanks for this, that, as she has more power with God than all the Saints, so is she also more solicitous for us before God than all the Saints. It is the same Augustine who teaches us this, saying: "We know, O Mary, that thou above all the saints art solicitous for the holy Church--thou who obtainest for sinners time to repent, that they may renounce their errors."

7. The seventh privilege of Mary is that she, above all the Saints, is most excellent in glory. St. Jerome says: "Everywhere the holy Church of God sings, what it is unlawful to believe of any other of the saints, that the merits (of Mary) transcend those of all angels and archangels. This privilege not, as it were, of nature, but of grace--belongs to the Virgin Mary." Behold how glorious is the privilege of Mary's glory that she, after God, is most exalted in glory. The glorious privilege of the glory of Mary is, that whatever after God is most beautiful, whatever is sweetest, whatever is pleasanter in glory, that is Mary's, that is in Mary, that is by Mary. It is entirely the glorious privilege of Mary, that, after God, our greatest glory and our greatest joy is because of her. St. Bernard says: "After God, it is our greatest glory, O Mary, to behold thee, to adhere to thee, to abide in the defense of thy protection."

These, therefore, are the seven privileges of Mary by which we obtain the life of grace. And therefore, we may implore Mary, as Abraham implored Sara: "Say, I beseech thee, that thou art my sister, that it may be well with me because of thee, and that my soul may live by thy grace" (Gen. XII, 13.) O Mary, our Sara, say that thou art our sister, that because of thee it may be well for us with God, and that our souls may live in God because of thy grace. Say, O our most beloved Sara, that thou art our sister, that, for the sake of such a sister, the Egyptians, that is, the evil spirits, may reverence us, that, because of such a sister, the angels may fight for us, and that above all, for the sake of such a sister, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost may have mercy on us.

There is only ONE Mediator between GOD and man!

*"For there is one GOD, and one Mediator between GOD and men, Himself man, Christ Jesus."
1Timothy 2:5.*

Jesus Christ is our only 'mediator' as stated by St. Paul. Non-Catholics like to point out this verse to Catholics (out of context of course), as they mistakenly perceive that we 'mediate' through His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. Nothing could be further from the truth.

---

'Mediator', as defined by the dictionary, the first meaning, is: 'One who works to resolve or settle differences by working with all the conflicting parties'.

The 'conflicting parties' in this case, are of course, GOD, and mankind. Jesus Christ did indeed act as mediator by suffering and dying for us.

---

The mistaken belief of non-Catholics, is of their choice of words, when they refer to the Mother of GOD. Catholics use the word, 'Intercessor', and not 'Mediator' when we speak of Blessed Mary.

---

'Intercessor', as defined by the dictionary, the first meaning, is: 'One who entreaties in favor of another, especially one who prays or petitions to GOD in behalf of another'.

---

As you can plainly see, a 'Mediator' is the subject of action, whereas an 'Intercessor' is a petitioner for action. They do have quite different meanings.

Another point of confusion would be the secondary meaning of 'Intercessor', 'One who 'Mediates' in a dispute, ...to intervene'.

The Catholic use of the word 'Intercessor', is the first meaning, whereas the Protestants choose the second, and this is where they err.

There are many cases where the secondary definition of words is quite different from the first, and for some reason, detractors will invariably use the secondary in order to try to make a point.

Another example which comes to mind is the Jehovah's Witness translation of Luke 1:48, "...all generations shall call me 'blessed'." They use a second or third meaning of the word 'blessed', and substitute the word 'happy', which to me changes the meaning of the verse and detracts from the beauty of it. 'All generations shall call me happy' does not make any sense. No doubt they did this on purpose.

Now that we have the definitions in mind, let us go back to 1Timothy 2, and read it in context...

"I urge therefore, first of all, that SUPPLICATIONS, PRAYERS, INTERCESSIONS and THANKSGIVINGS be made for all men; for kings, and for all in high positions, that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all piety and worthy behavior. This is GOOD and AGREEABLE in the SIGHT OF OUR SAVIOR, who wishes all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one GOD and one mediator between GOD and men, himself man, Christ Jesus." 1Timothy 2:1-5

---

Taken in context, 'Intercessions', 'Prayers' and 'Supplications' are asked for all men. When Catholics say the Hail Mary, they just repeat the salutation of Gabriel from Luke 1:28 for the first part, and the last part is, "Holy Mary, Mother of GOD, PRAY for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, amen."

We do nothing more than to ask for her 'Intercession' (please reread the first meaning of the word), and for her to pray for us.

---

For some non-Catholics, every time the name 'Mary' is introduced, there seems to be a 'stumbling block', whereas they have no problem with other characters in the Bible. Holy Scripture is filled with intercessory pleas by others. Here are a few examples:

Gen18:23-33, Abraham pleads with GOD for the lives of the people of Sodom.

Ex 32:11 and Psa 106:3, Moses pleads with GOD over the golden calf.

Rom 15:30, St. Paul asks all to pray for him.

Col 1:9, St. Paul said, 'we too have been praying for you unceasingly, since the day we heard this, and asking that you may be filled with knowledge of His will, in all spiritual wisdom and understanding'.

2Thess 1:11, St. Paul iterates 'we pray always for you'.

James 5:16, St. James asks, 'pray for one another'.

And then of course, Blessed Mary already had interceded with her Son in John 2:3-5, so a precedent for her intercession was already set.

---

Clearly, there is only one 'Mediator', but there are many 'Intercessors' to GOD.

1Kings 2:12-20,

(12) When Solomon was seated on the throne of his father David, with his sovereignty firmly established, (13) Adonijah, son of haggith, went to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon. "Do you come as a friend?" she asked. "Yes," he answered, (14) and added, "I have something to say to you." She replied, "Say it." (15) So he said "You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel expected me to be king. But the kingdom escaped me and became my brother's, for the Lord gave it to him. (16) But now there is one favor I would ask of you. Do not refuse me." And she said, "Speak on." (17) He said, "Please ask King Solomon, WHO WILL NOT REFUSE YOU, to give me Abishag the Shunamite for my wife." (18) "Very well", replied Bathsheba, "I will speak to the king for you." (19) Then Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, and THE KING STOOD UP TO MEET HER AND PAID HER HOMAGE. Then he sat down on his throne, AND A THRONE WAS PROVIDED FOR THE KINGS MOTHER, WHO SAT AT HIS RIGHT. (20) "There is one small favor I would ask of you," she said. "DO NOT REFUSE ME." "ASK IT, MY MOTHER," the king said to her, "FOR I WILL NOT REFUSE YOU."

Elucidation:

- 1. Adonijah knows the King will not refuse the Queens request, vs 17*
  - 2. Queens and Kings sit on thrones, vs 19.*
  - 3. Kings stand and pay homage to Queens, keeping the 4th commandment to honor your father and mother, vs 19.*
  - 4. Solomon, not even knowing his mother's request, will not refuse her, vs 20.*
  - 5. Would Jesus Christ, the King of Kings, refuse a request by His mother, the Queen of Heaven?*

Jeremiah 31:22,

"For the Lord has created a new thing upon the earth; a woman shall compass a man."

Elucidation:

- 1. What 'new thing' has the Lord created?*
  - 2. The woman in question will bring forth a savior, a one of a kind.*

Isaiah 7:14,

"Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel."

Luke 1:34,37-38,

(34) "How shall this happen since I do not know man?"..... (37) "For nothing shall be impossible with GOD." (38) "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to your word."

Elucidation:

- 1. A 'sign' as stated in Isaiah is interpreted as an unusual event.*
  - 2. A virgin conceiving, as in Luke, is a very unusual event. It is the 'sign'.*
  - 3. Mary, in perfect obedience to the Lord, gave her consent.*

Luke 1:35,

"...the Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you; and therefore the Holy One to be born shall be called the Son of GOD."

Elucidation:

1. The word, 'overshadow', used in Luke, is the same as the verb, 'covered', used in Exodus, to describe how the Lord 'filled' the tabernacle.
  2. The Ark of the Covenant contained manna (food), the rod of Aaron (power), and the Ten Commandments (the Word).
  3. Mary carried the Word of GOD, the Power of GOD, and the Bread come down from heaven.

2Samuel 6:9,

"And David was afraid of the Lord that day, saying, How shall the Ark of the Lord come to me?"

Luke 1:43,

"And how have I deserved that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

Elucidation:

1. In 2Sam, David asked regarding the Ark which contained the Word of GOD written on stone tablets.
  2. In Luke 1, Elizabeth asked regarding the new Ark which contained the Word of GOD in the womb of Mary.

2Samuel 6:12-14,

"...David went and brought away the Ark of GOD...into the city of David with joy....And David danced with all his might before the Lord."

Luke 1:41,

"And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt."

Elucidation:

1. David danced before the Ark of the Covenant containing the Word of GOD written on stone tablets.
2. St. John the Baptist, leapt in the womb of his mother Elizabeth, as he was before the

Romans 5:18-19,

"...Just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of one person the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of one the many will be made righteous." (NAB)

Elucidation:

- 1. These verses describe the relationship between Adam and Christ.*
  - 2. However they also describe the relationship between Eve and Mary.*
  - 3. Eve was the disobedient one (Genesis 3:6), even before Adam sinned.*
  - 4. Mary was the obedient one (Luke 1:38), even before Jesus was born.*

Luke 1:46-47,

'And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in GOD my Savior."'

Elucidation:

- 1. Mary proclaims that GOD is her savior. Why is GOD her savior since she was born without original sin?*
  - 2. GOD can either atone for the sins of mankind, or He can prevent a person from sinning. Either way, GOD is the Savior of that person.*
  - 3. If someone falls into a pit, another can save him by pulling him out. Likewise, if someone is about to fall into a pit, another can grab him, preventing him from doing so. Either way, the second person is the savior of the first.*

Revelation 11:19,

"And the temple of GOD in heaven was opened, and there was seen the ark of His covenant in His temple..."

Revelation 12:1,

"And a great sign appeared in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars."

Elucidation:

- 1. The 'Ark of His Covenant' as seen in heaven was not the wooden ark of the Old Testament, but the 'New Ark of the Covenant', the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is shown by the very next verse.*
- 2. The word 'And' as the first word of Rev 12:1, ties that verse immediately to the verse preceding it, Rev 11:19.*
- 3. A crown upon her head is the sign of a Queen.*
- 4. Twelve stars could mean, the twelve Apostles, or the twelve tribes of Judah.*
- 5. This image of a woman clothed with the sun and a moon under her feet, fits perfectly with the miraculous image of the Virgin of Guadalupe in 1531.*
- 6. The 'Great Sign' is the Blessed Virgin Mary.*
- 7. The 'Woman' mentioned in Rev 12:1 is the woman of Genesis 3:15, and of John 2:4, and of John 19:26. She is the 'Woman' in the first book of the Bible, and the 'Woman' in the last book of the*

Revelation 12:14,

"And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent."

Elucidation:

- 1. The 'Woman', as already determined, is the Blessed Virgin Mary.
- 2. She was carried not under her own power, but of an external power to another place.
- 3. This fits with the Assumption.
- 4. Time, and times, and a half time, is mentioned in Dan 7:25, and 12:7 also.

Time, is all the time from Adam until the birth of Christ, or about 4000 years. Times is the short period of time in which Christ walked on earth. A half time would be half of the 4000 years or 2000 years from the time of the crucifixion. We seem to be close to that time now.

---

Revelation 12:17,

"And the dragon was angered at the woman, and went away to wage war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of GOD, and hold fast the testimony of Jesus."

Elucidation:

- 1. The dragon is the ancient serpent of Gen 3:1-15, as shown in Rev 12:9.
  - 2. The dragon was angered at the woman, whom we know is The Blessed Virgin Mary.
  - 3. This is shown in Gen 3:15, when GOD puts 'enmity' between the woman and the serpent.
  - 4. The Blessed Virgin Mary is the spiritual Mother of us all as shown in John 19:27. That makes us, the body of Christ, the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of GOD, and who hold fast the testimony of Jesus.
  - 5. Testimony of Jesus means, 'all such declarations made by Jesus whether oral or written'.
  - 6. No one can deny that satan is waging war right now with the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary

---

---

"The New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is revealed in the new."

Saint Augustine. 354-430 A.D.

By using a study technique called typology, the Old Testament can be seen to reveal key elements of the 'hidden' New Testament.

Let us explore the Old Testament by using this technique...

---

---

Old Testament types point to New Testament realities...

How many wives did the Kings of the Old Testament have?

2Samuel 5:13, King David:

" And David took more concubines and wives of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were born to David other sons also and daughters:"

1Kings 11:1, King Solomon:

"And king Solomon loved many strange women, besides the daughter of Pharao, and women of Moab, and of Ammon, and of Edom, and of Sidon, and of the Hethites:"

1Kings 11:3, King Solomon:

"He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart."

So the answer to the question of "How many wives...", is that Kings of the Old Testament had many wives.

Which of the Kings wives was the Queen?

The answer to that question is none of the Kings wives were Queens.

Queens of the Old Testament were the mothers of the Kings, not the wives, as we shall see...

---

---

First the Old Testament types...

Here is Bathsheba as the wife of King David:

1Kings 1:16,

"Bathsheba bowed herself, and worshipped the king. And the king said to her: What is thy will?"

See? Bathsheba, who was just one of King David's wives, bowed to her husband. She was subordinate to him.

Here is Bathsheba again later, but as the mother of King Solomon (2Samuel 12:24) :

1Kings 2:19,

"So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her, and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne, and had a seat brought for the king's mother; and she sat on his right."

Here King Solomon honored his mother by bowing to her. It was a gesture of honor from the King to his Queen mother.

Since the King of Kings gave us the Ten Commandments don't you think He abides by the fourth commandment, "Honor thy father and thy mother" (Exodus 20:12)?

Since Jesus honors His mother, can we do less? Aren't we commanded to 'take up our cross and follow Him'?:

Matthew 16:24,

"Then Jesus said to his disciples: "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me"."

Jesus also warned us in:

Matthew 10:38,

"And he that taketh not up his cross, and followeth me, is not worthy of me."

Those are pretty strong words from the King of Kings.

Also in 1Kings 2:19, by sitting on the right side of the King, the Queen mother was a symbol of authority.

Since the Blessed Virgin Mary is the mother of the King of Kings, doesn't that make her the Queen Mother?

1Kings 2:20

Then she said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me."

And the king said to her, "Make your request, my mother; for I will not refuse you."

The King will not refuse a request from his mother.

Now for a New Testament reality (antitype)...

In the same manner, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords (1Timothy 6:15), will not refuse a request from His mother (John 2:1-10).

---

"My Lord" is a title of royalty:

1Samuel 24:8, "And David also rose up after him: and going out of the cave, cried after Saul, saying: my lord the king. And Saul looked behind him: and David bowing himself down to the ground, worshipped,"

1Samuel 25:25, "Let not my lord the king..."

1Samuel 26:17, "And Saul knew David's voice, and said: Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said: It is my voice, my lord the king."

1Samuel 26:19, "Now therefore hear, I pray thee, my lord the king, the words of thy servant."

2Samuel 3:21, "And Abner said to David: I will rise, that I may gather all Israel unto thee my lord the king,"

2Samuel 24:20-21, "And Areuna looked, and saw the king and his servants coming towards him: And going out he worshipped the king, bowing with his face to the earth, and said: Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said to him: To buy the thrashing floor of thee, and build an altar to the Lord, that the plague, which rageth among the people, may cease."

Next we see a New Testament reality regarding "My Lord the King"...

Luke 1:41-45,

"And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. And she cried out with a loud voice and said: Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed art thou that hast believed, because those things shall be accomplished that were spoken to thee by the Lord."

Why did the infant (John the Baptist) leap in the womb of Elizabeth?

Because he sensed the presence of GOD in the womb of Mary.

What prompted Elizabeth to say, "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb"?

It was because since she was "filled with the Holy Spirit", the Spirit prompted her.

When Elizabeth had said, "And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me", she knew that Mary was the Queen Mother and was carrying the King of Kings in her womb.

Thus, I have shown that the Blessed Virgin Mary is entitled to be called the Queen of the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, and that is the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Here is another New Testament reality regarding "My Lord the King"...

John 18:36-37,

" Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from hence. Pilate therefore said to him: Art thou a king then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest that I am a king. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony to the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice."

Again, since the Blessed Virgin Mary is the mother of the King of Kings, doesn't that makes her the Queen Mother?

The Queen Mother shared authority with the King. Remember, the Queen sat at the right hand of the King:

Jeremiah 13:18-21,

"Say to the king and the queen mother: "Take a lowly seat, for your beautiful crown has come down from your head.

The cities of the Negeb are shut up, with none to open them; all Judah is taken into exile, wholly taken into exile.

Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?

What will you say when they set as head over you those whom you yourself have taught to be friends to you? Will not pangs take hold of you, like those of a woman in travail?"

---

The King received instruction from his Queen Mother:

Proverbs 31:1-9,

"The words of Lemuel, king of Massa, which his mother taught him:

What, my son? What, son of my womb? What, son of my vows?

Give not your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.

It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to desire strong drink lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.

Give strong drink to him who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.

Open your mouth for the dumb, for the rights of all who are left desolate.

Open your mouth, judge righteously, maintain the rights of the poor and needy."

The New Testament reality regarding the Queen Mother's instructions to the King of Kings...

Luke 2:51,

"And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject to them. And his mother kept all these words in her heart."

Now, didn't His mother teach Him in all things that mothers normally teach to their children as they grow up?

Remember, He was with His mother for the first thirty years of His life (Luke 3:23) until He began His ministry.

---

Here is yet another New Testament reality:

Revelation 11:19,

"And the temple of God was opened in heaven: and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple. And there were lightnings and voices and an earthquake and great hail."

Is this 'ark of his covenant' the same wooden box that was carried about by the Hebrews?

No, that Ark was hidden by Jeremiah in Mount Nebo (2Maccabees 2:4-8).

Jeremiah 3:16,

"And when you shall be multiplied, and increase in the land in those days, saith the Lord, they shall say no more: The ark of the covenant of the Lord: neither shall it come upon the heart, neither shall they remember it, neither shall it be visited, neither shall that be done any more."

The Jews and many others have been trying to find it for many years.

Is there anything man-made in Heaven? Well there are the five wounds of Jesus but that is all.

The new Ark of the Covenant is what was seen in Heaven. The New Ark carried the realities of what the wooden ark symbolized in the Old Testament.

Revelation 12:1,

"And a great sign appeared in heaven:

A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."

The first word of that verse, 'And', is a conjunction that ties Revelation 12:1 to 11:19.

Given the fact that the Book of Revelation is highly symbolic, the 'woman' mentioned here can be considered symbolic of the Church, the twelve Apostles or the twelve tribes of the Old Testament.

However, it cannot be denied that the context of Revelation 12:1-7 shows that the woman is also the mother of Jesus the Christ. The proof is in the fact that there are four persons mentioned in the context.

There is:

1. A woman. (12:1)

2. A great red dragon. (12:3) The dragon is Satan as shown in 12:9.

3. A male child who is to rule all nations. (12:5) This is obviously Jesus the Christ.

4. Michael the Archangel. (12:7) The naming of him is self explanatory.

Since three of the four persons are clearly identified, the context demands that the fourth person be identified as well. She could be none other than the Queen Mother of Jesus (12:5).

Not only that, but more evidence that she is a Queen is the fact that she is described as wearing a crown of twelve stars.

The wearing of a Crown is symbolic of Kings and Queens.

Clearly, the Mother of Jesus is a Queen and is therefore entitled to the reverence and honor due to a Queen.

Marian Biblical Verses that are Overlooked by Non-Catholics...

---

---

"Honor your father and your mother...."

Exodus 20:12

GOD wrote that commandment. Jesus Christ is GOD. Don't you think that He obeyed His own commandment?
"And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them; and His mother kept all these things carefully in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and grace before GOD and men."

Luke 2:51-52

Of course Jesus honored His own commandments. He honored His Father, foster father, and His natural mother.

"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me."

John 10:27

To follow Him means to do as He did. Since He honored His mother, why then, is it that non-Catholics do not honor her?

GOD wants our Lord's whole life to be an example for us.

There are 21 verses in the New Testament where Jesus said, "follow me".

Do you truly follow Him in all things or only in some things?

"I see thanks to sunlight; but if I close my eyes I can see nothing: my blindness is my fault, not the sun's, for in closing my eyes I shut out the sunlight." St Thomas Aquinas (Comment on John).

Name another woman who could tell the creator of the universe what to do for the first 30 years of His earthly life as she did?

AND HE OBEYED HER!!!

Luke 2:51-52

Since GOD so honored her, and even obeyed her, why is it that non-Catholics refuse to do likewise and honor her as well?

---

---

"When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."

John 2:3-5

At this point in time Jesus had not begun His ministry and had not performed any public miracles. The text indicates that He did not want to do any miracles or demonstrate His powers, because His "hour had not yet come". Yet He did so at the request of His mother. He saved a potential disastrous ending to a wedding feast by turning water into much needed wine for the guests. In doing so, He began His ministry.

This is yet another example of the Creator of the universe acting in obedience to His mother.

Since GOD obeys His mother, why is it that non-Catholics cannot even honor her?

---

---

"Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee."

Luke 1:28

Hail, means to acclaim enthusiastically. It is a salutation reserved for royalty such as, "Hail Caesar", or "Hail King of the Jews". Here we have the Archangel Gabriel, sent by GOD, with instructions to greet her as royalty.

How many women who were ever born were given such an enthusiastic royal greeting by no less than an Archangel sent by GOD?

Non-Catholics see no real significance in this greeting, even though she is hailed by divine command.

Full of Grace? Non baptized persons are not full of grace, simply because they are stained by original sin which Baptism removes.

I always thought that in Baptism, sin goes out and GOD and His Grace comes in.

Since Jesus the Christ had not even been born yet to institute the sacrament of Baptism, how then could she be full of grace?

Non-Catholics take this as almost meaningless.

The Lord is with thee? Is the Lord with those persons who are stained by original sin? What then is the purpose of Baptism?

Here is another verse which explains it very nicely, "If GOD is for us, who is against us?", Romans 8:31.

So, if the Lord is with her, why then are non-Catholics so much against her?

---

"And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."

Revelation 12:1

"A woman clothed with the sun,"? How did St John know it was a woman that he saw in heaven?

"and the moon under her feet"? What does the moon do for us?

It reflects sunlight, just as the Mother of GOD reflects her Son, the Light of the World.

"and on her head a crown of twelve stars."? A crown is yet another sign of royalty as is the word "Hail" in the previous topic.

Non-Catholics tend to deny that the woman of Revelation 12:1 is the Blessed Virgin Mary.

However the evidence against them is so overwhelming that it makes their arguments non-existent.

I must ask, why then is she denied by non-Catholics?

---

"Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there till I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." And he rose and took the child and his mother by night, and departed to Egypt..."

Matthew 2:13-14

Note! "TAKE the child AND his mother", together they are two leading figures of salvation history.

As it is today, non-Catholics would take the child and leave His mother.

---

"My soul magnifies the Lord,..."

Luke 1:46

To magnify means to make larger. Her role is to make her Son shine.

How many non-Catholics have failed to noticed that her soul magnifies the Lord?

Does your soul do the same? This is one more reason why Catholics honor her.

Isn't this yet another verse which is ignored by non-Catholics?

The Blessed Virgin Mary was present at Pentecost:

"Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount that is called Olivet, which is nigh Jerusalem, within a sabbath day's journey. And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode Peter and John, James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James of Alpheus and Simon Zelotes and Jude the brother of James. All these were persevering with one mind in prayer with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren."

Acts 1:12-14

"And when the days of the Pentecost were accomplished, they were all together in one place: And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind coming: and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues, as it were of fire: and it sat upon every one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit: and they began to speak with diverse tongues, according as the Holy Spirit gave them to speak."

Acts 2:1-4

The handmaid:

"And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it done to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her."

Luke 1:38

She called herself "the handmaid of the Lord".

The Prophet Joel had something to say about handmaids and Pentecost:

"And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel: and I am the Lord your God, and there is none besides: and my people shall not be confounded forever. And it shall come to pass after this, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy: your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Moreover, upon my servants and handmaids in those days I will pour forth my spirit."

Joel 2:27-29

How many non-Catholics have failed to notice that she was present at Pentecost? How many even care?

---

"...behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed..."

Luke 1:48

Behold:

Means to perceive by the visual process or to perceive by the mental faculty.

She is calling us to be cognizant of what she has to say following in the same verse.

Henceforth:

It means from the moment she said it until the end of time.

All generations:

I would presume includes everyone reading this as well as myself and everyone who has lived ever since the time she said it, and all of those yet to be born in the future..

Shall (will in some Bibles):

Denotes a command and not a suggestion.

Call me blessed:

Catholics call her "blessed" and obey this command.

Martin Luther, the first protestant, called her "blessed".

He obeyed this command.

Now, please tell me why non-Catholics of today do not follow this command of Holy Scripture?

I have yet to hear a single non-Catholic, to the date of this writing, call her Blessed Mary.

"I shall be mindful of thy name unto all generations and generations; therefore the nations shall glorify thee forever."

Psalms 45:18 (17)

All this relates intensely to one point in the divine plan: the exaltation of the little ones and the confusion of the big ones.

Show me the verse which authorizes you to accept a verse which appears to conform to your teaching and reject another which does not conform to it?
Aren't we commanded to conform our teaching to the Bible and not to try to conform the Bible to false teaching?

"For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end of those who do not obey the Gospel of GOD?"
1Peter 4:17

---

---

SHE IS THE DAUGHTER OF THE FATHER. 1John 3:2
SHE IS THE MOTHER OF THE SON. Luke 2:7-11, 41-43
SHE IS THE SPOUSE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. Luke 1:35-38
KNOWING THAT SHE IS INTIMATELY AND INTRINSICALLY RELATED TO ALL THREE PERSONS OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY,
MOST NON-CATHOLICS WILL STILL REFUSE TO BESTOW UPON HER
THE HONOR THAT SHE SO RICHLY DESERVES.

Mary, Mother of GOD, Mother of the Church, Mother of us all.

---

How could a little Jewish girl of about 15 years of age become the Mother of GOD who created her?

---

Jesus Christ is one person who possesses two natures. He has a Divine nature and a human nature. He is not a Divine person AND a human person, as that would make Him two persons.

A person receives his nature from his father. His Father's nature is Divine.

Therefore, He is also Divine, which makes Him a Divine person.

A person possesses a nature. A nature does not possess a person.

Nature describes what a person can do, but the person does it.

Mothers give birth to totally complete persons, each with a nature. Never does a mother give birth to a nature alone.

Natures do not have mothers, persons do.

Therefore, Mary gave birth to the person of Jesus Christ, who is a Divine person, thus making her the Mother of GOD.

This is shown in Scripture:

John 1:1, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with GOD, and the Word was GOD." and taken together with...

John 1:14, "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us."

Elucidation...

The Word was GOD and the Word was made flesh.

Who supplied the flesh and blood of the Divine Word?

The Blessed Virgin Mary did. She is the mother of the Divine Word Incarnate.

See this flowchart for more.

---

John 20:28, "Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my GOD."

Elucidation...

St. Thomas equated the words "Lord" and "GOD" in this verse.

Throughout the New Testament, the Greek word used for "Lord", is "kurios".

The word refers to the Father or to the Son, depending upon the context.

See Matthew 1:22, and John 6:69, just to name two out of many examples.

Mary is called the "Mother of the Lord" in Luke 1:43, and the "Mother of Jesus" in Matthew 1:18,

John 2:1-5,6:42,19:25-26, and Acts 1:14. Since I have shown that Jesus is a Divine person, either one of these titles for her supports the fact that she indeed is the Mother of GOD. Anyone who says she is not, will have to prove that Jesus Christ is not a Divine person.

Trying to prove that would force changes in Trinitarian doctrine as well.

Luke 1:41-43, "...And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb! And how have I deserved that the Mother of my Lord should come to me"."

Elucidation...

Whose words did Elizabeth use in these verses?

When someone is filled with the Holy Spirit and speaks, it is the Spirit who gives the words (Mark 13:11).

Mary was called the Mother of my Lord with a capital "L", meaning, the Mother of GOD. She was called the Mother of GOD by the Holy Spirit, GOD Himself. Can anyone of us do less?

Do you need more Scriptural references? Well here are a few:

"And the angel said to her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with GOD. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son: and thou shalt call his name Jesus."

Luke 1:30-31

So Mary had a Son whom she named Jesus.

"The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of GOD."

Mark 1:1

So Jesus Christ is the Son of GOD.

"But of the Son he says, "Thy throne, O GOD, is for ever and ever, the righteous scepter is the scepter of thy kingdom.""

Hebrews 1:8.

So the Son of GOD IS GOD as spoken by GOD the Father.

Elucidation...

So, Mary is the mother of Jesus, who is the Son of GOD, who IS GOD.

It is all so very simple. How could anyone not see it?

---

"God did not derive his divinity from Mary; but it does not follow that it is therefore wrong to say that God was born of Mary, that God is Mary's Son, and that Mary is God's mother . . . She is the true mother of God and bearer of God . . . Mary suckled God, rocked God to sleep, prepared broth and soup for God, etc. For God and man are one person, one Christ, one Son, one Jesus, not two Christs . . . just as your son is not two sons . . . even though he has two natures, body and soul, the body from you, the soul from God alone."

Martin Luther, (On the Councils and the Church, 1539).

Interestingly, this is what the first Protestant taught regarding the Mother of GOD.

Who then, in all of Protestantism, is responsible for not following the teaching of their founder?

---

For those who still deny that the Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of GOD, the onus is now upon you to back up what you charge with facts. By denying her the motherhood of GOD, you have only two choices:

Either Jesus Christ is not GOD, or another woman was His mother.

Which choice is yours?

"And if our Gospel be also hid, it is hid to them that are lost, In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of unbelievers, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of GOD, should not shine unto them."

2Corinthians 4:3-4

The 'god of this world' is Satan.

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of the Church as well.

"...and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all."

Ephesians 1:22-23

Since the Body of Jesus Christ is the Church and she gave birth to His total person, then she is rightfully proclaimed as the Mother of the Church as well as the Mother of GOD.

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary is also Our Mother.

Adam is the Father of all humanity and Eve is the Mother of all humanity.

"Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit."

1Corinthians 15:45

The New Adam is Jesus Christ, who is the Creator of all humanity. Since we have a first Adam and a last Adam, and a first Eve as well, then it stands to reason that we have a last Eve, the Blessed Virgin Mary who is known as the New Eve.

Since Eve is the mother of all humanity, then the Blessed Virgin Mary is Mother of us all as well, Our Spiritual Mother.

"When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!"

Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home."

John 19:26-27

The Apostle John is "the disciple whom he loved", who was standing near the foot of the cross. John is not the birth son of Mary. His birth parents are shown in Scripture to be Zebedee and Salome.

When Jesus said to John, "Behold, your mother", John represented all of us as receiving The Mother of GOD, to be our spiritual mother as well.

"Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief.

Do not fear any illness, or vexation, anxiety or pain.

Am I not here who am your Mother?

Are you not under my shadow and protection?

Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle?
In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?"

The Blessed Virgin Mary said these things to Juan Diego on December 9, 1531, during the Miracle of Guadalupe.

Mary, Mother of The Church...

---

How can the Blessed Virgin Mary be the Mother of the Church?

---

She is the "Mother Of GOD", as shown in Holy Scripture, and by reasoning. She is the Mother of Jesus Christ.

Matthew 16:18, "And I say to thee, thou art Peter, and Upon this rock I will build MY CHURCH, and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it."

Ephesians 1:22-23, "And all things He made subject under His feet, and Him He gave as head over all the Church, which indeed is His Body, the completion of Him who fills all with all."

Colossians 1:18, "Again, he is the head of the body, the Church..."

Romans 12:5, "...so we, the many, are one body in Christ, but severally members one of another."

Elucidation...

Jesus Christ founded a Church of which He is the Head and His Body is all of us.

As a mother, she bore Jesus Christ, just as in Baptism we are born into the Church, John 3:3-7.

As a mother, she fed Him, just as in the Church we are spiritually fed by the Sacraments.

---

John 19:26, "When Jesus, therefore, saw His Mother and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He said to His Mother, "Woman, behold, thy Son." Then He said to the disciple, "Behold, thy Mother". And from that hour the disciple took her into his home."

Elucidation...

We all know the disciple Jesus referred to as, "whom He loved", was the Apostle John. Why didn't John use his name here when he wrote his Gospel instead of the wording that he did use? It is because "the disciple whom Jesus loved" is all of us. We are all His disciples, and He loves all of us. It becomes obvious if you reverse it and say, "Then He did not love His other disciples, only John, or was John the only disciple He loved?"

Since the Son IS the Church, along with the rest of us, then His Mother is rightfully, the Mother of the Church.

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of us all!

---

Eve is the mother of the human race. Therefore she is the ancestral biological mother of us all.

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the New Eve.

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of GOD, the divine person of Jesus Christ.

"...and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all." Ephesians 1:22-23

The Church is the Body of Christ, and He is the head.

"Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it." 1Corinthians 12:27

We, the members, are the Church which is the Body of Christ.

Since each one of us is a member of the Body of Christ, and the Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of Jesus the Christ, then is it not true that she is our mother as well?

Since the Son IS the Church, along with the rest of us, then the mother of His Body is without question the Mother of the Church as well.

The book of Galatians 4:21-31, has within some very important and densely packed verses:

"(21) Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not hear the law? (22) For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one (Ishmael) by a slave (Hagar) and one (Isaac) by a free woman (Sarah). (23) But the son of the slave was born (Genesis 16:15) according to the flesh, the son of the free woman through promise (Genesis 17:15-16, 21:1-3, Isaiah 7:14, Luke 1:35). (24) Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. (25) Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. (26) But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. (27) For it is written, "Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and shout, you who are not in travail; for the children of the desolate one are many more than the children of her that is married." (28) Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise. (29) But as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now. (30) But what does the scripture say? "Cast out the slave and her son; for the son of the slave shall not inherit with the son of the free woman." (31) So, brethren, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman."

Galatians 4:21-31

What are the many facts which are carefully packed within these verses, some of which are missed without serious study?

Let us have a closer look:

1. "Now this is an allegory" of verse 24, indicated that the verses will be dealing with typology.
2. Abraham is a type of Jesus Christ. Both had sublime obedience to GOD (Genesis 22:18-19, Luke 22:42).
3. Isaac was born to Sarah, the wife of Abraham. Sarah is the Old Testament "free woman through promise" (Genesis 17:15-16).
4. Isaac is a type of Jesus Christ (Genesis 17:19). Sarah is a type of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Genesis 17:15-16).

5. Jesus Christ was born to Mary, who is the New Testament "free woman through promise", (Isaiah 7:14, Luke 1:35-38).

6. The "present Jerusalem" of verse 25 is equated to Hagar.

7. The "Jerusalem above" of verse 26 is equated to Sarah, and by typical association to The Blessed Virgin Mary.

8. In verse 26, the "Jerusalem above" is referred to as "she", and she is our mother.

9. In verse 29, "him who was born according to the Spirit" can be none other than Jesus Christ (Luke 1:35-38). Who can deny that those born according to the flesh have persecuted Him and His Church from the very beginning and to this very day?

10. Verse 31 makes it strikingly clear that we all are children of the "free woman" who can be none other than Sarah in the Old Testament and the Blessed Virgin Mary in the New Testament.

11. Did you notice that when the verses used the word 'woman' it was always applied to the free woman, or to the woman through promise, or to the Jerusalem above? Hagar is always referred to as the slave, or the one from Mount Sinai, or the present Jerusalem. Verse 24 refers to both as 'women', but in a different context. It has a literal context, simply meaning more than one. The word 'woman', however, has a spiritual context as we shall see.

Why is the word "woman" of such significance here?

The 'woman' can be found in the first book of the Bible, the last book, of the Bible and in the middle of the Bible:

"I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel." Genesis 3:15

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin (young woman in some Bibles) shall conceive, and bear a son and his name shall be called Emmanuel." Isaiah 7:14

"And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come." John 2:4

The use of the word 'woman' in this verse is a reference to Genesis 3:15 where GOD promised salvation through the offspring of the 'woman'. He will come through her to crush the head of the serpent. Jesus reminded us in John 2:4, that He is the saviour promised in Genesis 3:15.

"When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home." John 19:26-27

Again a reference to Genesis 3:15 reinforcing the woman of that verse as being His mother. The disciple Jesus referred to as, "whom He loved", was the Apostle John, the author of the Gospel which bears his name. Why didn't John use his name here when he wrote his Gospel instead of the wording that he did use? It is because "the disciple whom Jesus loved" represents all of us. We are all His disciples, and He loves all of us. This conclusion becomes obvious if you reverse the phrase and ask, 'Was John the only disciple He loved?' Of course not. Jesus had told the world that His mother was not only John's mother then, but our mother as well.

"And a great sign appeared in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;" Revelation 12:1

Go here for a comprehensive explanation of why this verse is referenced to the Blessed Virgin Mary and not only to Israel and/or the Church, as non-Catholics teach.

Thus the woman of the first book of the Bible, is also the woman of the last book of the Bible.

---

"Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brethren (brothers) to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

Matthew 28:10

"Jesus said to her, "Do not hold me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brethren (brothers) and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." John 20:17

(And to whom did she go in the very next verse 18? She went to His disciples)

"For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren (brothers), saying, "I will proclaim thy name to my brethren, in the midst of my Church I will praise thee.""

Hebrews 2:11-12

So there you have it by His own words. If Jesus Christ is our brother, then the Blessed Virgin Mary is our mother.

Elucidation:

If GOD is our Father, John 20:17 and Jesus is our brother, then the Blessed Virgin Mary is our mother.

As Eve is the biological mother of the human race, so the Blessed Virgin Mary is the spiritual mother.

---

"Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief.
Do not fear any illness, or vexation, anxiety or pain.

Am I not here who am your Mother?

Are you not under my shadow and protection?

Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle?

In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?"

The Blessed Virgin Mary said these things to Juan Diego on December 9, 1531, during the Miracle of Guadalupe.

The Blessed Virgin Mary, His First and Most Faithful Disciple...

---

---

Luke 8:20-21,

"And it was told him: Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

Who answering, said to them: My mother and my brethren are they who hear the word of God and do it."

Luke 11:27-28,

"And it came to pass, as he spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to him:

Blessed is the womb that bore thee and the paps that gave thee suck.

"But he said: Yea rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it."

What is happening here? The first impression for some would be that it would seem that Jesus is distancing Himself somewhat from His mother. However, that is not true at all, for the context shows that Jesus was speaking not about His natural immediate family, but about His supernatural or spiritual family, His disciples and followers. In other words, all of those who take up their crosses and follow Him.

His spiritual family are all those "who hear the word of God and keep it."

Now who is the New Testament model who had heard the word of GOD and kept it in faith in all cases?

It was His natural mother and the first member of His spiritual family. It was His first disciple, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

She was the most faithful of all. She was there with Him at His beginning and she was there with Him at the foot of the cross at His death.

✦ Blessed Mary is the model of motherhood.

Well what about His 'faithful' Apostles?

Well if you will recall, one betrayed Him, one denied Him three times, one doubted Him, and all ran away from Him. John did come to the foot of the cross after Jesus had been crucified. However, His Blessed Mother was with Him all the way.

Here are a few examples of the Blessed Virgin's faithfulness to GOD.

1. Luke 1:38,

"And Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her."

She had such faith that she immediately accepted this great gift that GOD had bestowed upon her. This is called her 'Fiat', a Latin word meaning, 'let it Be'. Here, she has established herself as the 'New Eve', by demonstrating her obedience, in contrast to the disobedience of the first Eve, and her humility, in contrast to the pride of the first Eve.

✦ Blessed Mary is the model of humility.

2. Luke 1:39,

"In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah,"
In Luke 1:36, she had been told by the Angel Gabriel that her kinswoman, Elizabeth, was pregnant six months in her old age.

Without questioning the details, Mary left 'in haste' to be of assistance to Elizabeth. She knew that a woman of the age of Elizabeth would need assistance in her pregnancy. Mary, pregnant in herself with the GOD of the universe, traveled many miles to assist her.

✦ Blessed Mary is the model of charity.

3. Luke 1:45,

"And blessed art thou that hast believed, because those things shall be accomplished that were spoken to thee by the Lord."

Because she believed,

✦ Blessed Mary is the model of faith.

---

John 2:3-4

"And the wine failing, the mother of Jesus said to him: They have no wine.

And Jesus said to her: Woman, what is that to me and to thee? My hour is not yet come."

The first impression that one may get from this verse, is that Jesus acted irreverently towards His mother by calling her 'woman'.

This is not at all the case when Holy Scripture is taken in its full context.

He called her 'woman' to show us the connection between His mother and the 'woman' in the first book of the Bible (Genesis 3:15), and later the 'woman' that He would address from the cross (John 19:26-27), and to the 'woman' with the crown of twelve stars in the last book of the Bible (Revelation 12:1).

John 2:5,

"His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."

Those were the last words spoken by Blessed Mary in Holy Scripture.

This is her role today. She leads us to her Son and reminds us to, "Do whatever He tells you."

✦ Blessed Mary is the model of discipleship.

The Assumption of the Mother of GOD...

---

---

In order to properly understand this document, I would suggest that the reader branch out to the links shown in the order of their appearance, and then return to this page...

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the "New, or Second Eve"...

---

"What would you have me do woman?"

John 2:4

This is a pivotal verse, in that Jesus has affirmed that He is the second Adam, and His mother Mary is the Second Eve.

In order to put this verse in its proper perspective, we must first look at the word woman as used in several places in the Old and New Testaments.

GOD made woman from the rib of Adam in Genesis 2:22. In the very next verse, Adam said, "She now is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called woman, for from man she has been taken". Notice that the first woman came from man, and after that man came from woman. Adam is a "TYPE" of Jesus Christ as shown in Romans 5:14 and 1Corinthians 15:44-49.

In Genesis 3, the word woman is mentioned eight times. In Genesis 3:15 we have the Protoevangelium, the promise of a redeemer after the fall of man, a woman, whose Son (he) will crush the head of the serpent. Did you notice that the Messiah and His Mother are together there in Genesis 3:15?

They are together in the first book of the Bible, and I will also show that they are together in the last book of the Bible as well.

"...Just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so through one righteous act acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of one person (Eve) the many were made sinners, so through the obedience of one (Mary) the many will be made righteous." Romans 5:18-19

"Eve, however, was disobedient; and when yet a virgin, she did not obey.... having become disobedient, was made the cause of death for herself and for the whole human race; so also Mary, betrothed to a man but nevertheless still a virgin, being obedient, was made the cause of salvation for herself and for the whole human race.... Thus, the knot of Eve's disobedience was loosed by the obedience of Mary. What the virgin Eve had bound in unbelief, the Virgin Mary loosed through faith." St. Irenaeus, Against Heresies (3,22,4) (Jurgens-224)

"Our Lord Jesus Christ, however, who came to liberate mankind, in which both males and females are destined to salvation, was not averse to males, for He took the form of a male, nor to females, for of a female He was born. Besides, there is a great mystery here: that just as death comes to us through a woman, Life is born to us through a woman; that the devil, defeated, would be tormented by each nature, feminine and masculine, since he had taken delight in the defection of both." Saint Augustine, Christian Combat (22,24) 396 A.D. (Jurgens-1578). We have the New Adam in Jesus Christ and thus the New Eve in his mother, Mary.

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary is "typed" also as the New Ark of the Covenant. What happened to the original Ark of the Covenant of the Old Testament? It was thought to be hidden by Jeremiah somewhere near Mount Nebo during the captivity of the Jews and the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem by the Babylonians about 586 B.C.. The Ark has not been seen since then. See Jeremiah 3:16, and 2Maccabees 2:4-8. There is no mention of the whereabouts of the wooden Ark after these verses in Scripture.

"When Jeremiah arrived there, he found a room in a cave in which he put the tent (tabernacle), the ark, and the altar of incense; then he blocked up the entrance. Some of those who followed him came up intending to mark the path, but they could not find it. When Jeremiah heard of this, he reproved them: "The place is to remain unknown until God gathers his people together again and shows them mercy." 2 Maccabees 2:5-7

In the book of Revelation, verse 12:1 is connected to 11:19 by the conjunction "and". In the Greek text (the book of Revelation was written in Greek by Saint John), the first word of verse 12:1 is "Kai" which means "and". It is important to mention the Greek text here because some Bibles do not include the word "and", and by this omission they break the connection between the two verses, thus disrupting the continuity of the meaning. It is to be noted that the Bible was not always divided into chapters and verses as we see it today. Division into chapters did not come until the 13th century, and into verses in the 15th century for the Old Testament and the 16th century for the New Testament.

Let us first examine Revelation 11:19.

The words of Saint John in verse 11:19 are of his having seen the "temple" of GOD being open, and within it is the Ark of the Covenant.

First of all, is there a "temple" in heaven, reminiscent of the Jewish temple?

Let us see how scripture answers this question.

"Yet not in houses made by hands does the Most High dwell..."

Acts 7:44

"For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

2Corinthians 5:1

Later in the Book of Revelation Saint John described the temple that he envisioned...

"And I saw no temple therein. For the Lord GOD almighty and the Lamb are the temple thereof."

Revelation 21:22

Saint John also described this temple in his Gospel.

"Destroy this temple and in three days I shall raise it up." John 2:19

"But he was speaking of the temple of his body." John 2:21

GOD and Jesus Christ, the Lamb, are the temple seen in heaven. The Jewish temple was merely a "type" of the New Testament reality, and it was utterly destroyed by the Romans in 70 A.D..

As the Jewish temple, and the animal sacrifices, were the summit, source, and center of Judaism, so is the Sacrifice of the Lamb of the new temple, the summit, source, and center of Christianity.

Is this Ark, mentioned in Revelation 11:19, the same Ark of the Old Testament Covenant which was hidden by Jeremiah? Since the temple seen by Saint John is not the Jewish temple of Jerusalem, then neither is the Ark seen by him, the wooden Ark of the Old Testament, thus being conformed to the context.

Is there anything made by human hands in heaven?

Yes, surprisingly, there are the five wounds of Christ, but there are no man made material objects.

There could not be, for heaven is a perfect place, and nothing material and made by human hands is perfect. Note the many verses of "Not made by human hands", Acts 7:48,17:24, 2Cor 5:1, Heb 9:11, Heb 9:24.

The Ark seen in the temple in Heaven is not the wooden box type which contained the word of GOD, the ten commandments written on stone tablets, and handed down to Moses. It is the antitype, the New Ark of the Covenant, the Blessed Virgin Mary, who contained The Word of GOD in her womb.

"Remember, O Lord, in David's favor, all the hardships he endured; how he swore to the Lord and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob, "I will not enter my house or get into my bed; I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids, until I find a place for the Lord, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob." Lo, we heard of it in Ephrathah, we found it in the fields of Jaar. "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!" Arise, O Lord, and go to thy resting place, thou and the ark of thy might. Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and let thy saints shout for joy. For thy servant David's sake do not turn away the face of thy anointed one. The Lord swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne. If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies which I shall teach them, their sons also for ever shall sit upon your throne." For the Lord has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his habitation: "This is my resting place for ever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it. I will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread. Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy. There I will make a horn to sprout for David; I have prepared a lamp for my anointed. His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon himself his crown will shed its luster."

Psalms 132:1-18

Where is the resting place of the Lord? See Revelation 11:19 again, as it is in heaven, as Saint John recounts. However, throughout Holy Scripture, many verses have more than one meaning, a literal meaning which is easier to see at first, and a deeper spiritual meaning. This is especially true in the book of Revelation where there can be several layers of meaning. Obviously, His resting place is also His Church, the New Jerusalem (Isa 65:18, Rev 3:12,21:2-27), which comes down out of heaven (Rev 21:2), and is referred to as her in four places in Psalms 132 above. Why is His Church referred to as her? Who is in Rev 11:19 with Him? It is His mother, the Mother of the Church and the New Ark of the Covenant.

Also the Church is figured as the Bride of Christ (Eph 5:29, Rev 21:2,9).

Notice as I pointed out earlier, in the first book of the Bible in Genesis 3:15, that the Messiah and His Mother are together. I have now shown as well, that they are in the last book of the Bible in Revelation 11:19. They are together in between also, as will be shown shortly below.

"He brought the Ark into the dwelling (tent) and hung the curtain veil, thus screening off the Ark."
Exodus 40:21

"Then the cloud covered the meeting tent, and the glory of the Lord filled the dwelling. Moses could not enter the meeting tent, because the cloud settled down upon it and the glory of the Lord filled the dwelling."

Exodus 40:34-35

The cloud which covered the meeting tent was called the Shekinah Glory.

"The Lord spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the Lord and died; and the Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother not to come at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is upon the ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat."

Leviticus 16:1-2

The mercy seat was the lid of the ark of the covenant, and upon it rested the glory of GOD, the Shekinah Glory.

"...the Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you; and therefore the Holy One to be born shall be called the Son of GOD."

Luke 1:35

Elucidation #1:

1. The word, overshadow, used in Luke, is the same as the verb covered, used in Exodus to describe how the Lord "filled" the tabernacle.
2. The Ark of the Covenant contained manna (food from heaven), the rod of Aaron (authority of the High Priest), and the Ten Commandments (the Word of GOD) (Hebrews 9:4).
3. Mary carried within her womb the Word of GOD (John 1:1,14), the High Priest of GOD (Hebrews 5:1-10), and the Bread come down from heaven (John 6:51), the antitype of the manna.
4. The Ark of the Old Covenant shall not be seen until an appointed time by GOD. However, the New Ark of the Covenant was seen by Saint John in Revelation 11:19. This shows that the two Arks of the Covenants of Scripture are not one in the same.

---

"And David was afraid of the Lord that day, saying, How shall the Ark of the Lord come to me?"
2Samuel 6:9

"And how have I deserved that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

Luke 1:43

Elucidation #2:

1. In 2Samuel 6:9, David asked regarding the Ark which contained the Word of GOD written on stone tablets.
  2. In Luke 1:43, Elizabeth asked regarding the New Ark which contained the Word of GOD in the womb of Mary. Did you notice that by Elizabeth calling Mary "the mother of my Lord", she was really calling her the Mother of GOD? Who prompted Elizabeth to say this? See Luke 1:41.
  3. It is obvious that the verse, 2Samuel 6:9, is a type of the verse in the New Testament.

"...David went and brought away the Ark of GOD...into the city of David with joy....And David danced with all his might before the Lord."

2Samuel 6:12-14

"And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt."

Luke 1:41

Elucidation #3:

1. David danced before the Ark of the Covenant which contained the Word of GOD written on stone tablets.
  2. St. John the Baptist, leapt in the womb of his mother Elizabeth, as he was before the New Ark of the Covenant, Mary, who held the Word of GOD in her womb.
  3. This is yet another example of types and antitypes.

Now to connect the verses of Revelation 11:19 and 12:1:

"AND a great sign* appeared in Heaven: a woman clothed with the Sun, and the Moon was under her feet, and upon her head is a crown of twelve stars."

*The Greek word used for the word sign here is semeion (say-mi'-on) which means:

1. A sign, mark, token, miracle, or wonder.
2. That by which a person or a thing is distinguished from others and is known.
3. A sign, prodigy, portent, an unusual occurrence, transcending the common course of nature.
4. Of signs portending remarkable events soon to happen.
5. Of miracles and wonders by which God authenticates the men sent by him, or by which men prove that the cause they are pleading is God's.
6. Semeion (say-mi'-on) is the same Greek word which is used three times in Luke 11:29, wherein Jesus said that this generation demanded a sign, a miracle of some sort.
7. Compare Isaiah 7:14, "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel." A virgin conceiving is certainly a miracle as is the same woman being seen in heaven and clothed with the sun.
8. Read about many more miraculous signs in Mark 16:16-18

In all of chapter 12 of Revelation, there are 4 persons mentioned. There is a woman, a dragon, a male child, and one mentioned by name, Michael.

It is obvious that the dragon is satan, the ancient serpent, Rev 12:9.

It is obvious that Michael is an angel, the archangel Michael, Rev 12:7.

It is obvious that the male child is Jesus Christ, Rev 12:5.

Since three of the four in the chapter are identified, then the context would demand that the woman be identified also, as the one who gave birth to Jesus Christ, Rev 12:4-5.

She is the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The "Great Sign" is the Blessed Virgin Mary.

There are many layers of interpretation of the book of Revelation, so secondarily, the woman of chapter 12 can also be seen as a figure of the Church.

A crown upon her head is the sign of a Queen.

Queens in the Old Testament were the mothers of the kings, not the wives, therefore, the mother of the King of Kings, Mary, is also the Queen of the King of Kings.

Twelve stars relate to the twelve Apostles, and as another layer, to the twelve tribes of Judah.

This image of a woman clothed with the sun and a moon under her feet, fits perfectly with the miraculous image of the Virgin of Guadalupe as she appeared in 1531 in what is now Mexico City. The woman mentioned in Revelation 12:1 is the woman of Genesis 3:15, and of John 2:4, and of John 19:26. She is the woman in the first book of the Bible, and the woman in the last book of the Bible, and the woman in between.

The Old Testament Ark was, however, merely a TYPE of the antitype of the New Covenant Ark. An Old Testament "type" never points to a New Testament symbol, but always to a reality which is far superior to itself.

The Old Testament Ark of the Covenant was made of incorruptible wood...

"And thou shalt make the ark of testimony of incorruptible wood..."

Exodus 25:10, Septuagint

The New Testament reality is infinitely greater than the Old Testament prefigurement.

Therefore the Ark seen in heaven, is not only incorruptible, but is vastly superior to its type.

The Ark was to be plated (covered or clothed) inside and out with pure gold, a symbol of kingship.

(Exodus 25:11, Hebrews 9:4, 1Chronicles 28:18).

Queens wore crowns of gold also.

The New Ark of the Covenant was clothed with the sun.

The Greek word for sun here is helios (hay'-lee-os) which means the sun, or the rays of the sun, or the light of day.

What does "clothed with the sun" mean?

Again, what does Scripture tell us?

"For the Lord GOD is a Sun and a shield, he bestows favor and honor. No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly."

Psalms 84:11

"But unto you that fear my name, the Sun of Justice shall arise, and health in his wings."

Malachi 4:2

I have just listed two clear passages which equate GOD as a Sun.

Elucidation #4:

1. Referencing Elucidation #1 earlier, the word, overshadow, used in Luke, is the same as the verb covered, used in Exodus to describe how the Lord "filled" the tabernacle. Both of these words are similar in meaning to clothed as used in Revelation 12:1.

2. Is the sun as seen by Saint John, the same sun that we see from earth everyday?

Again, we shall look to Scripture for the answer.

"The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy GOD thy glory."

Isaiah 60:19

"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life'." John 8:12

"I have come as light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness." John 12:46

"It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last."

Luke 23:44-46

Did you see the message here? The sun's light failed...The Son, the light of the world, died.

"And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen."

Mark 16:2

In this verse is yet another connection which many miss. The sun had risen, and on a Sunday... The Son had risen, and on a Sunday.

"Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden girdle round his breast; his head and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; his eyes were like a flame of fire, his feet were like burnished bronze, refined as in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters; in his right hand he held seven stars, from his mouth issued a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in full strength."

Revelation 1:12-16

"And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine upon it, for the glory of GOD is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. By its light shall the nations walk; and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory into it, and its gates shall never be shut by day—and there shall be no night there; they shall bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean shall enter it, nor any one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Revelation 21:22-27

"And night shall be no more; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord GOD will be their light, and they shall reign for ever and ever."

Revelation 22:5

So there you have it. There is no sun in heaven as we have in the "heavens" here on earth.

Is it unreasonable then, to say that the woman was clothed with GOD, since GOD is a sun and a shield, and there is no light of the sun in heaven as we have it here on earth?

It should be noted that it is not my intention to exclude other deep spiritual meanings for these verses in the many layers of exegesis of the Book of Revelation.

---

"And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim. And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel were making merry before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there because he put forth his hand to the ark; and he died there beside the ark of God."

Elucidation #5:

1. Uzzah died simply because he dared to touch the most holy Ark of the Covenant.

The only person who was allowed to touch the Ark in the Old Testament was the high priest (a type).

2. For those who insist that Mary, the New Ark of the Covenant, had other children, this Biblical type of Uzzah should certainly counter that false charge.

Please tell me, who is the New Testament antitype of the Old Testament high priest?

And who would you say would qualify to be the antitype of Uzzah in the New Testament?

---

The word "tabernacle" means a "tent".

"And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell in their midst. According to all that I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle and of all its furniture, so you shall make it."

Exodus 25:8-9

This is the first time that the word tabernacle appears in the Bible.

"Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet stuff; with cherubim skilfully worked shall you make them. The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall have one measure. Five curtains shall be coupled to one another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another. And you shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outmost curtain in the first set; and likewise you shall make loops on the edge of the outmost curtain in the second set. Fifty loops you shall make on the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another. And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to the other with the clasps, that the tabernacle may be one whole."

Exodus 26:1-6

Here GOD gave detailed exacting instructions for how the tabernacle was to be constructed.

The Ark of the Covenant was always considered by the Hebrews to be the most holy object on earth. It was kept in the holiest part of the tabernacle, called the Holy of Holies.

"Hang the veil from clasps. The ark of the commandments you shall bring inside, behind this veil which divides the holy place from the holy of holies. Set the propitiatory on the ark of the commandments in the holy of holies."

Exodus 26:33-34

Elucidation #6:

1. The tabernacle was the tent of the Lord in which the Ark of the Covenant was kept.

2. Mary was the tabernacle of the Lord for nine months as she carried Him in her womb.

3. The propitiatory, also called the Mercy Seat, was the lid of the Ark upon which the two golden angels were mounted, Exodus 25:18-21. It was above the propitiatory from which GOD would speak and give His commands to Moses, Exodus 25:22.

4. The Shekinah Glory, the cloud of GOD, would cover the tabernacle and fill it, Exodus 40:34-38.

The glory of GOD would also rest upon the lid of the ark of the covenant, Leviticus 16:2.

5. Are these not types of the woman being clothed with the sun in Revelation 12:1?

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the "Mother of GOD"...

The Blessed Virgin Mary was "Conceived Without Sin"...

---

GOD will not join Himself with anything defiled.

Revelation 21:27

Death and corruption are the price the human race must pay for original sin, as Sts. Irenaeus and Augustine reminded us earlier in this file.

---

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the "Mother of the Church"...

---

---

The Blessed Virgin Mary was "Assumed into Heaven Body and Soul"...

---

---

I have shown the Blessed Virgin Mary to be:

- 1. The "New Eve".*
  - 2. The "Queen Mother of the King of Kings".*
  - 3. The incorruptible "New Ark of the Covenant" which was seen in heaven by Saint John.*
  - 4. The "Queen of Heaven".*
  - 5. The "Mother of GOD".*
  - 6. Conceived without sin. She is the "Immaculate Conception".*
  - 7. The "Mother of the Church".*

Some additional observations:

- 1. Mary gave the Creator of the Universe motherly guidance and discipline for years. Luke 2:51*
- 2. Mary started Jesus in His ministry. John 2:1-5*
- 3. Jesus taught His disciples for only three years, yet He had 30 years to teach His mother, Mary.*
- 4. GOD would not allow His holy one to see corruption, Psalms 16:10, Acts 2:27. These verses apply to Jesus, but they could also apply to His mother who is called "Blessed" in Luke 1:28 and 1:42.*
- 5. A precedent was already set for assumptions in Matthew 27:52, "And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep arose;" What is the problem with envisioning the Mother of GOD rising as well?
In her "one of a kind" unique position in Scripture, isn't she higher than the other saints?*
- 6. Other presumed assumptions are prefigured in Scripture, such as Enoch in Genesis 5:24, and Elijah in 2Kings 2:11.
Why then do some say the Mother of GOD could not have been assumed?*
- 7. "For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made to live. But each in his own turn, Christ as first fruits, then they who are Christ's, who have believed, at His coming."*

1Corinthians 15:23.

Who would be the logical first person in turn, other than Jesus Christ, to be the one to live?

Who was the first one to whom the angel Gabriel announced the coming of the Messiah? Luke 1:32

She certainly was the first human person to know, from a messenger of GOD, that He was coming.

8. "But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up hither!" And in the sight of their foes they went up to heaven in a cloud."

Revelation 11:11-12

Isn't this yet another example of an assumption into heaven by the power of GOD?

Why then could anyone deny the assumption of the Mother of GOD?

9. "Then I looked, and lo, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; the voice I heard was like the sound of harpers playing on their harps, and they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth. It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are chaste; it is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes; these have been redeemed from mankind as first fruits for GOD and the Lamb, and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are spotless."

Revelation 14:1-5

Do not these verses describe many who have found favor with GOD, who are virgins, first fruits who follow the Lamb wherever He goes, and who are spotless?

Who did Jesus teach first? His mother.

Who is the virgin? His mother.

Who followed Him wherever He went either in person or in her heart? His mother.

Who is without sin...spotless? His mother.

It is believed that in Lk 1:49 when Mary said, "God has done great things (plural) for me", it is a prefigurement of her assumption.

10. We have seen that there is no sun as seen in the heavens as we have in our earthly sky, but yet we do see a woman clothed with the sun in heaven in Revelation 12:1.

11. The Book of Revelation speaks of souls and spirits as being in heaven (Rev 1:4,6:9,20:4), but in verse 12:1, it does not say the soul, or spirit of a woman as being seen does it? No, it says a woman. The Greek word used for woman here is gune which means a woman. If you check the definition of the word "woman" in a dictionary, you will find that it defines the word as, "an adult female human being". A human being has a body, a soul, and a spirit (1Thess 5:3). Souls and spirits are gender neutral, so the fact that Saint John saw a woman adds gender to the equation, and gender can only come from the body. Therefore, what Saint John saw in heaven was a female human person, and that person had to have a body, a soul, and a spirit.

12. "The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him." Romans 8:16-17

Most assuredly the Blessed Virgin did indeed suffer with Him as she witnessed His passion and death on the cross (John 19:25-27). It is only fitting that His mother be glorified with Him as well.

13. Some might ask why such a monumental event as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is not mentioned in other books of the New Testament. We have to remember that most of the books were written before this event, and that the Book of Revelation was the last book written.

14. With the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, GOD has allowed us to see a preview of what will happen to all of the saved on the last day.

---

Relics of the Saints have always been prized possessions and have been eagerly sought after, by Churches. Relics of all of the Apostles and Gospel writers, St. Stephen the first Christian martyr, and St. Mary Magdalene can be found in Catholic Churches today. However, not one relic of the Blessed Virgin Mary has ever been found. If she had died and was buried, her relics would have been the most prized of all, and the Churches of the day would have scrambled to obtain them. After all, she was the Mother of GOD.

An Old Testament account of an important person whose relics have never been found, can be seen in Deuteronomy 34:6 where the burial place of Moses, and therefore the location of his relics remain unknown. See Jude 9.

Wouldn't you agree that the title, "Mother of GOD", puts her in a unique class all by herself? When you think about it, there is no equivalent title, "Father of GOD", is there?

For those who believe in the "Rapture", and yet say that Mary could not have been assumed into heaven, is not the Rapture an assumption of many human creatures?

What about the last judgment where the dead will rise and the righteous will be given glorified bodies and will be assumed into heaven? Is that not the same thing as Mary being assumed? Isn't she the most perfect creature ever created by GOD?

Why then should she not be the first creature to be assumed into heaven?

I have shown overwhelming evidence that the Blessed Virgin Mary was in fact assumed into heaven, and that she was envisioned as being there by Saint John.

I now ask those who doubt the assumption, to show evidence to the contrary?

---

The fact that Mary was assumed into heaven body and soul was proclaimed a Dogma of the Catholic Church on November 1, 1950 by Pope Pius XII. Pope Pius XII stated as Dogma what had been commonly held by the Church for centuries. There are homilies on the Assumption dated from before the sixth century, and by the thirteenth century, there was universal agreement concerning this feast. The statement of Pius XII included the following:

"Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords, and conqueror of sin and death." (Munificentissimus Deus 1950).

Pope Pius X wrote in his encyclical letter "Ad Diem Illum Laetissimum":

"A great sign," thus the Apostle St. John describes a vision divinely sent him, appears in the heavens: "A woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars upon her head." Everyone knows that this woman signified the Virgin Mary, the stainless one who brought forth our head...John therefore saw the Most Holy Mother of God already in eternal happiness, yet travailing in a mysterious childbirth. What birth was it? Surely it was the birth of us who, still in exile, are yet to be generated to the perfect charity of God, and to eternal happiness. And the birth pains show the love and desire with which the Virgin from heaven above watches over us, and strives with unwearying prayer to bring about the fulfillment of the number of the elect."

Pope John Paul II wrote in "Redemptoris Mater", Par 47, March 25, 1987:

"Thanks to this special bond linking the Mother of Christ with the Church, there is further clarified the mystery of that "woman" who, from the first chapters of the Book of Genesis until the Book of Revelation, accompanies the revelation of God's salvific plan for humanity. For Mary, present in the Church as the Mother of the Redeemer, takes part, as a mother, in that "monumental struggle against the powers of darkness" which continues throughout human history. And by her ecclesial identification as the "woman clothed with the sun" (Rev. 12:1), it can be said that "in the Most Holy Virgin the Church has already reached that perfection whereby she exists without spot or wrinkle." Hence, as Christians raise their eyes with faith to Mary in the course of their earthly pilgrimage, they "strive to increase in holiness." Mary, the exalted Daughter of Sion, helps all her children, wherever they may be and whatever their condition, to find in Christ the path to the Father's house."

August 15, the Feast of the Assumption, has been celebrated since the fifth century. The Dogma issued by Pope Pius XII in 1950 is not new, since it was celebrated for over 1500 years previous.

---

As Martin Luther once remarked, "When you call her the Mother of GOD, you have said it all".

Our Lady Of Perpetual Help...

---

---

The child Jesus has just run into his mothers arms for protection.

He ran so fast, he almost lost one of His sandals.

What frightened him, was the sight of Saint Gabriel on the right and Saint Michael on the left who are holding the instruments of the crucifixion, the cross and the nails on the right, and the lance and the stick with the sponge on the left.

---

Prayer to Our Lady of Perpetual Help:

Hail Mary:

O Mother of Perpetual Help, at thy feet a wretched sinner, who has recourse to thee and trusts in thee. O Mother of mercy, have pity on me; I hear all men call thee the refuge and hope of sinners: be therefore my refuge and my hope. Help me for the love of Jesus Christ: hold out thy hand to a fallen wretch, who commends himself to thee and dedicates himself to be thy servant forever. I praise and thank God, who of His great mercy hath given me this confidence in thee, a sure pledge of my eternal salvation. Alas, it is only too true that in the past I have fallen miserably, because I did not come to thee. I know that with thy help I shall conquer; I know that thou wilt help me, if I commend myself to thee; but I am fearful lest in the occasions of sin I shall forget to call upon thee and so I shall be lost. This grace, then, do I ask of thee; for this I implore thee, as much as I can and know how to do; namely, that in the assaults of hell I may ever run to thy protection and may say to thee: Mary, help me; Mother of Perpetual Help, permit me not to lose my God.

Hail Mary:

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant me ever to be able to call upon thy powerful name, since thy name is the help of the living and the salvation of the dying. Ah, Mary most pure, Mary most sweet, grant that thy name from this day forth may be to me the very breath of life. Dear Lady, delay not to come to my assistance whenever I call upon thee; for in all the temptations that assail me, in all the necessities that befall me, I will never leave off calling upon thee, ever repeating: Mary, Mary. What comfort, what sweetness, what confidence, what tenderness fills my soul at the sound of thy name, at the very thought of thee! I give thanks to our Lord, who for my sake hath given thee a name so sweet, so lovable, so mighty. But I am not content merely to speak thy name; I would utter it for very love of thee; it is my desire that love should ever remind me to name thee, Mother of Perpetual Help. Hail Mary O Mother of Perpetual Help, thou art the dispenser of every grace that God grants us in our misery; it is for this cause that He hath made thee so powerful, so rich, so kind, that thou mightest assist us in our miseries. Thou art the advocate of the most wretched and abandoned sinners, if they but come unto thee; come once more to my assistance, for I commend myself to thee. In thy hands I place my eternal salvation; to thee I entrust my soul. Enroll me among thy most faithful servants; take me under thy protection and it is enough for me: yes, for if thou protect me, I shall fear nothing; not my sins, for thou wilt obtain for me their pardon and remission; not the evil spirits, for thou art mightier than all the powers of hell; not even Jesus, my Judge, for He is appeased by a single prayer from thee. I fear only that through my own negligence I may forget to recommend myself to thee and so I shall be lost. My dear Lady, obtain for me the forgiveness of my sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance and the grace to have recourse to thee at all times, O Mother of Perpetual Help.

Hail Mary:

Ave Maria, the New Eve.

If you have read another of my posted files on this website called "Types and Shadows", you would have learned that the Old Testament prefigures people, objects, and happenings of the New Testament. As an example, the O.T. "types" of Jesus Christ are numerous, Adam, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and David just to name a few. The O.T. "type" is always inferior to the N.T. reality, or "antitype", and sometimes it is the opposite. Adam is a "type" of Jesus Christ, and Jesus is even called "The Last Adam" in 1Cor 15:45.

So now we have a first and second Adam. However Adam had Eve, the mother of all humanity. Typology of Scripture would not be viable unless it "typed" a New Eve as well as a New Adam. The purpose of this file is to show that the New Eve, Mary, also had many "types" in the O.T..

1. Since Eve was created without original sin as well as Adam, then the realities of these Old Testament "types" had to be without original sin also. We know that Jesus had no original sin, and so Mary, the New Testament reality of Eve had to be without original sin also, or else she was inferior to her "type". See "The Immaculate Conception" on this website.

What did the Church Fathers have to say about the "New Eve"?

Saint Justin the Martyr, in about 155 A.D., wrote:

"...and that He became Man by the Virgin so that the course which was taken by disobedience in the beginning through the agency of the serpent, might be also the very course by which it would be put down. For Eve, a virgin and undefiled, conceived the word of the serpent, and bore disobedience and death. But the Virgin Mary received faith and joy when the angel Gabriel announced to her the glad tidings that the Spirit of the Lord would come upon her and the powers of the Most High would overshadow her, for which reason the Holy One being born of her would be called the Son of God. And she replied: 'Be it done unto me according to thy word.'"

Dialogue with Trypho (100) (Jurgens-141)

Saint Irenaeus wrote this between 180-199 A.D.:

"Consequently, then, Mary the Virgin is found to be obedient, saying: "Behold, O Lord, your handmaid; be it done to me according to your word." Eve, however, was disobedient; and when yet a virgin, she did not obey.... having become disobedient, was made the cause of death for herself and for the whole human race; so also Mary, betrothed to a man but nevertheless still a virgin, being obedient, was made the cause of salvation for herself and for the whole human race.... Thus, the knot of Eve's disobedience was loosed by the obedience of Mary. What the virgin Eve had bound in unbelief, the Virgin Mary loosed through faith."

Against Heresies (3,22,4) (Jurgens-224)

Tertullian wrote this between 208 and 212 A.D.:

"For it was while Eve was still a virgin that the word of the devil crept in to erect an edifice of death. Likewise, through a Virgin, the Word of God was introduced to set up a structure of life. Thus, what had been laid waste in ruin by this sex, was by the same sex re-established in salvation. Eve had believed the serpent; Mary believed Gabriel. That which the one destroyed by believing, the other, by believing, set straight."

The Flesh of Christ (17,5) (Jurgens-358)

Saint Augustine wrote in 396 A.D.:

"Our Lord Jesus Christ, however, who came to liberate mankind, in which both males and females are destined to salvation, was not averse to males, for He took the form of a male, nor to females, for of a female He was born. Besides, there is a great mystery here: that just as death comes to us through a woman, Life is born to us through a woman; that the devil, defeated, would be tormented by each nature, feminine and masculine, since he had taken delight in the defection of both."

Christian Combat (22,24) (Jurgens-1578)

---

Mary is mentioned in the first book of the Bible, and in the last book of the Bible, and in many books in between. See "The Blessed Virgin Mary in the Bible", and many other Marian files on this website for the verses.

The Arks of the Covenant!

---

The Arks of the Covenant?

Are there more than one?

---

This is a representation of what the original Ark of the Covenant might have looked like as described in Exodus 25:10-22.

---

Hebrews 9:4,

The Ark held the Word of GOD written on stone tablets.

Who is the Word? John 1:1, 1:14

It held the symbol of the High Priest, the Rod of Aaron.

Who is the High Priest? Hebrews 3:1, 4:14, 6:20

It held the Manna, the Bread come down from Heaven.

Who is the Bread come down from Heaven? John 6:51

It was made of incorruptible wood.

"And thou shalt make the ark of testimony of incorruptible wood..."

Exodus 25:10, Septuagint

"And they shall make an ark of shittim wood"

Exodus 25:10, King James

A note of interest!

'Shittim' is the Hebrew term for Acacia wood. Many other Bibles use the word 'acacia' in place of shittim.

Acacia is very hard and dense. It is dark reddish brown and makes beautiful furniture. The acacia has internal natural substances which act as preservatives and these deposits are also toxic to insects. They also increase the density of the wood, and make it hard for water and other substances to enter the wood and cause decay.

"And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without; and over it thou shalt make a golden crown round about:"

Exodus 25:11, Douay

"And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about."

Exodus 25:11, King James

The 'Crown of Gold' in Exodus 25:11 is very significant as we shall see.

For nine months,

She carried the Word of GOD Incarnate in her womb. John 1:1, 14

She carried the High Priest of GOD in her womb. Hebrews 3:1, 4:14, 6:20

She carried the Bread come down from Heaven in her womb. John 6:51

"And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn."

Luke 2:7

---

The GLORY of the LORD:

It was called the Shekinah Glory, which means 'the Glory and Presence of GOD'.

It is a visible manifestation of the divine presence.

It was like a pillar of a cloud in the daytime and a pillar of fire at night, Exodus 13:21.

It was like a devouring fire, Exodus 24:17.

It was like a cloud that filled the tabernacle, Exodus 40:34.

It was like a cloud that appeared above the "Mercy Seat", the lid of the Ark of the Covenant, Leviticus 16:2.

It is like the sun (Son) rise, Isaiah 60:1.

"Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee."

It was like a rainbow Ezekiel 1:28,

"As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD."

The Glory of the Lord manifested itself several times in the Old Testament, from Exodus 16:10 until the last time in

Ezekiel 44:4,

"And he brought me by the way of the north gate, in the sight of the house: and I saw, and behold the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord: and I fell on my face."

Ezekiel prophesied to the Jewish captives in Babylon from 593 to 571 B.C..

From the time of the last appearance of the glory of the Lord in the Old Testament in Ezekiel 44:4 until Jesus Christ was born in Luke 2:7, is a gap of around 570 years.

Luke 2:9,

"And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid."

Luke 2:22,

"And after the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they carried him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord:"

Luke 2:27,

"And he came by the Spirit into the temple.

And when his parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law,"

Just as the glory of the Lord was carried by the Ark of the Old Testament (Exodus 25:22) to the tabernacle (tent), in Exodus 40:21 and 2Samuel 6:17, the glory of the Lord was carried to the temple by the New Ark, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Luke 2:34, "And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother: Behold this child is set for the fall and for the resurrection of many in Israel and for a sign which shall be contradicted."

Study these verses carefully, for Isaiah prophesied much of what was said in Luke 2:7-34:

Isaiah 40:3-5,

"The voice of one crying in the desert: Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the wilderness the paths of our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoken."

---

Revelation 11:19,

"And the temple of God was opened in heaven: and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple. And there were lightnings and voices and an earthquake and great hail."

Is 'the ark of His covenant' the wooden box that was carried about by the Hebrews in the Old Testament?

No, that Ark was hidden by Jeremiah in Mount Nebo (2Maccabees 2:4-8). It has not been found since then.

Jeremiah 3:16,

"And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall no more say, "The ark of the covenant of the LORD." It shall not come to mind, or be remembered, or missed; it shall not be made again."

That verse excludes any possibility that the Ark envisioned in Revelation 11:19 is the wooden ark of the Old Testament.

Is there anything at all that is man-made in Heaven? Well there are the five wounds of Jesus.

The New Ark of the Covenant is what was seen in Heaven.

The New Ark carried the realities of what the Old Testament wooden ark symbolized.

Revelation 12:1,

"And a great sign appeared in heaven:

A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."

A woman who wears a crown? Does this bring to mind Exodus 25:11 where the Acacia wood Ark was also adorned with a crown?

The golden crown of Exodus 25:11 is a type that is vastly surpassed by its † starry † crown † antitype reality of Revelation 12:1.

The first word of Revelation 12:1, 'And', is a conjunction that ties Revelation 12:1 to 11:19.

Given the fact that the Book of Revelation is highly symbolic, the 'woman' mentioned here can be considered symbolic of the Church, the twelve Apostles or the twelve tribes of the Old Testament. However, it cannot be denied that the context of Revelation 12 shows that the woman is also the mother of Jesus the Christ. The proof falls in the fact that there are four persons mentioned in the context.

There is:

1. A woman. (12:1)
2. A great red dragon. (12:3) The dragon is Satan as shown in 12:9.
3. A male child who is to rule all nations. (12:5) This is obviously Jesus the Christ.
4. Michael the Archangel. (12:7) The naming of him is self explanatory.

Since three of the four persons are clearly identified, the context demands that the fourth person be identified as well.

She could be none other than the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Queen Mother of Jesus (12:5).

The Mother of Jesus is the New Ark of the Covenant.

---

Here are some New Testament to Old Testament comparisons that enlighten our understanding of just who the New Ark of the Covenant is:

Luke 1:39,

"And Mary rising up in those days, went into the hill country with haste into a city of Juda."

2Samuel 6:2,

"And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim."

Baale-judah is called by several other names in Holy Scripture, including Kiriath-Jearim (Joshua 9:17). It was a town in the hill country about ten or so miles west of Jerusalem which was in Judah. It is likely that it was the same town in the hill country where Mary visited Elizabeth in Luke 1:39.

Luke 1:40,

"And she entered into the house of Zachary and saluted Elizabeth."

2Samuel 6:10,

"So David was not willing to take the ark of the LORD into the city of David; but David took it aside to the house of O'bed-e'dom the Gittite."

Luke 1:41,

"And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit."

2Samuel 6:13-14,

"And when they that carried the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a ram:

And David danced with all his might before the Lord: and David was girded with a linen ephod."

Luke 1:42,

"And she cried out with a loud voice and said: Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."

The Greek word 'anaphoneo (anaphoneo), is used in Luke 1:42, for Elizabeth's words, 'cried out'. It is significant because this is the only time that this Greek word is used in the New Testament. This word appears a few times in the Greek Old Testament (Septuagint or LXX) where it describes Levitical priests praising GOD before the Ark of the Covenant. Also of interest here is that Elizabeth was the wife of Zechariah (Zachary), a Levitical priest (Luke 1:5), and since it was the custom that marriage was between members of the same tribe, she had to have been also a Levite.

Luke 1:43,

"And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

2Samuel 6:9,

"And David was afraid of the Lord that day, saying: How shall the ark of the Lord come to me?"

Luke 1:56,

"And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her home."

2Samuel 6:11,

"And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of O'bed-e'dom the Gittite three months; and the LORD blessed O'bed-e'dom and all his household."

Coincidences? There are no coincidences with GOD.

Who or What is the Mystical City of GOD?

---

The City of GOD is mentioned only twice in all of Holy Scripture, but let us see where those two verses will lead us.

"The stream of the river maketh the city of God joyful: the most High hath sanctified his own tabernacle.

God is in the midst thereof, it shall not be moved: God will help it in the morning early."

Psalms 46:4-5

"The Lord loveth the gates of Sion above all the tabernacles of Jacob."

Psalms 87:2

"Glorious things are said of thee, O city of God."

Psalms 87:3

So what key words in order of appearance do we see in those four seemingly innocuous verses?

1. City of GOD: We will make some verse comparisons in this writing to find the answer to that title of this page.
2. Sanctified: Means to make Holy.
3. Tabernacle: Its Old Testament Meaning is a tent. It was in a tent in which the Hebrews kept the Ark of the Covenant in a section called the Holy of Holies. Later GOD commanded that a temple be built to Him.
4. Glorious things are said of thee: We will see what these Old Testament types are when revealed to us in New Testament realities.

Elucidation:

1. "Glorious things are said of thee!"

Let us see how this Old Testament type equates to these New Testament realities...

Luke 1:28:

"And the angel being come in, said unto her: Hail, full of grace *, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."

Does not this verse call to mind the fourth line of key words listed above, "Glorious things are said of thee!"?

* Most non-Catholic bibles read "highly favored" in Luke 1:28. However St. Jerome, known as one of the greatest Greek scholars of all time, translated the Greek and Hebrew Biblical texts into the Latin Vulgate in the 5th century, and his wording for this Greek text is "Gratia Plena", which means a plenitude of grace.

Those who are called "full of grace, the Lord is with thee" and / or "Blessed art thou among women", can also be called "sanctified", the second key word mentioned above.

"Glorious things are said of thee!"

And compare with...

Luke 1:41-42:

"And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. And she cried out with a loud voice and said: "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."

To those of whom these blessings are bestowed are also those who are called sanctified. Again we can equate the Mother of Jesus with, "Glorious things are said of thee!"

And compare with...

Luke 1:46-49:

"And Mary said: My soul doth magnify the Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. Because he hath regarded the humility of his handmaid: for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed Because he that is mighty hath done great things to me: and holy is his name."

"All generations shall call me blessed", is a sure sign of someone who is sanctified.

"Glorious things are said of thee!"

We have now seen that there is a connection between the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the first of the key words listed above, City of GOD, since Glorious things are said of both.

So where is all of this leading us?

---

To the third key word,
the Tabernacle:

The first time that the word "Tabernacle" is mentioned in Holy Scripture is in Exodus 16 (Douay, Vulgate), and with it we have more key words to consider...

Exodus 16:31-35, Douay

(31) "And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white, and the taste thereof like to flour with honey.

(32) And Moses said: This is the word which the Lord hath commanded: Fill a gomor of it, and let it be kept unto generations to come hereafter; that they may know the bread, wherewith I fed you in the wilderness when you were brought forth out of the land of Egypt.

(33) And Moses said to Aaron: Take a vessel, and put manna into it, as much as a gomor can hold; and lay it up before the Lord, to keep unto your generations,

(34) as the Lord commanded Moses. And Aaron put it in the tabernacle to be kept.

(35) And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, till they came to a habitable land: with this meat were they fed, until they reached the borders of the land of Chanaan."

So what key words do we see in those five verses?

1. Manna: this is the first time that the word "Manna" is mentioned in Holy Scripture.

The Hebrews, numbering some 600,000 men alone (Ex 12:37), wandered for forty years in a barren desert devoid of sustenance. GOD provided manna, the sustenance for bodily food, in what was called "Bread from Heaven" earlier in Exodus 16:4. Can you imagine how much manna was a daily requirement for well over a million people when women and children are added to the 600,000 men? After forty years the manna ceased as recorded in Joshua 5:12.

2. Forty years: A figure that could be equated to a human lifespan.

Numbers 32:13,

"And the Lord being angry against Israel, led them about through the desert forty years, until the whole generation, that had done evil in his sight, was consumed."

3. Meat: this word was used in the Old Testament (Douay) to describe the manna, a type, which sustained the body of so many for forty years. Is there a New Testament antitype for manna, maybe something so wonderful that it sustains the soul?

From the Didache 10:3,

"Thou, Almighty Master, didst create all things for the sake of thy name, and hast given both meat and drink, for men to enjoy, that we might give thanks unto thee, but to us thou hast given spiritual meat and drink, and life everlasting, through thy Son."

John 6:53-57:

(53) "Then Jesus said to them: Amen, amen, I say unto you: except you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you shall not have life in you.

(54) He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath everlasting life: and I will raise him up in the last day.

(55) For my flesh is meat indeed: and my blood is drink indeed.

(56) He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me: and I in him."

Elucidation:

1. The Manna is the Old Testament type (Bread from Heaven Exodus 16:4), of the New Testament "Bread of Life" (John 6:35, 48), the flesh (Body) of Christ for which we are commanded to eat in John 6:53-57.

2. The Manna was kept in the tabernacle, a Holy place, since the Manna was sent by GOD.

3. The Manna, which fed the body, is symbolic of the flesh of Christ which feeds the soul.

4. The Blessed Virgin Mary served as the tabernacle of the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of the person of Jesus the Christ for the nine months of her pregnancy.

"Glorious things are said of thee, O city of God."

Psalms 87:3

With so many glorious things said of thee O' Blessed Virgin Mary, you certainly are entitled to be called "The Mystical City of GOD".

A Vow to GOD is a Perpetual Vow, and if Broken, has Dire Consequences...

"It is ruin to a man to devour holy ones, and after vows to retract."
Proverbs 20:25

---

---

Is everything in the Bible?

Is the Holy Trinity overtly mentioned as the Holy Trinity?

No, not overtly, but covertly* it is.

Is the perpetual virginity of the Blessed Virgin Mary mentioned in the Bible?

Just as for the Holy Trinity, it is not overtly mentioned.

Though like the Holy Trinity, it could be mentioned covertly.

There are Biblical guidelines for a woman to take a vow of chastity, and the Blessed Virgin Mary, a devout Jewess, no doubt knew Old Testament scripture quite well.

*For another example of covert Biblical verses go here.

Some examples of Biblical vows to the Lord:

Numbers 6:2-3, Speak to the children of Israel, and thou shalt say to them: When a man, or woman, shall make a vow to be sanctified, and will consecrate themselves to the Lord: (3) They shall abstain from wine, and from every thing that may make a man drunk. They shall not drink vinegar of wine, or of any other drink, nor any thing that is pressed out of the grape: nor shall they eat grapes either fresh or dried.

Deuteronomy 23:21-22, When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not be slack to pay it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin in you. (22) But if you refrain from vowing, it shall be no sin in you.

1Samuel 1:11, And she vowed a vow and said, "O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy maidservant, and remember me, and not forget thy maidservant, but wilt give to thy maidservant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head."

Acts 18:18, But Paul, when he had stayed yet many days, taking his leave of the brethren, sailed thence into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila), having shorn his head in Cenchrae. For he had a vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:4-5, When you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow.

(5) It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay.

Psalms 56:12-13, In me, O God, are vows to thee, which I will pay, praises to thee: (13) Because thou hast delivered my soul from death, my feet from falling: that I may please in the sight of God, in the light of the living.

Now here are the verses that could apply to the perpetual virginity of a woman.

Numbers 30:1-16, And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded. (2) If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth. (3) If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth; (4) And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand. (5) But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her. (6) And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul; (7) And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand. (8) But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her. (9) But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her. (10) And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath; (11) And her husband heard, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand. (12) But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her. (13) Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. (14) But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them (15) But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity. (16) These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

Does Numbers 30 'prove' the perpetual virginity of the BVM?

Holy Scripture does not say that she made the vow. However, Holy Scripture does not say that she did not make the vow either.

It is entirely possible that The Blessed Virgin Mary did make a vow of perpetual virginity using the guidelines shown in Numbers 30. It would be a powerful tool for justification of her perpetual virginity. Did you notice that those verses were directed mostly towards women, and possibly virgins at that?

Every chapter in Holy Scripture has meaning and Numbers 30 has meaning. Old Testament types are fulfilled by antitypes in the New Testament.

Here is one possible New Testament antitype of the type of Numbers 30:1-16.

Luke 1:26-28, And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, (27) To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the virgin's name was Mary. (28) And the angel being come in, said unto her: "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."

EXCERPTS FROM AN APOCRYPHAL BOOK,

THE GOSPEL OF THE NATIVITY OF MARY:

CHAPTER 7. But the virgin of the Lord advanced in age and in virtues; and though, in the words of the Psalmist, her father and mother had forsaken her, the Lord took her up. For daily was she visited by angels, daily did she enjoy a divine vision, which preserved her from all evil, and made her to abound in all good. And so she reached her fourteenth year; and not only were the wicked unable to charge her with anything worthy of reproach, but all the good, who knew her life and conversation, judged her to be worthy of admiration. Then the high priest publicly announced that the virgins who were publicly settled in the temple, and had reached this time of life, should return home and get married, according to the custom of the nation and the ripeness of their years. The others readily obeyed this command; but Mary alone, the virgin of the Lord, answered that she could not do this, saying both that her parents had devoted her to the service of the Lord, and that, moreover, she herself had made to the Lord a vow of virginity, which she would never violate by any intercourse with man. And the high priest, being placed in great perplexity of mind, seeing that neither did he think that the vow should be broken contrary to the Scripture, which says, Vow and pay, nor did he dare to introduce a custom unknown to the nation, gave order that at the festival, which was at hand, all the chief persons from Jerusalem and the neighbourhood should be present, in order that from their advice he might know what was to be done in so doubtful a case. And when this took place, they resolved unanimously that the Lord should be consulted upon this matter. And when they all bowed themselves in prayer, the high priest went to consult God in the usual way. Nor had they long to wait: in the hearing of all a voice issued from the oracle and from the mercy-seat, that, according to the prophecy of Isaiah, a man should be sought out to whom the virgin ought to be entrusted and espoused. For it is clear that Isaiah says: A rod shall come forth from the root of Jesse, and a flower shall ascend from his root; and the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and strength, the spirit of wisdom and piety; and he shall be filled with the spirit of the fear of the Lord. According to this prophecy, therefore, he predicted that all of the house and family of David that were unmarried and fit for marriage should bring there rods to the altar; and that he whose rod after it was brought should produce a flower, and upon the end of whose rod the Spirit of the Lord should settle in the form of a dove, was the man to whom the virgin ought to be entrusted and espoused.

CHAPTER 8. Now there was among the rest Joseph, of the house and family of David, a man of great age: and when all brought there rods, according to the order, he alone withheld his. Wherefore, when nothing in conformity with the divine voice appeared, the high priest thought it necessary to consult God a second time; and He answered, that of those who had been designated, he alone to whom the virgin ought to be espoused had not brought his rod. Joseph, therefore, was found out. For when he had brought his rod, and the dove came from heaven; and settled upon the top of it, it clearly appeared to all that he was the man to whom the virgin should be espoused. Therefore, the usual ceremonies of betrothal having been gone through, he went back to the city of Bethlehem to put his house in order, and to procure things necessary for the marriage. But Mary, the virgin of the Lord, with seven other virgins of her own age, and who had been weaned at the same time, whom she had received from the priest, returned to the house of her parents in Galilee.

CHAPTER 9. And in those days, that is, at the time of her first coming into Galilee, the angel Gabriel was sent to her by God, to announce to her the conception of the Lord, and to explain to her the manner and order of the conception. Accordingly, going in, he filled the chamber where she was with a great light; and most courteously saluting her, he said: Hail, Mary! O virgin highly favoured by the Lord, virgin full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou above all women, blessed above all men that have been hitherto born. And the virgin, who was already well acquainted with angelic faces, and was not unused to the light from heaven, was neither terrified by the vision of the angel, nor astonished at the greatness of the light, but only perplexed by his words; and she began to consider of what nature a salutation so unusual could be, or what it could portend, or what end it could have. And the angel, divinely inspired, taking up this thought, says: Fear not, Mary, as if anything contrary to thy chastity were hid under this salutation. For in choosing chastity, thou hast found favour with the Lord; and therefore thou, a virgin, shalt conceive without sin, and shalt bring forth a son. He shall be great, because He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth; and He shall be called the Son of the Most High, because He who is born on earth in humiliation, reigns in heaven in exaltation; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, and He shall reign in the house of Jacob for ever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end; forasmuch as He is King of kings and Lord of lords, and His throne is from everlasting to everlasting. The virgin did not doubt these words of the angel; but wishing to know the manner of it, she answered: How can that come to pass? For while, according to my vow, I never know man, how can I bring forth without the addition of man's seed? To this the angel says: Think not, Mary, that thou shalt conceive in the manner of mankind: for without any intercourse with man, thou, a virgin, wilt conceive; thou, a virgin, wilt bring forth; thou, a virgin, wilt nurse: for the Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee, without any of the heats of lust; and therefore that which shall be born of thee shall alone be holy, because it alone, being conceived and born without sin, shall be called the Son of God. Then Mary stretched forth her hands, and raised her eyes to heaven, and said: Behold the hand-maiden of the Lord, for I am not worthy of the name of lady; let it be to me according to thy word.

CHAPTER 10. Joseph therefore came from Judaea into Galilee, intending to marry the virgin who had been betrothed to him; for already three months had elapsed, and it was the beginning of the fourth since she had been betrothed to him. In the meantime, it was evident from her shape that she was pregnant, nor could she conceal this from Joseph. For in consequence of his being betrothed to her, coming to her more freely and speaking to her more familiarly, he found out that she was with child. He began then to be in great doubt and perplexity, because he did not know what was best for him to do. For, being a just man, he was not willing to expose her; nor, being a pious man, to injure her fair fame by a suspicion of fornication. He came to the conclusion, therefore, privately to dissolve their contract, and to send her away secretly. And while he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in his sleep, saying: Joseph, thou son of David, fear not; that is, do not have any suspicion of fornication in the virgin, or think any evil of her; and fear not to take her as thy wife: for that which is begotten in her, and which now vexes thy soul, is the work not of man, but of the Holy Spirit. For she alone of all virgins shall bring forth the Son of God, and thou shalt call His name Jesus, that is, Saviour; for He shall save His people from their sins. Therefore Joseph, according to the command of the angel, took the virgin as his wife; nevertheless he knew her not, but took care of her, and kept her in chastity. And now the ninth month from her conception was at hand, when Joseph, taking with him his wife along with what things he needed, went to Bethlehem, the city from which he came. And it came to pass, while they were there, that her days were fulfilled that she should bring forth; and she brought forth her first-born son, as the holy evangelists have shown, our Lord Jesus Christ, who with the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost lives and reigns God from everlasting to everlasting.

Knowing full well that 'THE GOSPEL OF THE NATIVITY OF MARY' is not inspired Scripture, it is nevertheless interesting reading. Apocryphal gospels were rejected by the Catholic Church for one reason or another, but there are some truths within them.

Elucidation:

1. GOD chose Mary to be the mother of His Son.
2. Through His Archangel Gabriel, she is praised three times as being precisely, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women".
3. In Luke 1:28, she is praised three times as being 'full of grace', the 'Lord is with her', and 'blessed is she among women'.
4. A vow to GOD of perpetual virginity by a young woman as documented in Numbers 30, is a possible qualifier for her to receive those three praises.
5. Heaven is a perfect state of being. There is no stain of sin in Heaven.
6. It is hard to believe that the Son of GOD would come down from such a perfect Heavenly environment to dwell for nine months in an imperfect human environment.
7. GOD did not choose just any woman to bear His Son. That is why He chose Mary, a pure and sinless virgin, since GOD and sin are mutually excludable.
8. St. Joseph had a sense of trepidation when finding her with child, until an angel of GOD explained to him in a dream that it came about by the power of the Holy Spirit.
9. Holy Scripture does not say that Mary had other children, as some would have us believe.

The circumstantial evidence presented here strongly suggests that the Blessed Virgin Mary did indeed take the vow.

The Miracle At Lepanto.

---

Almost from the very beginning of Islam, there were wars upon wars between Christians and Moslems. We remember the Crusade wars, seven major and several minor, which lasted for centuries. This is the story of the Battle of Lepanto, which marked the end of the Crusades and was a turning point in the history of Christianity.

---

Charles Martel's victory at Poitiers definitely stopped the Moslem invasion of western Europe. In the east Christians held firm against attacks of the Moslems until 1453. In that year, Mohammed II threw huge assaults against Constantinople and by the evening of May 29 the Byzantine capital fell. By 1571 the Moslems were firmly installed in Europe. Their ships ruled the Mediterranean Sea from the Strait of Bosphorus to the Strait of Gibraltar and constantly preyed on Christian vessels unless they flew the French flag.

---

Pope Pius V, in the last year of his papacy in 1571, tried to rally the nations of Europe to join in a Holy League to stop and roll back the Moslem enemy which threatened the entire continent. Spain, whose King Philip II was also King of Austria, responded favorably. The Moslems were then engaged in the conquest of Cyprus, an island belonging to the Republic of Venice.

Leading Venetian officials would have preferred to have worked out some peaceful-coexistence agreement with the Sultan, but under the crusading influence of Saint Pius V, they decided to join the Holy League along with the republics of Genoa and Lucca and the dukes of Savoy, Parma, Ferrara and Urbino.

The Papal fleet was of course part of the Holy Alliance. Pius V asked Philip to appoint Don John of Austria, the 25-year old son of Emperor Charles V, as commander-in-chief of a planned expedition against the Moslems. After receiving the banner of the Holy League from the Pope, through Cardinal Granvalla, Don John's fleet set sail from Genoa for Naples on June 26, 1571.

---

Few historians mention that just before the departure, Philip II presented Don John with a picture of Our Lady of Guadalupe which she had caused to be miraculously imprinted on the cloak of the Indian peasant Juan Diego in Mexico 40 years before. Don John placed the picture in the chapel of the admiral-vessel, the Genoese John Andrew Doria, asking for Mary's protection of his expedition.

---

On September 16, the Christian fleet put to sea. Don John anchored off of Corfu where he learned that the Moslems had leveled entire towns and villages and then retreated to the coast of Lepanto in the Gulf of Corinth.

At dawn on October 7, at the entrance to the Gulf of Patras, the Christian and Moslem fleets finally came face to face for the battle of Lepanto.

---

The wind and all military factors favored the Moslems, but Don John was confident. He boarded a fast ship for a final review of his fleet. He shouted encouraging words to the men and they shouted back. After Don John returned to his own position, the wind mysteriously changed to the advantage of the Christian fleet. First-hand witnesses wrote about this moment as a most dramatic turn-of-events resulting from an "unknown factor".

---

At that very moment, at dawn on October 7, 1571--as Vatican Archives later revealed--Pope Pius V, accompanied by many faithful, was praying the Rosary in the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore. From dawn to dusk the prayers continued in Rome as the Christians and the Moslems battled at Lepanto. When it was all over the Moslems had been defeated. Of some 270 Moslem ships, at least 200 were destroyed. The Turks also lost 30,000 men while Christian casualties numbered between 4,000 and 5,000.

---

The Rosary had won a great military victory. Like all truly great military leaders who hate war and love peace, Don John retired after his victory at Lepanto. He died a few years later at the age of 31. Another who took part in the great battle of Lepanto, Miguel de Cervantes, lived longer to write his famous tribute to Christian chivalry, Don Quixote.

---

Following the great Christian victory at Lepanto, Pope St. Pius V declared that henceforth a commemoration of the Rosary would be a part of the Vatican's Mass on every October 7. His successor, Pope Gregory XIII, went further. In 1573 he established the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary--to be celebrated at all Churches which had specific altars dedicated to the Rosary.

---

In 1671 Pope Clement X extended observance of the feast to all of Spain. Only 12 years later in 1683 the Moslems again swept into Europe. With 200,000 men, they laid siege to Vienna. After months of valiant resistance by a small garrison, the city was relieved by an army under John Sobieski, King of Poland. The Rosary, to which the King was dedicated, was again instrumental in a military victory. Pope Innocent XI consecrated September 12 of that year to the Holy Name of Mary. The Moslem hordes were hurled back yet again at Peterwardein in Hungary by Prince Eugene on the Feast of Our Lady of the Snows, August 5, 1716. As a result of this victory, Pope Clement XI extended the Feast of the Rosary to the Universal Church.

Stabat Mater Dolorosa...

"Stabat Mater Dolorosa."

(The Mother Stood Full of Pain.)

*At the cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last.*

*Through her heart, His sorrow sharing,
All His bitter anguish bearing,
Now at length the sword had pass'd.*

*Oh, how sad and sore distress'd
Was that Mother highly blest
Of the sole-begotten One !*

*Christ above in torment hangs;
She beneath beholds the pangs
Of her dying glorious Son.*

*Is there one who would not weep,
Whelm'd in miseries so deep
Christ's dear Mother to behold ?*

*Can the human heart refrain
From partaking in her pain,
In that Mother's pain untold?*

*Bruis'd, derided, curs'd, defil'd,
She beheld her tender child
All with bloody scourges rent.*

*For the sins of His own nation,
Saw Him hang in desolation,
Till His spirit forth He sent.*

*O thou Mother! fount of love!
Touch my spirit from above;
Make my heart with thine accord.*

*Make me feel as thou hast felt;
Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ our Lord.*

*Holy Mother! pierce me through;
In my heart each wound renew
Of my Saviour crucified.*

*Let me share with thee His pain,
Who for all my sins was slain,
Who for me in torments died.*

*Let me mingle tears with thee,
Mourning Him who mourn'd for me,
All the days that I may live.*

*By the cross with thee to stay,
There with thee to weep and pray,
Is all I ask of thee to give.*

*Virgin of all virgins best,
Listen to my fond request
Let me share thy grief divine.*

*Let me, to my latest breath,
In my body bear the death*

Of that dying Son of thine.

*Wounded with His every wound,
Steep my soul till it hath swoon'd
In His very blood away.*

*Be to me, O Virgin, nigh,
Lest in flames I burn and die,
In His awful Judgment day.*

*Christ, when Thou shalt call me hence,
Be Thy Mother my defence,
Be Thy cross my victory.*

*While my body here decays,
May my soul Thy goodness praise,
Safe in Paradise with Thee.*

Amen.

Written by Jacopone da Todi (1220-1306)

*A most beautiful choral orchestrational piece incorporating this work was written by
Antonin Dvorak in 1876 after the death of his little daughter.
It is called "Stabat Mater".
The first performance was in Prague in 1880.
Later in London a performance had an audience of 12,000, and a chorus of 800 singers.*

Where is the tomb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of GOD?

---

The tombs of all of the Apostles, except for the traitor Judas, have been found and documented over the centuries.

And yet not a trace of the Blessed Virgin Mary's remains have ever been found. Have you ever wondered about why this is?

The Bible is silent regarding this subject for the most part, but it does give us a clue in Revelation 11:19 to 12:1-2.

The Catholic Church teaches that after she died she was assumed body and soul into Heaven and that is why no tomb or remains of her were ever found.

However science, an unlikely source for a definitive answer as to why her remains were never found, has recently provided us with an intriguing possible answer.

It even supports the teaching of the Catholic Church.

The scientific finding:

It has been known for several years that over time, some wives begin to have a slight resemblance to their husbands.

However, husbands did not seem to gain a resemblance to the wives. Why was this?

The answer was found in the time of pregnancy of the mother. It was known that substances are passed between the baby in the womb and the mother.

In this transfer, since the baby possesses DNA from both parents, the mother receives DNA from the father and of course the father cannot receive DNA from the mother. Simple isn't it if you give it some thought?

Yes, but what does this all mean regarding the Blessed Virgin Mary?

Well the answer to that question poses more questions than there are answers for.

They involve:

How was she impregnated with the baby Jesus?

God only knows and He has not told us.

It must have been accomplished by His Word.

I do have a few final thoughts.

Since there was no human father, then there was no human male DNA.

God is a spirit and a spirit has no parts, thus no natural DNA.

Something may have passed from the baby Jesus to His mother and she certainly supplied Him with the substance of His entire body.

Could the baby Jesus have passed on something to His mother that simply could not be left on earth?

Thus, no tomb with the remains of the Blessed Virgin Mary have ever been found on earth for the last almost 2000 years.

---

---

---

As Martin Luther once remarked, "When you call her the Mother of God, you have said it all".

The Eye Of The Virgin Of Guadalupe

*Our Lady of Guadalupe as she appears on the tilma of Juan Diego.
December 12, 1531*

A closer look at her face. Note the iris and pupil of her right eye...

As we zoom in, images begin to appear in her right eye...

---

As we get closer, the images become faces...

---

We now have zoomed in on her right eye only...

Careful examination of this image shows some startling detail...

The eye of the Queen of Heaven:

These pictures are of the right eye of 'Our Lady of Guadalupe'. It was discovered in 1951, upon close examination, that the right eye of the image on the tilma had reflected within it an image of Juan Diego, the image of Bishop Zumarraga's interpreter, and the image of another man presumed to be a visiting priest or Bishop. Be aware that images reflected in the eye are distorted because of the curvature of the eye itself. Juan is on the right, his full face and beard clearly visible. The interpreter is to the left. He appears to be wearing a headdress, and he is looking at Juan as Juan opens his tilma. The visiting Bishop, with the top of his head visible, is to the right of center. The 'Blessed Virgin Mary' must have been standing in front of Juan and to the right of Bishop Zumarraga, as Juan opened the tilma and the beautiful miraculous image of 'Our Lady of Guadalupe' was seen for the first time.

---

Recent new information...

On January 14, 2001 it was announced that new scientific studies using an enhanced magnification factor of 2500 has shown that there are no less than 13 distinct figures in both eyes.

Angels, A Short Course...

---

Angelology: the study of Angels.

What are Angels?

Do Angels really exist?

---

A. In the beginning: GOD created... (GEN 1:1 to 2:25)

1. The Spiritual World:

It has...

- a. GOD (uncreated).
- b. Angels. (PS 148:2,5)
- c. The devil/demons. (created as Angels)
- d. Human spirits.

2. The Material World:

It has...

- a. Chemicals, minerals.
  - b. Plants.
  - c. Animals.
  - d. Humans.

B. Spirit: Definition... *TB 12-15, 75-76

1. Spirit has no parts and occupies no space. It is immortal and cannot die, because the power of GOD holds everything in existence. (HEB 1:3)
  2. Having no parts, nothing can be taken from it, as there is nothing in it but its whole self.
  3. Spirit can't change from what it is. It can never become anything else.
  4. Deprived of GOD, an evil spirit knows eternal torment, (LK 20:36).

C. Angels, the first created spirits: *CCC 328-336,350-352, PS 148:2,5

1. The word 'Angel', from the Greek 'aggelos', means messenger.
  2. They are pure spirit (HEB 1:14), and are non-corporeal (no body), have no race, and no gender (MT 22:30). They are personal, have emotions (LK 15:10), and are immortal creatures (LK 20:36). Each is created, individually by GOD and is not procreated as is man. *CCC 330, *TB78
  3. Angels have wisdom (2SAM 14:17,20), great power (PS 103:20), and free will. They are holy (MT 25:31), obedient (PS 103:20), and innumerable (HEB 12:22). Since they have no parents, they are not related to one another as humans are. *CCC 311, *TB15, *TS169
  4. The devil (Lucifer) and the demons, were created as Angels. Everything GOD created was good (GEN 1:31). Lucifer, and one third of the Angels, used their free will to defy GOD and were expelled from Heaven. The root of their sin was pride. *CCC 391-395,414, JOB 4:18, *ISA 14:12-15, MT 25:41, 2PET 2:4, JUDE 1:6, REV 12:4-9.
  5. Angels were judged individually. Man was judged as a race. When Adam and Eve sinned, the human race suffered original sin. Eve ate the apple and we got the stomach ache. *TB78, *TS183,189.
  6. The Angels' choice was final. They were not given another chance as were humans. *TB76

D. The Hierarchy of Angels:

1. Angels being spirits, manifest themselves in forms humans can relate to. This might explain the many physical descriptions of them found in the Bible. (ISA 6:2, EZ 10:1-22, REV 4:6-8)
2. They are in 9 ranks called 'Choirs', which differ in perfection of nature and grace. (*TS 157)
3. Choirs are in 3 groups according to their intellectual perfection and nearness to GOD. From the highest to the lowest in rank they are...

GROUP I: ANGELS OF PURE GOODNESS... (*AP p181-193)

4. SERAPHIM: Called 'Love Angels'. Each has three pair of wings, and many eyes, (REV 4:6-9). With two wings he covers his face, with two he covers his feet, and with two he flies, (ISA 6:2-6). His face is like lightning. They are never used as messengers because their appearance would frighten humans, (St. Birgitta of Sweden). They minister to the Heavenly sanctuary. (*AP p183-187)
  5. CHERUBIM/CHERUBS, (PS 18:10, EZ 9:3, NEH 7:61) are throne bearers and custodians of sacred places. They have many eyes (EZ 10:12), four faces, and four wings (EZ 1:6,10, 10:14), and do not turn their heads as they go (EZ 1:9,12,17, 10:11). They are large, (1KNG 6:23-28). They were put in Eden with the 'Flaming Sword' to 'keep the way of the tree of life' (GEN 3:24). They are depicted on the top of the 'Ark Of The Covenant' (EX 25:18-22, EX 37:7-9). NM 7:89, 1KNG 6:23-35, 2KNG 19:15, 2CHR 3:7-14, EZ 1:1-28, 10:1-22, HEB 9:5. (NAB dictionary)
  6. THRONES: (COL 1:16) Are pure humility, and dispense GODS' justice and power to the Angelic court. Lower choirs depend on Thrones for access to GOD. (*AP p191-193)

GROUP II: ANGELS OF THE COSMOS... (*AP p197, PCD p19)

7. DOMINIONS/DOMINATIONS: Having royal robes, filled with wisdom, endowed with leadership, and crowned for authority, govern the cosmos. (DAN 7:27, EPH 1:21, COL 1:16, *TS156-157).
  8. POWERS: Holding swords, are warriors and defenders of the cosmos. They are in conquest of evil spirits, of which, from this choir, many came (Eph 6:11-12), (*AP p200-201). MT 24:29, MK 13:25, LK 21:26, ROM 8:38, EPH 1:21,3:10, COL 1:16, 2:10,15, TIT 3:1, 1PET 3:22.
  9. VIRTUES: Have 2 eyes (PCD p19), are charged with dispensing celestial miracles. They are 'Spirits of Motion', and control the elements, and all of nature. *AP 203-204, LK 6:19, 8:46.

GROUP III: ANGELS OF THE WORLD... (*AP p221)

10. PRINCIPALITIES: Called Princes, carry scepters to assist in their direction of GODS' commands. They are administrators, responsible for every nation, city, province, town and village. The Angel of Persia (DAN 10:13), and Greece (DAN 10:20) are examples. Some of the fallen angels came from this choir, Eph 6:11-12: JER13:18, ROM 8:38, COL 1:16, 2:10,15, EPH 1:21, 3:10, TIT 3:1, *TS 156.
  11. ARCHANGELS: Messengers of GOD sent on assignments of greater importance (1THESS 4:16, JUDE 1:9).
    - a. St. Michael, Captain of the Heavenly Host, has a combative role, opposing the forces of evil. DAN 10,13-21, 12:1, the devil JUDE 1:9, the dragon REV 12:7-8.
    - b. St. Gabriel announces the coming of the Lord (DAN 8:15-26, 9:21-27), to Mary (LUKE 1:26-38). He will probably announce the second coming (1THES 4:16).
    - c. St. Raphael has healing qualities. He healed the blind Tobit. TOB 3:35, 5:17, 6:16, 9:6, 11:4,7, 12:15.
  12. ANGELS: Always waiting for us to ask them for help. Some are Guardian Angels. Every human being has a Guardian Angel who was assigned to him/her at the moment of conception and he stays with him until the moment of death. GEN 16:7,9,10-11, ZECH 12:8, MT 1:20,24, *MT 18:10, ACTS 12:15,23, CCC 336.

E. The function of Angels: *TS155

1. To glorify GOD. PS 97:3
  2. To implement His will. PS 103:20
  3. To operate the laws by which GOD rules the universe. *TS156
  4. To intervene in the affairs of men as GOD chooses. *TS156, 1PET 1:12.

F. Angels in the Bible: They are mentioned over 280 times throughout the Bible, both as good and demonic...

1. As the serpent in Eden (GEN 3:1-15).

2. They guarded the entrance to Eden (GEN 3:24).
  3. They came to Abraham and Sarah and promised them a son (GEN 18:1-14).
  4. They destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah (GEN 19:1-25).
  5. One brought food to Daniel in the lions den. (DAN 14:33-39, not in KJ).
  6. St. Gabriel appeared to the Blessed Virgin Mary (LK 1:26-38).
  7. One told Joseph to take the child and His Mother to Egypt (MT 2:13-14).
  8. They aided Jesus and His disciples (MT 4:11, LK 22:43, ACTS 5:19, 12:7).
  9. One appeared to Mary Magdalen at the sepulcher (JN 20:12-13).
  10. They appeared to the Apostles (ACTS 1:10-11).
  11. To St. Paul (ACTS 27:23-24).
  12. They require supervision and are judged (1COR 6:3, 2PET 2:4).
  13. GOD is sometimes reluctant to trust them (JOB 4:18).
  14. They can be false teachers: Gal 1:8
  15. They sometimes appear as humans (GEN 19:1-25, HAG 1:13, MAL 2:7).
  16. They bring GODS' messages to man (MT 1:20, LK 1:11,26,2:9, ACTS 8:26).

G. Angels in our lives:

1. An Angel awakened St. Catherine Laboure' on July 18, 1830 and told her the 'Blessed Virgin Mary' was waiting for her in the Chapel.
  2. At Fatima, in 1916, the 'Angel Of Peace' appeared three times to the three visionaries before the 'Blessed Virgin Mary' appeared in 1917.
  3. Padre Pio is said to have sent his Guardian Angel on errands. Read: 'Send Me Your Guardian Angel'.
  4. Many people are reported to have had encounters with Angels.
  5. Angels have the ability to talk to Guardian Angels of any person instantly, even if that person is thousands of miles away.

H. Angelic notes:

1. One Angel can destroy all the evil on earth by calling on all choirs.
  2. Guardian Angels can be from any choir. The holier the person, the higher the choir.
*AP p99-100,182
  3. Angels of higher choirs delegate power to those of lower choirs.
  4. Angelic choirs differ in power, responsibility, authority, features, appearance, and size of the Angels.
  5. St. Gregory believed each human spirit would join one of the choirs.
  6. Each Angel is a unique creation, there are no two alike.
  7. Angels manifest themselves as male (GEN 19:1-13), or female (ZECH 5:9). They have no gender since they are Spirit.

I. Are Angels real?:

1. The Bible has over 280 references to them.
  2. The Church teaches they are real. *CCC 328
  3. Science cannot prove, nor disprove their existence.
  4. The number of persons reporting 'Angelic' intercession, and encounters has increased dramatically in recent years. This gives rise to circumstantial evidence that Angels do indeed exist.

Ask Your Guardian Angel!

---

'Send Me Your Guardian Angel', is a marvelous book about Saint Padre Pio's relationship with his Guardian Angel. Saint Pio would send his angel on errands and have him do all sorts of things that the good padre could not do easily himself.

---

I can assure you that each one of us has his or her very own Guardian Angel. When GOD created us He assigned a guardian angel to watch over us for our entire life. He helps to protect us from harm and he does everything he can to prevent us from sinning. I know, because my guardian angel, George, has saved my life at least three times. Two of those times were within one week.

---

I won't go into detail as to exactly what happened as that is not the purpose of this file. I told a friend about these remarkable events, not knowing how or why they turned out as they did, and she told me it was my guardian angel. She added, "If your guardian angel does something for you, you have to thank him."

Being rather skeptical about the whole thing I asked, "how do I thank my guardian angel?"

She replied, "You call him by name and thank him."

"Okay," I replied, "but how do I know what his name is?"

She replied, "Just ask him and he will tell you."

I replied, "what if he doesn't answer me?"

She said, "He will. It will be the first name that pops into your mind."

Well not believing any of this, I waited until I was alone and then asked, "OK guardian angel, what is your name?"

Guess what...no answer!

But..., the face of my dear departed uncle popped in my mind clear as a crystal. I thought, 'why did the face of my uncle George appear in my mind immediately upon my asking that question'? I did not connect it, as I was waiting for a spoken word which did not come, and not a mental image, and so I told no one and I promptly forgot about it.

Several months later, there was a Marian conference in a city nearby, which I attended. I met a lady there who had the apparent ability of being able to converse with her guardian angel. She would ask her guardian angel to supply her with the names of guardian angels of other people and he would tell her, regardless of who or where they were. With much skepticism and timidity, I conjured up enough nerve to ask her the name of my guardian angel. She went silent for a few seconds and replied, "He will not answer me right now, but he will."

About 1/2 hour later, in the middle of a conference speaker's oration, she blurted out to me, "George, your angel's name is George. My angel just informed me."

Needless to say, the name 'George' did not register with me until a few moments later when I recalled seeing the face of my uncle George many months earlier. Needless to say, I almost went into shock, and I suddenly became an avid believer in guardian angels.

Looking back to those three life-threatening incidents, and by reconstructing exactly what happened, I can truly say that George had a lot to do with saving my life in each case.

I will say this much about one of those incidents. A male voice told me three times to move, and the last time very forcefully. Ten seconds later, I would have had it, had I not moved. There was no other living human being within hundreds of feet to utter those words to me, and the words I heard were soft and clear, not like someone yelling at a distance.

---

Since that all began in the late 1980's, there have been many other non life threatening incidents, in which I know 'George' had a hand in the affair.

My sole purpose in writing this file is to attest that, yes we all do have a guardian angel. We should be aware of his presence and realize that they (some people have more than one) are here to help us. We should call on them in time of need. GOD willing, they will comfort and protect us. And by all means, thank him.

---

Thank you, George, thank you...
Thank you dear GOD for giving me my guardian angel...

The Fourteen Hour Basic "Know Your Faith" Course...

This is a starter course for people who are hungry to learn basic theology and to learn about the Catholic Church. Everyone who has taken it has been given a tremendous boost in their knowledge of GOD and of His Church. It is the course which gave me my start, and built a fire within me to continue a learning curve which has risen greatly and I know will never taper off. Many of us in my parish, as a result of taking this course have taught it to others. Some of our students are now teachers themselves. In my parish, many of us have been evangelizing for years. All of the files on this website are a direct result of having taken this class and in turn teaching it to others.

"Since, like all the faithful, lay Christians are entrusted by GOD with the apostolate by virtue of their Baptism and Confirmation, they HAVE THE RIGHT AND DUTY, INDIVIDUALLY OR GROUPED IN ASSOCIATIONS, TO WORK SO THAT THE DIVINE MESSAGE OF SALVATION MAY BE KNOWN AND ACCEPTED BY ALL MEN THROUGHOUT THE EARTH. THIS DUTY IS THE MORE PRESSING WHEN IT IS ONLY THROUGH THEM THAT MEN CAN HEAR THE GOSPEL AND KNOW CHRIST."

Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) 900. Please read CCC 897-913.

We Learn:

- 10% of what we read.
- 20% of what we hear.
- 30% of what we see.
- 50% of what we both see and hear.
- 70% of what is discussed with others.
- 80% of what we experience personally.
- 95% of what we TEACH to someone else.

William Glaser

Clearly, TEACHING is by far the best way to learn...

The Spiritans (Holy Ghost Fathers), Vocation and Postulancy in Ghana...

---

The population of Ghana is 18,900,000. About 38% of the total are Catholic.

Ghana has 18 Dioceses with 4 of them being Archdioceses.

Ghana has one Cardinal, 3 Archbishops, and 15 Bishops with one being an Auxiliary Bishop.

The Holy Ghost Fathers are operating in 8 Dioceses.

The area of Ghana is 92,100 square miles, or 238,537 square kilometers

SPIRITANS (HOLY GHOST FATHERS), VOCATION AND POSTULANCY IN GHANA.

Vocations Report

Notice the yearly increase.

2001/2002=6

2002/2003=12

2003/2004=15

2004/2005=

SOURCES OF VOCATION:

We recruit from the entire country, and are not restricted to a particular place or diocese.

- 1. We have two youth camps during the year, Christmas and Easter.
- 2. We have two retreat periods for our aspirants every year.
- 3. We have a three days of prayer and interviews to select candidates for the postulancy every year. It is always animated by a three member assessment team.
- 4. The vocations director visits schools and tries to work with diocesan chaplains of different institutions.
- 5. Our vocation team joins the diocesan vocation teams to organize vocation programs during the vocation week celebration.
- 6. The vocations director visits the aspirants who apply to join the congregation, and talk to their families.

POSTULANCY:

Postulancy is a one year program designed for the young men to discern their vocation before they go to the Novitiate for their Spiritual Year. During this year they get the opportunity to learn more about the congregation, and we also get to know more about them. The statistics given did not count those who did not continue for the postulancy either by themselves or because they were not recommended.

PROBLEMS:

Although we get the vocations, we lack the resources to train them. We therefore take as many as we can afford to train. Today our province pays between $4,000 and $6,000 a year for a student of Philosophy and Theology depending upon where they are studying.

Donations are most welcome. If you find it in your heart to support this postulancy, please send to:

"The nearest thing to eternal life we will ever see on this earth is a government program." - Ronald Reagan

"It has been said that politics is the second oldest profession. I have learned that it bears a striking resemblance to the first."- Ronald Reagan

"Government's view of the economy could be summed up in a few short phrases: If it moves, tax it. If it keeps moving, regulate it. And if it stops moving, subsidize it" - Ronald Reagan

"Politics is not a bad profession. If you succeed, there are many rewards;

if you disgrace yourself, you can always write a book." - Ronald Reagan

"No arsenal, or no weapon in the arsenals of the world, is as formidable as the will and moral courage of free men and women." - Ronald Reagan

"If we ever forget that we're one nation under GOD, then we will be a nation gone under." - Ronald Reagan

Quotations:

Margaret Thatcher: "The trouble with Socialism is, sooner or later you run out of other people's money."

"When you subsidize poverty and failure, you get more of both."
...James Dale Davidson, National Taxpayers Union

"The more corrupt the state, the more it legislates."
- Tacitus

"A Liberal is a person who will give away everything he doesn't own."
- Unknown

Quotations by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen:

Men are driven by the love of pleasure and women are driven by the pleasure of love.

The world is rapidly being divided into two camps, the comradeship of anti-Christ and the brotherhood of Christ. The lines between these two are being drawn. How long the battle will be we know not; whether swords will have to be unsheathed we know not; whether blood will have to be shed we know not; whether it will be an armed conflict we know not. But in a conflict between truth and darkness, truth cannot lose.

Sex divorced from love, instead of raising man by taking him away from himself, drags him down to the hall of mirrors where he is always confronted with self. Sex does not care about the person, but about the act. The fig leaf which once was put over the secret parts of man and woman in sculpture is now put over the face. The person does not matter. ~ Archbishop Fulton John Sheen, Those Mysterious Priests, 1974

To a great extent the level of any civilization is the level of its womanhood. When a man loves a woman, he has to become worthy of her. The higher her virtue, the more her character, the more devoted she is to truth, justice, goodness, the more a man has to aspire to be worthy of her. The history of civilization could actually be written in terms of the level of its women. ~ Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Who is going to save our Church? Not our Bishops, not our priests and religious. It is up to the people. You have the minds, the eyes, the ears to save the Church. Your mission is to see that your priests act like priests, your bishops like bishops and your religious act like religious. ~ Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Pride is an admission of weakness; it secretly fears all competition and dreads all rivals.... Fulton John Sheen

Life is like a cash register, in that every account, every thought, every deed, like every sale, is registered and recorded.
Fulton John Sheen

The big print giveth, and the fine print taketh away.
Fulton J. Sheen

Two glasses that are empty cannot fill each other up. There must be a fountain of water outside the glasses in order that they may have communion with each other. It takes three to make love. ~ Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Quotations by G.K.Chesterton:

Several times in history the Church seemed to be done and destroyed. But it is still here. It has survived its own death, because it had a God who knew his way out of the grave.

The reformer is always right about what is wrong.
He is generally wrong about what is right.

The next great heresy is going to be simply an attack on morality, and especially on sexual morality. And the madness of tomorrow will come not from Moscow but from Manhattan...G.K. Chesterton

A dead thing can go with the stream, but only a living thing can go against it.

Wit is a sword; it is meant to make people feel the point as well as see it.

Those who call these cults "religions," and "compare" them with the certitude and challenge of the Church have much less appreciation than we have of what made heathenism human, or of why classic literature is still something that hangs in the air like a song. It is no very human tenderness for the hungry to prove that hunger is the same as food. It is no very genial understanding of youth to argue that hope destroys the need for happiness. And it is utterly unreal to argue that these images in the mind, admired entirely in the abstract, were even in the same world with a living man and a living polity that were worshipped because they were concrete... They are only different because one is real and the other is not. I do not mean merely that I myself believe that one is true and the other is not. I mean that one was never meant to be true in the same sense as the other...Gilbert K Chesterton (1874-1936),
The Everlasting Man.

If there were no GOD, there would be no atheists.
G.K Chesterton

Quotation:

Live in the world as if only God and your soul were in it;

then your heart will never be made captive by any earthly thing.
... St. John of the Cross (1542-1591), from "Spiritual Maxims".

Quotation:

Faith is to the soul what life is to the body. Prayer is to faith what breath is to the body. How a person can live and not breathe is past my comprehension, and how a person can believe and not pray is past my comprehension too... J. C. Ryle (1816-1900)

Quotation:

The life of the early Church lay in constant intercommunication between all its parts; its health and growth were dependent on the free circulation of the life-blood of common thought and feeling. Hence it was first firmly seated on the great lines of communication across the empire, leading from its origin in Jerusalem to its imperial center in Rome. It had already struck root in Rome within little more than twenty years after the Crucifixion, and it had become really strong in the great city about thirty years after the Apostles began to look round and out from Jerusalem. This marvelous development was possible only because the seed of the new thought floated free on the main currents of communication, which were ever sweeping back and forward between the heart of the empire and its outlying members. Paul, who mainly directed the great movement, threw himself boldly and confidently into the life of the time; he took the empire as it was, accepted its political conformation and arrangement, and sought only to touch the spiritual and moral life of the people.
...Sir William M. Ramsay (1851-1939)

Quotation:

If your every human plan and calculation has miscarried, if, one by one, human props have been knocked out, and doors have shut in your face, take heart. God is trying to get a message through to you, and the message is: "Stop depending on inadequate human resources. Let me handle the matter."
... Catherine Marshall (1914-1983)

Quotation:

Lazarus is permitted to see what he believed, but the rich man is compelled to see what he did not believe. Helmut Thielecke 1908-1986

Quotation:

We shall never learn to know ourselves except by endeavoring to know God, for, beholding His greatness, we realize our own littleness; His purity shows us our foulness; and by meditating upon His humility we find how very far we are from being humble.
...Teresa of Avila (1515-1582), The Interior Castle [1577]

Quotation:

The believer in God has to account for the existence of unjust suffering; the atheist has to account for the existence of everything else.
...Rabbi Milton Steinberg

Quotation:*Subject: Evolution vs Creation...

Recently my son and I were talking about the origins of humankind. He said that he was offended by the belief that man had descended from the ape family, and was adamant that we all came from Adam and Eve. I on the other hand believe Darwin's theory to be a more reasonable explanation of our evolution, and think it is ridiculous to continue teaching children the creation myth. As this discussion can go round in circles are you able to shed some light on this age old topic?

Answer:

An elderly rabbi was once on an airplane to Israel sitting next to a self-professed atheist. They were amicably chatting the whole trip. Every now and then, the rabbi's grandchild, sitting in another row, would come over to him, bringing him a drink, or asking if he could get anything to make him more comfortable. After this happened several times, the atheist sighed, "I wish my grandchildren would treat me with such respect. They hardly even say hello to me. What's your secret?"

The rabbi replied, "Think about it. To my grandchildren, I am two generations closer to Adam and Eve, the people made by the hand of G-d. So they look up to me. But according to the philosophy which you teach your grandchildren, you are two generations closer to being an ape. So why should they look up to you?"

Beliefs have consequences. Why do you think children today lack respect and are unable to honour their elders? Why is tradition looked down upon, and the values of the past all but forgotten? Is it not a natural consequence of modern education? If we teach our children that they are merely advanced animals, then they will act that way. And they will treat their parents and teachers like the obsolete versions of humanity that they are. We have to be aware of the affects of our beliefs. If we believe that humans came about by accident, then life has no meaning. There can be no meaning to something that happens by chance. A random explosion or mutation cannot give us purpose. My life, your life and all human history has no real significance whatsoever. Whether I live a good life or one full of evil makes no difference. It is all a big accident anyway.

We only have purpose if we were created on purpose. Our lives only have meaning if we were created by a meaningful being. If we teach our children that they were created on purpose with a purpose, then they will know that more is expected from them than from an animal. The Adam and Eve story needs to be taught, not just because it is true, but because it is the basis of morality. Both creationism and Darwinism require faith. To accept that G-d created man and woman requires faith. To accept that a single-celled organism spontaneously mutated billions of times to form the human being also requires faith. But only one of these beliefs demands that we live a moral life. That's the one I want my kids to know about.

Good Shabbos, Rabbi Moss

Quotation:

"Man will occasionally stumble over the truth, but most of the time he will pick himself up and hurry off as if nothing had happened."

...Sir Winston Churchill

Quotation:

"At the resurrection the substance of our bodies, however disintegrated, will be united. We must not fear that the omnipotence of God cannot recall all the particles that have been consumed by fire or by beast, or dissolved into dust and ashes, or decomposed into water, or evaporated into air.
...St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430), The City of God.

Quotation:

"Pride is an admission of weakness; it secretly fears all competition and dreads all rivals." Fulton John Sheen
"Life is like a cash register, in that every account, every thought, every deed, like every sale, is registered and recorded."

Quotation:

It is not possible ever to exhaust the mind of the Scriptures.
It is a well that has no bottom.... St. John Chrysostom (345?-407)

Quotation:

This seems a cheerful world, Donatus, when I view it from this fair garden, under the shadow of these vines. But if I climbed some great mountain and looked out over the wide lands, you know very well what I would see--brigands on the high roads, pirates on the seas; in the amphitheaters men murdered to please applauding crowds; under all roofs misery and selfishness. It is really a bad world, Donatus, an incredibly bad world. Yet in the midst of it I have found a quiet and holy people. They have discovered a joy which is a thousand times better than any pleasures of this sinful life. They are despised and persecuted, but they care not. They have overcome the world. These people, Donatus, are the Christians--and I am one of them.
...St. Cyprian (?-258)

Quotation:

The modern translator must be a close student, not only of Greek, but of the art of English translation... In every sentence he must recognize a new problem, for it must be rendered not only for itself but in such a way that its relation to the context is maintained. The best translation is one that makes the reader forget that it is a translation at all.
... Edgar J. Goodspeed (1871-1962)

Quotations from Thomas Jefferson:

When we get piled upon one another in large cities, as in Europe, we shall become as corrupt as Europe.

The democracy will cease to exist when you take away from those who are willing to work and give to those who would not.

It is incumbent on every generation to pay its own debts as it goes.

A principle which if acted on would save one-half the wars of the world.

I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them.

My reading of history convinces me that most bad government results from too much government.

No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms.

The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to keep and bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves against tyranny in government.

The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants.

To compel a man to subsidize with his taxes the propagation of ideas which he disbelieves and abhors is sinful and tyrannical.

Quotation:

Quotation:

The seven works of bodily mercy be these: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked and the needy, harbor the houseless, comfort the sick, visit prisoners, bury the dead. The seven works of spiritual mercy be these: teach men the truth, counsel men to hold with Christ's law, chastise sinners by moderate reproofing in charity, comfort sorrowful men by Christ's passion, forgive wrongs, suffer meekly reproofs for the right of God's law, pray heartily for friend and for foe. ... Middle English Sermons [1940]

Quotation:

The Bible contains:

The mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. Christ is its grand subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given to you in life, will be open at judgment, and be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor, and condemns all who trifle with its holy contents.... Author Unknown

Quotation:

One way to recollect the mind easily in the time of prayer, and preserve it more in tranquility, is not to let it wander too far at other times. You should keep it strictly in the Presence of God; and, being accustomed to think of Him often, you will find it easy to keep your mind calm in the time of prayer, or at least to recall it from its wanderings...Brother Lawrence (c.1605-1691), Practice of the Presence of God, New York, Revell, 1900, p 35-36

Quotation:

Wherever we turn in the church of God, there is Jesus. He is the beginning, middle, and end of everything to us. There is nothing good, nothing holy, nothing beautiful, nothing joyous, which He is not to His servants. No one need be poor, because, if he chooses, he can have Jesus for his own property and possession. No one need be downcast, for Jesus is the joy of heaven, and it is His joy to enter into sorrowful hearts. We can exaggerate about many things; but we can never exaggerate our obligation to Jesus, or the compassionate abundance of the love of Jesus to us. All our lives long we might talk of Jesus, and yet we should never come to an end of the sweet things that might be said of Him. Eternity will not be long enough to learn all He is, or to praise Him for all He has done--but then, that matters not; for we shall be always with Him, and we desire nothing more. Frederick W. Faber (1814-1863), All for Jesus, London:

Quotations from Pope Benedict XVI:

Who today can fail to recognize the need to make more room for the "reasons of the heart"? In a world like ours, dominated by technology, we feel the need for this feminine complementarity, so that the human race can live in the world without completely losing its humanity... It is almost always women who manage to preserve human dignity, to defend the family and to protect cultural and religious values.
...Pope Benedict XVI

From my ten years' experience I can unhesitatingly say that the Cross bears those who bear the Cross... Sadhu Sundar Singh (1889-1929)

Quotation:

Many people seek a sympathetic ear and do not find it among Christians, because these Christians are talking where they should be listening. But he who can no longer listen to one another will soon no longer be listening to God either; they will always be talking even in the presence of God. This is the beginning of the death of the spiritual life, and in the end there will be nothing left but spiritual chatter and clerical condescension arrayed in pious words, never really speaking to others... Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945).

Quotation:

One might think that with the Bible as the center of Christianity, the unity of Christians could be easily realized. Unfortunately this has not proved true, though we can consider it fortunate that, as this inability to unify proves, the letter of the Bible cannot really replace the living Christ as the center of our faith. The Bible is the expression of the life and work of God, and since "life" is greater than its manifestation, it cannot be expressed completely in any logical or theological form. Therefore, the Bible itself cannot escape being understood in many different ways. Thus we see how in the wisdom of God it is impossible in practice to make the Scriptures the end or final authority in themselves, for they only express God's authority to those who live in fellowship with the Spirit.
Kokichi Kurosaki (1886-1970), One Body in Christ, Kobe, Japan: Eternal Life Press, 1954, ch. 3

Quotation:

In vain does any man pretend that he will be a martyr for his religion, when he will not rule an appetite, nor restrain a lust, nor subdue a passion, nor cross his covetousness and ambition, for the sake of it, and in hope of that eternal life which God that cannot lie hath promised. He that refuseth to do the less is not like to do the greater. It is very improbable that a man will die for his religion, when he cannot be persuaded to live according to it. He that cannot take up a resolution to live a saint, hath a demonstration within himself, that he is never like to die a martyr.

Quotation:

Bibles read without prayer; sermons heard without prayer; marriages contracted without prayer; journeys undertaken without prayer; residences chosen without prayer; friendships formed without prayer; the daily act of prayer itself hurried over, or gone through without heart: these are the kind of downward steps by which many a Christian descends to a condition of spiritual palsy, or reaches the point where God allows them to have a tremendous fall.

Is There Life After Death?

I find it to be extremely fascinating that science is proving the Bible to be true.

Take cosmology for instance. When I first heard about the "Big Bang" theory many years ago, it was said that all of the material, whatever it was before the big bang, would fit in a space the size of our solar system. Over the years that theorized space has been steadily shrinking to the size of an atom and now it is thought to be even smaller than an atom. Holy Scripture has said that GOD created everything out of nothing (Heb 11:3). It would appear to me that the next step for science would be to concur. One of the meanings of the word 'create' is 'to bring into existence' (Gen 1:1).

Now, many sources are saying that there is growing evidence that there is indeed life after death. How many years of research and billions of dollars could have been saved if only the scientists had read and believed in Holy Scripture to begin with?

However on the other hand, it is probably a good thing for believers, and especially for atheists and agnostics, that science is working to prove that the Bible is in fact, true after all.

I thought maybe I could give science a helping hand by showing that Holy Scripture does indeed say that there is life after death and that we will live for ever.

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

John 6:51, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh."

John 6:57-58, "As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me. (58) This is the bread which came down from heaven, not such as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live for ever."

Psalms 37:25-28, "I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging bread. (26) He is ever giving liberally and lending, and his children become a blessing. (27) Depart from evil, and do good; so shall you abide for ever. (28) For the LORD loves justice; he will not forsake his saints. The righteous shall be preserved for ever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off."

Revelation 14:9-11, "And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If any one worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, (10) he also shall drink the wine of God's wrath, poured unmixed into the cup of his anger, and he shall be tormented with fire and sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. (11) And the smoke of their torment goes up for ever and ever; and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name."

Psalms 23:1-6, "A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want; (2) he makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; (3) he restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. (4) Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. (5) Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil, my cup overflows. (6) Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever."

Psalms 132:11-12, "The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne. (12) If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies which I shall teach them, their sons also for ever shall sit upon your throne."

Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death for ever, and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; for the LORD has spoken."

Luke 20:34-38, "And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage; (35) but those who are accounted worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, (36) for they cannot die any more, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (37) But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. (38) Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to him."

John 5:24-29, "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (25) "Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (26) For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself, (27) and has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of man. (28) Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice (29) and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment."

John 11:23-27, "Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." (4) Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." (5) Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, (26) and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" (27) She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world."

John 14:18-20, "I will not leave you desolate; I will come to you. (19) Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more, but you will see me; because I live, you will live also. (20) In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you."

Romans 1:17, "For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, "He who through faith is righteous shall live."

Romans 6:8, "But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him."

Romans 8:12-13, "So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh- - (13) for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live." 2Corinthians 5:1, "For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Galatians 3:11, "Now it is evident that no man is justified before God by the law; for "He who through faith is righteous shall live";"

Luke 16:1-31...

One of the best life after death stories in Holy Scripture is the story of the rich man and Lazarus. Take the time to read the whole chapter.

Here is the gist of some of what is presented therein:

- 1. It is the story of two men, one rich and one poor.
- 2. The poor man, Lazarus, died and was taken to the 'bosom of Abraham' (Heaven).
- 3. The rich man died and was languishing in hell.
- 4. Not only does this story illustrate that there is life after death, but it also speaks of where their living souls will spend eternity.

Philippians 1:21-23, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. (22) If it is to be life in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. (23) I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better."

Those are three profound verses that require a closer look:

Verse 21 as interpreted in other Bibles:

'If I live, it will be for Christ, and if I die, I will gain even more.'

Or:

'Christ means everything to me in this life, and when I die I'll have even more.'

Verse 22 as interpreted in other Bibles:

'If I continue to live in this life, my work will produce more results. I don't know which I would prefer.'

Or:

'If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.'

Verse 23 as interpreted in other Bibles:

'I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better.'

Or:

'I find it hard to choose between the two. I would like to leave this life and be with Christ. That's by far the better choice.'

Elucidation of Philippians 1:21-23:

- 1. (21) St. Paul has said as long as he is alive he can do good works for Christ.
- 2. But if he died, it would be a plus for himself.
- 3, How could it be advantageous for himself if there is no life after death?
- 4. (22) He said as long as he lives, his good works for Christ will increase.
- 5. Yet he has indecision between doing good works for Christ in this life or being with Him in the next.
- 6. (23) He finds himself in a dilemma, but much prefers (to die) and to be with Christ.

Which choice would you make?

Obviously those who do not believe in life after death are not Bible reading or Bible believing persons.

However there is mounting scientific evidence that they are in error in their beliefs.

---

Life after death experiences:

Mother Angelica of EWTN fame once told of her experience while enduring a serious medical condition.

She recounted on one of her programs as seeing her own soul leaving her body and returning, not once but three times.

She said she thought the three times meant that each person of the Holy Trinity had told her soul to return to her body, as it was not yet her time.

There are so many testaments by people who have clinically died, been pronounced dead by doctors, but yet came back to life.

What they have to say about their experiences are strikingly similar.

Many recount passing through a tunnel with a bright light at the end and being told that it is not their time and they must go back.

They say that they did not want to come back because they experienced a preview of something far better than their life here on earth.

Others recount out of body experiences that are also strikingly similar.

They feel their soul leaving their body, and being suspended over it, and looking down and observing everything that is happening to it.

The most noteworthy example of this that I have ever read was of a 35 year old woman who had to have an extremely dangerous brain operation.

It was so dangerous that the doctors had to lower her body temperature, stop her heart and breathing, and drain the blood from her head, rendering her clinically dead.

Her soul left her body and it watched the whole operation while being suspended over it.

She did survive and described with great accuracy and detail what the doctors did, the instruments they used, and other particulars that she could only have known had she been a conscious living person watching the whole procedure.

What is so remarkable about this story is that the doctors had to induce death purposely in order to operate at all.

Not one of the non-believers theories and excuses can explain away this story.

Death is not the end. It is however, the end of life on earth as we know it and the beginning of life eternal.

What would be the purpose of religion if not for the promise of everlasting life?

---

Here are some memorable one-liners from my dear unforgettable Fr Dwyer (1923-2005).

I include them here in order to possibly exercise your thinking:

If death were the end, then every grave would only be a king sized ash tray.

Once you open the door to error, you cannot close it.

There was only one person born to die, CHRIST.

HE said, "I Am The Life". They killed life and life conquered death.

Our brain is too small, too puny, too tiny, too finite, too limited, to grasp the meaning of eternity.

Death makes all people equal.

Truth is one. The opposite is error, and error can be sincere and earnest, but it is still error and is still wrong.

Atheists and agnostics are sniping at the religious front.

Do not give them the answer. Instead, let them reason it out for themselves.

This world is not our home.

This world is not where it's at.

If we do not pay close attention to GOD, there could be sudden death and we end up in the wrong eternity.

Which is in control, the body or the soul?

Children (babies) swallow things, pins, coins, screws. Adults swallow heresy, cliché's, error, and why not, everyone does it.

One day we will all go to the cemetery and not come back.

The dead man in the casket said to the mourner, "As I am now, so you will be".

Be stepping stones, not stumbling blocks.

We have the world's way, and we have GOD'S way. Which will you choose?

We have bodily needs and spiritual needs, take care of the whole person.

Success doesn't come in buckets, cups, or glasses. It comes in CANS.

Death is a bridge to the eternal shore.

If we die turned away from GOD, then we are turned away forever.

You live for eternity and you have to choose where you want to live.

A priest visited a rabbi in the rabbis' home. When he entered the house he noticed the rabbi had hardly any furniture.

He asked the rabbi where his furniture was. The rabbi asked "Where is yours?"

The priest answered "But I am only a visitor here." The rabbi answered "So am I."

The world will end someday but our spirit will last for all eternity.

How can a unique creature like man exist for only a few years?

We are citizens of Heaven, not of earth.

To do great things a stream of thought must rush through the mind.

Each one of us has a soul to save and GOD to obey.

In eternity, second best is hell.

If we are citizens of Heaven, then we have the right to all that Heaven has to offer.

The only street out of life is the dusty one at the end of which CHRIST is holding the scales of life.

There is none so blind as those who don't want to see.

It is impossible, impossible, impossible, to be happy without GOD.

We are as fickle as a feather, blown by every wind of temptation.

Many are on the broad highways to hell.

Our limited minds cannot grasp an unlimited GOD.

HE lets us free to go to hell if we want to.

Don't be anxious about the future or the past. We have only now, one second at a time. I might not have the time to finish this homily.

Religion is necessary to let us see what we are and what we should be.

After CHRIST rose from the dead, Peter said, "Let's go fishing". He did not get the message. JOHN 21:3

Sincerity will not change 'error' into 'truth'.

How many exercise the body and forget the soul?

We are going to heaven. In this life we are just packing our bags for the journey.

The devil hates everyone who is on their way to Heaven.

I came in with nothing. I will go out with nothing.
The letters after your name (a degree) mean a lot, but it is the letters before your name (ST) that count.
Life is a journey and like any journey we must prepare for it.
If you do something for GOD, HE will repay you a hundred times over.
Sin lit the fires of hell, closed the gates of Heaven and nailed GOD to the Cross.
We take with us only what we send on before us.
Don't protect others from problems. Instead, help them to resolve them.
Greater love hath no man than to give his life for his friend, but GOD did. HE gave HIS life for HIS enemies.
It is absolute necessary to keep GOD in focus if we want to live forever with HIM in eternity.
You have to plant a seed and let GOD make it grow.
There is a way of saying these things and no other way will do.
How casually we take the incredible for granted.
One ounce of mother equals one pound of clergy.
The headstone is ahead of us.
The only way to describe Heaven is to say it is indescribable.
We travel on the rocky road to Heaven with many bumps along the way.
We don't know. GOD doesn't let us know, who goes to Heaven.
Ask yourself, what would CHRIST think of the things you want to do.

Quotation:

"None can become fit for the future life, who hath not practiced himself for it now...." St. Augustine (354-430), Ps. CXLVIII

Quotation:

"The world is rapidly being divided into two camps, the comradeship of anti-Christ and the brotherhood of Christ. The lines between these two are being drawn. How long the battle will be we know not; whether swords will have to be unsheathed we know not; whether blood will have to be shed we know not; whether it will be an armed conflict we know not. But in a conflict between truth and darkness, truth cannot lose."

Quotation:

"If there were no GOD, there would be no atheists."

G.K Chesterton

The Bible contains:

"The mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy. It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. It's where paradise is restored, Heaven opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. Christ is its grand subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet. Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, a paradise of glory, and a river of pleasure. It is given to you in life, will be open at judgment, and be remembered forever. It involves the highest responsibility, rewards the greatest labor, and condemns all who trifle with its holy contents." Author unknown

Quotation:

"Wherever we turn in the church of God, there is Jesus. He is the beginning, middle, and end of everything to us. There is nothing good, nothing holy, nothing beautiful, nothing joyous, which He is not to His servants. No one need be poor, because, if he chooses, he can have Jesus for his own property and possession. No one need be downcast, for Jesus is the joy of heaven, and it is His joy to enter into sorrowful hearts. We can exaggerate about many things; but we can never exaggerate our obligation to Jesus, or the compassionate abundance of the love of Jesus to us. All our lives long we might talk of Jesus, and yet we should never come to an end of the sweet things that might be said of Him. Eternity will not be long enough to learn all He is, or to praise Him for all He has done--but then, that matters not; for we shall be

...Thomas a Kempis (1380-1471), Of the Imitation of Christ.

Quotation:

"We were made for action, and for right action--for thought, and for true thought. Let us live while we live; let us be alive and doing; let us act on what we have, since we have not what we wish. Let us believe what we do not see and know. Let us forestall knowledge by faith. Let us maintain before we have proved. This seeming paradox is the secret of happiness. Why should we be unwilling to go by faith? We do all things in this world by faith in the word of others. By faith only we know our position in the world, our circumstances, our rights and privileges, our fortunes, our parents, our brothers and sisters, our age, our mortality. Why should religion be an exception? Why should we be unwilling to use for heavenly objects what we daily use for earthly?"

Every now and then, the rabbi's grandchild, sitting in another row, would come over to him, bringing him a drink, or asking if he could get anything to make him more comfortable. After this happened several times, the atheist sighed, "I wish my grandchildren would treat me with such respect. They hardly even say hello to me. What's your secret?"

The rabbi replied, "Think about it. To my grandchildren, I am two generations closer to Adam and Eve, the people made by the hand of G-d. So they look up to me. But according to the philosophy which you teach your grandchildren, you are two generations closer to being an ape. So why should they look up to you?" Rabbi Moss

Quotation:

"The life of the early Church lay in constant intercommunication between all its parts; its health and growth were dependent on the free circulation of the life-blood of common thought and feeling. Hence it was first firmly seated on the great lines of communication across the empire, leading from its origin in Jerusalem to its imperial center in Rome. It had already struck root in Rome within little more than twenty years after the Crucifixion, and it had become really strong in the great city about thirty years after the Apostles began to look round and out from Jerusalem. This marvelous development was possible only because the seed of the new thought floated free on the main currents of communication, which were ever sweeping back and forward between the heart of the empire and its outlying members. Paul, who mainly directed the great movement, threw himself boldly and confidently into the life of the time; he took the empire as it was, accepted its political conformation and arrangement, and sought only to touch the spiritual and moral life of the people."

Where Are We Today?

---

It would seem that many of us are firmly in the camp of the smiley one above...

---

We are in Isaiah 5:20...

"Woe to you that call evil good and good evil; that put darkness for light and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Anyone who watches the news can see this immediately. What has happened in the highest levels of our government?

---

We are in Revelation 2:14...

"But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, that they might eat and commit fornication."

How about looking all around us. There are stumbling blocks to Christianity everywhere. Whatever happened to morality?

We are there in Rev 2:14.

---

We are in 2Timothy 3:1-9...

"But know this, that in the last days dangerous times will come. Men will be lovers of self, covetous, haughty, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, criminal, heartless, faithless, slanderers, incontinent, merciless, unkind, treacherous, stubborn, puffed up with pride, loving pleasure more than GOD, having a semblance indeed of piety, but disowning its power. Avoid these.
For of such are they who make their way into houses and captivate silly women who are sin-laden and led away by various lusts: ever learning yet never attaining knowledge of the truth. Just as Jamnes and Mambres resisted Moses, so these men also resist the truth, for they are corrupt in mind, reprobate as regards the faith. But they will make no further progress, for their folly will be obvious to all, as was that of those others."

He who has eyes to see, let him see. The signs are all around us.

---

We are in 2Peter 2:4-10...

(4) "For GOD did not spare the angels when they sinned, but dragged them down by infernal ropes to Tartarus (hell), and delivered them to be tortured and kept in custody for judgment. (5) Nor did He spare the ancient world, but preserved (with seven others) Noah a herald of justice, when He brought a flood upon the world of the impious. (6) And He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction, reducing them to ashes, THUS MAKING THEM AN EXAMPLE TO THOSE WHO IN THE FUTURE SHOULD LIVE IMPIOUSLY; (7) whereas He delivered just Lot, who was distressed by the lawless behavior of the wicked. (8) For by what that just man saw and heard while dwelling among them, they tormented his just soul with their wicked deeds. (9) The Lord knows how to deliver the GOD fearing from temptation and to reserve the wicked for torment on the day of judgment, (10) BUT ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO FOLLOW THE FLESH IN UNCLEAN LUST AND DESPISE AUTHORITY."

Wow! Did St. Peter write this yesterday or almost 2000 years ago? Are not those "who in the future live impiously", those of the world today? The family with the blessings of marriage is going the way of the dinosaur. Living in sin without the benefit of marriage is the "norm" today. Abortion, homosexuality and contraception are rampant, and if anyone dares to try to speak with 'authority', he or she is either trashed or is ignored. The Pope and the Bishops speak, but few seem to listen....that is except for the "remnant that will be saved", Romans 11:1-6. It is obvious that we are definitely in 2Peter 2:4-10. Now are we going to band together and turn this situation around, or are we doing to succumb to the inevitable in verse # 6?

We are in 2Thessalonians 2:3-12...

"Let no one deceive you in any way (deceit is all around us these days), for the Day of the Lord will not come unless the apostasy comes first (happening now), and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and is exalted above all that is called GOD, or that is worshiped, so that he sits in the temple of GOD and gives himself out as if he were GOD... And now you know what restrains him that he may be revealed in his proper time. For the mystery of iniquity is already at work; provided only that he who is at present restraining it, does still restrain, until he is gotten out of the way. And then the wicked one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will slay with the breath of His mouth and will destroy with the brightness of His coming. And His coming is according to the working of satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all wicked deception to those who are perishing. For they have not received the love of truth that they might be saved. Therefore GOD sends them a misleading influence that they may believe falsehood, that all may be judged who have not believed the truth, but have preferred wickedness."

Who is, 'He who is at present restraining it', Pope Benedict XVI?
It is entirely possible, but how many of us are listening to him and supporting him as we should be doing?

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Are You an Engine or a Caboose ?

---

Are you a conformist?

Do you simply go along with the crowd by following in the same direction that someone else has set?

In other words, are you simply acting like a caboose being pulled along at the end of a train with someone else setting the destination by acting as the engine?

GOD gave each of us a brain and a mind with which to think, to analyze, and to test, everything independently of others.

He also gave each of us common sense and the power to reason.

How many of us have put these great gifts to good use, and how many of us have failed to do so?

Those that use these gifts are the true engines of this world and those that fail to do so are the cabooses.

The source of power in a train is its engine. The caboose is simply dragged along for the ride. The engine is the leader. The caboose is the follower.

However, it is to be noted that some who think they are engines are deficient in common sense and / or reasoning power, but are articulate in that they try to fool those who fail to even try to use these gifts from GOD.

---

Let us see what Holy Scripture teaches us regarding common sense and reasoning power, or the lack of either or both.

See if you can distinguish common sense and / or reasoning power in each of the following verses?

Romans 2:15, "They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or perhaps excuse them."

Romans 16:18, "For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by fair and flattering words they deceive the hearts of the simple-minded."

2Corinthians 1:20-22, "For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why we utter the Amen through him, to the glory of God.

(21) But it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has commissioned us;

(22) he has put his seal upon us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee."

2Corinthians 3:2-3, "You are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is known and read by all men:

(3) Being manifested, that you are the epistle of Christ, ministered by us, and written: not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone but in the fleshly tables of the heart."

2Corinthians 4:6-7, "For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. (7) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us."

Philippians 4:6-8, "Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (7) And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (8) Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

1Thessalonians 2:3-4, "For our appeal does not spring from error or uncleanness, nor is it made with guile; (4) but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please men, but to please God who tests our hearts."

2Thessalonians 2:16-17, "Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, (17) comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word."

2Thessalonians 3:5, "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ."

1Timothy 6:10, "For the love of money is the root of all evils; it is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced their hearts with many pangs."

Hebrews 8:10, "This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people."

Hebrews 10:16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,"

James 3:14, "But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth."

James 4:8, "Draw near to God and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you men of double mind."

1Peter 3:14-17, "But even if you do suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, (15) but in your hearts reverence Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to make a defense to any one who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence; (16) and keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are abused, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. (17) For it is better to suffer for doing right, if that should be God's will, than for doing wrong."

1John 3:17-22, "But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (18) Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth. (19) By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him (20) whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. (21) Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; (22) and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him."

Romans 12:2, "And be not conformed to this world: but be reformed in the newness of your mind, that you may prove what is the good and the acceptable and the perfect will of God."

---

---

We must put it all to the test:

"Test everything; hold fast what is good."

1Thessalonians 5:21

Does that sound like what a follower, like a caboose blindly being dragged along by an engine, should do?

That verse was written for each and everyone of us to obey.

2Corinthians 13:5, "Examine yourselves, to see whether you are holding to your faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you?--unless indeed you fail to meet the test!"

Galatians 6:3-5, "For if any one thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. (4) But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. (5) For each man will have to bear his own load."

1Thessalonians 5:19-22, "Do not quench the Spirit, (20) do not despise prophesying, (21) but test everything; hold fast what is good, (22) abstain from every form of evil."

Hebrews 3:7-11, "Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, when you hear his voice, (8) do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, (9) where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. (10) Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, 'They always go astray in their hearts; they have not known my ways.' (11) As I swore in my wrath, 'They shall never enter my rest.'"

James 1:12, "Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love him."

1John 4:1, "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world."

Psalms 26:2, "Prove me, O LORD, and try me; test my heart and my mind."

Lamentations 3:40, "Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD!"

---

---

It is to be noted that not all of us are an engine and not all of us are a caboose.

Some are born leaders and others are born followers.

Some are in between. There are some of each. GOD Made us that way.

Regardless of which group to which we belong, we are obligated to use the gifts we have received.

We must use our GOD given common sense and reasoning power to question, analyze, and test all things that we encounter in this life and not to live life by blindly following the leader.

---

Are you an engine or a caboose?

LITANY OF HUMILITY:

*O' Jesus, meek and humble of heart, hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed...*

Deliver me Jesus...

*From the desire of being loved...
From the desire of being extolled...
From the desire of being honored...
From the desire of being praised...
From the desire of being preferred to others...
From the desire of being consulted...
From the desire of being approved...
From the fear of being humiliated...
From the fear of being despised...
From the fear of suffering rebukes...
From the fear of being calumniated...
From the fear of being forgotten...
From the fear of being ridiculed...
From the fear of being wronged...
From the fear of being suspected,*

Deliver me Jesus...

---

*That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be esteemed more than I...
That in the opinion of the world, others may increase, and I may decrease...
That others may be chosen and I set aside...
That others may be praised and I unnoticed...
That others may be preferred to me in everything...
That others become holier than I, provided that I may become holy as I should,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.*

Twas the Night Before Jesus Came...

---

Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house, not a creature was praying, not one in the house.

Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care, In hopes that Jesus would never come there.

The children were dressing to crawl into bed, not one ever kneeling or bowing a head.

And Mom in her rocker with baby on lap, was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.

When out of the East there arose such a clatter. I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a flash, tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!

When what to my wondering eyes should appear, but angels proclaiming that Jesus was here.

With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray, I knew in a moment this must be THEE DAY!

The light of His face made me cover my head, It was Jesus returning just like He had said.

And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth, I cried when I saw Him in spite of myself.

In the Book of Life which He held in His hand, was written the name of every saved man.

He spoke not a word as He searched for my name; When He said "It's not here" my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love, He gathered to take to His Father above.

With those who were ready He rose without sound, while all of the rest were left standing around.

I fell to my knees, but it was too late, I had waited too long and thus sealed my fate.

I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight; Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.

In the words of this poem the meaning is clear, the coming of Lord Jesus is drawing near.
There is only one life and when comes the last call, we will find that the Bible was true after all!

Simple Questions If You Think About Them First, Hard Questions If You Do Not!

These questions are designed to make you think.

---

---

1. Who was the first person to call Mary Blessed?
    - a. Peter
    - b. Luke
    - c. Gabriel
    - d. Elizabeth
    - e. None of the above

  2. What is the form of government under which the Catholic Church operates?
    - a. Republic
    - b. Democratic
    - c. Socialist
    - d. Libertarian
    - e. The Catholic Church does not operate under a form of government
    - f. None of the above

  3. What is the person of Jesus Christ?
    - a. He is a human person.
    - b. He is a Divine person.
    - c. He is both a human person and a Divine person.
    - d. He is neither a human person or a Divine person.

  4. Does GOD obey any human person on earth?
    - a. No
    - b. Yes

  5. Is there anything man made in Heaven?
    - a. Yes
    - b. No

Answers;

1. e. None of the above

If you said Gabriel (Luke 1:28), he was the second person to call Mary blessed. Why second? Think about it?

Who is Gabriel? He is an angel. What does the word 'angel' mean? It means 'messenger'.

Gabriel delivered a message from the first person to call her blessed. Gabriel was sent from GOD.

This question leads us to another related question;

Since GOD called her blessed, why is it that our non-Catholic brothers and sisters refuse to do so?

Note!

The word 'blessed' in Luke 1:28 wherein the answer lies, is used in these Protestant Bibles: kj, cev, litv, gnb, web, and in these Catholic Bibles: vulgate, geneva, drb, confraternity, rsv-ce.

2. f. None of the above

The Catholic Church is a Theocracy.

We are the body, Ephesians 1:22-23, 4:11-12, 5:30, Colossians 1:18, 1:24

Jesus Christ is the head. Ephesians 4:15, 5:23, Colossians 1:18

The Holy Spirit guides the Catholic Church.

John 14:16-17, "And I will ask the Father and He will give you another

Advocate to dwell with you forever, the Spirit of Truth whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knowa him."

John 14:26, "But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."

John 15:26, "But when the Counselor comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness to me; and you also are witnesses, because you have been with me from the beginning."

John 16:12-15, "I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

John 20:22, "When He had said this, He breathed upon them and said to them,

"Receive the Holy Spirit..."

So in a Theocracy, it is the head that tells the body what to do.

The question of Theocracies leads us to another related question;

How many Christian Theocracies are there? How many can there be? Think about it?

How many GOD's are there?

Since there is only one GOD, there can be only one Christian Theocracy.

Truth is one in Jesus Christ who said in John 14:6, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life."

Since there is only one Jesus Christ and one truth, there is only one Theocracy, and it is the Church that Jesus Christ founded.

And yet we are led to still another question;

What then are the governments of the 40,000+ non-Catholic sects that call themselves Christian?

The ones that I have researched are akin to democracies, where a vote of the body tells the head what to do.

Is that what Jesus Christ wanted His followers to do? If you answered yes, then please show me the verses proving it?

3. b

4. b

Yes GOD obeys His Catholic priests when during the Mass, the priest calls down "The Word" with his word. During the consecration when the priest takes the host and says, "This is my body", GOD transubstantiates the bread into His Body. When the priest says "This is my blood", GOD transubstantiates the wine into His Blood.

Can you think of other occasions where GOD obeys His priests?

5. a

Yes, the five wounds of Jesus Christ.

Lenny and Denny and the Curse of Addiction!

Lenny the lion was caged in a zoo. He spent the rest of his life roaring as lions do, and pacing back and forth in his cramped quarters without any hope of being set free. Lenny is caged because he has an addiction. He is a dangerous wild animal, is unpredictable, and is a meat eater. He therefore cannot be trusted to be with human beings so that they will be perfectly safe in his company.

However, Lenny's addiction is not of his own fault as it is, so to speak, "The nature of the beast". Lenny's cage has a door with which to pass in or to pass out. Unfortunately for Lenny, that door has a lock on it and Lenny has no key. Because of his addiction, the zoo keeper has charge of the "key".

Lanny however, another lion, spent his life performing in the circus. Unlike the caged Lenny, Lanny was free simply because he had kept his addiction under control under the 'direction of his trainer' (teacher), who also has a 'key'.

This little story parallels those persons who are confined by an addiction of one kind or another. I have no need to list the various kinds of addiction, for I am sure we are all familiar with them. Being addicted means being caged in such confinement as Lenny, with no key, and with no hope of being set free purely by self help. But then, Lenny too could be set free with the help of his keeper who has the 'key'.

The human person addict (let us call him Denny), is addicted not because it is 'the nature of the beast', but because his addictive nature (habit) was acquired through his own free will.

Throughout Holy Scripture, GOD and His antithesis, Satan (or the devil), are both competing for our souls. GOD is constantly knocking at our door:

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me."

Revelation 3:20

GOD is calling us to Himself and to eternal salvation.

Satan, however, not unlike Lenny the roaring lion is:

"...Your adversary the devil (who) prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking some one to devour."

1Peter 5:8

Satan is calling us to himself and to eternal damnation.

Addiction is the price we pay when we have responded to the call of Satan.

Those who are trapped in the "cage of addiction" cannot free themselves but they can call upon their "keeper, trainer, teacher" for the 'key' to free them.

Who has the 'key'?

Let us turn to Holy Scripture for the answer:

"And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it. I will give you the 'keys' of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Matthew 16:18-19

So it is the Church which Jesus Christ founded, and its visible head on earth, Peter, who has a set of the 'keys', in addition to Jesus Christ Himself.

So how is the addict to be set free from his addiction?

Again, we turn to Holy Scripture:

"Jesus then said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free"."

John 8:31-32 (RSV)

Please note what those verses really said:

If you KNOW the truth, it will set you free. Truth itself will not set you free if you do not have it.

So Denny, to be free of your addiction, turn to Jesus Christ and to His body which is the Catholic Church, and there you will find the key to freedom.

Your Lesson For The Day...

---

---

Here are a few little email tidbits that I have sent out from time to time.
I call them 'Your Lesson For the Day'.

---

In making my way through the O.T. slowly for a third time I have run across some interesting things. Jer 23 is a must read for a wealth of info.

I can see these false profits (misspelled on purpose) all over the place today, as scripture describes when GOD said, 'not sent by Me'.. Jeremiah 23:16, 21, 25, 30, 31, 32

Also compare Jer 23:29 with Lk 24:32. Interesting reading to say the least.

---

Let those who say that Mary had other children because the Bible mentions the brothers (brethren) of Jesus, explain this verse to you.

1Chronicles 23:22,

"And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them."

A quote from the King James bible.

Whose brethren???

Did the brethren marry their blood sisters???

---

Quotation:

"To a great extent the level of any civilization is the level of its womanhood. When a man loves a woman, he has to become worthy of her. The higher her virtue, the more her character, the more devoted she is to truth, justice, goodness, the more a man has to aspire to be worthy of her. The history of civilization could actually be written in terms of the level of its women."

~ Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Mat 23:1, Then said Jesus to the crowds and to his disciples,

Mat 23:2 "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat;

Mat 23:3 so practice and observe whatever they tell you, but not what they do; for they preach, but do not practice.

Mat 23:4 They bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger.

Mat 23:5 They do all their deeds to be seen by men; for they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long,

Mat 23:6 and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues,"

Sounds like our congress at work to me.

I wonder if any of those few hundred in office ever read the Bible, or much less see themselves in those verses?

1Timothy 4:16 "Take heed to yourself and to your teaching; hold to that, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers."

Compare with James 5:19-20.

Quotation

"Jesus of Nazareth, without money and arms, conquered more millions than Alexander, Caesar, Mahomet, and Napoleon; without science and learning, He shed more light on things human and divine than all philosophers and schools combined; without the eloquence of schools, He spoke words of life such as never were spoken before or since, and produced effects which lie beyond the reach of any orator or poet; without writing a single line, He has set more pens in motion, and furnished themes for more sermons, orations, discussions, learned volumes, works of art and sweet songs of praise, than the whole army of great men of ancient and modern times. Born in a manger, and crucified as a malefactor, He now controls the destinies of the civilized world, and rules a spiritual empire which embraces one-third of the inhabitants of the globe. There never was in this world a life so unpretending, modest, and lowly in its outward form and condition, and yet producing such extraordinary effects upon all ages, nations, and classes of men. The annals of history produce no other example of such complete and astonishing success in spite of the absence of those material, social, literary, and artistic powers and influences which are indispensable to success for a mere man."

2Chronicles 8:11 "And he removed the daughter of Pharaoh from the city of David, to the house which he had built for her. For the king said: My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, for it is sanctified because the ark of the Lord came into it."

Now, with what can you equate this statement to the New Ark of the Covenant?

A hint!

The Lord came into the New Ark (Lk 1:38, 2:6-7), so the BVM is sanctified as well. Like Uzziah who was zapped by GOD for touching the wooden ark (2Sam 6:2-8) now equate that to the New Ark.

Regarding scandals in the Church:

How do we reconcile them with the holiness of the Church?

Answer:

"The Church isn't holy because of us. It is holy because of Him."

Fr Corapi.

---

The woman of Revelation 12 is said to be the Church and not the Blessed Virgin Mary, so some non-Catholics like to say.

Regarding this, Fr Mitch Pacwa mentioned this:

Rev 12:5 proves them to be absolutely wrong:

"Rev 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her son was taken up to God and to his throne."

The Church did not bring forth Jesus Christ. Just the opposite, Christ brought forth the Church.

---

According to an old saying:

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

Are you saved?

Some non-Catholic sects teach that as long as you accept Jesus Christ you are saved since He died on the cross for all of our sins, past, present and future. This means to them that no matter how many sins they commit, they are still saved.

A reply from Mother Angelica on the subject:

"Yes but what did Jesus say to the woman caught in adultery?"

John 8:10 Jesus looked up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

John 8:11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go, and do not sin again."

---

Even in the Old Testament good works were beneficial for salvation:

2Chronicles 12:12, "But yet because they were humbled, the wrath of the Lord turned away from them, and they were not utterly destroyed: for even in Juda there were found good works."

A request from a friend:

Remember also being told this in Catholic grammar school Bob, way back in the 50's. As I recall it had something to do at the "Final" judgement when the book of names was opened in Heaven and we would be able to see our sins and the sins of others. Never really gave it much thought...in those days we pretty much accepted what we were taught. I guess just another wonderful display of Gods great love and Divine Mercy for us ....all who are sinners and really don't deserve to be in His Almighty presence. I'll be anxious to hear the actual teaching on this.

All Gods blessings.....Val

Here it is Val:

Here is the answer. Remember that in those days the nuns taught from the Baltimore Catechism, many years before the CCC was released. That is not to say that the Baltimore was wrong.

I went to Tim Staples with the question and here is his excellent response:

The Church has taught infallibly that there will be both a particular judgment of every individual and a general judgment where all will be judged publicly and before all. Dr. Ludwig Ott, in his book, "Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma, gives an excellent treatment of this on pages 492ff. But this must be understood properly. This will not be a matter of everybody "being concerned with other people's sins." This will be a glorious celebration of God's justice and mercy that we will see to be absolutely one in God. We will see with God's eyes, so to speak, and with God's heart. We will only rejoice in God's mercy and forgiveness and what God has done in the elect and we will only rejoice in God's justice in those who are damned. We will be able to see that all is good, right and just. Just as we can feel good about a person guilty of murder going to prison for life because that is good (this is not out of vengeance, but out of a sense of justice. We do not rejoice in the person being deprived of freedom, etc., we rejoice in the justice of it all), we will rejoice at the fact that those who will go to Hell will deserve it. In fact, if a person who was unrepentant and deserved Hell were to not go to Hell that would be an injustice.

---

Quotation:

"While those who give scandal are guilty of the spiritual equivalent of murder [i.e., destroying other people's faith in God by their terrible example], those who take scandal, who allow scandals to destroy their faith are guilty of spiritual suicide."

More on the 'brothers' of Jesus.

1Chronicles 26:30: "Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, seventeen hundred able men, were overseers of Israel on the other side of the Jordan, to the west, being responsible for all the work of the Lord's house and for the work done by the king's servants."

Hashabiah had seventeen hundred brothers???

How did his mother ever manage that in one lifetime?

Maybe his father had 10 wives and each had 170 sons??? Or 100 wives with each having 17 sons??? Well then in either case there would be many half brothers, right?

What about daughters? Did their mother only have sons?

Oh well, let us tell those who say that Mary had other children, figure it out.

---

On the subject of female priests:

1Timothy 3:12:

"Deacons should be men who have been married but once..." (Catholic Confraternity version)

"Let deacons be the husband of one wife, and let them manage their children and their households well..." (RSV)

That verse clearly shows that a deacon must be a male, not a female.

Now remember, for a priest to become a priest, he must first pass through the diaconate.

So it seems to me that this is an excellent verse to use against those who call for female priests.

Sirach 4:11

"And thou shalt be as the obedient son of the most High, and he will have mercy on thee more than a mother."

It is to be noted that Sirach was written about 200 years before Jesus the Christ was born.

Ecc 10:19 Men prepare bread for laughter, and wine and oil that the living should rejoice: but to money all things will humbly yield obedience....Septuagint

Ecc 10:19 For laughter they make bread, and wine that the living may feast: and all things obey money.....Douay

Hmmm, sounds like a perfectly fitting verse for what is happening today.

What is the difference between a disciple and an Apostle?

Jesus separated those two terms here:

Luke 6:13: "And when it was day, he called his disciples, and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles;"

Here is a clip from the Haydock commentary:

Ver. 6:13. These twelve Christ chose as individual companions and domestics. To these he committed the charge of founding and governing his Church. He sent them as legates, or ambassadors, (for this is the import of the word apostle) to all the world. Hence their power was more universal than that of bishops, which is confined to their own dioceses or districts. The jurisdiction of the apostles was not limited to place. (Tirinus) --- This power which Jesus Christ delegated to his apostles, and which was for the benefit and regulation of the universal Church in all future ages, the apostles, in their turn, delegated to their successors in the ministry, with such regulations and limitations as have been judged in the Holy Ghost necessary for the proper government of the spiritual kingdom of God upon earth. And it is the height of presumption to question any ordinations that come to us with the authority of the Catholic Church: for, "whatever the Church says, is true; whatever she permits is lawful; whatever she forbids, is evil; whatever she ordains, is holy; whatever she institutes, is good." (St. Augustine) --- How futile then is the objection of Calvin, who pretends, that an apostle, being nothing but a legate, can make no laws, nor prescribe or teach any thing not expressed in his mandatum! (Calvin, Institutes lib. iv. chap. 8)

Have You Ever Noticed...

❁...that the Bible is one continuous story from beginning to end?

*It is the story of GOD's Salvation History with mankind. Some say the Old Testament is immaterial now that we are in the New Covenant. This could not be further from the truth, as the Old Testament has hidden within it the New Testament. It is an invaluable helper for the understanding of Scripture. Within its pages are hundreds of types which point directly to their fulfillment in the New Testament. The Bible is many books, but one book. It is many stories, but one story.
"The New Testament is a superstructure. The Old Testament is the foundation for it."
Bishop Fulton J. Sheen*

❁...that the Word of GOD is not a book, but a Person?

John 1:1, John 1:14

❁...that truth is a person?

John 14:6

❁...that whatever Jesus Christ said must be true because He said it?

See 1John 5:10 for the obverse of this statement.

❁...that of all the founders of the various religions on earth, Jesus Christ was the only one to come preannounced?

All of the other founders simply said, in effect, "Here I am".

The Old Testament is filled with prophecy of the coming of the Messiah.

Here are just a few examples, Gen 3:15, Num 24:17, 2Sam 7:12-16, Isa 9:1-21, 11:1-16, Dan 9.

❁...that the Bible does not tell us which books within it are inspired and which ones are not?

How then do we know that the Bible which we use IS the Bible?

How do we know that the books within it really belong there?

❁...that the Bible came from the Catholic Church, and not the Church from the Bible?

❁...that by the time Saint John had completed the Book of Revelation, the Catholic Church was already on its fifth Pope?

Pope Saint Evaristus 97-105 A.D.

❁...that non-Catholics have to admit that the Catholic Church made an infallible decision when it published the Canon of the New Testament, since they all use the same 27 books?

How then can they deny the Canon of the Old Testament decided by the same Catholics in the same Councils that decided the Canon of the New Testament?

❁...that none of the Gospel writers signed their work?

How then, do we know who the authors of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John were?

The answer to this one certainly did not come by way of Sola Scriptura did it?

❁...that Saint James may have been the Bishop of Jerusalem in Acts 15:13, but Saint Peter was the Bishop of all the world?

Eusebius (263-339) Bishop of Caesarea and known as "The Father of Church History", wrote in "The History of the Church' volume 2 chapter 1, "But Clement in the sixth book of his Hypotyposes writes thus: 'For they say that Peter and James and John after the ascension of our Saviour, as if also preferred by our Lord, strove not after honor, but chose James the Just bishop of Jerusalem'."

Read Acts 1:8, where Jerusalem is only one of many See's to be founded by the Apostles. The Books of Acts, Revelation, and a few others, record more than 30 additional ones other than Jerusalem.

...that in Acts 1:8, the Greek word used for witnesses is "martus"?

"...but you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you shall be witnesses for me in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and even to the very ends of the earth."

Martus means "witness", but it also means, "to die by violent death". To die as a witness for Christ is to become a martyr. They are those who after his example, have proved the strength and genuineness of their faith in Christ by undergoing a violent death. As you probably all know, every Apostle, but for St. John, died a martyr. St. John was boiled in oil, but it did not kill him so he was imprisoned and exiled to the island of Patmos.

...that the decision documented in Acts 15 was NOT made by Scripture alone (Sola Scriptura)?

The question which arose in this chapter, was about the Gentile converts and whether or not they had to be circumcised (vs 3-5). The Apostles, in their very first Church Council, the Council of Jerusalem, made the decision not to demand circumcision for converts (vs 28-29), and that decision was made by the Apostles and the Holy Spirit alone, and with no mention of Scripture being consulted. There is no doubt that the Apostles knew that this particular circumstance was NOT in Scripture, and that they knew they would have to decide the result by using their own GOD given authority (Matthew 16:19, 18:17-18, John 20:21-23), and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Compare what I have said here with John 14:16-17 and John 16:13-15.

This is a prime Scriptural example of the Development of Doctrine, which continues to this very day and which Protestants reject.

See! Everything is NOT in the Bible, as the Bible plainly tells us in John 20:30-31 and John 21:25.

The situation is exactly the same today when different circumstances arise. The Catholic Church calls a council, and the Pope, the Magisterium, the Bishops and Cardinals in conjunction with the Holy Spirit make a final decision to resolve the question. Rome has spoken, the issue is settled.

...that Rome, not Jerusalem, was chosen to be the seat of the Catholic Church for many reasons?

1. St. Paul had a vision of Jesus who told him to leave Jerusalem, "Make haste and go quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning Me." Acts 22:18

2. Then Jesus further told St. Paul, just three verses later in Acts 22:21,

"Go, for to the Gentiles far away I will send you". Rome was Gentile and far away.

3. Still later in Acts 23:11, "But on the following night the Lord stood by him and said,

"Be steadfast; for just as thou hast borne witness to Me in Jerusalem, bear witness in Rome also".

4. Rome was the capitol of the world at the time. Heads tend to settle in capitols.

5. Rome was also the largest city in the Roman Empire which made it the center of attraction. Have you ever heard of the phrase, "All roads lead to Rome"? The Romans had built many fine roads which made it easier for all travelers including the Apostles.

6. Saint Peter, the first Pope, and the visible head of the Catholic Church, was in Rome when he was martyred in 67 A.D.. Saint Paul was in Rome also when he was martyred.

7. For what better reason could the Church convert a large Roman Pagan society than to place itself within their midst?

8. Jesus had said in John 4:21, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father."

9. Jesus Christ had said in Matthew 24:1-22, that Jerusalem would soon be destroyed.

That prophecy was fulfilled in 70 A.D. when three Roman legions led by Titus did indeed destroy it.

"And when you see Jerusalem being surrounded by an army, then know that her desolation is at hand. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let those who are in her midst go out, and let those who are in the country not enter her. For these are days of vengeance, that all things that are written may be fulfilled. But woe to those with child, or have infants at the breast in those days! For there will be great distress over the land, and wrath upon this people. And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led away as captives to all the nations. And Jerusalem will be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the nations be fulfilled."

Luke 21:20-24

This all happened exactly as Jesus Christ had predicted. All of the gory details of this massacre can be found in the writings by the Jewish historian Josephus, who lived and witnessed it at the time, and by Eusebius.

Christians did flee as Jesus prophesied in the above verses, and all were saved, as recorded by Eusebius in his History of the Church, book III, chapter 5.

Being forewarned by the Lord Himself of this impending disaster, why would the Apostles even consider Jerusalem to be the center of Christianity?

...that Saint Paul admonished the Ephesians day and night for three years?

Acts 20:31

Yet his letter to the Ephesians is only six chapters long and can be read in just a few minutes.

Where is the rest of his three year dialog with the Ephesians? Again, is everything in the Bible?

...that in Matthew 16:13-17, it was Simon-Peter only who knew the truth of who Jesus Christ was?

GOD the Father revealed it to him and him alone. All of the rest had only an opinion.

Catholics look to the Successor of Peter, the Pope, whom we can trust to reveal GOD's truth to us.

...that GOD always had a Father Figure to shepherd His people?

From Adam, to Noah, to Abraham, to Isaac, to Jacob, to Moses, to David, to Peter, there was always a male figure that GOD used to shepherd His flock. It is no different today, as GOD never changes.

...that every time GOD changed the name of someone in the Bible,

He also gave that person authority?

He changed Abram to Abraham and made him the father of a multitude of nations. Genesis 17:5

He changed Sarai to Sara and made her the mother of nations. Genesis 17:15-16

He changed Jacob to Israel and made him the first Israeli. Genesis 35:10

He changed Simon to Peter and gave him primacy over the other Apostles. Matthew 16:18-19

...that in John 21:16, the Greek word used for "feed" is "poimaino" (poimaino, second person, singular), which means, to act as a shepherd, to rule, to govern, to pastor, or the presiding officer?

It is the only time this Greek word is used in the Gospel of John. In John 21:15 and 17, the Greek word used for "feed" is "bosko" (bosko), which means "to feed". So verses 15-17 say "feed my lambs, SHEPHERD my lambs, and feed my sheep". Jesus commanded Peter alone, to be the visible SHEPHERD of His flock.

In John 10:16, Jesus said, "...and there shall be one fold and ONE SHEPHERD." The Greek word used for "shepherd" here is "poimen" (poimen, masculine, singular). Clearly, Jesus said in these verses that there will be only ONE SHEPHERD, and that visible shepherd on earth will be Peter, who would soon become the first Bishop of Rome, and the first Pope.

...that the power to forgive sins was given to men?

Matthew 9:1-8, John 20:22-23, 2Corinthians 2:10

❁...that Jesus taught from the Barque of Peter and no other boat?

Luke 5:1-4

The Barque of Peter is a "type" of the Catholic Church, as is Noah's Ark.

The Ship of the Church, the Barque of Peter, will survive because Christ is aboard to quell the storms that rise up against it..

See Matthew 8:23-27, Mark 4:35-40, and Luke 8:22-25.

❁...that Saint Paul said, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you cannot be saved"?

Acts 27:31

❁...that Saint Peter said that only eight souls were saved because they were aboard Noah's Ark?

1Peter 3:20

❁...that the relics of all of the Apostles (except for Judas) and Gospel writers are in Catholic Churches?

❁...that three of the greatest Biblical heroes were murderers?

They were Moses in Exodus 2:12, David in 2Samuel 11:14-27, and Saul (Paul) in Acts 7:58-59.

GOD uses sinners in His plan of Salvation, since we note that all three wrote inspired books of the Bible.

❁...that one Pope denied Christianity three times, and later wrote two infallible documents which we use to this very day?

His name is Peter.

Matthew 26:69-75

❁...that one Apostle denied Him, one betrayed Him, one doubted Him, and all ran away from Him?

Matthew 26:69-75, Matthew 26:25, John 20:25, and Matthew 26:56.

❁...that the genealogy of Jesus in Matthew 1:1-16, lists three major breaks in Mosaic Law?

This indicates immediately, in the first 16 verses of the New Testament, that the Old Covenant, and with it the Mosaic Law, is soon coming to an end, being fulfilled (Matthew 5:17), and shortly to be superseded by the New Covenant of Jesus Christ (Matthew 26:28, Hebrews 8:13).

1. Females are listed:

(3) Tamar Gen 38:6, 1Chron 2:4, (5) Rahab Josh 2:1,17, (5) Ruth, book of Ruth, (6) Bathsheba (former wife of Uriah) 2Sam 11:12,24.

Jewish law required that only males were to be listed in genealogies. See Numbers 1:17-18.

2. Sinners are listed:

(3) Tamar, a deceiver, (5) Rahab, a harlot, (6) Bathsheba, an adulteress, (6) Solomon, idolatry.

By naming sinners, GOD has shown that He is the GOD of mercy.

3. Gentiles are listed:

(3) Tamar, a Canaanite, (5) Rahab, a Canaanite, (5) Ruth, a Moabite, (6) Bathsheba, a Hittite.

Foreigners like these symbolized GOD's desire to save all, with no longer a distinction between Jew and Gentile, Colossians 3:11.

❁...that those who accuse Catholics of not reading their Bibles, as often as non-Catholics, do not realize that the Catholic Church can be visualized as resting upon a three-legged stool, only one leg of which is the Bible?

The other two legs are Sacred (Apostolic) Tradition, and the Magisterium, or teaching authority.

When the reformers broke away from the Catholic Church, they lost two of the legs. They rejected Apostolic Tradition and the authority of the Magisterium, thereby leaving themselves with only one leg...the Bible, which they took from the Catholic Church. They tend to dwell on the only leg they have left, whereas Catholics dwell on all three legs.

Did Jesus Christ say to the disciples, 'Read the Bible', or did He say, "Go out into all nations and teach them all that I have commanded you (Matthew 28:19-20)"? Did Jesus Christ found a teaching Church, or did He found a book?

...that "Faith then depends on HEARING, and HEARING on the Word of Christ"?

Romans 10:17

Where does Scripture say that faith depends on reading the Word of Christ?

Catholics are frequently accused of not reading their Bibles. However, no one can ever accuse Catholics of not hearing the Word of Christ. At every Catholic Mass, over a period of three years, the entire Bible, except for some of the begats, is read and preached to all of the people and after that the cycle is repeated over and over again. If the Catholic lives to the age of 75, it is possible that he or she has had almost all of the Bible read to them 25 times.

Name another Church which fulfills Romans 10:17 as well as the Catholic Church does?

"And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell upon the earth and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people."

Revelation 14:6

Name another church which has an everlasting gospel preached to them, and to every nation and tongue and people as does the Catholic Church?

...that both the wheat and the chaff will co-mingle until the very end?

Matthew 13:24-30

...that proof showing Christianity to be true can be found in the many Old Testament prophecies that Gentiles will come to the Jewish GOD?

You can see this in the Old Testament verses listed and then the fulfillment in the New Testament.

Isaiah 11:10, Isaiah 42:1,6, 49:6,22, 54:3, 60:3,5,11,16, 61:6,9, 62:2, 66:12,19, Jeremiah 16:19, Micah 5:8, Malachi 1:11, Matthew 12:18,21, 20:25, Luke 2:32, 21:24, John 7:35, Acts 4:27, 9:15, Acts 10:45, 11:1,18, 13:42,46-48, 14:27, 15:3,7,12,14,17,19,23, 18:6, 21:19,21,25, 22:21, Acts 26:17,20,23, 28:28, Romans 1:13, 2:14, 3:29, 9:24, 11:11-13,25, 15:9-27, 16:4, 1Corinthians 12:13, Galatians 2:2,14-15,3:14, Ephesians 3:1,6,8, Colossians 1:27, 1Thessalonians 2:16, 1Timothy 2:7, 1Timothy 3:16, 2Timothy 1:11, 4:17, Revelation 11:2.

...that the True Church which Jesus Christ founded will offer Spiritual Sacrifices performed every day in every place by a Holy Priesthood?

"Draw near to Him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men but chosen and honored by GOD. Be you yourselves as living stones, built thereon into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to GOD through Jesus Christ."

1Peter 2:4-5

"For from the rising of the sun even to the going down, My Name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to My Name a clean oblation, for My Name is great among the Gentiles said the Lord of Hosts."

Malachi 1:11

"First I give thanks to my GOD through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed all over the world."

Romans 1:8

"Give us this day our daily bread."

Matthew 6:11

Name another church which fulfills these verses by offering in every place, a daily spiritual sacrifice, a clean oblation, acceptable to GOD through Jesus Christ, and by a Holy Priesthood?

Name another church which even offers a daily sacrifice?

These verses describe perfectly, the Mass of the Catholic Church.

...that the "Manna in the Desert" is a "type" of the Holy Eucharist?

On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, "What is this?" for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, "This is the bread which the Lord has given you to eat."

Exodus 16:15

"Your fathers ate the manna in the desert, and have died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that if anyone eat of it he will not die."

John 6:49-50

Never does an Old Testament "type" point to a New Testament symbol.

"Types" always prefigure a much greater reality.

Romans 5:14, 1Corinthians 10:11, Hebrews 11:19

...that Jesus Christ said, "...unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His blood, you shall not have life in you"?

John 6:53

What does this profound statement mean to you? Where does He say the "symbol" of His flesh?

Remember 1John 5:10 as mentioned earlier.

...that those who did not believe the words of Jesus Christ left Him and never came Back?

John 6:66

Did you get the verse number connection?

If Jesus spoke only symbolically in John chapter 6, then why did they leave Him, never more to return, for only a symbolic gesture? It would have made no sense whatsoever for them to do so.

Also, if He was only speaking a parable, why then did He not call them back and tell them so?

After all, He did explain every one of His parables since no one understood them, did He not?

I would like for someone to explain to me why non-believers of the True Presence take the whole Bible literally, except for John chapter 6?

All those who do not believe in the True Presence are those in this verse who walk away from Him.

This is a count of those who do not believe 463017 the words of Jesus Christ in this chapter, and simply walk away, never to come back. Are you included in this count?

...that St. Paul said, "The cup of the blessing that we bless, is it not the sharing of the Blood of Christ? And the Bread that we break, is it not the partaking of the Body of the Lord?"

1Corinthians 10:16

Did St. Paul say anything about this summit and center of the Catholic Mass as being only a symbolic gesture? No? Then why do you not believe what he said?

...that St. Paul said, "Therefore, whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, will be guilty of the Body and the Blood of the Lord"?

1Corinthians 11:27

How can a person be "guilty" of anything if this is only a symbolic gesture?

...that St. Paul also said, "...for he who eats and drinks unworthily, without distinguishing the body, eats and drinks judgment to himself"?

1Corinthians 11:29

How could one bring "judgment to himself" if this verse reads only symbolically?

This is the reason why non-Catholics may not receive the Holy Eucharist in the Catholic Church, since they do not believe it is truly the Body of Christ, but only a symbol.

See? If they did partake, they would bring judgment upon themselves.

...that when Jesus said the word "Unless", it was usually a dire warning that His word must be obeyed, "Or you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven", or similar wording?

Matthew 5:20, "...Unless your justice exceeds that of the Scribes and the Pharisees...."

Matthew 18:3, "...Unless you turn and become like little children...."

Luke 13:3,5, "...Unless you repent...." (you will all perish).

John 3:3, "...Unless a man be born again...."

John 3:5, "...Unless a man be born again of water and the Spirit...."

John 6:53, "...Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you shall not have life in you, (implied, "no life everlasting", as shown by the very next verse, John 6:54), "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has life everlasting and I will raise him up on the last day".

*...that the word "Amen"* is a Greek word (amen) of Hebrew origin which, at the beginning of a discourse means, "certainly", "surely", "truly", "of a truth", "so be it"?*

*When used as a prefix by Jesus Christ, it is to emphasize that it is a Statement of especial solemnity.***

Now, what do you suppose He meant when He emphasized twice, by using a double "Amen"?

"Amen, amen, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of GOD is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

John 6:32-33

Notice that Jesus used a double emphasis by beginning these verses with 'truly', 'truly'.

Do you truly truly believe what He said in this verse?

Is there any room for symbolism in these verses whatsoever?

"Amen, amen, I say to you, he who believes in me has life everlasting."

John 6:47

Again, He said 'truly, 'truly', but of course everyone believes His words in this verse, so everyone truly, truly believes Him here. But, read on for a possible "snag" for some, regarding this verse.

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you."

John 6:53

What? 'Truly, 'truly' again? Another double emphasis, and a dire warning (unless) to boot?

The context for this verse is the same as for the previous examples in this section.

Why do you think Jesus used a double emphasis yet again? Why do people repeat themselves at all?

They do it to drive home a very important point, that is why!

Interestingly, Weymouth's Modern Speech New Testament translates the first words of this verse as: "In most solemn truth, I tell you...".

What would Jesus have had to say to make his words any more clear than what He actually said?

Then why do some say "Truly, truly, in this verse, He was only speaking symbolically"?

If this verse is to be taken only symbolically, then the previous example, John 6:47, must be treated in the same context, as being only a symbolic gesture also. If that is the case, then we have a domino effect working throughout Scripture. All verses with the same meaning of John 6:47, "believe in Christ and you have life everlasting", must be only symbolic as well. Some well known, and well used verses with the same, or very similar meaning are, John 3:15-16,18, 5:24, 6:40, 8:24, and 20:31, Acts 13:48, and 16:31, Romans 10:9-11, 1Timothy 1:16, and 4:10, 2Timothy 1:1, and 1John 5:13.

Verily means, "in truth", or "with confidence". However, in the Greek text the word used is Amen.

**See the footnote in the Confraternity Bible for Matthew 5:18.

...that the Greek word for "life" used in John 6:53 in the previous segment, is "zoen" (zoen) which means, "divine life of GOD imparted to us"?

There are other Greek words for "life" that St. John could have chosen, such as "bios" (bios) which simply means "life". The fact that he chose the word that he did, lends great credibility to the literal meaning of this verse and with not a hint of symbolism.

...that the Catholic Church is the cause of holiness in its members?

The holiness of its members do not make the Church more holy.

Conversely, the unholiness of her members do not make the Church any less holy.

...that Jesus Christ is not His Name?

It is correct to say Jesus THE Christ. Throughout the Old Testament are verses which prophecy the coming of "The Anointed One", "The Messiah", or "The Christ". See Daniel 9:25-26 for two examples. Jesus is The Anointed One, The Messiah, or The Christ. The word "Christ" comes from the Greek word "Christos", which means the Anointed One.

...that Jesus came AFTER Mary?

Do you realize that Christ has a triple birth?

1. He was born into eternity of a Father without a mother. John 1:1-5,14, Hebrews 5:5

2. He was born into time of a Mother without a father. Luke 1:35, 2:7

3. He is born into us at Baptism.

Christ is the second person of the Most Holy Trinity and He always existed. Jesus being born into time, the second birth of Christ, was born of Mary, and therefore He came AFTER her. Christ is mentioned many times in the Old Testament as shown in the previous paragraph. The coming of Jesus is alluded to in Isaiah 7:14, but you will not find Jesus mentioned in the Old Testament except as a "type".

Remember His correct name is Jesus THE Christ.

There were two Apostles named James. It is a simple matter to expose the fallacy of "blood brothers of Jesus" by comparing Acts 1:13 which says one James was the son of Alpheus, and Matthew 4:20, which says the other James was the son of Zebedee. ...that there is nothing made by human hands in Heaven except for the wounds of Christ?

...that Revelation 12:1 is connected to 11:19 by the first word, the conjunction "and" in 12:1? In the Greek text (the book of Revelation was written in Greek), the first word of verse 12:1 is "kai" which means "and". I feel it is important to mention the Greek text here because some Bibles do not include the word "and". The context of 11:19 is of Saint John seeing the Ark of the Covenant in Heaven. "And a great sign appeared in Heaven: a woman clothed with the Sun, and the Moon was under her feet, and upon her head is a crown of twelve stars."

This is a clear allusion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Ark seen in Heaven could not be the wooden box made by human hands, which contained the commandments written on stone tablets and handed down to Moses, but it is the Blessed Virgin Mary, the New Ark of the Covenant.

...that Revelation 12 mentions four persons, a "woman", a dragon, a male child, and Michael?

It is obvious that the dragon is satan, the ancient serpent, Rev 12:9. It is obvious that Michael is an angel, the archangel Michael, Rev 12:7. It is obvious that the male child is Jesus Christ, Rev 12:5. Since three of the four in the chapter are identified, then the context would demand that the woman be identified also, as the one who gave birth to Jesus Christ, Rev 12:4-5. She is the Blessed Virgin Mary. There are many layers of exegesis to the Book of Revelation, so a not so obvious meaning for the "woman" could also be the Church which Jesus Christ founded. See Galatians 4:26.

❖...that Revelation 12:1 clearly says that "a woman" was seen in Heaven?

Revelation speaks of many souls and spirits as being in Heaven (Rev 1:4,6:9,20:4). Do you know the definition of the word "woman"? A woman is a female human being, a person. A human person has a body, a soul, and a spirit. Spirits and souls are genderless. They are neither male nor female. Gender is determined by the body alone. Since Saint John described a "woman" as being seen in Heaven, she could have only been there in body, soul, and spirit. This is strong evidence of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

❖...that Holy Scripture stresses that we must be ONE, "...and they shall hear My Voice, and there shall be ONE fold and ONE Shepherd".

John 10:16,17:11,21-23

It is a command from Jesus Christ and not a suggestion.

Jesus Christ, being Himself Truth (John 14:6), speaks with ONE Voice. He has spoken ONE truth for each of us. Why then are there so many differing interpretations of what He told us? In the book of Ephesians, when Saint Paul refers to the "body", he means the Body of Christ, the only Church which Christ founded (Ephesians 1:22-23). There is only ONE GOD, ONE Truth, ONE Faith, ONE Baptism (Ephesians 4:1-6), and He founded only ONE Church (Matthew 16:18, Ephesians 4:4), with only ONE Authority. Why then, are there over 33,800 Christian churches in existence today, something which is in direct violation of Holy Scripture?

"He who is not with Me is against Me; and he who does not gather with Me scatters."

Luke 11:23

❖...that we are commanded by Scripture to be of ONE MIND, in ONE SPIRIT, and with ONE MOUTH to glorify GOD?

Romans 15:5-6, Philippians 1:27, 2:2

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you ALL SAY THE SAME THING; and that there be NO DISSENSIONS AMONG YOU, but that YOU BE PERFECTLY UNITED in ONE MIND and in ONE JUDGMENT."

1Corinthians 1:10

How can these verses be obeyed with over 33,800* splits in the Body of Christ today?

Who is doing the splitting and scattering?

❖...that it is the Holy Spirit which places men as Bishops to rule the Church of GOD?

Acts 20:28

Does your church have bishops?

❖...that Holy Scripture commands all of us to obey our superiors and be subject to them, for they keep watch as having to render an account of our souls; so that they may do this with joy, and not with grief, for that would not be expedient for us?

Hebrews 13:7-8,17

How many, if any, of the founders of the reformation followed this command of Scripture, and how many did not? How many of them caused "grief" for their superiors by rejecting their authority?

❖...that those who despise authority, especially, risk eternal punishment?

2Peter 2:9-10

❖...that nowhere in Scripture is authority given to anyone to start another church other than the ONE which Jesus Christ founded?

However, there are many verses which warn against forsaking GOD given authority regarding His Assembly (O.T.) or Church (N.T.) which He bestowed upon prophets such as Moses (Exodus 3-40), and on the Apostles (John 20:21-23), and to their successors (Hebrews 13:7-8,17).

Read of the rebellion of Korah against the GOD given authority of Moses in Numbers 16, and pay special attention to what happened to him, and to his followers in Numbers 16:31-35.

See John 4:19-24 for a New Testament example.

❁...that if it is not GOD given authority, it is no authority at all?

No one may hold up a Bible and claim it to be his authority, if GOD given authority was not specifically bestowed upon him or her in Holy Scripture. This was pointed out in the previous topic. If someone claims "GOD told him", what guarantee does anyone have to know that to be true? Such a claim would be at most, a private revelation, and not a public revelation which comes from GOD.

Private revelations, if claimed by anyone, are not binding upon anyone except possibly the recipient.

❁...that Holy Scripture cautions us not to be a stumbling block to the Church of GOD?

1Corinthians 10:32

How many non-Catholics ignore this verse?

❁...that Holy Scripture warns us not to despise the Church of GOD?

1Corinthians 11:22

How many ignore this one also?

❁...that Saul persecuted the Church which Jesus Christ founded (Acts 8:1-3), yet Jesus asked him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me"?

Acts 9:4,22:7

Why didn't Jesus ask Saul why he was persecuting His Church, instead of saying "why do you persecute Me"?

❁...that it is the Church, and not the Bible which has the final authority, as Holy Scripture tells us?

Matthew 18:15-18

❁...that Jesus Christ would not have given us a command which we could never fulfill?

If that is the case, then where would each of us go to fulfill His command of Matthew 18:15-18, if we had lived in the years 500, 1200, or 1500 A.D.?

❁...that he who does not know history is condemned to repeat its mistakes?

Everyone of us should read the history of the Christian Church.

Read the Church Fathers and the lives of the Saints.

❁...that history has no gaps as some people seem to think?

Many non-Catholics close their minds to any genuine historical documents which were written after the Book of Revelation and up until the time of Martin Luther. Is this wise thinking? Are blindfolds being purposely applied to these people to keep them from seeing the truth? Read Romans 1:18.

❁...that some non-Catholics try to show that the Catholic Church was founded by Constantine?

This false charge is riddled with errors...

1. They use faulty reasoning by saying that since the Catholic Church is called the "Roman Catholic Church", it must have been founded by a Roman Emperor, namely Constantine. They point to the "Edict of Milan", issued in 313 A.D., as "proof". Now if they would just read the Edict, they would find that it merely gave Christianity the freedom to practice the faith openly and with no fear of persecution from the Romans. Nothing at all is said about his founding the Catholic Church which is not even mentioned by name, and they cannot show any other genuine historical document which supports their false charge.

2. Their second error is the fact the term "Roman Catholic" was coined about 1200 years later in the 16th century by Protestant reformers, especially Anglicans, because they wanted to retain the name "Catholic" for themselves.

3. Their third error is their failure to read the writings of the Church Fathers which clearly show the words "Catholic Church" dating from 107 A.D., and appearing in hundreds of writings in every century up to, and beyond the Reformation, and to this very day.

4. Their fourth error is in trying to show that the "Catholic Church" and the "Roman Catholic Church" are two different Churches, when in fact they are one and the same.

5. Their fifth error is in not reading the history of Constantine. He was a pagan Roman emperor at the time he issued the Edict, however, he was baptized into the Catholic Church before he died in 337. Therefore, how could an unbaptized pagan found a Christian Church?

❁...that the Church is not subject to men, but to Christ?

Ephesians 5:24, Acts 5:29, 1John 5:9

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8). Which Church holds fast to His teachings, and which churches change their teachings to conform to the will of the people?

Which churches changed their teaching in recent years and have accepted contraception, women clergy, divorce, unholy unions, and more, due to the pressures of their members?

Which Church is unbending to the whims of men, and which churches sway with the wind?

❁...that the body cannot do anything of itself without the head?

Ephesians 1:22-23, Colossians 1:18

"For without Me you can do nothing."

John 15:5

❁...that it is through the Church that there will be made known the manifold wisdom of GOD?

Ephesians 3:10

❁...that the Catholic Church is called "Mother Church" because the Bible says it is.

Galatians 4:26

❁...that the beginning of the Liturgy of the Mass as set by the Apostles is shown in Holy Scripture?

Acts 2:42

❁...that the Bible does not say anywhere that the Word of GOD is restricted to what is written?

❁...that for Sola Scriptura believers, if you believe that ALL Scripture is inspired (2Timothy 3:16-17), then please explain to me why the Gospel of Peter and the Gospel of Thomas are not in your Bible?

❁...that they who believe in Sola Scriptura, must be able to show the doctrine of it in the Bible itself?

Neither I, nor anyone else has ever been able to find the words "Sola Scriptura" or their meaning in Holy Scripture.

❁...that Martin Luther, the first Protestant, and who was the person who founded the man made doctrine of Sola Scriptura, expressed harsh words about it just a few years later, after he had surveyed the damage it had caused?

"This one will not hear of Baptism, and that one denies the sacrament, another puts a world between this and the last day: some teach that Christ is not God, some say this, some say that: there are as many sects and creeds as there are heads. No yokel is so rude but when he has dreams and fancies, he thinks himself inspired by the Holy Ghost and must be a prophet." Martin Luther...

De Wette III, 61. quoted in O'Hare, THE FACTS ABOUT LUTHER, 208.

"Noblemen, townsmen, peasants, all classes understand the Evangelium better than I or St. Paul; they are now wise and think themselves more learned than all the ministers." Martin Luther...

Walch XIV, 1360. quoted in O'Hare, Ibid, 209.

...that Sola Scriptura is a false man-made tradition, and that such man-made traditions are condemned by Holy Scripture itself?

Colossians 2:8

...that the "39 Articles of Religion", a Protestant publication, says of Sola Scriptura in article #6: "Holy Scripture contains all things necessary for salvation. Consequently whatever is not read in Scripture nor can be proved from Scripture cannot be demanded from any person to believe it as an article of faith. Nor is any such thing to be thought necessary or required for salvation. By holy Scripture is meant those canonical books of the Old and New Testaments whose authority has never been doubted within the church."

For this "article" to have any authority at all as a basis for Sola Scriptura, it must itself be found in Holy Scripture somewhere, or else it simply falls into the category of only a man-made tradition.

Can someone please show me the verse(s), but only after you have read this?

...that some non-Catholics say that the Bible is the final authority.

However, I cannot find anywhere in the Bible where it claims to be the final authority, can you?

...that since Sola Scriptura, by its very meaning, is "Scripture only", or "Scripture alone", why then do SS believers criticize the Catholic Church from sources outside of Scripture itself?

By doing this, don't they convey a message which is hypocritical in nature? Aren't they really saying, "I refuse to believe anything you say which is outside of Scripture, but you must believe everything I say which is outside of Scripture"?

...that John 10:22 speaks of the "Feast of the Dedication", and that no non-Catholic can explain what the meaning of it is by using Sola Scriptura and their Bible?

You see, that feast is otherwise known as Hanukkah, and can be found only in 1Maccabees 4:52-61, and 2Maccabees 10:1-8, two books which Protestants removed from the Bible. Catholics have no problem explaining what the feast represents. Protestants will never understand the meaning of that verse since "they cannot find it in their Bible", that is, unless they abandon Sola Scriptura, or ask a Catholic for help.

...that the Bereans received the "preached" word from St. Paul (13*) and compared what he had said with Scripture (11*) and many, but not all (12*), became believers?

*Acts 17:10-13.

Read Acts 17:1-9 for the context. Paul tried to reason with Jews in the synagogue of Thessalonica (1). He tried to prove from their Old Testament (2) that Jesus Christ, was the promised Messiah, and indeed had come (1-3). He succeeded in convincing only some of them (4).

The Bereans were Jews also (10), and being so, compared Paul's preaching with the Old Testament, Septuagint** with which they were more familiar (11). Since they were Jews, they would not have believed in a New Testament, even if it were available then, which it wasn't.

Compare these verses with Acts 2:14-24. St. Peter first read from the Book of Joel (17-21), and then he explained what he had just read by preaching to them (22-24). You can easily see that the story of the Bereans offers no support whatsoever for the man made tradition of Sola Scriptura.

**The Septuagint is a Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament. It most certainly was used by the Greek speaking Bereans, and it has all 7 of the books of the Old Testament which the protestants rejected in the 16th century. It was the Bible which early Christians used from the time of Christ until the Catholic Church provided the Latin Vulgate in 404 A.D.. It is available even to this day.

*...that there are verses in Scripture that refer to other Scripture which are not found in the Bible?
"...and REMEMBER the WORD of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive'." (Acts 20:35, these words by Jesus are not to be found elsewhere in the Bible).
See also, Matthew 2:23 (the Nazarene) and 5:43 (shall hate thy enemy), and 2Timothy 3:8 (the names).
These are examples of Apostolic Tradition, which is quite removed from man-made tradition, and in which we are commanded to keep by WORD or by letter, 2Thessalonians 2:15.*

...that GOD would never have given us an infallible book, without first giving us an infallible interpreter for it as well?

Holy Scripture stresses that an individual will not understand and most probably will distort the truth which GOD has given to us. Read Acts 8:26-31 and 2Peter 3:14-17.

"The Bible is a supernatural book and can be understood only by supernatural aid."

A.W. Tozer

The Catholic Church alone, has the GOD given authority, to be the infallible interpreter of Holy Scripture. That authority is the Pope with the Magisterium, and all working under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. See John 14:15-17, John 16:12-14, and Acts 15:28.

...that a text without a context is a pretext?

Pretext: An effort intended to conceal something, an excuse. Check your dictionary.

What the first verse giveth, the context taketh away...

...that those who say "The Holy Spirit told me", do not realize that it could be one of three spirits which is actually doing the talking?

They are:

- 1. The Holy Spirit.*
- 2. The human spirit within each of us.*
- 3. An evil, or demonic spirit.*

Holy Scripture warns us to test all spirits. "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of GOD; because many false prophets have gone forth into the world."

1John 4:1

...that private interpretation of Holy Scripture is strictly forbidden by Scripture itself?

Acts 8:30-31, 2Peter 1:20

Non-Catholics do this all the time, with all using the same Bible, and with each proclaiming the truth, and with each one saying, "The Holy Spirit told me".

Aren't they all really saying that each is his or her own Pope?

Those who think the Holy Spirit is telling them, had better read Acts 5:32:

"And we are witnesses to these things, and SO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN TO ALL WHO OBEY HIM."

Who are the ones who obey Him? Are they the ones who ignore His words of John 10:16 and 2Peter 1:20, and who continue to split and divide and interpret Holy Scripture individually, or are they the ones who obey His words, those of His ONE TRUE CHURCH who do not do these things?

"Bible interpretation is not to be done by individuals. It is not possible to put together any selection of words in which some ingenious person may not find meaning unmeant by the writer. Only a public authority, divinely guided, can spell out without error a public message divinely revealed."

*Frank Sheed, Theology and Sanity 16-17.
1Corinthians 2:14, 2Peter 1:20.*

In the Catholic Church, when a dispute arises, it is settled by the Pope with the Magisterium, and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Who is there in all of the non-Catholic ecclesial communities who has the authority to adjudicate doctrinal disputes that arise between themselves?

The answer is that no one has the authority. Every doctrine (except for the existence of GOD), which is taught by one non-Catholic ecclesial community is denied by another. These include major doctrinal issues and not just minor ones as some claim. Here are just a few examples:

- 1. The Holy Trinity is three persons in one GOD. No, It is three separate GOD's. It does not exist.*
- 2. One will say Jesus Christ is a divine person and not a human person. Another says he is a human person and not a divine person. No, says yet a third, he is two persons, one human and one divine.*
- 3. The Holy Spirit is a person says one. The Holy Spirit is not a person says another.*
- 4. Scripture says we must worship on Sunday, states one. No, it says Saturday, states another.*
- 5. One says GOD is in the Eucharist. No, says another, it is only a symbolic gesture.*
- 6. The Eucharistic celebration is once a week. No its once a month. No its quarterly. No its yearly.*
- 7. One will teach that hell exists. Another insists hell does not exist.*

*Who, if any, is teaching the truth, and who is simply catering to "itching ears" (2Timothy 4:3)?
Who has the all important authority to determine who teaches the truth, and who doesn't?*

One group will "prove" from Scripture one thing, and another will "prove" from the very same Scripture, just the opposite.

It is easily seen that without one authority for all, there is nothing but chaos as we have today.

After all, Holy Scripture does say, "GOD is not the author of confusion", 1Corinthians 14:33 (KJ).

If GOD does not cause confusion in these these doctrinal differences, then who does?

So what do these various sects do when doctrinal disputes arise? Read the next paragraph for the answer, as it is yet another violation of the command of Jesus Christ in John 10:16.

...that non-Catholic Ecclesial Communities are dividing themselves at an ever accelerating rate?

*In 1600, due to the Protestant reformation, there were more than 100. By 1900, there were around 1000. By 1982 there were more than 20,700. Today there are more than 33,820* splits in the Body of Christ and all, save one, were founded by mere men or women.*

"Has Christ been divided up?" 1Corinthians 1:13

"And every spirit that severs Jesus, is NOT OF GOD, BUT IS OF ANTICHRIST of whom you have heard that he is coming, AND NOW IS ALREADY IN THE WORLD." 1John 4:3

Where in Scripture is authority given to anyone to split and to form new churches?

Common sense tells us that at this ever increasing rate, in just a few more years of what we have already witnessed, each person will be his or her own Ecclesial Community.

However, practically speaking it could never go that far, as each Ecclesial Community would die out first from the lack of funding due to its shrinking membership. Mainly however, we have a promise from GOD, as passed through the inspired pen of Saint Luke in Acts 5:38-39...

"(38) So now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone. For if this plan or work is of men, it will be overthrown; (39) but if it is of GOD, you will not be able to overthrow it. Else perhaps you may find yourselves fighting even against GOD."

The continuing splits in the Body of Christ, perpetrated by mere men and women, will be the cause of their self inflicted overthrow.

"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and house will fall upon house."

Luke 11:17

"But if you bite and devour one another, take heed or you will be consumed by one another."

Galatians 5:15

There IS the ONE TRUE CHURCH, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, which is of GOD.

Mere men and women have been trying to overthrow it for almost 2000 years and they have not been able to do so, have they? What profound message have you gleaned from those two verses in Acts 5? For those whose agenda includes the overthrow of the True Church of GOD, or who display a militant attitude towards it, I would suggest that they should read anew Acts 5:39 shown above.

*Catholic membership is over 1,070,000,000 (1 Billion 70 million) in 2001*. That is an increase of over 13,000,000 since January 2000. It is the fastest growing Christian Church in the world by far.*

**World Christian Encyclopedia, 2001, a Protestant publication.*

...that "Unless the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it."

Psalms 127:1

Did you notice that the word house is singular and not plural?

"Everyone therefore who hears these my words and acts upon them, shall be likened to a wise man who built his house on rock. And the rains fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, but it did not fall, because it was founded on rock. And everyone who hears these my words and does not act upon them, shall be likened to a foolish man who built his house on sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and was utterly ruined."

Matthew 7:24-27

Who is the wise man? He is Jesus Christ, the one who built his house on rock, in Matthew 16:18.

"Here," continued the Lord, "is a place near me where you shall station yourself on the rock."

Exodus 33:21

GOD commanded that his people station themselves on the rock, which is a "type" of his Church.

"I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink."

Exodus 17:6

GOD stands on the rock of his Church from which the saving waters of Baptism flow.

Who is the foolish man? He is other than the Lord. He is the one who labored in vain to build his house because he had not a rock foundation, but one of sand. His house was not built by the Lord.

Jesus Christ founded His Church on rock,

"And I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Matthew 16:18.

Which Church is built on the rock? Only one, as HE did say Church, not churches didn't He?

Which churches are built on sand? All are, except for that one built by the Lord.

...that those who like to quote John 8:32, "...and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free", had better take notice of the preceding verse as well?

Jesus therefore said to the Jews who have come to believe in him, "If you abide in my word, you shall be my disciples indeed..."

John 8:31

As shown previously, Jesus said we must be one. He did not say we must be tens of thousands. Holy Scripture also does not give any person the authority to form another church other than the one which Jesus Christ founded. The Bible says that there can be no private interpretation of Holy Scripture, yet all non-Catholic sects continue to do it.

I ask you then, do non-Catholic sects "...abide in my word...", as Jesus Christ commanded?

Is God Answering Your Prayers?

If Not Are You Aware of the Rules of Prayer?

What Rules?

The Rules Spelled Out For You in Holy Scripture!

Matthew 6:6-8, "But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you. And in praying do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

Notice that Jesus used the word 'need' which is not necessarily what you 'want', but what the Father wants for you.

Matthew 6:14-15, "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

John 14:13-14, "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, that the Father may be glorified in the Son; if you ask anything in my name, I will do it."

Always check the context of verses in order to avoid a mis-translation. In those verses Jesus was addressing the Apostles during the Last Supper, but not to us in general.

We can hope by extension that they would apply to us but maybe by some IES. Read on!

Matthew 7:21 "Not every one who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven."

Matthew 12:50. "For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother."

Mark 3:35, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother, and sister, and mother."

John 1:11-13, "He came to his own home, and his own people received him not.

But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God."

John 4:34, "Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work."

John 5:30, "I can do nothing on my own authority; as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me."

John 6:38-40, "For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me; and this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

John 7:15-17, "The Jews marveled at it, saying, "How is it that this man has learning, when he has never studied?"

So Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me; if any man's will is to do his will, he shall know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority."

John 9:31, "We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if any one is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him." Now that verse is very interesting. It was a Pharisee doing the talking, not Jesus.

So I thought, if God does not listen to sinners then how is any sinner going to have their prayers heard?

Next are two verses which support the Pharisees words. There are several more from the Old Testament.

Psalms 66:18, "If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened."

Micah 3:4, "Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings."

So now we have a dilemma. How can a sinner have their prayers heard? Fortunately for us the answer is in the following verse albeit semi hidden.

Many reading it might miss it:

Luke 15:7, "Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance."

So you see, a repentant sinner will have their prayers heard in heaven whereas a non-repentant sinner will not be heard.

Acts 21:13-14, "Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, "The will of the Lord be done."

Acts 22:14-15, "And he said, The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, to see the Just One and to hear a voice from his mouth; for you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard."

Romans 8:18-20, "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of him who subjected it in hope;"

Romans 8:27-28, "And he who searches the hearts of men knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose."

Romans 9:17-19, "For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "I have raised you up for the very purpose of showing my power in you, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth." So then he has mercy upon whomever he wills, and he hardens the heart of whomever he wills. You will say to me then, "Why does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?"

Romans 12:2, "Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect."

1Corinthians 1:1, "Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sos'thenes,"

2Corinthians 1:1, "Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother."

2Corinthians 8:3-5, "For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints-- and this, not as we expected, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God."

Galatians 1:3-5, "Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father; to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen."

Ephesians 1:3-12, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. He destined us in love to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace which he lavished upon us. For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him, according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will, we who first hoped in Christ have been destined and appointed to live for the praise of his glory."

Ephesians 5:17, "Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is."

Colossians 1:9-10, "And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God."

Colossians 4:12, "Ep'aphras, who is one of yourselves, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always remembering you earnestly in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God."

1Thessalonians 4:2-5, "For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from unchastity; that each one of you know how to take a wife for himself in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like heathen who do not know God;"

1Thessalonians 5:16-18, "Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

Hebrews 10:35-36, "Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

For you have need of endurance, so that you may do the will of God and receive what is promised."

Hebrews 13:20-21, "Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

1Peter 4:1-2, "Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same thought, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer by human passions but by the will of God."

1John 2:16-17, "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever."

1John 5:13-14, "I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us."

The Old Testament and the will of God:

Leviticus 24:12, "And they put him in custody, till the will of the Lord should be declared to them."

Isaiah 53:10, "Yet it was the will of the Lord to bruise him; he has put him to grief; when he makes himself an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, he shall prolong his days; the will of the Lord shall prosper in his hand;"

Ezra 7:18, "Whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do, according to the will of your God."

Ezra 10:11, "Now then make confession to the Lord the God of your fathers, and do his will; separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."

Joshua 22:5 Take good care to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

2Corinthians 9:8, "And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work."

---

So, now let us summarize the rules of prayer taken from all that I have listed above:

1. Since we are all sinners, you must be a repentant sinner in order to be even heard by God.

Luke 15:7, "Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance."

2. Remember Jesus taught us how to pray in:

Matthew 6:6-7, "But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you. And in praying do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their many words."

3. Remember this one or your prayers may never be answered:

Matthew 6:14-15, "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses."

4. God knows what your needs are, so concentrate on your needs rather than on what you want.

Matthew 6:8, "Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

5. No matter what you pray for, if it does not conform to the 'will of God', your prayer may not be answered to your satisfaction. I have listed many verses regarding the 'will of God' that should convince you of this. Did you notice the several verses in which Jesus said not His will but The Fathers? Try to conform your will to His will. Since prayer petitions can be so varied it will not be an easy task to determine the will of God for each petition, for no man can know the mind of God. Give it a try anyhow. There are hints throughout all of Holy Scripture of what His will was for many different circumstances. The following verses listed earlier fit well with this topic:
Ephesians 5:17, "Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is."
Romans 8:28, "And we know that to them that love God all things work together unto good:
to such as, according to his purpose, are called to be saints."

Father Dwyer taught us:

"God will not be out done. If you do something for Him, He will repay you many times over."

I can personally vouch for this teaching as being absolutely true for me.

I Asked GOD...

---

I asked GOD...

I asked GOD for strength, that I might achieve. I was made weak, that I might learn to obey.

I asked for health, that I might do greater things. I was given infirmity, that I might do better things.

I asked for riches, that I might be happy. I was given poverty, that I might be wise.

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men. I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of GOD.

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life. I was given life, that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I had hoped for.

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

I am, among all men, most richly blessed.

The Fingerprints of GOD Are Easily Seen For Those Who Have Eyes To See.

---

The Priesthood:

In The Old Testament, the Aaronic priesthood was started in the book of Exodus, by Moses under the direction of GOD.

In the New Testament, we saw the fulfilling of the Old Testament and the beginning of the Christian priesthood of the order of Melchizedek as described in the book of Hebrews.

"Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well. For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar. For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests."

Hebrews 7:11-14

However, most Jews refused to convert to the new Christianity "of another tribe" and stayed with the Aaronic Levitical priesthood. Therefore there were two priesthoods, with GOD's intention to have the latter having replaced the former.

"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near."

Luke 21:20

Verses following that one, and Matthew chapter 24, describe the destruction of Jerusalem. This all came to pass in 70 A.D. when Roman armies did surround Jerusalem and the city was indeed totally destroyed. You can read all of the gory details of this massacre of the Jews in the writings of Flavius Josephus (37-101 A.D.), a Jewish historian and eye witness to the carnage of that incident. Among the hundreds of thousands of Jews killed was every Jewish priest. However, it takes a priest to make a priest. Having no priests to make new ones, the Aaronic Levitical priesthood came to an abrupt and violent ending.

This is the reason why you will not find any priests in Judaism today, only Rabbi's (teachers). The Aaronic priesthood line was broken.

God's fingerprints are easily seen here in his preservation of one priesthood only.

1450 years later in 1520, Martin Luther, a Catholic monk, separated from the Catholic Church and formed his own church without having any authority to do so. That same year Thomas Munzer, a fiery preacher who was sympathetic with Luther for a short while, split from him and formed yet another church, and again he had no authority to do so.

History repeated itself and again, there were multiple priesthoods, one each of the different Protestant sects. However, no Bishops took sides with Luther or Munzer, or any of the others, and so there was no succession to the priesthood in those lines of Protestantism. It takes a Bishop to make a priest. The priesthood line was ended when the last priest died in each line.

Realizing this, in his "Smalcald Articles" of 1537, Article X, Of Ordination and the call, Martin Luther wrote "...we ourselves will and ought to ordain suitable persons to this office".

Sorry Luther, but as I previously said, it takes a Bishop to ordain a priest, so your so-called "ordinations" performed by a priest were invalid.

God's fingerprints are easily seen here in his preservation of one priesthood only.

Watching GOD at work in this next example is a fascinating story for me.

In 1534, Henry VIII, the king of England and staunch defender of the Catholic Church, formed his own Church, the Church of England, called Anglican, simply because the Pope had refused to give him an annulment of his valid marriage, so he could marry another. However, he threatened Catholic Bishops in England with torture, death, or banishment if they refused to condone his actions. By so doing he was able to force some Catholic Bishops to join him, and therefore there were two separate priesthoods again. How did GOD handle this one?

Only sixteen years later in 1550, King Edward VI, in a greater effort to protestantize the Anglican Church, deliberately changed the form of ordination, and by so doing invalidated the ordination of new priests. In 1662, realizing a mistake had been made, the Anglicans reverted to the valid form, but by then it was too late, for by this time all of the validly ordained Bishops had died. Because of the error of King Edward VI, Anglican orders from the Edwardian ordination of 1550 until the present day are invalid.

Once again a single priesthood is in order.

God's fingerprints are easily seen here in his preservation of one priesthood only.

GOD made provision for only one priesthood in the Old Testament, and still only one priesthood in the New Testament. There is no verse in Holy Scripture which authorizes multiple priesthoods.

"There is one God and one Christ, and one Church, and one Chair founded on Peter by the word of the Lord. It is not possible to set up another altar or for there to be another priesthood besides that one altar and that one priesthood. Whoever has gathered elsewhere is scattering."

Saint Cyprian of Carthage, Letter To All His People, 43,(40),5, 251 A.D., Jurgens 573

If man refuses to obey the will of GOD, then GOD in some way imposes His will on man.

GOD's Church:

The Word of GOD in Holy Scripture has told us in many places* that He will protect His one Church from the time He founded it until the end of time. Over the last two millennia, how many members of the human race have ignored his Word and have tried in vain to bring His Church to destruction?

*2Samuel 7:12-13, Psalms 127:1, Isaiah 54:17,59:21, Daniel 2:44, 6:26, 7:14, Matthew 16:18,28:20, Luke 1:33, 10:16, John 14:16,18, Acts 5:38-39, Romans 8:31, Ephesians 3:21, 5:23, Hebrews 12:28

The Jews:

The Jews persecuted GOD's Church and instead of destroying it, Judaism itself was almost completely destroyed by the Romans in 70 A.D. as explained above.

It seems that even if GOD gives humanity plenty of warning of impending disaster, so many simply ignore His Word and end up paying a high price for doing so.

Can you see now why the Apostles did not choose Jerusalem to be the seat of Christianity?

They knew the Word of GOD from Luke 21:20 and Matthew chapter 24, and they heeded it.

Do you see the fingerprints of GOD here?

The Romans:

Try as they may from a succession of Caesar's, and from century to century, the Romans who had the most powerful armies on earth, tried but failed to destroy GOD's Church. They murdered Christians by the tens of thousands and yet more popped up to take their places. Pagan Rome collapsed in 476 A.D., and was replaced by Christian Rome. Isn't it ironic, that from the ruins of the pagan Roman Forum, one can see the dome of Saint Peters Basilica, the center of world Christianity?

Well, maybe it is not so ironic, for we can easily see the fingerprints of GOD here, as the world center of paganism was transformed into the world center of Christianity.

The Protestants:

Martin Luther a Catholic priest started the Protestant reformation in 1520 and founded another church other than the one which GOD founded and claimed it to be the true church. Since more than one true church was not in GOD's plan (Psalms 127:1, 1Corinthians 3:11), His fingerprints were seen almost immediately in that very same year. Unresolved squabbling between Luther and his allies caused each of them to split off and form a chaotic plethora of separate denominations, which resulted in the scattering of the one flock of GOD. This chaotic madness is continuing to this very day. They are now numbering in the tens of thousands of sects, with each teaching something different, and with each claiming to be the true church.

It is simply a variation of the tower of Babel story, with the one flock of GOD being scattered this time not by language differences, but by personal opinion differences:

""Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore its name was called Ba'bel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth."

Genesis 11:7-9

The truth of GOD is not wrought through personal opinion:

"They came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you are not concerned with anyone's opinion. You do not regard a person's status but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth."

Mark 12:14

Those who refuse to acknowledge the hard lessons taught by Holy Scripture, are doomed to repeat the errors presented therein:

"What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun. Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"? It has been already, in the ages before us. There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after."

Ecclesiastes 1:9-11

Approximately eight to ten million mis-guided Catholics followed Luther and his allies into Protestantism in old world Europe.

However, only eleven years later in 1531, eight to ten million new Catholics entered the Church in the new world Americas, as a result of the well documented miracle of Guadalupe.

See? GOD truly is the Savior of His Church. Ephesians 5:23

The fingerprints of GOD are all over the place, if we would only take the time to see and study them.

The Gravity of the Situation:

You have probably tied a string to a ball and whirled it around and felt the tug of the ball as it tried to escape from your pull. Now imagine no string at all, and what happens to the ball? Now imagine the earth whizzing around the sun with no visible "string" preventing it from flying off into space, but with an invisible "string" which we call gravity? The pull you felt on the ball was representative of the invisible force which pulls the earth in its orbit around the sun. Imagine the awesome power of the forces of gravity which are required to keep the universe in the well ordered state of which it is in? Why hasn't science been able to detect such a universal force as gravity, despite many ingenious methods used to unravel its mystery?

Could it be that the ways and the powers of GOD are to remain undetectable by any human means?

"He stretches out the north over the void, and hangs the earth upon nothing."

Job 26:7

The earth hangs upon nothing?

How many thousands of years did it take the human race to second that verse?

"And Ezra said: "Thou art the LORD, thou alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and thou preservest all of them; and the host of heaven worships thee."

Nehemiah 9:6

"Do you know the ordinances of the heavens? Can you establish their rule on the earth?"

Job 38:33

"When I look at thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast established;"

Psalms 8:3

Fingers leave prints, do they not?

"He is before all things, and in him all things hold together."

Colossians 1:17

Hold together? Hold together by what...or by whom?

"He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power."

Hebrews 1:3

"Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger."

Isaiah 13:13

"Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;"

Matthew 24:29

Don't these two verses sound like the disruption of what scientific minds call gravity?

"How would anything have endured if thou hadst not willed it? Or how would anything not called forth by thee have been preserved?"

Wisdom 11:25

"Ever since the creation of the world his invisible nature, namely, his eternal power and deity, has been clearly perceived in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse;"

Romans 1:20

GOD is invisible.

However, His fingerprints are clearly visible, in and upon the things He has created.

By Accident or by Design?:

For us to even exist at all, have you ever thought that:

- 1. The sun had to have been the right type of star, not too hot nor too cold, not too large nor too small.
- 2. The earth had to be just the right size so its gravity (?) was not too great as to crush us, nor too feeble to allow us to float off of its surface.
- 3. The earth had to be just the right distance from the sun so life could exist in a not too hot, nor a too cold environment. So also that water, which is essential to life as we know it, would not be permanently frozen or vaporized.
- 4. The earth had to be tilted at just the right angle to keep these temperatures moderate enough for the existence of life as we know it.

After scientists have tried to disprove the existence of GOD for many years, one of the worlds top cosmologists* has admitted that some "force" had to have started the whole process**.
Force? What force?

*Those who theorize how the universe was formed and where it is headed.

**The "Big Bang" theory.

Fingerprints of GOD in Holy Scripture:

Navigation:

"The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas."
Psalms 8:8

"Paths of the seas"? Mariners use ocean currents to navigate around the world. Why would GOD want mankind to know this?

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," Matthew 28:20

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Sama'ria and to the end of the earth." Acts 1:8

GOD made the ocean currents known to man so that the Gospel could be spread faster and easier to the Gentiles around the world.

Blood:

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it for you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement, by reason of the life."

Leviticus 17:11,14, Deuteronomy 12:23. See also Genesis 9:4-5.

For centuries physicians bled people to rid their bodies of their "poisonous" afflictions.

Joseph Lister (1827-1912) was the first to discover that the immune system was in the blood.

The expanding universe:

"I made the earth, and created man upon it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host." Isaiah 45:12

It was not until the twentieth century that man "discovered" that the universe was expanding.

Instant world wide communication:

"The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork. Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge. There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard; yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them he has set a tent for the sun, which comes forth like a bridegroom leaving his chamber, and like a strong man runs its course with joy. Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them; and there is nothing hid from its heat. The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple;"

Psalms 19:2-7

Today, we have AM, FM, and shortwave radio, television, telephone, internet, and satellite communications spreading the Word of GOD around the world instantly. There is no better example for all of these instant means of communication for spreading the Word of GOD world wide than, "The Eternal Word Television Network, EWTN".

The Catholic Church which Jesus Christ founded is fulfilling the command of her Head (Ephesians 5:23):

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20

The Fingerprints of GOD are easily seen for those who have eyes to see.

---

"And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land, the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders; but to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, or eyes to see, or ears to hear."

Deuteronomy 29:2-4

"The word of the LORD came to me: "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, who have eyes to see, but not see, who have ears to hear, but hear not;..."

Ezekiel 12:1-2

---

I see his blood upon the rose and in the stars the glory of his eyes, his body gleams amid eternal snows,
his tears fall from the skies.

I see his face in every flower;
the thunder and the singing of the birds are but his voice --- and, carven by his power rocks are his hidden words.

All pathways by his feet are worn, his strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea, his crown of thorns is twined in every thorn, his cross is every tree."

We see as if through a veil!

The Story of "The Image" in Saint Dominic Catholic Church, Colfax, California

"To the choirmaster. Of David. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God."

---

In September 1990, a holy lady named Sylvia received an internal locution from the Blessed Virgin Mary in which she said, "I will appear for all to see on Thanksgiving Day." However she did not say where. On November 22, 1990, Thanksgiving Day, a colorful image appeared on the right wall of a tiny Catholic Church in Colfax California, Saint Dominic. It was first seen by Bob and Jackie, a married couple, at about 9:40 A.M.. Soon the word got out and TV vehicles with satellite dishes on top arrived and the news went around the world and started a flood of pilgrims by the thousands. The Bishop arrived and the cameras turned to him and a reporter asked him what he saw in the Image. He said it looks like a woman holding a child. Father Dwyer from the very beginning told us all to name what we are seeing on the wall "The Image". Notice in the first picture in this document that the Image appears to be facing the statue of Jesus. That is where she always starts. Can you give me a reason why? In this writing there are several questions that require answers. Here is another one. The Image was seen first on November 22, 1990. After that first year the Image starts forming on October 22 and is full on November 1. Can anyone explain why the difference in starting time? What is the significance of that date? It is "All Saints Day". Here is another one. The Image starts several minutes before the start of the 10 A.M. Mass and always ends before the consecration. Can anyone explain why?

A note regarding images included in this story:

Has anyone at any time seen a perfectly clear photograph of any Heavenly being? Not to my knowledge! There are a lot of clear paintings and of course the tilma Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and we have the Shroud of Turin, but not a single clear photograph. The pictures in this post are all actual photographs of what we saw. There are some where I increased the brightness and / or contrast to make the details easier to see. For most people viewing the photos in this writing requires patience and a few minutes of staring at some of them until the details suddenly appear. That is what happened to me on many of them. The reasons that we have never seen clear pictures of heavenly beings is easily explained. This Earth is not our home, our being here for a mere minute or two of infinite time. Our home is in Heaven outside of time. So we receive only fuzzy images of Heaven and Heavenly beings if any at all, but only when we are in our finite time on earth. Here are a few clips from Holy Scripture that explain why. Remember the veil? Seeing through a veil hides much.

1Corinthians 4:5, "Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then every man will receive his commendation from God."

1Timothy 5:25, "So also good deeds are conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot remain hidden."

Ephesians 3:8-12, "To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to make all men see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things;

that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places.
This was according to the eternal purpose which he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and confidence of access through our faith in him."

Luke 12:2-3, "Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed upon the housetops."

2Corinthians 3:9-18, "For if there was splendor in the dispensation of condemnation, the dispensation of righteousness must far exceed it in splendor. Indeed, in this case, what once had splendor has come to have no splendor at all, because of the splendor that surpasses it. For if what faded away came with splendor, what is permanent must have much more splendor. Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not see the end of the fading splendor. But their minds were hardened; for to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their minds; but when a man turns to the Lord the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit."

A right wall Image with an enlargement on the right.
Did you notice the faint glow around her?
This is where she starts every time near her risen Son in the statue.

Almost no one knew that we had more Images start on the left wall about an hour later after the right wall Image ended.
They were entirely different from the right wall Images which ended before the Mass ended.
Soon after the Mass the crowds had left, but two adult sisters Pola and Mila stayed behind to pray in front of the "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" statue who holds the child Jesus by her left arm. Soon that left wall Image will seem to come alive with a new addition to this story.
Here is one important clue to show that "The Image" is alive. Notice in almost every right wall image She is either presenting a partial or a full right profile except for a few photos where She had turned to face us. However on the left wall, She is always in a partial or full left profile. I see that as an important clue as a sign of intelligence, and having intelligence is a sign of life.
She knew exactly which way to turn to see Her Son from both the right and left walls.

Here is a photo of Father Luke Zimmer standing beside the "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" statue in front of the left wall of the church. Notice the child Jesus being held in her left arm. This scene of her holding Jesus is very important throughout this writing.

To whom does she appear to be looking?

Below is the same photo. I simply darkened the Image part in order to allow us to see more detail.

Who is She looking towards and is She holding someone?

In these left wall pics She seems to be always looking at the child Jesus held by herself in the statue.

Or maybe She is looking at Him in this photo. I will let you decide what this one above brings to mind.

Did you notice the tiny red spot beside the white glow near Her heart?

The photograph below has several interesting images to keep you busy finding them.

One day in December 1990 there were several of us lined up in a row before the left wall statue of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel". There were Sylvia, the lady who had the locution in the previous September, the sisters Pola and Mila who first saw the left wall Image, one or two others and myself. I was on the right end with Sylvia to my left. We were all praying together to Our Lady. When we finished, suddenly out of the mouth of Sylvia came the words of "thank you for coming" and a few more. I turned and looked at her and she looked different. All I remember is that her face had turned gray and looked more like a statue with no inflections at all. She was having another locution but instead of an internal locution it was an external one because we all heard it. Her countenance returned to normal within a few seconds.

Now let us venture back to the right wall again where all of these beautiful happenings began.

The Bishop asked Father Dwyer if he wanted him to open an official church investigation regarding the Image and Father Dwyer said no and I do not know why as I was not privy to that conversation and I know not if any parishioners were. I do know that he was extremely tired because of the crowds and he had little sleep because of the all night noise from the full parking lot next to the rectory and people in their campers running their engines to keep warm since it was winter time and when some left, others quickly filled their parking space so the noise was nonstop every night.

Why am I writing this? It has been about 26 years since I took my first pictures so why now when I am that much older? It is because in reviewing some of my pictures I am convinced that we have not only seen Images that resemble the Blessed Virgin Mary but other very important clues that were not properly interpreted or noticed before. I believe we do God's work in God's time, not our time. I am convinced that we were watching a very important story that has a beginning and an end to it. The pictures show this as we proceed through this story. But let us first lay the foundation that allowed this all to happen.

First a couple of my favorite Bible verses:

Ecclesiastes 1:9 "What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun."

John 15:5 "...For Without Me you can do nothing."

That verse holds true for both Jesus Christ who said it, and for the sun, for without the sun, there would be no life on earth.

Everything alive owes its existence to the sun and ultimately to the Son (John 14:6).

GOD is a Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

There are three persons in one GOD. They are distinct but not separate. The sun can be likened to a trinity also, with the Father as being analogous to the sun, the Son proceeding from the sun (Father) as the light that we see.

John 8:12, "Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.""

The Holy Spirit proceeds from the sun as fire and the heat that we feel.

Acts 2:3-4, "And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

There again, we have a trio of the sun, light, and heat, with each being distinct but not separate.

God has used the sun many times in both testaments of the Bible. He has used the sun to perform miracles even in modern times. There is the Miracle of the Sun at Fatima Portugal on October 13, 1917 where the sun itself moved, light was dancing around and heat was increasing from a falling sun to dry wet clothes of the pilgrims caused by a rainstorm. All three persons of God were present and active and that miracle was witnessed by some 70,000 pilgrims at the site of the miracle and many more people from several miles away. The 100th anniversary of the Miracle of Fatima will soon be here, October 13, 2017.

Again we witness yet another very interesting sun happening, this time in a tiny Catholic Church in a tiny town, starting in November 1990.

Here is another tiny town verse that seems to fit in this story and for a similar reason:

Micah 5:2 "But you, O Bethlehem Eph'rathah, who are little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days."

However, Bethlehem is not so little anymore.

Above are two photos which show the mechanics of how the Image is being formed. Starting with the left one, taken from the loft of the church, notice the two hanging lamps. The brighter one and closest to the right wall is the one reflecting sunlight from the large window behind the altar of the Church onto the wall, forming the Image and you can see the Image on that wall. The weak dark lines on the window show the path of the sun, depending on the time of the season. The two strong black lines are the paths of the sunlight passing straight through the stained glass window and on to the lamp.

The photo on the right shows the same path of the sun and is easier to see. First of all to get the correct terms, the sun is not crossing the window. It is the rotation of the earth as it passes over the surface of the sun. The bottom yellow line is the solstice December 21, the lowest point the sunlight will reach. So the light passing through the window does not even come close to the figures farther down and they have no effect on the Image that we see. Now heading into January and February are two paths drawn towards the top of the window and they will continue through the window top and that is where the Image ends. Notice as sunlight rises on the window, the window becomes narrower and thus the time we see the Image shortens. Notice also the yellow line at the top goes in an opposite direction and that line is for the left wall path of the sun. Since the left wall Image starts an hour or so later it will always be a shorter Image time of display length. It is only about 30 minutes at maximum while the right wall is about 50 minutes maximum. During several weeks of sunshine the crowds started decreasing when finally a storm came and there was no sunlight and thus no Image. The doubters were right. It was the sunlight causing the Image to appear. We knew that fact early on. Now came the flak when some said the Image is man made because wires were added around the lamps to hold the lenses in place and that is when the image started. I wanted to prove or disprove that story by the doubters. The church has a very tall ladder used to replace light bulbs in the lamps, so one day I set the ladder under the lamp while the Image was on the wall and there was only one other person, a local lady, in the church besides myself. I climbed the ladder and touched the lamp and "ZAP" I had received a loud voltage shock. She heard it and let out a yelp and asked if I was alright. I was but it got me to thinking...WHY? I gambled it was maybe a static discharge and touched it again and no zap. So I removed the small wires and guess what? The image was still there. So much for the wire theory. The nay sayers could not answer our question of even with the wires, why did the Image look so much like the Blessed Virgin Mary and not of anything else like an animal or a vegetable or even a blur, anything other than what we were seeing.

Now for some very interesting things regarding Saint Dominic Church itself. The Church was built in 1951 and I must give the architects, designers, builders and a Master Designer credit for this story to unfold at all.

- 1. The Church would have to be facing due north in order for sunlight to enter the south facing high window at the right time before the Mass and end before the consecration. I checked it with a compass, knowing that a compass will not point directly at true north and figured the church was off just a few degrees to the right of true north which was close enough.
- 2. The large stained window behind the altar and above the tabernacle is just the right height to pass light onto the lamp and then to the wall from November 1 to February 20 encompassing the Christmas season. Notice in the photo of the stained glass window it has mostly shades of blue yet most Images have little blue in them. Red is in the small border around it. Some say gold for the crown and a few other items comes from the chalice and the keys in it. However the crown can be seen when sunlight is not passing through either the keys or the chalice. There is a much better explanation regarding the light striking the lamp and from the various colors that we see on the wall, later in this writing.
- 3. The right wall on which the Image can be seen is just the right width. As the time passes, the Image moves slowly to the left toward the walls edge but the Image slowly disappears and is gone before it meets the edge with only about 2 inches to spare.

- 4. This is the lamp that gathers sunlight from the large stained glass window above and behind the altar, reflects the sunlight and focuses it on to the right wall where we see it. The lenses are only a few inches wide and they are the plain pieces of plastic on both sides of the center section. The wires that detractors claim are the cause of the image to appear are so tiny they can hardly be seen. Now for a mystery to give you some thought. Can you see it? The wide gap between the lenses is not seen in the Image displayed on the wall. There are a few photos where that area is a little darker in the middle of the photo compared to the two sides and that looks as if it serves as to give the image a 3D effect in that area. The gap between the lenses that should detract from the image actually enhances it. Now my question is why are only a few of my photos a little darker in the middle and not all of them? Is something or someone controlling what we are seeing in the photos? By the way I looked at the working side of the lamp and all I saw was a reflection of the stained glass window with a slight distortion and saw absolutely nothing that we see on the wall.

5. The lamp is in a perfect position to focus a full Image onto the wall. If it were higher or lower the Image would be missing the top or the bottom of itself. If the lamp was placed farther to the right the Image would overshadow the statue of Jesus and she would never do that. If the lamp were placed inches to the left then the Image would fall off the wall on its left side before it faded away. If the lamp were closer to or further from the right wall the Image would be out of focus. The lamp must be parallel to the right wall which displays the image and also with the long outside wall on the right side of the church. As you can readily see the lenses play a critical part of what we see on the wall.

As of the date I write this paragraph, September 21, 2016, the Image has been with us for 25 years with #26 coming soon.

I cannot help but ponder who the real Master Designer of Saint Dominic Church was in 1951 who planned all of the perfect conditions needed above to be used for a magnificent display 39 years later in 1990. Now that statement leads me to yet another question:

Why November 22, 1990, Thanksgiving Day? So yet another question arises that calls for an answer.

Well I can think of one answer that seems to fit the timing of it all. Wasn't that date right in the middle of a flood of messages from Our Lady to The Marian Movement of Priests, and from Medjugorje and other sources? Those were various oral messages.

She was rarely seen but by a very few. We heard the oral messages but very few saw her visually. The oral messages went around the world for anyone to receive. Wasn't it about time for visible messages to start somewhere also, silent messages that told a beautiful story and yet could be seen all over the world?

Now here is an interesting story of facts regarding the first lamp out from the altar on the left side of the church as you walk in.

I already mentioned Pola and Mila seeing another Image on the left wall. Fr Dwyer related these facts to me. One day during the week a few parishioners were praying from a pew in the left side when a lamp lens fell from the second lamp back from the altar to crash in the pew right in front of them and about one quarter of its length shattered on one of its two sides. Fr Dwyer said he did not know why it fell so he had the wires put around the lenses of all of the lamps. In order for a lens to fall like that I think maybe someone replaced a light bulb and did not put the lense in its U shaped bottom channel properly. That channel assures that it will not fall. Fr Dwyer could not find a spare lens so he had the broken lens moved to the first lamp and the good lense from it so was that no one in the church could see it during the Mass except for those in the altar area.

I do not know when it was done. It could have been months or even a year before the Image on the left wall was seen for the first time.

Several years later in the mid 90's Fr Dwyer told me he had found a spare lens. It was hiding in his office under a stack of books. I was excited with this find because we could try a few experiments of our own with it. As the weeks and months go by the sun is rising higher and higher in the sky. In turn the sunlight drops off the lamps and falls to the floor. That is why we have no Images until the next November first and there is no Image to be seen on the floor. Fr Dwyer and I took the spare lens into the church and held it to the right of the altar where the wall was clear of obstructions and we could gather sunlight and reflect it onto the wall and were very surprised to see an image, not like at all "The Image" we see during the Mass, but what a prism would display when presented to sunlight. Pure sunlight is made from all the colors of the rainbow and that is what we saw as we held the lens facing the wall.

There was a difference between our lens image and a prism. Our image had wavy color lines whereas a prism has straight parallel lines.

To top this off it appears that all of those blue shades in the stained glass window add little if anything to "The Image" color. It is the sunlight that is giving us the colors that we see on the wall through the lamp lens which is acting like a prism.

Now we will return to the right wall pictures and continue with the story of "The Image" in Saint Dominic Church.

January 6, 1996

December 30, 1995,
1991

November 23, 1993,

January 17,

Notice that the above right wall photos were taken in different years and months. I just picked these at random.

There appears to be something unusual in them, not only in these samples but in all of them.

Do you see it?

The Images seem to be behind the gold painted stripes on the wall that surrounds the statue of Jesus.

What does that tell us? Also I can see slight facial features in all four photos. Notice also as she moved further to the left away from the statue of Jesus she has turned her head to face us.

The above picture was a huge surprise when I finally saw what was in it.
For me it took some time staring at it from a distance of 2-3 feet.

In it I found at least five very interesting features.

Can you see at least one of them? Or maybe more?

This picture adds greatly to my belief that when watching "The Image" we are unfolding a very familiar story from beginning to end.

Here is a clue for one item of interest in the Image above and maybe the easiest one to see:

Ichthos or Icthus or Ichthus: Greek for fish. The fish symbol was used as a symbol of Christ before permission was given by Constantine to practice the faith openly.

The fish symbol is an ancient one, representing both Jesus and his followers.

The ICHTHUS symbol helped Christians identify one another as believers.

ICTHOS is the capital letters of 'Jesus Christ, Son of GOD, Savior'. Fish are used as a symbol of the faithful, referring to the miraculous catch and that some of the Apostles were fishermen: Mt 4:18-19, Lk 5:1-10.

More on the blue spot near the top of this photo in a comparison photo later in this writing.

This photo looks to be a right profile and She has moved to the left for about 25-30 minutes. Notice that bright white area to the left. Go back to the first 2 side by side pics in this document and you can see that there is no white patch at all in the same place. That white patch is to be remembered as it changes into something else in her movement to the left. She is approaching the right wall edge now so there are maybe only 15-20 minutes left before She fades away

The crown

Can you see a gold crown atop Her head? Remember it as it is extremely important. There are some light facial features in the left and middle one also.

This one I cannot explain why the statue of Jesus lighting is so different.
This was the only picture with this problem of the 36 pictures on the film roll.
She has facial features and notice the shape of the white patch on the far left of her image.
It is a most important preview of coming attractions to this story.

For years I have formed axioms that I live by for various reasons. One is "All of life is a matter of timing, a minute or two here or a second or two there". I believe that axiom fits perfectly here. The Image on the wall is dynamic, meaning it is constantly changing due to the rotation of the earth. That means the timing of taking a picture is critical, a minute or two here, a second or two there. Normally I was about 15-20 feet from the wall and snapped the picture from what I saw at that distance. But there were things that I did not see until I saw the photo that the camera had captured. One photo that caps the end of this story might have been better if I had taken it a few seconds earlier or later.

This is the most mysterious picture of 'The Image' that I have ever taken.

You can see that it was from the right wall by the stripes in the lower right.

There is a lot to study as to what is in it. I see a woman with flesh colored facial features and who is seen by me in right profile at times and slightly turned to her right at times.

Notice what appears to be a flesh colored right arm in the lower right and again it is clearly behind the stripes painted on the wall.

Then we have a very interesting person in the upper left who clearly wears a golden crown, and yet another person to his left.

There is yet another image in the upper right and the lady is wearing a crown.

Did you notice the amount of blue in it compared to so many other pictures who have little or no blue in them?

I would say that the Master Artist in this picture wanted to portray her mantle in blue.

The right enlarged photo below is from the upper left of the photo above.

Who is He? I thought only kings and queens wore crowns and He is definitely looking at Her.

Can you think of a good reason why?

I can.

Can you see a resemblance between these two photos?

Both are closeups from earlier photos in this document.

Did you find the cross in the left one? I did after a short time staring at it.

Try moving closer or farther away to view them if you have a hard time seeing the details.

I find both very startling and a BIG surprise.

Now for the last pics of this story

The Crown

The white area

The end of the story

THE END OF THE STORY

This picture was taken at the end of her visit for the day.

The little square at the top is the end of her crown as it fades away.

The image hanging down from the little square was the brilliant white spot to her left in an earlier pic and I called attention to its shape where it compares with what we see in the above picture. It was the crown and the brilliant white area that formed the end of the story in the above picture. Do you see what I see in this pic? Do not see it? Do not despair because very few do, even when pointed out by those who do. I have pointed it out to so many and they still did not see it. I did not see it myself but something or somebody kept me staring at it off and on for three days and suddenly it was there. I was dumbfounded at what I saw. I showed it to scores of people and I would estimate that more than half did not see it at all, even if I explained it to them.

This got me to asking why.

At last only one person who I showed it to saw it immediately and he answered "Yes and it is anatomically correct", all within five seconds. I was so surprised at the speed and interpretation almost immediately so I asked him what he meant by anatomically correct. His reply was, "The right foot is over the left". He saw the picture, found a correction in it and replied to me all in five seconds.

That person was our very own priest in Saint Dominic Church, our very own Father Dermot Dwyer. In the church, the crucifix is wrong in that the left foot is over the right. The crucifixion of Christ in detail was one of Father Dwyer's teachings in his classes. Recall that only one nail was used for both feet of Jesus during His crucifixion. As for the bright white area on the left in the central picture, since it becomes what we see in

THE END OF THE STORY picture it reminds me of the transfiguration in Luke 9:28-29,

"Now about eight days after these sayings he took with him

Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became dazzling white." Just a thought but maybe it is Jesus in His divine nature before transforming back into His human nature in the final picture?

Questions for doubters and deniers regarding "The Image" from what I have gleaned from it for many years and have written in this document.

I added to just a few questions what came to mind as possible answers.

1. Since now that you know exactly how the Images are being formed, please explain why they all appear to be Images of heavenly beings?
2. Why since the Church was built in 1951 no Images were reported to have been seen from that time until 1990, thirty nine years later?
3. Please tell me why the first Image ever seen was on November 22 in 1990 but now starts on November 1 every year since that date?
4. Please tell me why the Images seen on the left wall are yet of heavenly beings that use a different lamp with two different lenses?
5. Please explain to me why the Images on both walls are facing the statues of Jesus Christ, one as a child and one as an adult?

Wouldn't that alone imply that the images have intelligence?

6. Explain to me how her Images can appear behind painted gold stripes on the right wall where she appears first everytime?
7. Why do her Images on the right wall mostly face to her left while all her Images on the left wall always face to her right?
8. Right wall: Why does she turn her head from looking at her Son in the statue to watching us who are watching her?

Maybe to thank us for being there to visit with Her since She did thank us earlier by an external location?

9. Since the Image is formed by two lenses separated by a wide gap, why is the gap not seen on the wall at any time?
10. Referencing the lens gap, why is every Image in very good proportion, with never a dividing line in the center?
11. How can you deny the fact that the design of the church is what caused this Image display to happen at all?
12. Can you explain why her Image on the right wall fades away before the consecration starts in the Mass?
The timing of it brings to my mind John 3:30, "He must increase, but I must decrease".
13. How did the 1951 builders of the church know the critical placement of the lamps in all dimensions?
14. If you still believe that the Images on both walls are formed by man, tell me how man is doing it?
15. If you think the Image is formed by the sun, then please explain how the sun manages to do it?
16. If she appears behind the stripes on the wall, does not that show that she is within the wall?

This so far is the best picture that I have found in my hundreds that I have taken showing that 'The Image' is behind the painted gold stripes on the wall. The Image is way too far to the right because the lamp was not parallel with the outside wall and was turned to the right slightly.

I know this because the Crucifixion scene is forming to the left side of Her and that is always the last scene that we see before She is about to fade away. Her image should be about two feet further to the left by this time in this photo.

17. Why when we had a spare lense and held it in sunlight we could not duplicate any Image?
18. Since the Image started in 1990 and is still there 26 years later please explain why it is?
19. Tell us how tiny wires added to the lenses were able to display the heavenly Images?
20. Tell us why She is always a bust figure on the right wall yet full figure on the left?
21. Is it by coincidence or by design that Christ-Mass is near the center of Her visit?
The Image when full can be seen from November 1 to February 22.

Now let us examine the evidence from what we have learned so far.

To my knowledge no one other than myself has ever reported seeing this crucifixion scene before. The reason why is very simple. I first saw it in the photo and it was not easy to see since so many do not even see it at all even in the photo. I said earlier that I was 15 or so feet away from the wall when I took the picture. That is too far away from the Image for me to even see this in real time. So the next time She was displayed on the wall I went up to the Image and took a close look only a foot or so away and there it was. It is too small to be easily seen 15 feet away. The crucifixion scene is about 20-22 inches high and about 2-3 inches wide. The secret of seeing that crucifixion scene at all is to watch for when She has a fading crown and that bright spot on the left is present. Watch that white spot fade into that final scene. Never take a flash picture as so many pilgrims did, since the flash washes out Her light and a poor photo results.

What is causing these beautiful Images?

In my USAF training as a radar instructor I formed an axiom in my mind:
"If you do not know what it is then come in the back door and list what it is not."

That axiom also worked perfectly for me in my many years with IBM.
So now I will apply it to this mystery and see if it works here also.

Facts:

1. The Image is displayed on 2 walls in the church.
2. Sunlight is needed and without sunlight there is no Image.
3. A tall stained glass window is needed to allow the sunlight into the church.
4. The lamps are needed to capture the sunlight from the window and turn it to the wall display.
5. The extraordinary design of the church which allows all of the fixtures listed, and the sun to work together.

That is all, a very short list. The axiom has worked yet again since not one of the above is capable of forming the Images that we see on the wall. Neither can all working in conjunction with each other do it. Therefore we can safely conclude that none of the hardware made by man as listed above nor the sun itself is forming the Images that we see on the wall.

Therefore the axiom forces us to look elsewhere for why we see what we see on the two walls inside that tiny church.

So where do we go from here?

The axiom requires that we have to ask questions, and at this point what would you ask?

Well I have a very BIG question to ask.

Why do the Images in the photos in this document look so much like heavenly beings on both walls where they appear?

Can you think of another question better than that one to ask?

So since we failed in trying to find an earthly reason for what we see, we must look elsewhere. But where else is there?

Before I answer that question I have to agree with the doubters, because they said the image is caused by the sun.

However it is so sad that they failed miserably in their spelling by only one little letter.

The image is caused by the "SON".

I chose Heaven and here is why:

John 8:12, "Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.""

That Holy Light could form any Image that He would want us to see. And that is why we see Heavenly beings only, on both walls, and through what we might call a veil.

Here is another verse that we all know quite well but have we ever made this connection before?

Exodus 20:12, "Honour thy father and thy mother, that thou mayst be longlived upon the land which the Lord thy God will give thee."

He wrote the Ten Commandments and gave them to us.

And He surely honors His Father and His Mother.

Isn't He honoring His Mother before our very eyes in the Image of Her in Saint Dominic Church?

Shouldn't we take up our cross and follow Him by doing the same?

Did not He take up His cross for us in the last photo above?

I can almost see His fingerprints in "The Image".

I did say at the very beginning of this document, "The Story of The Image".
What story do you see in this document if any?

I see more than one story.

First of all I see a mothers love story for Her Son simply because she starts by looking at Her child Son from the left wall and to Her adult resurrected Son from the right wall.

It is a Mother to Son and Son to Mother love story.

It is also a the story of Christ from the cradle on the left wall to the crucifixion and to His resurrection on the right wall.

It is a third story for us to abide by those stories and to stay close to God especially for those who have fallen away from Him.

Matthew 7:8, "For every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened."

The fruits that have resulted from all of these beautiful visible stories from Our Lady of "The Image".

Father Dwyer would not allow us to film him during the Mass so I sat in the first pew in front of the altar and wrote down in notebooks his homilies, as they were too precious to lose. One Sunday during the consecration he raised the host and lowered it quickly and I thought I saw something in it. I asked him if he could spend a little more time in doing this. I spoke to several parishioners and told them to watch closely to see if they saw it too. The next Sunday he took more time and there was the face of Christ in it and it was seen by everyone in the first few pews. What a precious gift for all of us to see and it happened every Sunday after that first time. Also his Good Friday homilies were something not to be missed, as people from many miles away who had him before we did came to hear him. One time as he began his homily we saw a patch of gold as a fog hovering over his head.

We had two great priests both of whom were involved. Father Dwyer of course, and Father Luke Zimmer who was the spiritual director for a well known Catholic publishing company and for so many individuals including yours truly. He was also a healing priest. He would line us up in a row and would give each his special blessing and we would drop to the floor in the hands of a catcher.

In 1993 one parishioner had 3 inoperable brain cancer tumors and was given one month to live. Father Zimmer gave him his special healing blessing and the cancer went away. That man is still with us today 23 years later.

It helped produce our very own home grown Catholic priest. Danny Massick, a teenager when the Image started, is now Father Daniel Massick, recently back in this country after several years of study at the Vatican.

Many thousands of devoted pilgrims came to see it. I recall 4000 on one day and large crowds were with us for many days in a row. Some came from other states as far away as the east coast. It was just beautiful seeing so many with such devotion to Her, all praying as they stood in long lines to enter the church.
It was a sight that I will never forget.

Several years ago something strange, exciting, mysterious, and unexplained started with The Image. Several parishioners told me that She was vibrating up and down intermittently. I watched for it over many days and finally saw it myself for a few seconds at a time. The Image would jitter up and down about 8 or 10 inches and at a fast pace of several times per second. It would stop after a few seconds and then start again a few minutes later, and then stop for several more days. I never managed to get a picture of it due to its intermittent appearance but I did check the mechanics as to how The Image is being formed as I have presented earlier in this document. The mechanics were not disturbed so they were not involved in those strange movements. Besides that a video would have to be taken in order to capture the jitter properly.

All I can say at this point in time is to surmise that She had called for our attention at those times and She certainly received it from the viewers of this single still unexplained complete surprise. For me this movement tells me that The Image is more dynamic than I had ever realized, and is certainly capable of new surprises in time. Who knows, maybe even vocal such as locutions either internal or external.

We are witnessing a beautiful story that is unfolding before our very eyes.

1Samuel 12:16, "Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes."

Here are a few personal notes that changed my life forever, after witnessing "The Image". Fr Dwyer came to me and said he was tired of hearing about Mary's 'other children' and asked me to write a paper explaining who the real parents of the 'brethren' were. He said "You can find them in the Bible by comparing verses". That was his way of getting me to open my 'new' 1953 Bible. I found the verses and wrote my first paper, "Genealogy of the Brethren". He liked it and that gave me courage to write more.

Circa 1992 Father Dwyer taught 35 of us his marvelous "Know your faith" 14 hour course found here on this website <http://www.thecatholictreasurechest.com/tools.htm> . It built a fire in me and the last thing he told us was, "Now go out and teach the world". I and others thought, now how are we ever going to do that? So we taught family, friends, neighbors, and our learning curves went straight up. We learned very quickly because as a teacher you never know what questions the class will ask and they want quick responses. Again I have to thank the USAF for sending me to 'how to teach' school for 6 weeks, so I had the basics of teaching down pat, one of which was 'always be prepared'.
I was still writing pages and by 1997 I had 70 pages written, all the time thinking 'how am I ever going to teach the whole world'? A friend came along and asked if I had seen the internet. I had not but soon did and I started my first website with those 70 pages on May 1, 1997. It was Father Dwyer who inspired me to write those 70 pages by asking me to write that first one. It was the Image that so inspired me to take as many pictures as I could, close to 1000 pictures over several years.
And to write this document with a few of them for all to see that 'Yes there is a God'.

Below are a few photos involving the Church itself that I added here just for interest.

Here is an interesting photo of something or someone over the church, taken by maybe a pilgrim in the crowd who was waiting to see "The Image".
Is that an internal camera reflection near the top or possibly something heavenly?

This was going on outside while something else was happening inside.
Saint Dominic Catholic Church, Colfax California

The Dove

This pretty white dove made its home atop the church.
I and many others saw it every day for about two weeks.
Most of the time it would be seen on the very top of the church perched exactly over the tabernacle or the altar.

The Cross atop St Dominic Church is a plain metal cross with no markings whatsoever.
This photo was taken of it when the sun was directly behind it.

This next photo shows the image larger and with more detail.

It is the same image only I colored the background to make the background images on my home page.

The sun behind the cross reshaped it and added the image to it....or was it the Son who did it all?

Saint Dominic Catholic Church, Colfax California. Photo was taken circa 1992.

As you come into Colfax you would turn right here, go one short block and the church is on the left. But first you have to read the bottom line on the sign.

Nope, you are wrong. It is for an eye doctor.

A coincidence? No. Coinsign... ? Ummm could be.

That depends on you.

Is this the sunrise in the east?
Or is it the Son rising in the East?

Ezekiel 8:16, "And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD; and behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, worshiping the sun toward the east."

Matthew 24:27, "For as the lightning comes from the east and shines as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of man."

Our Dear Father Dwyer, January 18, 1923 - May 7, 2005
Priest, Shepherd, Confessor, Counselor, Spiritual Director, Best Friend.
We miss you so much.

"Thou Art a Priest Forever According to the Order of Melchisedech"
Hebrews 7:17

"If you do something for God, He will repay you 100 times over".
A quote from Father Dermot Dwyer who taught us well.

A personal note from myself regarding Father Dwyer.

From the time that the Image started in 1990 until he had to retire in 2003,
I would ask him several times a year if it was really her that we were seeing as "The Image".
His answer was no answer whatsoever. He simply would change the subject.

I always took that his answer was a yes, simply because he never said no.

Others asked him too. We all knew the Image was true but we wanted to hear him say it.
When he had to retire in 2003 we often talked over the phone and I would ask him the same question and he would still divert my question to another subject. In 2005 I received a call from him and he was talking small talk at first and suddenly he said to me, "You know Bob that really is Her".

I bubbled up and tears fell and I thanked him sooo much. Then three days later he was taken up to heaven.

I had not known that he was speaking from his hospital death bed.

I guess you know by now that when a person knows they are dying, they speak absolute truth.

Learn more about this remarkable priest from this book that was released on April 12, 2007.
It is available from many sources such as Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and others...

A message from the author of this document:

God is speaking to us today in various ways but how many are listening to Him?
Why cannot mankind heed the errors of mankind hundreds or thousands of years ago and profit from them? However they repeat those same errors over and over again.

Read the Old Testament and see for yourself how mankind prospered when they followed God but suffered greatly when they fell away from Him.

And that is happening to mankind today, a repeat of the same old errors again and again.

Read all of Numbers chapter 16, for but one example out of many in Holy Scripture.

God is talking to us in the images we see in Saint Dominic Church.

But is anyone listening?

About the pictures of "The Image" in this document:

Here is a listing of what I see in these photos:

In every photo there is a woman who is looking at a statue of the child, Jesus or of an adult Jesus.

Who could she possibly be other than The Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother?

There are more than one picture of a gaunt faced man with a beard and wearing a gold or silver crown. Only kings and queens wore crowns in ancient times.

Also in the same pictures there are more interesting faces.

The silver crowned man also has a cross on his crown.

There is a fish, a recognition symbol used by persecuted Christians in early Christianity.

There is a crucifixion scene of a naked man hanging from a partial cross.

A short personal note from the author.

On Saturday December 1, 1990, I awoke in the morning with a voice in my head that said go to confession, go to confession and go today, and repeated it over and over again non-stop. It was a male voice maybe around age 28. After an hour or so I fought it and said no I will not go today.

The voice ignored me and kept repeating the same words except he added another church to go to and not Saint Dominic which I considered to be my church. The voice continued to noon time and I could not stand it anymore so I said, "okay I will go to confession today and I will go to the other church", not knowing why. The voice stopped immediately. I went to confession, went home, turned on the TV and a newscast and heard "The Blessed Virgin Mary" is appearing in a tiny Church in California.

I thought, wow I wonder which church. Then the TV cameras turned to the inside of the church and I saw it was my church and She was there on the right wall. I was so surprised as I did not know it was happening since I went to Saturday evening Mass and this was happening during the 10 A.M. Mass. However I was there at 7 A.M. on Monday and got one of the few seats left for the 8 A.M. Mass. Sure enough an image started at 9:40 and when she was a full image I felt a tingling sensation from the top of my head and it worked its way down to my feet in just a few seconds. I somehow felt that I was a changed person forever. I do not remember driving home as I felt that I had floated. As I entered the house and before I could tell my wife what had happened to me she said, "Call your cousin because your mother just passed away in MARYLAND". She had passed away at about the same time that I received that tingling sensation. By the way, I found out later that the voice I heard was most likely an internal locution. Also the reason why the voice told me to go to a different church was that the newscast told everyone to stay away from Colfax as there was such a huge influx of pilgrims by the thousands and there was no place to park anywhere near the church and the whole town was full of vehicles and pilgrims. Hey while writing this I just had yet another reason that came to me to prove that the image is absolutely true.

Why would I have an internal locution if the Image were not true???
Do not be surprised if I add more to this document as things like this keep happening to me.

In writing this document I took advantage of many tools:
Holy Scripture, light science, logic, photographs, common sense, axioms, history, building construction, the process of elimination, and by coming in the back door if the front door is closed,

Not One Human Disease is Incurable.

Allow me to show you the proof regarding that statement.

---

That statement is absolutely true.

How can that be true when the medical profession tells us that there are so many incurable diseases? Just look around and see that people are dying from multiple diseases, cancer, heart, diabetes, etc, etc, and etc.

No matter what the disease, there is a cure, a miraculous cure from the master physician.

The proof is in Holy Scripture:

Matthew 4:23, "And he went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people."

Matthew 4:24, "And his fame went throughout all Syria, and they presented to him all sick people that were taken with diverse diseases and torments, and such as were possessed by devils, and lunatics, and those that had the palsy, and he cured them:"

Matthew 9:35, "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity."

Matthew 10:1, "And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every infirmity."

Mark 5:29, "And immediately the hemorrhage ceased; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease."

Mark 5:34, "And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

Luke 6:17-19, "And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came forth from him and healed them all."

Luke 7:21-23, "In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. ; And he answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them.

And blessed is he who takes no offense at me."

*Note #1.

Have you noticed in the several verses above that Jesus healed 'every disease and infirmity'? Doesn't that send us a strong message that there is no human disease that Jesus could not cure?

---

Mark 6:4-6,

(4) "And Jesus said to them: "A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and in his own house, and among his own kindred."

(5) And he could not do any miracles there, only that he cured a few that were sick, laying his hands upon them.

(6) And he wondered because of their unbelief, and he went through the villages round about teaching."

*Note #2.

"And He could not do any miracles there"???

Jesus who is God could not perform miracles within His house or with His kin?

Those three verses 4-6 above hold the key to where this page is headed. Can you see where that key is?

How about these words in verse 6?

"And he wondered because of their unbelief". Let us back up to the previous verse 3 to see why their unbelief:

Mark 6:3, "Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" "And they took offense at him."

His friends and neighbors who grew up with Him seemingly did not know who He really was.

Faith and belief is a high priority for a miraculous cure.

---

Faith:

The word 'faith' is found in 230 verses in the New Testament. RSV

I would say that 'faith' is so very important since it is mentioned so many times.

Matthew 9:2-8, "And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, lying on his bed; and when Jesus saw their faith he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven."

And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming."

But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?

For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'?

But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins"

--he then said to the paralytic--"Rise, take up your bed and go home."

And he rose and went home.

When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men."

*Note #3.

Authority to men?'

The people still did not know who Jesus really was.

Matthew 9:22, "Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well."

And instantly the woman was made well."

Matthew 9:28-29, "When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you."

Matthew 14:29-31, "He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus;

but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me."

Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "O man of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Matthew 15:28, "Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire."

And her daughter was healed instantly."

Matthew 17:19-20, "Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you."

Luke 9:1, "Then calling together the twelve apostles, he gave them power and authority over all devils and to cure diseases."

John 14:13-14, "Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, that the Father may be glorified in the Son;

if you ask anything in my name, I will do it."

John 16:23, "In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father,

he will give it to you in my name."

*Note #4.

Have you ever asked the Father in the name of His Son Jesus for healing in your petition?

Colossians 3:17, "And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

Romans 8:26-27. "In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness;

for we do not know how to pray as we ought,

but the Spirit itself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because it intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will."

Ephesians 6:5-6, "Servants, be obedient to them that are your lords according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in the simplicity of your heart, as to Christ. Not serving to the eye, as it were pleasing men: but, as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart."

Hebrews 10:35-36, "Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.
For you have need of endurance, so that you may do the will of God and receive what is promised."

---

"For we do not know how to pray as we ought."

So Try This...

"According to your faith be it done to you."

"According to God's will."

---

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!

By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and to an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold which though perishable is tested by fire, may redound to praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ."

They Clash by Day! They Clash by Night! It is the Life Long Battle Within!

---

Matthew 26:41,

"Watch and pray, that you enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

It is the on-going battle within.

It is the battle between the spirit and the flesh. It is a life long battle.....that is, if we allow it to be so.

---

Genesis 6:3,

"And God said: My spirit shall not remain in man for ever, because he is flesh, and his days shall be a hundred and twenty years."

Luke 24:39,

"Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as you see me have."

John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

John 6:63,

"It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

Romans 8:1-22,

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (2) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. (3) For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: (4) That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (5) For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. (6) For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. (7) Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. (8) So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. (9) But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. (10) And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (11) But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. (12) Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. (13) For if you live after the flesh, you shall die: but if you through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, you shall live. (14) For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. (15) For you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. (16) The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: (17) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. (18) For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. (19) For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. (20) For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, (21) Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. (22) For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together."

1Corinthians 5:1-7,

"It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. (2) And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. (3) For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, (4) In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, (5) To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

(6) Your glorying is not good. Know you not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? (7) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:"

2Corinthians 7:1,

"Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God."

Galatians 3:1-3,

"You stupid people of Galatia! Who put you under an evil spell? Wasn't Christ Jesus' crucifixion clearly described to you? (2) I want to learn only one thing from you. Did you receive the Spirit by your own efforts to live according to a set of standards or by believing what you heard? (3) Are you that stupid? Did you begin in a spiritual way only to end up doing things in a human way?"

Galatians 5:16-26,

"But I say, walk by the Spirit, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. (17) For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you would. (18) But if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law. (19) Now the works of the flesh are plain: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, (20) idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, dissension, party spirit, (21) envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (22) But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, (23) gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law. (24) And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (25) If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (26) Let us have no self-conceit, no provoking of one another, no envy of one another."

Galatians 6:7-9,

"Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. (8) For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption; but he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (9) And let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart."

Philippians 3:3,

"For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh."

1Peter 3:18,

"For Christ also died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit;"

1Peter 4:5-6,

"Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. (6) For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit."

1Thessalonians 4:1-8,

"Finally, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you learned from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, you do so more and more. (2) For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. (3) For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from unchastity; (4) that each one of you know how to take a wife for himself in holiness and honor, (5) not in the passion of lust like heathen who do not know God; (6) that no man transgress, and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we solemnly forewarned you. (7) For God has not called us for uncleanness, but in holiness. (8) Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you."

---

The great Saint Augustine (354-430) fought the battle for many years. He lived the first part of his life living in the flesh. Then one day as he was reading the Bible, these verses suddenly hit home with him and he changed from a man living in the flesh to a man who lived in the Spirit forever more.

Romans 13:13-14,

"Let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. (14) But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires."

Augustine came back to the Church, became a priest, and then the Bishop of Hippo in North Africa. He went on to write what has been called the second most popular book that was ever written, second only to the Bible itself, "The Confessions of Saint Augustine".

What Form of Government Does Your Congregation Have? Is it Governed by God or by a Vote of the People?

---

What kind of government runs the Church which Jesus Christ founded?

Think about it?

What form could it only be?

Is it a republic, a democracy, a monarchy, a dictatorship, socialist, etc?

How about none of the above?

Since it was founded by GOD, it is the Body of Christ (Eph 3:4-6, 5:21-23), and it is guided by the Holy Spirit. (John 14:26)

Therefore it could only be a Theocracy. In a Theocracy, the body responds to orders from the head.

Now look at your denomination? What kind of government is it?

It certainly is not a Theocracy because by its very nature, a Christian Theocracy can be only one, just as there is only one Holy Trinity, one God, one Jesus Christ, and one Holy Spirit.

Your congregation is most likely a democracy or a republic where the populace votes as to its governing.

I know this is true with Baptists and Presbyterians, for example, and many others.

A democracy or a republic, is in opposition to a Theocracy because the head responds to a vote of the body, the people, the members therein.

Now do you really believe that Jesus Christ would found His Church to be governed by a vote of the people?

Did not Peter and the Apostles say in Acts 5:29:

"We must obey God rather than men".

In Holy Scripture show me the verses where Jesus Christ set up His Church to be run by anything other than a Theocracy?

We can take this thought one step further. Not one of the 40,000+ present day splinters of Christianity can claim to be a Theocracy since none of them can show that they were founded by Jesus Christ.

Only the one Church founded by Jesus Christ can lay claim to be governed by a Theocracy.

One last point:

More proof that the Church which Jesus Christ founded is a Theocracy,

Matthew 16:18, "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Since Jesus said it is His church (my church) and He is God, that seals it that it is truly a Theocracy and nothing else.

Do you belong to His Church?
If not, why not?

Apostates...

If you wish to save your soul, you do not wish to become one.

---

What is an Apostate?

As a noun: a disloyal person who betrays or deserts his cause or religion or political party or friend.

As an adjective: not faithful to religion or party or cause.

Synonym: deserter, recreant, renegade, backslider, turncoat.

---

Holy Scripture has many verses which mention apostates, sometimes using other words such as rebellious or uncontrolled, but with the same meaning. Here is a very good example:

Isaiah 30:1, "Woe to you, apostate children, saith the Lord, that you would take counsel, and not of me: and would begin a web, and not by my spirit, that you might add sin upon sin:" Douay (DR)

Elucidation:

1. Throughout Holy Scripture dire consequences will be bestowed upon those to whom GOD addressed with the phrase "Woe to you".
  2. GOD said, "that you would take counsel, and not of me:" Those same persons listen to mere human creatures and not to the word of GOD Himself.
  3. GOD added, "and would begin a web". What does that mean to you?
Well a web reminds me of a spiders web, and a spiders web is essentially a trap for the unwary, is it not?
Some other bibles use the words 'alliance', 'league', 'covenant', 'treaty', or 'agreement', instead of 'web'.
The Latin Vulgate, the official bible of the Catholic Church for over a thousand years, uses the word 'telam' which translates to 'web'.
  4. GOD then added, "and not by my spirit". Whoa! Apostates are not guided by the Holy Spirit.
  5. GOD finished the verse with, "that you might add sin upon sin:" That sounds like a dire warning of a gloomy ending for the apostate does it not?
  6. That verse of Isaiah is so simple and yet so clear. How could anyone misinterpret it?

What about those who fail to pass this little one verse Psalms test?

Psalms 127:1, "Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain."

Elucidation:

1. How many houses does the Lord have? He has but one. Notice that He said 'house' and not 'houses'.

Matthew 16:18, "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church..."

Jesus did say 'church' (singular) and not 'churches' (multiple) didn't He?

2. "Those who build it labor in vain", means what?

Those who build it are not GOD but mere human creatures.

Consequently, since GOD did not build the house, how then can it be called the house of GOD?

There is Nothing New Under the Sun!

---

What is the meaning of life?

In the second century an old man asked St. Justin, "What are you looking for?"
St. Justin replied with the famous question, "What is the meaning of life?"
The old man told him, "Seek Christianity."

Science can never tell us why we are here, but Holy Scripture has the answer...

---

What does man gain by all the toil at which he toils under the sun? A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains for ever. The sun rises and the sun goes down, and hastens to the place where it rises. The wind blows to the south, and goes round to the north; round and round goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns. All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again. All things are full of weariness; a man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and 'there is nothing new under the sun'.
Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"? It has been already, in the ages before us. There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after. I have seen everything that is done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind. What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be numbered.

All things have their season, and in their times all things pass under heaven.

A time to be born and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which has been planted.
A time to kill, and a time to heal.
A time to destroy and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh.
A time to mourn and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather.
A time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to get, and a time to lose.
A time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew.
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.
A time of love, and a time of hatred.
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

---

GOD has written a hunger for Himself in our hearts and nothing can ever satisfy that hunger except GOD Himself. That is the true meaning of life.

Is The Way In Which GOD Works...

The ways of GOD are sudden and without warning. A miracle happens.
A vision or a locution is bestowed upon someone. A loved one is taken.
GOD does not normally give prior notice of what he is about to do.

One noticeable exception to this general rule was the great 'Miracle of the Sun' at Fatima on October 13, 1917.

It was revealed ahead of time by GOD through the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Some people live their entire lives without serving GOD in any way and seem to think

We must all be prepared to go at anytime. Look what happened to Princess Diana, Princess Grace, John F. Kennedy, and many others who were taken without warning.

Were they all prepared and in GOD'S grace and ready to go?

Why then do so many not prepare for their final eternal trip, the only trip that really matters?

The End Times are 'Now Times'.

Are You Prepared?

---

"Time changed when Christ was born (BC to AD)." Fr. Dermot Dwyer

"There are three times in religious life, the time before CHRIST, the time of CHRIST, and the end times, the time after CHRIST." Fr. Dermot Dwyer

"See how CHRIST is in the center of times? Before CHRIST they looked forward to HIS coming. After CHRIST we look back on HIS coming." Fr. Dermot Dwyer

Given that, we may deduce that all of the time after the death of Jesus Christ until this very day, we have been in the end times.

Assuming that Jesus Christ was crucified in year 29 we can say that the end times have been with us for 2000 years come one day in 2029.

How long will the end times continue?

We do not know but we have some interesting clues. The end times can also be read as the time of the end.

The book of Daniel gave us some food for thought regarding this subject:

Daniel 12:1 "At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; but at that time your people shall be delivered, every one whose name shall be found written in the book.

12:2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

12:3 And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

12:4 But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase."

12:5 Then I Daniel looked, and behold, two others stood, one on this bank of the stream and one on that bank of the stream.

12:6 And I said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, "How long shall it be till the end of these wonders?"

12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven; and I heard him swear by him who lives for ever that it would be for a time, two times, and half a time; and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end all these things would be accomplished.

12:8 I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, "O my lord, what shall be the issue of these things?"

12:9 He said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.

12:10 Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand.

12:11 And from the time that the continual burnt offering is taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate is set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12:12 Blessed is he who waits and comes to the thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

12:13 But go your way till the end; and you shall rest, and shall stand in your allotted place at the end of the days."

Now let us examine the clues:

In verse 1 of Daniel 12, "And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; but at that time your people shall be delivered, every one whose name shall be found written in the book".

Have you ever lived in a time when we have had more and such a variety of troubles than we have now?

In the New Testament St. Paul adds to the Daniel prophesy in the following verses. How many of us are found 'written in the book' here?

"But know this, that in the Last Days dangerous times will come.

Men will be lovers of self, covetous, haughty, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, criminal, heartless, faithless, slanderers, incontinent, merciless, unkind, treacherous, stubborn, puffed up with pride, loving pleasure more than GOD, having a semblance indeed of piety, but disowning its power."

2Timothy 3:1-5.

How many living today do you surmise are 'written in the book' who are guilty of any of the woe's listed by St. Paul?

Can you equate what you see happening all around us today with what St. Paul in 2Timothy 3:1-5 warned us about 2000 years ago?

Notice also that he even gave us a time, "in the last days"?

Look around and see how our country "founded under God" is rejecting Him, more and more each day.

"Go to this people and say: With the ear you will hear and will not understand; and seeing you will see and will not perceive. For the heart of this people has been hardened, and with their ears they have been hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest perhaps they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and be converted, and I heal them."

Isaiah 6:9-10, and Acts 28:26-27

In verse 4 of Daniel 12, "knowledge shall increase". Knowledge has certainly become 'manifold' in our time. We can surely identify with that verse since records show that human knowledge has been doubling every 10 years.

In verse 9 of Daniel 12, God revealed that we will know a lot more at "the time of the end".

So what will happen to us "in the last days"?

Does Holy Scripture have an answer to that question for us?

Surprisingly it does:

Ecclesiastes 1:9 "What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun."

How can we learn how to do our part to repair the damage already inflicted upon us?

The answer to that question is an easy one:

For those who fail to learn from the errors of previous generations, they are doomed to repeat them again.

A falling away from God has reached epidemic proportions.

I would suggest a return to Biblical history as documented in the Old Testament of Holy Scripture. Why the Old Testament?

It is because God is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. He never changes (Sir 42:18-22).

God is a perfect person and He could never be more or less perfect than He already is.

To imply that He could or should change would be to say that He could become more or less perfect than He already is at this point in time, and in every point in time whether in the past or future.

Since God never changes, it is a simple matter to go to the Old Testament and read the many verses in so many different books as to what

God did FOR those who obeyed Him, and what He did TO those who refused to obey Him.

Holy Scripture is filled with warnings about the times in which we now are experiencing.

The Prophet Isaiah wrote this over 2700 years ago...

"Woe to you that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter."

Isaiah 5:20

Many today believe abortion is good. Immorality is good. Euthanasia is good. Lying is good, because everyone does it. Infidelity is in.

The words of God are out.

We have traded light for darkness. We have called evil good, and good evil.

We are guilty as charged...

The problem is that there are so many who have fallen away from God.

Morality has reached rock bottom. It is Sodom and Gomorrah all over again. What happened to both of those cities for their immoral behavior?

I would suggest that you read all of Genesis chapter 19 for the answers to that one.

For those who obey the Word of GOD, they are given rewards. What happens to those who do not obey?

For the answer to that one, I would suggest that everyone read all of Numbers chapter 16. It is about the disobedience to the God given authority of Moses, by Korah and his followers. Moses did everything he could to try and convince Korah, pleading with him that he was defying God by his disobedience, and yet Korah and his followers rejected his pleas. Do not miss the final outcome of Korah's rebellion in Numbers 16:30-35. It isn't pretty.

Want more? OK:

Read all of Isaiah chapter 13, for the 'Day of the Lord' has arrived.....You cannot deny that you have been warned!

Read all of Jeremiah chapter 5.....Ouch!

Jeremiah 6:15-19, "Were they ashamed when they committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed; they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown, says the LORD.

Thus says the LORD: "Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Give heed to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not give heed.'

Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, what will happen to them.
Hear, O earth; behold, I am bringing evil upon this people, the fruit of their devices, because they have not given heed to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it."

Jeremiah 18:7-8, " If at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, and if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will repent of the evil that I intended to do to it."

Sirach 16:7, "In the congregation of sinners a fire shall be kindled, and in an unbelieving nation wrath shall flame out.

16:8 The ancient giants did not obtain pardon for their sins, who were destroyed trusting to their own strength:

16:9 And he spared not the place where Lot sojourned, but abhorred them for the pride of their word.

16:10 He had not pity on them, destroying the whole nation that extolled themselves in their sins.

16:11 So did he with the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their heart: and if one had been stiff-necked, it is a wonder if he had escaped unpunished."

Verses 7 and 10 tell it all.

Read Exodus chapters 7-12 to see what God did TO those who refused to obey Him.

Then read Exodus 14 to see what God did FOR those who obeyed Him.

The book of Joshua is a perfect example of what I mean here. All through that book there is war after war, country after country, battling against the Hebrews.

In some cases Joshua is fighting against overwhelming armies, surrounded, and he defeats them simply because God is fighting for the obedient Hebrews.

Isaiah 14:12-15, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!

How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the Most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

Oh and let us not forget in the early part of the very first book, Genesis 3, where God posed a simple test for Adam and Eve as to not eat the forbidden fruit of one tree out of a probable many in the Garden of Eden.

And what was their punishment for eating the forbidden fruit? All of us are bearing it to this very day.

---

Here are a few more pertinent verses from the New Testament. Some are repeated from above for emphasis:

"But know this, that in the Last Days dangerous times will come.

Men will be lovers of self, covetous, haughty, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, criminal, heartless, faithless, slanderers, incontinent, merciless, unkind, treacherous, stubborn, puffed up with pride, loving pleasure more than GOD, having a semblance indeed of piety, but disowning its power."

2Timothy 3:1-5.

Does that all sound familiar?

Can you equate what you see happening all around us today with what St. Paul in 2Timothy warned us about 2000 years ago?

If not then go back and re-read Isaiah 6:9-10 above.

"Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?"

2Thessalonians 2:3-5

Now here is a verse by verse explanation of some of what will happen and when.

I would render a guess that the 'when' part has everything to do with how far that God will allow us to fall into another Sodom:

"As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?"

And Jesus answered them, "Take heed that no one leads you astray.

For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray.

And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed; for this must take place, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places: all this is but the beginning of the birth-pangs.

Then they will deliver you up to tribulation, and put you to death; and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away, and betray one another, and hate one another.

And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because wickedness is multiplied, most men's love will grow cold. But he who endures to the end will be saved.

And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, as a testimony to all nations; and then the end will come.

So when you see the desolating sacrilege spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains;

let him who is on the housetop not go down to take what is in his house; and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his mantle.

And alas for those who are with child and for those who give suck in those days!

Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a sabbath.

For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.

And if those days had not been shortened, no human being would be saved; but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

Then if any one says to you, 'Lo, here is the Christ!' or 'There he is!' do not believe it.

For false Christs and false prophets will arise and show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Lo, I have told you beforehand.

So, if they say to you, 'Lo, he is in the wilderness,' do not go out; if they say, 'Lo, he is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

For as the lightning comes from the east and shines as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of man.

Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;

then will appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory; and he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all these things take place.

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only.

As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and they did not know until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of man.

Then two men will be in the field; one is taken and one is left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one is taken and one is left. Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the householder had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched and would not have let his house be broken into.

Therefore you also must be ready; for the Son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master when he comes will find so doing. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that wicked servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed,' and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with the drunken, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will punish him, and put him with the hypocrites; there men will weep and gnash their teeth."

Matthew 24:3-51

Regarding those verses of Matthew 24, have you noticed if any of the context have come to pass already?

---

Now let us apply all of the previous text to the teaching of the Catholic Church.

Why also to the Church?

It is because of the same oxymoron questions regarding changes that detractors say that the Catholic Church must make in order for it to keep up with the man changing times. Where in Holy Scripture is that written?

Since the Catholic Church is the Body of Christ, (Eph 5:21-24) and since Jesus Christ is God, how could anyone demand that the Catholic Church ever change its teaching to support the whims and wiles of a changing human morality?

Aren't we commanded to conform to the teaching of God, instead of some demanding that God must conform to the whims of man? Isn't the following verse clear enough for those who are calling for changes in the Catholic House of God?

"But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men". Acts 5:29

It could not be any clearer than that.

Obviously those who demand changes in the Church that Jesus founded have never read nor believed in Holy Scripture.

So, since Jesus Christ is God, and God never changes then His body, the Church, cannot ever change either. Simple isn't it?

Why is it that being as simple as it is, that so many that call themselves 'Catholic' cannot see it?

---

Have you heard the story about the frog and the pot of water?

If not, here it is. If you take a frog and put it into a pot of hot water, it will simply jump out of it.

If you put the same frog in a pot of cold water and turn on the heat, it will cook as the heat is slowly rising in the water. It happens simply because the frog does not notice the slow rise in the temperature of the water.

We are that frog!

Satan has us all in a pot of cool water and he is slowly turning up the heat. But the heat is rising so slowly that few can see or feel it.

Look around and see what is happening to our whole country and to many others, as the temperature of our water in the pot slowly rises day by day.

Stay alert. Perceive, listen and comprehend what you see and hear. These things are happening now all around us. Morality and decency are out and immorality and indecency are in. Those around us are slowly removing God from us and in His place we are receiving evil.

Equate what you see and hear to what Holy Scripture has taught us.

"Many shall be chosen, and made white, and shall be tried as fire; and the wicked shall deal wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the learned shall understand." Daniel 12:10

Are you on the side of the wicked or on the side of the learned???

Go back and reread Isaiah 5:20, over and over again and you will surely come to realize that it is happening NOW, and at an increasingly rapid clip right before our very eyes, yet so many cannot see it, or even wish to see it.

It is all so very simple for those who have the eyes to see and ears to hear and who love God.

---

"When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain,
or command the locust to devour the land,
or send pestilence among my people, if my people who are called by my name humble themselves,
and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways,
then I will hear from heaven,
and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

2Chronicles 7:13-14

"But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men."

Acts 5:29

GOD has spoken to us very clearly as I have shown.

Is anyone listening to Him?

Words of Wisdom from the Master of Words.

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, 1895-1979

---

Zingers from Bishop Fulton J. Sheen...

---

There are not more than 100 people in the world who truly hate the Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they perceive to be the Catholic Church.

A heckler asked Bishop Sheen a question about someone who had died. The Bishop replied, "I will ask him when I get to heaven." The heckler replied, "What if he isn't in Heaven?" The Bishop replied, "Well then you ask him."

A man told Bishop Sheen he did not believe in hell. The Bishop replied, "You will when you get there."

If we are to find the source of the life, truth, and love that is in the world, we have to go to a life that is not mingled with its shadow, death; to a truth that is not mingled with its shadow, error; to a love that is not mingled with its shadow, hate.

There were three sweet monotonies in His (Christ's) life - thirty years obeying, three years teaching, three hours redeeming.

Every mother, when she picks up the young life that has been born to her, looks up to the heavens to thank GOD for the gift which made the world young again. But here was a Mother, a Madonna, who did not look up. She looked down to Heaven, for this was Heaven in her arms.

Hence He was given the name of Jesus, which means Savior. It was an irreplaceable name, before which the heavens and the earth trembled and before which our knees bow.

If any one of us could have made our own mother, we would have made her the most beautiful woman in the world.

Our brains today are big enough. Could it be that our hearts are too small?

Dirt is nothing more than matter which is in the wrong place.

Every theologian ought to be a mystic; every D.D., or Doctor of Divinity, ought to be a saint. He knows enough to be one, but he does not will it. I am a D.D., but I am not a saint. May GOD have mercy on my soul.

As Our Lord said, "Where your treasure is, there is your heart also." Hence the least love of GOD is worth more than the knowledge of all created things.

Did you know that, in Heaven, an angel is a no-body?

Everything we do, whether good or evil, goes down into our unconscious mind... So at the end of every human life there will be pulled out of our subconscious or unconscious mind the record of every thought, word and deed. This will be the basis of our judgment.

The best definition of an adult that was ever given is one who has stopped growing at both ends and has begun to grow in the middle.

Not many men want to die to their lower selves; it costs so much. Some prefer to have a cosmic religion, which neither puts restraint on their pride nor curbs their passions.

We cannot like everyone, but we can love everyone.

When we say we fear GOD, we mean we shrink from hurting One Whom we love.

We do not need a voice that is right when everyone else is right. We need a voice that is right when everyone else is wrong.

In Lieu of a Book...

---

I have received many requests to put this website into a book. I sense a frustration in having to download and save each page of this very large site.

It has taken me years and thousands of hours to put it all together and I certainly would not relish the time it would take to download it page by page either.

Putting it all into a book is a good idea. However the sticking point is my having the time to do it. I simply cannot do it for that reason among others.

However I have a great solution that was suggested by a dear new-found friend. He is a teacher and many of his students do not have a computer that is online in order to go and visit the site. He asked my permission to put the whole website onto a cd rom and pass a cd to each of his pupils.

I thought that was a great idea and wondered why I had not thought of it myself. Of course I gave him permission and he sent me a copy and it was just like visiting the site online but much faster than even DSL.

But what about downloading that whole website the first time and the hours it would take for one person to do it all?

Well wouldn't it make sense to delegate the downloads to several people, with each downloading a different section?

Yes, that would help, but I have a much better solution.

There are free programs available that will download an entire website into your computer.

One such is:

<http://www.httrack.com/>

All you have to do is to download the version which best fits your computer and run it.

Then tell it the address of the website that you wish to download and tell it where to put it in your computer, preferably a new directory (folder).

Then just sit back and watch Httrack do all of the work.

After that all you have to do is to write it out to a cd or dvd and make copies.

---

Advantage(s) of a book over a cd or dvd version:

1. No computer is needed, so you can read the book at anytime and in any place.

Advantages of a cd or dvd over a book version:

1. Cost. A blank cd would cost less than twenty cents. A book of the size needed for this website would cost several dollars.
2. A cd takes up much less space than a book.
3. A cd would be much easier to update compared to having to buy an updated book.
4. A cd or dvd will run exactly like the site runs online. You cannot jump from page to page easily (page flipping) from a book.
5. You can make as many copies as are needed for your students and friends.
You cannot do this with a book. You would have to buy more books.
6. You can print out as many pages that are important to you, to take to Bible studies or pass out to friends.

---

If you wish, you can make an autorun cd where as soon as you load the cd the index.htm or main page will come right up, so you would not have to open it manually.

In order to do this you will have to make two simple text files and add them to the cd.

Here is how to do it using a text editor or word processor:

For the first file write...

@echo Loading CD

@start index.htm

@cls

@exit

Label the first file autorun.bat and write it out to the cd rom.

For the second file write...

[autorun]

open=autorun.bat

Label this second file autorun.inf and write it out to the cd rom.

If you have done this correctly, just by inserting your cd into the drive, the first page (index.htm) should automatically come up.

If you do not wish to incorporate the autorun feature then simply insert the cd into the drive and open the index.htm file with your browser.

Either way, the website will perform exactly as you see it online except that it will be much faster.

The Story Behind Those Crosses in the Background of Some of My Pages...

---

---

These background crosses started with a photograph that I took of the plain metal gold colored cross which stands atop of my tiny Catholic Church.

---

---

As you can see, there are no marks or raised portions on the cross itself. It is perfectly flat with parallel sides.

What then caused the raised portions on the cross in these background images?

---

One day I looked at the cross and the sun was directly behind it, so I took another picture and to my surprise, the raised portions appeared on the photograph.

---

So here we have a sun caused three dimensional curved line image of a perfectly flat and straight cross.

Truth for Protestantism

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF
THE 666 CLUB ?

The members of the 666 club are those who are firmly entrenched in John 6:66 which is written;
"After this many of his disciples drew back and no longer went about with Him."

"Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?"
Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of eternal life;" John 6:67-68

Do those verses say it all to you???

If so then we all must belong to the ONE FOLD with one Shepherd and have eternal life, or be forever a member of Club 666.

THE 'DETOUR VERSES'

Elucidation of Mark 4:10-12;

1. The context for those three verses is found in verse 10. Jesus spoke these words, not to the crowds, but to His twelve Apostles only. Why? Because His Church is to be the pillar and foundation of truth (1 Timothy 3:15) and the authority for upholding the truth obviously has to be given to only a few, and not to the crowds.
2. What is 'the kingdom of GOD'? It is His Church. He was giving teaching authority for the future earthly leaders of His Church.
3. Jesus was calling for all of those outside of His Church to convert into the new Noah's Ark where parable teaching will be explained, and to have their sins forgiven so that they may be saved.

Patron Saints of Great Britain and Ireland

Graphic by artist Robin Armit

These are the Patron Saints of Great Britain and Ireland George, Andrew, David and Patrick. Who were they and where did they come from?

Saint Andrew – Patron Saint of Scotland

St Andrew was one of the twelve disciples chosen by Jesus. He was born in Bethsaida on the Sea of Galilee, and like his brother, Peter he was a fisherman. He is noted for having been martyred by being tied to an X shaped cross known as The Saltire. This he apparently chose so as not to be martyred on the traditional T shaped cross his master died on. The flag of Scotland bares a white Saltire with a blue background to this day.

According to ancient legend, St. Andrews remains were shipwrecked 300 years after his death on the East Coast of Scotland at a settlement which we now know as the town of St. Andrews.

Saint George Patron Saint of England

Contrary to what many commonly believe Saint George was not English of birth in fact he was a Roman citizen born in 280AD, although there is a lot of controversy regarding his place of birth, there is general agreement that it was probably in Cappadocia (modern Turkey). He was a soldier in the Roman Army who rose to the rank of Tribune with a command of 1,000 men. George was said to have sacrificed himself in the defence of early Christians from the Emperor Diocetian, this and

Saint Patrick Patron Saint of Ireland

Saint Patrick, is arguably the most widely recognised of the Patron Saints of Great Britain and Ireland, due to the celebrations on Saint Patrick's day which have been widely adopted in many countries around the world. Interestingly it is also likely that he was from what is now England, although Saint Patrick would have been a Roman Britain. According to Confessio of Patrick, when he was 16, he was captured by Irish pirates from his home, and taken to Ireland as a slave. After six years he eventually escaped and returned home, but after becoming a cleric, he would later return to Ireland to share his faith with the Celts. Although there is debate about the timing of St Patrick's life it is widely believed he died 461AD.

By the seventh century he was acknowledged as the Patron Saint of Ireland.

Saint David – Patron Saint of Wales

Unlike his fellow Patron Saints, Saint David was indeed from the same country which patronised him as their Saint. David is said to have been a monk and missionary who travelled through Wales, England and Brittany and converted the Pagan Celts of western Britain to Christianity.

It is said that he died on the 1st March in 589 after living to the ripe old age of 100. He was buried in his monastery, now the site of St. David's Cathedral in Pembrokeshire.

St David's Day celebration 1st of March subsequent accounts of miracles in his name are what led to him being recognised as a Saint in 900AD. He did not however, become Patron Saint of England till the 14th Century. It should be noted that it is unlikely he ever confronted and slayed a dragon. The dragon legend was likely born out of a more representative fight of his against evil more generally.

The Woman, and her indispensable # role in the Bible.

---

The most perfect human person ever created was a woman...

---

Genesis 2:21-24, Eve, the first woman. Without Eye, there would be no human race, and you would not be reading this now. Since Eve was the first to sin against GOD (1Tim 2:14) in Gen 3:6, she is the first cause of sin and death in the world. It took the serpent to trick the woman, but, however, it took only a woman to trick the man.

---

Genesis 3:15, Mary is mentioned for the first time. She is the "woman" of the first book of the Bible, and the "woman" of the last book of the Bible in Revelation 12:1. Without Mary, there would be no Jesus Christ, and thus no salvation for us.

---

Genesis 17:16, Sarah is given the title, "Mother of All Nations", by GOD. Without her, there would be no Isaac, no Jacob, no David, no Solomon, and no Jesus Christ..

---

Genesis 25:19-26, Rebecca gave birth to Jacob and Esau. Without her, there would be no founding of the two nations of which the Lord told her in verse 23. One of those nations was Israel.

---

Genesis 29:11, Rachel is kissed by Jacob. It is the only verse in the Bible where a man kissed a woman. Were it not for Rachel, Joseph would have not been born, Gen 30:24. Had not Joseph been born, the Israelites might have starved during the seven year drought, Gen 43:1-1.

---

Ruth 1-4, Without Ruth, who was the ancestress of David and of Christ, biblical history would have been changed drastically. Again, there would be no salvation for us, save for a woman. And do not forget the beautiful words spoken by her in Ruth 1:16, which are repeated at many weddings, "For wherever you go I will go, wherever you lodge, I will lodge, your people shall be my people, and your GOD, my GOD".

---

2Sam 12:24, Bathsheba gave birth to Solomon. Owing to her, we have the Queen Mother a prefigurement of Mary, the wisdom of Solomon, the beautiful Book of Psalms, the Songs of Solomon, and of course this important era of the ancestry of Jesus Christ.

---

Judith 13:10, The state of Israel was saved by this woman who had slain the general of the Assyrian army, Holofernes, thus causing the entire enemy army to flee in terror from a battle they would probably have won. She was honored as a "Defender of Israel", another prefigurement of Mary.

---

Esther 1-16, Esther, the heroine Jewish Queen of King Xerxes of Persia, saved her subjects from annihilation, from a plot perpetrated by Haman the Agagite.

---

Luke 1:26-38, Mary gave her unconditional consent to become the Mother of GOD. Had she refused, there would be no Savior.

---

Luke 1:24-80, Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist. Without Elizabeth, the coming of Christ would not have been prepared by John. Also the beautiful canticle, the Magnificat, sung by Mary in Luke

1:46-55 would not have been realized.

---

Luke 2:6-7, A creature, a creation of GOD, a woman named Mary, became the "Mother of GOD". What a tremendous honor given to women. If you will note, there is no complementary creature known as the "Father of GOD".

---

John 20:14-18, Mary Magdalene, went from a lowly prostitute to a magnificent Saint. She was the first person to see the risen Christ. She was the first one to arrive at the tomb on Easter morning in John 20:1. She was one of the three women standing at the foot of the cross in John 19:25.

---

Some interesting footnotes:

- 1. Satan deigned Eve a more important target than Adam.*
  - 2. God stated that it was going to be through the seed of a woman that satan would be defeated.*
  - 3. The plan of redemption, as laid out by God, needed the cooperation of a woman, not of a man, but of a woman. We must remember, Jesus was not "just a man", for His substance was Divine. Mary, on the other hand, although "Immaculately Conceived", was human, for Her substance was not Divine.*
  - 4. Jesus appeared first after His resurrection to a woman, not to a man, but to a woman, a repentant sinner at that!*
  - 5. Mary is the most perfect creature that has ever existed or will ever exist.*
  - 6. Remember, there were only four people standing at the foot of the cross, John and three women. The other men, Christ's disciples, had fled in fear of persecution. It was a woman, Mary, who accompanied her Son from the womb to the tomb.*

"Our Lord Jesus Christ, however, who came to liberate mankind, in which both males and females are destined to salvation, was not averse to males, for He took the form of a male, nor to females, for of a female He was born. Besides, there is a great mystery here: that just as death comes to us through a woman, Life is born to us through a woman; that the devil, defeated, would be tormented by each nature, feminine and masculine, since he had taken delight in the defection of both."

Call No Man Your Father!

Matthew 23:9

This verse is one of the most mis-quoted, most taken out of context, and most misunderstood by non-Catholics in all of Holy Scripture. What does this verse really say?

"Call no one on earth your father..."

Matthew 23:9, "And call no one on earth your father; for one is your father, who is in heaven." The meaning of that verse is, 'no earthly father must come before your heavenly father'. This is shown in Matthew 10:37, when He said, "He who loves 'father' or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me." If you back up to Matthew 23:1, Jesus was actually addressing the 'crowds and His disciples'. It is clear He spoke to two groups. If you jump to verse 8, where he said, "As for you (indicating a select group, NAB), do not be called 'Rabbi' (Rabbi's are teachers, or the learned in Jewish law and the crowds mentioned in verse 1 certainly are not teachers, so He was addressing the disciples). You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers." (He called His disciples His "brothers" in many other Bible verses).

* A parent is called father - Ephesians 6:4 and Colossians 3:21, "Fathers do not provoke your children to anger."

* Exodus 20:12, the 4th commandment, honor your "father" and your mother.

* In 1Corinthians 4:14-16, Paul said, "I am writing you this not to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. Even if you should have countless guides to Christ, yet you do not have many fathers, for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel. Therefore, I urge you, be imitators of me."

* Philemon 1:10, "I appeal to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment."

* Philippians 2:22, "...As child serves father..."

* Acts 7:2, and Act 22:1, "Brethren and fathers hear..."

* Acts 13:17, "...people of Israel chose our fathers..."

* Romans 4:1-18, Abraham is called "Father" seven times in these verses.

* Romans 9:10, "Isaac our father..."

* Hebrews 1:1, ...spoke in times past to the fathers,

* 2Peter 3:4, "...for since the fathers fell asleep,..."

* 1John 2:13, "I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have conquered the evil one."

* Malachi 1:6, "A son honors his father...if then I be a father, where is my honor?"

* Isaiah 22:21-22, "...and he shall be as a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. And I will lay the key of the house of David upon his shoulder; and he shall open and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open." These verses are a prefigurement of the papacy.

* In John 6:49, Jesus Himself said, "Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness and are dead."

He said call no man your father in Matthew 23:9, and here he calls their ancestors "Fathers". Is this a conflict?

* How about Luke 14:26, Jesus said, "If anyone comes to me and does not hate (the word 'hate', at the time, meant to 'love less') his FATHER..." Here Jesus said the word "father" again. If you take the literal meaning of "father" the same as some take it in Matthew 23:9, then you could only conclude that Jesus said, "You have to love Me more than you love My Father in heaven." I am sure that is not the meaning of Luke 14:26. Wouldn't you agree?

* A priest is a spiritual "Father", as your blood father is your natural father...

* Judges 17:10, "Stay with me, Micha said to him. Be Father and Priest to me..."

* Judges 18:19, "Come with us and be our Father and Priest."

I would say Holy Scripture itself, corrects the misconceptions and mistranslations of Matthew 23:9, wouldn't you?

What do most people call their male parent? Sire? Dad? Pop? Mister? No, most call him "father".

Are you sinning every time you call your male parent "father"?

Private Revelation

What Pope Urban VIII had to say about it...

Pope Urban VIII, 1623-1644: "In cases which concern private revelations, it is better to believe than not believe, for if you believe, and it is proven true, you will be happy that you have believed, because our Holy Mother asked it. If you believe and it shall be proven false, you will receive all blessings as if it had been true, because you believed it to be true."

---

How many win-win situations have you seen in your lifetime?

---

Remember that the Church reserves final judgment on Private Revelation and we must always abide by its ruling.

Catholics Worship Idols?

---

That is what some say that Catholics do. Why do they say that? What is their reference? Where is their documented proof? Show me the genuine Catholic documents which "prove" this false charge?

I have yet to see any Catholic document that says Catholics are to worship idols.

---

Idol:

An image used as an object of worship. A false GOD.

This is how the dictionary defines an idol.

Image:

A reproduction of the form of a person or an object.

An optically formed duplicate, counterpart, or other representative reproduction of an object, especially an optical reproduction of an object formed by a lens or a mirror.

This is what the dictionary says an image is. It could be a statue, icon, or even a photograph.

---

Worship:

The reverent love and devotion accorded a deity, an idol, or a sacred object.

This the definition given by the dictionary.

---

Do you have a photograph of a loved one? Do you worship it? I doubt it. Maybe you only use the picture to remind yourself of that person. Isn't that right?

What about the statue of Abraham Lincoln in the Lincoln Memorial?

Do you or anyone else worship it or any other statue? Of course not.

Then why is the statue there? It is to remind us of what a great man he was and in an image to which we can relate.

---

It is the same situation in the Catholic Church. The statues in the Catholic Church are there to remind us of our founder, Jesus Christ, His mother, and the great saints of the Church.

---

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth."

Exodus 20:4

GOD clearly said make no images.

"And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a seraph (snake) and mount it on a pole, and if anyone who has been bitten looks at it he will recover."

Moses accordingly made a bronze serpent and mounted it on a pole, and whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he recovered."

Numbers 21:8-9

GOD clearly said make an image.

---

Now is this a Bible conflict, or a misunderstanding, or misinterpretation by someone? It has to be one or the other.

---

"So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron, who accepted their offering, and fashioned this gold with a graving tool, made a golden calf. Then they cried out, 'this is your GOD, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egypt'."

Exodus 32:3-4

This is a clear violation of the first commandment. They had accepted and made for themselves a false god. So how did GOD respond?

"Thus the Lord smote the people for having had Aaron make the calf for them."

Exodus 32:35

It is clear that GOD again said make no idols.

"Make two cherubim of beaten gold for the two ends of the propitiatory, fasten them so that one cherub springs direct from each end."

Exodus 25:17-18

Another clear message directly from GOD to make idols. Did you notice that these gold cherubim were to be mounted atop the most sacred object on earth, the Ark of the Covenant?

Chapters 5 and 6 of 1Kings tell of the building of Solomon's Temple as commanded by GOD, and decorating it inside with...

"And he made in the oracle two cherubim of olive tree, of ten cubits in height."

1Kings 6:23

Yet another command from GOD to make idols.

These idols were huge, as one cubit is about eighteen inches. That makes each one fifteen feet tall.

---

So what do we have here? Are there more Bible conflicts than we realized, or are we missing something?

---

Do you see the pattern here? It is very clear.

GOD had said to make images that come from GOD but make no images that are against Him...

- 1. Angels are Saints, St. Michael, St. Raphael, St. Gabriel.
  - 2. There are many Saints who never were Angels, St. Mary, St. Peter, etc.
  - 3. Saints are of GOD so what is the problem of having a statue of them?
  - 4. Jesus Christ is certainly of GOD, so what is the problem of having a crucifix to remind us of the passion He suffered for each of us?
  - 5. Catholics, when praying before a statue are not petitioning to the statue, but to the person of whom it represents.
  - 6. Now if you think petitioning Saints is wrong, I suggest you refer to Rev 5:8, and Rev 8:1-4

Now I have to ask once more, for those who accuse Catholics of idol worship, show me your documentation which 'proves' what you say.

Catholic Prayers

---

These are some of the prayers that Catholics use...

1. The Magnificat (Canticle of Mary):

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour for he has looked with favour on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed, the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever. Glory be to the Father.....

2. Canticle of Zechariah:

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he has come to his people and set them free. He has raised up for us a mighty saviour, born of the house of his servant David. Through his holy prophets he promised of old that he would save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us. He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant. This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham: to set us free from the hands of our enemies, free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life. You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way, to give his people knowledge of salvation by the forgiveness of their sins. In the tender compassion of our Lord the dawn from on high will break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace. Glory be to the Father....

3. Morning Prayer:

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ I will begin this day. I thank you, Lord, for having preserved me during the night. I will do my best to make all I do today pleasing to You and in accordance with Your will. My dear mother Mary, watch over me this day. My Guardian Angel, take care of me. St. Joseph and all you saints of God, pray for me..(add your daily offering)

4. Daily Offering:

O Jesus, through the immaculate heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of your sacred heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our bishops and of all the apostles of prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

5. Evening Prayer:

O my God, at the end of this day I thank You most heartily for all the graces I have received from You. I am sorry that I have not made a better use of them. I am sorry for all the sins I have committed against You. Forgive me, O my God, and graciously protect me this night. Blessed Virgin Mary, my dear heavenly mother, take me under your protection. St. Joseph, my dear Guardian Angel, and all you saints of God, pray for me. Sweet Jesus, have pity on all poor sinners, and save them from hell. Have mercy on the suffering souls in purgatory... (followed by an Act of Contrition)

6. Act of Contrition:

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. Amen

7. Prayer Before Meals:

Bless us O Lord, and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive, from thy bounty, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen. or Dear Jesus, we thank you for this food and ask you to bless it to our bodies, and our bodies to your service. Amen.

8. Anima Christi:

Soul of Christ, make me holy. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, fill me with love. Water from Christ's side, wash me. Passion of Christ, strengthen me. Good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds, hide me. Never let me be parted from you. From the evil enemy, protect me. At the hour of my death, call me. And tell me to come to you. That with your saints I may praise you. Through all eternity. Amen.

---

9. Guardian Angel Prayer:

Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love, commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

10. Prayer to Our Lady:

Memorare Remember, O most loving Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, we turn to you, O Virgins of virgins, our Mother. To you we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, do not despise our petitions, but in your mercy hear us and answer us. Amen.

11. Prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Breathe into me Holy Spirit, That all my thoughts may be holy. Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy. Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. or Spirit of wisdom and understanding, enlighten our minds to perceive the mysteries of the universe in relation to eternity. Spirit of right judgment and courage, guide us and make us firm in our baptismal decision to follow Jesus' way of love. Spirit of knowledge and reverence, help us to see the lasting value of justice and mercy in our everyday dealings with one another. May we respect life as we work to solve problems of family and nation, economy and ecology. Spirit of God, spark our faith, hope and love into new action each day. Fill our lives with wonder and awe in your presence which penetrates all creation. Amen. or Come, Holy Spirit and fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fires of your love. Send forth your Spirit and we shall be created and you will renew the face of the earth. Amen.

12. The Angelus:

*V: The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary. R: And she conceived of the Holy Spirit. (Hail Mary....)
V: Behold the handmaid of the Lord. R: Be it done unto me according to thy word. (Hail Mary....) V:
And the Word was made Flesh. R: And dwelt among us. (Hail Mary....) V: Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God. R: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. LET US PRAY: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that, we to whom the Incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an Angel, may by His Passion and Cross, be brought to the glory of*

His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is traditional to say the Angelus at: 6.00 am, 12.00 Noon, 6.00 pm

13. The Our Father:

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

---

14. The Hail Mary:

Hail Mary full of Grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed are thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus. Holy Mary Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death Amen.

---

15. Glory Be to the Father:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

16. The Divine Praises:

Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. Blessed be the Name of Jesus. Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart. Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most Holy. Blessed be her Holy and Immaculate Conception. Blessed be her Glorious Assumption. Blessed be the Name of Mary, Virgin and Mother. Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse. Blessed be God in His Angels and in His Saints.

17. The Apostle's Creed:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

18. Offering of the Sacred Heart of Jesus:

Eternal Father, I offer the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with all its love, all its suffering and all its merits; to expiate all the sins I have committed this day, and during all my life; to purify the good that I have done this day and during my life; to make up for the good I ought to have done and that I have neglected this day and during all my life. Amen.

19. Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel:

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May god rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. V: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, R: Have Mercy on us. V: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, R: Have Mercy on us. V: Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, R: Have Mercy on us. Amen.

---

20. At the End of the Day: Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take.

---

The Perfect Squelch...

---

---

How many times have you heard these 'opinions', and many others, of Biblical Stories by so-called experts?

Adam and Eve were not our first parents.

Cain and Abel never did exist.

Jesus did not walk on water.

Jesus did not miraculously multiply the loaves and fishes. Each person had a sandwich in his pocket.

---

The answer, and perfect squelch for all of those that I have heard, and many other outlandish 'opinionated' remarks is....

"Oh, were you there?"

✠ The Power of Holy Water ✠

Quoted from the writings of Saint Teresa of Avila (1562)

---

---

The Power of Holy Water:

From the Autobiography of Saint Teresa of Avila, Chapter 31, 1562 A.D...

"From long experience I have learned that there is nothing like holy water to put devils to flight and prevent them from coming back again. They also flee from the Cross, but return; so holy water must have great virtue. For my own part, whenever I take it, my soul feels a particular and most notable consolation. In fact, it is quite usual for me to be conscious of a refreshment which I cannot possibly describe, resembling an inward joy which comforts my whole soul. This is not fancy, or something which has happened to me only once. It has happened again and again and I have observed it most attentively. It is let us say, as if someone very hot and thirsty were to drink from a jug of cold water: he would feel the refreshment throughout his body. I often reflect on the great importance of everything ordained by the Church and it makes me very happy to find that those words of the Church are so powerful that they impart their power to the water and make it so very different from water which has not been blessed.

One night, too, about this time, I thought the devils were stifling me; and when the nuns had sprinkled a great deal of holy water about I saw a huge crowd of them running away as quickly as though they were about to fling themselves down a steep place.

I will only describe something that happened to me one night of All Souls. I was in an oratory: I had said one nocturn and was repeating some very devotional prayers which follow it -- they are extremely devotional: we have them in our office-book -- when actually the devil himself alighted on the book, to prevent me from finishing the prayer. I made the sign of the Cross and he went away. I then began again and he came back. I think I began that prayer three times and not until I had sprinkled some holy water on him could I finish it. At the same moment I saw several souls coming out of purgatory: their time there must have been nearly up and I thought that perhaps the devil was trying to impede their deliverance."

Ex 40:12-16, Lev 14:49-53,15:7-11,16:23-24, Num 5:16-17,8:7,19:17-19, 2King 2:20-22 (salt is added to holy water), Psa 51:2,7

B.C. and A.D. Versus B.C.E. and C.E.

---

---

The first part of this message is from Catholic Dispatch. Their URL is at the end of their article.

---

Just Say No to "Anno Domini" ?

---

What would you think if a Catholic were to all of sudden insist upon creating new names for any of the days of the week, or inventing new names for some of the months? After all, isn't Friday named after the mythological god "Frigg", and Wednesday after "Woden"? Or how about the month of January named after "Janus", the god of gates and doorways? The list could go on. How absurd it would be for a Catholic to say that they cannot use these names in conscience because they do not believe in false gods! The terms have become the conventional norm, and therefore their use by Catholics has never been construed to imply belief. This situation is merely hypothetical to prove a point. The Catholic Church has always allowed their use.

---

This is mentioned because we have a similar circumstance arising today which involves certain groups of non-Christians, and it involves "history dating". Quite familiar for all of us to see is the fact that:

"Julius Caesar was assassinated in 44 B.C."

"Christopher Columbus discovered America in 1492."

Imagine someone going out of their way to add something to the end of these statements; someone writing that "Columbus discovered America in 1492 C.E." or that "Julius Caesar was assassinated in 44 B.C.E."

It is not just your imagination.

Today there is a move on within the press and public schools to, once and for all, replace the age-old, familiar designations of B.C. and A.D.. As we all should know, B.C. is the abbreviation for "Before Christ", and A.D. is the Latin abbreviation for "Anno Domini" which is literally translated as "in the year of the Lord". The changes made are C.E. (Common Era) and B.C.E (Before the Common Era). It doesn't surprise Catholics to see such an anti-Christian campaign, but who is behind this, when did it start, and what can we say to their excuses?

---

The first thing to be noted is that the people who defend such a change use the pretext that it is done "because they DO NOT BELIEVE that Jesus is the Lord", or that "they do not want to OFFEND those who do not believe Jesus is the Lord."

---

Such a pretext is strikingly odd for a few reasons:

1) If they were so conscientious about giving the false impression that they believe Jesus is the Lord, why do they not likewise worry about the impression that is given when they use the names of the DAYS and MONTHS which represent pagan gods? Why do they not push also for these changes?

2) Secondly, since it is customary to omit the A.D. after a date in this era (e.g., simply 1864) then why should it not be sufficient to LEAVE IT this way since what they object to is already NOT THERE? Why go to lengths to type in C.E.?

3) Also, since it is customary to omit the A.D., the pretext that they do not want to "offend" is ruined by the fact that to place a C.E. in a place where there was NOTHING only actively offends those who believe it should be A.D. Do they really care about "offending"?

4) Lastly, such a designation as B.C.E. and C.E., (even were one to invent B.X.Y. and X.Y.), does not change the fact that this FOCAL POINT OF HISTORY is still THE BIRTH OF CHRIST with the SAME numbering scheme. So to change the "era" to "common" becomes rather silly. Common to whom? It is basically only "common" to Christians of Western Civilization, who reverence that historical birth, and such Christians do not want such a change. It is by no means common to Jews, Moslems and Orientals who have a complete different numbering system.

---

What this issue boils down to is this:

Those who make that extra effort to write C.E. rather than leaving it customarily blank, are obviously making a statement of protest against Christ and what is left of Christian Society.

What is the origin of this abbreviation, and who is primarily responsible for its use? Looking at a 1930s Webster's Dictionary in the APPENDIX OF ABBREVIATIONS, we find "C.E." listed as: "Civil Engineer; Christian Endeavor; Church of England". Considering how often (if ever!) we have seen the abbreviation C.E. used for "Christian Endeavor", we can safely conclude that such an abbreviation for "Common Era" then, is either a new invention or, at the most, existed among a very, very small minority at that time. Research on the Internet for a clue as to what group invented such a term, reveals that the abbreviations B.C.E. & C.E. were created by the Jews.

---

The most revealing evidence can be found on a strictly Jewish web site designed by an Observant Jew. The web site contains everything of the basics of Judaism. One of the pages entitled, "Glossary of Jewish Terminology" states that, "Following is a partial list of Hebrew and Yiddish terms used on this web site". Among this list of HEBREW and YIDDISH terms can be found the abbreviations C.E. and B.C.E. even though they are abbreviations of English words! It is listed there as:

C.E.- Common (or Christian) Era. Used instead of A.D., because A.D. means "the Year of our L-rd," and we do not believe that Christ is our L-rd.

Of course, as mentioned earlier, this pretext of "disbelief" does not explain its use when it is already customary to omit the A.D. It most certainly goes deeper than that. The internet research for "C.E." came upon a web page on medieval history mentioning "800-1200 C.E." authored by a Paul Eliasberg, a non-religious Jew from northern Europe. To Mr. Eliasberg was commented, "Using C.E. rather than the usual_nothing_seems... to be a sort of outright protest to using A.D." Mr. Eliasberg responded, "It is. In a way I'm not just non-Christian but more anti-Christianity."

---

Another place on the Internet was found:

"As a boy in Jewish Sunday School I was taught to use B.C.E. and C.E. instead of B.C. and A.D." And we find a statement by a man named Ken Jacobs:

"the BCE/CE convention began (AFAIK) with Maimonides, who proposed BCE/ACE (meaning no more or less than: before/after the start of the Christian Era) as a means of avoiding the utterance of `Anno Domini.'"

---

This is all understandable since this reflects the ancient Jewish tradition which forbade even the mention of the name of "Jesus" in a Jewish household. This is largely based on their religious books called the Talmud, considered to be a "sequel" to the Hebrew Bible, which were the basis of Jewish religious life. Such books are comprised of volumes and volumes of "rambling commentary" by Jewish

Teachers who had no religious function whatsoever (since the Jewish Aaronic priesthood became extinct). Such were written in the 3rd, 4th and 5th centuries primarily as a response and opposition to Christianity.

---

Being that the "Jewish" subject is such a sensitive issue today, it would be well to quote a few Jewish sources below. Considering all of the "Jewish awareness" we have today in society, one may wonder why the content of the Talmud is not common knowledge by now:

"The Talmud was regarded almost as the supreme authority by the majority of Jews...Even the Bible was relegated to a secondary place."

- Jewish Encyclopedia

---

"The absolute superiority of the Talmud over the Bible of Moses must be recognized by all." - Archives Israelites

It is quite in accord with Jewish teaching to invent such a dating scheme because the Talmudic scholar Laible admits that during the period of the Talmudists hatred of Jesus became "the most national trait of Judaism", and that "the hatred and scorn of the Jews was always directed in the first place against the person of Jesus". In such writings, rather than use Jesus' name, they refer to Him as "dog", "sorcerer", "fool", "profane person", "liar", "impostor", etc.

"We must not forget that in the seventeenth century, scholars...had brought forth from oblivion old volumes of Hebrew polemic, written in refutation of the Trinity and Incarnation and attacking all dogmas and forms of Christianity with a bitterness entirely Judaic, and with all the subtlety of those peerless casuists who created the Talmud." - Bernard Lazare, "Anti-Semitism". 1903 A.D.

---

The purpose here is to give a strong and authoritative reason why the Jews would create BCE/CE and try to push it upon society. Of course, this does not imply that every Jew has such a thing in mind, nor that every Hebrew-blooded person is an anti-Christian. Basically, such a change is welcomed generally by any anti-Christian, but obviously has its origin in Jewish religious tradition.

---

Such a change to C.E. can only be effectively made within society were it to be promoted in the school system. In the confines of the student academic world we find the subtle conditioning of students to make them think that this change has already been made and is now a 'matter of fact'. Here we see this in a student exercise found on a proprietary educational site on the Internet:

---

"Performance Assessments-Social Studies." "Write a recommendation for going back to B.C. and A.D., keeping new forms of B.C.E. and C.E., or using another pair of abbreviations."

---

It is strongly suggested that this tract be spread to others through e-mail and posted to computer forums. All are encouraged to put themselves in the habit of writing dates with an A.D. even if it means fighting the initial feeling of "nerdishness". It is a perfectly legitimate thing to do, and the subject is too important not to do something positive to counteract the de-Christianization of our country, and our world.

---

If anyone presents the false argument of "Separation of Church and State", give them the quote by the Supreme Court in 1892 A.D.:

"Our laws and our institutions must necessarily be based upon and embody the teachings of the Redeemer of mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise; and in this sense and to this extent our civilization and our institutions are emphatically Christian."

---

If you get your Church bulletins from Liguori Publications, you will find that they are now using the Jewish B.C.E. and C.E. instead of the Christian B.C. and A.D.. It has happened several times, and by different writers. This is anti-Christian, anti-Catholic, and anti-Christ.

The latest example is dated September 27, 1998 and is on the front page of the bulletin in an article by John F. Craghan.

Two previous examples were in the June 21, 1998, and September 6, 1998 editions of the bulletin in articles by Elsie Hainz McGrath.

I have raised objection twice with Liguori Publications and they have responded with "theologians are telling them to do it". Please take note, they said "theologians" and not the Vatican.

The URL for Liguori Publications is: <http://www.liguori.org/>

Here are a few more notes on the subject which I acquired from various sources...

---

The point within this small section is to acquaint the reader with the terms "BCE/CE" which the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society (Jehovahs Witnesses) employ instead of B.C. or A.D.. B.C. stands for "Before Christ" and A.D. stand for "Anno Domini" or "In the Year of our Lord", clearly Godly, Christian terminology.

---

Instead of using these simple terms, the WTB&TS use B.C.E (Before the Common Era) and C.E. (Common Era) to depict time. The WTB&TS does not explain why they have decided to use this terminology instead of the commonly used terminology, they simply just state what the terms means and continue in their explanation of what the Old Testament contains (39 Books) and that the New Testament contains 27 Books.

---

I never dreamed this would turn out to be a sinister as it did. It turns out that only Christians have ever used the terms "B.C." and "A.D.". Jewish people use the terms "Before the Common Era" and "Common Era" because they deny the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

---

As a boy in Jewish Sunday School I was taught to use B.C.E. (Before the Common Era) and C.E. (Common Era) instead of B.C. and A.D.. Since A.D. refers to "Year of our Lord" and Jews do not recognize Jesus as the lord we avoided the usual term.

---

The references are to "Before the Common Era" (B.C.E.) and the "Common Era" (C.E.). They are related to B.C. and A.D., but avoid somewhat the Christocentric implications of those initials.

---

Someone wrote that these stand for Before the Current Era and Current Era. This is close, but not quite. They stand for Before the Common Era, and Common Era. This is a way of stating times in a non-Christian way, since they make no reference to Christ, as B.C. and A.D. do. Not everyone is Christian, which is why B.C.E. and C.E. are now used more often than B.C. and A.D. Hope this helped.

---

What does B.C.E. & C.E. mean and why does the Jewish community use them rather than B.C. & A.D.? Our Question and Pastor R-----'s Answer...

Dear Pastor R-----, I am confused as to why the Jewish people and a lot of people dealing with the Bible and Israel date history using B.C.E. and C.E. rather than the most common used B.C. and A.D.. Is there a Jewish reason?

Dear Bev, shalom,

This is a fast but pointed answer, but I know you can quickly get more information by looking at the local public library. Research on our calendar's development, ok.? So, a simple help will do from me. B.C., meaning "before Christ," & A.D., meaning "in the year of our Lord", are abbreviations primarily used/developed by Christians. Their use implies the acceptance of Jesus Christ as divine, a concept rejected by traditional rabbinic Judaism. Hence, in Jewish scholarship B.C.E., meaning "before the Common Era," & C.E., meaning the "Common Era," were introduced to draw a distinction between Christian and Jewish belief.

---

Interestingly, the fallacy of this belief is, no matter if they use AD-BC or CE-BCE, the time of the transition is still the same, and what or who caused that transition? So what have they gained?

---

The simple reason why the WTB&TS does not use BC or AD is because they wish to distance their members from the Lordship of Jesus Christ. They refuse to acknowledge Him in all their ways. Also, they forget that someday every knee will bow and every tongue will confess, to the glory of God the Father, that Jesus Christ is Lord!

(Philippians 2:11) Dan 7:25, Acts 10:15,11:9

As you can plainly see, the use of C.E. and B.C.E. are strictly anti-Christian and anti-Catholic. We Christians should be alert to this, yet another attempt, to remove Christ from our lives. It is appalling that Catholic organizations such as Liguori Publications are aiding and abetting yet another crucifixion of Christ.

Liguori! Why are you doing this? What possible reason could you have for removing Christ from our time measure which has been used for centuries?

---

I urge all Christians who love Jesus Christ to stand up and let your voices be heard, that we will not tolerate these modernist liberal intrusions into our traditional values.

One priest on EWTN devoted his homily to this subject, and he stated,

ALL CATHOLICS SHOULD NOT USE B.C.E AND C.E., BUT SHOULD CONTINUE USING A.D. AND B.C..

I certainly will..., will you?

Creeds of the Catholic Church...

---

THE APOSTLE'S CREED has been handed down to us from the Apostles themselves, hence the name. It is the shortest of the three creeds, and undoubtedly the best known, as it is the simplest profession of the Catholic and Apostolic Faith. The Apostle's Creed contains all the articles the other ones have, though in a very simplified form. This is the Creed which forms the basis for our Catechisms...

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE CREED OF NICAEA (325)... This was the original Nicene Creed. It was revised and finalized at the Council of Constantinople in 381...

We believe in one God the Father All-sovereign, maker of all things. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, begotten of the Father, only-begotten, that is, of the substance of the Father, God of God, Light of Light, true God of true God, begotten not made, of one substance with the Father, through whom all things were made, things in heaven and things on the earth; who for us men and for our salvation came down and was made flesh, and became man, suffered, and rose on the third day, ascended into the heavens, and is coming to judge living and dead. And in the Holy Spirit. And those that say 'There was when he was not,' and, 'Before he was begotten he was not,' and that, 'He came into being from what-is-not,' or those that allege, that the son of God is 'Of another substance or essence' or 'created,' or 'changeable' or 'alterable,' these the Catholic and Apostolic Church anathematizes.

THE NICENE CREED (more properly called the Nicene-Constantinople Creed), came to us in its final form from the great Council of Constantinople in 381. This is the Creed which Catholics recite at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass...

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended in heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father [and the Son]. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

---

THE ATHANASIAN CREED dates from the late fourth century, and is attributed to St. Athanasius (296-373), the great defender of Catholic Truth. Those who held to the Arian heresy, which ravaged the Church at that time, denied the divinity of Christ. As a result, Athanasius composed this creed which includes lengthy explanations of the Trinity and the Hypostatic Union (the Human and Divine natures of Christ forming one Person)...

Whosoever will be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic Faith. Which Faith, except a man keep whole and integral, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly. Now the Catholic Faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity. Neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the substance. For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost is all one, the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal. For such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost. The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate, the Holy Ghost uncreate; the Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible; the Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Ghost eternal. And yet, there are not three eternals, but one eternal. As also there are not three uncreated, nor three incomprehensibles; but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible. So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Ghost Almighty. And yet there are not three Almighty, but one Almighty. So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God. And yet there are not three Gods, but one God. So likewise, the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, and the Holy Ghost is Lord. And yet there are not three Lords, but one Lord. For, as we are compelled by the Christian verity to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord; so we are forbidden by the Catholic religion to say there be three Gods or three Lords. The Father is made by none, neither created nor begotten. The Son is of the Father, not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son; neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding. So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts. And in this Trinity none is before or after the other. None is greater or less than another, but the whole three Persons are co-equal and co-eternal together. So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshiped. He therefore that will be saved, must thus think of the Trinity. Furthermore it is necessary unto eternal salvation that he believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. For the right faith is, that we believe and confess, that our Lord Jesus Christ is God and man. God of the substance of the Father, begotten before the world; and Man of the substance of His Mother, born into the world. Perfect God and perfect Man, of a reasonable soul and human flesh subsisting. Equal to the Father as touching His Godhead, and inferior to the Godhead as touching His Manhood. Who, although He be God, and Man, yet He is not two, but one Christ. One altogether, not by confusion of substance, but by unity of Person. For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man, so God and man is one Christ. Who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead. He ascended into heaven; He sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies, and shall give account for their works. And they that have done good shall go into everlasting life, and they that have done evil, into everlasting fire. This, then, is the Catholic Faith, which except a man believe faithfully and firmly, he cannot be saved.

Annulment and Divorce: So what is the Difference?

---

"What GOD has joined together, let no man put asunder."
Matthew 19:6

---

Jesus Christ has said that those who are united in the eyes of GOD are joined in matrimony until death do they part.

---

Divorce:

The legal dissolution of a marriage, a severance of the marriage bond in a civil environment. The civil laws of our country accept the premise that two married people can terminate their marriage with the blessings of the state.

---

The Catholic Church teaches that if two baptized persons marry validly in the eyes of GOD, neither they, nor the state, nor the Church itself has the authority to dissolve that marriage. The key word here is validly.

---

Many people believe that an annulment is the Church's equivalent to a civil divorce. This could not be further from the truth.

---

Annul:

To make or declare a marriage is void or invalid.

Annulment:

An act of making or declaring a marriage as being void or invalid.

---

The Church, however, can examine a marriage that has failed and then determine if the marriage was lacking an essential quality for a complete and valid union from the very beginning. This process can take six months or more and is performed by a tribunal from the Diocese in which the parties reside.

---

There are many valid reasons for the tribunal to grant an annulment.
Many have to do with the two parties involved, not openly revealing to each other at the very beginning, their feelings on certain matters.
I will list only a few valid reasons for illustration here.

- 1. The primary purpose of marriage is the procreation of children.
After the marriage one party says, "I do not want children."
- 2. Either or both parties are married to third parties.
- 3. One is homosexual and did not reveal this to the other.
- 4. One party has a criminal record and did not reveal it.

There are many more valid reasons for which an annulment may be granted by the Church. I would advise the consultation of a Catholic priest for more on this subject.

---

In summation:

A divorce breaks the civil bond of a marriage.

An annulment declares that the marriage was invalid from the beginning.
An annulment does not separate what GOD has joined. It merely declares that what had been joined was not fully what GOD had intended.

Left or Right?

There is much talk today in the field of politics of the left and the right. One of the main parties is associated with the left and the other main party is associated with the right. Quite interestingly, I have noticed that Holy Scripture has some input about those on the left and those who are on the right.

---

Genesis 24:49,

"Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."

Ecclesiastes 10:2-3,

"A wise man's heart inclines him toward the right, but a fool's heart toward the left.

Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he says to every one that he is a fool."

Ezekiel 1:10,

"As for the likeness of their faces, each had the face of a man in front; the four had the face of a lion on the right side, the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four had the face of an eagle at the back."

Hmmm, which is the more noble animal, the Lion or the Ox?

Matthew 6:3,

"But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,"

Matthew 25:31-46,

"When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. (32) Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, (33) and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. (34) Then the King will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; (35) for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, (36) I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' (37) Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? (38) And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? (39) And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?' (40) And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' (41) Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; (42) for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, (43) I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' (44) Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see thee hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to thee?' (45) Then he will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.' (46) And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Both the left and the right have their own mascots.

The right has the Elephant. Elephants are intelligent animals as shown in the versatility of what they can be trained to do and the deft of their movements for such a large and heavy animal. Just watch and see what they can do in the circus.

The left.....well, they have uhhh the Donkey!

Ecclesiastes 10:2-3,

"A wise man's heart inclines him toward the right, but a fool's heart toward the left.
Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he says to every one that he is a fool."

The Number Three (3)...

---

Three in one, and one in three. The One in the middle died for me...

Three: The number three is a perfect number and is used extensively throughout Scripture:

Ark of the Covenant contained 3 items, the tablets, rod, and manna:
Heb 9:4 Baskets:
Gen 40:18 Branches:
Gen 40:10 Christ died for three things, ourselves, our salvation, and our sins.
Christ made Peter affirm his love for Him three times: Jn 21:15-17
Christ rose on the third day: Mt 28:1-6
Christ was thirty three when He died.
Christ will rebuild this temple in three days: Mk 14:58
Christ's ministry lasted three years.
Church teaching, Holy Scripture, Tradition, and the Magisterium.
Daniel knelt three times a day to pray: Dan 6:10
Days of darkness, the 9th plague on Egypt: Ex 10:21-23
Days in the wilderness: Ex 8:27,15:22
Days without food for the Egyptian: 1Sam 30:12-13
Esther commands Mardochai to fast for three days and three nights: Est 4:16
GOD gave each of us memory, intelligence, and free will.
Jerusalem is surrounded by 3 mountains, Gibeon, Moriah, and Zion: Psa 125:2
Jesus hung on the cross for three hours before He died: Lk 23:44-46
Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane three times: Mk 14:32-42
Jesus was crucified on the third hour: Mk 15:25
Jesus was crucified using three nails, one in each wrist, one in both feet.
Jesus was judged by three, Annas, Pilate, and Herod.
Jesus was lost in the temple for three days: Lk 2:41-51
Jonah spends three days and three nights in the whale: Jonah 2:1, Mt 12:40.
Paul reasoned from Scriptures for three Sabbaths: Act 17:2
Peter denied Him three times: Lk 22:54-62.

The Number Forty (40)...

---

Forty: The number 40 appears to be used by GOD to represent a period of testing or judgment in most cases..

Forty days (25): Gen 7:4,12,17,8:6,50:3, Ex 24:18,34:28, Deut 9:9,11,18,25, Deut 10:10, Mt 4:2, Mk 1:3, Lk 4:2, Act 1:13

Forty years (54): Ex 16:35, Num 14:33,32:13, Deut 8:2,29:5, Jos 5:6, 2Sam 5:4, 1Kng 2:11,11:42, Neh 9:21, Psa 95:10, Act 7:30,36,42,13:18, Heb 3:9,17

The rains (in Noah's day) fell for 40 days and nights (Gen 7:4,12).

Isaac was 40 years old when he married Rebekah (Gen. 25:20).

Esau was 40 years old when he married Judith (Gen. 26:34).

Israel ate Manna for 40 years (Exodus 16:35).

Moses was with God in the mount, 40 days and nights (Ex. 24:18).

The sockets of silver are in groups of 40 (Ex. 26:19 & 21).

Moses was AGAIN with God 40 days and 40 nights (Ex. 34:28).

Moses was 40 years old when he first visited his people (Acts 7:23).

Moses led Israel from Egypt at age 80 (2 times 40), and after 40 years in the wilderness, died at 120 (3 times 40; Deut. 34:7). The spies searched the land of Canaan for 40 days (Num. 13:25).

Therefore, God made Israel wander for 40 years (Num. 14:33-34).

40 stripes was the maximum WHIPPING penalty (Deut. 25:3).

Caleb was 40 when he spied out the land of Canaan (Joshua 14:7).

God allowed the land to rest for 40 years (Judges 3:11).

God again allowed the land to rest for 40 years (Judges 5:31).

Fire Within

By Father Thomas Dubay S.M. (1923-2010)

---

In the early 1990's a most remarkable priest, Father Luke Zimmer, visited my Church and gave an inspiring talk about Father Dubay's book Fire Within. If you want to increase your spirituality and raise it to a higher level, then this is the book to read. It is adapted from the writings of St. Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross. It is a little difficult to read for some lay persons because of a few unfamiliar words. I have written this little dictionary specifically for use with Fire Within. Friends of mine who have used this short dictionary have said it enhances their understanding of what Father Dubay has written in this, his literary masterpiece. It is also useful for other religious texts.

ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF HIS HOLINESS POPE PAUL VI ON THE REGULATION OF BIRTH
Humanae Vitae

TO THE VENERABLE PATRIARCHS, ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS AND OTHER LOCAL ORDINARIES IN PEACE AND COMMUNION WITH THE APOSTOLIC SEE, TO PRIESTS, THE FAITHFUL AND TO ALL MEN OF GOOD WILL

VENERABLE BROTHERS AND BELOVED SONS:

1. The most serious duty of transmitting human life, for which married persons are the free and responsible collaborators of God the Creator, has always been a source of great joys to them, even if sometimes accompanied by not a few difficulties and by distress.

At all times the fulfillment of this duty has posed grave problems to the conscience of married persons, but, with the recent evolution of society, changes have taken place that give rise to new questions which the Church could not ignore, having to do with a matter which so closely touches upon the life and happiness of men.

2. The changes which have taken place are in fact noteworthy and of varied kinds. In the first place, there is the rapid demographic development. Fear is shown by many that world population is growing more rapidly than the available resources, with growing distress to many families and developing countries, so that the temptation for authorities to counter this danger with radical measures is great. Moreover, working and lodging conditions, as well as increased exigencies both in the economic field and in that of education, often make the proper education of a larger number of children difficult today. A change is also seen both in the manner of considering the person of woman and her place in society, and in the value to be attributed to conjugal love in marriage, and also in the appreciation to be made of the meaning of conjugal acts in relation to that love.

Finally and above all, man has made stupendous progress in the domination and rational organization of the forces of nature, such that he tends to extend this domination to his own total being: to the body, to psychical life, to social life and even to the laws which regulate the transmission of life.

3. This new state of things gives rise to new questions. Granted the conditions of life today, and granted the meaning which conjugal relations have with respect to the harmony between husband and wife and to their mutual fidelity, would not a revision of the ethical norms, in force up to now, seem to be advisable, especially when it is considered that they cannot be observed without sacrifices, sometimes heroic sacrifices?

And again: by extending to this field the application of the so-called "principle of totality," could it not be admitted that the intention of a less abundant but more rationalized fecundity might transform a materially sterilizing intervention into a licit and wise control of birth? Could it not be admitted, that is, that the finality of procreation pertains to the ensemble of conjugal life, rather than to its single acts? It is also asked whether, in view of the increased sense of responsibility of modern man, the moment has not come for him to entrust to his reason and his will, rather than to the biological rhythms of his organism, the task of regulating birth.

4. Such questions required from the teaching authority of the Church a new and deeper reflection upon the principles of the moral teaching on marriage: a teaching founded on the natural law, illuminated and enriched by divine revelation.

No believer will wish to deny that the teaching authority of the Church is competent to interpret even the natural moral law. It is, in fact, indisputable, as our predecessors have many times declared,[1] that Jesus Christ, when communicating to Peter and to the Apostles His divine authority and sending them to teach all nations His commandments,[2] constituted them as guardians and authentic interpreters of all the moral law, not only, that is, of the law of the Gospel, but also of the natural law, which is also an expression of the will of God, the faithful fulfillment of which is equally necessary for salvation.[3]

Conformably to this mission of hers, the Church has always provided--and even more amply in recent times--a coherent teaching concerning both the nature of marriage and the correct use of conjugal rights and the duties of husband and wife.[4]

5. The consciousness of that same mission induced us to confirm and enlarge the study commission which our predecessor Pope John XXIII of happy memory had instituted in March, 1963. That commission which included, besides several experts in the various pertinent disciplines also married couples, had as its scope the gathering of opinions on the new questions regarding conjugal life, and in particular on the regulation of births, and of furnishing opportune elements of information so that the magisterium could give an adequate reply to the expectation not only of the faithful, but also of world opinion.[5]

The work of these experts, as well as the successive judgments and counsels spontaneously forwarded by or expressly requested from a good number of our brothers in the episcopate, have permitted us to measure more exactly all the aspects of this complex matter. Hence with all our heart we express to each of them our lively gratitude.

6. The conclusions at which the commission arrived could not, nevertheless, be considered by us as definitive, nor dispense us from a personal examination of this serious question; and this also because, within the commission itself, no full concordance of judgments concerning the moral norms to be proposed had been reached, and above all because certain criteria of solutions had emerged which departed from the moral teaching on marriage proposed with constant firmness by the teaching authority of the Church.

Therefore, having attentively sifted the documentation laid before us, after mature reflection and assiduous prayers, we now intend, by virtue of the mandate entrusted to us by Christ, to give our reply to these grave questions.

7. The problem of birth, like every other problem regarding human life, is to be considered, beyond partial perspectives-- whether of the biological or psychological, demographic or sociological orders--in the light of an integral vision of man and of his vocation, not only his natural and earthly, but also his supernatural and eternal vocation. And since, in the attempt to justify artificial methods of birth control, many have appealed to the demands both of conjugal love and of "responsible parenthood," it is good to state very precisely the true concept of these two great realities of married life, referring principally to what was recently set forth in this regard, and in a highly authoritative form, by the Second Vatican Council in its pastoral constitution "Gaudium et Spes."

8. Conjugal love reveals its true nature and nobility when it is considered in its supreme origin, God, who is love,[6] "the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named." [7]

Marriage is not, then, the effect of chance or the product of evolution of unconscious natural forces; it is the wise institution of the Creator to realize in mankind His design of love. By means of the reciprocal personal gift of self, proper and exclusive to them, husband and wife tend towards the communion of their beings in view of mutual personal perfection, to collaborate with God in the generation and education of new lives.

For baptized persons, moreover, marriage invests the dignity of a sacramental sign of grace, inasmuch as it represents the union of Christ and of the Church.

9. Under this light, there clearly appear the characteristic marks and demands of conjugal love, and it is of supreme importance to have an exact idea of these.

This love is first of all fully human, that is to say, of the senses and of the spirit at the same time. It is not, then, a simple transport of instinct and sentiment, but also, and principally, an act of the free will, intended to endure and to grow by means of the joys and sorrows of daily life, in such a way that husband and wife become one only heart and one only soul, and together attain their human perfection.

Then, this love is total, that is to say, it is a very special form of personal friendship, in which husband and wife generously share everything, without undue reservations or selfish calculations. Whoever truly loves his marriage partner loves not only for what he receives, but for the partner's self, rejoicing that he can enrich his partner with the gift of himself.

Again, this love is faithful and exclusive until death. Thus in fact do bride and groom conceive it to be on the day when they freely and in full awareness assume the duty of the marriage bond. A fidelity, this, which can sometimes be difficult, but is always possible, always noble and meritorious, as no one can deny. The example of so many married persons down through the centuries shows, not only that fidelity is according to the nature of marriage, but also that it is a source of profound and lasting happiness.

And finally this love is fecund for it is not exhausted by the communion between husband and wife, but is destined to continue, raising up new lives. "Marriage and conjugal love are by their nature ordained toward the begetting and educating of children. Children are really the supreme gift of marriage and contribute very substantially to the welfare of their parents." [8]

10. Hence conjugal love requires in husband and wife an awareness of their mission of "responsible parenthood," which today is rightly much insisted upon, and which also must be exactly understood. Consequently it is to be considered under different aspects which are legitimate and connected with one another.

In relation to the biological processes, responsible parenthood means the knowledge and respect of their functions; human intellect discovers in the power of giving life biological laws which are part of the human person. [9]

In relation to the tendencies of instinct or passion, responsible parenthood means that necessary dominion which reason and will must exercise over them.

In relation to physical, economic, psychological and social conditions, responsible parenthood is exercised, either by the deliberate and generous decision to raise a numerous family, or by the decision, made for grave motives and with due respect for the moral law, to avoid for the time being, or even for an indeterminate period, a new birth.

Responsible parenthood also and above all implies a more profound relationship to the objective moral order established by God, of which a right conscience is the faithful interpreter. The responsible exercise of parenthood implies, therefore, that husband and wife recognize fully their own duties towards God, towards themselves, towards the family and towards society, in a correct hierarchy of values.

In the task of transmitting life, therefore, they are not free to proceed completely at will, as if they could determine in a wholly autonomous way the honest path to follow; but they must conform their activity to the creative intention of God, expressed in the very nature of marriage and of its acts, and manifested by the constant teaching of the Church. [10]

11. These acts, by which husband and wife are united in chaste intimacy, and by means of which human life is transmitted, are, as the Council recalled, "noble and worthy," [11] and they do not cease to be lawful if, for causes independent of the will of husband and wife, they are foreseen to be infecund, since they always remain ordained towards expressing and consolidating their union. In fact, as experience bears witness, not every conjugal act is followed by a new life. God has wisely disposed natural laws and rhythms of fecundity which, of themselves, cause a separation in the succession of births. Nonetheless the Church, calling men back to the observance of the norms of the natural law, as interpreted by their constant doctrine, teaches that each and every marriage act (quilibet matrimonii usus) must remain open to the transmission of life. [12]

12. That teaching, often set forth by the magisterium, is founded upon the inseparable connection, willed by God and unable to be broken by man on his own initiative, between the two meanings of the conjugal act: the unitive meaning and the procreative meaning. Indeed, by its intimate structure, the conjugal act, while most closely uniting husband and wife, capacitates them for the generation of new lives, according to laws inscribed in the very being of man and of woman. By safeguarding both these essential aspects, the unitive and the procreative, the conjugal act preserves in its fullness the sense of true mutual love and its ordination towards man's most high calling to parenthood. We believe that the men of our day are particularly capable of seeing the deeply reasonable and human character of this fundamental principle.

13. It is in fact justly observed that a conjugal act imposed upon one's partner without regard for his or her condition and lawful desires is not a true act of love, and therefore denies an exigency of right moral order in the relationships between husband and wife. Likewise, if they consider the matter, they must admit that an act of mutual love, which is detrimental to the faculty of propagating life, which God the Creator of all, has implanted in it according to special laws, is in contradiction to both the divine plan, according to whose norm matrimony has been instituted, and the will of the Author of human life. To use this divine gift destroying, even if only partially, its meaning and its purpose is to contradict the nature both of man and of woman and of their most intimate relationship, and therefore it is to contradict also the plan of God and His will. On the other hand, to make use of the gift of conjugal love while respecting the laws of the generative process means to acknowledge oneself not to be the arbiter of the sources of human life, but rather the minister of the design established by the Creator. In fact, just as man does not have unlimited dominion over his body in general, so also, with particular reason, he has no such dominion over his generative faculties as such, because of their intrinsic ordination towards raising up life, of which God is the principle. "Human life is sacred," Pope John XXIII recalled; "from its very inception it reveals the creating hand of God." [13]

14. In conformity with these landmarks in the human and Christian vision of marriage, we must once again declare that the direct interruption of the generative process already begun, and, above all, directly willed and procured abortion, even if for therapeutic reasons, are to be absolutely excluded as licit means of regulating birth. [14]

Equally to be excluded, as the teaching authority of the Church has frequently declared, is direct sterilization, whether perpetual or temporary, whether of the man or of the woman. [15] Similarly excluded is every action which, either in anticipation of the conjugal act, or in its accomplishment, or in the development of its natural consequences, proposes, whether as an end or as a means, to render procreation impossible. [16]

To justify conjugal acts made intentionally infecund, one cannot invoke as valid reasons the lesser evil, or the fact that such acts would constitute a whole together with the fecund acts already performed or to follow later, and hence would share in one and the same moral goodness. In truth, if it is sometimes licit to tolerate a lesser evil in order to avoid a greater evil or to promote a greater good, [17] it is not licit, even for the gravest reasons, to do evil so that good may follow therefrom; [18] that is, to make into the object of a positive act of the will something which is intrinsically disorder, and hence unworthy of the human person, even when the intention is to safeguard or promote individual, family or social well-being. Consequently it is an error to think that a conjugal act which is deliberately made infecund and so is intrinsically dishonest could be made honest and right by the ensemble of a fecund conjugal life.

15. The Church, on the contrary, does not at all consider illicit the use of those therapeutic means truly necessary to cure diseases of the organism, even if an impediment to procreation, which may be foreseen, should result therefore, provided such impediment is not, for whatever motive, directly willed. [19]

16. To this teaching of the Church on conjugal morals, the objection is made today, as we observed earlier (no. 3), that it is the prerogative of the human intellect to dominate the energies offered by irrational nature and to orientate them towards an end conformable to the good of man. Now, some may ask: in the present case, is it not reasonable in many circumstances to have recourse to artificial birth control if, thereby, we secure the harmony and peace of the family, and better conditions for the education of the children already born? To this question it is necessary to reply with clarity: the Church is the first to praise and recommend the intervention of intelligence in a function which so closely associates the rational creature with his Creator; but she affirms that this must be done with respect for the order established by God.

If, then, there are serious motives to space out births, which derive from the physical or psychological conditions of husband and wife, or from external conditions, the Church teaches that it is then licit to take into account the natural rhythms immanent in the generative functions, for the use of marriage in the infecund periods only, and in this way to regulate birth without offending the moral principles which have been recalled earlier.[20]

The Church is coherent with herself when she considers recourse to the infecund periods to be licit, while at the same time condemning, as being always illicit, the use of means directly contrary to fecundation, even if such use is inspired by reasons which may appear honest and serious. In reality, there are essential differences between the two cases; in the former, the married couple make legitimate use of a natural disposition; in the latter, they impede the development of natural processes. It is true that, in the one and the other case, the married couple are concordant in the positive will of avoiding children for plausible reasons, seeking the certainty that offspring will not arrive; but it is also true that only in the former case are they able to renounce the use of marriage in the fecund periods when, for just motives, procreation is not desirable, while making use of it during infecund periods to manifest their affection and to safeguard their mutual fidelity. By so doing, they give proof of a truly and integrally honest love.

17. Upright men can even better convince themselves of the solid grounds on which the teaching of the Church in this field is based, if they care to reflect upon the consequences of methods of artificial birth control. Let them consider, first of all, how wide and easy a road would thus be opened up towards conjugal infidelity and the general lowering of morality. Not much experience is needed in order to know human weakness, and to understand that men--especially the young, who are so vulnerable on this point--have need of encouragement to be faithful to the moral law, so that they must not be offered some easy means of eluding its observance. It is also to be feared that the man, growing used to the employment of anti-conceptive practices, may finally lose respect for the woman and, no longer caring for her physical and psychological equilibrium, may come to the point of considering her as a mere instrument of selfish enjoyment, and no longer as his respected and beloved companion.

Let it be considered also that a dangerous weapon would thus be placed in the hands of those public authorities who take no heed of moral exigencies. Who could blame a government for applying to the solution of the problems of the community those means acknowledged to be licit for married couples in the solution of a family problem? Who will stop rulers from favoring, from even imposing upon their peoples, if they were to consider it necessary, the method of contraception which they judge to be most efficacious? In such a way men, wishing to avoid individual, family, or social difficulties encountered in the observance of the divine law, would reach the point of placing at the mercy of the intervention of public authorities the most personal and most reserved sector of conjugal intimacy.

Consequently, if the mission of generating life is not to be exposed to the arbitrary will of men, one must necessarily recognize insurmountable limits to the possibility of man's domination over his own body and its functions; limits which no man, whether a private individual or one invested with authority, may licitly surpass. And such limits cannot be determined otherwise than by the respect due to the integrity of the human organism and its functions, according to the principles recalled earlier, and also according to the correct understanding of the "principle of totality" illustrated by our predecessor Pope Pius XII.[21]

18. It can be foreseen that this teaching will perhaps not be easily received by all: Too numerous are those voices--amplified by the modern means of propaganda--which are contrary to the voice of the Church. To tell the truth, the Church is not surprised to be made, like her divine Founder, a "sign of contradiction", [22] yet she does not because of this cease to proclaim with humble firmness the entire moral law, both natural and evangelical. Of such laws the Church was not the author, nor consequently can she be their arbiter; she is only their depositary and their interpreter, without ever being able to declare to be licit that which is not so by reason of its intimate and unchangeable opposition to the true good of man.

In defending conjugal morals in their integral wholeness, the Church knows that she contributes towards the establishment of a truly human civilization; she engages man not to abdicate from his own responsibility in order to rely on technical means; by that very fact she defends the dignity of man and wife. Faithful to both the teaching and the example of the Savior, she shows herself to be the sincere and disinterested friend of men, whom she wishes to help, even during their earthly sojourn, "to share as sons in the life of the living God, the Father of all men." [23]

19. Our words would not be an adequate expression of the thought and solicitude of the Church, Mother and Teacher of all peoples, if, after having recalled men to the observance and respect of the divine law regarding matrimony, we did not strengthen them in the path of honest regulation of birth, even amid the difficult conditions which today afflict families and peoples. The Church, in fact, cannot have a different conduct towards men than that of the Redeemer: She knows their weaknesses, has compassion on the crowd, receives sinners; but she cannot renounce the teaching of the law which is, in reality, that law proper to a human life restored to its original truth and conducted by the spirit of God. [24]

20. The teaching of the Church on the regulation of birth, which promulgates the divine law, will easily appear to many to be difficult or even impossible of actuation. And indeed, like all great beneficent realities, it demands serious engagement and much effort, individual, family and social effort. More than that, it would not be practicable without the help of God, who upholds and strengthens the good will of men. Yet, to anyone who reflects well, it cannot but be clear that such efforts ennoble man and are beneficial to the human community.

21. The honest practice of regulation of birth demands first of all that husband and wife acquire and possess solid convictions concerning the true values of life and of the family, and that they tend towards securing perfect self-mastery. To dominate instinct by means of one's reason and free will undoubtedly requires ascetical practices, so that the affective manifestations of conjugal life may observe the correct order, in particular with regard to the observance of periodic continence. Yet this discipline which is proper to the purity of married couples, far from harming conjugal love, rather confers on it a higher human value. It demands continual effort yet, thanks to its beneficent influence, husband and wife fully develop their personalities, being enriched with spiritual values. Such discipline bestows upon family life fruits of serenity and peace, and facilitates the solution of other problems; it favors attention for one's partner, helps both parties to drive out selfishness, the enemy of true love; and deepens their sense of responsibility. By its means, parents acquire the capacity of having a deeper and more efficacious influence in the education of their offspring; little children and youths grow up with a just appraisal of human values, and in the serene and harmonious development of their spiritual and sensitive faculties.

22. On this occasion, we wish to draw the attention of educators, and of all who perform duties of responsibility in regard to the common good of human society, to the need of creating an atmosphere favorable to education in chastity, that is, to the triumph of healthy liberty over license by means of respect for the moral order.

Everything in the modern media of social communications which leads to sense excitation and unbridled customs, as well as every form of pornography and licentious performances, must arouse the frank and unanimous reaction of all those who are solicitous for the progress of civilization and the defense of the common good of the human spirit. Vainly would one seek to justify such depravation with the pretext of artistic or scientific exigencies, [25] or to deduce an argument from the freedom allowed in this sector by the public authorities.

23. To Rulers, who are those principally responsible for the common good, and who can do so much to safeguard moral customs, we say: Do not allow the morality of your peoples to be degraded; do not permit that by legal means practices contrary to the natural and divine law be introduced into that fundamental cell, the family. Quite other is the way in which public authorities can and must contribute to the solution of the demographic problem: namely, the way of a provident policy for the family, of a wise education of peoples in respect of moral law and the liberty of citizens.

We are well aware of the serious difficulties experienced by public authorities in this regard, especially in the developing countries. To their legitimate preoccupations we devoted our encyclical letter Populorum Progressio. But with our predecessor Pope John XXIII, we repeat: no solution to these difficulties is acceptable "which does violence to man's essential dignity" and is based only on an utterly materialistic conception of man himself and of his life. The only possible solution to this question is one which envisages the social and economic progress both of individuals and of the whole of human society, and which respects and promotes true human values.[26] Neither can one, without grave injustice, consider divine providence to be responsible for what depends, instead, on a lack of wisdom in government, on an insufficient sense of social justice, on selfish monopolization, or again on blameworthy indolence in confronting the efforts and the sacrifices necessary to ensure the raising of living standards of a people and of all its sons.[27]

May all responsible public authorities--as some are already doing so laudably--generously revive their efforts. And may mutual aid between all the members of the great human family never cease to grow: This is an almost limitless field which thus opens up to the activity of the great international organizations.

24. We wish now to express our encouragement to men of science, who "can considerably advance the welfare of marriage and the family, along with peace of conscience, if by pooling their efforts they labor to explain more thoroughly the various conditions favoring a proper regulation of births." [28] It is particularly desirable that, according to the wish already expressed by Pope Pius XII, medical science succeed in providing a sufficiently secure basis for a regulation of birth, founded on the observance of natural rhythms.[29] In this way, scientists and especially Catholic scientists will contribute to demonstrate in actual fact that, as the Church teaches, "a true contradiction cannot exist between the divine laws pertaining to the transmission of life and those pertaining to the fostering of authentic conjugal love." [30]

25. And now our words more directly address our own children, particularly those whom God calls to serve Him in marriage. The Church, while teaching imprescriptible demands of the divine law, announces the tidings of salvation, and by means of the sacraments opens up the paths of grace, which makes man a new creature, capable of corresponding with love and true freedom to the design of his Creator and Savior, and of finding the yoke of Christ to be sweet.[31]

Christian married couples, then, docile to her voice, must remember that their Christian vocation, which began at baptism, is further specified and reinforced by the sacrament of matrimony. By it husband and wife are strengthened and as it were consecrated for the faithful accomplishment of their proper duties, for the carrying out of their proper vocation even to perfection, and the Christian witness which is proper to them before the whole world.[32] To them the Lord entrusts the task of making visible to men the holiness and sweetness of the law which unites the mutual love of husband and wife with their cooperation with the love of God the author of human life.

We do not at all intend to hide the sometimes serious difficulties inherent in the life of Christian married persons; for them as for everyone else, "the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life." [33] But the hope of that life must illuminate their way, as with courage they strive to live with wisdom, justice and piety in this present time, [34] knowing that the figure of this world passes away. [35]

Let married couples, then, face up to the efforts needed, supported by the faith and hope which "do not disappoint . . . because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to Us" [36]; let them implore divine assistance by persevering prayer; above all, let them draw from the source of grace and charity in the Eucharist. And if sin should still keep its hold over them, let them not be discouraged, but rather have recourse with humble perseverance to the mercy of God, which is poured forth in the sacrament of Penance. In this way they will be enabled to achieve the fullness of conjugal life described by the Apostle: "husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the Church . . . husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the Church . . . this is a great mystery, and I mean in reference to Christ and the Church. However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband." [37]

26. Among the fruits which ripen forth from a generous effort of fidelity to the divine law, one of the most precious is that married couples themselves not infrequently feel the desire to communicate their experience to others. Thus there comes to be included in the vast pattern of the vocation of the laity a new and most noteworthy form of the apostolate of like to like; it is married couples themselves who become apostles and guides to other married couples. This is assuredly, among so many forms of apostolate, one of those which seem most opportune today.[38]

27. We hold those physicians and medical personnel in the highest esteem who, in the exercise of their profession, value above every human interest the superior demands of their Christian vocation. Let them persevere, therefore, in promoting on every occasion the discovery of solutions inspired by faith and right reason, let them strive to arouse this conviction and this respect in their associates. Let them also consider as their proper professional duty the task of acquiring all the knowledge needed in this delicate sector, so as to be able to give to those married persons who consult them wise counsel and healthy direction, such as they have a right to expect.

28. Beloved priest sons, by vocation you are the counselors and spiritual guides of individual persons and of families. We now turn to you with confidence. Your first task--especially in the case of those who teach moral theology--is to expound the Church's teaching on marriage without ambiguity. Be the first to give, in the exercise of your ministry, the example of loyal internal and external obedience to the teaching authority of the Church. That obedience, as you know well, obliges not only because of the reasons adduced, but rather because of the light of the Holy Spirit, which is given in a particular way to the pastors of the Church in order that they may illustrate the truth.[39] You know, too, that it is of the utmost importance, for peace of consciences and for the unity of the Christian people, that in the field of morals as well as in that of dogma, all should attend to the magisterium of the Church, and all should speak the same language. Hence, with all our heart we renew to you the heartfelt plea of the great Apostle Paul: "I appeal to you, brethren, by the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment." [40]

29. To diminish in no way the saving teaching of Christ constitutes an eminent form of charity for souls. But this must ever be accompanied by patience and goodness, such as the Lord himself gave example of in dealing with men. Having come not to condemn but to save,[41] he was indeed intransigent with evil, but merciful towards individuals.

In their difficulties, may married couples always find, in the words and in the heart of a priest, the echo of the voice and the love of the Redeemer.

And then speak with confidence, beloved sons, fully convinced that the spirit of God, while He assists the magisterium in proposing doctrine, illumines internally the hearts of the faithful inviting them to give their assent. Teach married couples the indispensable way of prayer; prepare them to have recourse often and with faith to the sacraments of the Eucharist and of Penance, without ever allowing themselves to be discouraged by their own weakness.

30. Beloved and venerable brothers in the episcopate, with whom we most intimately share the solicitude of the spiritual good of the People of God, at the conclusion of this encyclical our reverent and affectionate thoughts turn to you. To all of you we extend an urgent invitation. At the head of the priests, your collaborators, and of your faithful, work ardently and incessantly for the safeguarding and the holiness of marriage, so that it may always be lived in its entire human and Christian fullness. Consider this mission as one of your most urgent responsibilities at the present time. As you know, it implies concerted pastoral action in all the fields of human activity, economic, cultural and social; for, in fact, only a simultaneous improvement in these various sectors will make it possible to render the life of parents and of children within their families not only tolerable, but easier and more joyous, to render the living together in human society more fraternal and peaceful, in faithfulness to God's design for the world.

31. Venerable brothers, most beloved sons, and all men of good will, great indeed is the work of education, of progress and of love to which we call you, upon the foundation of the Church's teaching, of which the successor of Peter is, together with his brothers in the episcopate, the depositary and interpreter. Truly a great work, as we are deeply convinced, both for the world and for the Church, since man cannot find true happiness--towards which he aspires with all his being--other than in respect of the laws written by God in his very nature, laws which he must observe with intelligence and love. Upon this work, and upon all of you, and especially upon married couples, we invoke the abundant graces of the God of holiness and mercy, and in pledge thereof we impart to you all our apostolic blessing.

Given at Rome, from St. Peter's, this 25th day of July, feast of St. James the Apostle, in the year 1968, the sixth of our pontificate.

PAULUS PP.VI.

Abortion... One Dead, One Wounded... It Is Legalized Murder...

---

*You may be pro-choice, but GOD is Pro-Life.

---

*From the very beginning GOD commanded,
"Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it."*

Genesis 1:28, and Genesis 8:17, and Genesis 9:1

GOD did not add, 'If it is YOUR will', or 'If it pleases YOU', or 'If YOU decide to do so', or 'IF IT IS YOUR CHOICE', did He?

*No, He said 'DO IT', It is GOD's will, not ours, that children should be brought into this world.
If you will notice, this command was repeated at least three times in Genesis alone, and there are similar verses in other books. Now, why does anyone repeat himself?*

To drive home a very important point, that is why.

*You may be pro-choice, but GOD is Pro-Life.

---

But Jesus said to them,

*"Let the little children be,
and do not hinder them from coming to Me,
for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."*

Matthew 19:14

Does an aborted child ever get to enjoy this heavenly privilege?

---

But Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their heart, took a little child and set him at His side and said to them,

*"Whoever receives this little child for My sake, receives Me;
and whoever receives Me, receives Him who sent Me."*

Luke 9:47-48

Does Jesus Christ love children?

---

*The word 'children' is mentioned over 1500 times in Holy Scripture.
From that, I must deduce that 'children' are of paramount importance to GOD.*

To the author of a book the fruit of his works belongs to the author.

---

Likewise...

*To the Author of Life, the fruit of His works belongs to the Author.
"But you disowned the Holy and Just One, and asked that a murderer should be granted to you;
but the Author of Life you killed whom GOD has raised up from the dead; whereof we are witnesses."
Acts 3:14-15*

*"Behold all souls are mine: as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine:
the soul that sins, the same shall die."
Ezekiel 18:4*

*So when does life begin? Holy Scripture told us the answer. Are pro-abortionists paying attention?
"For just as a body without a spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead."
James 2:26*

It is obvious that life begins at conception, simply because a dead fetus will not grow.

For you have been bought at great price.
Glorify GOD and bear Him in your body."
1 Corinthians 6:19-20*

GOD is Pro-Life.

---

*Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"
He answered, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"
And the Lord said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to me from the ground. And now cursed are you in the soil which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand."
Genesis 4:9-11*

GOD hears the blood of the innocent who were slain.

*"I call heaven and earth today to witness against you.
I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse.
Choose life then, that you and your descendants may live, by loving the Lord your GOD, heeding His voice, and holding fast to Him. For that will mean life for you, a long life for you to live on the land which the Lord swore
He would give to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

swear falsely, burn incense to Ba'al, and go after other gods that you have not known,

---

*Holy Scripture is quite clear, the Author of Life gives life, and only He may take it away.
We, therefore, have no control over who lives and who dies. We are all GOD's children (Gal 3:26), and we must live by the rules of Our Father.*

No one 'owns' another human being. No one can say, 'I live but you must die'. No one can say of an unborn child, 'This is my body and I will do with it as I please'. The unborn child belongs to its 'Author', the Creator of Life, and to Him alone, and not to its mother. The mother serves as a nurturing vessel, as GOD is forming the child in her womb. Neither she nor anyone else has a right to destroy a human creature which GOD has created.

"Seek not death in the error of your life, neither procure you destruction by the works of your hands. For GOD made not death, neither has He pleasure in the destruction of the living. For He created all things that they might be; and He made the nations of the earth for health; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor kingdom of hell upon the earth. For justice is perpetual and immortal. But the wicked with works and words have called it to them, and esteeming it a friend have fallen away, and have made a covenant with it, because they are worthy to be of the part thereof."

Wisdom 1:12-16

GOD is Pro-Life.

---

It is GOD's will that we:

"Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it."

Genesis 1:28, 9:7

As a reward for fidelity to Himself, GOD promises children:

*"No woman in your land will be barren or miscarry;
and I will give you a full span of life."*

Exodus 23:26

"I will look with favor upon you, and make you fruitful and numerous, as I carry out My covenant with you."

Leviticus 26:9

*"Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord;
and the fruit of the womb is His reward."*

Psalms 127:3

---

GOD also promised a punishment for those of infidelity:

For those who cause a woman to miscarry:

"When men have a fight and hurt a pregnant woman, so that she suffers a miscarriage, but no further injury, the guilty one shall be fined as much as the woman's husband demands of him..."

Exodus 21:22

"Whoever sheds the blood of man, by a man shall his blood be shed."

*"Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and shall be filled with their own devices.
The turning away of little ones shall kill them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them."
Proverbs 1:31-32*

*"Blessed is the man who endures trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love him. Let no one say when he is tempted,
"I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted with evil and he himself tempts no one; but each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin; and sin when it is full-grown brings forth death."
James 1:13-16*

*More punishment equated to abortion:
"May they pass like the snail which melts away, like the aborted fetuses of a woman which sees not the sun."
Psalms 58:8 (9)*

*Hosea asks GOD for punishment of the Israelites for their iniquities:
"As for Ephraim, their glory has flown away like a bird, from the birth and from the womb and from the conception.
And though they should bring up their children,
I will make them without children among men.
Yes and woe to them when I shall depart from them.
Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place, but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.
Give them O Lord. What will you give them?
Give them a miscarrying womb, and dry breasts."
Hosea 9:11-14*

---

*"Yet you have brought me forth from the womb; you did watch over me when I was at my mother's breast."
Psalms 22:10-11*

---

*"And when you stretch forth your hands, I will turn away My eyes from you;
and when you multiply prayer, I will not hear,
for your hands are full of blood.
Wash yourselves, be clean, take away the evil of your devices from my eyes."
Isaiah 1:15-16*

---

*"For my eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, and their iniquity has not been hid from my eyes."
Jeremiah 16:17*

"But your iniquities have divided between you and your GOD, and your sins have hid His face from you that He should not hear.

For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity.

*Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue utters iniquity."
Isaiah 59:2-3*

---

"Fathers shall not be put to death for their children,

nor children for their fathers;

*only for his own guilt shall a man be put to death.
Deuteronomy 24:16*

*"They served their idols, which became a snare to them. They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons, and shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood, and they were defiled by their own works, and fornicated in their crimes."
Psalms 106:37-39*

*"Now we know that the law is good, if any one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, immoral persons, sodomites, kidnapers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted."
1 Timothy 1:8-11*

*"Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not render to a man according to his works?"
Proverbs 24:11-12*

---

"Six things there are, which the Lord hateth, and the seventh His Soul detesteth: haughty eyes, a lying tongue,

hands that shed innocent blood."

Proverbs 6:16-17

---

"Keep far from a false charge,

and do not slay the innocent and righteous, for I will not acquit the wicked."

*One of the saddest stories in the entire Bible is in the Book of Matthew.
"Then Herod, seeing that he had been tricked by the Magi, was exceedingly angry; and he sent and slew all the boys in Bethlehem and all its neighborhood who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the Magi."
Matthew 2:16*

---

*Those slain children are called the "Holy Innocents".
There is no one any more innocent and helpless than a newborn child, or one who is still in its mothers womb. They cannot speak for themselves.
They are helpless and defenseless, and they are all the property of GOD.
Scripture does not give a clue as to the number of Holy Innocents, but it must have been a small number, as Bethlehem was a small town.
Compare those Holy Innocents with the over 40,000,000 in the USA alone, and the 1,200,000,000 worldwide, slain in the last 30 years by abortion.*

---

"Thus said the Lord: A voice was heard on high of Lamentation, of mourning and weeping, of Rachel weeping for her children, and refusing to be comforted for them, because they are not."

*Thus says the LORD: "Keep your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD, and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.
There is hope for your future, says the LORD, and your children shall come back to their own country."
Jeremiah 31:15-17, Matthew 2:17-18*

---

What did Church Fathers and early Church writers have to say?

Tertullian, The Soul 27,3 208 A.D.

"We acknowledge, therefore, that life begins with conception, because we contend that the soul begins at conception. Life begins when the soul begins."

Tertullian, Apology 9, 197 A.D.

"...murder being once for all forbidden, we may not destroy even the foetus in the womb, while as yet the human being derives blood from other parts of the body for its sustenance. To hinder a birth is merely a speedier man- killing; nor does it matter whether you take away a life that is born, or destroy one that is coming to the birth. That is a man which is going to be one; you have the fruit already in its seed."

St. Hippolytus of Rome, Philosophoumena, or Refutation of all Heresies, 222 A.D.

"...for this reason women who were reputed to be believers began to take drugs to render themselves sterile, and to bind themselves tightly so as to expel what was being conceived, since they would not, on account of relatives and excessive wealth, want to have a child by a slave or by any insignificant person. See, then, into what great impiety that lawless one has proceeded, by teaching adultery and murder at the same time." 9:12

St. Basil, the Great, First Canonical Letter to Amphilochius, 374 A.D.

"A woman who has deliberately destroyed a fetus must pay the penalty for murder." 188:1

"Those also who give drugs causing abortions are murderers themselves, as well as those who receive the poison which kills the fetus." 188:8

St. Augustine of Hippo, Enchiridion of Faith, Hope, and Love, 23,86, 421 A.D.

"...though I know not whether man can find an answer: when it is that a human being in the womb begins to live, and whether there is also a certain kind of hidden life there which is not yet apparent in the movements of the living being. It seems very rash to deny that those fetuses ever lived, that are cut away and ejected limb by limb from the wombs of the pregnant, lest the mothers perish too, if the fetuses be left there dead."

St. Augustine of Hippo, Marriage and Concupiscence, 17, 419 A.D.

"It is, however, one thing for married persons to have intercourse only for the wish to beget children, which is not sinful: it is another thing for them to desire carnal pleasure in cohabitation, but with the spouse only, which involves venial sin. For although propagation of offspring is not the motive of the intercourse, there is still no attempt to prevent such propagation, either by wrong desire or evil appliance. They who resort to these, although called by the name of spouses, are really not such; they retain no vestige of true matrimony, but pretend the honourable designation as a cloak for criminal conduct. Having also proceeded so far, they are betrayed into exposing their children, which are born against their will. They hate to nourish and retain those whom they were afraid they would beget. This infliction of cruelty on their offspring so reluctantly begotten, unmasks the sin which they had practised in darkness, and drags it clearly into the light of day. The open cruelty reproves the concealed sin. Sometimes, indeed, this lustful cruelty, or; if you please, cruel lust, resorts to such extravagant methods as to use poisonous drugs to secure barrenness; or else, if unsuccessful in this, to destroy the conceived seed by some means previous to birth, preferring that its offspring should rather perish than receive vitality; or if it was advancing to life within the womb, should be slain before it was born. Well, if both parties alike are so flagitious, they are not husband and wife; and if such were their character from the beginning, they have not come together by wedlock but by debauchery. But if the two are not alike in such sin, I boldly declare either that the woman is, so to say, the husband's harlot; or the man the wife's adulterer."

St. Clement of Alexandria, Christ the Educator, 2:10, 202 A.D.

"If we should but control our lusts at the start and if we would not kill off the human race born and developing according to the divine plan, then our whole lives would be lived according to nature."

"Women who resort to some sort of deadly abortion drug kill not only the embryo, but, along with it, all human kindness." Ibid, 23:174

St. Jerome, Letters 22:13, 380 A.D.

"You may see many women widows before wedded, who try to conceal their miserable fall by a lying garb. Unless they are betrayed by swelling wombs or by the crying of their infants...Some go so far as to take potions, that they may insure barrenness ...Some, when they find themselves with child through their sin, use drugs to procure abortion, and when (as often happens) they die with their offspring, they enter the lower world laden with the guilt not only of adultery against Christ but also of suicide and child murder...Yet it is these who say: "...my conscience is sufficient guide for me..."

St. John Chrysostom, Homily 24 on Romans, 391 A.D.

"For I have no name to give it, since it does not take off the thing born, but prevent its being born. Why then dost thou abuse the gift of God, and fight with His laws, and follow after what is a curse as if a blessing, and make the chamber of procreation a chamber for murder, and arm the woman that was given for childbearing unto slaughter?"

Flavius Josephus, though not a Church Father, was the main Jewish historian of his time, 37-101 A.D., so he lived during the time of the Apostles. He had this to say:

*"The law, moreover enjoins us to bring up all our offspring, and forbids women to cause abortion of what is begotten, or to destroy it afterward; and if any woman appears to have so done, she will be a murderer of her child by destroying a living creature, and diminishing humankind: if anyone, therefore, proceeds to such fornication or murder, he cannot be clean."
Josephus against Apion, 2:25...*

*As you can see from these historical writings which I have shown, there is nothing new regarding the abomination of Abortion.
Holy Scripture once again is true to the point...*

*"All things are full of weariness, a man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun. Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"?
It has been already, in the ages before us. There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after."
Ecclesiastes 1:8-11*

---

*A man pleaded with GOD. "Dear GOD, why don't you give us someone who can find a cure for cancer and heart disease?"
GOD replied, "I did, but you aborted them."*

---

I would venture to say, that given the chance, proponents of Abortion would very likely support aborting the Son of GOD.

---

*Pro-Choice, exactly just what does that mean?
The persons who chose that title did so because it sounds less repulsive than what it really means, which is...*

"I have a perfect right to kill another human being, a creature of GOD's creation, if I choose to do so."

*Let us call it for what it truly is... Legalized Murder...

---

*For those of you who would say, "It is only a lump of flesh",
I am compelled to ask:
"And what would that 'lump of flesh' become if it were left alone in the womb?"*

*I am again compelled to ask:
"Does a 'lump of flesh' have a heartbeat?"*

---

"And behold, Elizabeth thy kinswoman also has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month."

Luke 1:36

"And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt."

Luke 1:41

"For behold, the moment that the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy."

Luke 1:44

*Now please explain to me,
"How can a 'lump of flesh' leap in its mothers womb, and how does it know joy?"*

---

"Can a woman forget her infant, so as not to have pity on the son of her womb?"

Isaiah 49:15

---

"And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour the child the moment it was born."

Revelation 12:4

What is the difference between the abortionists of today, and the dragon of Revelation 12:4?

---

*The whales, are protected by animal rightists.
The spotted owls, are protected by animal rightists.
The snail darter, is protected by animal rightists.
The human child in the womb, is the most helpless of all, where are those who protect them?
It would seem that we have more concern over the life of animals than we have over the lives of human beings.*

And what did GOD have to say about all of this?

"Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

Genesis 1:28

It would seem that man has lowered himself from having dominion over animal life, to having submission under it.

---

May GOD have mercy on us for what we have done.

---

*"Thou art my GOD: have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to thee continually. Give joy to the soul of thy servant, for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
For thou, O Lord, art good and kind, full of mercy for all who call upon thee.
Give ear, O Lord, to my prayer, and attend to the voice of my supplication.*

*I call upon thee in the day of my trouble, because thou wilt hear me."
Psalms 86:3-7*

The Pro-Life Rosary...

The Joyful Mysteries...

1. The Annunciation...

The Angel Gabriel came to Mary saying, "Rejoice, so highly favored. The Lord is with you. Mary, do not be afraid; you have won God's favor. Listen! You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus." Mary accepted God's plan, and was overjoyed to conceive the Son of God. Her womb became a holy tabernacle.

Mary, we pray that all mothers who are with child will respect their privilege as you did. We pray that the laws of nations and social attitudes will encourage all expectant mothers and protect their unborn babies. May all expectant mothers proclaim, "I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let what you have said be done to me." Mary, you know that God alone gives the gift of life. Help all abortionists to realize that only God has the right to take life.

2. The Visitation...

Mary had heard from Gabriel of Elizabeth becoming pregnant, despite her advanced years. And so the Holy Virgin went to stay with her. "Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb" exclaimed Elizabeth. The two holy women treasured the new lives growing within them.

Mary and Elizabeth and John the Baptist, please pray to Jesus that our society will treasure every human life from conception till natural death.

3. The Birth of Jesus...

Mary and Joseph traveled to Bethlehem, in obedience to the command of Caesar Augustus. Mary's time had come, but only a stable was available for lodging. There was no room at the inn.

Mary, in our day there are many expectant mothers with no proper place to have and raise their children. Society would rather they destroyed the child instead. Grant courage to those in such need, and teach our civil authorities to act humanely and responsibly.

4. The Presentation in the Temple...

Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple, in obedience to the law of Moses. They presented the Child to God, his Father. Simeon rejoiced to see the light of the world, but spoke also of Jesus as a sign of contradiction, and foretold the sword of sorrow that would pierce Mary's heart.

We pray that all babies be privileged to come to birth and then to baptism in their parish Church. May all mothers praise and thank God for their children.

5. Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple...

On coming of age Jesus' first act is to be about his Father's business. His second is to submit himself to Mary and Joseph as an act of free and mature deliberation. His three days' absence from them foreshadows his absence in the tomb. Mary treasures all these things in her heart. Her Son has given her much to ponder.

Jesus, teach all mothers to choose to be with their children and renounce the violent separation of abortion. Comfort all those who suffer the separation of bereavement.

---

The Sorrowful Mysteries...

1. The Agony in Garden...

The night before he died, Jesus went to the lonely garden of Gethsemane. He took his closest friends and asked them repeatedly to watch with him. He prayed that if possible, his Father might remove this cup of suffering from him. But aware of the dominance of evil in men's hearts he knew how much atonement was needed. Each time he looked, his friends were asleep. At such a crisis how could they sleep?

Today, Christ is crucified again each time an infant is aborted: what we do to the least of his brethren, we do to him. Must we also fall asleep?

Rather, let us watch and pray.

2. The Scourging at the Pillar...

The chief priests envied Jesus' message, all truth and light. But if they accepted his leadership how would the Romans react? Better to sacrifice one innocent man than set the whole nation at risk. Best hand him over to the Romans, to be scourged and crucified.

Most pro-abortionists are too respectable to do themselves what they advocate: they hand over the baby to others to be mutilated and killed.

Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

---

3. Jesus is Crowned With Thorns...

Our Lady came to Fatima with a message for us all: pray the Rosary daily for peace. Do much penance in reparation for the sins of the world.

Jesus has endured enough insult and pain already: we must not continue to heap these upon him. Thorns from enemies were terrible: insults from friends are even worse. How painful for him to receive back, a tortured, mutilated baby, when he sent a unique gift of life.

4. Jesus Carries His Cross...

Jesus set out for Calvary, laden with his own cross, like a lamb to the slaughter. He had been given a couple of token trials, before the Sanhedrin and Pilate. But they were only gestures: the minds of the intellectuals had been made up. His death would solve a problem. He was ready for all this. He had taught that what was hidden from the wise and prudent was revealed to little ones.

Some little ones suffer like him: death without trial. Like Jesus, their death would solve a problem. Mothers should weep for themselves and for their children.

5. The Crucifixion and Death of Jesus...

Jesus suffered a long, cruel, agonizing death. Throughout he stayed true to his Father. He stayed true to all he had said, true to his love for us. The bystanders heard his words of love and forgiveness, of concern for his mother, of the gift of a mother to a sinful family. But he cried, "Father, why hast thou forsaken me?" How could his people let him feel so abandoned?

Jesus suffers again each time a baby suffers the cruel and agonizing death of an abortion and feels the abandonment of its mother. Let us not now abandon him or them.

The Glorious Mysteries...

1. The Resurrection...

It is truly Jesus risen from the dead: he shows the wounds in his hands, his feet, his side. Gradually men must come to recognize his love. He died for each one of us. He would have died for only one of us. Such is the value of each human life from conception to natural death. Jesus' rising from the dead should raise our awareness of the value of our neighbor no matter how tiny.

2. The Ascension...

The time has come for Jesus to take his seat at his Father's right hand. A crowd assembles on the mountain. We learn that we are not to be left alone. Jesus will be with us till the end of time. His Spirit will come and strengthen and enlighten, so that we shall be the light of the world. How dark the world is today. It thinks that the deeds done in the darkness of the womb are done in secret. Jesus, the light of the world, will reveal in the light of his presence, all that is done in darkness. Jesus, help us hold them to the light and show those blinded to the truth the lovely tenderness of your unborn babes.

3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit...

The Apostles gathered in the upper room. They had their message, but could not yet act on it. They must await further power from on high. It was the Spirit who drove them into the streets to proclaim their risen Lord. Lord, like the Apostles, the prolife workforce of today can do nothing alone. Send us the abundant gifts of your Spirit that we too may be driven into the streets to proclaim the humanity of the unborn.

4. The Assumption of Mary into Heaven...

We praise God for raising his mother, both body and soul to heaven, sharing with her first the fruits of his resurrection. Now she prays for us, and He is sure to listen.

Mary, pray for your children that all may live in peace and love. May simple love conquer the modern ethic of expedience, with its demarcation line between valuable and disposable people. May all pass through natural death to the resurrection. May all have the opportunity to work out their own salvation.

5. The Coronation of Mary...

We honor the Queen, mother of the King, closest collaborator in the work of our redemption. We honor the saints who have completed their earthly pilgrimage, and we seek the help of all their prayers.

Mary, we trust that all the infants executed before birth are safely with you, enjoying the vision of God. They were not baptized with water, but neither were the Holy Innocents. Tell your Son that they are all martyrs of the modern Herods.

---

Prayers...

The Apostles Creed...

I believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell: the third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father...

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary...

Hail Mary, Full of Grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

---

Glory Be...

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

---

O My Jesus...

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to heaven especially those in most need of thy mercy.

---

Hail, Holy Queen...

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

---

Let us Pray:

O, God whose only begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant we beseech Thee that in meditating on the mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what the promise, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

---

Prayer to St. Michael Archangel...

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of Battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

---

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy...

Leader:

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelope the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

All (three times):

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in YOU!

---

Our Father

Hail Mary

Apostles Creed

---

On each Large Bead:

Leader:

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ

All:

In atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On each small bead:

Leader: For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion

All: Have Mercy on us and on the whole world.

After the 5th decade say 3 times:

Holy God,

Holy Mighty One,

Holy Immortal One

Have mercy on us

and on the whole world.

3 times:

Jesus, I trust in You!

The True Meaning of New Age...

---

The 'New Age' movement very cleverly and subtly suggests that we exchange "obsolete" and "outmoded" tenets and beliefs of our Catholic-Christian faith for its own more "modern" and "relevant" spiritual principles and philosophies. This is exactly what St. Paul was referring to in his letter to the Romans when he stated: "For they exchanged the truth for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator." [Romans 1:25] For each of the following concepts or truths of our Christian faith, the New Age offers its own "new" and "enlightened" substitute [ie. lies]:

Purgatory, Fact Or Fiction?

---

"You, therefore, must be perfect, as your Heavenly Father is perfect."

Matthew 5:48

---

It stands to reason that since GOD is perfect, then Heaven has to be a perfect place, and nothing imperfect can enter (Revelation 21:27). GOD will not join Himself to anything defiled. If a person dies with sins not sufficient for hell (the sin unto death, 1John 5:16-17), and has lesser sins to prevent entry into Heaven, then there has to be a third place in which to atone for them. This would be a temporary place, as stated in Matthew 5:25-26, "You shall not come out until you have paid the last penny".

Come out of where?

After Adam's sin, the gates of Heaven were closed, and no one was allowed to enter (John 3:13) until Jesus Christ redeemed the human race and opened the gates once again. Where were the spirits of Moses and Elias, who appeared and spoke with Jesus at the transfiguration (Matthew 17:3)? They could not have been in Heaven since it was closed, and they would have been lost had they been in hell. They had to have been in a third place. If there was a third place then, why not a third place now?

What about Lazarus? He was already dead four days (John 11:17) when Jesus arrived at his tomb. Where was his soul during those four days? It could not be heaven or hell for the same reasons as for Moses and Elias. His soul had to have been in a third place.

Philippians 2:10 says:

"That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bend of those in Heaven, on earth, and 'under the earth'."
'Under the earth', could it mean hell, or is it a third place?

Non Catholic theologians struggle trying to reconcile their denial of the existence of Purgatory with what Paul said in 1Corinthians 3:12-15:

"Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire*."

To whom do these verses refer? Obviously the person is not in hell, as verse 15 says "himself will be saved". He cannot be in heaven either as the same verse implies suffering, "as through fire", and there is no suffering in heaven. These verses say that man will be purified by fire and then will be saved to enter Heaven. Where will this, "yet as though through fire", take place if not in a third place called Purgatory?

*The Greek word used for fire is "pursw" (puroo) of which "pur" is the root word for Purgatory.

"And who shall be able to think of the day of His coming? And who shall stand to see Him? For HE IS LIKE A REFINING FIRE, and like the fuller's herb; AND HE SHALL SIT REFINING AND CLEANSING THE SILVER. AND HE SHALL PURIFY THE SONS OF LEVI, AND SHALL REFINE THEM AS GOLD, AND AS SILVER, and they shall offer sacrifices to the Lord in justice."

Malachi 3:2-3

"...Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn My hand to the little ones. And they shall be in all the earth, said the Lord, TWO PARTS IN IT SHALL BE SCATTERED, AND SHALL PERISH, BUT THE THIRD PART SHALL BE LEFT THEREIN. AND I WILL BRING THE THIRD PART THROUGH THE FIRE, AND WILL REFINE THEM AS SILVER IS REFINED, AND I WILL TRY THEM AS GOLD IS TRIED. THEY SHALL CALL ON MY NAME, AND I WILL HEAR THEM. I WILL SAY: YOU ARE MY PEOPLE. AND THEY SHALL SAY; THE LORD IS MY GOD."

Zechariah 13:7-9

"As silver is tried by fire, and gold in the furnace, so the Lord tries the hearts."
Proverbs 17:3.

The metal refiner watches the silver, for if the process is longer than necessary, the silver will be harmed.
"He shall sit refining and cleansing the silver. And he shall purify the sons of Levi, and shall refine them as gold, and as silver..."

Malachi 3:3.

HE KNOWS THE PROCESS IS COMPLETE WHEN HE CAN SEE HIS OWN IMAGE REFLECTED IN THE SILVER.

GOD SAID, "LET US MAKE MANKIND IN OUR IMAGE AND LIKENESS."

Genesis 1:26

---

"...Woe is me, because I have held my peace; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people that has unclean lips, and I have seen with my eyes the King of the Lord of Hosts. And one of the Seraphims flew to me, and in his hand was a live coal, which he had taken with the tongs off the altar. And he touched my mouth and said, 'BEHOLD THIS HAS TOUCHED YOUR LIPS, AND YOUR INIQUITIES SHALL BE TAKEN AWAY, AND YOUR SIN SHALL BE CLEANSED'." Isaiah 6:5-7

What can this possibly mean other than a purgation of sins through fire?

In 1Peter 3:19, Christ preached to the spirits in prison. What spirits? What prison? We will become pure spirits only after we die, so the spirits have to be the spirits of the dead. Prison cannot mean Heaven, and souls in hell are lost forever. Prison must mean a third place.

1Peter 4:6, the Gospel was preached "even to the dead". Again, where were these dead?

Matthew 12:32, "...but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him either in this world or in the world to come." This passage alludes to another world in which some sins will be forgiven. What other world? Again it could not be either Heaven or hell.

Hebrews 12:23, "...and to the Church of the Firstborn who are enrolled in the heavens, and to GOD, THE JUDGE OF ALL AND TO THE SPIRITS OF THE JUST MADE PERFECT."

We have already seen from Revelation 21:27 that nothing imperfect will enter heaven, and in Hebrews 12:23, the spirits of the just are made perfect. Revelation 22:14 shows that there will be a cleansing before admission to the tree of life and entrance through the gates of the city. Where will all of this happen if not in a third place?

---

"For everyone shall be salted with fire, and every victim shall be salted."

Mark 9:48.

What fire, but the purification fire of Purgatory?

"But that servant who knew his masters will, and did not make ready for him and did not act according to his will, will be beaten with many stripes."

Luke 12:47.

Are people beaten in Heaven? Those in hell are lost, so where will this punishment be fulfilled?

---

Very strong evidence that a third place exists, is in 2Maccabees 12:38-46:

"...it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to Pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins."

If there are only Heaven and hell, why then does Scripture ask us to pray for the dead? If the dead are in hell, prayer is useless. If the dead are in Heaven, prayer is not needed. Therefore there has to be a third place where prayers are needed.

St. Paul prayed for his dead friend Onesiphorus in 2Timothy 1:18,

"May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day."

Why would Paul pray for the dead if he thought his friend to be in heaven or hell where prayers would help neither?

---

The greatest torment in Purgatory is to be separated from GOD for a period of time. Remember, in this life we have five senses, and they are always a distraction for us when we try to concentrate on things of GOD such as prayer. After we leave this life, we are spirit and have lost our five senses. There are no more distractions.

---

Purgatory should be regarded as a great blessing from GOD. Even though souls there are in torment, it is only a temporary torment. All who go there are assured of eventually gaining the Kingdom of Heaven.

It sure beats the third alternative...

---

The doctrine of Purgatory was defined by the Council of Florence in 1431, and was reaffirmed by the Council of Trent in 1563.

---

Some Scripture verses for Purgatory:

Sir 7:33, Isa 6:5-7, Isa 61:1, *2Macc 12:38-46, Mal 3:2-3, Mt 5:25-26,48, Mt 17:1-8, Mt 25:31-46, Lk 6:19-31,

HELL

Does It Exist? You Had Better Believe It Does...

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen was asked a question by a heckler, about someone who had passed on.

The Bishop replied, "I do not know the answer, but when I get to Heaven I will ask him."

The man replied, "But what if he isn't in Heaven?"

The Bishop answered him, "Well then you ask him."

How many people do you suppose believe in hell these days?

Many non-Catholic sects teach that there is no hell, since GOD is too merciful to send anyone to such a terrible place of torment.

*These same denominations teach that the Bible is the "Sole Rule of Authority", that it was handed down by GOD,
and is therefore to be believed.*

Well, if the Bible is to be believed, it has to be believed in its entirety and not simply what we want to believe.

There are at least 54 verses in Holy Scriptures that reference hell by name.

Explain to me why Holy Scripture would even mention a non-existent place so many times?

*Hell, Gehenna, Tartarus, exists.
It is the abode of condemned souls, the devil, and demons.
It is the place of eternal punishment.
GOD does NOT send anyone to hell.
Each of us decides with our own free will* whether we will spend eternity in Heaven or in hell.

Here is just a sample of the verses which reference hell:

*Psa 9:17,21:10,55:15, Prov 7:27, Sir 9:17,21:9-10,
Isa *5:14,30:33,*34:10,66:24, Ez 31:16-17, Ez *32:27,
Mt 3:12,10:28,13:49-50,18:8-9,23:33,25:41-46, Mk 9:42-48, *Lk12:5, Phil2:10, 2Thes 1:9, 2Pet 2:4,9, Rev 14:11,*20:9-15,21:8*

Here are some verses to remind you that hell surely does exist:

Hell and death were cast into the pool of fire: Rev 20:14

Hell and destruction are never filled: Prov 27:20

Hell has enlarged itself: Isa 5:14

Wow! Those last two verses hit hard and should be a wake up call.

Apparently there is lots of room left for all the people sending themselves there.

Do you still believe there is no hell?

Jesus Christ made several statements regarding the existence of hell.

Do you believe what He said in Scripture?

*Matt 25:41, "Then He will say to those on His left hand,
'Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire which was prepared for the devil and his angels'."*

Matt 25:46, "And these will go into everlasting punishment, but the just into everlasting life."

Matt 13: 41-42, "The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His Kingdom all scandals and those who work iniquity, and cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth."

If you deny the Word of Christ, you deny Him.

The Catholic Church teaches that hell really does exist.

Please read the Catechism of the Catholic Church, CCC 1033-1037.

The best answer I have heard to give a person who has said *he or she does not believe in hell is,

"Well you will when you get there, as you look down and say - Where am I?"
By then it is too late to do something about it isn't it?
Why not start now and turn to GOD and avoid this place.
That is, just in case it does exist...*

Satan Does Exist, Whether You Choose To Believe It Or Not...

And He Is Patiently Waiting To Grab Us All...

Believe it or not, some churches really do teach that satan does not exist. I personally, have had contact with one that teaches this cruelest of all lies. This teaching is right up his alley as he would like us all to think he does not exist. Just think how much easier his job becomes if he can get people to believe it. I cannot imagine how anyone can ignore the fact that such evil does exist.

In order for anyone to teach this blatant heresy, they have to deny many Bible verses, thus by doing so, they call GOD a liar. Here are just a few examples...

But He said to them, "I was watching Satan fall as lightning from heaven." Luke 10:18

Now Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit about the desert for forty days, being tempted the while by the devil. Luke 4:1-2

And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat." Luke 22:31

But Satan entered into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, one of the twelve. Luke 22:3

But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan tempted thy heart, that thou should lie to the Holy Spirit and

Satan is mentioned by that name about 50 times in Holy Scripture, but yet, he has many more names also...

Satan, names of:

The Wicked One.....Mt 13:19, 1Jn 2:13

Satan, the master imitator of Christ:

The greatest imitator of Jesus Christ is a spiritual being called Lucifer or Satan (Rev. 12:9).

Examine the evidence:

1. Jesus is the "King of Kings": Rev 19:16.

Satan is "king over all the children of pride": Job 41:25.

2. Jesus is the "Angel of the Lord": Gal 4:14.

Satan appears as an "Angel of Light": 2Cor 11:11-14.

3. "God is light," and in Him there is no darkness: 1Jn 1:5.

Satan appears as an "Angel of light": 2Cor 11:14.

4. Jesus is "God manifest in the flesh": 1Tim 3:16.

Satan is the "god" of this world: 2Cor 4:4.

5. Christ has a bride, who is a city: Rev 21:9.

Satan has a bride, who is a city: Rev 17:1-9.

6. Jesus cites the scripture in conflict: Lk 4:1-8.

Satan cites the scripture in conflict: Lk 4:10.

7. Christ preached 42 months: 3 passovers-Lk 3:23, Jn 2:13,5:1,6:4,12:1.

The Beast preached 42 months: Rev 13:5.

8. Christ means Anointed, Christos, Messiah: Act 4:26, Psa 2:2.

Satan is "anointed" as a "christ": Mt 24:5.

9. God desires worship: Jn 4:23-26.

Satan desires worship: Mt 4:8-10.

10. GOD's Church is the House of GOD: Isa 2:3, Heb 10:21

Satan's church is the Synagogue of Satan: Rev 2:9,3:9

11. The Holy Spirit is of the Lord: 1Sam 16:14

The evil spirit from the Lord: 1Sam 16:14

Satan, attributes of (or lack of):

A. He is a "created" creature... This fact is stated twice in the context of Ezekiel's lament Ez 28:13,15. As a creature, created by God, Satan is limited in his operation and ability.

I. Satan is not omniscient. He is limited with regard to wisdom. Satan knows only what God permits him to know.

2. Satan is not omnipresent. He is limited with regard to location. He can function only in the places where God permits.

3. Satan is not omnipotent. He is limited with regard to authority. He has no more power and authority than God allows.

4. Satan is not eternal. He is limited with regard to creation. His longevity is God's provision for His own purposes in grace.

5. Satan is not just. Because of his determined self-centeredness, he is limited with regard to fairness. He will never judge fairly.

B. He was "perfect in beauty"... Ez 28:12 He was not the foolish character ridiculed today, with humanistic tendencies and weaknesses.

C. He was the "anointed" cherub... Satan is not human, he is of the created order of angels, "Cherubim", Ez 1:4-25,10:1-22. As a created creature, he is responsible to serve God.

D. He was "without iniquity"... He was "...perfect in his ways" until he exercised his will contrary to God's will. He chose iniquity, therefore, he is responsible for the consequences.

E. He was created to serve God... Satan was appointed by God to a position at His eternal throne, rule, and government, Isa 2:2,14:13, Joel 3:17. In his rebellion against God, he lost that privilege forever. Concerning Satan's origin, remember, "all things including Satan (as an angel) were created by the Lord Jesus Christ, and for Him..." Col 1:16

Satans' Master Plan...

THE MASTER PLAN OF THE DEVIL. THE DEVELOPMENT OF MODERN ERRORS...

For approximately seventeen centuries men acknowledged that authority comes only from God, and temporal rulers sought the approval and the blessing of their bishops who, by divine right, ruled in their dioceses as successors of the Apostles. Then came the Philosophists. As always, the Power of Darkness used pride to achieve his aims, the pride of human reason. As always he called the Light, Darkness and the Darkness, Light (Isaiah 5:20). That is why the Medieval times are now referred to as the "Dark Ages"; (in fact, the Dark Ages were pre-Medieval), and why Philosophism is referred to as "Enlightenment".

As always, the Devil acted with subtlety: he did not bring in Communism immediately, he brought in Modern Democracy first, knowing that the one would lead to the other. The lures inherent in the first would more easily lead to the destruction of man by the second. The Devil acted with cunning. So shrewd is he that even Christians were deceived. To make a thorough job of it he instilled into modern minds the myth of historical inevitability. "We must march with the times" we are told, as if the times were not what we are making them!

A SUBTLE AND GRADUAL PROCESS...

The present state of the world is not due to chance, it is the outcome of the everlasting struggle between good and evil. The Devil knows that his fight against God has to be gradual if it is to have any chance of success. Therefore, he began his fight in the 16th century by dividing Christianity.

When the first battle had been won, the Devil moved from the religious field into the philosophical field, and conceived Rationalism, which put human reason before Revelation.

Christians being already divided, there was no single front to defend the primacy of Divine Revelation. The interpretation of Divine Revelation being divided against itself, it could not resist the claim of the so-called primacy of human reason. Human reason appeared more reliable, and so the new philosophy installed itself. It naturally followed that man began to think about an earthly paradise.

Hence Rationalism begot Human Messianism (i.e. Humanism). It was then logical that man should not want to be impeded by standards of moral conduct. He had to be free from all restraints, and his reason alone was going to tell him how to act and behave.

Thus came into being the doctrine of Liberalism. Almost immediately, this doctrine extended to every field of human activity, especially economics, politics and science. From being philosophical, it became practical a way of life, the philosophical origin of which, most people do not suspect nowadays.

AN UNHOLY TRINITY...

After this, Human Messianism combined with Liberalism to set up CAPITALISM, an economic system based on greed and usury, which paves the way for Communism. Rationalism and Liberalism combined to give birth to the principle of POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY, being free and reasonable, every human being was to make all decisions.

Rationalism, and Human Messianism, combined to give birth to SCIENTISM (or the cult of Technology, the worship of the work of man, i.e. TECHNOLATRY) whereby we expect salvation from better and higher production, an error which was observed by Pius XII in his 1952 Christmas message. We speak of "Progress" in terms of industrialisation, completely unaware of "the undeniable advantages of an economy based chiefly on agriculture". (Pius XII)

DIABOLICALLY LOGICAL...

Thus, the unholy trinity, that is, Rationalism, Human Messianism, and Liberalism, laid the ground-work for all the evils which are destroying modern society. Observe how gradual the process has been:

- a) Difference in religious views (affecting the soul).*
- b) Alteration in philosophical thinking (affecting the intellect).*
- c) Organisation and purpose of the physical world (affecting the will).*

Observe how logical the development:

- a) REFORMATION (dividing Christianity to weaken Divine Revelation).*
- b) RATIONALISM (doubting that man can rely on Divine Revelation).*
- c) HUMAN MESSIANISM (asserting that man can rely on himself).*
- d) LIBERALISM (trusting man wholly).*
- e) CAPITALISM (Human Messianism plus Liberalism).*
- f) DEMOCRACY (Rationalism plus Liberalism).*
- g) TECHNOCRACY (and Technolatry) - (Nationalism plus Human Messianism).*

These developments are too gradual and logical to leave any doubt that there is an Intelligence behind it. This Intelligence is that of the Power of Darkness.

A number of Saints have said that, in the Latter Days, evil will be done by men of good will. There is no doubt that many Catholics believe in good faith that we are living in an age of progress, and that Modern Democracy IS Progress. The superficial advantages which it presents hide from many its intrinsic nature, the errors on which it is based, and the evils which accompany it.

The deception of the Devil has worked.

Just Who Is Antichrist?

---

Many books have been written on the subject and there has been much speculation of just who this mysterious person is. Some say he was born in the 1950's and is living among us somewhere, soon to be revealed. How could this be true in light of what Saint John said in his time, that antichrist was "already in the world", 1John 4:3?

---

ANTI-

1. A person who is opposed to something.
2. Opposite, opposing, against, counteracting, or neutralizing.

So we either have a person who opposes Christ, or someone or something that fulfills definition # 2, an entity which is opposed to, or is against Christ.

---

How many falsely accuse the Pope as being Antichrist?

---

Did you know that Holy Scripture is very precise in revealing just WHO Antichrist really is?

1."Dear children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that Antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have risen; whereby we know it is the last hour."

1John 2:18

2."Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist who denies the Father and the Son."

1John 2:22

3."And every spirit that severs Jesus, is not of GOD, but is of antichrist of whom you have heard that he is coming, and now is already in the world."

1John 4:3.

4."For many deceivers have gone forth into the world who do not confess Jesus as the Christ coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist."

2John 1:7.

There you have it. Antichrist is mentioned only four times in Scripture and only in two Epistles of Saint John. Antichrist is not mentioned at all in the book of Revelation, as some seem to believe.

In those four verses Saint John tells us not only who Antichrist is, but also who he could not be.

---

Elucidation:

1. At the time of writing of John's Epistles, many antichrists already existed,

1John 2:18.

Heresies existed from the very beginning and with them were the heretics who lied, deceived, and severed Jesus. Two of the main heresies in the first century were the Simonians who denied the humanity of Christ, and the Cerentians who denied the divinity of Christ. In the second century more than 14 new heresies sprang up, further severing the Body of Christ. As the centuries wore on, older heresies died out and new ones sprang up to take their place. There have been heresies in every century and some are recycled such as Jehovah's witnesses who again deny the divinity of Christ.

2. Antichrist is a liar and denies that Jesus is the Christ, and he also denies the Father and the Son,

1John 2:22.

Yes, as I have pointed out in the first item, there was the denial of Jesus in His divinity, and in His humanity. Over the centuries, there were some denials of both by a single heresy.

3. Antichrist is the one who severs Jesus,

1John 4:3.

As previously discussed, but the severance of Jesus today is worse than ever, as we shall see shortly.

4. Antichrist is a deceiver who denies that Jesus is the Christ and has come in the flesh,

2John 1:7

It is happening today in a big way.

---

In summary:

There are many antichrists, even in the time of Saint John, and they are liars, and deny that Jesus is the Christ. They sever Him. They deceive and deny that He came in the flesh. There is another word which fits all of these parameters perfectly. It is the Heretic the fomenter of Heresy.

---

Conclusions:

1. Antichrist could not possibly be the Pope since he meets none of the qualifications. The Pope has never denied that Jesus is the Christ, has never denied the Father and Son, and he has never severed Jesus.

For those of you who say the Pope is antichrist, the onus is upon you to prove what you charge, and you must provide genuine historical documents to back up what you say.

Therefore, just who CANNOT be antichrist as shown by Holy Scripture?

2. Now, anyone who calls Jesus Christ a liar, has denied Him, 1John 5:10. Anyone who does not believe what He said, therefore, denies Him, as they have called Him a liar. What He said is recorded in Holy Scripture as we all know. Take a look here and you will see many verses in Scripture which are denied by non-Catholics today. The statistical evidence is there; it cannot be denied. Therefore, you tell me, Just Who Is Antichrist?*

3. Now who severs Jesus? He commanded that there be one fold and one shepherd in John 10:16. How many deny these words of His and sever His Body into ever smaller pieces? In 1981 there were about 20,780 splits in the Body of Christ among non-Catholics. Today there are over 33,800 non-Catholic ecclesial communities, as documented in the World Christian Encyclopedia, April 2001 edition. That is an increase of 65% in the severing of the body of Christ in just 20 years. That works out to a rate of over 125% increase every 40 years at the present rate of splitting.

Here are the very words of Jesus, "He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters." Matthew 12:30

What could Jesus have said to be more clear than what He said here? The severing of His body tens of thousands of times is certainly not "gathering" is it? So He says to "gather", but non-Catholics are scattering by their incessant creation of yet more and more splits of His Body. It is all too obvious that scattering is "against me" as He said, and being against Christ is the purest definition of Antichrist.

"Has Christ been divided up?" 1Corinthians 1:13.

Yes, drastically, and the evidence is overwhelming that it is divided by Protestantism, and not by the Papacy or the Catholic Church.

Therefore, you tell me, just Who Is doing the severing? It is Protestantism with its never ending creation of new sects, severing Jesus into ever more and ever smaller pieces.

The answer is so obvious as to just who is clearly the Antichrist.

4. Now just who is the deceiver and the denier of Jesus come in the flesh? The deceiver is anyone who does not speak the truth, just as Satan deceived Eve in Genesis 3:5. The denier, as I have already shown, are those who do not believe the words of Jesus Christ.

A Final Note:

According to what Holy Scripture has clearly told us, Just Who Is Antichrist?

The Legacy left by Martin Luther, the first Protestant!

His Legacy is Not something that anyone should be proud of.

---

"Obey your superiors and be subject to them, for they keep watch as having to render an account of your souls; so that they may do this with joy, and not with grief, for that would not be expedient for you."

Hebrews 13:17

Martin Luther, the originator of the false man-made doctrine of Sola Scriptura and its accompanying individual interpretation of Holy Scripture, obviously avoided that verse, and many others as well. Sola Scriptura, or Bible only, means, "if it is not in the Bible, I will not believe it". I have just shown that, even if it is in the Bible, some will not believe it if they choose not to. I will show many more verses as examples of Scripture ignored by non-Catholics in this text.

Martin Luther was definitely disobedient to his superiors, the authority of the Catholic Church, of which he was a member. Show me from where Luther's self proclaimed authority came? He was an Augustinian monk, and was not a Bishop. He had no authority at all. He blatantly ignored more verses from Scripture which plainly tell us wherein the final authority lies, and it did not lie with himself, but with his opposition, the Catholic Church.

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector."

Matthew 18:15-17,

Clearly, this is GOD given authority to His Church, from words spoken by Jesus Christ Himself. These verses were clearly ignored by Martin Luther.

He also ignored the lessons taught to us in the Old Testament:

"Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman; and they said, "Has the Lord indeed spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?" And the Lord heard it. Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all men that were on the face of the earth. And suddenly the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting". And the three of them came out. And the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward. And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the Lord make myself known to him in a vision, I speak with him in a dream. Not so with my servant Moses; he is entrusted with all my house. With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in dark speech; and he beholds the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?" And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them, and he departed;..."

Numbers 12:1-9

Here is another set of verses on the same theme, these again ignored by Luther:

It is rather lengthy for this post, but please read of the rebellion of Korah and his followers against the authority of Moses. Pay particular attention to the ending of those who refused to submit to the authority of GOD's Father Figure on earth. It isn't pretty.

Numbers 16:1-35

Those who deliberately ignore the errors of those who have gone before us in recorded history are doomed to repeat them again.

Dispensation of authority by GOD over His flock is the same today as it was then. GOD is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Apparently Luther did not know this or he ignored the fact.

He had no GOD given authority whatsoever, so he claimed he was his own authority so to speak. Luther had written many pamphlets and had them printed and distributed all over Europe.

In his pamphlet titled "The Papacy at Rome", of 1520, he claimed his own authority by 'twisting' Holy Scripture in a futile attempt to justify himself. Here are some excerpts from that pamphlet:

"It is to this church, to the believers, that Jesus gave the keys."

Sorry Luther, but you were wrong:

The only place where Jesus gave the keys to anyone is in Matthew 16:19 and He gave them to Peter and to him alone. The Greek word used in this verse for 'you' is singular, second person.

"The keys belong to the whole church and to each of its members."

Sorry Luther, but you were wrong again:

See the note regarding the previous remark made by Luther. The keys are the singular teaching authority of the Church, and if everyone had a set as Luther had claimed here, then each and every person automatically became his or her own pope. Isn't that exactly what happened in Protestantism with each person interpreting Scripture for himself?

By making this statement, each and every member of his movement thought they had a set of keys and thus became his or her own infallible discerner of Holy Scripture. "What feels good for me must be the truth", is what his statement means. A central authority or "Supreme Court", a final discernment of Holy Scripture in Protestantism was non-existent from the very beginning. This is a clear violation of yet more verses of Scripture.

"First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by the impulse of man, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God."

2Peter 1:20-21

See? Luther was really saying to the world that he and his followers will reject the teaching of GOD and accept instead the teaching of man, namely his. Now that places him in violation of yet more verses,

But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men". Acts 5:29

"If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of GOD is greater...". 1John 5:9

The pamphlet, "The Papacy at Rome", was written early in the game, 1520, and it is obvious that Luther was trying to convey to his followers that he had some sort of authority in order to justify his movement to separate from the Catholic Church. However, he obviously failed to do so, and thus quickly moved on to the next and much more destructive stages.

Even at the time it all began in 1520, the Catholic Church was the longest living Christian institution on earth, having been in existence for almost 1500 years. The Church rested upon a sturdy three legged support with one leg being Holy Scripture, a second holy Apostolic tradition, and the third the Pope and Magisterium, the teaching authority. By his own actions in his separation from the one legitimate Church founded by Jesus Christ, Luther lost the one leg of authority, as he could not claim the Papacy and the Magisterium for himself. Secondly, since he formed his own church, he could not claim Catholic Apostolic tradition. Since he could not claim Apostolic tradition either, he lumped it in with man made tradition and thereby condemned all tradition. In doing so he violated still another verse of Holy Scripture,

"So then, brethren, stand firm and hold to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter."

2Thessalonians 2:15

Once again, the teaching of GOD in Holy Scripture is superseded by the teaching of man.

Two legs of sturdiness were lost immediately. The only leg left was Holy Scripture which he took from the Catholic Church, and claimed that it alone was all that was needed, thus was born the false doctrine of Sola Scriptura. Then he promptly mutilated the Bible, by adding to Romans 3:28, and by subtracting seven books from the Old Testament simply because they did not agree with his teaching. He also attacked several New Testament books.

Several years after he had started the reformation, Luther surveyed the damage that Sola Scriptura, and its accompanying individual interpretation of Holy Scripture, had done to his movement. Shards had splintered off from his Lutheran church, with Munzer going this way, Calvin going that way, Zwingli going another way, and with all scattering the flocks.

"He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters."

Matthew 12:30, Luke 11:23

Immediately the errors of Protestantism emerged, for who did the scattering?

The damage of individual interpretation of Holy Scripture had taken its toll immediately.

Luther sounded as if he lamented what he had started when he made the following remarks,

"This one will not hear of Baptism, and that one denies the sacrament, another puts a world between this and the last day: some teach that Christ is not God, some say this, some say that: there are as many sects and creeds as there are heads. No yokel is so rude but when he has dreams and fancies, he thinks himself inspired by the Holy Ghost and must be a prophet."

De Wette III, 61. quoted in O'Hare, THE FACTS ABOUT LUTHER, 208.

"Noblemen, townsmen, peasants, all classes understand the Evangelium better than I or St. Paul; they are now wise and think themselves more learned than all the ministers."

Walch XIV, 1360. quoted in O'Hare, Ibid, 209.

By this time Luther realized that he had opened the door to error and he was powerless to close it. He had released the genie and now found that the genie had grown too large to be forced back into the bottle.

---

Did you know that Luther admitted that the Catholic Church was the true Church?

"Accordingly, we concede to the papacy that they sit in the true Church, possessing the office instituted by Christ and inherited from the apostles, to teach, baptize, administer the sacrament, absolve, ordain, etc., just as the Jews sat in their synagogues or assemblies and were the regularly established priesthood and authority of the Church. We admit all this and do not attack the office, although they are not willing to admit as much for us; yea, we confess that we have received these things from them, even as Christ by birth descended from the Jews and the apostles obtained the Scriptures from them."

Sermon for the Sunday after Christ's Ascension; John 15:26-16:4 (2nd sermon), page 265, paragraph 28, 1522.

Luther remarked several years later:

"We concede -- as we must -- that so much of what they [the Catholic Church] say is true: that the papacy has God's word and the office of the apostles, and that we have received Holy Scriptures, Baptism, the Sacrament, and the pulpit from them. What would we know of these if it were not for them?"

Sermon on the gospel of St. John, chaps. 14 - 16 (1537), in vol. 24 of LUTHER'S WORKS, St. Louis, Mo., Concordia, 1961, 304

It sounds like yet another lamentation from him doesn't it?

Interestingly, how many of his present day followers would agree with what he said in those remarks?

In his favor was the fact that in 1450, the printing press had been invented. Prior to this it took months or even years to convey messages to wide areas of the population since it all had to be hand copied. Luther took great advantage of this giant leap for mankind, and it is said that he was the most prolific user of mass printing for several years. He wrote many pamphlets and letters and printed them by the thousands and distributed them all over Germany and most of Europe. Imagine the surprise of the masses at receiving so much printed material, many for the first time.

Anyhow with this great new tool at hand, Luther proceeded to the next step. Here he was attacking the largest and oldest western institution on earth. He had no authority to do so. He could not claim Apostolic tradition. He had a Bible that he took from the Catholic Church. He had a huge ego, and he was like a caged lion to boot.

What could he possibly do to try and justify what he was about to do?

He decided that if he could not fight them on their level, then he would demonize* them.

Luther wanted changes done his way and when he was rebuffed by the Catholic hierarchy, he turned more and more vicious in his writings against the Papacy and the Catholic Church.

In 1520, Luther wrote a document called, "The Babylonian Captivity of the Church".

In it, likened to the roaring lion of Scripture (1Peter 5:8), he made these rather coarse statements simply because he did not have his way in his attempt to dictate to the Papacy:

"Godless pontiffs boastfully claim the right to do this, that they pretend to be seeking the Church's welfare with this Babylon of theirs."

"Since they are wolves, they want to look like shepherds."

"Since they are antichrists, they want to be honored as Christ."

"The Papacy is antichrist."

"The Papacy is the Kingdom of Babylon."

"The Papacy is the power of Nimrod."

"The Papacy is truly the kingdom of Babylon, yes, the kingdom of the real antichrist."

Notice that Luther called the Pope the antichrist, and the Papacy itself the Kingdom of Babylon, and he wrote several other calumnizing remarks in this one document. Isn't this Demonizing? No way could the Pope ever be antichrist as explained in this antichrist link.

*Demonize, to portray as a demon, to turn into a demon, to represent as evil or diabolic.

---

The Catholic Church or the Papacy is "The Whore of Babylon".

How many times have you heard that from the Protestant Fundamentalist mouth?

Those who propagate that lie are also the same ones who claim to follow the Bible religiously.

Okay, let us see if they follow Scripture to the word, as they profess to do.

They base this lie from the Book of Revelation Chapter 17:

"1. Then one of the seven angels who were holding the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come here. I will show you the judgment on the great harlot who lives near the many waters. 2. The kings of the earth have had intercourse with her, and the inhabitants of the earth became drunk on the wine of her harlotry." 3. Then he carried me away in spirit to a deserted place where I saw a woman seated on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names, with seven heads and ten horns. 4. The woman was wearing purple and scarlet and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held in her hand a gold cup that was filled with the abominable and sordid deeds of her harlotry. 5. On her forehead was written a name, which is a mystery, "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth." 6. I saw that the woman was drunk on the blood of the holy ones and on the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. When I saw her I was greatly amazed. 7. The angel said to me, "Why are you amazed? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, the beast with the seven heads and the ten horns. 8. The beast that you saw existed once but now exists no longer. It will come up from the abyss and is headed for destruction. The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world shall be amazed when they see the beast, because it existed once but exists no longer, and yet it will come again. 9. Here is a clue for one who has wisdom. The seven heads represent seven hills upon which the woman sits."

Revelation 17:1-9

Verse 9 is what Protestants, including the first one, use to try to "prove" what they had said.

We all should realize by now that truth can be proven, but the lie cannot.

Notice very closely in verse 9, the words "Here is a clue for one who has wisdom", as it clearly shows that those who do not have wisdom will interpret this verse as saying the seven hills upon which the woman sits is Rome. Demonizing? I will prove what I said here:

"The woman whom you saw represents the great city that has sovereignty over the kings of the earth."

Revelation 17:18

So, the woman is a great city, and from what we have found so far is that she sits upon seven hills. So now, how do we determine which city is the great city? Are there other cities in the world other than Rome which sit on seven hills? Well, for one, Jerusalem does. How then do we determine which city is the great city spoken of in Revelation 17:18?

Well, believe it or not, the Book of Revelation tells us in another verse which city is the great city:

"Their corpses will lie in the main street of the great city, which has the symbolic names "Sodom" and "Egypt", where indeed their Lord was crucified."

Revelation 11:8

So, in which great city was the Lord Crucified? Was He crucified in Rome? No, it was Jerusalem, as "those who have wisdom" can readily see quite easily. With Scripture as clear as these verses, why then do non-Catholics continue to say the great city is Rome, other than to try to Demonize the Catholic Church? Answers anyone?

Revelation 11:8 is yet another verse which was ignored by Martin Luther and which is still being ignored by his Protestant Fundamentalist followers.

Once again, the lie of Protestantism is exposed, destroyed by the truth of Holy Scripture.

Another bit of information which fits quite nicely here, is the fact that the "seven hills of Rome", as they are called in Biblical times, all lie east of the Tiber River, whereas the Vatican, the seat of Christianity, which came hundreds of years later, is located to the west of the Tiber. For those who wish to check this for themselves, the names of the seven hills of Rome in its origin are the Palatine, Capitoline, Quirinal, Viminal, Esquiline, Caelian, and Aventine.

Here are verses from Holy Scripture which describe a great city.

Notice that not one verse describes Rome as being a great city.

Great city, Babylon: Rev 14:8,16:19,17:5,18:2,10,21

Great city, Jerusalem: Neh 7:4, Jer 22:8, Lam 1:1, Rev 11:8,16:19,17:18,18:16, Rev 18:18-19,21:10

Great city, Nineveh: Jonah 1:2,3:2-3,4:11

Here is a Biblical comparison between Jerusalem and Rome. See what the Bible says about each:

There are many verses describing Jerusalem. See how many are degradations which dovetail perfectly with the "Whore of Babylon".

Jerusalem in Holy Scripture:

Abomination: Ez 16:2, Mal 2:11

Associate of the Scarlet Beast: Rev 17:1-3

Babylon: Rev 17:5,18:2,18:10,21

Babylon the Great: Rev 17:5

Bad City: Ezra 4:8,12

Bloody City: Ez 22:2,24:6,9, Nah 3:1

Burdensome Stone: Zech 12:3

Captivity of Jerusalem: Joel 3:1

City of Precious Stones and Fine Clothing: Ex 35:30-36,39:1-2, Ex 39:8-14, Isa 52:1, Rev 18:16-17

Cup of Trembling: Zech 12:2

Cursed in the City: Deut 28:15-19

Daughter: Lev 21:9, Lam 2:15-18.

Death of the Prophets: Mt 23:29-36, Lk 11:47-51,13:31-34, Rev 17:5-6,18:24

Den of Dragons: Jer 9:11

Desolation: Isa 64:10, Dan 9:2

Destroyed by Fire: Deut 29:22-24, Lev 21:9,26:15-16,27-28, Ez 16:2-3,35,38,41, Ez 19:12,21:2-3, Ez 22:19-21, Ez 23:2-4,17-19,22-25,44-47, Lam 2:all, Neh 1:3, Mt 24:15-22, Mk 13:14-20, Lk 21:20-24, Rev 18:8,17. Note: Jerusalem was completely destroyed by fire in 70 A.D., whereas Rome was only partially burned by Nero in 64 A.D.. This is yet another reason why the Whore of Babylon could not possibly be associated with Rome, for the whore is destroyed by fire in Rev 17:16.

Egypt: Rev 11:8

Evil brought upon Jerusalem: Ez 14:22

Evil Done to the Saints in Jerusalem: Acts 9:13,21

Faithful City: Isa 1:21

Fire Devouring Palaces of Jerusalem: Amos 2:5

Fornicator: Jer 13:27, Rev 18:3,9

Four Grievous Judgments upon Jerusalem, sword, famine, beasts, and pestilence: Ez 14:21

Fury upon Jerusalem: Ez 9:8

Gomorrah: Isa 1:10, Jer 23:14, Rom 9:27-29

Great City: Jer 22:4-8, Rev 11:8,17:18,18:10,16,18-19,21

Great Evil upon Jerusalem: Dan 9:12

Great Harlot (RSV): Rev 17:1,19:2

Great Mourning in Jerusalem: Zech 12:11

Great Whore, (KJ): Rev 17:1,19:2

Habitation of Demons: Rev 18:2

Harlot (RSV): Isa 1:21, Jer 2:20,3:3,6,5:7, Ez 16:1-3,15-16,28,31,35, Ez 16:41, Ez 23:2-49, Hos 3:3,4:15, Joel 3:3, Amos 7:17, Mic 1:7, Nah 3:4, Rev 17:1,5,15-16

Her: Rev 17:4,18:4-10,20,24

Immoral: Rev 18:3

Iniquity Built Jerusalem: Mic 3:10

Jerusalem Encompassed with Armies: Lk 21:20

Jerusalem Killed the Prophets: Matt 23:37, Lk 13:33-34

Jerusalem Shall be Trodden Down: Lk 21:24

Jerusalem to Become Heaps: Mic 3:12

Jesus Killed in Jerusalem: Matt 16:21, Mk 10:33

Laid Waste: Ez 26:2

Menstruous Woman: Lam 1:17

Mother of Harlotries: Rev 17:5

Mother of the Abominations of the Earth: Rev 17:5

Prostitute: Jer 2:20, Ez 16:15

Queen: Rev 18:7

Rebellious City: Ezra 4:8,12

Reduced to Ruins: Psa 79:1, Isa 3:8

Removed: Lam 1:8

She: Rev 18:2

Sin and Uncleaness: Zech 13:1

Sinned Grievously: Lam 1:8

Smitten City: Ez 33:21

Sodom: Isa 1:10, Jer 23:14, Rom 9:27-29, Rev 11:8

Sorcerer: Rev 18:23

Unfaithful Wife: Ex 16:1-3,44-63

Whore (KJ): Ez 16:28, Rev 17:1,15-16

Wickedness of Heart: Jer 4:14

Woman: Rev 17:3-9,18

Worship of GOD shall not be in Jerusalem: Jn 4:21

With such titles as, Abomination, Associate of the Scarlet Beast, Babylon, Bad, Bloody City, Cursed, Death of the Prophets, Evil brought upon, Evil Done to the Saints, Fornicator, Gomorrah, Great Harlot, Great Whore, Habitation of Demons, Harlot, Immoral, Laid Waste, Mother of Harlotries, Mother of Abominations, Prostitute, Rebellious, Smitten City, Sodom, Sorcerer, Unfaithful Wife, Whore, and Wickedness of Heart, do you have any doubts as to just whom, what, or where, the Whore of Babylon refers?

Rome in Holy Scripture:

Here is every verse in the Bible that mentions Rome by name:

Visitors from Rome, Acts 2:10

Claudius ordered Jews to leave Rome, Acts 18:2

Paul said he must also see Rome, Acts 19:21

Bear witness in Rome, Acts 23:11

We came to Rome, Acts 28:14

On our arrival at Rome, Acts 28:16

To all GOD's beloved who are in Rome, Rom 1:7

I am ready to preach the gospel to you also who are at Rome, Rom 1:15,

But when he came to Rome he sought me out, 2Tim 1:17

Contrast what is written about Jerusalem in Scripture with what is written about Rome?

Where is the coarse and degrading language regarding Rome in Holy Scripture?

"And in her was found the blood of the prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth."

Revelation 18:24

"For true and righteous [are] his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

Revelation 19:2

What city is responsible for the blood of the prophets? Is it Rome, or is it Jerusalem?

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!"

Matthew 23:37

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!"

Luke 13:34

Again, what city is responsible for the blood of the prophets?

Jesus Christ in Holy Scripture clearly said it is Jerusalem.

Why then do Protestants insist it is Rome, when Holy Scripture does not agree with them?

The only place I could find regarding the Demonizing of Rome, or association of Rome with the Whore of Babylon, is from the false charges spread by Protestantism, as I can find nothing whatsoever from Holy Scripture to support what clearly is a lie.

Remember, for believers of the false man-made doctrine of Sola Scriptura, if you cannot find it in the Bible then it simply did not happen, or does not exist, right?

Now that the lie of the Whore of Babylon being connected with Rome has been exposed, let us find from whom it had its origin.

There are no authentic historical documents in which the Catholic Church or the papacy is called the Whore of Babylon before the Protestant reformation of 1520-1521.

Therefore, it is a Protestant fabrication. Isn't this Demonizing?

When you think about it, a lie or fabrication, is an untruth designed to deceive, denigrate, or to calumnize another. Jesus Christ said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life", in John 14:6.

If He is the truth then the devil is the liar, and Jesus even said so speaking of him in John 8:44,

"When he tells a lie he speaks from his very nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies."

So from whom, and through whom, comes the Demonizing of the Catholic Church?

Referring again to Hebrews 13:17, Luther obviously failed to comprehend, or he deliberately ignored the fact, that the Catholic Church to which he belonged never was, and is not today, a democracy, but a "theocracy" which is governed by a hierarchy. Jesus Christ Himself is the invisible head (Ephesians 5:23), who governs through His visible head, or "Father Figure" on earth through whom GOD has always spoken, and in conjunction with the guidance of the Holy Spirit (John 14:16-17, John 16:12-14, Acts 15:28).

"But just as the Church is subject to Christ, so also let wives be to their husbands in all things".

Ephesians 5:24.

With that said, you can clearly see that the governing powers of the Catholic Church do not come from the Body of Christ but from the Head. Scripture does not say that the Church is subject to any person, as in a democracy. It is obvious from "Here is a clue for one who has wisdom", as mentioned earlier, that the head always tells the body what to do. The body, Luther, or any other person can never tell the head what to do in a theocracy.

Luther took it upon himself, as a member of the body who had no authority whatsoever, to try to tell the visible head of the Church on earth, how to run it. He did make some good points, as some things needed to be changed. However, he went about it the wrong way. Some personnel needed to be changed, but instead, Luther decided to break from the Church which Jesus Christ founded, and to form his own church. Now, I ask anyone to show me the verse in the Bible which gives authority for any human person to found another church other than the ONE Church which the divine person of Jesus Christ founded in Matthew 16:18?

Here is yet another verse which Luther either did not see, or intentionally ignored:

"Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain."

Psalms 127:1

Doesn't that one verse negate every church founded by mere human persons?

Doesn't it say that the labors of Martin Luther and all of his followers are in vain?

By September 1522, Luther had translated the New Testament into his version of the German Bible. It is to be noted that Luther taught a false doctrine that man was saved by faith alone, and upon his own recognizance and without any authority, he added the word "alone" to Romans 3:28, as mentioned earlier, thereby ignoring all of the verses which admonish anyone not to add to or take away from, the Holy Word of GOD.

He displayed his inflated ego and total arrogance, when he wrote the following regarding his addition:

"If your Papist annoys you with the word (alone), tell him straightway, Dr. Martin Luther will have it so: Papist and ass are one and the same thing. Whoever will not have my translation, let him give it the go-by: the devil's thanks to him who censures it without my will and knowledge. Luther will have it so, and he is a doctor above all the doctors in Popedom."

Amic. Discussion, 1, 127. Demonizing again!

My My, tsk tsk, such language Dr Luther, and didn't he elevate himself above everyone on earth?

This is the example set by the first Protestant, for his version of the command of Jesus Christ of, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" (Matthew 22:36-40).

The only verse in the whole Bible in which the words "faith" and "alone" are both to be found, is in James 2:24, and it says "NOT" by faith alone. By the way, it is for this reason, that James was one of several New Testament books which Luther wanted to remove from the Bible. The book of James, among others, proved to be a great embarrassment to him, since it was diametrically opposed to his teaching.

He wrote regarding it:

"...the epistle of St. James is an epistle full of straw, because it contains nothing evangelical."
Luther's "Preface to the New Testament".

He also wrote against the Book of Revelation:

"...to my mind it bears upon it no marks of an apostolic or prophetic character... Everyone may form his own judgment of this book; as for myself, I feel an aversion to it, and to me this is sufficient reason for rejecting it."

Sammtliche Werke, 63, pp. 169-170

By writing against Holy Books of the Bible, inspired by GOD, wasn't Luther judging GOD Himself? "And the LORD said to Job: "Shall a faultfinder contend with the Almighty? He who argues with God, let him answer it."" Job 40:1-2

He also, again without any authority, removed seven books from the Old Testament which had been in the Bible for over 1100 years, simply because they did not agree with his false teaching.

One of the many arguments for the impossibility of the false man-made doctrine of Sola Scriptura ever being workable at that time, was the fact that 90-95% of the population was illiterate. If they could not read, then how could anyone say it is "bible only", which by its very title meant being literate? Present day Protestants deny this. History proves them wrong. However, paradoxically, their founder and the originator of Sola Scriptura, found himself in a dilemma. How could he claim Sola Scriptura, and at the same time convey his message to a mostly illiterate populace? Realizing this, Luther decided the best way to convey his message was through pictures added to his text. Consequently, he had his artist friend Lucas Cranach (1472-1553) make woodcuts, pictures, and had them inserted into his German bibles so that all of the populace could see and understand his teaching, first in his native Germany, and then throughout much of Europe. It was by a visual reference that Luther first communicated with the bulk his followers the false charge of the Papacy as being the Whore of Babylon. Here is a reproduction of that woodcut.

The Pope as the Whore of Babylon, as portrayed in a woodcut by Martin Luther's friend and artist, Lucas Cranach, September 1522.

Notice that the figure is carrying a golden cup (Rev 17:4) shaped like a chalice with a cross on top, and is wearing a three tiered Papal crown. Neither a chalice with a cross on top, nor a Papal crown is mentioned in Revelation 17, nor a Pope either, for that matter.

This is nothing more than another Protestant fabrication designed to Demonize the Catholic Church. I seem to recall earlier in this text that the man made doctrine of Sola Scriptura, by its very title and nature, assumes that everything is in the Bible, and as such, demands that anything not mentioned in it is not to be believed. Well I wish some Sola Scriptura believer could show me in Biblical text where a chalice, a triple papal tiara, and the Pope are found? For this fabrication of Protestant Sola Scriptura believers to be true, then please show me where I can find it in Holy Scripture?

Therefore Luther has shown us yet another error of his ways, that of hypocrisy. If it is not in the Bible, but fits his method to Demonize the Catholic Church, he will use it regardless of the rules of Sola Scriptura.

Interestingly, apparently the outcry of the masses over the woodcuts was so great that Luther removed the offensive ones, such as this one, from his German translation just a few months later. That is why it is so hard to find. But alas, the genie of the title "Whore of Babylon" was yet another genie which Luther had released and found himself powerless to put back into the bottle.

More of Martin Luther's remarks. Here you can see more of his unauthorized changes and examples of his coarse language designed to Demonize the Catholic Church:

In his version of the Apostles Creed it reads, "One Holy Christian Church". Isn't it written "One Holy Catholic Church"?

Smalcald Articles, 1537, Article II, of the Mass.

"The Mass in the Papacy must be the greatest and most horrible abomination."

Demonizing?

"The Mass itself and anything that proceeds from it, and anything that is attached to it, we cannot tolerate, but must condemn, in order that we may retain the holy Sacrament pure and certain..."

Smalcald Articles, 1537, Article IV, of the Papacy.

"A power so false, mischievous, blasphemous, arrogant and diabolical, a tyrant and faithless scoundrel for the ruin of the entire holy Christian church. All of which amounts to nothing less than [the Pope] saying, Although you believe in Christ, and have him [alone] everything that is necessary to salvation, yet it is nothing and all in vain unless you regard [have and worship] me as your god, and be subject and obedient to me."

Demonizing? Martin, where is this written by the Pope?

"As little as we can worship the devil himself as Lord and God, we can endure his Apostle, the Pope, or antichrist, in his rule as head or Lord." Demonizing?

"The Pope is not the head of all Christendom."

What about Luke 22:32? Another verse ignored?

"The holy Christian [or Catholic] Church can exist without such a head..."

Then why did Jesus appoint a head for His Church?

"The Papacy is of no use in the church, because it exercises no Christian office, and therefore it is necessary for the church to continue and to exist without the Pope."

What about Matthew 16:18?

"The Pope, however, prohibits this faith, saying that to be saved a person must obey him."

What about Hebrews 13:17?

"The Pope is the very antichrist who has exalted himself above, and opposed himself against Christ because he will not permit Christians to be saved without his power which is nothing and is either ordained nor commanded by God."

What about Luke 22:32? Demonizing?

"We will appear before the Pope and devil himself, who intends to listen to nothing, but merely to condemn, to murder, and to force us into idolatry."

Calumny Luther... Demonizing?

Smalcald Articles, 1537, Article X, Of Ordination and the call.

"...we ourselves will and ought to ordain suitable persons to this office."

Sorry Luther, but it takes a Bishop to ordain a priest, so your so-called "ordinations" as a priest are invalid.

Smalcald Articles, 1537, Article XII, Of the Church.

"We do not concede that they are the Church, and in truth they are not, nor do we listen to those things which, under the name of Church, they enjoin or forbid. For, thank GOD a child 7 years old knows what the church is..."

Once again, his followers are to believe what Luther said, and not what GOD said in Scripture.

Luther was also known to contradict himself in his writings, and this quote above is a perfect example. Earlier in this writing you may recall that I posted a contrary quote from him, and I have repeated it below.

Notice that both statements were written in the same year, 1537.

"We concede -- as we must -- that so much of what they [the Catholic Church] say is true: that the papacy has God's word and the office of the apostles, and that we have received Holy Scriptures, Baptism, the Sacrament, and the pulpit from them. What would we know of these if it were not for them?"

Sermon on the gospel of St. John, chaps. 14 - 16 (1537), in vol. 24 of LUTHER'S WORKS, St. Louis, Mo., Concordia, 1961, 304

Against Catholicism, a pamphlet, par 2, 1535.

"We, through God's grace, are not heretics, but schismatics, causing, indeed, separation and division, wherein we are not to blame, but our adversaries, who gave occasion thereto, because they remain not by God's Word alone, which we have, hear, and follow."

This one sentence by Luther is loaded with admissions of deception. First the lie that he is not a heretic. I have shown otherwise in this writing. Next he admits he is schismatic. Then he admits to separation and division. Isn't that what apostates do?

"Has Christ been divided up?" 1Corinthians 1:13

Do you remember, "...he who does not gather with me scatters"? Luke 11:23

And what about the many verses which admonish us to be of one mind:

"I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word, that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."

John 17:20-21

Luther was not only disobedient to his superiors, but also to Jesus Christ Himself, and yet he claimed he was not a heretic.

Holy Scripture is teeming with verses telling us to lead pure lives and to avoid sin.

Luther, however, writes a different story.

Letter to Melanchthon, August 1, 1521 Luther's Works, vol. 48

"If you are a preacher of grace, then preach a true and not a fictitious grace; if grace is true, you must bear a true and not a fictitious sin. God does not save people who are only fictitious sinners. Be a sinner and sin boldly, but believe and rejoice in Christ even more boldly.... as long as we are here [in this world] we have to sin.... No sin will separate us from the Lamb, even though we commit fornication and murder a thousand times a day."

Next, typical of what his followers do today, he blames his adversaries and denies blame for his own deeds. Finally he injects his false doctrine of Sola Scriptura with 'God's Word alone'.

Against Catholicism, a pamphlet, par 5, 1535

"There are many that think I am too fierce against popedom; on the contrary, I complain that I am, alas! too mild;"

Luther, I would not call demonizing another human person mild.

Riffel, Kirchengeschichte.

"Heretics are not to be disputed with, but to be condemned unheard, and whilst they perish by fire, the faithful ought to pursue the evil to its source, and bathe their heads in the blood of the Catholic bishops, and of the Pope, who is the devil in disguise."

Luther advocating murder? Calling the Pope the devil is demonizing the Pope again Luther.

Walch, XVIII, 245.

"As for pope, cardinals, bishops, "and the whole brood of Roman Sodom", why not attack it with every sort of weapon and wash our hands in its blood."

Luther called for murder of others again.

The Church and the Pope, Chapter 5, Against the Papacy, An Institution of the Devil.

"The Pope being born from the devils behind".

Calumny, lies, and filth Martin, and from where does it come? Did anyone read John 8:44?

What could this be called other than demonizing another human being of whom Jesus Christ commanded us to love?

Luther had a low opinion of women.

Works 12.94

"The word and works of God is quite clear, that women were made either to be wives or prostitutes."

Works 20.84

"Even though they grow weary and wear themselves out with child-bearing, it does not matter; let them go on bearing children till they die, that is what they are there for."

Luther was highly anti-semitic later in his life.

Look at some of what he wrote against those who are the very roots of Christianity.

Concerning the Jews and Their Lies, 1543.

"We are at fault for not slaying them [the Jews]."

Again Luther condones the murder of innocent people.

Concerning the Jews and Their Lies, 1543

"First, their synagogues or churches (sic) should be set on fire, and whatever does not burn up should be covered or spread over with dirt so that no one may ever be able to see a cinder or stone of it.

Secondly, their homes should likewise be broken down and destroyed.

Thirdly, they should be deprived of their prayer books and Talmuds in which such idolatry, lies, cursing and blasphemy are taught.

Fourthly, their rabbis must be forbidden under the threat of death to teach any more...

Fifthly, passports and traveling privileges should be absolutely forbidden to Jews.

Sixthly, they ought to be stopped from usury. All their cash and valuables of silver and gold ought to be taken from them and put aside for safekeeping.

Seventhly, let the young Jews and Jewesses be given the flail, the ax, the hoe, the spade, the distaff and spindle, and let them earn their bread by the sweat of their noses..."

Tragically, these anti-Semitic rantings written by Luther were adopted and carried out by thugs of Adolf Hitler's Nazi Third Reich in that terrible Kristallnacht in November 1938 in Germany.

Added to the Luther Legacy was Hitler's admiration who revered him as a great German.

Hitler wrote this about Luther in his book Mein Kampf:

"To them belong, not only the truly great statesmen, but all other great reformers as well.

Beside Frederick the Great stands Martin Luther as well as Richard Wagner."

Mein Kampf, book 1, chap 7, "The Beginning of my Political Activity", October 16, 1924

---

Now let me recap what I have presented here:

It is the Legacy left by Martin Luther, and all of Protestantism owes its heritage to this one man.

As I said at the beginning, it is not something anyone should be proud of.

Again, from Revelation 17:9, "Here is a clue for one who has wisdom".

Take heed!

1. Luther had no Biblical authority to do any of the things of which he did.

2. Luther started the false man made doctrine of Sola Scriptura. Then he promptly defied the theme of it by ignoring many verses from Scripture which I have mentioned in this writing,

Psalms 127:1

Hebrews 13:17

Matthew 16:18

Matthew 18:15-17

Luke 22:32

Acts 5:29

Ephesians 5:24

James 2:24

Revelation 11:8

3. Luther started the man made "individual interpretation of Holy Scripture" and ignored verses of Scripture which forbid it. Since I could not find the verse which authorizes individual interpretation of Scripture, then this is another violation of Sola Scriptura by him.

2Peter 1:20-21

Acts 8:26-34

4. Luther denied Apostolic tradition which had been preserved for almost 1500 years.

That was a clear violation of, 2Thessalonians 2:15

5. Luther added to the Bible, in Romans 3:28, inserting the word "alone". This was a clear violation of all of the verses which forbid any person to do so.

See Deut 4:2, Deut 11:32,13:1,Psa12:7,33:4,50:16-17,10 Psa 7:10-11,119:57,139-140, Prov 5:7, Prov 30:5-6, Eccl 3:14, Jer 23:36, Gal 1:8-9, 1Pet 1:24-25, 2Pet 3:15-16, and Rev 22:18-20.

6. Luther subtracted from the Bible, the seven Deuterocanonical books which had been in the Bible for over 1100 years, and he wanted to remove others such as the book of James from the New Testament. This is a clear violation of Holy Scripture in many places, proving him to be guilty of all of the verses shown in the previous segment.

Show me the verse in Scripture which authorized him to do this?

7. Luther ignored other verses which I have not presented earlier.

No private interpretation of Holy Scripture, Acts 8:26-34

That we all may be ONE, and not more than the one Church which Jesus Christ founded in Matthew 16:18

8. Luther refuted the GOD given gift of ordination by a Bishop, by saying he will do his own ordination. Clearly, this is blatant arrogance at its worst, by creating heresy and placing himself above Holy Scripture.

9. He is guilty of calumnizing and Demonizing, and of calling for the murder of other human beings, while completely ignoring the command of Jesus Christ to love one another. (John 15:12)

10. He spoke against some of the New Testament books, two of which were James and Revelation.

11. By speaking against GOD's Holy Word, Luther has judged GOD Himself.

12. He converted Scripture handed down by GOD into scripture devised by man.

13. He preached anti-Semitism against the Jews who are the very roots of Christianity.

14. I have shown in this document that Martin Luther placed himself above the authority of the Church which Jesus Christ founded. He placed himself above Holy Scripture with his "listen to me" rhetoric, and he has tried to place himself above GOD by criticizing GOD's Holy Word.

---

Whom do you believe, the Church which Jesus Christ founded, Holy Scripture and GOD, or do you choose to believe Martin Luther?

Who on earth would dare to follow in the footsteps of this person?

Yet all of Protestantism does.

All of Protestantism owes its heritage to this apostate, calumnizer, blasphemer, and Demonizer.

I choose GOD, His Holy Word, and the 2000 year old Catholic Church which He founded.

The Catholic Church is the only Church on earth which fits all of these verses perfectly.
Psalms 127:1, Matthew 16:18, Matthew 28:20, John 14:16-17, John 16:12-13, Ephesians 3:21,
1Timothy 3:15

33+ Multifarious Errors of Protestantism.

---

For the sake of brevity, anyone who calls himself or herself "Christian", and who is not Catholic or Orthodox, I have grouped all of the existing tens of thousands* of individual non-Catholic sects under the single title of "Protestant" in this writing. I realize that many would prefer not to call themselves Protestant, but any Christian who is not active in the Catholic Church is making a protest against the only Church which Jesus Christ founded whether they care to admit it or not. The word protest comprises the first seven letters of Protestant.

I am acutely aware that not all Protestant sects fit the mold of all of what I have listed here, but with tens of thousands of different sects, it is impossible for me, or anyone else, to tailor each topic to each individual sect, while simultaneously keeping the document to a reasonable length.

Some Bible verses in this writing are repeated as emphasis for the immediate subject matter.

*World Christianity Encyclopedia, April 2008, a Protestant publication, lists 39,000 non-Catholic sects with several more being added each and every week.

In the year 2000 the same encyclopedia listed 33,700, so an additional 5,300 have been added in only eight years.

---

❁The Protestant Personal Opinion Error:

Why are there now at least 39,000 different Protestant sects in the world today?

The answer to that question can be found in Holy Scripture:

"You shall not do as we are now doing; here, everyone does what seems right to himself..."

Deuteronomy 12:8, a verse ignored by Protestants since they do these things.

"In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what he thought best."

Judges 17:6, 21:25, verses accepted by Protestants.

"Understanding this first: That no prophecy of scripture is made by private interpretation. For prophecy came not by the will of man at any time: but holy men of God spoke, inspired by the Holy Spirit."

2Peter 1:20-21, ignored by Protestants.

"They came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you are not concerned with anyone's opinion. You do not regard a person's status but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth..."

Matthew 22:16, Mark 12:14, ignored by Protestants.

"(13) And Jesus came into the quarters of Cesarea Philippi: and he asked his disciples, saying:

Whom do men say that the Son of man is? (14) But they said: Some John the Baptist, and other some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets. (15) Jesus saith to them: But whom do you say that I am? (16) Simon Peter answered and said: Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God. (17) And Jesus answering said to him: Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona: because flesh and blood hath not revealed it to thee, but my Father who is in heaven. (18) And I say to thee: That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (19) And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind upon earth, it shall be bound also in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, it shall be loosed also in heaven."

Matthew 16:13-19

The above verses are a prime example of personal opinions contrasted with doctrinal truth. In verse 14 through 17, all but one of the disciples had nothing to offer but personal opinions expressed by mere human creatures (as it is read in vs 14, 'some', 'other some', 'others', and in vs 17, 'flesh and blood'), and ALL OF THEM WERE WRONG, save for one, Simon Peter. Simon Peter was the only one to receive this revelation from GOD, and in so doing he was the only one to express the truth, by GOD given authority. Since GOD never changes, who would have the audacity to be so bold as to deny that GOD does the same today as He did then, by giving His one representative of authority on earth the fullness of doctrinal truth?

"For GOD is true, and every man is a liar..." Romans 3:4

Now that we know what Holy Scripture has said, what do Protestants, who claim to follow Holy Scripture, do about these verses? All of Protestantism is based solely on personal opinions of men and women, and not on doctrinal truth. "If it feels good for me, then that is all that matters", so they say. So where does an attitude like this lead them, but to differences of opinion, squabbling, and finally endless splitting of the Body of Christ. Go back and re-read those verses above. GOD is not concerned with anyone's personal opinion, but only for those who speak His doctrinal truth.

Protestants attack the Catholic Church by saying there is no need of a Pope. Well, they should look in their own back yard first, because each Protestant acts as his or her own pope. There are millions of "popes" in Protestantism, and all of them are running around claiming that their personal opinion regarding the interpretation of Scripture is the truth. Are there really millions of truths? I thought Holy Scripture said there was only one truth.

Martin Luther, the founder of Protestantism, lamented as he said these things after he had seen the damage that individual interpretation of Holy Scripture had done to his movement, "This one will not hear of Baptism, and that one denies the sacrament, another puts a world between this and the last day: some teach that Christ is not God, some say this, some say that: there are as many sects and creeds as there are heads. No yokel is so rude but when he has dreams and fancies, he thinks himself inspired by the Holy Ghost and must be a prophet." De Wette III, 61. quoted in O'Hare, THE FACTS ABOUT LUTHER, 208.

"Noblemen, townsmen, peasants, all classes understand the Evangelium better than I or St. Paul; they are now wise and think themselves more learned than all the ministers." Walch XIV, 1360. quoted in O'Hare, Ibid, 209.

So what are they to do?

Scripture has very loudly and explicitly told them what to do and what not to do:

Stop "doing your own thing".

Stop the "If it feels good for me it must be true" mentality.

Stop the incessant and destructive individual interpretation of Holy Scripture which is forbidden by Holy Scripture itself.

Be obedient to what Scripture has admonished you to do.

So how do they get back to doctrinal truth as GOD demands from all of us?

Truth is one and it is a person. There is only one truth.

To have only one truth you have to have only one authority, the same one authority which was given to Simon Peter alone.

Is the Holy Spirit really prompting millions of Protestants, all of whom are interpreting Scripture for themselves on an individual basis, and with so many opposing viewpoints?

This question leads us to the next topic, that of "The Holy Spirit Told Me".

---

●The "Holy Spirit Told Me" Error:

There are three "Spirits" from whom we may receive prompting. They are:

1. The Holy Spirit, the Spirit of truth. 1John 4:6
2. The human spirit within each one of us. 1Thessalonians 5:23, Hebrews 4:12
3. The evil or Demonic spirit which comes from Satan, the spirit of error. 1John 4:6

All of Holy Scripture was written by people who were inspired by the Holy Spirit. This being so, the Bible is inerrant. It has to be, as it came to us under the inspiration of GOD.

Psalms 127:1 is Holy Spirit inspired and it says that there is only one Church, the one founded by GOD Himself, and that in all others, the members labor in vain. Isn't it interesting that teachings of the Old Testament are stressed anew in the New Testament? Ephesians 4:1-6 repeats what is said in Psalms with a list of many "ONES" including only ONE faith in verse 5. These verses have clearly said that the Holy Spirit guides only the one Church which GOD founded, and none other.

See John 16:13, "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come."

There are hundreds of millions of Protestants, all interpreting Scripture individually by mere personal opinion, and with all of them claiming "The Holy Spirit Told Me".

How can this possibly be, when every doctrine taught by one sect is denied by another, except for the existence of GOD? One claims the "spirit" told them to worship on Saturday, another makes the same claim except they were told Sunday. One says the "spirit" told them not to baptize infants. Yet another makes the same claim from the "spirit", but insists they were told just the opposite, they must baptize infants.

One claims they were "told" to have communion once a week, yet another was "told" once a month, and yet a third was "told" quarterly. You can readily see that I could go on and on down through the whole list of beliefs and find one which teaches one way and another to the contrary.

Since GOD is one, with only one truth and with only one Holy Spirit, how could that one Spirit of truth be prompting those who have contradicting viewpoints? Again, we look to Holy Scripture for the answer.

"And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." Acts 5:32. See Acts 15:8 also.

Aha, so the Holy Spirit is given only to those who obey GOD. And who are they? In what I have shown so far, how can any of those sects with opposing viewpoints, be in obedience to the one truth of GOD?

Was Martin Luther in obedience to his superiors (Hebrews 13:17) when he started the Protestant revolt all the while blaspheming his superiors at the same time?

Just who do you suppose is creating all of this confusion between the Protestant sects?

The answer is that the Holy Spirit cannot, and will not, for GOD cannot deceive us, Isaiah 53:9, Hebrews 6:18, 1Peter 2:22, and He certainly cannot contradict Himself, 2Timothy 2:13.

Since truth is one, GOD cannot lie, Titus 1:2. There cannot be opposing viewpoints with each claiming to be of the truth. Common sense tells us that in at least half of the opposing viewpoints the truth has to be compromised.

So now, just who is the liar and the Father of Lies? See John 8:44 for the answer.

1Corinthians 14:33, "For God is not the author of confusion..."

If GOD is not the author of confusion, then who is?

I would suggest that you re-read Psalms 127:1 and Ephesians 4:1-6 again, for of the three choices of "spirits who told me", we have eliminated the first one. There are only two choices left.

Which one of those remaining two is prompting Protestantism?

This leads us into the next topic, that of authority.

---

● The Protestant Rejection of Authority Error:

"He who hears you, hears me; and he who rejects you, rejects me; and he who rejects me, rejects him who sent me." Luke 10:16

That is authority!

Powerful words from the mouth of Jesus Christ to his disciples, the leaders of His Church.

Those who hear His Church, hear him, is what Jesus Christ said in that verse.

Conversely, those who do not hear his Church, do not hear him. If you are interested to know what will be the fate of those who reject His Church, then read the context in Luke 10:1-15.

Holy Scripture has a lot to say about authority, as to just who has it and who does not, and how important a central authority is to the understanding of truth.

However, Protestants have consistently rejected all authority. They simply rejected what they never could have had from the onset of their revolt. However, rejection of authority is anti-Christian and anti-Bible. Since they have rejected his Church, haven't they rejected Jesus Christ and the Father as well? Luke 10:16 has clearly told us that they have.

"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore he who resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment."

Romans 13:1-2

"Obey your prelates and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls: that they may do this with joy and not with grief. For this is not expedient for you."

Hebrews 13:17

Was Martin Luther and the other leaders of the Protestant revolt obedient as this verse demands?

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector."

Matthew 18:15-17

So what does this verse tell us as to where the final authority is to be found? What is the name of that Church, since it is still with us? To what Church would you go in order to obey the command of Jesus Christ in those verses if you lived in 110, or 450, or 1025, or 1490? Can you name it?

There are many verses which warn against forsaking GOD given authority regarding His Assembly (O.T.) or Church (N.T.) which He bestowed upon prophets such as Moses Exodus 3-40, and on the Apostles John 20:21-23, and to their successors, Hebrews 13:7-8, 13:17.

Read of Mariam and Aaron as they complained against the authority of Moses in Numbers 12:1-15, (3) "Is it through Moses alone that the Lord speaks? Does he not speak through us also?"

GOD became angry with this remark, since He had previously chosen to speak through his one and only father figure, His "vicar" on earth, Moses. Consequently he turned Mariam into a leper. Read of the rebellion of Korah against the GOD given authority of Moses in Numbers 16, and pay especial attention to what happened to Korah, and to his followers in Numbers 16:31-35. His ending, and that of his followers is not pretty to say the least.

Which person in any of the now 39,000 Protestant sects has any authority at all?
Who has the over all authority to separate truth in teaching from the pitfall of error?

The rejection of authority is merely a Protestant defense mechanism. Since they obviously knew that they had no authority to begin with, they simply elected to reject all authority. However, their rejection of authority is highly anti-Christian and anti-Biblical, as I have shown. For those who claim to follow the Bible only, how is it that they cannot see this? This then leads us into the next topic.

●The Bible Only Error:

Protestants who claim to follow Holy Scripture literally, practice a false man-made doctrine which they have labeled Sola Scriptura or "Bible Only", a term virtually unknown before the Protestant revolt of the early sixteenth century. In other words, they say that the Bible is all they need or want because they claim it contains everything necessary for salvation. Anything outside of the Bible is immaterial and should simply be ignored or discarded. By taking such a narrow view of salvation history, they have boxed themselves in to a limited knowledge of Christianity. This grave limitation exposes them to increased and compounded error, because for them to believe in anything, therefore, they must be able to find it in the Bible. However, the very doctrine of Sola Scriptura itself, is not to be found anywhere in Holy Scripture, as I have documented in the above two links. That being the case, how could anyone practice it and not be accused of hypocrisy?

"The Lord says, "These people worship me with their mouths and honor me with their lips. But their hearts are far from me, and their worship of me is based on rules made by humans."
Isaiah 29:13

"Jesus told them, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites in Scripture: 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their worship of me is pointless, because their teachings are rules made by humans.' ""

Mark 7:6-7

The fact that the man-made "rule" of Sola Scriptura cannot be found in Scripture proves it to be a "rule made by humans", and this makes it diametrically opposed to Holy Scripture and the words of Jesus Christ.

Since Scripture is not self authenticating, and is not self teaching*, and does not specify which books within it are inspired, how can the Protestant know that the book to which he holds is inspired at all?

*Acts 8:30-31, 2Peter 3:16

Sola Scriptura has failed this most basic test. It is not Biblical. It is certainly not historical before the Protestant revolt. It could not possibly have worked before the invention of the printing press when Bibles became plentiful. It could not possibly have worked when 95% of the masses were illiterate. From the evidence I have presented in this essay, it simply could not, and does not, and never will work. Protestantism fabricated this false man-made doctrine of Sola Scriptura simply because they have nothing else to work with.

❶ The Protestant Never Ending Splitting of the Body of Christ Error:

The errors of "rule by personal opinion", the "Holy Spirit told me", "Sola Scriptura", and "rejection of authority", all lead to chaos, confusion, and to divisions of the one Body of Christ. Where there is rule by personal opinion among millions of people, you will have millions of differing personal opinions which leads to utter chaos.

Where everyone thinks he or she is right because the "Holy Spirit told me", there is bound to be all three spirits involved. Who is right and who is wrong when all think they are right?

When everyone is practicing Sola Scriptura, they limit themselves to Scripture only, and again personal opinions enter into the picture, so whose opinion do we accept?

Where there is no GOD given authority, and a dispute between factions cannot be settled amicably, the factions of personal opinion split, creating yet more factions. This is precisely why Jesus Christ founded His one teaching Church and gave it the authority (Matthew 18:17-18) to settle disputes of which Scripture tells us were inevitable to arise (1Corinthians 11:19).

Where there is GOD given authority, a dispute is settled by that authoritative body.

Where there is no GOD given authority, a dispute is not settled. The opposing parties simply split and form new sects, and thus is revealed the main reason why there are 39,000 splits of the Body of Christ in Protestantism. "Has Christ been divided?", 1Corinthians 1:13.

When Martin Luther came along and broke from the Church which Jesus Christ founded, which had already existed for almost fifteen hundred years, and which was on its 218th in a line of Popes going all the way back to St. Peter, he created the first Protestant church. It was 1521. He was not alone in doing this but almost immediately he and Thomas Munzer had a "difference of opinion" and Munzer broke from Luther and formed the second Protestant church, also in 1521. The splits in Protestantism had begun and continue at a feverish pace to this very day. In 1600 there were 100 splits. In 1900 there were over 1000. Today there are at least 39,000 splits in the Body of Christ in Protestantism with new ones being added every week, and the end is not in sight.

"Has Christ been divided up?" 1Corinthians 1:13, yet another verse ignored by Protestants.

This is the legacy one receives as a "reward" for 'rule by opinion' which is forbidden by scripture, insisting that 'the Holy Spirit told me' when He did not, 'Sola Scriptura' which is not scriptural, and 'rejection of an authoritative governing body', which is against the commands of Scripture (Matthew 18:17, Hebrews 13:17).

"He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters."

Matthew 12:30, Luke 11:23

With, 39,000 different non-Catholic sects in the world today, just who is doing the scattering?

It is obvious from the verses listed that 'he who scatters' is against the gatherer, Jesus Christ.

---

❷ The Error of Bringing GOD Down to Our Mere Human Level:

1) The Blessed Virgin Mary could have not been immaculately conceived.

2) She could not have been ever virgin.

3) She could not have been assumed into Heaven.

4) There was no miracle of the loaves and fishes, as each of the 5000 had a sandwich in his pocket.

This rejection of a genuine Biblical miracle leads to another related rejection:

5) "This is My Body" could not possibly be His real body, for it would be used up in no time in millions of communions, so it has to be a symbolic gesture.

These and many more denials of Catholic teaching come from Protestant scoffers and doubters as they attempt to transpose Divine miraculous happenings into mere human undertaking.

What these scoffers and doubters are really saying, is that, 'He who has created the universe and everything in it out of nothing, and sustains it all by virtue of His will, found it to be impossible to do these things'.

In their denial of the examples which I have listed, Protestants have done nothing other than to impose limits upon an unlimited GOD.

The scoffers and doubters with their narrow and limited insights, ignore these words of GOD, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:8-9

---

❁The Protestant Out of Context Error:

Protestants have a bad habit of taking Holy Scripture out of context when they try to make a point.

CONTEXT: The part of a text or statement that surrounds a particular word or passage AND DETERMINES ITS MEANING.

Protestants invariably will choose a verse or two from Scripture in a vain attempt to "prove" a point. They are oblivious to the surrounding text which gives a different, or usually opposite meaning to their chosen verse or phrase. They will also omit key information and in so doing slant the truth.

Some examples are...

Sola Scriptura: They will use 2Timothy 3:16-17 to try to justify it, but taken in context, those two verses portray an entirely different meaning.

There is no justification for Sola Scriptura whatsoever in those two verses.

One Mediator: They use 1Timothy 2:5 to "prove" this, but taken in context, 1Timothy 2:1, indicates many intercessors. The Blessed Virgin Mary is an intercessor."

Call no man your Father, taken out of context.

The "brothers and sisters" of the Lord, taken out of context.

A text without a context is simply a pretext and nothing more.

❁The Mis-interpretation of Holy Scripture Error:

There are several things which must be taken into consideration when interpreting Holy Scripture, and many of them are ignored by Protestants.

1. The Senses of Scripture. Should the passage be taken literally, allegorically, as a parable, etc?

Most Protestants will take the whole Bible literally, except for John chapter 6, of which they say it is symbolic.

2. The meaning of the words used at the time of writing are not necessarily the same meaning of the words today.

3. History plays a big role in proper Scriptural interpretation. The nature and customs of those of which Scripture speaks must be taken into account.

4. The true meanings of what the authors had in mind are sometimes lost in translation from one language to another. Words in one language sometimes have no exact counterpart in another language and a word is chosen by compromise as "closest" in meaning, that is according to the one who is doing the translating. Frequently, the ancient Greek and Hebrew texts must be consulted in order to ascertain the true meanings of the words of Scripture.

5. Many Protestant sects will attempt to conform Holy Scripture to their false teaching, rather than to conform their teaching to the truth of Scripture.

Some of the false charges made by Protestants against the Catholic Church, due to their mis-interpretation of Holy Scripture. Cases in point:

*Mary had "other children".

*Holding to the Sabbath.

*Peter had no Primacy.

*The Papacy is not scriptural.

*The Catholic Church could not be the Church which Jesus Christ founded, as it does not match what Scripture says regarding the primitive Church.

*The Holy Eucharist is merely a symbol and could not be the Body of Christ. Didn't Jesus Christ say in many verses that it is His Body? Did He say anywhere that it was only a symbolic gesture?

*The seven churches mentioned in Revelation 2 and 3 are said to be various Protestant churches. That is one of the most ridiculous claims of all, with Protestants grasping at straws, and using wishful thinking. To make it simple, by using today's English, those seven Churches were parishes in different cities of the same one Church which Jesus Christ founded. In easy to understand terms, they were all founded by the same Apostles who were all infused with the same truth by the same Holy Spirit at the same time at Pentecost. They all taught only one truth, so all of those Churches were in the same one fold, and were not in seven different opposing Protestant folds.

The seven Churches are merely an extension of Acts 1:8 where Jesus said this to the Apostles:

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem (local) and in all Judea and Sama'ria (expanding to surrounding areas) and to the end of the earth (expanding over the whole earth)."

How could this ever be accomplished except by establishing Churches in all areas of the world?

🕒 The Protestant Acceptance and Rejection of Holy Scripture Error:

This is known as Smorgasbord or Cafeteria Christianity. I have already presented several verses which are rejected or ignored by Protestants.

"I will accept this verse because it feels good (again) for me, and I will reject that verse because it does not fit in with what I believe", so they say. I have already presented many verses of Scripture that are completely ignored by Protestants. By their actions, rather than by their words, they contradict their claim to follow Scripture to the letter.

Here is just a sampling of several more verses which Protestants either reject or ignore in addition to those already mentioned:

Matthew 16:18, Jesus said He would found His Church (singular). He did not say churches did He?

Matthew 18:15-18, It is the Church which is the final authority.

Why do Protestants say it is the Bible which is their final authority?

Where does the Bible say that it is the final authority?

John 10:16, And there shall be ONE fold and ONE shepherd.

Where did Jesus say there shall be 39,000+ folds as there are in Protestantism today?

Luke 1:48

"For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed; "

"Henceforth" means from the moment she said it until the end of time. "All generations" is all of humanity, including you and I, from the time she said it until the end of time. The word "will" ("shall" in some Bibles) is a command and not a mere suggestion. Do you call her blessed?

In all of my stack of correspondence from Protestants regarding the Mother of GOD, from many years ago to the date of this writing, not a single Protestant has ever called her blessed. I must point out a second time that this verse is not a suggestion, but a command, and it is a command from GOD. The Archangel Gabriel called her blessed in Luke 1:28. Angels are messengers from GOD. Elizabeth called her blessed in Luke 1:42, and those words of hers came from being filled with the Holy Spirit in the previous verse. GOD called her blessed more than once, so what possible excuse can Protestants, who claim to faithfully follow Holy Scripture to the letter, have to not call her blessed as well?

Dear Protestant; Do you call her blessed? No? Then why are disobedient to Holy Scripture?

John 6:53, So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you;"

Did He say to eat and drink a symbol of His flesh and blood? What does the "Truly, Truly, I say to you" mean to you? We have already established that truth is a person. That person is Jesus Christ. When "Truth" Himself said "truly", twice in that verse, is that indicative of being a symbolic statement, or of a reality?

Do you "truly truly" believe what "Truth" Himself said here?

Or perhaps, are you one of those in John 6:66 who refused to believe Him and walked away from Him, abandoning His truth? Did you notice the 666 connection in that verse?

It is too bad that Protestants do not see the typological connections between the Old and New Testaments. Did the Hebrews and Jews "symbolically" sacrifice animals, or did they, in fact, sacrifice real animals? Read the book of Leviticus and find out for yourself.

1Corinthians 10:16, "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?"

Where is the symbolism found in this verse or anywhere in the context?

1Corinthians 11:29, "...he who eats and drinks unworthily, without distinguishing the body eats and drinks judgment to himself." How could a mere symbolism be a cause of judgment?

Malachi 1:11, all day in every place there is offered sacrifice, and there is offered in my name a clean oblation. How many Protestant sects offer sacrifice at all, let alone every day?

Matthew 28:19-20 says that Jesus Christ will be with His Church every day in every century until the end of time. This theme is repeated in Ephesians 3:21 and in John 14:16. Why then do Protestants insist that the Church which Jesus Christ founded apostatized at some unspecified time after the last Apostle died? By saying this, aren't they calling Jesus Christ a liar?

"He who does not believe the Son, makes Him a liar." 1John 5:10

There are over 50 verses in the Bible in which hell is mentioned. Matthew 23:33, Mark 9:43, and Luke 10:15, are but three examples. Yet in some Protestant sects the existence of hell is denied. Imagine how much space in the Holy Bible those 50 plus verses and the related verses cover, and you can readily see that a large segment of Holy Scripture is denied by them.

1Corinthians 11:22 warns not to despise the church of GOD, "What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the Church of GOD and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No, I will not."

Later in this essay, I will show you how some Protestant sects do indeed despise the "Church of GOD" by calumnizing it and spreading lies about it.

Here is another ignored verse along those same lines,

"Do not be a stumbling-block to Jews and Greeks and to the Church of GOD."

1Corinthians 10:32

Throughout this document, I have listed many more verses which are ignored by Protestants.

❖ The Protestant "Once Saved Always Saved" Error:

Are you saved? This is what some Protestants will ask you. Anyone who thinks they are automatically "saved" simply by declaring that Jesus Christ is their personal Lord and Savior is grossly mistranslating Holy Scripture, and is committing a sin of presumption. It is GOD alone who knows who is "saved" and who is not. No human creature can declare themselves as being "saved". That false doctrine is a fabrication of Protestantism and cannot be found written anywhere before the Protestant revolt. Salvation is an on-going process throughout our entire lives as Holy Scripture clearly has told us. Read 1Corinthians chapter 13, as it tells us that we must have faith, hope, and charity (13). If we are automatically "saved", then what is the purpose of hope?

Sola Fides, or "saved by faith only" is taught by many Protestants. However, that false man-made Protestant doctrine cannot be found anywhere in the Bible. In fact, the only place in the entire Bible where the words "faith" and "only" are found together is in James 2:24, where it says, "You see that by works a man is justified, and NOT by faith only."

That verse was a thorn in Martin Luther's side. He called the book of James a "straw epistle", which meant it was worthy of burning, and he wanted to remove it from Scripture. It must have been an embarrassment to him since he had added the word "alone" to Romans 3:28, in his German translation of the Bible, in order to have it support his false "justified by faith alone" doctrine. James 2:24 is still ignored or rejected altogether by many Protestants.

"You are my friends if you do what I command you." John 15:14

"...work out your salvation with fear and trembling." Philippians 2:12

For those who think they are "saved" by faith only, how could they ever ignore those verses?

Both say very clearly that works are needed, and without works you are no friend of Jesus.

They also ignore a large part of Matthew 25 regarding the Last Judgment. Read vs 31-46 very carefully, as Jesus spoke of judging two groups, the sheep and the goats.

Notice that both groups believed, but only one group worked, and they were the sheep, and it was the sheep who were to be saved.

Be sure and do not overlook verses 41-46, as you will find therein where the goats were going to spend their eternity since they also believed, but did no work?

The goats believed, but were they saved by believing only, and without works?

Those who practice "once saved always saved" would have us believe that they were.

❖ The Historical Black Hole Error:

Sir Isaac Newton was once asked how he managed to amass such great knowledge of his field in his lifetime. He replied, "Because I stood on the shoulders of giants".

Gaining knowledge in any field, including Theology is a continuous process (John 16:13), where one lays the foundation and others build upon it therein (1Corinthians 3:10). Mistakes are made along the way but conscientious followers profit from those mistakes and knowledge increases.

Protestantism however, being severely handicapped by the ball and chain of Sola Scriptura, makes no use of those "giants" who went before them for the first fifteen hundred years of Christianity.

Theological progress and past mistakes and errors are ignored as if they did not even exist.

Protestants are saddled with an historical fifteen hundred year Black Hole.

So what is the end result?

The errors of the past are repeated and progress in truth is hindered and stifled.

To be successful in any endeavor, historical successes and historical failures and errors are not to be ignored, for that is how knowledge progresses.

Those who fail to profit from the errors of others who went before them are doomed to repeat those same errors again, and in so doing take steps backward instead of forward.

Those who fail to profit from historical successes are doomed to re-invent the wheel again and again.

"All things are full of weariness; a man cannot utter it; the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done; and there is nothing new under the sun. Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"? It has been already, in the ages before us. There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to happen among those who come after."

Ecclesiastes 1:8-11

Protestants are afraid to read authentic historical documents written before their revolt in the 16th century, because they fear what they may find written therein.

One of the most famous converts to the Catholic Church from Protestantism, Cardinal John Henry Newman, wrote in his introduction to his "Development of Doctrine" treatise,

"To be deep in history is to cease to be Protestant". Newman set out to "prove" from historical documents that Anglicanism was the "true" church, the Church which Jesus Christ founded. What he found by extensive researching of genuine historical documents was that it was not the Anglican church which Jesus Christ founded, but the Catholic Church. From the overwhelming evidence which he found, he immediately converted to the "true Church", the Catholic Church.

What happened to the Christian Church after Acts 28:30? Aren't you the least bit interested? Did historical progress of the Christian Church end abruptly there and then? Absolutely not!

Show me a period in Church history where the events of the time were not recorded by historians and scribes?

I challenge all Protestants to read what has been recorded regarding the history of Christianity, and to start with genuine historical writings beginning in the first and second centuries. These are available for free on the Internet, and I have provided two URL's for them in this link, so those who have no funds do not have an excuse not to read them.

Aren't you the least bit interested in your Christian heritage, the struggles and martyrdoms of your Christian ancestors who led us to where we are today? If you call yourself a Christian, you certainly should be. Put yourself in John 16:12-13 and note that the verses use future tense, which means coming revealed truths by the Holy Spirit. It is the development of Scriptural doctrine over many centuries. These century by century incremental steps are recorded in many authentic historical documents and are available for all to see. Read for yourself the progress of knowledge of the original primitive Christian Church down through the centuries.

I must add that if you refuse to read the history of Christianity, then you must have a closed mind, a subject of which I will deal later in this document.

❁The Protestant Failure to go to the Source Error, Keeps Them in Error:

When discussing the teachings of the Catholic Church, Protestants will invariably espouse what they have heard from other Protestants, while at the same time failing to go to the source of Catholic teaching, the Catholic Church itself, in order to find the truth of what it really teaches.

If you were going to buy a Ford, would you go to a Chevrolet dealer to ask his advice about the Ford? What would he tell you? No, an intelligent person would go to the source, the Ford dealer.

Why then, do Protestants not go to the Catholic Church to find the truth of Catholic teaching? Ignorance of the Catholic Church is ignorance of Christ, since the Catholic Church is His body.

---

❖ The Protestant Shopping for a Church Error:

In my daily newspaper, there appeared an article about a woman who had spent a lot of time searching for a church which fit "her" beliefs.

Uhh, excuse me!!! Her beliefs?

Doesn't she have it backwards? We must search for the one Church which has objective truth, not one conforming to our individual subjective truth. We must conform to the will of GOD and not to our own personal beliefs and opinions.

That person fell right into that "If it feels good for me, it must be okay" mentality.

Protestants choose churches for all of the wrong reasons and here are some of them.

1. This one has better child care while I attend the services.

Yes but Jesus requested that the little children to come to Him, Matthew 19:13-15.

How can they when they are kept away from the services?

2. I like the singing in this one better. Yes but you cannot sing your way into heaven.

3. Mine has a better Sunday school. Yes but only if they teach the truth.

4. I like the preacher in mine. Yes but there are many likable preachers all over the place.

5. I enjoy the fellowship. Yes but GODship comes before fellowship.

6. I feel more comfortable with their beliefs because they fit better with my beliefs.

Need I say more?

7. The distasteful things like the existence of hell and other subjects are not mentioned.

Sometimes the truth hurts, but regardless of that, truth cannot be suppressed, Romans 1:18.

8. It is not authoritarian, and rigidly structured.

Yes but the absence of authority breeds chaos, as we have already seen in Protestantism.

9. Believe it or not, I have heard, "I like mine because it has a parking lot which is easier to exit".

How is that for an excuse?

10. Then there is the error of the heresy of indifferentism, a false belief that all religions are of equal validity. Therefore, it does not matter to which one I shall go, so I will pick the nearest one.

The only valid reason to search for a Church is to find the true and only Church, the one which the Lord GOD, Jesus Christ founded. We must not labor in vain in those churches which were not founded by GOD, but were founded by mere men or women, as Psalms 127:1 so clearly cautions.

---

❖ The Protestant Error of Joining a Church Based on Feelings Alone:

[Feelings: Opinions based more on emotion than reason.]

GOD desires just the opposite, truth based on reason rather than emotion.

From "reason" we can find truth. From "emotion" we can fall into error.

How many times have you heard someone say they "feel" nothing in that other church but have an "emotional high" in the one they attend, so therefore it must be the correct one? Nowhere in Holy Scripture does it say that the Church which Jesus Christ founded is based on feelings and emotions. His Church is based on truth and faith, and not on hype that stirs the emotions.

Many sects deliberately design their services to do just that, to arouse the feelings in order to gain an emotional high. After all, they think that they must have to do something 'different' in order to separate themselves from the 'pack' of tens of thousands of other sects, in order to attract a larger audience. You see, a larger audience means more funds in the collection basket.

The mind set of so many people today, regardless of truth is:

"If it feels good for me, then that must be the way to go."
This is the heresy of modernist enlightenment.

"In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes."
Judges 21:25.

This is not GOD's way, for GOD cares not for the opinions of men (Mark 12:14).

❖ The Error of Scorn for and Degradation of the Mother of GOD:

Up until the time of the Protestant deformation, the Blessed Virgin Mary was honored by Christians beginning in the first century. Even the original reformers loved and honored her. Luther, Calvin, Zwingli, and others did, but look what has happened to Protestantism since then? The Protestants of today do not even teach what their founders taught in many ways regarding the Mother of Jesus Christ.

They now calumnize and degrade her by claiming:

1. She could not be perpetually virgin, for she had "other children".

Well, let us see how others are affected by that false charge?

2. She could not have been Immaculately Conceived. Why couldn't she?

3. She could not have been Assumed into Heaven body and soul. To the contrary, Scripture does not agree with this Protestant assertion, for she was seen in Heaven with both body and soul.

4. She could not be the Mother of GOD.

5. She is a sinner like the rest of us because the Bible says "all have sinned".

Sadly, Protestants consistently try to bring GOD down to our human level in a feeble attempt to explain away these things by mere human terms, as I touched upon in a previous topic. They fail to see that GOD's laws which bind us, do NOT bind Him as well.

I have one all encompassing answer for Protestants forevery one of the above false charges which they make against the Mother of GOD.

Are you saying that GOD, who created everything out of nothing, and who sustains all things by the power of His will, could not do these things?

When we all meet our maker at death, I would much rather have Him say to me, "Welcome, for My mother has spoken of you often", instead of what He might say to those who calumnized and degraded her, "Why did you do these things to My mother?"

What would any good son or daughter say to those who would dare to degrade his or her mother? Jesus honors His mother. After all He did write the ten commandments, including "Thou shalt honor thy father and thy mother", did He not? Don't you think He obeyed His own commandments and honored His own mother and set an example for us to follow? Didn't He obey her motherly commands for at least 30 years (Luke 2:51)? Name another woman who was gifted with the ability to tell the creator of the universe what to do, and have Him obey her?

Why then do Protestants, who claim to follow Scripture to the letter, fail miserably when it comes to honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary?

Can they do less than the Lord Jesus Christ did for His mother?

Aren't they supposed to follow in His footsteps in the same way as Catholics do (Matthew 16:24)?

What do they think they will gain by degrading and calumnizing the mother of Jesus Christ?

---

❖ The Error of the Calumnizing of Catholics and of the Catholic Church:

In the Protestant revolt of the 16th century, the perpetrators lost all authority given by GOD to His one and only Church as explained earlier. Since they had no authority whatsoever, they could not claim Apostolic Tradition either as shown in 2Thessalonians 2:15, so they rejected it as well. So there they were, stripped of all authority and fifteen hundred years of tradition, isolated with no way to trace their heritage all the way back to Jesus Christ. What could they do to try and justify what they had done? Since they had separated themselves from the true Church, they resorted to calumnizing and demonizing it along with faithful Catholics as well. If they could show that the Catholic Church was of Satan, then possibly they would find justification for their actions.

Well they failed miserably because they had to "invent" charges that simply were not true.

They never have learned that you can prove a truth but only the gullible and uninformed will buy the lie. Here are a few Protestant anti-Catholic "inventions", all of which failed miserably...

1. The Pope or papacy is the "Whore of Babylon" of Revelation 17-18.

This lie was first espoused by Martin Luther in his diatribe against the Catholic Church.

This is a total fabrication as I have shown from Holy Scripture in the Luther link above. Scripture tells us that the "Whore of Babylon" is a "Great City" and that city is not Rome, but Jerusalem.

2. The Pope is the "Beast of Revelation", and the "Harlot (whore)" is the Roman Catholic Church. I know the inventors of these demonizing remarks neglected to pay attention to what Holy Scripture has said.

See Revelation 17:15-16,

"And he said to me, "The waters that you saw, where the harlot is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the harlot; they will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh, and burn her up with fire."

Since the "harlot" is Jerusalem, as I have shown in the Luther link, then the "beast", who hates Jerusalem and destroys her with fire, can only mean the evil Roman Empire which did hate the Jews and Jerusalem, and did destroy her with fire in 70 A.D..

Now if the beast were the Pope, why would he hate the Harlot, his own institution?

Why would he destroy himself? Does Satan destroy Satan?

In Luke 11:18, Jesus said,

"And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul."

3. The Catholic Church was founded by the Roman Emperor Constantine in the fourth century.

This charge is absolutely untrue. Constantine founded no Church, but merely allowed Christianity to exist without Roman persecution, as his "Edict of Milan" very clearly said.

No Protestant can produce a single authentic historical document to "prove" this false charge.

4. The Catholic Church is an outgrowth of Paganism.

This is yet another false charge, as every Church on earth has a founder with a name, and no Protestant can produce the name of the founder of the Catholic Church, unless of course, they wish to admit the truth that it was founded by Jesus Christ Himself.

What better way was there to be obedient to the command of Jesus Christ to convert the world (Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 1:8), than for the Church to seat itself in Rome, the very center of Paganism? And just what did happen a few hundred years later?

The evil Roman Empire collapsed, and pagan Rome was converted to Christianity. This is an undeniable historical fact.

5. Catholics are going to hell.

Well, to begin with, here are several verses ignored by those who make that charge,

Matthew 7:1, "Judge not, that you may not be judged."

Luke 6:37, "Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven;"

Romans 14:13, "Let us not therefore judge one another any more. But judge this rather, that you put not a stumbling block or a scandal in your brother's way."

James 4:11, "Do not speak evil against one another, brethren. He that speaks evil against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. "

How does anyone know who goes to hell? Do they, who make this false charge, think they can read the mind of GOD? Only GOD knows who goes to hell and He does not tell us.

Why then, do Protestants who claim to follow the Bible, make this judgment upon Catholics?

Why is it that those who spread lies and calumny about the Catholic Church never have any authentic historical documents to "prove" their false charges? Why is it that Catholics can provide authentic historical documents, which Protestants refuse to read, and yet Protestants in turn, cannot provide any authentic historical documents that Catholics ask of them? In the years I have asked for proof from scores of those who make these false charges, I have never even once received documented "proof" of what they charge.

The reason for their lack of "evidence" is most certainly that the lie cannot be "proven".

I would suggest that those who make these false charges, to please open their Bibles and read Revelation 21:27.

Those who persecute the Catholic Church, persecute Jesus Christ Himself, since the Catholic Church is His Body (Ephesians 1:22-23), whether Protestants choose to believe it or not.

In Acts 7:54 to 8:1-3, Saul had been persecuting the Church which Jesus Christ founded (8:3) and in Acts 9:4, Jesus Christ said,

"Saul, Saul, why dost thou persecute me?"

Why didn't Jesus Christ say instead, 'why dost thou persecute my Church'?

"But these men, as irrational beasts, naturally tending to the snare and to destruction, blaspheming those things which they know not, shall perish in their corruption:"

2Peter 2:12.

This is yet another verse ignored by those Protestants who calumnize Catholicism.

"Fear not, for I am with thee: turn not aside, for I am your GOD. I have strengthened thee, and have helped thee, and the right hand of My Just One hath upheld thee (almost 2000 years now). Behold all that fight against thee (Protestantism) shall be confounded (split into 36,000+ pieces) and ashamed, they shall be as nothing (Psalms 127:1...again!), and the men shall perish that strive against thee (heretics, calumnizers and liars, past, present, and future)."

Isaiah 41:10-11

🌟The Protestant Error of Sensationalism of Apparent Catholic Setbacks:

When I say "apparent", I mean just that.

Practically every newsworthy item that appears to show the Catholic Church in a bad light is blown all out of proportion by "I told you so" Protestants. Cases in point:

1) The finding of an apparent Biblical ossuary which has an inscription which says "James, Son of Joseph, Brother of Jesus":

Protestants are rejoicing in the streets shouting, "We told you so that Mary had other children"! If Protestants would only read the Bible which they claim that they read, they would see that there is nothing new here as far as "the brother of Jesus" is concerned.

"But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother." Galatians 1:19

That verse has been in Holy Scripture for well over 1900 years, so why all the hype over the ossuary if not for yet another Protestant attack with false charges against the Catholic Church?

Did you notice that the "James" mentioned in that verse is also an Apostle? There are two Apostles named James, and Holy Scripture gives us the names of the parents of both of them, and neither of the mothers is the Blessed Virgin Mary. However, there is something at odds with Scripture in that inscription, and that is the "James" mentioned on the ossuary had a father named Joseph. Too bad that Holy Scripture tells us that neither father of the two Apostles called "James" was named Joseph, but were named Zebedee and Cleophas.

Did any Protestant bother to check the facts before making yet more false charges against the Catholic Church, and then go about rejoicing over the lie that I have shown that it is?

Why didn't they first use their invented Sola Scriptura as I did, to find themselves to be without foundation in accusing the Catholic Church yet again that "Mary had other children"?

This is a prime example of how the false doctrine of Sola Scriptura can be used as a tool to the advantage of Catholics as well, and to the disadvantage of Protestants, in proving from Scripture alone, the fact that the ossuary inscription has nothing to do with Jesus Christ, the two Apostles named James, the Blessed Virgin Mary, or Saint Joseph.

Now why didn't Bible believing Protestants find it first? Is it because they did not want to find the truth but preferred to believe the lie?

2) Sexual scandals in the Catholic Priesthood:

To hear Protestants talk, you would think that every Catholic priest is a pedophile. If only they would take the time to check the facts, then they would find that the number amounts to about 1.8% of Catholic Priests who have been accused of any sexual misconduct at all, and out of that figure less than half have been accused of pedophilia. It is to be noted that to be accused of something is not indicative that the person is guilty. It would seem, however, that if it is a priest who is being accused, that he is automatically deemed guilty until proven innocent. It has been proven that many priests have been accused falsely by unscrupulous people who are simply looking for large cash awards, and their false charges have been dismissed. Not only that, but those figures go back 30 years or more and many of the accused priests have since passed away.

"And He said to His disciples, "It is impossible that scandals should not come; but woe to him through whom they come." Luke 17:1

Didn't Jesus say, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone..."? John 8:7

Now if Protestants would just look in their own back yards, they would find that the percentages of their own clergy accused to be even higher for the same crimes than for Catholic priests. You do not hear much about those cases however, because the liberal media has always set a higher priority for bashing the Catholic Church whenever the opportunity arises.

However, we do recall the huge scandals perpetrated by Jimmy Swaggart, James Baker, Jim Jones, and Jesse Jackson, just to name a few Protestant figures.

Have you ever noticed that when you point your finger at someone else, you have three of them pointing at yourself? Try it and see?

🌟 The Protestant Error of Deriding What They Do Not Understand:

It would seem that normal human curiosity would prompt all of us to search for the truth. Even if we refuse to search for it of our own free will, Holy Scripture demands it of us (Romans 1:18,2:8). Some Protestant sects, however, constantly deride and blaspheme Catholic teaching without ever bothering to find out whether what they deride is true or not. Looking at their actions from a Catholic point of view, they appear to display a hatred for the Catholic Church which is greater than their love for GOD. Anyone who loves GOD, searches for Him, since He is truth personified.

"But these men, as irrational beasts, naturally tending to the snare and to destruction, blaspheming those things which they know not, shall perish in their corruption."

2Peter 2:12

"But these men revile whatever they do not understand, and by those things that they know by instinct as irrational animals do, they are destroyed."

Jude 1:10

I have just presented four more verses in this lone topic which are not recognized by Protestants. A companion to this topic follows next...

❁The Error of Not Accepting the Truth When it is Presented to Them:

The false charges made by Protestants against the Catholic Church are easily proven false by many different channels. However the Protestant mind-set is such that they automatically discard proofs of their errors without even investigating them for themselves. Scripture has many verses which condemn those who refuse to accept the truth. It is a triple self condemnation on their part, first for even making the false charge, next for ignoring those verses, and lastly for their failure to even read and study the evidence of their being in error presented to them.

1. The charges that Peter was not the first Pope, that Peter was never in Rome, are proven false by scores of authentic historical writings which date in every century all the way back to the first century. However, Sola Scriptura believers reject all written history before the Protestant revolt, just as if history had come to a standstill for fifteen hundred years, except if they can twist it to support their false beliefs.

"The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and with pretended signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends upon them a strong delusion, to make them believe what is false, so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

2Thessalonians 2:9-12

"For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own likings, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander into myths."

2Timothy 4:3-4

"But if you have bitter jealousy and contentions in your hearts, go not glory and be liars against the truth."

James 3:14

"But because I speak the truth you do not believe me. Which of you can convict me of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me?"

John 8:46-47

"And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly, I say to you, it shall be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomor'rah than for that town."

Matthew 10:14-15

I am forced to conclude that Protestants are not interested in finding the truth, but are interested only in their own agendas.

Closed minds are closed to truth. Closed to truth is closed to Him who is Truth, and to His Word. This observation leads us to the next topic.

🔴The Protestant Closed Mind Error:

The hardest thing in the world to open is a closed mind. People with closed minds have their heads in the sand, seemingly believing that they wallow in the truth and are safely hidden and protected from outside influence. They are comfortable where they are, and they do not want to change because change requires effort. Also they are afraid that they might have to admit that they were in error if they were shown to be wrong. That would put them in a struggle with pride, which is the root of all sin. They are victims of what is commonly called "subjective certitude".

They are, "...ever learning yet never attaining knowledge of the truth (2Timothy 3:7)."

Objective certitude means that the mind conforms to objective truth. The person with objective certitude is certain of the truth because it is the truth. The person with subjective certitude is motivated by their feelings whether they are of truth or not. Those who are locked into subjective certitude are only fooling themselves into thinking that they are right simply because they are sincere in their beliefs. However, sincerity is a two edged sword and can be misleading, simply because a person can be sincerely wrong as well.

"Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall."

1Corinthians 10:12

People with open minds, at least will listen to other viewpoints, and through research, study, and prayer, will make careful decisions as to which viewpoint has objective truth, which in itself will lead them to objective certitude.

"Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

Philippians 4:8

What does Holy Scripture say about keeping a closed mind?

"With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says: 'You shall indeed hear but never understand, and you shall indeed see but never perceive. For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are heavy of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn for me to heal them.' But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. Truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it." Matthew 13:14-17

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth." Romans 1:18

"...but for those who are factious and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury." Romans 2:8

Well, there you have it. How are those with subjective certitude, resulting in closed minds, ever going to be able to even find the truth?

The answer to that one is that they will not ever find the truth unless they open their minds. Scripture, as I have shown, commands us to have open minds so we can explore all avenues presented to us in our search for the truth.

Protestants claim, that they follow Scripture ONLY.

I have noticed that they tend to do so only when it agrees with their personal opinions, each with their own individual "subjective certitude".

However, Holy Scripture has clearly said that we must search for the truth, and no one can do that while harboring a closed mind.

● The Protestant Error of Arrogance:

Arrogance:

1. Having overbearing pride, haughtiness, contempt of others.
2. Having a superior attitude over who they perceive to be inferior to themselves.
3. Displaying a rebellious and disobedient attitude towards authority.

This behavior is commonly displayed among many, but not all Protestant sects.

The opposite of pride is humility. The opposite of disobedience is obedience. Please show me the Scripture verses where Jesus Christ taught us to be arrogant and not humble. Please show me where He taught disobedience instead of obedience? He was both humble and obedient throughout the Gospels. Aren't we supposed to imitate Him? He was obedient and displayed humility to His mother and foster father after He was found in the temple (Luke 2:51), and to His mother at Cana (John 2:3-10). Just imagine, here is the creator of the universe, in humble obedience to a mere creature whom He had created. He was obedient to Pilate, to Herod, to Roman rule (Mark 12:17), even to His death on the cross.

"He who is greatest among you shall be your servant; whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Matthew 23:11-12

"Likewise you that are younger be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, ALL OF YOU, with humility toward one another, for God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that in due time he may exalt you." 1Peter 5:5-6, more verses ignored by Protestants.

For those Protestants who exalt themselves due to unmitigated arrogance, how can you possibly justify your actions in the face of what Jesus Christ has set for us as an example to follow?

Where is humility in Protestantism instead of arrogance?

Where is obedience instead of disobedience? Was Martin Luther obedient? Was he humble?

● The Wearing of Protestant Glasses with Blinders Error:

In order to arrive at the truth, we must look through the lenses of the eyes of Jesus Christ who is truth (John 14:6). Protestants consistently look at issues through biased Protestant glasses with blinders on both sides and are seemingly oblivious to what is available outside of their narrow field of view. They read only Protestant material and books, and when asked for genuine historical documents to "prove" what they say, they will invariably quote from some other Protestant novel. These quotes are not genuine historical documents and offer no "proof" of anything whatsoever, but are merely the opinions of the writer.

An intelligent, thinking person, using his GOD given common sense, will explore all avenues available regardless of who wrote it, in order to arrive at the truth. One prime example of what I have said here, is their refusal to read the multitudinous writings of scores of Christians who lived before the Protestant revolt.

Saint Augustine's (354-430 A.D.) "Confessions" is the second most widely read book of all time right behind the Holy Bible, and it is very applicable to our lives of today, yet Protestants will ignore this priceless treasure of lessons regarding our relationship with GOD.

There are thousands of writings by scores of brilliant writers in every century of which Protestants have consistently and willingly ignored.

Protestants make due with only a part of written material available, mainly writings after the early 16th century. At the same time they will ignore the great bulk, an enormous collection of genuine historical writings for the first fifteen centuries of Christianity. This material is easily found on the Internet for free, and in bookstores, and libraries .

I sense that they are afraid to read early Church writings, and even secular writings, such as non-biased history books, and even Encyclopedias, for fear of what they will find therein.

If a person wanted to find out who founded what Church, just have them consult a secular Encyclopedia and it will have the answer.

● The Protestant Error of Not Heeding Anything But Their Own Agenda:

I have seen it many times when I give detailed answers to their anti-Catholic charges which proves from Scripture that their charges are baseless, they will return with the same false charges, not even reading what I have sent them. This tells me that their hatred for the Catholic Church is greater than their love for GOD and for the truth, and that all they are really interested in is their own agenda.

"A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion."

Proverbs 18:2

---

● The Protestant Lack of Reasoning Power Error:

Everything having to do with GOD and His Church is so simple that any thinking person should be able to reason it out for themselves.

We have the truth in the Words of Jesus Christ, and the power of reasoning and basic logic in order to discern those Words properly.

Just look at the abundance of verses which stress oneness, and truth.

1. There is only one GOD. Ephesians 4:6
2. There is only one truth. John 14:6, 17:17
3. There is only one Holy Spirit. Ephesians 4:4
4. There is only one fold. John 10:16
5. There is only one Shepherd for that one fold. John 10:16
6. There is only one Church. Psalms 127:1, Matthew 16:18, 1Corinth 3:11, Ephesians 1:22,4:5
7. There is only one authority. Matthew 18:15-18, John 20:21-23
8. There is only one Bible. Galatians 1:8-9
9. There is only one true interpretation of that Bible. Acts 8:30-34, 2Peter 3:14-17
10. There is only one Baptism. Ephesians 4:5
11. There is only one priesthood. Hebrews 7:11-17
12. We must all be one. John 17:20-23
13. We are obligated to search for the truth. 2Thessalonians 2:13, James 3:14, 2John 1:1-4
14. Dire consequences await those who do not reveal the truth. Romans 1:18
15. Dire consequences await those who do not accept the truth. Romans 2:8
16. Dire consequences await those who do not speak the truth. Revelation 21:8, 21:27
17. We have only one life, so we must get it right the first and our only time around.

Anything that contradicts even one of the verses listed above is not from GOD, but from the author of division and confusion.

With all of those "Ones" listed above, why is it that Protestants cannot use their power of reasoning to see that they do not comply with what Holy Scripture commands of us?

35,000 plus Protestant "folds" is a violation by all sects of several verses in #4, #5 and #6 above.

With all of them teaching contradicting doctrines, they violate #2.

With none of them having any authority, they violate #7.

They all certainly violate #9 with their practice of "individual interpretation" of Holy Scripture.

Why is it so hard to reason that to have only one truth, you must have only one authority?

It is that simple, but Protestants simply cannot understand it, and their tens of thousands of sects prove it.

After all, by simple reasoning and common sense, it is easy to see that GOD would not have given us one inerrant book without first giving us one infallible interpreter for it.

● The Protestant Error of the Rejection of Most of the Sacraments:

Most Protestant sects have only two sacraments. I will not detail all of those which they reject, but I will mention the sacrament of matrimony. The union of a man and a woman in marriage is a sacred vow, as it is not viable only between the two of them, but as a triad in co-operation with GOD. Scripture is clear that this union is not to be broken by the whims and wiles of man. However, Protestant sects in condoning divorce have ignored yet more of Holy Scripture.

"Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh." Genesis 2:24

By divorce, why do Protestants try to divide one flesh? After all, it is anti-GOD and anti-Bible. A valid marriage in the eyes of GOD is indivisible.

"And Pharisees came up to him and tested him by asking, 'Is it lawful to divorce one's wife for any cause?' He answered, 'Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder." Matthew 19:3-6

So if one flesh is divided by man, what do we have left, two separated halves?

In taking the literal translation of Holy Scripture with the mind set of Protestantism, that is all they would get. However, in the eyes of GOD, the two are still married until death do they part.

● The Inconsistency of Protestant Teaching Error:

Since GOD never changes, and therefore His Word never changes, why then do Protestants change their teaching according to which way the wind is blowing? Their teachings fall more and more along secular pressure lines rather than what they taught originally. Cases in point:

1. Their teaching regarding the Blessed Virgin Mary. I have already discussed how the Protestant reformation founders loved the Mother of GOD, and how their heirs scorn her and love her not.

2. All Christian churches once banned abortion. Now many Protestant sects accept it.

Did GOD change His mind about abortion? Is GOD now Pro-Choice? Many Protestants are.

3. All Christian sects once banned female ministers. Now there are female ministers in many Protestant sects, Anglican, Methodist, and Episcopalian, just to name a few. Their "reward" for doing this, has resulted in that all of those listed are experiencing a declining membership.

Isn't this topic nothing more than a secular movement in response to feminist pressures?

4. Contraception and the Lambeth Conference. Before 1930, all of the mainline Protestant churches were in agreement with the Catholic Church regarding the sin of contraception. However, in 1930 the Anglican Church called the Lambeth conference and decreed that contraception was acceptable under certain conditions. Since then, the conditions were softened again and again until they disappeared altogether, and now just about all of Protestantism openly supports contraception. Isn't this a clear result of secular pressure for, "We want contraception unconditionally"?

Today, the Catholic Church stands almost alone on this subject.....ALMOST!

GOD stands behind and beside His Catholic Church.

Acts 5:38-39, Romans 8:31, Ephesians 5:23

Read this most prophetic document written by Catholic Pope Paul VI, and released on July 25, 1968. In it he warned the world what the consequences would be if contraception were allowed to continue. Pay especial attention to paragraph 17, for in it you will clearly see his dire warning. Now look around you and compare his prophetic words with the mess this world is in today, for it is exactly as this Pope had predicted it would be over thirty-four years ago. This mess we are in today, as to the consequences of contraception, was aided and abetted by Protestant bowing to secular pressures and by their succumbing to the will of man, rather than to the will of GOD.

Here is yet another verse which was clearly abandoned by Protestants for this subject, but which is clearly followed by the, "unbending to secular pressure", Catholic Church:

Acts 5:29, "But Peter and the apostles answered, 'We must obey God rather than men'."

❖ The Protestant Similarities to Islam Error:

In Islam it is the Koran only.

In Protestantism it is the Bible only.

In Islam there is the extreme right which teaches that the Koran does not espouse violence, while the extreme left say just the opposite that the Koran does espouse Jihad, or Holy war.

In Protestantism, there are striking similarities between right and left just as in Islam. While one side interprets Scripture to read one way, the other side will invariably interpret Scripture to read just the opposite.

Every doctrine taught by one Protestant sect is denied by another as stated earlier. For example: Hell exists. Hell does not exist.

Baptize infants. Do not baptize infants.

Jesus Christ is GOD. Jesus Christ is not GOD.

Once saved, always saved, no works are needed. Work out your salvation, works are needed.

Etc, etc, etc, throughout every Christian doctrine except for the basic one, the existence of GOD.

What is the root of the problem here? Jesus Christ taught only one truth did he not?

If you would take a Protestant shotgun and an Islamic shotgun and fire one shell each at a wall, and examined the two patterns of shots, what would you see? You would see a scattering of personal opinions, right, left, conservative, liberal, etc. However, who would be at the center, or hub of each pattern? Name the person? You cannot, as neither Protestantism nor Islam has any central authority to make the final definitive decision regarding the truth of any of their perceived doctrines.

The only authority that Protestantism thinks it has is registered in all of the shot marks in their pattern, since every Protestant acts as if they were their own pope.

Now take a Catholic shotgun and perform the same test. Who is at the center now?

The answer to "what is the root of the problem here", is that neither Protestantism nor Islam has any central authority.

They are both anchored to a book which can be interpreted in as many ways as there are books, or "as there are heads", as Martin Luther had once lamented, as described earlier.

Consequently, both end up with never ending squabbling, strife, infighting, factioning, and chaos, over which "head" has the correct interpretation of their respective books.

For Protestantism, it is the Tower of Babel all over again.

---

● The Protestant Christless Cross Error:

Protestants appear to honor Saint Paul more than they do Saint Peter, so why do they neglect to follow his teaching regarding the cross?

The Crucifix is denied by Protestants. However, Saint Paul taught:

"...but we, for our part, preach a crucified Christ..."

1Corinthians 1:23

How can anyone preach a crucified Christ with an empty or Christless cross?

"For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified."

1Corinthians 2:2

"O senseless Galatians, who hath bewitched you that you should not obey the truth: before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been set forth, crucified among you?"

Galatians 3:1

"Catholics can relate to the crucifix since we all carry our crosses (Matthew 16:24).

Absolutely no one can relate to an empty cross since none of us has ever risen from the dead."

Father Benedict Groeschel

There is no Christless cross, just as there is no crossless Christ.

---

● The Protestant Error of Hypocrisy:

Protestants will deny Purgatory because they cannot find the word in the Bible even though the doctrine itself is in the Bible.

Why then do most of them believe in the Trinity when that word is not in the Bible either?

Hypocrisy?

Why do many Protestants believe in something called "the rapture", when strangely, I cannot find the word "rapture" in the Bible either.

Hypocrisy?

Protestants say if it is not in the Bible they will not believe it, deja-vu Sola Scriptura.

Simply by trying to use Sola Scriptura, neither I, nor they, nor anyone else, can find the words or the doctrine of Sola Scriptura anywhere in the Bible.

With what they have been taught about it, how can any Protestant ever believe it if they cannot find it in Scripture?

Isn't that being hypocritical, especially on that subject?

Protestants claim that the Catholic Church is corrupted, yet they also claim that the Bible is infallible. However, it is a foregone conclusion, proven by historical fact, that the Bible did indeed come from the Catholic Church. So are they willing to admit that a corrupted Church had to have given them a corrupted Bible that they use? Or, on the other side of the coin, are they willing to admit that it had to have been an infallible Church which gave them an inerrant Bible? So which way is it, a corrupted Church and a corrupted Bible, or an infallible Church and an inerrant Bible? Hypocrisy?

Why do Protestants accept the infallible decisions made by Bishops in Catholic Church councils for the canon of the New Testament, while at the same time they deny the decisions made by those same councils and Bishops in establishing the canon of the Old Testament?

Hypocrisy?

Why do Protestants constantly split and form new sects when there is no verse in Holy Scripture which authorizes them to do so? Scripture has a lot to say about oneness in Christianity, and scorns those who are divisive (1Corinthians 1:10-13, 1Timothy 6:3-5). Isn't having over 36,000 Protestant sects being divisive?

Aren't these never ending splits hypocritical for supposed Bible believers?

Why do some Protestant sects deny that the Catholic Church is mentioned in the Bible and then turn around and say it is mentioned in the Bible as the "Whore of Babylon" and the beast of 666? Funny thing, but by capitalizing on using their belief in Sola Scriptura, and by putting it into practice, I simply cannot find those connections to the Catholic Church in Scripture, but then it does not surprise me, for since they made up the story, neither can they.

Ah yes, Sola Scriptura, the false man-made invention of Protestantism that works against them far more often than they think that it works for them.

Doesn't this prove that they are being hypocritical?

Why do supposed Bible believing Protestants chastise Catholics and the Catholic Church with never ending false charges and hatred, when Holy Scripture clearly says to love your neighbor as yourself? Hypocritical maybe?

"Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."

Matthew 22:36-40

Where does Scripture say anywhere, that you must love your neighbor except if he be Catholic? Ministers in some Protestant sects actually preach hatred of the Catholic Church from the pulpit. What kind of ministers are they who preach hatred of others instead of "Love thy neighbor"?

I wish to thank all of those Protestants who persecute Catholics and the Catholic Church, because all that you are accomplishing is to help all Catholics to a greater reward in Heaven. Hear Ye!

"Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Matthew 5:11-12

---

● The Protestant Error of Democratic Rule:

Jesus Christ clearly founded a Church ruled by theocracy and governed by a hierarchy. It is a Kingdom, the Kingdom of GOD. It is the king who holds absolute authoritarian rule over his kingdom.

"...and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all." Ephesians 1:22-23

Jesus Christ, the King, is the head of His Church and the Church is His body. In a theocracy, the head always tells the body what to do.

"As the Church is subject to Christ, so let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands." Ephesians 5:24

When has the body ever told the head what to do? That is exactly how many Protestant sects operate. That rule is called democracy, or government by the people.

How many issues in Protestantism are decided by a vote of the people? Just a few years back, a large mainline Protestant denomination decided to split yet again, by a vote of its membership.

That form of government was not instituted by GOD for His Church.

🔴 Anti-Biblical Errors to Which Protestants Hold:

Part of this is a summation of what I have previously presented but with some additions.

How do Protestants explain the following?

1. The man made concept of Sola Scriptura is anti-biblical. Where are the words "Sola Scriptura" and the verses describing it? I have searched for years, and no Protestant has been able to show me the verse(s) either. Hebrews 13:9

2. Private interpretation of Holy Scripture is anti-biblical. 2Peter 1:20

3. Support of abortion is anti-biblical. Exodus 20:13

4. Support of contraception is anti-biblical. Gen 38:9-10

5. The division of the Body of Christ is anti-biblical. John 10:16

6. Personal opinion rule is anti-biblical. Mark 12:14

7. Calumnizing another human person is anti-biblical. John 15:12

8. Calumnizing the Church which Jesus Christ founded is anti-biblical. 1Corinthians 15:9

9. Insulting and degrading the Mother of GOD is anti-biblical. Luke 1:48

10. Judging another person is anti-biblical. Luke 6:37

11. Failing to abide by the meaning of one is anti-biblical. Ephesians 4:1-6

12. Having female ministers is anti-biblical. John 15:16

13. Abiding by the opinions of men instead of the will of GOD is anti-biblical. Acts 5:29

14. Failing to accept the truth when presented to them is anti-biblical. Romans 1:18,2:8

15. Failing to search for the truth is anti-biblical. Romans 2:8

16. Lying in false attacks against the Catholic Church is anti-biblical. Ex 20:16, Rev 21:27

17. Holding to the Sabbath as some Protestant sects do is anti-biblical. Colossians 2:16

18. The failure to be consistent in teaching is anti-biblical. Truth does not change. John 14:6

19. The rejection of parts of Holy Scripture is anti-biblical. James 2:10

20. Once saved always saved is anti-biblical. Philippians 2:12

21. Saved by faith alone is anti-biblical. James 2:24

22. Saved by grace alone is anti-biblical. James 2:24

23. Having a closed mind is anti-biblical. Romans 2:8

24. Rejection of authority is anti-biblical. Hebrews 13:17

25. Having no authority is anti-biblical. Matthew 18:15-18, Hebrews 13:17

26. Twisting Scripture to suit false teaching is anti-biblical. 2Peter 3:16

27. Adding to or subtracting from Scripture as some do is anti-biblical. Deut 4:2, Rev 22:18-19

28. Following the false prophet as some sects do is anti-biblical. Matthew 7:15

29. The Protestant revolt was anti-biblical. Hebrews 13:17

30. Bending to secular pressures is anti-biblical. Truth can never be compromised. Acts 5:29

❖ The Error of Unbiblical Inventions by Protestantism:

- 1) The Rapture: Funny thing, but I cannot find the word "rapture" in the Bible. Did Sola Scriptura fail yet again? This false belief was first espoused by John Nelson Darby in 1827. It was later promoted by Cyrus Scofield in a footnote in his 1909 Scofield Reference Bible.
  - 2) Denominationalism: Where can this widely practiced Protestant error be found in Scripture?
  - 3) The "invisible church", yet another ploy to downgrade the Catholic Church. Scripture is clear that the Church which Jesus Christ founded is highly visible, Matthew 5:14-16.
  - 4) The "total depravity of man". It is unbiblical also.
  - 5) Predestination, an invention of Calvinist Protestantism. It is unbiblical.

❖ The Error of the Protestant Lie:

"But as for the cowardly and unbelieving, and abominable and murderers, and fornicators and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their portion shall be in the pool that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." Revelation 21:8, ignored by all liars. See Rev 21:27 also.

It is a foregone conclusion that Jesus Christ founded only one Church.

- 1) Why then, do Protestants ignore this fact and continue to splinter the Body of Christ?
- 2) There is no Protestant who can trace his or her church back any farther than the Protestant revolt of the early 16th century.
Where is the verse which authorized them to break from the true Church in the first place?
- 3) No Protestant can show that their church was founded by Jesus Christ, yet Scripture says there is only one Church, the one founded by GOD (Psalms 127:1, Matthew 16:18).
- 4) They deny that the Catholic Church is the Church which Jesus Christ founded, yet they cannot name the Church which He did found in its stead. Isn't it strange that Scripture has said that GOD's Church will last forever (Isaiah 2:2,59:21, Matthew 28:20, Ephesians 3:21), and yet Protestants refuse to name it? If Scripture can be believed at all, why then do they refuse to name GOD's one and only Church?
- 5) They cannot name the person who founded the Catholic Church while at the same time they deny that it was Jesus Christ. That is strange also, since every Church on earth was founded by a person with a name. Every single one of the tens of thousands of Protestant sects can be traced back to a human person with a name, as its founder. Why is it that Protestants refuse to name the founder of the Catholic Church?
Isn't that the epitome of arrogance as I touched upon in a previous segment?
- 6) Why do Protestants spread the lie that the Catholic Church apostatized soon after the last Apostle died, and therefore the Church of today is not the one that Jesus Christ founded?
This lie flies in the face of Matthew 16:18, as Protestants must then have to admit that the 'gates of hell' did indeed prevail, that the Bible was in error, and that all of the verses I have previously listed that promise the perpetuity of Christ's Church must be in error as well. This so-called "great apostasy" lie is then magnified a hundredfold since no Protestant can produce genuine historical documents which record such a "monumental, universe shaking event". Every writer who was alive at the time had to have witnessed that supposed "profound event", and those who have lived ever since (up until the time that the lie was invented by Protestantism), did not write about it either.

What with the "greatest event since the crucifixion" at hand, why didn't they? It is because it never happened, that's why. Simply put, "No lie is of the truth", 1John 2:21, so therefore no lie can be proven.

Scripture does say that people within Christ's Church will apostatize, but not the Church itself. For you see, it is impossible, since Christ is the Head, and the Church is His Body. How could the Body of Christ rebel against, and leave His Head? They are inseparable forever.

"Wives, be subject to your husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior." Ephesians 5:22-23

Okay Protestants, explain those verses? Is Christ really the Savior of His Body, or did He desert it as Protestantism would have us believe? Is Holy Scripture in error yet again according to Protestant false charges?

Are we to believe the Protestant lie, or the truth of the Word of GOD?

Do you recall the story of the wheat and the chaff, where the weeds will co-exist with the righteous up until the very end, and then they will be separated out and burned (Matthew 13:24-30)?

"For, in the first place, when you assemble as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it, for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized." 1Corinthians 11:18-19.

From those two verses we have a perfect example of the apostasy of individuals within the Church, those who cause divisions and factions. Now from what I have shown in many places in this writing, just who is the cause of divisions and factions? It is none other than Protestantism. Protestantism has already created over 36,000 divisions and factions, and which number is still increasing unceasingly every week to this very day.

Who are the 'genuine among you'?

They are the faithful of the one and only Church that Jesus Christ founded and which is still with us after almost 2000 years of persecution. Read Acts 5:38-39 for the reason why this longevity.

For those who continue to spread the lie of the so-called, and non-existent, "great apostasy", please re-read Revelation 21:8, and endeavor to explain Ephesians 5:23-24?

7) How many verses have I shown in this writing that Protestants ignore? Isn't it a lie to say that you follow Scripture literally to the word, and yet ignore so many Scriptural verses?

8) Why do Protestants take the whole Bible literally except for John chapter 6, which they call symbolic? One chapter in the whole Bible is symbolic? How can that be true?

9) How can Protestants say that Sola Scriptura has been in use from day one, when for over 1400 years almost no one had a Bible, and even if they did, the great majority of the masses were illiterate anyhow?

10) Since Protestants believe that "all Scripture is inspired (2Tim 3:16)", then why aren't the gospels of Peter, Philip, Nicodemus, Bartholomew, Andrew, Thomas, etc, in their Bible?

11) Where in Holy Scripture did Jesus give instructions that the Christian faith is to be solely based on a book? How about the same question except for using the Apostles instead of Jesus?

12) Why do Protestants say it is the Bible which is the pillar and foundation of truth when the Bible clearly says it is the Church (1Tim 3:15)? Please give me the name of that Church?

13) Why do Protestants reject Apostolic Tradition when the Bible clearly says, "So then, brethren, stand firm and hold the teachings that you have learned, whether by word or by letter of ours." 2Thessalonians 2:15, yet another verse ignored, and taught against by Protestantism.

14) Why do Protestants deny that the Bible came from the Catholic Church when they cannot name a truthful and provable alternate source, and where there are literally hundreds of genuine historical documents which prove them to be wrong in their denial?

15) Protestants deny that Peter was given primacy in Matthew 16:18. Nothing in Scripture is done without a purpose. For what purpose then, did Jesus change Simon's name to Peter?

16) Why do Protestants deny that the Papacy is Scriptural, when in fact, it is very Scriptural?

17) Why is it that Protestants can never supply genuine historical documents to "prove" their false charges? Is it because the lie can never be proven, but the truth can be?

It is simple, if you have no truth, then you have no proof.

Catholics can, and do, supply genuine historical documents to prove what they teach.

Why then do Protestants refuse to read them? Romans 1:18, 2:8

18) Why do Protestants deny the unbroken line of succession of Popes down through the centuries from St. Peter to the present Pope, when the Catholic Church has given free access for anyone to research genuine historical documents to prove it to be true, but Protestants refuse to read them? Anyone can go to a secular encyclopedia and see the same succession of Popes.

19) Why do Protestants deny that the Catholic Church has existed from the first century, when hundreds of genuine historical documents, written by scores of Holy men and women, are freely available to prove them wrong in their denial? However, Protestants simply refuse to read them. As explained earlier, Protestants teach that history ended with Acts 28:30 and did not begin again until Luther came along.

20) I saved the worst Protestant lie as the last one on this list. When asked who founded the Catholic Church, there are some who answer correctly that it is Jesus Christ who founded it, but they quickly add that the Catholic Church fell into apostasy and is not the same Church today as the one founded by Jesus. Of course they have no documented proof of this world shaking event as to the who caused it and when and where it happened. By making this false charge they may have condemned themselves because they have just called Jesus Christ a liar. You see there are verses in Holy Scripture which they either choose to ignore or do not understand, and the verses show that Jesus in fact did promise that His Church would last for all time and so did St Paul:

Matthew 16:18, "And I say to thee: That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

I suppose those who teach apostasy missed the last part of that verse or they assume that the gates of hell did prevail.

Matthew 28:19-20, "Going therefore, teach ye all nations: baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. And behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world."

Note! In verse 20, that the founder of the Catholic Church, Jesus Christ, said that He would be with His one and only Church every day in every century until the end of time. Now just who am I to believe, God Himself or those who claim His Church fell into apostasy, and who cannot even provide a single genuine historical document to prove that so called great apostasy?

Ephesians 3:21, "Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages without end. Amen."

St Paul wrote that verse almost 2000 years ago and it is just as true today as it was then.

Now even the Holy Spirit is to be with the Catholic Church forever.

John 14:15-18, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him; you know him, for he dwells with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you desolate; I will come to you."

Ephesians 4:4, "There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call,"

There is only ONE BODY.

Colossians 1:18, "He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent."

And there is only ONE CHURCH.

For those who teach that the Church founded by Jesus Christ fell into apostasy, would you please answer the following question?

"Since His one body is His one true Church and He is its head, did His head leave His body or did His body leave His head in that great apostasy?"

"Is Christ divided?" 1Corinthians 1:13

1Corinthians 10:32, "Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:"

What great offense to the church of God is committed by those who teach that God's Church fell into apostasy?

Romans 1:18, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth."

Acts 5:38-39, "And now, therefore, I say to you: Refrain from these men and let them alone. For if this council or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

But if it be of God, you cannot overthrow it, lest perhaps you be found even to fight against God. And they consented to him."

Looks to me like all of those who claim that the Church that Jesus Christ founded fell into apostasy by persons unknown and at some unknown time and have not a single genuine historical document to prove anything about it at all, are guilty as shown in the promises of Holy Scripture listed above.

1Titus 4:1-2, "Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by giving heed to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, through the pretensions of liars whose consciences are seared,"

Revelation 21:8, "But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, as for murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their lot shall be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death." Ouch!

---

"But there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known."

Luke 12:2

"Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers (includes those who lie and reject the truth), and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth. Then the righteous (those who follow the teaching of Christ through His one Church) will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear."

Matthew 13:40-43

---

"Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you ✦ shine ✦ as ✦ lights ✦ in ✦ the ✦ world ✦ ."

Philippians 2:14-15

33 Multifarious Errors of Protestantism.

Part 2, Facing the Consequences for Those Who Refuse to Obey the Word of God, and Therefore Live Out Their Lives in Error.

'He who has refused to acknowledge the truth in life will be forced to confront it in death.'

Everyone who calls themselves Christian should be keenly aware of these Bible Verses in this page, as they have an important bearing on each of us for our salvation.

---

In Part 1, I wrote a page regarding 33 errors of Protestantism. If you have not read it, I would suggest that you read it now before continuing in this part 2.

I have noticed with great interest that the first page has been one of my most active pages over the years.

Even more interesting is that as of the date of this writing, I have not had anyone attempt to refute it in the almost twelve years that it has been posted.

The reason being is that anyone trying to refute it would first have to refute many verses of Holy Scripture that I referred to in it as well.

As I have said in other pages on this site, 'Truth can be proven but the lie cannot.'

The word 'truth' can be found in 226 verses of the King James Bible and sometimes more than once in the same verse.

Here I will show some of the verses that reveal the consequences that we all will have to face for not heeding the Word of God in Holy Scripture.

1Tim2:3, "This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 1Tim 2:4, who desires all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

Why not dwell on that one for awhile since it is extremely important?

Rom 1:18, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth."

1Cor 2:9, But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him,"

John 14:15, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments."

Heb 2:1, "Therefore we must pay the closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it."

Heb 2:2, For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution,

Heb 2:3, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him,"

Php 2:12, "Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

Php 2:13, for God is at work in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Php 2:14, Do all things without grumbling or questioning,

Php 2:15, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,

Php 2:16. holding fast the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain."

1Pet 2:7, "To you therefore who believe, he is precious, but for those who do not believe, The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner,

1Pet 2:8, and A stone that will make men stumble, a rock that will make them fall; for they stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

John 14:24, He who does not love me does not keep my words; and the word which you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me."

2Thes 1:5, "This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be made worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering--

2Thes 1:6, since indeed God deems it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

2Thes 1:7, and to grant rest with us to you who are afflicted, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire,

2Thes 1:8, inflicting vengeance upon those who do not know God and upon those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2Thes 1:9, They shall suffer the punishment of eternal destruction and exclusion from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might,

2Thes 1:10, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at in all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed."

Php 1:27, "Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you stand firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel,

Php 1:28, and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear omen to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God.

Php 1:29, For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake,

Php 1:30, engaged in the same conflict which you saw and now hear to be mine."

Rev 12:10, "And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God.""

1Pet 1:9, "As the outcome of your faith you obtain the salvation of your souls."

Heb 5:8, "Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

Heb 5:9, and being made perfect he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him," 2Thes 2:9, "The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and with pretended signs and wonders,

2Thes 2:10, and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2Thes 2:11, Therefore God sends upon them a strong delusion, to make them believe what is false,

2Thes 2:12, so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

Rev 21:8, "But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, as for murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their lot shall be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death."

Rev 21:27, "But nothing unclean shall enter it, nor any one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Rom 2:8, But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

Rom 2:9, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

Rom 2:10, But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:" KJ

2Tim 4:2, "Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season: reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine.

2Tim 4:3, For there shall be a time when they will not endure sound doctrine but, according to their own desires, they will heap to themselves teachers having itching ears:

2Tim 4:4, And will indeed turn away their hearing from the truth, but will be turned unto fables.

2Tim 4:5, But be thou vigilant, labour in all things, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. Be sober."

Act 5:29, "But Peter and the apostles answered,

"We must obey God rather than men".'"

---

We must remember that it was only mere human men and women who founded all of those tens of thousands of ecclesial communities that call themselves Christian, and not a single one of them had God given authority # with which to do so.

The Old Testament:

Why bother with the Old Testament since we are in the New Covenant now and not the old?

Go here for the answer to that one as it will give you some insights as to the nature of God.

We must not forget the Old Testament, simply because much of its teaching still applies to all of us today.

How about the 'Ten Commandments' for one topic among many as proof of what I just said?

How about this one? It is a timely topic, written thousands of years ago and yet it was addressed to all of us today:

Deut 4:30, "When you are in tribulation, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, you will return to the LORD your God and obey his voice."

Want another one? OK!

Deut 8:20, "Like the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God."

Jer 7:23, "But this command I gave them, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.'"

Jer 7:24, "But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward."

Psa 127:1, "A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon. Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.

Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain."

Go back and read Php 2:16 again and see how perfectly it fits with the verse you just read.

Did God build the 40,000+ ecclesial communities that call themselves Christian, with all of them teaching something different from one another, or did mere human beings build them?

Did God really command that we must be 40,000+, all teaching some, but not all of the full truth, or did He clearly teach that we must be one?

Are you, perhaps, laboring in vain for most of your life? You only have one life in order to save your soul you know. There is no second chance.

Those who persecute the Catholic Church, persecute Jesus Christ Himself, since the Catholic Church is His Body (Ephesians 1:22-23), whether Protestants choose to believe it or not.

In Acts 7:54 to 8:1-3, Saul had been persecuting the Church which Jesus Christ founded (8:3) and in Acts 9:4, Jesus Christ said,

"Saul, Saul, why dost thou persecute me?"

Why didn't Jesus Christ say instead, 'why dost thou persecute my Church'?

When you leave this world and meet your Maker do you want to hear Him say, "(your name) why dost thou persecute me?"

Or would you rather hear Him say, "Well done my friend, enter into my Kingdom."?

I have written this page as commanded by Holy Scripture.

"If righteous people turn from living the right way and do wrong,
I will make them stumble, and they will die.
If you don't warn them, they will die because of their sin, and the right things they did will not be remembered.
I will hold you responsible for their deaths.
But if you warn righteous people not to sin, and they don't sin, they will certainly live because they listened to the warning.
You will save yourself."

Ezekiel 3:20-21

GW

"Again, if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die;
because you have not warned him, he shall die for his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered;
but his blood I will require at your hand.
Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning;
and you will have saved your life."

Atheists and Agnostics and Fire Insurance...

Fire Insurance???

---

"The fool has said in his heart: there is no GOD."

Psalms 14:1

See? According to Holy Scripture, fools have been around for thousands of years. The Bible, of course in which fools do not believe, even has a verse about fools.

Is April 1, your day of celebration, your holiday? You know that April 1st is April fools day, so it does fit nicely to Psalms 14:1, does it not?

---

Just what is the difference between an atheist and an agnostic?

Well, the short answer is:

An atheist denies while an agnostic doubts.

This page is addressed to both groups, since their beliefs (or disbeliefs) are similar.

I am neither. I am a believer, but I will point out the grave error of the ways of both groups.

---

If you own or are buying a home, do you carry fire insurance? If you have a mortgage, your mortgage lender requires that you do.

Why do you suppose that they require it? It is to protect their investment in case of a tragedy of a fire which destroyed the home.

What if you had a million dollar home and no insurance and it burned to the ground and with it all of your possessions and maybe years of your hard work? A million dollars worth of insurance for the home plus contents would ease the pain somewhat, would it not?

Believing that there is a GOD is like having insurance for your immortal soul.

What if a believer died and found that GOD did not exist? What has he lost?

All that he lost was the time that he spent on earth in practicing his religion.

What if a non-believer died and found that GOD does indeed exist?

" But he that shall deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven."

Matthew 10:33

But of course atheists and agnostics do not believe in the Bible either, for if they did, their beliefs would be considered an oxymoron.

So in this case where GOD does indeed exist, then what would be the fate of those who denied Him?

Well that is an easy one because the Bible would be true also, and their fate is spelled out in Matthew 10:33.

Can either an atheist or agnostic grasp the meaning of eternity? Eternity means forever and ever and ever, with no end in sight.

---

---

"Woe to them that are fainthearted, who believe not God: and therefore they shall not be protected by him."
Sirach 2:15

*Wis 3:1-9, But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be an affliction, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of men they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his elect, and he watches over his holy ones.

Protestant man-made traditions...

Since the Protestant reformation, and the subsequent separation by them from the Catholic Church, Protestantism lost the teaching arm of the Catholic Church and the holding of Sacred Tradition. In so doing, they reverted to a condemnation of holding all tradition, both Sacred and man-made. They then turned to the only resource they had left, the Holy Bible, a product of the Catholic Church by the way. At about the same time, they invented a new man-made doctrine called Sola Scriptura, or 'Bible only', which in itself teaches that if it cannot be found in the Bible, then it is simply did not happen, is not true, and is therefore not to be believed.

Interestingly, Protestants reject keeping the Sacred Traditions held by the Catholic Church, yet they have several man-made traditions of their own to which they hold. Holy Scripture is very clear in separating man-made tradition from GOD made, or Apostolic Tradition (capital 'T' Tradition). Scripture commands us to "Hold the Traditions that you have learned, whether by word or by letter of ours", 2Thess 2:15.

See, "The Legacy of the One Legged Stool", and "The Origin of Sola Scriptura" for much more.

Here are a few of Protestant invented man-made traditions which are not to be found in Scripture and which clearly ignore the meaning of Sola Scriptura. These Protestant 'traditions' are used to attack the Catholic Church in many ways.

---

1. The man-made false doctrine of "Sola Scriptura" is itself a Protestant tradition. Read my files, "For Whom the Bell Tolls", and "The Origin of Sola Scriptura", and other files of this same subject on this web site. The man-made tradition of Sola Scriptura is not to be found in Scripture. In fact it is not to be found anywhere in history before the reformation.

---

2. The man-made false doctrine of "Individual Interpretation of Holy Scripture" is condemned by Scripture itself. However, Protestants do it all the time, while ignoring the many verses which admonish them not to do so. This is a Protestant invented man-made tradition. See the same references listed above for the many verses.

---

3. The man-made false doctrine of "Not Baptizing Infants". Interestingly, Protestants attack the Catholic Church for baptizing infants, yet nowhere in Scripture does it say, "Do not Baptize Infants". I have been told that we should not baptize children until they are old enough to accept Jesus Christ. What happens to their souls if they die or are killed before that time? Where in Scripture does it say to wait until they can reason it out for themselves? In fact, Holy Scripture says to baptize all, as I have shown in another file called, "Baptism". This is yet another Protestant tradition.

---

4. The man-made false doctrine of "Baptism by Immersion Only". Protestants attack the Catholic Church for not baptizing by immersion. This is a false attack, as the Catholic Church does baptize by immersion. There is nothing in Holy Scripture that says "Baptism must be done by immersion", so a lack of Scriptural proof makes that charge another Protestant tradition. See the same "Baptism" file for the facts.

---

5. The man-made false doctrine that "Catholics worship Mary". Show me where Scripture says that? If you cannot show me the Scripture, then show me the authentic Catholic document which tells Catholics that they must worship Blessed Mary? This is yet another Protestant invented tradition concocted specifically to attack the Catholic Church with yet another false, and baseless charge.

---

6. The man-made false doctrine which shows that the "Catholic Church apostatized" in the early centuries and is therefore, not the Church which Jesus Christ founded. This charge is certainly not Scriptural, and it is not even historical, as no genuine historical document has proved this to be true. To the contrary, if anyone would take the time to read the writings of the historians of the Church, the Church Fathers, they would find just the opposite of this false charge to be true. From the first fathers to the last, spanning over five centuries, they mention the Catholic Church by name and how it grew and expanded. There is not one word of this "Great Apostasy" which Protestants invented. Yet, Protestants teach this lie, as it is one of their man-made traditions to do so.

I do not understand why Protestants read of the history of their country, and of the world, and yet shun the wealth of historical documents regarding the most important historical topic, the history of Christianity.

See "Lord, That I May See", elsewhere on this website for the proof of what I said here of the writings of the Church Fathers.

---

7. The man-made false doctrine that "This IS My Body", as said by Jesus Christ Himself in Matt 26:26, is really only "a symbol" of His body. Where did Jesus Christ ever say, "This is a symbol of my body"? Here is yet another example of a false charge against the Catholic Church, as it is NOT Scriptural. This is merely another Protestant man-made tradition. When they separated themselves from the Catholic Church, they lost (and now do not even acknowledge) the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Therefore, their ministers lost the power to call the Holy Spirit through a valid priesthood, in order to consecrate the host into the real Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, of Jesus Christ. So therefore, in Protestantism, it IS only a symbol. Just because they have only a symbol, they should not charge the Catholic Church with having only a symbol, as we have had a valid priesthood for almost 2000 years. I would be happy to explain what the definition of IS is, as used in Matt 26:26 by Jesus Christ Himself.

But I Cannot Find that in the Bible!

That is what Sola Scriptura (Scripture only) believers constantly tell me. Sola Scriptura believers are practically all of the non-Catholic and non-Orthodox Christian world. They are in all Protestant churches, Pentecostals, Evangelicals, Non-denominationalists, etc..

They ignore many Bible verses such as, 'keep the Traditions' (2Thessalonians 2:15), 'all truth will be taught by the Holy Spirit over time' (John 16:12-14), and most importantly, 'everything is NOT in the Bible' (John 20:30-31, John 21:25).

In trying to explain Catholic teaching to non-Catholics, their Sola Scriptura belief is a major stumbling block, regardless of the fact that Holy Scripture commands, "Do NOT be a stumbling block to Jews and Greeks (Gentiles) and to the Church of GOD".

1Corinthians 10:32

So when dialoging with them, Catholics would do well to put on a pair of Sola Scriptura glasses like these, and play the Sola Scriptura game by using their very own Sola Scriptura rules.

---

Some of their false charges:

False charge #1. "The Catholic Church and / or the Pope is the 'Whore of Babylon'. Many non-Catholic books have been written 'proving' that this is what the Bible 'clearly' says!"

Answer to false charge #1. Proving??? Clearly??? I have now donned my Sola Scriptura glasses for a reply using Sola Scriptura believers non-Catholic rules, and first of all, I cannot find the phrase 'whore of Babylon' in the Bible.

Not only that but I cannot find a single reference that says 'Catholic Church' or the word 'Pope' to connect to the non-existent 'whore of Babylon'.

This is irrefutable proof that non-Catholics have a double standard (doublethink*). When Catholic's make a statement, they are greeted with Sola Scriptura, and nothing else. End of conversation.

However, when non-Catholics make a charge against the Catholic Church like this one, there is no such thing as Sola Scriptura. They pull these charges out of thin air with not a single thread of proof. Hypocrisy???

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #2. "The Pope is the beast of 666 as described in the book of Revelation 13:18!"

Answer to false charge #2. Revelation 13:18? It says nothing about the Pope being the beast of 666. Sorry, but with my new Sola Scriptura glasses firmly in place, I cannot find even a smidgen of proof of that false charge in Holy Scripture.

Is someone making up stories like this one? Is everything in the Bible as Sola Scriptura followers teach, or not???

The answer to those two questions lies in another question. Which one is true? Is someone inventing false stories, or is some non-Catholic willing to admit that everything is NOT in the Bible???

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #3. "The Pope is the AntiChrist, as shown in the Book of Revelation (as some have said or written)."

Answer to false charge #3. First of all the AntiChrist not even mentioned in Revelation.

The only places in which you will find the AntiChrist are in the Epistles of 1John and 2John.

Secondly, if you study this AntiChrist link, you will find that the Pope is simply not mentioned at all. With my Sola Scriptura glasses working perfectly, I simply cannot find that false charge in Holy Scripture.

So is Sola Scriptura really Sola Scriptura or not???

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #4. "The Church which Jesus Christ founded is an invisible church, not the Catholic Church."

Answer to false charge #4. I am sorry to say that, again, wearing my Sola Scriptura glasses, I cannot find an invisible church reference anywhere in Holy Scripture. However, I did find many visible references to the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #5. "The Eucharist which you Catholics claim is the 'true presence' of Jesus Christ is merely a symbol."

Answer to false charge #5. Again, I have to say that I could not find any verse that equated the 'true presence' to a mere symbolic gesture.

However, I did find many symbols in the Old Testament that pointed to realities in the New Testament, but never has an Old Testament symbol pointed to a New Testament symbol.

I did find many powerful verses that proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Catholic Holy Eucharist is the reality of the symbolic 'manna in the desert', which fed the body, while the 'true presence' of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist feeds the soul.

The false man-made doctrine of Sola Scriptura has failed over and over again.

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #6. "You Catholics are going to hell!"

Answer to false charge #6. Going to hell? We are? I am sorry, but with my brand new Sola Scriptura glasses that I am wearing, I searched and searched, and for the life of me, I cannot find any verse in all of Holy Scripture that said Catholics are going to hell.

However, what I did find are these verses that fit the rebuttal to this false charge perfectly:

"Judge not, that you may not be judged. For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged: and with what measure you mete, it shall be measured to you again."

Matthew 7:1-2

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof.

---

False charge #7. "Sola Scriptura is the only way to go, for the Bible tells me so!"

Answer to false charge #7. Sola Scriptura??? Only way to go??? Sorry, but the Bible does not tell me so!

In my search in every Bible book from Genesis 1:1 through Revelation 22:21, I cannot find even a single reference to Sola Scriptura anywhere in Scriptura Sola!

"What is gratuitously asserted can be gratuitously denied."

In other words, statements made without proof can be denied without proof."

---

* Sola Scriptura believers who make false charges against the Catholic Church are users and promoters of the faulty process of 'Doublethink' whether they are aware of it or not, or whether they choose to believe it or not.

What you have read so far in the 'false charges' section of this writing is proof of this.

The meaning of Doublethink:

1. Thoughts accepted as truths which have serious contradictions and falsehoods.
2. Two or more ideas of opposing dimensions, all being accepted as truth.
(Promoting Sola Scriptura while at the same time making false charges that cannot be proved from Scripture Sola)
3. The power of holding two contradictory beliefs in one's mind simultaneously, and accepting both of them.

A quote From George Orwell's 1984:

"To know and not to know, to be conscious of complete truthfulness while telling carefully constructed lies, to hold simultaneously two opinions which canceled out, knowing them to be contradictory and believing in both of them, to use logic against logic, to repudiate morality while laying claim to it, to believe that democracy was impossible and that the party was the guardian of democracy, to forget whatever it was necessary to forget, then to draw it back into memory again at the moment when it was needed, and then promptly to forget it again, and above all, to apply the same process to the process itself -- that was the ultimate subtlety; consciously to induce unconsciousness, and then, once again, to become unconscious of the act of hypnosis you had just performed. Even to understand the word 'doublethink' involved the use of 'doublethink'."

James 1:8

"A double minded man is inconstant in all his ways."

Doublethink...! You cannot have it both ways, but some non-Catholic Sola Scriptura believers sure do try.

Answers anyone???

They Couldn't Do It. What Makes You Think That You Can?

---

"The Church, instituted by the Lord and confirmed by the Apostles, is one for all men; but the frantic folly of the diverse impious sects has cut them off from her. It cannot be denied that this tearing asunder of the faith has arisen from the defect of poor intelligence, which twists what is read to conform to its opinion, instead of adjusting its opinion to the meaning of what is read. However, while individual parties fight among themselves, the Church stands revealed not only by her own doctrines, but by those also of her adversaries. And although they are all ranged against her, she confutes the most wicked error which they all share, by the very fact that she is alone and One. All the heretics, therefore, come against the Church; but while all the heretics can conquer each other, they can win nothing for themselves. For their victory is the triumph of the Church over all of them. One heresy struggles against that teaching of another, which the faith of the Church has already condemned in the other heresy, for there is nothing which the heretics hold in common, and the result is that they affirm our faith while fighting among themselves."

Saint Hilary of Poitiers...

The Trinity, 7:4, 356 A.D., Jurgens, "The Faith of the Early Fathers", 865

This quote is as true today as it was over 1600 years ago...

---

"Nothing under the sun is new, neither is any man able to say:
Behold this is new;
for it has already gone before in the ages that were before us."
Ecclesiastes 1:10

---

The Catholic Church was founded by Jesus Christ in the early first century. From the first day of the existence of the Church, it has been under attack by those seeking to destroy it. The attacks have been going on for almost 2000 years unabated, and continue to this very day. Well, guess what? The Church which Jesus Christ founded is still with us.

But what has happened to the attackers?

1. First it was the Jews who did not accept Christ. They accused him of all sorts of lies and prodded the Romans to crucify Him. They persecuted the fledgling Church right from the start. Read about the actions of Saul and persecution by the Jews in Acts 7 and 8. What did the Jews receive for their actions against the Church? They received almost total destruction.

Jesus Christ said in Matthew 24:2, "...there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." He was talking about the Jewish temple and Jerusalem. His words were fulfilled in 70 A.D. when the Romans totally destroyed Jerusalem and the Jewish temple. All the Jewish priests were put to death, and that is why you will not find Jewish priests today, only Rabbi's, as it takes a priest to make a priest. The Catholic Church was not destroyed, but Judaism almost was, and it was forever changed.

2. Next it was the Romans. They crucified Jesus Christ, and mercilessly persecuted the Christians and tried to kill them all for hundreds of years, and through many pagan Roman Emperors. What did the Romans receive for their persecution? A pagan Roman Emperor, Constantine, was converted to Christianity. (If you can't fight them, then join them). The Roman Empire began a long decline and ended with Romulus in 476, after being almost completely destroyed by invaders from the north.

The Roman Empire never recovered.

The Catholic Church was not destroyed, but those who tried to destroy it, the Roman Empire was. The Catholic Church continued to prosper.

---

3. Then came Islam. We all know of the terrible persecutions of the Church in the middle ages. We remember all of those Crusade wars and the defeats of brave Christian knights suffered at the hands of Islam.

Islam is still with us, but so is the Catholic Church, and the Church emerged stronger than ever.

---

4. Heretics have been attacking the Church from the very beginning, and in every century since. Some come on with much fanfare and then eventually die out. Who remembers the Simonians, the Cerentians, Basilidians, Valentinians, Marcionites, Ebonites, Montanists, Origenists, Arians, Nestorians, Lollards, Photius, and hundreds of others? They all attacked the Catholic Church, but the Church is still here, and they are all gone. However, some of these heresies continue to crop up and like chameleons who change their colors, they are disguised with new names. Heresies and heretics will always be with us. They are the chaff mixed in with the wheat, and are the ones who will be cut down and thrown into the unquenchable fire, while the wheat will be gathered into the barn and saved, Matthew 3:12.

5. Then came Protestantism. Started by Martin Luther in 1521, it spread over Europe in short order and caused 10 million Catholics to become Protestant. It was a blow to the Catholic Church but only a temporary one, as only a short 10 years later, the Church gained 10 million converts in central America, starting with the miracle of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Church continued to grow, but cracks immediately began to show in the heresy of Protestantism. Since they had no central authority, they began to squabble amongst themselves over just what was the truth. Soon they split into various sects, Lutherans, Baptists, Calvinists, Methodists, Anglicans, etc.. The splits are still going on to this day. At the latest count, there are over 40,000* different non-Catholic sects in the world today that call themselves Christian. To make matters worse, the individual sects are further dividing themselves into smaller and smaller pieces. Baptists alone are split into over 20 major pieces and over 80 more minor ones. Presbyterianism is split into over 10 pieces. Lutheranism is split into 18 pieces. Even Mormonism is split into at least four parts. There are literally hundreds of Pentecostal Churches alone, and many more who call themselves non-denominational. Non-Catholic Christians have never learned that a house divided against itself cannot stand, Matthew 12:25. Also a house built on sand and not on the 'rock', Matthew 16:18, will be washed away, Matthew 7:21-27.

So What did the Protestant reformation do to the Church which Jesus Christ founded? It produced some temporary setbacks, but that is all. The Church continues to grow, and is much larger now than it was when Martin Luther started Protestantism. So what did Protestantism gain? Nothing more than a severe splintering of the Body of Christ. It certainly did not attain its goal of destroying the Catholic Church. In fact Protestantism is in great trouble today and will no doubt go the way of Arius, and Photius and the hundreds of other heretics in the past.

*World Christian Encyclopedia, a Protestant publication.

6. Then along came Adolph Hitler, who vowed to destroy the Catholic Church. Where is he and his 1000 year Reich today? They are gone, but guess what? The Catholic Church is still here today.

---

7. We cannot forget communism and the damage it did to the Church over 75 years of terror. Eastern Europe behind an iron curtain, the USSR, Ukraine, Lithuania, Poland, and a score or so of other countries under the yoke of the bear. The Soviet empire collapsed suddenly without a shot being fired. What caused the sudden collapse which surprised almost everyone? It was the Blessed Virgin Mary acting through her Vicar of Christ, Pope John Paul II. The collapse started in Catholic Poland and with the help of our Polish Pope. Granted, communism is still alive in parts of the world, but where is the Soviet Union, the main adversary? And what about the Catholic Church which the communists tried to destroy? It is making a comeback in those religion starved countries.

---

So now, how do you explain this remarkable survivability of the Church, which Jesus Christ Himself founded, after seemingly overwhelming attacks, from within and from without, and by many diverse forces, some with cunning ingenuity, and for almost 2000 years?

It is very easily explained for anyone who knows and loves Holy Scripture.

It survives because Jesus Christ, Himself said it would,
Matthew 16:18, Matthew 28:20, and John 14:16-17.

---

Show me another institution that has survived intact for 2000 years, and still to this day does exactly what Jesus Christ commanded? Show me another institution that has withstood the slings and the arrows and the barbs, the heresies and the heretics, the wars and the subversions, that the Catholic Church has endured for so long? Explain to me how and why the Catholic Church has survived for so long?

"If GOD is for us, who can be against us?" Romans 8:31

I do not have to explain it to anyone, for that is the explanation whether anyone chooses to believe it or not.

---

Now I ask you, If ALL of those groups which I have listed here could not destroy the Catholic Church, what makes you think that you or anyone else can?

If you try to destroy the Church which Jesus Christ founded, you will find that you are fighting against GOD Himself. Acts 5:38-39

But then, some people just never seem to get the message...

---

Have you been read the Mary 'Riot Act'?

If so, here is the Perfect Squelch!

---

How many times have you been asked...

1. "Why do you Catholics worship Mary?"
  2. "Why do you say Mary was immaculately conceived? I cannot find that in the Bible."
  3. "How can you say that Mary is the Mother of the GOD who created her?"
  4. "Mary could only give birth the natural way, so she is not forever virgin."
  5. "How can you say that Mary never sinned?"
  6. "How can you say that Mary did not have other children when the Bible clearly says that she did?"

Here is the perfect squelch reply to all of those who are so vocal in speaking against her, or are trying to degrade her:

Ask, "Do you follow the Bible".

What else can they answer other than, "But of course. I believe in Scripture only"?

Then ask, "Do you obey the commands of Holy Scripture?"

They would certainly have to reply, yes.

Then reply, "I am sorry but I am compelled to say that you do not, and I will prove it, and I will do it with Scripture only".

Luke 1:48,

"Henceforth",

means from the moment she said it until the end of time.

"All generations",

that I would presume includes you too.

"Shall / will",

denotes a command and not a suggestion.

"Call me Blessed".

You mentioned her name in this post but you never once called her "Blessed Mary".

Now, please tell me why you ignore this unmistakably clear command from Holy Scripture?

"Every one then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

The Inquisition...

---

The Inquisition: It is a most mis-understood term, of which persecutors of the Church that Jesus Christ founded like to bring up all the time. It would be better if these detractors would first check their facts, and get them straight before making their accusations. I intend to show this subject to be Biblical, and so before I begin, I ask all detractors who love GOD, and who claim to follow what Holy Scripture teaches, to open their Bibles and please read, Acts 9:4, 1Cor 10:32, 1Cor 11:22, 1Cor 15:9, Gal 1:13, Gal 1:23, Gal 4:29, Eph 3:8, 1Tim 1:13.

---

Inquisition, what does the word mean?

Here is how one dictionary defines it.

1. It is the act of inquiring into a matter; an investigation.
2. A tribunal formerly held in the Roman Catholic Church and directed at the suppression of heresy.

Anyone found guilty of heresy was called a 'Heretic'.

---

---

Are there Biblical precedents for Inquisitions designed to root out heresy?

There certainly are:

Ex 32:1-35, This is the story of Moses and the Golden Calf incident. I will paraphrase instead of recounting this lengthy story. Moses came down from the mountain with the stone tablets (15) and found that his people had made for themselves a Golden Calf and they were worshipping it (19). They had become Heretics. Moses asked who was still loyal to the Lord and the Levites responded (26). Then Moses commanded the Levites to slay the ones who were not loyal to the Lord, and they did (27-29). This chapter is a clear message to ferret out Heretics from the midst of believers.

Deut 13:5-12, "The Lord, your GOD, shall you follow, and Him shall you fear; His commandment shall you observe, and His voice shall you heed, serving Him and holding fast to Him alone. But that prophet or dreamer shall be put to death, because, in order to lead you astray from the way which the Lord, your GOD, has directed you to take, he has preached apostasy from the Lord, your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and ransomed you from that place of slavery. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst. If your own full brother, or your son or daughter, or your beloved wife, or your intimate friend, entices you secretly to serve other gods, whom you and your fathers have not known, gods of any other nation, near at hand or far away, from one end of the earth to the other: do not yield to him or listen to him, nor look with pity upon him, to spare or shield him, but kill him. Your hand shall be the first raised to slay him; the rest of the people shall join in with you. You shall stone him to death, because he sought to lead you astray from the Lord, your GOD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. And all Israel, hearing of it, shall fear and never again do such evil as this in your midst."

Deut 13:13-16, "If any of the cities which the Lord, your GOD, gives you to dwell in, you hear it said that certain scoundrels have sprung up among you and have led astray the inhabitants of their city to serve other gods whom you have not known, you must inquire carefully into the matter and investigate it thoroughly. If you find that it is true and an established fact that this abomination has committed in your midst, you shall put the inhabitants of that city to the sword, dooming the city and all life that is in it, even its cattle to the sword."

Deut 17:2-7, "If there is found among you, in any one of the communities which the Lord, your GOD, gives you, a man or a woman who does evil in the sight of the Lord, your GOD, and transgresses His covenant, by serving other gods, or by worshiping the sun or the moon or any of the host of the sky against My command; and if, on being informed of it, you find by careful investigation that it is true and an established fact that this abomination has been committed in Israel: you shall bring the man (or woman) who has done the evil deed out to your city gates and stone him to death. The testimony of two or three (a tribunal. See definition 2 above) witnesses is required for putting a person to death; no one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness. At the execution, the witnesses are to be the first to raise their hands against him; afterward all the people are to join in. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst."

Deut 19:18-19, "...And if after a thorough investigation the judges find that the witness is a false witness and has accused his kinsman falsely, you shall do to him as he planned to do to his kinsman. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst."

Est 2:23, "And when Inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king."

Wisdom 1:9, "For Inquisition shall be made into the thoughts of the ungodly, and the hearing of his words shall come to GOD, to the chastising of his iniquities.

Isa 54:17, "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment, THOU SHALT CONDEMN. This is the inheritance of the servants of the Lord, and their justice with Me, said the Lord."

I realize that in the Old Testament, GOD was much harsher in His punishment of the man who was disobedient. However, the Old and the New Testaments are one continuous story. Remember, "The New Testament lies hidden in the Old, and the Old Testament is revealed in the New."

Matt 18:15-18, Jesus Christ Himself, told us to make Inquisition of a questionable person, and to a tribunal of persons, and look where He delegated the final authority, His Catholic Church.

"But if your brother sin against you, go and show him his fault (the Inquisition first pointed out the error of the person being questioned), between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he does not listen to you, take with you one or two more so that on the word of two or three witnesses (a tribunal) every word may be confirmed. And if he refuse to hear them, appeal to the Church, but if he refuses to hear even the Church, let him be to you as the heathen and the publican."

Heathens were people who did not acknowledge the GOD of Judaism or the GOD of Christianity. Publicans were Jewish tax collectors who worked for the Romans. Consequently, they were hated by the Jews and were viewed as sinners. Another word to use for both is 'Heretic'.

Acts 20:28-31, "Take heed to yourselves and to the whole flock in which the Holy Spirit has placed you as Bishops, to rule the Church of GOD, which He has purchased with His own blood. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will get in among you, and will not spare the flock. And from among your own selves men will rise speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Watch, therefore, and remember that for three years night and day I did not cease with tears to admonish every one of you."

1Cor 5:13, "For those outside GOD will judge. Expel the wicked man from your midst."

Tit 3:10-11, "A factious man avoid after a first and second admonition, knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned."

Now when you speak of the Inquisition, you have to be specific as to which Inquisition you are referring. There were several of them which were spread over several countries of Europe, and which spanned a time frame of just over six centuries. Each was formed to counter a serious heretical threat to the Catholic Church. In order to properly understand the purposes of the convening of the Inquisitions, you should transport your thinking back to the times in which they began. You should be mindful of the customs of the people, know a little of their history, sense the pressures they were under, and understand the threats that were being made to the Church. You should also be aware of the history of the Catholic Church, of which, since its very foundation by Jesus Christ, has been (and is to this very day) under constant attack by heretics. The Church remembers well, the damage done by past heretics such as Montanus, Novatians, Manicheans, Donatists, Arians, Pelagians, Nestorians, Waldenses, Albigenses, Catharists, and literally hundreds more.

Every Christian, regardless of sect, owes a debt of gratitude to the Catholic Church for repressing these heresies in the past, and for preserving Christianity for all. Jesus Christ certainly has fulfilled His word when He told us in Matt 16:18, that the gates of hell will NOT prevail against His Church. He will keep His word forever as we all know. Name another organization that has withstood the slings and arrows of thousands of attacks over a period of almost 2000 years, and yet has grown and prospered as has the Catholic Church?

"What then shall we say to these things? IF GOD IS FOR US, WHO IS AGAINST US?"
Romans 8:31

"For if this plan or work is of men, it will be overthrown;
but if it is of GOD, you will not be able to overthrow it.
ELSE PERHAPS YOU MAY FIND YOURSELVES FIGHTING EVEN AGAINST GOD."
Acts 5:38-39

Since the Catholic Church has existed for almost 2000 years, and it certainly has been tried by Heretics, Jews, Romans, Protestants, the French Revolution, Hitler, Communism, and a whole host of others to overthrow it, then we are left with only two logical conclusions.
Either the Catholic Church is of GOD, or GOD's Word in Acts 5:38-39 is simply not true.

---

It is not my intention to present a comprehensive history of the various Inquisitions here, as it would take many pages for each of them.

(1) Medieval... 1233

This was considered to be the first of the Inquisitions. It was convened specifically to combat the Albigensian heresy. This was a cancerous heresy which threatened the very foundations of the Church.

(2) French....1306

This Inquisition was called again to combat the Albigensian (or Cathari) heresy.

(3) Spanish.....1478-1834

This is the Inquisition of which most detractors refer. It was initiated by the secular governments of France and Spain and with the approval of the Church at the beginning. Be it known that Spain had been under fierce attack from Moslems for over 700 years. (Read about the Spanish hero, El Cid, for more on these Moslem and Moor conquests). The Moslems were determined to convert Catholic Spain into a Moslem state by force of war. The purpose of the Inquisition was to ferret out Moslems and Jews who were causing social havoc by posing as faithful Catholics. Some were even masquerading as priests and bishops and they were attempting to lead the faithful away from the Church. Non-Catholics who admitted they were non-Catholics were not persecuted by the Inquisition.

Several Popes condemned the Inquisition, which had come under the control of the Spanish civil authorities, when it was brought to their attention that civil justice was giving way to cruel abuses. It was this insistent condemnation by the Popes which finally put an end to the Inquisitions. No one knows the exact figures for sure, but it is estimated that there were less than 60,000 cases spread over a 356 year period until the Spanish Inquisition was finally abolished in 1834. This averages to less than 169 cases per year. Of this number, the vast majority were exonerated.

According to modern scholars, approximately 2000-6000 from the Spanish Inquisition alone*, and a total of 5000-9000 from all Inquisitions combined, for over the entire six century period were turned over to secular authorities for punishment or execution, but only after a second trial for a repeated offense. It is to be noted that the highest figure of 9000 is far lower than the total number of executions by the civil authorities of those countries which held Inquisitions in this same time frame. Not surprisingly, Protestant estimates of the numbers killed by the various Inquisitions are far higher (of course) with a range of as high as 300,000 to an astronomical 95,000,000** . That last figure, of course, is highly ridiculous, as that number is far higher than the entire population of all of Europe at the time. Records recovered from this era, support the figures of less than 60,000 cases total for all Inquisitions, as I have shown above, and there have been no authentic records found which support anywhere near the Protestant charges of hundreds of thousands, or millions of cases. Go here for much more detail than I have recounted here: The Spanish Inquisition

* "Research has shown that about four thousand deaths occurred at the hands of the Spanish Inquisition during almost three centuries." Radio Replies 1:1069, Rumble and Carty.

**A Protestant book, "The Mystery of Babylon Revealed".

(4) Roman.....1542

This Inquisition was convened to combat the Protestant heretics soon after the start of the reformation. We all know the story of the censure of Galileo from this Inquisition in 1616. Pope John Paul II has recently declared Galileo's censure, and therefore his persecution by this Inquisition, to be in error. He has apologized for the part the Church had played in it.

To those who enjoy needling Catholics over this subject, I must remind you to look in your own backyard before doing so. I am reminded of the phrase, "People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones."

The Protestant history of persecutions, especially of Catholics, is not pretty. I have presented good reasons for the Inquisitions here. There seems to be no valid reasons for Protestant persecution of Catholics except for their desire to totally annihilate them. Here are a few examples...

King Henry VIII is responsible for the deaths of over 70,000 Catholics including hundreds of priests and Bishops. He had St. Thomas More executed in 1535. He even ordered the destruction of most of the uncorrupted bodies of saints in England. The only bodies that were not destroyed are the ones taken by Catholics and hidden from the persecutors.

John Calvin, one of the Protestant reformers, viciously persecuted Catholics as heretics. He persecuted others as well, and had a rival critic, Michael Servetus, burned alive in October 1553.

Queen Elizabeth I, had thousands of Catholics put to death in England. She ordered that Catholic Mary Queen of Scots be executed in 1587. She had thousands more killed in Ireland.

Oliver Cromwell is responsible for starting the English civil war and the subsequent beheading of Catholic King Charles I, and for the killing of thousands of Catholics in that war of 1642-1649.

Thousands of Catholics were murdered in Ireland by the English in the 19th century simply because they attended the Catholic Mass. The Protestant English redcoats were also responsible for confiscating the food from the Irish people and for leaving them only with potatoes which were blighted and unfit to eat. In the mid 19th century this caused the deaths by starvation of an estimated 1-1.5 million Irish Catholics, and the emigration of about 2 million more. It was a case of either leave the country or die of starvation.

How many thousands of women were burned at the stake after witch trials, by Protestant witch hunters, over several centuries, and throughout Europe and America? It is estimated that 30,000 went to their deaths in Britain alone, and another 100,000 in Protestant Germany***.

Interestingly, the Protestant mind-set in those times was that if the woman survived the burning, she was considered not to be a witch. Now just how many innocent women, do you think, survived this horror?

*** "Isabella of Spain", by William Thomas Walsh.
"The Golden Century of Spain", by R. Trevor Davies.

Isn't it strange that those who accuse the Catholic Church of convening Inquisitions, which I have shown to be Biblical and therefore were legitimate, never mention these Protestant atrocities, most of which when taken separately, far surpass the total numbers of deaths due to all of the Inquisitions combined?

Interestingly, in this writing, I have recounted an apology from the Catholic Church for the injustice which was done to Galileo. I have yet to see any Protestant apology for any of the injustices they have perpetrated against Catholics. The Catholic Church does not persecute Protestants, however, Protestants continue to persecute Catholics, as evidenced recently by Britains refusal to allow Catholics to ascend to the Monarchy. Protestant bigotry has lasted much longer than Catholic persecution has.

---

The deaths attributed to the Inquisitions pale immeasurably to the 1.2 million humans killed by abortion every year in the United States alone. Add to this figure the many more millions aborted from all of the other countries of the world. To those of you who attack the Catholic Church over the Inquisitions, I must ask, "Since it seems that you are concerned about human life, who is the most outsspoken in the whole world in combating this 'culture of death' in which we live today?"

It is none other than the Catholic Church.

How can anyone who is so concerned about the value of human life of the past, not be concerned at all about human life in the present?

I would suggest that you should not be so concerned about something that happened hundreds of years ago, of which neither you nor I can do anything about, and channel your energy to join in attacking an evil of the present day, an evil that you can do something about, an evil going on right now, in your lifetime, and right before your very eyes. Join with the Catholic Church and funnel your energies to protest this present day genocide.

It is the greatest evil conceived by man since the Crucifixion.

It Is "And", Not "Either / Or"...

---

Either / or, in Bible interpretation, is Protestant teaching. It was not known before the reformation. Instead of examining all of what Holy Scripture has to say, they have been attuned to the smorgasbord mentality of pick and choose and have a rejection, or a "lets ignore mentality", of the truths of which they do not agree.

I will present some examples to illustrate what I have just said:

---

Here is what non-Catholics say, followed by what Catholics say:

We are saved by faith not works. However, Scripture clearly says we are saved by faith and works.

It is the Bible only and not tradition. However, Scripture clearly says it is the Bible and tradition.

It is the Bible only and not the Church. It is the Church and the Bible since the Church came first.

It is only the Bible which has the authority. It is the Church and the Bible which has the authority.

We honor Jesus only but not Mary. However, Scripture clearly says to honor Jesus and Mary.

Baptism can only be done by immersion. Baptism can be done by immersion, pouring, or sprinkling.

We say call no man your father. Holy Scripture clearly calls many men our father.

We feed our bodies but not our souls. Holy Scripture says we must feed our bodies and our souls.

We ignore history before the reformation. We preserve history before, during, and after the reformation.

There is heaven but there is not any such place as purgatory. There is heaven and purgatory.

There is found nothing of the Catholic Church in the Old Testament.

There are many references to the Catholic Church in the Old Testament.

There is found nothing of the Catholic Church in the New Testament.

There are scores of references to the Catholic Church in the New Testament.

There is no evidence that the Catholic Church is the true Church that Jesus Christ founded.

Here are 140 reasons of evidence for you, overwhelming proof that it is the Catholic Church, and none other, that Jesus Christ founded.

Show me just one authentic historical documented proof that it is your church and not the Catholic Church that Jesus Christ founded?

The Gist of it All!

It is all so very Simply Simple!

Page 2 of 2 pages.

Here is where we left off in the first page:

"...For if this plan or work is of men, it will be overthrown;
but if it is of GOD, you will not be able to overthrow it.
Else perhaps you may find yourselves fighting even against GOD."

Acts 5:38-39

How do we avoid being caught in Acts 5:38-39?

We do so by performing a diligent search for the Church that Jesus Christ founded.

What is that Church?

Holy Scripture taught us that it is His body:

"...and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all."

Ephesians 1:22-23

Holy Scripture gave us the basic instruction as to how to find His true Church, simply by comparing what the Body of Jesus endured when He walked the earth, and what has happened to His Body, the Church, ever since then.

Jesus Christ was persecuted:	His Body, the Church, has been persecuted since its founding:
They rebelled against His Authority.	They rebel against its Authority. 2Peter 2:10
They said Crucify Him.	Many have tried to destroy it for almost 2000 years. John 19:15
He is called Beelzebub.	Many have claimed that it is run by Satan. Matthew 10:25
Many said He is a false messiah.	Many have claimed that it is a false church. Luke 22:70-71
He called Himself the Son of GOD.	It teaches that it was founded by GOD. Matthew 16:18
He called Himself Truth.	It teaches that it is infallible in faith and morals. 1Timothy 3:15
He called Himself King.	It teaches that it is the only true Church. Matthew 16:18
He could not sin.	It has no spot or wrinkle. Ephesians 5:27

He was not believed by many.	It is not believed by many. Luke 22:67

He was hated without a cause	It is hated without a cause. Psalms 35:19, John 15:18-25
His accuser, Judas, died.	Its accusers die, and His Church buries them, and it lives on.
His enemies would stumble and fall.	Its enemies stumble and fall. John 18:6
We have no king but Caesar.	We have no need of it, as we have the Bible. John 19:15
Can anything good come out of Nazareth?	Can anything good come from Rome? John 1:46

He bore His Cross.	It bears a cross also, the cross of persecution. John 19:17
He died on the Cross.	It has thousands of martyrs, many on crosses. John 19:30
Almost 2000 years later, He lives, stronger than ever.	Almost 2000 years later, it lives, stronger than ever.

However, no matter how hard the persecutors try...

His Kingdom will last forever: Isaiah 41:10-11, 54:17, 59:21, Ephesians 3:21.

At this point, can anyone name the Church which Jesus Christ founded? No? Well read on!

One reason that the Church which Jesus Christ founded is hated is because it does not conform to this world.

It is accused of being old fashioned and out of date.

Is Jesus Christ old fashioned and out of date?

No? Then how could His Body be old fashioned and out of date?

I thought GOD never changes.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen said it best:

A message from Bishop Fulton J. Sheen...

"If I were not a Catholic, and were looking for the true Church in the world today, I would look for the one Church which did not get along well with the world; in other words, I would look for the Church which the world hates. My reason for doing this would be, that if Christ is in any one of the churches in the world today, He must still be hated as He was when He was on earth in the flesh. If you would find Christ today, then find the Church that does not get along with the world. Look for the Church which is hated by the world, as Christ was hated by the world. Look for the Church which is accused of being behind the times, as Our Lord was accused of being ignorant and of never having learned. Look for the Church which men sneer at as socially inferior, as they sneered at Our Lord because He came from Nazareth. Look for the Church which is accused of having a devil, as Our Lord was accused of being possessed by Beelzebub, the Prince of Devils. Look for the Church which, in seasons of bigotry, men say must be destroyed in the name of GOD as men crucified Christ and thought they had done a service to GOD. Look for the Church which the world rejects because it claims it is infallible, as Pilate rejected Christ because He called Himself The Truth. Look for the Church which is rejected by the world as Our Lord was rejected by men. Look for the Church which amid the confusion of conflicting opinions, its members love as they love Christ, and respect its Voice as the very voice of its Founder, and the suspicion will grow, that if the Church is unpopular with the spirit of the world, then it is unworldly, and if it is unworldly, it is other-worldly. Since it is other-worldly it is infinitely loved and infinitely hated as was Christ Himself. But only that which is Divine can be infinitely hated and infinitely loved. Therefore the Church is Divine."

How do we know which Church is His one and only?

We know from the merciless persecution against the Catholic Church, from within and from without, since its inception. These persecutions were foretold by Jesus Christ Himself, in Matthew 5:11-12, Luke 6:26, and in many other verses. These attacks started from the very beginning of its founding by Jesus Christ and started with the Jews. Look what happened to them instead! Jerusalem and the temple were destroyed and every Jewish priest was slain by the Romans in 70 A.D.. Judaism was almost completely destroyed. Then came the Romans who burned Christians at the stake and fed them to the lions. They in turn, and their empire with them, were destroyed in 476 A.D.. Then came the Nestorians, Arians, Vandals, Moslems, Waldenses, Albigensians, Catharists, Protestantism, the French Revolution, Modernism, Nazism, Socialism, Communism, Dissidents, and now Secular Humanism, Fundamentalism, Relativism, Indifferentism, and Hedonism. There are many more heretical groups and 'isms' which are not listed here.

A Quotation from one of the Saints:

"There is not enough time in the day for me to recite even the names of all the various sects of heretics."

Saint Ambrose of Milan, The Mystery of the Lord's Incarnation, 5,35, 382 A.D.

Those who take pleasure in kicking "The Rock", have never learned that all they will ever accomplish is to hurt their own foot.

They never learned either, that those who are ignorant of history are prone to repeat its errors. Where are all of these attackers today? Most are gone, some of the others are splintered so badly that they are practically impotent, and some are still with us temporarily. There will always be new ones popping up, like weeds amongst the wheat.

After all, you cannot have a beautiful rose without having its thorns also.

"...And at harvest time I will say to the reapers: gather up the weeds first and bind them in bundles to burn; but gather the wheat into My barn."

A Quotation from one of the Saints:

"It is an unhappy ending for those who attack the Catholic Church."

Saint Robert Bellarmine 1542-1621

A Quotation from one of the Saints:

"This Church is Holy, the One Church, the True Church, the Catholic Church, fighting as she does against all heresies. She can fight, but she cannot be beaten. All heresies are expelled from her, like the useless loppings pruned from a vine. She remains fixed in her root, in her vine, in her love. The gates of hell shall not conquer her."

Saint Augustine of Hippo, Sermon to Catechumens, on the Creed, 6,14, 395 A.D.

After all of this, where is the Catholic Church today?

The Catholic Church is still here, still very much viable, still preaching and teaching the truth of Jesus Christ, as it has been doing for almost 2000 years, and... it is still growing.

GOD has won. Satan has lost.

With all of this against it, how on earth did the Catholic Church ever survive for almost two millennia?

The answer to that one is easy, as Holy Scripture gives us the answers...

"Fear not, for I am with thee: turn not aside, for I am your GOD. I have strengthened thee, and have helped thee, and the right hand of My Just One hath upheld thee.

Behold all that fight against thee shall be confounded (split into 40,000 pieces maybe?) and ashamed, they shall be as nothing, and the men shall perish that strive against thee."

Isaias 41:10-11

"And they shall fight against thee, and shall not prevail, for I am with thee, said the Lord, to deliver thee."

Jeremiah 1:19

Did you not know that Jesus Christ is the savior of His Body the Church?

"... just as Christ is head of the Church, being himself savior of the body."

Ephesians 5:23

So...

"If GOD is for us, who is against us?"

Romans 8:31

What force on earth would give you trepidation, if the Lord of Lords, and the King of Kings is with you?

"Have I made you my enemy because I told you the truth?"

Galatians 4:16

Churches Here, Churches There, Churches Churches Everywhere!

---

The denial of the One True Church:

"John to the seven Churches that are in Asia..."

Rev 1:4

"Anyone can see from the very beginning of Christianity that there were many denominations, for the Bible is 'very clear' to show us this in that verse, and in many others!"

This is what I have been told by those who refuse to believe that the Catholic Church is the one true Church which Jesus Christ founded. It is too bad that non-Catholics cannot understand the fact that all of those Churches were founded by the Apostles who were all infused with the same Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Therefore they all taught the same truth of Jesus Christ. There are no two Protestant churches which teach the same thing. If they all taught the same one truth, then isn't it obvious that instead of the tens of thousands of sects, there would be only one?

Well, let us see what the story of the Bible really says...

"You are Peter and upon this rock I will build My Church."

Matt 16:18

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations...."

Matt 28:20

It was prophesied by Caiphas, the high priest, that Jesus would gather all of His Children into ONE: "This, however, he said not of himself; but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was to die for the nation; and not only for the nation, but that He might gather into ONE the Children of GOD who were scattered abroad."

John 11:51-52

The beginning of the fulfillment of this prophecy is in the book of Acts.

"Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the Church, and delivered Himself up for her, that He might sanctify her, cleansing her in the bath of water by means of The Word; in order that He might present Himself the Church in all her glory, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she might be holy and without blemish."

Eph 5:25-27

Note in these verses that St. Paul referenced "the Church" twice and in the singular. He spoke of one Church only.

"But, you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you shall be witnesses for Me in Jerusalem (local) and in all Judea and Samaria (spreading out) and even to the very ends of the earth (world-wide, Universal, Catholic)."

Acts 1:8

"And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak."

Acts 2:3-4

Elucidation:

*Jesus Christ commissioned His Apostles to go into the whole world and preach the Gospel.

*The Holy Spirit infused each and all of the Apostles with the same One Truth of the Word.

*Jesus Christ spoke of One Church only and not of seven as in Rev 1:4.

---

The Catholic Church, the only Church which Jesus Christ founded, was persecuted by both the Jews and the Romans from the very beginning. The Jews wanted to stamp out this new Christianity because Christ called Himself GOD. The Romans wanted to destroy this new Christianity because Christ called Himself a King. The infant Church had to practice in hiding or fade into oblivion. But fade it would not because its founder was GOD Himself who promised the Gates of Hell would not prevail against His Church. Matt 16:18

---

The very first Church gatherings were not in churches (buildings) at all but in the homes of loyal Christians. These gatherings were done in great secrecy in order to avoid persecution. Any physical church building would have been immediately destroyed by the Jews or the Romans. The faithful had to use code words to communicate, such as Babylon for Rome, and the fish symbol. The word 'fish' is Icthus in Greek, the dominant language of the time. Icthus is the first letters of 'Jesus Christ Son of GOD Savior'. Fish are used as a symbol of the faithful, referring to the miraculous catch (Luke 5:1-7), and that some of the Apostles were fishermen.

---

"And continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread in their houses..."
Acts 2:46

"Greet Prisca and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus, who for my life have risked their own necks. To them not only I give thanks but also the Churches of the Gentiles. Greet also the Church that is in their house. Greet my beloved Ephraenetus, who is the first fruits of Asia to Christ."
Romans 16:3-5.

"The Churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla with the Church at their house (Corinth) greet you heartily in the Lord."
1Cor 16:19

"Greetings to the brethren who are at Laodicea and to Nymphas and the Church that is in his house."
Col 4:15-16

"And to Appia, the sister, and to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the Church that is in thy house:"
Philemon 1:2

Notice in Romans and Corinthians above, that the Church had already spread to Asia.

---

The new Church expanded rapidly. This rapid expansion was due in part to the fact that the Romans had built excellent roads connecting the various cities. The Apostles used these roads to advantage.

"Now they who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls." Acts 2:41

"And the multitude of men and women who believed in the Lord increased still more..."

Acts 5:14

"Now in those days, as the number of the disciples was increasing..."

Acts 6:1

"So the Churches grew stronger and stronger in the faith and increased in numbers daily."

Acts 16:5

"And the Word of the Lord continued to spread, and the number of the disciples increased rapidly in Jerusalem; a large number also of the priests accepted the faith."

Acts 6:7

"Now throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria the Church was in peace and was being built up, walking in fear of the Lord, and it was filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit."

Acts 9:31

"And news concerning them came to the ears of the Church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas as far as Antioch.

Acts 11:22

"But the Word of the Lord continued to grow and spread."

Acts 12:24

Starting in Acts 13:1, the worldwide, universal, Catholic Church began to expand to eventually include all of humanity...

"Now in the Church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers, among whom were Barnabas and Simon, called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manahen the fostering brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul."

Acts 13:1

"On arriving at Jerusalem they were welcomed by the Church and the Apostles and Presbyters (priests), and they proclaimed all that GOD had done with them."

Acts 15:4

"Then the Apostles and the Presbyters (priests) with the whole Church decided to select representatives and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas.

Acts 15:22

"But I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is in the ministry of the Church at Cenchrea..." Rom 16:1

The Facts Speak For Themselves.

---

If You Can't Believe What The Bible Says, What, or Who Can You Believe?

---

Let us briefly run through some of the most important highlights of the foundation and the growth of the only Church which Jesus Christ founded.

---

Matt 16:18, "And I say to thee, thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church."

Notice that Jesus said church, not churches. Jesus Christ founded His One and Only Church around 33 A.D.. At the same time He made Peter the leader of the Apostles by changing his name from Simon to Peter. See the file 'Primacy of Peter' elsewhere on this site.

Matt 16:18, "And the gates of hell shall NOT prevail against it."

The Church which Jesus Christ founded will be defended by its founder from within and from without, and forever.

Matt 18:17, "And if he refuse to hear them, appeal to the Church, but if he refuse to hear even the Church, let him be to thee as the heathen and the publican."

What does this verse tell you about who has the authority and who does not?

Matt 28:20, "...And behold, I am with you ALL days, even unto the consummation of the world."

Jesus Christ will be with the Church He founded, every day in every century until the end of time, with no gaps whatsoever.

Right here Jesus Christ guaranteed that the Church He founded is still with us to this very day. It has a name. Please name it?

---

John 14:18, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you."

Jesus Christ will not abandon His Church, but will watch over it forever.

John 10:16, "And other sheep I have that are not of this fold, them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd." All are not in the Church which He founded, which is the one fold of the one shepherd.

John 14:16-17, "And I will ask the Father and He will give you another Advocate to dwell with you forever, the Spirit of Truth whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. But you shall know Him, because He will dwell with you, and be with you."

The Holy Spirit will dwell with the one Church that Jesus Christ founded, and with no other church, and that Church will be the Church of truth.

John 14:26, "But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your mind whatever I have said to you."

The Church that Jesus Christ founded will receive its teaching from the Holy Spirit.

Matt 18:18, "Amen I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound also in Heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed also in Heaven."

Here the Apostles are given the authority they need to conduct affairs of the Church that Jesus Christ founded.

Acts 1:26, "And they drew lots between them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles."

They voted among themselves to elect another Apostle. Isn't this how they elect the Pope today?

Acts 15:7, "And after a long debate, Peter got up and said to them, 'Brethren, you know that in early days GOD made choice among us that through my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the Gospel and believe'."
Here Peter reaffirmed the primacy given to him by GOD in Matt 16:18.

Acts 15:4-12, the embryo Church held its first council, the Council of Jerusalem.

4 - "On arriving at Jerusalem they were welcomed by the Church..."

6 - "So the Apostles and the presbyters (priests) had a meeting to look into this matter."

12 - "Then the whole meeting quieted down..."

Rome had spoken. The issue was settled. This is much the same as what the Catholic Church does in councils today.

---

1Timothy 3:15, "...but in order that thou mayest know, if I am delayed, how to conduct thyself in the House of GOD, the pillar and mainstay of the truth."

The Church which Jesus Christ founded is the One True Church, and the Church of truth.

1Cor 3:10-15, "According to the grace of GOD which has been given to me, as a wise builder, I laid the foundation and another builds thereon.

But let everyone take care how he builds thereon..."

Here we see that there will be a succession of Church leaders to carry on the building of the Church.

Acts 20:28, "Take heed to yourselves and to the whole flock in which the Holy Spirit has placed you as Bishops, to rule the Church of GOD, which He has purchased with His own blood."

Bishops will rule the Church which Jesus Christ founded. Isn't that as true today as it was then?

1Timothy 3:8-10,

8 - "Deacons also must be honorable..."

10- and let them first be tried, and if found without reproach, let them be allowed to serve."

Deacons will be found in, and will serve in, the Church that Jesus Christ founded.

1Cor 3:2, "I fed you with milk, not with solid food, for you were not yet ready for it."

Here Paul told us that knowledge of GODly things will come over time. With the authority given to it, and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit as shown prior in this text, the Church can make announcement of doctrines such as it did in 1854, the Immaculate Conception, and in 1950, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

107 A.D., approximately, as St. Ignatius of Antioch, an Apostolic father of the Church, was being taken to Rome in chains to be martyred, he wrote several letters. In his letter to the Smyrneans he called the Church, which Jesus Christ founded, by its proper name for the first time on record (*CCC 830).

In paragraph 8.2 of his letter he said, "Just as where Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church."

397 A.D., at the Council of Carthage, the Church which Jesus Christ founded, finalized the Canon of the Bible. The Old Testament would retain all 46 books including the seven disputed books which it always had, which were removed by the protestants later during the reformation.

1545, the Council of Trent was called in response to the protestant reformation.

One of the things the Church accomplished at Trent was a reaffirmation of the Canon of the Old Testament and all 46 books were retained.

---

Now with all the evidence I have presented in this text, what is the name of the Church which Jesus Christ founded? It is still with us today after almost 2000 years. That was His promise.

Is it your church?

"...and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd," John 10:16.

This has to be true because He said it.

Is there one fold in Protestantism and Catholicism?

Protestant....No, there are 38,000 plus folds with new ones cropping up every week.

Catholic.....Yes

Oops! What happened here? It is a huge discrepancy in Protestantism and definitely against Jesus Christ's own words in John 10:16. Who follows the Bible on this one...and who does not? Why are there 38,000 folds in Protestantism?

Maybe this is the reason why Protestants missed number 2.

"This then, you must understand first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is made by private interpretation." 2Pet 1:20

Do you follow this verse and heed what it says?

Protestant....No, they do individual interpretation.

Catholic.....Yes, 3500 + Bishops with impeccable credentials and the Pope, all in agreement with what the Holy Spirit teaches. No individual interpretation here.

Another Oops? Could this be the reason for the 38,000 splits in Protestantism? Sounds like everyman for himself to me. Give me another reason for the 38,000 plus Protestant sects?

Since Bible Christians love to quote Holy Scripture, why then do they ignore so much of it, or refuse to even obey it?

"But all do not obey the gospel. For Isaiah said: Lord, who has believed our report?"
Romans 10:16, Isaiah 53:1

Non-Catholic Christians claim that the Bible is the only "authority". They call it "Sola Scriptura", and claim to take the Word of GOD literally. However, they do in fact ignore much of what is contained within it.

I will prove what I have just said with the following examples of a few of the ignored verses:

"Jesus answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. He who does not love me does not keep my words; and the word which you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me."

John 14:23-24

Those verses, the commands of Jesus Christ Himself are the key to this writing, so please keep them in mind.

---

Ignored:

"I do not pray for these only, but also for those who believe in me through their word, that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, so that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. The glory which thou hast given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and thou in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that thou hast sent me and hast loved them even as thou hast loved me."

John 17:21-23

Those verses are ignored simply because of the multiplicity of non-Catholic sects which number now in the tens of thousands. There is no ONE with Bible Christians. See 1Cor 1:10 for another ignored verse along the same lines.

---

For those who claim that 'works' are not needed for salvation:

"And I heard a voice from heaven, saying to me: Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. From henceforth now, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours. For their works follow them." Rev 14:13

I wish a Bible Christian would explain that last line to me.

For more verses ignored on the subject of 'works', here are some examples for you to check, Jam 2:17 and 26. With such clearly stated verses, it is no wonder that Martin Luther called the letter of James a 'straw epistle', which meant it should be burned.

Then there is Matt 25:31-46. No Bible Christian has been able to explain to me why the goats were not saved as well as the sheep.

What is the difference between those two groups?

---

Disobeyed:

Here is another important Bible verse which Bible Christians simply refuse to obey, Luke 1:48. However, I have the details for this one already posted on another page.

---

Bible Christians, when asked, "What is the pillar and foundation of truth", will invariably reply that it is the Bible.

If that is true, then why do they ignore 1Tim 3:15, which clearly says it is the Church which is the 'pillar and foundation of truth'?

Notice that the word 'Church' is singular. It does not read Churches.

By the way, "Which Church?"

A letter from a Church Father:

"The Church, instituted by the Lord and confirmed by the Apostles, is one for all men; but the frantic folly of the diverse impious acts sects has cut them off from her. It cannot be denied that this tearing asunder of the faith has arisen from the defect of poor intelligence, which twists what is read to conform to its opinion, instead of adjusting its opinion to the meaning of what is read. However, while individual parties fight among themselves, the Church stands revealed not only by her own doctrines, but by those also of her adversaries.

And although they are all arranged against her, she confutes the most wicked error which they all share, by the very fact that she is alone and One. All the heretics, therefore, come against the Church; but while all the heretics can conquer each other, they can win nothing for themselves. For their victory is the triumph of the Church over all of them. One heresy struggles against that teaching of another, which the faith of the Church has already condemned in the other heresy, for there is nothing which the heretics hold in common, and the result is that they affirm our faith while fighting among themselves."

Saint Hilary of Poitiers... The Trinity, 7:4, 356 A.D.. Jurgens 865

---

Another very important verse which is ignored:

Matt 28:20,

Jesus promised in this verse that His Church would last every day in every century until the end of time.

However, Bible Christians claim that His Church apostatized at some unknown time and is no longer the same Church. Interestingly, they cannot provide a date, or even one genuine historical document proving what they claim.

I thought Jesus had said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life", in John 14:6.

It looks to me like Jesus calling Himself the truth, cannot tell a lie.

So if He cannot lie, then who is perpetuating the lie of apostasy by His Church?

Jesus is the Head of His Church (Eph 5:23), which is His Body (Col 1:18,23), and He is the savior of it (Eph 5:23).

Can the Head of Jesus Christ leave His Body? Some Bible Christians who claim His Church apostatized apparently think so.

Here are a few more verses that are ignored by Bible Christians regarding the perpetuality of the one and only Church which Jesus Christ founded: So the gates of hell did prevail after all, Matt, 16:18. The Holy Spirit left His Church also, John 14:16. And then there is John 14:18, where I guess Jesus did leave us orphaned after all. I suppose even St. Paul must have lied to us in Eph 3:21. Then there is Heb 12:28 and 13:20, Acts 5:38-39. Even Old Testament prophets are ignored: Isa 9:7, 59:21, Psa 127:1, Dan 2:44, 6:26, 7:14.

The list of ignored verses on this topic goes on and on.

---

Then there is John, chapter six which is ignored and / or twisted by Bible Christians. If they knew typology they would know immediately that an Old Testament 'type', in this case the manna in the desert, never points to a New Testament symbol, but to a reality.

---

Once saved always saved, is a favorite topic of Bible Christians. There are so many verses which refute this false doctrine and all are ignored by those who think they have found the 'easy' gate to salvation. The problem is that there are no 'easy' gates to salvation. Holy Scripture speaks only of a narrow gate and a wide gate (Matt 7:13). Entering the narrow gate requires effort on our part. If someone wants to enter by the wide gate, they will sorrowfully find, too late, that it leads to perdition. Why is it called the wide gate? Well a wide gate will admit more people, right? Why are there more people passing through the wide gate? Maybe since so many people pass through it, they equate it to an 'easy' gate. Here are a few powerful verses which refute the false doctrine of 'once saved always saved'.

There are many more in the 'saved' link:

"Work out your salvation in fear and trembling."

Phil 2:12

That verse does not sound like "once saved always saved" to me. Does it to you?

"Wherefore, he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall."

1Cor 10:12

Neither does that one sound like "once saved always saved".

Even Saint Paul lamented that he might lose his salvation:

"...but I buffet my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected."

1Cor 9:27

Well if Saint Paul is concerned that even he could lose his salvation, aren't those who claim they are "saved already" elevating themselves above an Apostle?

"Not every one that says to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven."

Matt 7:21

That verse is 100% diametrically opposed to the "once saved always saved" group who preach it. Now review the 'saved' link for many more verses ignored by Bible Christians on this one subject.

---

Old Testament lessons are ignored by Bible Christians. Why are these lessons not heeded? Could it be that the lessons hit too close to home?

The whole chapter of Numbers 16 is ignored and the dire lesson of which it teaches is lost to Bible Christians. It is about the rebellion of Core (Korah). Core and his band rebelled against the GOD given authority of Moses who was the only Father Figure at that time, through whom GOD spoke to His people. Read what the end was for Core and his band in Num 16:25-35. Believe me, it isn't pretty. However, it is an interesting parallel and a prophetic story that points directly to Martin Luther and his rebellion, which is called the reformation. Like Core, Luther too rebelled against the GOD given authority of GOD's only Father Figure of the time. But the ending of the reformers rebellion was not the same as for Core and his followers. Core and his band of followers were swallowed alive when the earth opened its mouth and pulled them down into the nether world. Luther's rebellion in turn was not united as one group. It started splitting almost immediately, and today is split into tens of thousands of pieces.

Luther saw what was happening to his movement and he bemoaned what he had brought about, as he observed the constant splitting of his rebellion even in his own time:

"This one will not hear of Baptism, and that one denies the sacrament, another puts a world between this and the last day: some teach that Christ is not God, some say this, some say that: there are as many sects and creeds as there are heads. No yokel is so rude but when he has dreams and fancies, he thinks himself inspired by the Holy Ghost and must be a prophet."

De Wette III, 61. quoted in O'Hare, The Facts About Luther, 208.

The consequences of the reformation have proven to be a disaster for the reformers. The constant splitting of Protestantism has accelerated enormously over the years. Their consequences as compared to Core's, has resulted in tens of thousands of splits in the Body of Christ and instead of presenting a united front as ONE, they have become rather a multitude of chaotic splinters. Read of this prophesy of Daniel and see how closely it prefigures the reformation...

Daniel 2:44,

"And in the days of those kings the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed: and his kingdom shall not be left to another people, but it shall beat to pieces and grind to powder all other kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever."

The fingerprints of GOD are clearly visible in what has happened to the reformation, simply because 'He is not the author of confusion but of peace' (1Cor 14:33).

I must remind you that Jesus did say that we must be ONE, did He not?

---

Here is yet another Old Testament story which is ignored by Bible Christians:

Again, another whole chapter, Numbers 12, which has a very important lesson for us all to heed. Miriam (Mariam) and Aaron complained against Moses by saying, "Is it through Moses alone that the Lord speaks? Does he not speak through us also?"

Doesn't that sound familiar? How many Bible preachers have you heard say, "GOD told me"? There is a very vocal one who has a TV program who, many times, has claimed that "GOD told me". Many Bible Evangelists have claimed the same.

GOD heard Miriam and Aaron and became angry. Read it for yourself how this story ended.

---

"But all do not obey the gospel. For Isaias said: Lord, who has believed our report?"

Romans 10:16, Isaias 53:1

See? Even Holy Scripture makes comment that is just as true today as it was then.

In only the few subjects covered in this writing, would anyone care to count the number of verses listed here, that Bible Christians either do not obey or who ignore? How high do you suppose the count of verses would be if we covered all subjects?

---

---

Why do Bible Christians twist or ignore what is read in Holy Scripture, to conform to their personal opinions, instead of adjusting their opinions to the meaning of what is read?

OBEDIENCE!

How Many know What The Word Means?

How Many Do Not?

---

What does Holy Scripture say about obedience?

What happens to those who refuse to be obedient?

---

"And Pharaoh said, Who [is] the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go."

Exodus 5:2

Pharaoh refused to obey the Word of GOD and look what happened to him and all of Egypt? He and his country were cursed by the ten plagues which are graphically described in Exodus 7-12, the last of which was the death of all the firstborn children in Egypt including Pharaoh's son.

Read what GOD had to say regarding this Pharaohic incident:

"And Moses went up to God, and the Lord called to him out of the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the people of Israel: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you will obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my own possession among all peoples; for all the earth is mine, and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."

Exodus 19:3-6

See? Those who obey the Word of GOD are given rewards. What happens to those who do not obey? For the answer to that one, I would suggest that everyone read Numbers 16. It is about the disobedience to the GOD given authority of Moses, by Korah and his followers. Moses did everything he could to try and convince Korah, pleading with him that he was defying GOD by his disobedience, and yet Korah and his followers rejected his pleas. Read the final outcome of Korah's rebellion in Numbers 16:30-35. It isn't pretty.

However, Korah being puffed up with his own self interests, would not listen to Moses, who was the father figure of whom GOD had chosen to lead His people. Now read about Martin Luther and his disobedience against the authority of the Catholic Church, and you will see that the story of Korah has amazingly parallels. Now read Numbers 16 again, but this time substitute the name of the founder of your church for Korah, and for Moses, the name of the Catholic Pope.

Here is what Saint Cyprian of Carthage (205-258) said regarding the disobedience of Korah and others. It could just as well apply to Martin Luther and his contemporaries some 1300 years later.

"But the enemies of the one Catholic Church in which we are, and the adversaries of us who have succeeded the apostles, asserting for themselves, in opposition to us, unlawful priesthoods, and setting up profane altars, what else are they than Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, profane with a like wickedness, and about to suffer the same punishments which they did, as well as those who agree with them, just as their partners and abettors perished with a like death to theirs?"

Epistle LXXIV-16, to Firmilian

Whew! Powerful words from a great Saint.

Here is yet another example of what happens to those who are disobedient:

"While they were in Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses on the pretext of the marriage

he had contracted with a Cushite woman. They complained, "Is it through Moses alone that the Lord Speaks? Does He not speak through us also?" And the LORD heard this. Now, Moses himself was by far the meekest man on the face of the earth. So at once the LORD said to Moses and Aaron and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the meeting tent." And the three of them went. Then the LORD came down in the column of cloud, and standing at the entrance of the tent, called Aaron and Miriam. When both came forward, he said, "Now listen to the words of the LORD: Should there be a prophet among you, in visions will I reveal myself to him, in dreams will I speak to him; Not so with my servant Moses! Throughout my house he bears my trust: face to face I speak to him, plainly and not in riddles. The presence of the LORD he beholds. Why, then, did you not fear to speak against my servant Moses?" So angry was the LORD against them that when he departed, and the cloud withdrew from the tent, there was Miriam, a snow-white leper!"

Numbers 12:1-10

Wow! Those verses are loaded. First GOD said He speaks to Moses directly, His father figure. Then look what happened to Miriam who was disobedient to GOD's visible representative on earth? She was turned into a leper for her disobedience. What do you suppose what will happen in our time to those who are disobedient to GOD's visible father figure on earth, and to those who refuse to obey the commands of Holy Scripture?

Those who fail to profit from the mistakes of history are doomed to repeat them over again.

"Nothing under the sun is new, neither is any man able to say: Behold this is new; for it has already gone before in the ages that were before us."

Ecclesiastes 1:10

---

"Obey your superiors and be subject to them, for they keep watch as having to render an account of your souls; so that they may do this with joy, and not with grief, for that would not be expedient for you." Hebrews 13:17

"Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for any honest work,..." Titus 3:1

So many non-Catholics claim to follow the teaching of Holy Scripture. I would venture to ask them if they thought the founders of the Reformation, Luther, Calvin, Munser, Zwingli, and the others, obeyed these verses as well? If they were not obedient, how then could their followers be obedient? Are we free to pick verses that we like, which follow our trends of thought, and to reject those which seem to conflict with our beliefs? What does Scripture have for an answer to this question?

You will find the answer in Acts 5:29,

"But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men."

How many of the followers of Martin Luther, and the other 'reformers' heeded this verse, or even knew it was in Scripture? Since all of Holy Scripture is the Word of GOD, doesn't this verse teach us that we must obey all of it? Were the followers of Luther and the others in obedience to the Word of GOD, or did they simply obey the opinions of mere men? What does this next verse say?

"I laid the foundation, and another builds thereon. But let everyone take care how he builds thereon, for other foundations no one can lay, but that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ."

1Corinthians 3:10-11

Obviously, Martin Luther and his contemporaries were disobedient to this verse as well, for they laid many other foundations, the beginnings of the tens of thousands of which we have today.

---

"And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Acts 5:32

For those who obeyed the opinions of mere men rather than the truth of GOD, does this mean that they do not have the Holy Spirit? If you think they do, then aren't you rejecting this verse?

A persons personal opinion has no bearing whatsoever on doctrinal truth.

Jesus Christ said, 'I am the way, the truth, and the life', John 14:6. Since truth is a person, the person of Jesus Christ, whatever He said is truth, simply because He said it. He said in Luke 10:16, 'He who hears you hears me, and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me.'

In this verse Jesus gave authority to His visible representatives on earth to speak in His behalf.

Didn't Luther and the other 'reformers' reject GOD's Father Figure on earth, who is the direct successor to Saint Peter? In so doing did they not reject the Father and the Son as well?

Is it no wonder then that they could not have the Holy Spirit as well?

'Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your GOD, and the Lord will repent of the evil which he has pronounced against you.'

Jeremiah 26:13

Is this not a suitable fit with Luke 10:16, 'He who hears you hears Me...'?

'Jeremiah said, 'You shall not be given to them. Obey now the voice of the Lord in what I say to you, and it shall be well with you, and your life shall be spared.'"

Jeremiah 38:20

The prophets in the Old Testament spoke in GOD's Name, in the first person.

Here are examples...

'I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen, and will put My words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I commanded him. If any man will not listen to My words which he speaks in My name, I Myself will make him answer for it.'

Deuteronomy 18:18-19,

'And He said to me: Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and you shall speak My words to them.'

Ezekiel 3:4

The precedent was set many times in the Old Testament that GOD would speak through a visible human person on earth, a Father Figure. Since GOD is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8), then why do some say He does not speak through the Pope, His visible Father Figure on earth today?

With so many differences of opinion in the tens of thousands of non-Catholic churches, if you believe that GOD does not speak through the visible Pope, then pray tell, give me the name of the person GOD does speak through? Go back to Luke 10:16 again, for Jesus Christ did give authority for a visible person to speak in His behalf.

'If you fear the LORD and worship him, if you are obedient to him and do not rebel against the LORD'S command, if both you and the king who rules you follow the LORD your God—well and good. But if you do not obey the LORD and if you rebel against his command, the LORD will deal severely with you and your king, and destroy you.'

1Samuel 12:14-15

'If they obey and serve him, they spend their days in prosperity, their years in happiness. But if they obey not, they perish; they die for lack of knowledge.'

Job 36:11-12

'But this command I gave them, 'Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in their own counsels and the stubbornness of their evil hearts, and went backward and not forward.'

Jeremiah 7:23-24

"But if they do not obey, I will uproot and destroy that nation entirely, says the LORD."

Jeremiah 12:17

"But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver [thee]. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live."

Jeremiah 38:20

"It is he who shall build the temple of the Lord, and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule upon his throne. And there shall be a priest by his throne, and peaceful understanding shall be between them both. And the crown shall be in the temple of the Lord as a reminder to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah the son of Zephaniah. And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the Lord; and you shall know that the Lord of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God."

Zechariah 6:13-15

"For he will render to every man according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are factionous and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury."

Romans 2:6-8

"Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factionous, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God."

Galatians 5:19-21

"Factionous"? The dictionary says, "Factionous: (1) relating to internal dissension. (2) promoting internal dissension." Doesn't this sound like the mind set of the reformers? The Reformation certainly did lead to the "thousands of factions"* which we have in Protestantism today. The word "factions" leads us to yet another verse, "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all say the same thing; and there be no dissensions among you, but that you be perfectly united in one mind and in one judgment." 1Corinthians 1:10"

Well then, those who do not obey GOD's visible representative on earth will have much to fear.

"Do you not know that if you yield yourselves to any one as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness."

Romans 6:16-18

"You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?"

Galatians 5:7

"If anyone does not obey our word as expressed in this letter, take note of this person not to associate with him, that he may be put to shame."

2Thessalonians 3:14

"Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and being made perfect he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,..."

Hebrews 5:8-9

There you have it, many verses to remind us that we must be obedient to the one Church which Jesus Christ founded, and to GOD's visible father figure on earth. There are so many verses listed here which are a dire warning for those who refuse to be obedient to GOD given authority.

"Every one then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house upon the rock; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And every one who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand; and the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

Matthew 7:24-27

"Blessed are those who hear the word of GOD and keep it."

You Made the Charge, Now Back it Up...

---

Many unfounded charges have been made against the Catholic Church. Every time I ask for proof of these charges, I am met with silence... or an insult.

Here are some examples of charges made, with never backup documents to prove what they say:

---

---

The Church which Jesus Christ founded, apostatized at the time of Constantine or sometime thereafter. Therefore the Catholic Church cannot be that Church.

I would be very interested to see proof of this charge so,

Show me your documents!

---

The Council of Trent added the seven Deuterocanonical books to the Bible, Wisdom, Baruch, Sirach, Tobit, Judith, and 1 and 2 Maccabees. Read this first and then read the minutes of the Council of Trent and then,

Show me your documented proof.

---

Blessed Mary had other children...

Read this, and then show me where Scripture backs up what you charge.

Show me your documents after you read the Mary files on this website.

---

---

Blessed Mary is not the Mother of GOD...

Read this and then,

Show me where Scripture says that.

---

---

Catholics worship Blessed Mary...

If you believe this charge, then the Catholic Church has to tell us to worship Blessed Mary. If the Catholic Church tells us to worship her, then it must be written in a genuine Catholic document somewhere. Show me that document. Read the Blessed Mary files on this website and then,

Show me your proof.

---

The Catholic Church forbade reading of the Bible in the past...

Show me genuine historical documents which prove the Catholic Church forbade the reading of ALL Bibles which were not heretical.

Show me your documented proof.

---

---

St. Peter was never in Rome...

I debated a top protestant on this question and I sent him reams of authentic historical documents attesting that Peter was indeed in Rome, and in fact he died there. When I asked for proof of his charges, I was met with silence.

Show me your documentation attesting to what you have charged here.

---

St. Peter was never given primacy or authority in the Bible. After reading this,

Show me your documentation.

---

There is no such thing as Apostolic Succession...

I can show Apostolic Succession in Holy Scripture. You show me where it says it does not exist.

Show me your proof.

---

The Holy Eucharist is not the body of Jesus Christ. It is only a symbol...

Show me where it says this in Holy Scripture. Start with Matthew 26:26-28

---

Sola Scriptura is scriptural, keeping traditions is not. Read 'For Whom The Bell Tolls', elsewhere on this website and then,

Show me where Sola Scriptura is defined in the Bible.

---

Individual interpretation of Holy Scripture is acceptable...

Show me where it says this in Scripture. My Bible says just the opposite in 2Peter 1:19-21.

---

If you do not have documented proof of these charges, then you are perpetrating slander and lies. Read Rev 21:27. In a court of law, you shout, 'Guilty as Charged'. However without proof to back up your charges, your case is thrown out.

Mormon Teaching, And The Book of Mormon, And Holy Scripture Do Not Agree...

---

*Plus some other very disturbing things that they teach...
Or do not teach...*

---

---

Mormonism:

"The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (LDS)" is the name of the ecclesial community of Mormonism. They teach that their founder, Joseph Smith, was a latter day prophet, and the leader of their congregation is called "The Prophet".

In the introduction to the Book of Mormon, it calls their founder, "...the Prophet Joseph Smith...". In the "Articles of Faith of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints", article #6, reads, "We believe in the same organization that existed in the Primitive Church, namely, apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists, and so forth."

Did you notice that apostles are included too? Everyone knows that Saint John was the last Apostle.

Holy Scripture clearly teaches that Jesus Christ was the last of many prophets before Him.

Hebrews 1:1-2, "GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all in these days He has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the world;..."

Contrast those verses from Hebrews with this quote from the introduction to the Book of Mormon:

"...that Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world, that Joseph Smith is his revelator and prophet in these last days..."

Do we ignore Hebrews 1:1-2 or the teaching of Mormonism?

"In giving us his Son, his only Word (for he possesses no other), he spoke everything to us at once in this sole Word - and he has no more to say. . . because what he spoke before to the prophets in parts, he has now spoken all at once by giving us the All Who is His Son. Any person questioning God or desiring some vision or revelation would be guilty not only of foolish behaviour but also of offending him, by not fixing his eyes entirely upon Christ and by living with the desire for some other novelty." Saint John of the Cross, The Ascent of Mount Carmel 2, 22, 3-5

How can Joseph Smith be a prophet who came after Jesus Christ, when Scripture so clearly tells us that Jesus Christ was the last of the prophets? Those two verses, Hebrews 1:1-2, definitively inform us that there will be no more divine revelation revealed after the teaching by the Word of GOD, Jesus Christ, to His Apostles. Divine revelation ended when the last Apostle died.

If so, then from whom did the revelations of Joseph Smith come?

There can be only two possible answers to that question...

Either Holy Scripture is not to be believed, or Joseph Smith was a false prophet.

---

Mormonism was founded by Joseph Smith in 1830. He claimed an angel named Moroni told him to found a 'new' religion, and to find two golden plates buried under a rock somewhere in New York.

Smith claimed he found them and deciphered the inscription on them, and that became the 'Book of Mormon'.

The plates 'mysteriously' disappeared after that and were never found again.

Mormons claim that the "Book of Mormon" is yet "another gospel" other than those which are included within Holy Scripture.

The very first page behind the cover of the Book of Mormon says:

"The Book of Mormon Another Testament of Jesus Christ."

This is an open admission that they preach "another gospel".

*Not only that but their "gospel" supposedly came from an angel.

Beyond the shadow of a doubt, all of this is in direct conflict with Galatians 1:6-9.

*"But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel to you other than that which we have preached, let him be anathema***."*

If that verse was not enough, Saint Paul repeated it again in Galatians 1:9 for emphasis. How many times in all of Scripture did Saint Paul repeat himself? It almost sounds as if he had an inspiration of the rise of Mormonism and wrote those verses especially directed against them.

Mormons do claim that Moroni is an angel, and we know for sure that not one apostle ever preached the 'Book of Mormon'. How then, can Mormons ever reconcile this, since it is clearly evident that the very roots of Mormonism are in direct contradiction of Holy Scripture?

No Mormon has ever answered my question truthfully, to reconcile the BOM to Galatians 1:6-9.

**Anathema means cursed or ex-communicated. In the King James Bible it says, "let him be accursed". Hmmm!*

Here is yet another set of verses which say essentially the same thing as Gal 1:6-9:

"I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to Christ to present you as a pure bride to her one husband. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. For if some one comes and preaches another Jesus than the one we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel from the one you accepted, you submit to it readily enough."

2Cor 11:2-4

Did not the Mormons submit to "a different gospel from the one you accepted"?

No Mormon has ever answered my question truthfully, to reconcile the BOM to 2Cor 11:2-4 either.

"Every command that I enjoin on you, you shall be careful to observe, neither adding to it nor subtracting from it. If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer who promises you a sign or wonder, urging you to follow other gods, whom you have not known, and to serve them: even though the sign or wonder he has foretold you comes to pass, pay no attention to the words of that prophet or that dreamer; for the LORD, your God, is testing you to learn whether you really love him with all your heart and with all your soul. The LORD, your God, shall you follow, and him shall you fear; his commandment shall you observe, and his voice shall you heed, serving him and holding fast to him alone. But that prophet or that dreamer shall be put to death, because, in order to lead you astray from the way which the LORD, your God, has directed you to take, he has preached apostasy from the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and ransomed you from that place of slavery. Thus shall you purge the evil from your midst."

Deut 13:1-6

These words appear to be a perfect match for Joseph Smith.

After all, he is called a prophet, and he did preach another gospel, the Bom, while completely ignoring Gal 1:8-9, and wasn't he put to death?

If Mormons are not going to abide by the teaching of the Bible, why then do they even use it?

*"The Church has four Gospels, heretics have many more."
Origen, Homilies on Luke, Hom 1, 233 A.D.*

From the introduction of the Book of Mormon:

"The Book of Mormon is a volume of holy scripture comparable to the Bible... ..and contains, as does the Bible, the fulness of the everlasting gospel."...

*"Concerning this record the Prophet Joseph Smith said: 'I told the brethren that the BOOK OF MORMON WAS THE MOST CORRECT OF ANY BOOK ON EARTH, AND THE KEystone OF OUR RELIGION, AND A MAN WOULD GET NEARER TO GOD BY ABIDING BY ITS PRECEPTS, THAN ANY OTHER BOOK.' ...a most blasphemous statement against the Holy Bible.
The BOM clearly elevates itself above the Bible.*

How can the LDS Church even use the Bible at all if they teach it is inferior to the Book of Mormon?

---

Mormons have a following of about 10 million, but are split into several factions.

Here are some of their false teachings: Some references which refute these false teachings are from their very own 'Book of Mormon' (herein referenced as BOM).

---

"As man is, GOD once was; as GOD is, man may become." This is a Mormon teaching...

Does that phrase sound familiar? Let me refresh your memory:

Genesis 3:2-5, "And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

So, it is the serpent (Satan) who said that we can become like GOD.

Are we to believe what the serpent said? Mormons apparently do.

How can Mormons believe in a GOD who is both perfect and progressing?

*This is a classic example of 'doublethink'*, a process which Mormons use profusely. The statement in red clearly does say that GOD changes. Yet the BOM says just the opposite...*

(BOM) Moroni 8:18, 2Nephi 29:9, and Mormon 9:9-10 all read essentially, "For do we not read that GOD is the same yesterday, today and forever, and in Him there is no variableness neither shadow of changing?"

Ask them, If GOD is perfect, how can He possibly change? If He is perfect, how can He become more perfect than He is already?

Any change in GOD would imply an imperfection to begin with, would it not?

**Doublethink: Thoughts accepted as truths which have serious contradictions and falsehoods.*

Two or more ideas of opposing dimensions, all being accepted as truth. The power of holding two contradictory beliefs in one's mind simultaneously, and accepting both of them.

From George Orwell's "1984":

"To know and not to know, to be conscious of complete truthfulness while telling carefully constructed lies, to hold simultaneously two opinions which canceled out, knowing them to be contradictory and believing in both of them, to use logic against logic, to repudiate morality while laying claim to it, to believe that democracy was impossible and that the Party was the guardian of democracy, to forget whatever it was necessary to forget, then to draw it back into memory again at the moment when it was needed, and then promptly to forget it again, and above all, to apply the same process to the process itself -- that was the ultimate subtlety; consciously to induce unconsciousness, and then, once again, to become unconscious of the act of hypnosis you had just performed. Even to understand the word 'doublethink' involved the use of doublethink."

Doublethink...! You cannot have it both ways, but Mormons try.

Answers anyone???

---

Mormons teach that there are multiple god's, one of which is the god of the earth.

This is the heresy of polytheism, so they are polytheistic which makes them not Christian.

However, contradictions regarding polytheism abound in the BOM...

2 Nephi 31:21, "And now behold this is the doctrine of Christ and the only one true doctrine of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost which is one God without end."

Alma 11:28-29, "...Is there more than one God? And he answered, No."

Alma 11:44, "...before the bar of Christ the Son, and GOD the Father, and the Holy Spirit, which is One Eternal GOD..."

And amazingly...

In the "testimony of three witnesses" at the beginning of the BOM, the very last sentence reads:

"And the honor be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, which is one God. Amen."

Clearly this testimony rejects polytheism.

Isaiah 45:21-22, "...and there is no GOD else besides Me? Be converted to Me, and you shall be saved, all you ends of the earth, for I am GOD, and there is no other."

So which one is in error, the teaching of LDS and the "prophet" Joseph Smith and the BOM, or is it Holy Scripture?

There is no doubt that we could quickly and safely remove Holy Scripture from this equation.

"Doublethink"...Again!

---

The Mormon trinity is a triad of three separate god's in co-operation with each other, polytheism...

(BOM) Mosiah 7:27, "...Christ was the God, the Father of all things..." (was the God?)

Ether 3:14-15, "...Behold, I am Jesus Christ. I am the Father and the Son..."

Again, Isaiah 45:21-22.

James 2:19, "You believe that there is one GOD, you do well. The devils also believe and tremble."

How do Mormons explain John 10:30 where Jesus said, "I and the Father are one"?

According to Mormon teaching of polytheism, "I and the Father must be two".

"Doublethink", yet again.

---

GOD has a physical body...

Mormons teach that GOD is endowed with a body of flesh and bone.

This is false, GOD is Spirit: Num 23:19, Lk 24:39, Jn 4:24.

(BOM) Alma 11:22, "...Spirit of the Lord which is in me..."

Mormonism teaches that matter existed spiritually before creation.

This is false since GOD created the universe out of nothing. The very word 'create' means:

"To cause to exist. to bring into being". See Gen 1:1, Psa 33:6, 2Macc 7:28, Heb 11:3.

Spirits have no parts and therefore do not occupy space.

Matter however, takes up space simply because it has parts, so therefore it cannot exist spiritually.

---

The Church which Jesus Christ founded in Matt 16:18 apostatized soon after it was founded and it remained that way until Joseph Smith restored it some 1800 years later (1830)... Another Mormon teaching.

Well for this to be true, please tell me what Jesus Christ was doing all those years with an apostate Church? What happened to the billions of people who lived in those years and frequented that supposedly "apostate" Church? Did they all end up in hell?

Since GOD is omniscient, why would he send His only Son to found a Church which would last for only a few years, and then fall away for 1800 years?

1. In Matt 16:18, Jesus promised that His Church would be protected from within and from without and He gave no time limit for His protection.

2. In Matt 28:20, Jesus promised that he would be with His Church every day in every century, and with no gaps whatsoever, until the end of the world.

3. In John 14:16, Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would dwell with His Church forever.

4. In John 14:18, Jesus promised that He would not orphan His Church, yet another promise that He would be with it forever.

5. And here is yet another verse which promises the perpetuality of the only Church which Jesus Christ founded, and this one is from Saint Paul.

"...to Him be glory in the Church and in Jesus Christ down through all the ages of time without end.

Amen."

Eph 3:21

I have just presented to you, as evidence, five verses from Holy Scripture, all of which promise Divine protection and / or the perpetuality of the only Church which Jesus Christ founded.

Yet, amazingly, Mormons have put themselves in a box, as they are forced to deny every one of those verses in order to make their false claim of apostasy of the Church which Jesus Christ founded.

By denying the word of Christ, they have made it a denial of Him. Is that their intention?

It is no wonder then, that Mormonism is said to be not Christian. The evidence abounds.

"He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son."

1John 5:10

Do Mormons believe the promises which Jesus Christ made to protect His Church every day in every century, and with no gaps, until the end of time?

As long as they teach that His Church apostatized, the answer to that one is a resounding NO!

Mormonism teaches that Jesus Christ must be obeyed.

"...that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God and that all who will come unto him and obey the laws and ordinances of his gospel may be saved." Introduction to the BOM, first page.

Well, do they obey the verses I have listed above? Not at all. Then are they saved regardless?

"Double think" again? Can Mormons be both saved and not saved at the same time?

"...and when perfected, he became to all who obey him the cause of salvation."

Heb 5:9

Wow! Salvation is for those who obey him. What about those who ignore His teaching?

Now if we extrapolate from that verse, we can say with certainty that there is no salvation for those who do not obey him, by ignoring what He commanded.

There are individuals who are apostates in every religion, even in Mormonism as they well know. Individuals within the Church which Jesus Christ founded can, and have apostatized, but certainly not the entire Church itself. It is utterly impossible, for we have the promises of GOD Himself. Now, who are we to believe, the teaching of Mormonism, or the Word of GOD?

However, in many verses of the BOM there are references to a "Great and Abominable Church", which was founded by the devil. See 1Nephi 13:4 to 22:14, 2Nephi 6:12.

Doesn't this "Great and Abominable Church" have a name? Why is it not named in the BOM?

What happened to it? Does it exist today? Will someone please name it?

Why is this yet another "monumental historical happening", not prophesied at all by the Old Testament prophets, and not mentioned at all in the first thousand years of writings by scores of Church Fathers, nor by any secular historians?

I have yet had anyone show me one scrap of evidence of this "so-called apostasy". Certainly, if the Church which Jesus Christ founded apostatized soon after it was founded, why then are there no written records of this monumental milestone of history? Hundreds of years of genuine historical documents by Church fathers and other writers, make no mention of this so called "great apostasy", which would have been an earth shaking, impossible to cover up, and a never to be forgotten event indeed. However, over this same vast period, the Catholic Church is mentioned favorably hundreds of times throughout the centuries and by name, hundreds of times. Saint Augustine (354-430) alone, mentioned the Catholic Church at least 300 times in his many writings, and with not even a hint of a so-called "great apostasy" of the Church. Here is a list of references of writings from scores of different authors over a time span of hundreds of years on both sides of the date of this false assertion of apostasy.

I will encourage all believers of this false charge by Mormonism to read these genuine historical documents for themselves.

How can anyone believe that GOD really did leave an unfinished Church for almost 1800 years until Joseph Smith came along and finally restored it? Does GOD leave His work undone? Are we to believe Jesus Christ and His promise of the unbroken continuity and perpetual existence of His Church, or are we to believe Mormon teaching which has no genuine historical documents of proof whatsoever of this false charge of apostasy against His Church?

What is the record of truth of Mormon teaching shown to us so far in this writing?

The Book of Mormon, in its introduction states, "The book was written by many ancient prophets...their words written on gold plates..." It goes on to say that one of the civilizations written about came from Jerusalem in 600 B.C..

It seems that the Old Testament prophets neglected to mention this. Why did this go unmentioned by them, since a "civilization" even then, must have been composed of a great number of people?

Now since the Bom was written by "many ancient prophets", how is it that the word 'jehovah' appears in 2 Nephi 22:2, and in Moroni 10:34?

'Jehovah' is a man made name which first appeared in a writing by a Benedictine (Catholic) monk in the year 1270. He added vowels to the Hebrew name of GOD, YHWH, since it was unpronounceable, and invented the word 'jehovah'. The word 'jehovah' appears nowhere in the Hebrew texts of the Old Testament, but YHWH does in many places. The correct translation of the name YHWH, with vowels, is 'Yahweh'. You will not find the word 'jehovah' in any genuine historical documents, be they from the Church or of a secular source, before the date of 1270.

How can a word which did not even exist until 1270, appear in supposedly much older writings? Maybe the Benedictine Monk had a copy of the Book of Mormon in his time of 1270, or maybe the writings in the BOM are not as old as Mormonism would have us to believe?

It has to be one or the other, so which one is it?

---

Now regarding "the most correct book on earth", why has it been changed so many times in the past if it is so correct? The original BOM written by Joseph Smith in 1830, and the BOM of today have proven that it is not the most correct book on earth, but one of the most corrupted books on earth.

Here are a few examples:

1830 BOM, 1Nephi 11:18, "And he said unto me, Behold, the virgin which thou seest, is the mother of God, after the manner of flesh."

1993 BOM, 1Nephi 11:18, "And he said unto me, Behold, the virgin which thou seest, is the mother of the Son of God, after the manner of flesh."

Is this an attempt to downgrade the Mother of GOD, or of Jesus being GOD, or both?

If the BOM was the most correct the first time around, why then was it changed or "corrected" later?

1830 BOM, 1Nephi 11:21, "And the angel said unto me, behold the Lamb of God, yea, even the Eternal Father!"

1993 BOM, 1Nephi 11:21, "And the angel said unto me, behold the Lamb of God, yea, even the Son of the Eternal Father!"

Clearly this is a change in Mormon doctrine. In 1830, the Father and the Son are one. In 1993, we see a separation between the Father and the Son as two separate persons. The very same additions, "Son of", were added to 1Nephi 11:32 and 13:40.

I repeat, if the BOM was "the most correct book on earth" the first time around, why then was it "corrected" later?

1830 BOM, 1Nephi 12:18, "And a great and terrible gulf divideth them; yea, even the word of the justice of the Eternal God, and Jesus Christ, which is the Lamb of God, of whom the Holy Ghost beareth record, from the beginning of the world until this time, and from this time henceforth and forever."

1993 Bom, 1Nephi 12:18, "And a great and terrible gulf divideth them; yea, even the word of the justice of the Eternal God, and the Messiah who is the Lamb of God, of whom the Holy Ghost beareth record, from the beginning of the world until this time, and from this time henceforth and forever."

Yet another change to show that the Father and Jesus Christ are two separate persons, two Gods?

Or was it to fix the error that "Christ" was not brought on the scene until 2Nephi 10:3? This same verse mentions that "Christ" was his name. This is yet another error as the word "Christ" simply means the Anointed One, the Messiah. It is a title and not a name.

Correctly it should be, Jesus THE Christ, or Jesus THE Messiah, or Jesus THE Anointed One.

It appears that error compounds itself in the BOM.

I repeat, if the BOM was "the most correct book on earth" the first time around, why then was it

"corrected" later?

1830 BOM, Mosiah 21:28, "And now Limhi was again filled with joy, on learning from the mouth of Ammon that king Benjamin had a gift from God, whereby he could interpret such engravings; yea, and Ammon also did rejoice."

1993 BOM, Mosiah 21:28, "And now Limhi was again filled with joy, on learning from the mouth of Ammon that king Mosiah had a gift from God, whereby he could interpret such engravings; yea, and Ammon also did rejoice."

A case of mistaken identity?

I repeat again, if the BOM was "the most correct book on earth" the first time around, why then was it "corrected" later?

1830 BOM, 2Nephi 30:6, "...and many generations shall not pass away among them, save they shall be a white and a delightsome people."

1993 BOM, 2Nephi 30:6, "...and many generations shall not pass away among them, save they shall be a pure and a delightsome people."

This change was obviously made to tone down racial discrimination in the BOM where in many verses, it says GOD changed the color of skin to dark or black as a curse upon the people.

See 2Nephi 5:20-21.

I repeat yet again, if the BOM was "the most correct book on earth" the first time around, why then was it later "corrected" so many times and in so many places?

1830 BOM, 1Nephi 20:1, "Hearken and hear this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel; yet they swear not in truth, nor righteousness."

1993 BOM, 1Nephi 20:1, "Hearken and hear this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, or out of the waters of baptism who swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel; yet they swear not in truth, nor righteousness."

Here we see later additions to "the most correct book on earth".

Was there Baptism in the time of 1Nephi, 600 B.C.?

---

If the Book of Mormon is so perfect, then why are there so many errors in it, some of which I have shown in this file? In 'A brief explanation about the Book of Mormon', it says...

"Some minor errors in the text have been perpetuated in past editions of the Book of Mormon."

How can the 'most correct of any book on earth' have any errors at all?

Here is another big error, Alma 7:10, "And behold, he shall be born of Mary, at Jerusalem which is the land of our forefathers..." It seems that the Bible says He was born in Bethlehem not Jerusalem. See Mic 5:2, Matt 2:1 and 6, Luke 2:4 and 15. How could 'the most correct of any book on earth' have such an obvious error as this one within its covers?

Here is another big error:

"And after this manner he did baptize every one that went forth to the place of Mormon; and they were in number about two hundred and four souls; yea, and they were baptized in the waters of Mormon, and were filled with the grace of God. And they were called the Church of God, or the Church of Christ, from that time forward. And it came to pass that whosoever was baptized by the power and authority of God was added to his church."

Mosiah 18:16-17

These verses are shocking when you work out the time line. It seems that according to the BOM index,

Mosiah was the son of king Benjamin (120BC) and lived from 154-91 B.C..

This was around 100 years before the birth of Jesus Christ and 130 years before Christ established His Church and started the sacrament of baptism.

If the Book of Mormon is so correct, then why are there so many errors in it?

---

Genealogy research for the dead is practiced by the Mormon Church...

This is forbidden in 1Tim 1:4, and Tit 3:9.

---

They teach a doctrine called Celestial marriage, eternal marriage sealed by temple rite...

This is false teaching. Matt 22:23-33, "...You err because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of GOD. For at the resurrection they will neither marry nor be given in marriage, but will be as Angels of GOD in Heaven..."

---

Mormon salvation depends on acceptance of the teaching of Joseph Smith and of the BOM.

"...a man would get nearer to God by abiding by its precepts (the BOM), than by any other book."

Introduction to the BOM, first page.

This is absolutely false and misleading teaching.

Acts 4:10-12, "...be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by him this man is standing before you well. This is the stone which was rejected by you builders, but which has become the head of the corner. And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

---

Need I say more on that one?

What would you believe, Mormon teaching or Holy Scripture?

Mormon baptisms are invalid.

There are three requirements for a valid baptism.

1. The proper form, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Matt 28:19

2. The proper matter, is the sprinkling, pouring, or immersion with water.

3. The proper intention. They must believe in what they do.

Mormons may use the proper form and the matter. However, they do not have the proper intention.

How can they possibly hope to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, if they do not have a correct understanding of the Holy Trinity? Mormons teach that the Trinity is three separate gods and not three distinct persons in one GOD as Scripture clearly says.

"Before me no god was formed, and after me there shall be none." Isa 43:10

"Thus says the LORD, Israel's King and redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; there is no God but me." Isa 44:6

---

Have you noticed the similarities between Mormonism and Islam?

1. Jesus Christ is the only founder of a religion who came pre-announced.

The Old Testament is full of prophecies of His coming from the first book to the last book.

Neither Muhammad (Islam), nor Joseph Smith was pre-announced.

Each merely proclaimed himself a prophet.

2. Islam claims the book that Muhammad wrote, the Quran (Koran), is the word of Allah (God).

Haqqa:40-52

The Articles of Faith of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints does likewise:

"We believe the Bible to be the word of God as far as it is translated correctly; we also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God."

Does the LDS accept the Quran as the word of God also? Why not? It seems that both claim to be written by a self proclaimed "prophet".

3. Islam elevates the Quran, above the Bible. Maida:14-16

Mormons elevate the Book of Mormon above the Bible as shown earlier in this file.

4. Neither the Quran, nor the Book of Mormon, were preached by the Apostles.

This a clear violation of Galatians 1:8-9 and 2Corinthians 11:2-4 by both the LDS and Islam.

5. Islam (Ahzab:50, Mujadila:9) and the LDS both, call their respective founders a "prophet".

Muhammad (620 A.D.) and Joseph Smith (1830), both violate Hebrews 1:1-2 which clearly tells us that Jesus Christ (33 A.D. approx) is the last prophet.

6. Islam teaches that Muhammad was a greater prophet than Jesus Christ. Maida:17

Some of the Mormon splinters claim that Joseph Smith was a greater prophet than Jesus Christ.

7. Both Islam and Mormonism have a false teaching of the Holy Trinity.

Islam teaches that GOD is only one person, Allah, and that the Trinity does not exist. Maida:73

The LDS teaches that GOD is three separate persons (polytheism) as explained earlier.

8. Multiple wives are lawful in Islam. Ahzab:50

Wasn't polygamy practiced in the LDS until the federal government forced them to abandon it?

9. We are saved by Allah through his prophet Muhammad. Muhammad:2-19.

LDS teaches that we are saved by GOD through their "prophet" Joseph Smith as shown earlier.

Do you remember Acts 4:10-12?

10. Islam rejects the doctrine of original sin.

The Articles of Faith of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints does likewise:

Article # 2, "We believe that men will be punished for their own sins, and not for Adam's transgression."

This is a clear rejection of original (Adam's) sin, so of what purpose does baptism serve in the LDS?

I would suggest that all Mormons read Gen 3:16-24 regarding the punishment of mankind due to

"Adam's transgression".

---

I have presented here considerable factual information regarding the illegitimacy of Mormonism. Here are a few more Scripture verses which are in support of what I have said here:

"Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.

Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain."

Psalms 127:1

Did the Lord build the house of Mormonism, or did a mere human person?

Seventh Day Adventists and 666...

---

---

*Seventh Day Adventists and the Number 666:
What They will Never Tell You:*

Ellen Gould White, the foundress of Seventh Day Adventism wrote many books, some of which preach hatred of the Catholic Church. One book in particular titled, 'The Great Controversy' is almost entirely devoted to this subject.

Seventh Day Adventists equates the Pope with the dreaded number of the beast, 666, as recounted in Revelation 13:18 and 15:2. They use as so-called 'proof' a document called, the 'Donation of Constantine', written between 750 and 800 A.D.. In this 'document', the Pope is referred to as the 'Vicar of the Son of GOD', which is 'Vicarius Filii Dei' in Latin. If you take the letters of this title in Roman Numeral form, they add up to 666.

Add 'Vicarius', V=5+I=1+C=100+I=1+U (u and v are equal in Latin)=5 is 112.

Add to it 'Fileii', I=1+L=51+I+I is 53.

Add 'Dei', D=500+I is 501.

Now add the three, 112+53+501= 666.

According to the warped "reasoning" of Seventh Day Adventists, this "proves" that the Pope is the beast of 666. To further their so-called "proof", they claim the title "Vicar of the Son of GOD" is engraved on the miter of the Pope.

---

What they will never tell you...

- 1. The "Constantine", which Seventh Day Adventists use here, was not a Pope as they claim. He was an iconoclast Byzantine Emperor who was condemned by the Popes for his iconoclasm.*
- 2. The "Donation of Constantine" is not a genuine historical Catholic document. It is widely known as a forgery. There is no official Catholic document to "prove" this charge by, and only by, Seventh Day Adventists.*
- 3. The title "Vicar of the Son of GOD" was never a title of the Pope. It is a Seventh Day Adventists twisting of "Vicar of Christ", which is one of the Pope's true titles.*
- 4. "Vicar of the Son of GOD" is NOT engraved on the miter of the Pope. No Seventh Day Adventist has ever been able to show "proof" of this charge. I ask them again, show me a genuine Papal miter with those words engraved upon it?*
- 5. The "beast of 666" is not the number of a title, but is the number of its name as stated in Rev 15:2, "...and those who had overcome the beast and its image and the 'number of its * (see note 1) name'..."
Therefore even if the Pope had the title "Vicar of the Son of GOD", which he never did, 666 would not apply to him as it is not his name, but a title.
Now let us look at a similar verse, Rev 13:18 mentioned earlier. The Greek word used in this verse to show the gender of the beast is 'anthropos', meaning a human being. The KJ translates this word as a 'man'. The CEV translates it to a 'person'. The GNB says 'someone'. The GW and the RSVA agree in* saying merely that it is 'a human number'. The ISV says 'it is the number of a person'. Well so much for the non-argument that the gender neutral 'anthropos' could only mean a man. I have provided factual evidence that many Bible translations have shown that it could mean a woman as well.

But there is someone whose name fits perfectly, as the beast 666 of Revelation.

6. Now since 666 is the number of 'its' name, let us find one that matches it. Ellen = L+L=100, Gould = U+L+D = 555, White = a double 'U' = 2 'V's +I = 11.

Total these three numbers, and we have, 100 + 555 + 11 = 666 463017

So Ellen Gould White, the foundress of Seventh Day Adventism, has a name that adds up to 666, and it is the number of a name and not of a title.

7. Want another one? Okay, try this. Since Seventh Day Adventists try their twists in the Latin language, here is yet another example from the Latin which they use:

Ellen G. White calls herself, the "Voice of GOD".

Note that there is no twisting here as SDA's do to the title of the Pope.

So, in Latin her name is: Ellena Alba Vox Dei, or Ellen White Voice of GOD.

Ellena = L+L=100,

Alba (White)= L=50

Vox (Voice)=V=5 + X=10 = 15

Dei (GOD)=D=500 +I=1 = 501

Total these three numbers, and we have, 100 + 50+ 15 + 501= 463017 yet a second time!

8. I would say that the number "666" applies more readily to the foundress of Seventh Day Adventism since it is the number of 'its'* name, and not the name of a trumped up, non-existent title, wouldn't you? I gave you two examples of the "666" of the SDA foundress, and neither was found by twisting a name, or a title, or by quoting a forged document, or by calling an historical emperor a non-existent Pope.

Who was it that came up with the quote about throwing stones around glass houses?

*Note 1:

The book of Revelation was written in Greek, so we must go back to the Greek to understand the gender meaning, him, her, its, etc.

The Greek word used here is hautou. It has several meanings such as her, it, and him.

---

Some additional observations:

1. Since the book of Revelation was written in Greek, not Latin, why do Latin numerals have anything to do with Greek?

2. Did the SDA's check Sanskrit, or Japanese, or Eskimo or hundreds of other languages for a similar stretch in their logic?

3. SDA's are Sola Scriptura believers, so they say. So that means if it isn't in the Bible, they refuse to believe it.

So in dealing with SS believers, I must put on my Sola Scriptura glasses;

and reply,

"Hey, I cannot find your 666 argument using Roman numerals in the Bible, so therefore your charge simply does not exist."

---

For the doubters about the double "U", I suggest you consult your dictionary for the origins of the letter "W":

''V''

The Romans adopted the second form (comparing Phoenician and Greek) for both the 'U' and 'W' sounds, simplifying its shape to 'V'. As its name indicates, the letter 'W' is in origin a 'double U' (VV), often used in inscriptions from around the first century A.D. to represent the 'W' sound in Germanic or Celtic names.

That is how my dictionary defines it...

Seventh-Day Adventism,

"The Accusers of the Brethren".

---

"And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world--he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, 'Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our GOD'."

Revelation 12: 9-10

---

Jesus Christ commanded:

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Matthew 22:39

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this will all men know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." John 13:34-35. In these two verses Jesus commanded for us to "love one another", and He commanded it of all of us and not only did He say it once, but three times.

Why would Jesus repeat Himself three times in just two verses? He did so in order to drive home a very important point. The obverse of His Word would be, 'if you do not have love for one another then you are not my disciples'. He reminded us yet again later in the Gospel of John,

"This I command you, to love one another." John 15:17.

These are not mere suggestions for us to accept or to reject, but are commands from GOD.

However, SDA's by their actions, appear to add to the end of these verses,

"Except if they be Catholic", as their never ending tirade directed against the Catholic Church clearly shows.

SDA ministers actually preach hatred of the Catholic Church from the pulpit.

Isn't this being hypocritical to the teaching of Jesus Christ?

In contrast to SDA preaching, I have never heard a single Catholic priest preach ill of any sect.

So who is true to the Word of GOD, and who is not?

---

"You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor." Exodus 20:16

"A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies." Proverbs 14:5

"For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Savior."

Isaiah 63:8

"Then Jeremiah told the prophet Hananiah, 'Now listen, Hananiah, the LORD hasn't sent you. You have made these people believe a lie'." Jeremiah 28:15

"The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth..." Zephaniah 3:13

"Do not lie to one another..." Colossians 3:9

"But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth."
James 3:14

"I have not written unto you because you know not the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth." 1John 2:21

"If any one says, 'I love God', and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen." 1John 4:20

Ah yes, love your brother again.

Well! Let us see just how much "brotherly love" SDA's offer to Catholics.

We shall now see how SDA's willingly ignore all of the verses listed above.

Here are a few of the many baseless false charges which Seventh-Day Adventists have either invented or propagated in order to deliberately demonize the Catholic Church in a hail of hatred:

---

❶ 1. SDA's, "The Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Pope or papacy is the "Whore of Babylon" as mentioned in Revelation chapters 17 and 18. This lie was first espoused by Martin Luther in his diatribe against the Catholic Church, but SDA's bought into it and continue to propagate it to anyone who will listen. Why is it that SDA's wont talk to the heirs of Luther, the Lutherans, about this issue invented by their founder? Lutherans in the know, are embarrassed by the tirades of Luther such as this one, and the Lutheran Church has tried to silence him. Most Lutherans are even unaware of his writings. This accusation is a total fabrication as I have shown from Holy Scripture in the Luther link above. Scripture clearly tells us that the "Whore of Babylon" is a "Great City", and that city is not Rome, but Jerusalem.

Dear SDA: Please show me a genuine historical document which predates the one of which I refer in my Martin Luther file where the Pope was first called the "Whore of Babylon", a Protestant invented fabrication?

You will find that it was an unheard of blasphemy against GOD's visible representative, or Father Figure on earth, until the Protestant revolt came along in the 16th century. If you cannot find such a genuine historical document, then why do you propagate the lie? Also, since you are Sola Scriptura believers, then please show me the verses which "prove" this false charge which you have made against the Catholic Church? However, do not attempt to do this until you have read this Martin Luther link, and have carefully studied the verses referenced within it. You will see for yourselves that in it I have shown exactly who "Whore of Babylon" is, and I have done it with no stretch or personal opinion, but by your very own Protestant invented Sola Scriptura.

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

---

❷ 2. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Pope is the "Beast of Revelation", and the "Harlot (whore)" is the Roman Catholic Church. I know that the SDA 'inventors' of these demonizing remarks neglected to pay attention to what Holy Scripture has said....Again!

Now let us see how many lies are packed inside this big lie?

a) See Revelation 17:15-16,

"And he said to me, 'The waters that you saw, where the harlot is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the harlot; they will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh, and burn her up with fire.'"

Hmmm, so Scripture said the "beast" destroyed the "harlot". What about that SDA?

Since the "harlot" is Jerusalem, as I have shown in the Luther link, then the "beast", who hates Jerusalem and destroys her with fire, can only be the evil Roman Empire which did hate the Jews and Jerusalem, and did completely destroy her with fire in 70 A.D..

b) When was Rome destroyed by fire? The fact is, it was never completely destroyed by fire.

Nero's fire only partially destroyed Rome in 64 A.D..

c) Now if the beast were the Pope, why would he hate the Harlot, of his own institution?

Why would he destroy himself? Does Satan destroy Satan?

In Luke 11:18, Jesus said,

"And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Be-el'zebul."

Dear SDA: Please tell me WHEN did the Pope destroy Rome, by fire no less?

Please include your genuine historical document of "proof" also, or better yet by using Sola Scriptura.

Tell me, why do you make up these stories, when clearly, Scripture does not even mention the word "Pope" or "Roman Catholic Church"? You see, since you insist that you are "Sola Scriptura" believers, then I must turn the tables and play your Sola Scriptura game too. Saying that you believe in Bible only, and yet go about inventing false charges which are not even in the Bible, bespeaks of hypocrisy doesn't it?.

SHOW ME THE VERSES WHICH PROVE WHAT YOU SAY? IF YOU CANNOT FIND THOSE VERSES THEN WHAT DOES THAT MAKE YOU?

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies."* John 8:44

---

3. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Catholic Church was founded by the Roman Emperor Constantine in the fourth century. This charge is absolutely untrue. Constantine founded no Church, but merely allowed Christianity to exist without Roman persecution, as his "Edict of Milan" very clearly said. No Protestant can produce a single authentic historical document to "prove" this false charge.

Dear SDA: Did you know that Constantine was not even a baptized Christian until he was on his death bed? Since Scripture insists that Baptism is essential to be a Christian, how then could a non-Christian have possibly founded a Christian Church? Check the secular Roman history records and you will find for yourselves the proof of what I have said here.

Please show me your authentic historical documents which "prove" the false charge which you have made of Constantine as being the founder of the Catholic Church?

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies."* John 8:44

---

4. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Catholic Church apostatized soon after its founding and is therefore not the Church which Jesus Christ founded. Strangely, those who make this false charge cannot provide a date, nor any genuine historical documents of this so-called "great apostasy" that never happened. Also they cannot provide the name of the Church which supposedly took its place as "the true church", at that unknown time either. The coming of Christ and the founding of His Church are the greatest events in history. Why are there no historical documents which recorded this supposed "second greatest event in history", that "monumental great apostasy", the downfall of the Church which Jesus Christ founded, which certainly must have shaken the world to its roots? It had to have been an event never to be forgotten, and an event which must have been recorded by everyone who could write at that time, and ever since then.

Dear SDA: Please show me the documents which "prove" this supposed "great apostasy" of which you speak? Please supply only genuine historical documents, and with no personal opinions, and with no quotes from another Catholic haters book.

Whoops, but something is amiss here SDA. Isn't this false charge diametrically opposed to the false charge that Constantine founded the Catholic Church as mentioned in the previous segment? This charge assumes that the Catholic Church existed long before Constantine was even born in 285 A.D., does it not? This is a classic example of Protestant "Doublethink".

Dear SDA: Please tell me the name of the Church which Jesus Christ founded? He founded only one Church, as He declared in Matthew 16:18, when He said "Church", not churches. He also promised in Matthew 28:20, to be with His one Church every day in every century until the end of time, and with no 1500 year gaps, not even for one day. Consequently, that Church must still be here today. Please give me the name of that Church? You certainly would not wish to call Jesus Christ a liar for His promise of perpetuity for His Church, would you? What about the Holy Spirit in which Jesus Christ would send in John 14:16-17 to dwell with His Church forever? And then in John 14:18, He promised he would not leave His Church orphaned. According to SDA false charges, Jesus did orphan His Church, and the Holy Spirit left it, and the gates of hell did prevail after all, as Matthew 16:18-19 clearly promised they would not. I would suppose also that Saint Paul lied for his remark in Ephesians 3:21 that Christ's Church would last down through the ages of all time.

So who are we to believe, the promises of Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, and the writings of Saint Paul, or are we to believe the lie of Seventh-Day Adventism?

The answer to that question is all too obvious isn't it?

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

---

5. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Catholic Church is an outgrowth of Paganism.

This is yet another false charge, as every Church on earth has a founder with a name. No Protestant can produce the name of the founder of the Catholic Church, and when he founded it, while at the same time providing authentic historical documentation to "prove" what they say, unless of course, they wish to admit the truth that it was founded by Jesus Christ Himself.

What better way was there to be obedient to the command of Jesus Christ to convert the world, (Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8) than for the Church to seat itself in Pagan Rome, the very heart of Paganism? Just look at the inescapable historical facts of what that move accomplished just a few hundred years later?

Pagan Rome was converted to Christianity and the evil Roman Empire collapsed.

Dear SDA: Since every church on earth had a founder with a name, then please give me the name of the person who founded the Catholic Church? I accept facts only please, Bible verse(s) or genuine historical documents, and no personal opinions. GOD does not care for personal opinions either (Mark 12:14). Personal opinions have no bearing whatsoever on doctrinal truth.

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

---

6. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, the Pope is the beast of 666. SDA's in their desperation to somehow demonize the Catholic Church have presented "evidence" that is so flimsy that it is nonexistent. Here is/are the lie(s) which they propagate to the whole world:

Pope Constantine wrote a paper called, "The Donation of Constantine", and in it the Pope is called "The Vicar of the Son of GOD". The Pope has that title engraved on his miter. In Roman numerals that title adds up to 666, so therefore the Pope is the beast of 666.

Well, let us see just how many lies are packed into this one big lie.

a) The Constantine referred to was never a Pope, but an anti-pope, a usurper.

b) The "Donation" paper was found 50-100 years after the usurper died and it is a known forgery.

c) The Pope never had a title of Vicar of the Son of GOD. Vicar of Christ? Yes!

This is a deliberate SDA 'twist' of historical fact to suit their false teaching.

d) There was never a Papal miter engraved with "Vicar of the Son of GOD". SDA's have never been able to show such a miter, or even a picture of one. It is so hard to "prove" a lie isn't it?

e) I have already shown from Scripture that the beast has to be the evil Roman Empire.

f) Why do SDA's think that Roman numerals have anything to do with the beast of 666, when the book of Revelation was written in Greek? Using the definition I received from SDA's regarding the meaning of Sola Scriptura, how can I find the verse which explains this use of Roman numerals in order to properly discern a text written in Greek?

If it is not scriptural, then it is unscriptural, so how can any follower of Sola Scriptura believe it?

g) If the SDA's like to play games with numbers then I would suggest that they look here to find out who really fits the number 666 much better than a nonexistent SDA "invented" Papal title.

It turns out to be none other than their very own foundress who was also the "false prophet" of which Scripture warns us to be wary of.

Have you ever noticed that when you point your finger at someone else, you have three fingers pointing at yourself? Try it and see for yourself.

h) Read what St. Irenaeus said in 180 A.D. regarding the number 666:

"It is therefore more certain, and less hazardous, to await the fulfilment of the prophecy, than to be making surmises, and casting about for any names that may present themselves, inasmuch as many names can be found possessing the number mentioned; and the same question will, after all, remain unsolved. For if there are many names found possessing this number, it will be asked which among them shall the coming man bear." Against Heresies book 5, chapter 30.

But, of course, SDA's refuse to read genuine historical documents, and thus, they ignore the truth from history. They would rather rewrite history to suit their false teachings. They do not profit from the errors of others before them, and so are doomed to repeat them over and over again.

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

---

7. The "Accusers of the Brethren" charge that, Catholics worship the sun god, and that is why they switched the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday.

Well it is true that Catholics did switch the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday, and the Catholics who did this were the Apostles themselves in Acts 20:7, and 1Corinthians 16:1-2.

I thank the SDA's for admitting that the Apostles were Catholic, and as we all know, the Catholic Church had existed for many years (beginning in 33 A.D.) before Saint Luke had written the book of Acts in 63 A.D..

Those two verses are an embarrassment to Adventists when this is pointed out to them, for the verses refute the lie that SDA's espouse.

Consequently, they again try to 'twist' the truth by saying that the first day of the week mentioned in those two verses really means the last day of the week. SDA's have never learned that every time one passage of Scripture is 'twisted' to fit their false teaching, that it has a ripple effect throughout much of the rest of Scripture and points to other verses which cannot be explained without 'twisting' those also.

When you have the truth, nothing has to be 'twisted', as all of Holy Scripture fits together perfectly, as likened to a giant jigsaw puzzle, when it is truthfully and properly interpreted by the only Church which has the authority to do so.

Now if Catholics worship the sun god, as SDA's charge, then SDA's worship the Roman god Saturn from whom we get the word Saturday. Saturn is the Roman name for the Greek god Chronos, the god of time, from which we get the word's chronograph, chronology, etc. Chronos is depicted with a scythe and is likened to the grim reaper. He used his scythe to castrate his father Uranus, and he comes to harvest each one of us. Legend said that he devoured his young to maintain his position by destroying his competition. Doesn't this sound familiar for SDA's?

Isn't demonizing of the Catholic Church a fruitless attempt to destroy it? After all, heretics from within, and from without, have been trying to destroy it for almost 2000 years and have failed.

Why do SDA's think they can succeed, where thousands or maybe millions of other much more formidable foes such as the Jews, Romans, Arius, Photius, Protestantism, the French Revolution, Napoleon, Hitlers Nazism, Communism, and a host of others have all failed to do so?

Oh yes, I mentioned the answer to that one earlier didn't I, when I said that those who fail to profit from the errors of history are doomed to repeat them over and over again. For 2000 years heretics have sworn to bury the Catholic Church, but the Church instead always ends up burying the heretics. I wonder why? Do you think Romans 8:31 is the reason, or maybe Acts 5:38-39? It has to be both, since the Catholic Church is still here, and the list of heretics who cannot be found anymore is very long and is getting longer as time goes by. To what other Church do those verses fit perfectly? Name it? In order to name it, you have to trace its heritage all the way back to the dates of which those verses were written, right? SDA's, are you listening? No? I didn't think so.

Dear SDA: If you insist that Catholics worship the sun god, then please show me your authentic historical documents to "prove" this, yet another false charge. Show me the official Catholic documents that back up your claim, which, I know of course you cannot do, or please admit that it simply is not true, which of course you will never do?

One of Satan's traits is that he will never admit that he lied. A truthful person remembers, "those who humble themselves will be exalted and those who exalt themselves will be humbled" (Matthew 23:12). A liar will maintain his lie with no "proof" whatsoever. Answers SDA?

"You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

---

8. SDA's, "The Accusers of the Brethren", in being only one of over thirty thousand Protestant sects*, have had no authority whatsoever, from the time they and their parent sect separated from the only Church of authority, the one given that authority by its founder Jesus Christ. At their founding, they could not claim over 1800 years of Apostolic tradition, so they resorted to condemning all tradition even though the Bible admonishes us to hold to Apostolic traditions in 2Thessalonians 2:15, among other verses. Consequently, all they had left was the Bible, which by the way, is a Catholic book. So now, what to do with no GOD given authority (Psalms 127:1), no claim to Apostolic tradition and a Bible "taken" from the Catholic Church? They decided they must try to demonize the Catholic Church, to show it to be of Satan in order to claim any justification for their actions in forming yet another Protestant sect. Well they failed miserably because well over one billion Catholics* have not bought into that lie.

*World Christianity Encyclopedia, April 2001, a Protestant publication.

Dear SDA: After all of the warnings in Scripture about speaking the truth and loving one another, why is it so hard for you to do so? It is a foregone conclusion that Satan's helpers will only end up in the same place that he calls home.

Why is it that you never have genuine historical documents to back up your false charges? Is it because the lie can never be proven but the truth can? Why is it that Catholics can provide authentic historical documents, which SDA's refuse to read, and yet SDA's in turn, cannot provide any authentic historical documents that Catholics ask of them?

Doesn't this alone point to who has the truth and who does not?

---

I have shown in this file, only a small sampling of the multitudinous litanies of lies that Seventh-Day Adventists pour out against the Catholic Church, "day and night before our GOD", being as "The Accusers of the Brethren". I have shown them to be, indeed lies, and nothing more.

Liars never see themselves for what they really are, but GOD certainly does, since He told us what their unhappy ending will be. Read all about it in Holy Scripture:

"...but for those who are factious and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury."

Romans 2:8

"For the wrath of GOD is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of men who by their wickedness suppress the truth."

Romans 1:18

"...and if any one's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire."

Revelation 20:15

"But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, as for murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their lot shall be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death."

Revelation 21:8

"But nothing unclean shall enter it, nor any one who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Revelation 21:27

It is too bad that SDA's ignore Psalms 127:1, for it alone invalidates every church on earth, most assuredly their own, save one, the one and only one which Jesus Christ founded in 33 A.D..

This Protestant sect cannot trace its heritage back any farther than the Protestant revolt of the early 16th century. They are a splinter group broken off in the mid 19th century from yet another Protestant sect, and certainly they were not founded by GOD, but by a mere human creature. They follow a "false prophet" by the name of Ellen Gould White who "claimed" to have received Divine revelations in visions from GOD.

Well that is yet another lie, for the last prophet of Divine revelation was Jesus Christ, as is clearly shown in Hebrews 1:1-2.

Let us see what Saint John of the Cross (1542-1591) had to say regarding Divine revelation. SDA's, please pay particular attention to the last sentence.

Does it sound like anybody you know?

"In giving us His Son, His only Word (for He possesses no other), He spoke everything to us at once in this sole Word, and He has no more to say... because what He spoke before to the prophets in parts, He has now spoken all at once by giving us the 'All Who is His Son'. Any person questioning GOD or desiring some vision or revelation would be guilty not only of foolish behavior but also of offending Him, by not fixing his eyes entirely upon Christ and by living with the desire for some other novelty."

The Ascent of Mount Carmel, 2,22,3-5

Dear SDA: Please show me the verse(s) in the Bible which gives authority for any human creature to found another church other than the one which Jesus Christ founded?

Can I, or anyone else simply hold up a Bible and claim that, "This is my authority"?

If so, then please show me the verse which says it? After all, Sola Scriptura believers must find everything that is believable in Scripture itself, or it simply does not exist, or is not credible.

If the verse cannot be found in Holy Scripture, then SDA's have no authority. Isn't that true?

If they have no authority, then they have no credibility either.

If they have no credibility, then they have no arguments whatsoever, and certainly they have no right to spread baseless lies about the Catholic Church.

SDA's have only two choices. Either they must "prove" that their sect was founded by Jesus Christ, which they never can, or to admit that they have no authority, no credibility, and thus no arguments whatsoever, which they never will.

---

Who is the greater, GOD or Satan?

After 2000 years of Christianity which do you suppose would be the larger, the Church which Jesus Christ founded or Seventh-Day Adventism?

Interestingly, on September 18, 2002, figures were published from a broad coalition of religious groups including SDA, of a census titled, "Religious Congregation and Membership; 2000". Figures were shown for three large metropolitan areas in California, which is the state with the largest SDA membership. The Sacramento, the San Francisco Bay Area, and the Los Angeles regions have shown SDA with a combined membership of 165,433 in 1990 and a figure of 142,606 in 2000, for a decrease of 20,827 or -12.5%.

Contrast that with the Catholic Church in the same three areas with a figure of 5,878,750 in 1990 and 7,685,196 in 2000, for an increase of 1,806,446 or more than +30%.

Just the increase in the Catholic Church over that period is more than ten times the total membership of Seventh-Day Adventism in those three areas of their largest state. With SDA's declining membership of less than 1.9% of the growing membership of the Catholic Church, who is winning, GOD or Satan?

If SDA's think theirs is the sect which GOD founded, then GOD has failed miserably hasn't He?

I mentioned this news worthy item in order to show the failure of Seventh-Day Adventism in their campaign to demonize the Catholic Church. It surely has backfired on them if they expected droves of Catholics to leave the true Church for the "Accusers of the Brethren".

I wish to thank those Seventh-Day Adventists who persecute Catholics and the Catholic Church, because all you are accomplishing is to help vastly increasing numbers of Catholics to a greater reward in Heaven.

"Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so men persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Matthew 5:11-12

---

"Let no one deceive you with empty words, for it is because of these things that the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience (SDA's). Therefore do not associate with them, for once you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord (Catholic); walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them (SDA's)."

Ephesians 5:6-11

At least I am faithful to Bible teaching, since some of SDA false charges have been exposed here.

---

Why do SDA's, "The Accusers of the Brethren", spread lies and calumny against the Catholic Church as I have shown in this writing? The answer is clearly shown right here in Holy Scripture: "You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies."

John 8:44

---

"You therefore are to be perfect, even as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Matthew 5:48

Those words are a command from GOD, and are not a mere suggestion.

Anyone who does not strive for the perfection of the Father, does not believe the words of the Son. From what I have shown here, how could SDA's ever comply with that verse with their very vocal and never ending blitz of hatred against the Catholic Church?

Sabbath or Sunday, what does Holy Scripture say?

Sabbatarians, the sects which hold to the Sabbath, are 7th Day Adventists, Seventh Day Baptists, Seventh Day Pentecostals, Seventh Day Armstrong World Wide Church of GOD, and a few other small Sabbath keepers, and of course, the Jews.

---

Sabbath: (Shabbath in Hebrew), a Day of Atonement, a week, as defined in Hebrew sources, is Saturday the seventh day of the week in Jewish (Mosaic Old Covenant) religious law, and Sunday, the day of rest for most Christians, as defined in secular dictionaries. The day of rest for Christianity is defined as Sunday, the Lords day, because Jesus Christ was resurrected on Sunday. The word "Sabbath" is not a synonym for Saturday, just because it is practiced on Saturday by some.

---

I have been told repeatedly that there is no Biblical evidence for moving the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday, and these people invariably quote Old Testament verses while at the same time denying New Testament verses which are contrary to their teaching.

Sabbatarians refer to the ten commandments of Ex 20:1-17, but ignore Matt 22:34-40, where Jesus is asked what is the great commandment IN THE LAW. Jesus grouped all ten commandments as listed in the law, into only two. Love GOD, which are in commandments 1-3, and love your neighbor which are in 4-10. Love of GOD includes keeping a "day of rest" which is the real meaning of Sabbath. Not one word did Jesus say that this day would continue to be a Saturday.

I will deal with the demise of the Old Covenant first, which negates all Old Testament verses regarding worship on the Sabbath.

---

The Old Testament beginnings of the Sabbath:
And immediately, hints of its ending:

Exodus 31:13, "You must also tell the Israelites: Take care to keep My Sabbaths, for that is to be the token between you and Me throughout the generations, to show that it is I, the Lord, who makes you holy."

Exodus 31:16-17, "So shall the Israelites observe the Sabbath, keeping it throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant. Between Me and the Israelites it is to be an everlasting token for in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day He rested at His ease."

Did you notice that the Sabbath is referred to as a "token" and that it was binding between GOD and the Israelites, and not between GOD and the rest of the world?

Compare this verse:

Genesis 17:11, "You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; it shall be a token of the covenant between you and Me (Hebrews only)."

Is circumcision binding in the New Covenant of Jesus Christ? No, as that practice, "being only a token" was replaced by Baptism. See Colossians 2:11-14

Some Bibles use the words "symbol" or "sign", instead of token, but the meaning is the same.

A symbol, or a sign, or a token, or a shadow, or a Type, or a prefiguration, all used in Holy Scripture, are not the end result, but merely signs of the end result. Read Hebrews 10:1.

Many Old Testament verses portray a "Type" of an eighth day on which to worship or to make a special offering.

"Ezra read from the book of the law of God day after day, from the first day to the last. They kept the feast for seven days, AND THE SOLEMN ASSEMBLY ON THE EIGHTH DAY, AS WAS REQUIRED ."

Nehemiah 8:18

Doesn't "Solemn Assembly on the EIGHTH DAY" sound like Sunday worship in a Church? See also, Leviticus 9:1-2, 14:23, 15:14-15,29-30, 22:27, 23:36-39, Numbers 6:10-11, 29:35, and Ezekiel 43:27

One of the Ten Commandments of Exodus 20 states, "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day". All of the commandments are binding upon our day to day, or minute to minute existence except for one, and that one is, keeping of a weekly Sabbath. All of the commandments dwell upon one word. They are "Moral" laws. The Sabbath, being a weekly obligation, falls into the same category as "New Moons" (monthly), and "Festivals" (yearly). Keeping of the Sabbath is not a moral law but a "Ceremonial law", and is therefore subject to change, as was completed in Colossians 2:16-17, which clearly states that the Sabbath is but a "shadow" of things to come.

---

The Old Testament prophesies of the demise of the Sabbath:

Isaiah 1:13, "Offer sacrifice no more in vain: incense is an abomination to Me. The new moons, and the Sabbaths and your festivals I will not abide."

Compare this prophecy with its fulfillment in Colossians 2:16-17.

Jer 31:31-34, "...and I will make a New Covenant...not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers...the covenant which THEY MADE VOID..."

Lam 2:6, "And he has destroyed his tent as a garden, he has thrown down his tabernacle. The Lord has caused feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and has delivered up king and priest to reproach, and to the indignation of his wrath."

Hosea 2:11, "And I will cause all her mirth to cease, her solemnities, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her festival times."

---

Jesus Christ rebuked those who criticized Him for doing things on the Sabbath:

Matthew 12:1-8, Mark 2:23-28,3:1-6, Luke 13:14-17.

In John 5:5-18, an infirmed man was cured by Jesus on the Sabbath, and Jesus told the man to take up his pallet and walk, two clear violations of Sabbath keeping. In verse 10 the man is admonished by others for being in direct violation of carrying his pallet on the Sabbath. Why do you suppose Jesus Himself broke the Sabbath twice? After all didn't He Himself write the ten commandments? Clearly He has prefigured the demise of the "ceremonial" Sabbath here.

---

The Old Covenant, and with it the Sabbath, was obsoleted by the New Covenant. It was fulfilled and replaced by the Law of Christ and the Lord's Day:

The Mosaic Covenant and with it the stone tablets with the 10 commandments were inseparable.

Ex 34:28, "So Moses stayed there with the Lord for forty days and forty nights, without eating any food or drinking any water, and he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments."

Deut 9:11, "Then, at the end of the forty days and forty nights, when the Lord had given me the two stone tablets of the covenant..."

1Kings 8:21, "And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with our fathers, when they came out of the land of Egypt."

2Chron 6:11, "And I have put in it the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with the children of Israel."

2Cor 3:7-8, "Now if the ministration of death, which was engraved in letters upon stones, was inaugurated in such glory that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly upon the face of Moses on account of the transient glory that shone upon it, shall not the ministration of the spirit be still more glorious?"

2Cor 3:13-17, "We do not act as Moses did, who used to put a veil over his face that the Israelites might not observe the glory of his countenance, which was to pass away. But their minds were darkened; for to this day, when the Old Testament is read to them, the selfsame veil remains, not being lifted to disclose the Christ in whom it is made void. Yes, down to this very day, when Moses is read, the veil covers their hearts; but when they turn in repentance to GOD, the veil shall be taken away."

Heb 9:4, "In the ark was a golden pot containing the manna and the rod of Aaron which had budded, and the tablets of the covenant."

Heb 4:3-7, "We then who have believed shall enter into his rest, even as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath: They shall not enter into my rest. And indeed his works were completed at the foundation of the world. For somewhere he spoke of the seventh day thus, And GOD rested the seventh day from all his works; and in his place again: They shall not enter into my rest. Since then it follows that some are to enter into it, and they to whom it was first declared did not enter in because of unbelief, HE AGAIN FIXES ANOTHER DAY TO BE TODAY, saying by David after so long a time, as quoted above, "Today if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

What does "He again fixes another day to be today" mean? It means a day other than Saturday.

2Cor 5:17, "If then any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: the former things have passed away; behold, they are made new!"

Eph 2:15, "The law of the commandments expressed in decrees he has made void, that of the two He might create in Himself one new man and make peace."

Gal 4:8-11, "Formerly, when you did not know God, you were in bondage to beings that by nature are no gods; but now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and beggarly elemental spirits, whose slaves you want to be once more? You observe days (sabbaths), and months, and seasons, and years! I am afraid I have labored over you in vain."

Compare these verses with Col 2:13-19 below. Observing days is observing Sabbaths, observing months is observing new moons, observing years is observing festivals. And what does St. Paul have to say regarding this? He said he has labored in vain for those who continue to observe these things!

Col 2:13-19, "(13) And you, when you were dead by reason of your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh (failing to follow the Old Covenant), He brought to life along with Him, forgiving you all of your sins (bypassing the O.C.), (14) canceling the decree against us (the O.C.), which was hostile to us. Indeed, He has taken it completely away, nailing it to the cross(the O.C. was nailed to the cross, effectively ending it, and with it the Sabbath)... (16) Let no one call you to account for what you eat or drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon, or a Sabbath."

That says, just what it says, do not account for a Sabbath.

Verse (16) clearly says it, yet no Sabbatarian can explain this verse. It is ignored by them, as it is not in line with their teaching. One tried to say that it applied only to certain Sabbaths, not most, but he could not prove what he said.

Here, the Sabbath is ended, and further on in this file you will see where Sunday worship begins.

A 'type' is a Biblical person, thing, action, or an event, a 'prefiguration', or a 'shadow', in the Old Testament, of a new truth, a new action, or a new event in the New Testament. For example, in Rom 5:12-14, Adam is shown to be a figure or 'type' of Christ (vs14). The New testament 'antitype' or 'reality' is always greater than its Old Testament 'type'. Now in Col 2:17, "These are a 'SHADOW OF THINGS TO COME, but the substance is of Christ.'" The Old Testament 'SABBATH' is a 'TYPE' or 'SHADOW' (foreshadow) of the New Testament 'REALITY' of the Eucharistic Celebration, the Mass. These verses could not be any clearer that the Sabbath 'type' has ended, being replaced by its vastly superior 'antitype'. Read 2Cor 3:7-8.

Hebrews 8:6-13, "But now he has obtained a SUPERIOR MINISTRY, IN PROPORTION AS HE IS MEDIATOR, OF A SUPERIOR COVENANT, enacted on the basis of superior promises. For had the FIRST BEEN FAULTLESS, PLACE WOULD NOT OF COURSE BE SOUGHT FOR A SECOND. (so the O.C. was faulted, through our fault, not GOD's, and there was a need for a N.C.)....(vs13) Now in saying 'A NEW COVENANT,' HE HAS MADE OBSOLETE THE FORMER ONE; AND THAT WHICH IS OBSOLETE AND HAS GROWN OLD IS NEAR ITS END."

Romans 7:4-6, "...you also, through the Body of Christ, HAVE BEEN MADE TO DIE TO THE LAW, SO AS TO BELONG TO ANOTHER WHO HAS RISEN FROM THE DEAD, IN ORDER THAT WE MAY BRING FORTH FRUIT UNTO GOD..... BUT NOW WE HAVE BEEN SET FREE FROM THE LAW, HAVING DIED TO THAT BY WHICH WE WERE HELD DOWN, SO THAT WE MAY SERVE IN A NEW SPIRIT AND NOT ACCORDING TO THE OUTWORN LETTER."

Hebrews 7:11-12, "...what further need was there that another priest should rise, according to the order of Melchisedech, and said not to be according to the order of Aaron? For when the priesthood is changed, IT IS NECESSARY THAT A CHANGE OF LAW BE MADE ALSO ."

Hebrews 7:18-19, "On the one hand there is THE REJECTION OF THE FORMER COMMANDMENT, BECAUSE OF ITS WEAKNESS AND UNPROFITABLENESS FOR THE LAW BROUGHT NOTHING TO PERFECTION, AND ON THE OTHER HAND A BRINGING IN OF A BETTER HOPE, THROUGH WHICH WE DRAW NEAR TO GOD."

I do not see how Scripture could be any plainer than that. The Old Covenant, and with it the Sabbath, circumcision, bloody sacrifices and a multitude of other Jewish laws was ended and replaced by the New Covenant of Jesus Christ. The Sabbath is ended, finis, kaput... But there is a lot more. Read Hebrews 9 and 10, about the New Covenant.

Hebrews 10:9-10, "'Behold, I come to do thy will, O GOD," HE ANNULS THE FIRST COVENANT IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH THE SECOND.'

The Sabbath along with the Old Covenant is dead, the last nail driven into the coffin, and it is buried.

Galatians 3:10-29, "For those who rely on the works of the Law are under a curse...BUT THAT BY THE LAW NO MAN IS JUSTIFIED BEFORE GOD IS EVIDENT, BECAUSE HE WHO IS JUST LIVES BY FAITH...CHRIST REDEEMED US FROM THE CURSE OF THE LAW.....BUT BEFORE THE FAITH CAME WE WERE KEPT IMPRISONED UNDER THE LAW, SHUT UP FOR THE FAITH THAT WAS TO BE REVEALED. THEREFORE THE LAW HAS BEEN OUR TUTOR UNTO CHRIST, THAT WE MIGHT BE JUSTIFIED BY FAITH. BUT NOW THAT FAITH HAS COME, WE ARE NO LONGER UNDER A TUTOR"

The Old Covenant (the Law of Moses, and with it the Sabbath), has been a good tutor, but is no longer needed. It has been fulfilled.

Have you noticed in Matthew 19:16-30, when the man asked Jesus how he could have eternal life, that Jesus said "Keep the Commandments". When the man responds in verse 18, "Which?", Jesus recounts the moral commandments but He does not even mention that the Sabbath must be kept. The Commandments are listed again in Rom 13:8-10, but nothing is said about Christians are to keep the Sabbath.

In summary for this segment:

- 1. The Old Mosaic Covenant and the stone tablets with the writings are inseparable.
- 2. The Old Covenant has been made void and has been replaced by the New of Jesus Christ.
- 3. St. Paul condemns keeping of the Sabbath in the books of Galatians and Colossians.
- 4. There is no mention whatsoever in the New Testament that Christians are bound to keep the Sabbath of the Old Mosaic Covenant.

Sabbatarians insist that St. Paul preached to the Jews on the Sabbath, and therefore, the Sabbath is still the day of worship:

They are right about his preaching to the Jews on their Sabbath as shown in Acts 13:14, Acts 13:44, and Acts 18:4. What they fail to realize is, since that was the day when the Jews were gathered in the Synagogue, as it was their Sabbath, he could preach to the maximum number gathered in one place, all at one time. That was the only reason for his preaching to the Jews on their Sabbath.

He preached to the Jews first on their Sabbath, while they were gathered in one place and then after he preached to the Gentiles as shown in Acts 13:46.

Also, they fail to see that St. Paul was not under the Law of the Old Covenant, but under the Law of Christ, "And I have become to the Jews a Jew that I might gain the Jews; to those under the Law, as one under the Law, that I might gain those under the Law; to those without the Law, though I am not without the Law of GOD, but am under the Law of Christ." 1Cor 9:20-21

To break this down, in easier terms:

St. Paul said he was not under the Law of the Jews (the Old Covenant).

However, he said he was not without the Law.

He said his Law was a different Law.

He said his Law is the Law of Christ (the New Covenant).

---

Sabbatarians insist that it was the Catholic Church which changed the day of worship to Sunday, the first day of the week. They say there is absolutely no Biblical evidence for doing this:

Well, they are wrong again. The Catholic Church is the protector of Sacred Scripture as well as Sacred Tradition, and as protector, it abides by what Holy Scripture, Tradition, and the Holy Spirit tells it. The day of worship was moved from Saturday to Sunday because the Lord rose on Sunday, and it is a celebration of the Resurrection. Christians wanted to get on with the New Covenant and separate themselves from the Old Jewish traditions. The Catholic Church had the full authority given by Jesus Christ Himself to do this. See Matthew 16:19 where Peter, and Peter alone, is given the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven (the Church), and he is given the power of binding and loosening. In Matthew 18:18, Jesus Christ gave the other Apostles the power of binding and loosening, but He did not give them the keys.

The Apostles did this as shown very plainly in Scripture in Acts 20:7,

"And on the FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK, WHEN WE HAD MET FOR THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD, Paul addressed them..."

Right here is the beginning of Sunday worship.

Thank you for insisting it was the Catholic Church which changed the day to Sunday, for since the Apostles made the change, all you did was to confirm that they were all Catholic.

The first day of the week is Sunday and the 'breaking of the bread' is the Catholic Mass.

So translated, that verse reads, "WE MET ON SUNDAY FOR MASS."

Seventh Day Adventists have told me that the 'first day of the week' mentioned in this verse is really the 'seventh' day or the 'Sabbath'. This is a 'twisting' of Scripture by them to fit their teaching.

Twisting Scripture is something the cults do to try and make Bible verses conform to their beliefs.

Please, someone tell me how the "first" day means the "seventh" day? What wording would Luke have to use in order to convince you that he was talking about Sunday and not Saturday?

To use the same argument that Sabbath keepers use regarding Acts 20:7, I will have to refer you to Gen 2:2-3, where it says GOD rested on the seventh day. Using the same logic as Sabbath keepers use, then GOD really rested on the sixth day. Is that not true?

In Acts 20:7, St. Luke did not say they met on the morning of the first day, or at noon, or in the evening. He merely said "on the first day". Acts 20:8 does mention that there were "many lamps" in the upper room which indicates it was evening of the first day. Acts 20:9-11 support that it was indeed evening. It was customary to meet in the evening for the "Breaking of Bread", since Jesus instituted the Holy Eucharist in the evening during the Last Supper. As I have said before, Sabbath keepers insist that the Catholic Church changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday. By using the very same arguments that they do, I am forced to conclude, by using Acts 20:7 and 1Cor 16:2 as proof, that since it was the work of the Apostles that did this, they will also have to admit that Scripture shows that all of the Apostles were Catholic as mentioned earlier. This fact of course has been known by all Catholics for centuries.

Yet a different argument used by Sabbath keepers to "try to disprove" Acts 20:7, is that they say (using the underlying Greek) the verse cannot be interpreted that the disciples gathered to celebrate the Lords Supper that Sunday evening, as the Greek words used for "breaking of bread" are different from the Greek words used for the "Lords Supper" in 1Cor 11:20. Well, they conveniently omit the fact that the Lords Supper was first instituted in Matt 26:26 where Jesus "broke" bread. The same Greek word for "broke", used in Matthew 26:26, is a variant of the Greek word for "breaking", in Acts 20:7. Trying to prove a difference between "Lords Supper", and "Breaking Bread", has no validity whatsoever. The meaning is the same, but the wording is different.

If that wasn't enough, then they go on to say the verse does not mention the wine, therefore it cannot be the Eucharistic celebration or "communion". This is simply not true, as there are many verses which refer to the Eucharistic celebration, or the Mass, which do not mention the wine. Read this prime example:

"And when it came to pass when He reclined at table with them, that He took the bread and blessed and 'broke' and began handing it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight (Luke 24:30-31)." Not one word about the "wine" is in this famous Emmaus encounter. Have you noted that they recognized the "true presence" of Jesus Christ at the breaking of bread?

Here is another good verse for this subject:

"And they continued steadfastly in the teaching of the Apostles and in the 'communion of the breaking of the bread' and in the prayers (Acts 2:42)." Here, "communion" and "breaking of bread" are conveniently tied together. Notice also that "wine" is not mentioned here either. Just because Scripture does not mention the word does not mean wine was not used.

See these other verses which support what I have put forth here, Acts 2:11, and Acts 27:35.

Here is one which supports that "breaking of the bread" means the "Eucharistic celebration", and of taking "communion":

"And the 'bread that we break', is it not the partaking of the Body of the Lord (1Cor 10:16)?"

Sabbath keepers, try to explain this one?

In 2Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come". The "New Creation" began at the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In Luke 24:30, Jesus took bread and broke and handed it to them. The same Greek word (klah-o) is used in this verse for "breaking of bread", as in Acts 20:7. Jesus did this on the same day as His Resurrection. The first breaking of the bread of the "New Creation" was on Sunday and it was done by Jesus Christ Himself.

Please do not say Sunday worship is not Scriptural, since Acts 20:7 clearly shows that it simply is Scriptural when the verse is correctly interpreted. And the Saviour Himself was first to "Break Bread" after His Resurrection and He did it on Sunday.

Why did He not wait until the following Saturday to do this?

Sunday is called "The Lord's Day", as shown in Revelation 1:10.

There are many documents written by early Church Fathers which attest to the demise of worship on the Sabbath, replacing it with Sunday, "The Lord's Day". The earliest document, that I know of, is on this website.

Please read the "Didache", the teaching of the Apostles, written between 70-95 A.D.

Not only have SDA's 'twisted' Holy Scripture to fit their false teachings, but now, just as Jehovah's Witnesses have done with their corrupted "New World Translation" (NWT), SDA's have re-written the Holy Bible into yet another corrupted version called, "Clear Word Bible" (CWB). Now in this abomination, they have re-written Holy Scripture to reflect more pointedly their false teaching. Here are just a few of the hundreds of changes they have made to the Word of GOD in a comparison between the King James Bible (KJ) and the CWB:

"Revelation 1:10 as read in the KJ, "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet..."

Revelation 1:10 as read in the CWB, "One Sabbath morning when I had gone..."

See, when in the past they resorted to twisting this verse to try to show that it really meant the Sabbath, now they "legitimized it" (in the minds of SDA's) by changing the wording to 'Sabbath' instead of 'the Lord's day'.

Colossians 2:16 as read in the KJ, "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days."

Colossians 2:16 as read in the CWB, "Don't let anyone control your life by giving you a set of ceremonial rules about what to eat, what to drink and what monthly festivals or special Sabbaths to keep."

See, the previously 'twisted' words of this verse are now "legitimized also" by the addition of the word "special", referring to Sabbaths."

Acts 20:7 as read in the KJ, "And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight."

Acts 20:7 as read in the CWB, "After sundown on Saturday night, the believers got together for a fellowship meal and to say good-bye to Paul. That evening he spoke to them until midnight, after which he hoped to get a few hours sleep before leaving early Sunday morning."

See, the SDA 'twisting' of the first day of the week in the KJ to really mean the Sabbath, is now "legitimized" by making it appear to the uninformed to be the Sabbath instead of Sunday. However, 'after sundown on Saturday' is the next day, Sunday in the Jewish counting of days. Did you notice also that 'to break bread' has been changed to read 'fellowship meal'? That is a deliberate attempt to downplay the Communion or 'breaking of bread' of early Christians.

I could go on and on reciting the hundreds of abominations in the CWB, but I think you see the point. You can purchase the CWB and read it for yourself. It is obvious that SDA's ignore all of those verses which say not to add to or subtract from Holy Scripture.

So now do you believe Seventh-Day Adventism is of GOD...or of Satan?

---

Contrary to the denial by Sabbatarians that the seventh day, the Lord's day, Sunday, is Biblical, I offer the following:

Biblical references to happenings on Sunday, the first day of the week...

- 1. Jesus Christ rose from the dead on Sunday, Lk 24:1-12
- 2. Christ appeared to the disciples on the road to Emmaus, and celebrated the Eucharist on Sunday, Lk 24:13
- 3. Jesus appeared to the disciples behind closed doors, Jn 20:19
- 4. Jesus appeared to the disciples with Thomas one week later, Jn 20:26 NAB
- 5. Jesus opened the minds of the Apostles to the Scriptures, Lk 24:45
- 6. The Apostles received their 'Great Commission' to go and teach all nations, Mt 28:1-20.
- 7. The Apostles were given the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive sins, Jn 20:19-23.

8. Jesus told the Apostles to wait in the city until they were to be clothed with power from on high, Lk 24:49.

9. On the seventh Sunday after the resurrection, the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles, Acts 2:1-4.

10. Immediately after receiving the Holy Spirit, Peter gave a powerful address on the Gospel resulting in 3000 conversions, Acts 2:41.

11. The Apostles met for the Holy Eucharist on the 'first' day, Acts 20:7.

12. The Apostles set the 'first' day of the week for the Churches to take up the collections, 1Cor 16:1-2.

Has any Sabbatarian ever seen the close connection between the sun and the Son?

"In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt which speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the Lord of hosts. One of these will be called the City of the Sun. In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the Lord at its border. It will be a sign and a witness to the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt; when they cry to the Lord because of oppressors he will send them a savior, and will defend and deliver them."
Isaiah 19:18-20

"But for you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings."
Malachi 4:2

"For the Lord GOD is a sun and shield, he bestows favor and honor. No good thing does the Lord withhold from those who walk uprightly."
Psalms 84:11

"It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last."

Luke 23:44-46

Did you see the message here? The sun's light failed...The SON, the light of the world, died.

"And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen."
Mark 16:2

In this verse is yet another connection which many miss. The sun had risen, and on a Sunday... The SON had risen, and on a Sunday.

From the connections in these verses, it looks as if the spelling of Sunday could also be SONday.

Many early converts from Judaism continued for a while to attend the synagogue or temple on the Sabbath, as it was the house of God, and the Old Covenant fulfilled by the New was proclaimed and preached in the synagogue and temple.

At first there was little or no thought given to separating from the Jews, as many Jews were converting to the new faith. But this attendance in no way signified that the Apostles or their flock subjected their faith to the requirements of the Old Covenant as interpreted by the Jews. To the contrary! These Jewish converts, as well as their gentile brothers, gathered often daily, but especially on Sundays, for "the apostles' instruction and the communal life, ...the breaking of bread and the prayers." (Acts 2:42).

Many Jews however, refused to convert and the salvation of GOD was sent to the Gentiles and so went the Sabbath, Acts 28:23-29. The New Testament does not provide any evidence that the Apostles instructed believers to continue observance of the weekly Sabbath. But it does show that there were explicit teachings regarding the Eucharist and the Agape, both of which were especially celebrated on Sundays.

As history testifies, Christians more or less gradually abandoned the synagogue and temple because of the pre-eminent place given every Sunday by that first, glorious Easter Sunday. Much independent historical evidence is available to demonstrate that beginning very early, the early Church gradually replaced the Sabbath observance with Sunday worship.

Here are a few questions for Sabbatarians to answer...

1. Since GOD rested on the seventh day in Gen 2:3, did He impose the Sabbath on Adam and Eve?
2. Did Noah and his family observe the Sabbath? How about Shem?
3. Did Abraham, or Isaac, or Jacob, or Joseph observe the Sabbath? These people came thousands of years after the day of rest for GOD. Show me in Holy Scripture where all of these people observed the Sabbath?
4. The Adamic covenant ended when the Noahic began. Then came the Abrahamic, followed by the Mosaic, and Davidic covenants, with each one superseding the one before it. Finally the covenant of Jesus Christ was begun, as the Old Covenant was fulfilled. Why do Sabbatarians still practice only parts of the Mosaic Old Covenant and reject the Sunday worship of the covenant of Jesus Christ? If you want to follow one of these GOD given covenants, then why do you pick part of this one and part of that one and then reject parts of each? The evidence I give here is overwhelming that the Sabbath is ended and along with it, the Mosaic Law. Read on for more proof.
5. Show me the verse(s) in the New Testament where anyone commands Gentiles (those who are not a Jew) to observe the Jewish Sabbath?
6. If you are a member of SDA, or another Sabbatarian sect, are you a Jew?

Well if you are not, then here are two very important verses from Holy Scripture which I mentioned earlier in this page, that you either have not seen or have deliberately ignored.

Exodus 31:16-17:

"Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the sabbath, observing the sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant. (17) It is a sign for ever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed."

Holy Scripture clearly and plainly stated that the people of Israel, the Jews, are to keep the Sabbath.

Scripture is silent for keeping of the Sabbath by Gentiles.

Therefore if you are not a Jew, you are not bound to keep the Sabbath.

Answers please???

"To be deep in history is to cease to be Protestant."

That is what Cardinal John Newman said. Cardinal Newman was an Anglican priest until he studied the writings of the Church Fathers. In those writings, he found the true Church which Jesus Christ founded, and he converted to the Catholic Church. The statement that he made above is the real reason why Protestant ministers and teachers tell their flocks not to read the writings of the Church Fathers. They are afraid of what they will find in the history of the Church. They are afraid of the truth. Historical facts cannot be denied. Read the Church Fathers and decide for yourself. Interestingly, when I receive mail regarding this file, not once has there ever been any mention of the writings of the Church Fathers. This leads me to believe that Sabbatarians are doing exactly what they have been told, "Avoid the writings of the Church Fathers, as they will corrupt you". No my friends, they surely will not corrupt you. They instead, will teach you the truth, and knowing the truth will set you free, John 8:32. If you deny the truth you will perish, 2Thess 2:8-12.

WHAT DID CHURCH FATHERS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE SABBATH?

Note! I have been told by a Seventh-Day Adventist that Church Fathers will not be read because of their title of "Fathers", an obvious reference to Matt 23:9, "Call no man on earth your Father..." This is simply an excuse on their part, to avoid the truth, and a very flimsy excuse at that. For hundreds of years, the Church Fathers and Ecclesiastical Writers faithfully recorded the history of Christianity.

The real reason that these people refuse to read these historical writings is a quote from a convert from Protestantism, John Cardinal Newman, which I have listed above, "To be deep in history is to cease to be Protestant". I dare to say that these same people, therefore, cannot read the history of George Washington, the "Father" of our country, or of the "Fathers" of the Constitution, or of anyone else who is the "Father" of something or other. However, I will bet that they do read of those "Fathers".

The truth of the history of Christianity is found in literally hundreds of writings and by scores of authors. To ignore this vast treasure of writings is to ignore the truth of GOD.

"For the wrath of GOD is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of those men who in wickedness hold back the truth of GOD." Romans 1:18

"And his coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and LYING WONDERS, and with all wicked deception to THOSE WHO ARE PERISHING. FOR THEY HAVE NOT RECEIVED THE LOVE OF TRUTH THAT THEY MIGHT BE SAVED. THEREFORE, GOD SENDS THEM A MISLEADING INFLUENCE THAT THEY MAY BELIEVE FALSEHOOD, THAT ALL MAY BE JUDGED WHO HAVE NOT BELIEVED THE TRUTH, BUT HAVE PREFERRED WICKEDNESS." 2Thess 2:9-12

I challenge all of you to read the writings of the Church Fathers and the Ecclesiastical writers of the Early Church.

The Didache... This was the teaching of the Apostles.

Therefore, it was the Apostles who first began Sunday worship...

"But every Lord's day... gather yourselves together and break bread, and give thanksgiving after having confessed your transgressions, that your sacrifice may be pure. But let no one that is at variance with his fellow come together with you, until they be reconciled, that your sacrifice may not be profaned." Didache 14, 70-100 A.D..

---

The Letter of Barnabas... "We keep the eighth day [Sunday] with joyfulness, the day also on which Jesus rose again from the dead."

Letter of Barnabas 15:6-8, 74 A.D..

Ignatius of Antioch... "Those who were brought up in the ancient order of things [i.e. Jews] have come to the possession of a new hope, no longer observing the Sabbath, but living in the observance of the Lord's day, on which also our life has sprung up again by him and by his death."

Letter to the Magnesians 9. 107 A.D..

---

Justin Martyr... (100-165) "We too would observe the fleshly circumcision, and the Sabbaths, and in short all the feasts, if we did not know for what reason they were enjoined on you, namely, on account of your transgressions and the hardness of your heart... How is it, Trypho, that we would not observe those rites which do not harm us, I speak of fleshly circumcision and Sabbaths and feasts?... God enjoined you to keep the Sabbath, and impose on you other precepts for a sign, as I have already said, on account of your unrighteousness and that of your fathers."
Dialogue with Trypho the Jew 18, 21, 155 A.D..

Justin Martyr... "We all gather on the day of the sun, for it is the first day (after the Jewish Sabbath, but also the first day of the week) when GOD, separating matter from darkness, made the world; and on this same day, Jesus Christ our Savior, rose from the dead."
1 Apol 67, Pg 6: 429 and 432.

Tertullian... "Let him who contends that the Sabbath is still to be observed as a balm of salvation, and circumcision on the eighth day... teach us that, for the time past, righteous men kept the Sabbath or practiced circumcision, and were thus rendered 'friends of God'. For if circumcision purges a man, since God made Adam uncircumcised, why did he not circumcise him, even after his sinning, if circumcision purges?... Therefore, since God originated Adam uncircumcised and unobservant of the Sabbath, consequently his offspring also, Abel, offering him sacrifices, uncircumcised and unobservant of the Sabbath, was by him (God) commended Gen. 4:1-7, Heb. 9:4... Noah also, uncircumcised, yes, and unobservant of the Sabbath, God freed from the deluge. For Enoch too, most righteous man, uncircumcised and unobservant of the Sabbath, he translated from this world, who did not first taste death in order that, being a candidate for eternal life, he might show us that we also may, without the burden of the law of Moses, please God."
An Answer to the Jews 2, 203 A.D..

The Didascalia... "The apostles further appointed: On the first day of the week let there be service, and the reading of the Holy Scriptures, and the oblation, because on the first day of the week our Lord rose from the place of the dead, and on the first day of the week he arose upon the world, and on the first day of the week he ascended up to heaven, and on the first day of the week he will appear at last with the angels of heaven."
Didascalia 2, 225 A.D..

Origen... "Hence it is not possible that the day of rest after the Sabbath should have come into existence from the seventh day of our God. On the contrary, it is our Savior who, after the pattern of his own rest, caused us to be made in the likeness of his death, and hence also of his resurrection."
Commentary on John 2:28, 229 A.D..

Victorinus... "The sixth day [Friday] is called parasceve, that is to say, the preparation of the kingdom... On this day also, on account of the passion of the Lord Jesus Christ, we make either a station to God or a fast. On the seventh day he rested from all his works, and blessed it, and sanctified it. On the former day we are accustomed to fast rigorously, that on the Lord's day we may go forth to our bread with giving of thanks. And let the parasceve become a rigorous fast, lest we should appear to observe any Sabbath with the Jews... which Sabbath he (Christ) in his body abolished."
The Creation of the World, 300 A.D..

---

Eusebius of Caesarea... "They (the early saints of the Old Testament) did not care about circumcision of the body, neither do we (Christians). They did not care about observing Sabbaths, nor do we. They did not avoid certain kinds of food, neither did they regard the other distinctions which Moses first delivered to their posterity to be observed as symbols; nor do Christians of the present day do such things."

Church History 1:4:8, 312 A.D..

---

Eusebius of Caesarea... "The day of his (Christ's) light... was the day of his resurrection from the dead, which they say, as being the one and only truly holy day and the Lord's day, is better than any number of days as we ordinarily understand them, and better than the days set apart by the Mosaic Law for feasts, new moons, and Sabbaths, which the Apostle (Paul) teaches are the shadow of days and not days in reality."

Proof of the Gospel 4:16:186, 319 A.D..

Athanasius... "The Sabbath was the end of the first creation, the Lord's day was the beginning of the second, in which he renewed and restored the old in the same way as he prescribed that they should formerly observe the Sabbath as a memorial of the end of the first things, so we honor the Lord's day as being the memorial of the new creation."

Council of Laodicea... "Christians should not Judaize and should not be idle on the Sabbath, but should work on that day; they should, however, particularly reverence the Lord's day and, if possible, not work on it, because they were Christians."

Canon 29, 360 A.D..

---

John Chrysostom... "When he said, 'You shall not kill'... he did not add, 'because murder is a wicked thing'. The reason was that conscience had taught this before hand, and he speaks thus, as to those who know and understand the point. Wherefore when he speaks to us of another commandment, not known to us by the dictate of conscience, he not only prohibits, but adds the reason. When, for instance, he gave commandment concerning the Sabbath, 'On the seventh day you shall do no work', he subjoined also the reason for this cessation. What was this? 'Because on the seventh day God rested from all his works which he had begun to make', Ex 20:10. And again: 'Because you were a servant in the land of Egypt', Deut 5:15. For what purpose then, I ask, did he add a reason respecting the Sabbath, but did no such thing in regard to murder? Because this commandment was not one of the leading ones. It was not one of those which were accurately defined of our conscience, but a kind of partial and temporary one, and for this reason it was abolished afterward. But those which are necessary and uphold our life are the following: 'You shall not kill... You shall not commit adultery... You shall not steal.' On this account he adds no reason in this case, nor enters into any instruction on the matter, but is content with the bare prohibition."

Homilies on the Statues 12:9, 387 A.D..

John Chrysostom... "You have put on Christ, you have become a member of the Lord and been enrolled in the heavenly city, and you still grovel in the Law (of Moses)? How is it possible for you to obtain the kingdom? Listen to Paul's words, that the observance of the Law overthrows the gospel, and learn, if you will, how this comes to pass, and tremble, and shun this pitfall. Why do you keep

The Apostolic Constitutions... "And on the day of our Lord's resurrection, which is the Lord's day, meet more diligently, sending praise to God that made the universe by Jesus, and sent him to us, and condescended to let him suffer, and raised him from the dead. Otherwise what apology will he make to God who does not assemble on that day... in which is performed the reading of the prophets, the preaching of the gospel, the oblation of the sacrifice, the gift of the holy food."
Apostolic Constitutions 2:7:60, 400 A.D..

---

John Chrysostom... "The rite of circumcision was venerable in the Jews' account, forasmuch as the Law itself gave way thereto, and the Sabbath was less esteemed than circumcision. For that circumcision might be performed, the Sabbath was broken; but that the Sabbath might be kept, circumcision was never broken; and mark, I pray, the dispensation of God. This is found to be even more solemn than the Sabbath, as not being omitted at certain times. When then it is done away, much more is the Sabbath."
Homilies on Philippians 10, 402 A.D..

---

Jerome... (342-420) "The Lord's Day, the day of resurrection, the day of Christians, is our day. It is called the 'Lord's Day' because on it the Lord rose victorious to the Father. If pagans call it the 'Day of the Sun', we willingly agree, for today the 'Light of the World' is raised, today is revealed the 'sun of justice' with healing in his rays."
Pasch CCL 78, 550

---

Augustine... "Well, now, I should like to be told what there is in these Ten Commandments, except the observance of the Sabbath, which ought not to be kept by a Christian... Which of these commandments would anyone say that the Christian ought not to keep? It is possible to contend that it is not the Law which was written on those two tables that the apostle (Paul) describes as 'the letter that kills', 2 Cor. 3:6, but the law of circumcision and the other sacred rites which are now abolished."
The Spirit and the Letter 24, 412 A.D..

---

Pope Gregory I... "It has come to my ears that certain men of perverse spirit have sown among you some things that are wrong and opposed to the holy faith, so as to forbid any work being done on the Sabbath day. What else can I call these (men) but preachers of Antichrist, who when he comes will cause the Sabbath day as well as the Lord's day to be kept free from all work. For because he (the Antichrist) pretends to die and rise again, he wishes the Lord's day to be had in reverence; and because he compels the people to Judaize that he may bring back the outward rite of the Law, and subject the perfidy of the Jews to himself, he wishes the Sabbath to be observed. For this which is said by the prophet, 'You shall bring in no burden through your gates on the Sabbath day', Jer 17:24, could be held to as long as it was lawful for the Law to be observed according to the letter. But after that the grace of almighty God, our Lord Jesus Christ, has appeared, the commandments of the Law which were spoken figuratively cannot be kept according to the letter. For if anyone says that this about the Sabbath is to be kept, he must needs say that carnal sacrifices are to be offered. He must say too that the commandment about the circumcision of the body is still to be retained. But let him hear the apostle Paul saying in opposition to him: 'If you be circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing', Gal. 5:2."
Letters 13:1, 597 A.D..

Isn't it strange that there are absolutely no writings by the Fathers of the Church in support of Saturday worship instead of Sunday, even from the very first ones? Isn't that the real reason why Sabbath keepers refuse to read them because they cannot find support for Saturday worship? What about the Apostles? Where did they say, "we will continue to worship on Saturday"?

The Fathers did not write that Christians should keep the Sabbath simply because the New Testament of Jesus Christ has not one single verse which says we must do so. There are several verses to the contrary as I have previously pointed out, but not one word to hold to the Sabbath. As proof of what I say, read Romans 13:8-10 where the commandments are listed and note verse 9, "...and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, you shall love your neighbor as yourself." Show me where it says for Christians, 'Thou shalt keep the Sabbath'? You cannot make something go away simply by ignoring it, and you cannot read into Scripture something that is simply not there.

How do the Sabbath keepers explain this?

Sabbath keepers;

Where in the New Testament does it say that Christians are required to worship on Saturday?

Where in the New Testament does it say that the Sabbath must be kept by Christians?

---

Summary of what I have shown:

- 1. The Mosaic stone tablets and the Old Covenant are inseparable.
  - 2. The Sabbath was but a "token" of things to come.
  - 3. The Sabbath was but a "shadow" of things to come.
  - 4. The Old Covenant and with it the Sabbath, was replaced by the New Covenant.
  - 5. Where the commandments are listed in the New Testament, nothing is said about the Sabbath.
  - 6. All of the commandments are moral laws save one, the Sabbath. It was a ceremonial law.
  - 7. Ceremonial laws are subject to change.
  - 8. Jesus Christ gave His Catholic Church the authority to make the change.
  - 9. The Mosaic moral laws were carried over into the New Testament and are listed.
  - 10. The Mosaic ceremonial law of the Sabbath was not carried over into the New Testament.
  - 11. There is no verse in the New Testament which binds Gentiles to keep the Jewish Saturday Sabbath.
  - 12. There are verses which admonish Christians NOT to hold to the Jewish Sabbath, as I have listed.
  - 13. There are verses in the N.T. which show that the Apostles worshiped on Sunday, not Saturday.
  - 14. Since the Apostles worshiped on Sunday, and since SDA's insist that the Catholic Church changed the day of worship from Saturday to Sunday, then I must thank the SDA's for admitting that the Apostles were Catholic.
  - 15. Jesus Christ broke bread on Sunday the day of His Resurrection, the first "breaking of bread" of the "New Creation".

Some final notes: The Old Covenant was fulfilled, being replaced by the New. The only ones refusing to let go of the Old Covenant are the Jews and a few Sabbatarians.

I must point out to the latter group, that you cannot be pickers and choosers.

If you insist on the Saturday Sabbath, then you have to accept and practice ALL of the Old Law, such as circumcision, bloody sacrifices, and all those 'good' things in Leviticus. You cannot have it both ways. You cannot have part of the old and part of the new. It is an all or nothing situation. True Christians abide by the laws of the New Covenant, as New Testament Holy Scripture commands.

Not one SDA has ever been able to show me where the words "Sola Scriptura" (SS) and its meaning are found in Holy Scripture. According to the SDA definition of SS, how can anyone believe in

"Bible Only" if it cannot be found in the Bible itself? I have searched for years for the verse(s) and have asked so many non-Catholics to show me where it is in Scripture, and not one has been able to. Maybe you will be the first...but only AFTER you read and study this.

---

A letter to all Sabbatarians:

If you refuse to believe the Holy Bible, the teachings of the Apostles, the Didache, the teachings of the Church Fathers, as shown here (and I trust you did not believe what I have posted and researched the files for yourselves), then I say, I have sympathy for you. The evidence against you is overwhelming. You are following the false prophet. I will not listen to you as you continue to beat the dead horse. Show me in the New Testament where true Christians are to keep the Sabbath? The Old Covenant is FULFILLED. The Sabbath is DEAD, ENDED, FINISHED, KAPUT. We are in the New Covenant of Jesus Christ, and no matter how sincere you are to try to come across in your beliefs, you are sincerely wrong. I have heard all of your baseless arguments over and over again. Less than 1% of all Christianity believes as you do.

Just Who Did Change the Ten Commandments?

Here is an actual question I received, written by a Seventh Day Adventist.

---

NIV, KJV, NKJV, RSV etc. have all God's Commandments intact.

HOWEVER, the catholic catechism has totally deleted the 2nd commandment, and split the 10th into 2 to make up 10 commandments.

They CHANGED Gods Law!!!!

---

Now let us just see who really are the 'they' who 'CHANGED God's Law'...

---

Protestant sources of their charges that the Catholic Church changed the Ten Commandments...

- 1. KJV.....(King James) first appeared on the scene in 1611, a product of Protestantism.*
  - 2. NIV.....(New International Version) first appeared on the scene in 1978.*
  - 3. NKJV...(New King James Version) first appeared on the scene in 1982.*
  - 4. RSV.....(Revised Standard Version) first appeared on the scene in 1946*

Catholic sources of our defense to the baseless charges of Catholics changing the Ten Commandments...

- 1. Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) appeared on the scene in 1992. It lists the Ten Commandments as they were before Christ was born.*
- 2. NJB...first appeared on the scene in 1985. The NJB (New Jerusalem) supports the CCC.*
- 3. NAB...first appeared on the scene in 1970. The NAB (New American) supports the CCC.*
- 4. JB.....first appeared on the scene in 1966. The JB (Jerusalem) supports the CCC.*
- 5. RSV-CE...first appeared on the scene in 1965. The RSV-CE (Revised Standard Version-Catholic Edition) supports the CCC.*
- 6. NCE...first appeared on the scene in 1954. The NCE (New Catholic Edition) supports the CCC.*
- 7. CE...first appeared on the scene in 1948. The CE (Confraternity Edition) supports the CCC.*
- 8. Challoner-Rheims...first appeared on the scene in 1749. The Challoner-Rheims supports the CCC.*
- 9. Douay-Rheims...first appeared on the scene in 1592-1609. The Douay-Rheims supports the CCC. Note that the date for this Bible predates any Protestant Bible by at least 2 years.*
- 10. The Latin Vulgate...first appeared on the scene in 404. The Latin Vulgate supports the CCC. Note that the date for this Bible predates any Protestant Bible by* over 1200 years.

11. The Septuagint...first appeared on the scene about 148 B.C..

This is the Bible that was used by the Apostles. The Septuagint supports the CCC. Note that the date for this Bible predates any Protestant Bible by over 1700 years.

---

Now it doesn't take a rocket scientist to show that the Ten Commandments could not possibly have been changed by the Catholic Church which did not even exist for almost 200 years after the Septuagint was written. Add to that the fact that all Catholic Bibles, all the way back to 148 B.C., are in agreement, and yet Protestant Bibles which did not even appear on the scene until 1611, list the commandments in the 'different' order.

---

It seems that nothing was changed until the King James Bible came along.

I might add also that the false charge that the Catholic Church at the Council of Trent in 1546, added the seven books missing in protestant bibles, is just that, another baseless false charge. If you will take the time to check all Catholic Bibles including the Septuagint, you will find all seven books intact. The King James, a protestant bible however, does not have them, but it did when it was first released in 1611. Hmm so who is the guilty party here for removing those books? Read Rev 22:18-19.

---

So...WHO really did change the Ten Commandments?

---

Please, if you are going to make charges against the Catholic Church, then do it with real evidence (if you can find any) and not by personal opinions.

---

We are all looking for the truth and not trumped up charges.

So you went out and purchased an old used car, and soon after, it had a problem. You did not have the money to have a mechanic fix it so you decided to fix it yourself. Not knowing anything about that brand of car, you purchased a repair manual for another brand from a friend because he owned the store that sold them.

You read the manual from cover to cover and found out it did not help you much at all to fix your car. You were too proud to admit you had wasted all that time and expense. So you wandered around in the darkness and muddled around that car for the rest of your life, not ever learning anything about it, or how to fix it.

Believe it or not, I received an email from a Seventh Day Adventist who remarked that I have been brainwashed by Catholic literature. He suggested if I wanted to know the truth about the Catholic Church, I should go outside the Catholic Church to find it. I asked him how can I find the truth of what the Catholic Church teaches in a SDA or any other Church which teaches against the Catholic Church? He sent me a list of books and suggested I read them. Everyone of the authors were known heretics and Catholic haters.

This person topped the list of stupid ideas of all that I have ever received. In essence he said I should buy a Chevy manual to learn about Fords.

Now, when I wanted to learn about Seventh-day Adventists, I acquired a set of books written by E.G. White, the source for SDA teaching. No Presbyterian, or Methodist, or Catholic taught me.

When I wanted to learn about Jehovah's Witnesses, I looked at their literature, obtained a JW bible, and obtained several of their books and studied them. No Episcopalian, or Anglican, or Catholic taught me.

When I wanted to learn about Mormonism, I went to Mormon sources and obtained a book of Mormon. I then went to pro-Mormon websites and learned what they teach. No Jew, or Moslem, or Catholic taught me.

Why then do not others do the same thing? I receive the same questions over and over from protestants who do not know the truth about what the Catholic Church teaches. You see, they all own Fords but are all reading from a Chevy manual. They never bothered to go to the source where they should have gone in the first place. Instead they spin wheels and muddle around for the rest of their lives. They make derogatory remarks about Fords because they do not know the first thing about them.

---

How can anyone learn what a Church really teaches without going to the source of that teaching and seeing it for themselves?

---

Are you going to learn the honest truth of what the Catholic Church teaches from:

1. A parent or relative who has hated the Catholic Church all their lives?
  2. A peer or friend who hates the Catholic Church?
  3. Your Church which may have been biased against the Catholic Church for many years?
  4. A book written by an anti-Catholic?
  5. Any other source other than the Catholic Church itself?

I CAN GUARANTEE YOU WILL NOT FIND THE TRUTH OF WHAT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH TEACHES FROM ANY OF THOSE SOURCES...

---

---

When in doubt, always go to the source.
You are playing "You bet your soul if you don't."
If you perpetuate a lie without trying to find the truth, take a look at Revelation 21:27 for the unhappy ending of those who do this.

---

---

Purchase a copy of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It will tell you what the Church teaches, and you will have acquired the knowledge from the source.

---

---

"THE TRUTH IS TO BE FOUND NOWHERE ELSE BUT IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, THE SOLE DEPOSITORY OF APOSTOLICAL DOCTRINE. HERESIES ARE OF RECENT FORMATION, AND CANNOT TRACE THEIR ORIGIN BACK TO THE APOSTLES.

Since therefore we have such proofs, it is not necessary to seek the truth among others which it is easy to obtain from the Church since the apostles, like a rich man [depositing his money] in a bank, lodged in her hands most copiously all things pertaining to the truth: so that every man, whosoever will, can draw from her the water of life. For she is the entrance to life; all others are thieves and robbers. On this account are we bound to avoid them, but to make choice of the thing pertaining to the Church with the utmost diligence, and to lay hold of the tradition of the truth. For how stands the case? Suppose there arise a dispute relative to some important question among us, should we not have recourse to the most ancient Churches with which the apostles held constant intercourse, and learn from them what is certain and clear in regard to the present question? For how should it be if the apostles themselves had not left us writings? Would it not be necessary, [in that case,] to follow the course of the tradition which they handed down to those to whom they did commit the Churches?"

Jehovah's Witnesses and the Satanic Church...

Jehovah's Witnesses and the Satanic Church... What They Will Never Tell You...

Jehovah Witnesses like to say that the Catholic Church was founded by satan. Of course they never have produced any documented proof of this false charge, but yet they still they repeat it over and over again. Once again they have failed to comprehend their own Bible and the history of the Catholic Church.

Let us look at Matthew 12:25-26:

And knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand?"

Apparently the Watchtower Society has never heard of 'Exorcisms'. You see, it is very well documented fact that the Catholic Church has, for centuries, performed successful 'Exorcisms' to defend against demonic entities.

Since the Catholic Church has 'cast out Satan' in hundreds of well documented cases, how then could Satan cast out Satan?

Also, since the Catholic Church has stood for almost 2000 years, isn't that in itself a direct contradiction to what Jesus Christ said in Matthew 12:25-26?

How then can the Catholic Church be Satanic?

Jehovah's Witnesses and 'Jehovah'...

---

What Jehovah's Witnesses Will not tell you about Jehovah...

---

---

The Origin of the word "Jehovah".

They will tell you that "Jehovah" is the "true" name of GOD and they will show you how lavishly it is used in "their" bible called "The New World Translation".

They will lead you to believe that the word was in the Bible from the beginning.

The fact of the matter is that jehovah is a man made word which came well over 1100 years after the last book of the Old Testament was written.

Here is what they won't tell you...

In their very own publication called "Aid to Bible Understanding", page 884-885, "By combining the vowel signs of 'Adho-nay' and 'Elo-him' with the four consonants of the Tetragrammaton (YHWH) the pronunciations Yeho-wah' and Yeho-wih' were formed. The first of these provided the basis for the Latinized form "Jehova(h)." THE FIRST RECORDED USE OF THIS FORM DATES FROM THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY C.E.. RAYMUNDUS MARTINI, A SPANISH MONK OF THE DOMINICAN ORDER (in other words a Catholic) USED IT IN HIS BOOK PUEGO FIDEI OF THE YEAR 1270."

I have asked JW's to show me any valid historical document which was written before 1270, and which uses the word 'jehovah'. They could not produce such a document, as there aren't any.

---

I have shown that the name did not even exist before the year 1270 so it cannot be Biblical. The Tetragrammaton (meaning four letters), the letters YHWH, are found in ancient Hebrew Scripture, but nowhere is the word 'jehovah' to be found.

Now let us return to their bible and read under appendix 1 page 1640. "The name 'Jehovah' occurs 6973 times in the text of the Hebrew Scriptures of the New World Translation. Actually the Tetragrammaton occurs 6,828 times in the Hebrew text..... WE 'RENDERED' THE TETRAGRAMMATON AS 'JEHOVAH' IN ALL 6828 OCCURRENCES..."

The word "rendered" implies that unauthorized changes have been made to Holy Scripture. This is clear evidence from their own writings that Jehovah's Witnesses changed the Bible to suit their own teaching in what they call their "New World Translation" of the Bible, instead of conforming their teaching to the Old Testament which had existed for several thousand years before they, and the NWT came along.

---

To sum it all up, and from their own publications, they used a man made, manufactured name, and changed the word "Lord" in the Old Testament, to read "Jehovah" 6828 times in their New World Translation. If that wasn't enough, they selectively changed "Lord" to "Jehovah" hundreds of times in the New Testament. You see, it was easy for them to change every word "Lord" in the Old Testament as Jesus Christ had not yet appeared. However, in the New Testament, Jesus Christ has appeared so they had to selectively change every "Lord" which referred to the Father, and let stand the word when it applied to the Son.

Interestingly the same Greek word "kyrios" is used for the word "Lord" in every case.

This was nothing more than a blatant attempt to downgrade Jesus Christ to be consistent with their faulty translation of John 1:1, where they call Jesus Christ "A" god. Did you notice the small "g" in the word "god"? See Inconsistencies in the NWT on this website for much more.

---

Now I have to ask the question:

Did any JW translator read the last paragraph of the Bible, Rev 22:18-19, or Deut 4:2, Prov 30:5-6, Gal 1:8, or 2Pet 3:15-16, all of which warn against changing the Word of GOD?

Jehovah's Witnesses and the NWT...

---

Jehovah's Witnesses and their translation of the Bible, called 'The New World Translation:

What tremendous damage one little letter, the letter 'a', can do...

NWT John 1:1, "In the beginning the Word was, and the Word was with GOD, and the Word was "A" god (note also that there is no capital 'g' for GOD).

It seems that a Christadelphian by the name of Benjamin Wilson authored and self-published an heretical translation of the New Testament called the "Emphatic Diaglott" in the 1860s. Mr Wilson, of his own free will, mistranslated John 1:1 to conform to his false teaching as, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with the God, and a god was the Word." The Jehovahs Witnesses quickly assumed this faulty translation as their own. By adding that one little letter "a", they changed the entire meaning of their corrupted "New World Translation". Now Jesus Christ is no longer GOD, but a little "a" god situated below the great God "Jehovah".

The Watchtower Society teaches that Jesus did not rise from the dead, but was 'etherized' by Jehovah. That is why His body was never found.

The entire Bible is harmonious from beginning to end. In order to change one part of it as they did, they had to change many other parts to try and make theirs 'appear' harmonious also.

However with all the changes the Watchtower Society has made to the Word of GOD, they have created many inconsistencies.

I will not attempt to list them all in this short file, but I will point out a glaring one that they missed.

John 2:19-21, In answer Jesus said to them: "Break down this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." Therefore the Jews said: "This temple was built in forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But He was talking about the 'temple of His body'.

So, Jesus said He would raise His body Himself, in three days, ...hmmm.

By the way, when they come to your front door, ask them what Bible they used before 1950 when the NWT was first published. If they say the King James, then ask why the NWT does not agree with the KJ. If the KJ was used, then ask how could they have used it from 1870 until 1950 since that little letter 'A' was not in the KJ?

Conflicts, Inconsistencies, and Changes, in the Jehovah Witness 'New World Translation'.

"We have made our own Bible translation, the New World Translation (NWT), the most correctly translated Bible ever. The translators names are kept secret, so as the honor of this translation goes to Jehovah - not to men."

So says the file "What do Jehovah's Witnesses Believe" as taken from their website at <http://194.234.87.103>. This website address has not answered for several months, and no one that I know of seems to know why.

---

Okay, since Jehovah is given all of the credit for writing this translation, and if Jehovah is GOD, then this truly must be a perfect translation, as GOD is perfect, and cannot dispense error. Dispensing error is satan's job, right? I then must ask, why there are so many Conflicts, Inconsistencies, and Changes in the NWT? In this file I will list only a few examples.

---

John 1:1, "...and the Word was 'a' god." 'A' god means multiple god's, does it not? Did you notice the small 'g' for god as used in this verse? JW's openly admit that Jesus Christ is a lesser god than Jehovah. Jesus Christ is considered the 'mighty god', whereas Jehovah is the 'almighty God'.

Isaiah 44:6, "I am the first and the last, and besides Me there is no GOD."

Well, GOD himself said he is the only god. He also said the same thing in Deut 32:39, Isa 43:3, Isa 43:10-11, Isa 44:6, Isa 45:5,21. How can Jesus Christ be 'a god', if GOD said he is the only God? And how many times does GOD have to repeat Himself before we humans get the message?

The Watchtower Society (WTS) teaching that Jesus Christ is 'a god', is an open admission that Jehovah is not the only god. That alone is a violation of the first commandment,

"I am the Lord, your GOD. YOU SHALL NOT HAVE OTHER GODS BESIDES ME."

Exodus 20:1-3

By adding that little letter 'a' to John 1:1, the WTS has changed the meaning of the entire Bible. That little letter is a predicate nominative, and it is not in the Greek text. It was deliberately inserted by the WTS to downgrade Jesus Christ to fit their false teaching. If we look at the context of John 1:1-18, we will find that the letter 'a' was not added in John 1:6, nor was it added in John 1:18. Why is this WTS? I suppose by adding the letter in John 1:18, "No man has seen 'a' God at any time;" just would not sound right now would it? Also we run into the problem of a capital 'G' for God in that verse. Inconsistencies abound in the NWT.

---

On page 1640 of the NWT, it says "we RENDERED the Tetragrammaton (YHWH or Lord) 6828 times to read 'Jehovah'". So the NWT now reads 'Jehovah' instead of 'Lord' as in other Bibles.

Note!

The word 'rendered' as used by the Watchtower Society in the above reference, is their subtle way of admitting that they changed the wording in the Old Testament without having to use the word 'changed' which is really what they did. After all, 'changed' is a direct violation of all those verses which admonish anyone not to change the Bible, such as, Deut 4:2,13:1, Prov 30:5-6, Gal 1:8-9, 2Pet 3:15-16,

Are you CURIOUS about 'KURIOS'?

It is not to their credit when they selectively did some of the same name changes in the New Testament, but only when it became necessary to suit 'their' teaching. They changed the name when support was needed to show that Jesus Christ is not GOD, and did not change it in other verses for the same reason. They will openly admit that the word 'Lord' as used in the New Testament is a reference to Jesus Christ and not to Jehovah. An example is, "...there was born to you a Savior, who is Christ the 'Lord'..." Luke 2:11

Now, if you taught that Jesus Christ is 'Lord', but not GOD, then I suppose you would be forced to go to the Old Testament and remove all reference to 'Lord' and replace it with another word, such as a made up one like 'Jehovah' for example. After all, with the 'Lord' in both testaments, it would be impossible to separate them as two persons, one who is GOD, and one who is 'a' god, as the Watchtower Society has attempted to do.

*Here are some examples of what I mean, which amplify the inconsistencies of the NWT...
Are you curious about 'KURIOS'? If not, then you certainly should be. The next time Jehovah's Witnesses come to your door, ask them to explain this debacle.*

JW's believe St. Michael is Jesus Christ:

Jude 9, Michael, the archangel was fiercely disputing with the devil about the body of Moses when he said, "May the Lord (KURIOS in the Greek), rebuke thee."

The NWT reads, "May Jehovah (not in the Greek) rebuke you."

Please show me how you get the word 'Jehovah' from the Greek word, 'KURIOS' here?

Now if they had left 'Lord' in this verse, it would have proven that Michael and the Lord are not one in the same.

JW's believe that the Son is not GOD, and so when verses quote the Father and the Son as two persons, they leave the word 'Lord' alone:

Eph 1:2, "...GOD our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

The NWT reads, "...God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Hmmm, identical translations.

They translated 'KURIOS' to 'Lord' in this verse.

I suppose 'Jehovah Jesus Christ' would not be in the Watchtower's best interest.

Phil 2:11, "...that Jesus Christ is 'Lord'..."

They let this one stand, as it would have proved an embarrassment for them to change that 'Lord', and in doing so, having to admit that Jesus Christ is Jehovah.

Hey, Watchtower Society!

Since you 'RENDERED' the word 'Lord' to 'Jehovah' over 6800 times in the Bible, why did you not 'RENDER' this verse as well?

Inconsistencies abound in the NWT.

Luke 4:12, "And Jesus answered and said to him, "It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the 'Lord' thy GOD."

The NWT reads, In answer Jesus said to him: "It is said, 'You must not put Jehovah your GOD to the test.'"

Why did the Watchtower Society 'RENDER' this 'KURIOS' to 'Jehovah'? Because it would have said Jesus Christ is GOD, that is why. Show me the word 'Jehovah' in the Greek text?

2Cor 3:17, "Now the 'Lord' is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the 'Lord' is, there is freedom."
The NWT reads, "Now 'Jehovah' is the Spirit; and where the spirit of 'Jehovah' is, there is freedom."
This is an interesting verse. In other Bibles, Jesus Christ and the Spirit are the second and third persons in one GOD. Jehovah Witnesses teach that the Spirit is a 'force' of GOD, and not a 'person'. Here they admit that Jehovah and the Spirit are the same, making the first and third persons GOD, while still denying the divinity of Christ. This is a major inconsistency of the NWT.
Again, show me the word 'Jehovah' in the Greek text?

2Cor 6:18, "...says the Lord Almighty."
As pointed out already, JW's teach that Jehovah is the 'Almighty' GOD, and Jesus Christ is only the 'mighty' god. Guess what they did to this verse?
The NWT says in 2Cor 6:18, "...says 'Jehovah' the Almighty."
Again yet, where do they get the translation of 'Kurios' to be Jehovah?

Dear Watchtower Society:

I have a question for you. Since the Greek word, 'KURIOS', which means 'LORD', is the same word used throughout the New Testament, how can you change it here and there to suit yourselves, but not be consistent and change it everywhere it is used? You have tried to separate Jesus Christ from Jehovah, in order to show from your teaching, that Jesus Christ is not GOD. Since the word 'Lord' is used throughout the Bible as a name for GOD, you were forced to change the word 'Lord' to 'Jehovah' every time it was used in the Old Testament. That part was easy since Jesus Christ had not appeared on the scene yet. However when it came to the New Testament, both GOD and Lord are synonymous since Jesus Christ IS GOD. Now you are faced with a dilemma. You cannot change every word 'Lord' in the New Testament to 'Jehovah', as that would show that all of the verses that applied to Jesus Christ would prove that He and Jehovah are one in the same GOD. So what did you do? You changed every word 'Lord' which signifies GOD, to 'Jehovah', and you let stand every word 'Lord' that meant Jesus Christ. Now, I submit that in all of the New Testament which was written originally in Greek, except for Matthew which was written in Aramaic, the same Greek word for 'Lord' which is 'KURIOS', is used every time. 'Lord' is used over 600 times in the New Testament and of this number you have changed it over 230 times to 'Jehovah'. Please explain to me, from the original Greek New Testament, how you managed to translate the Greek word for 'Lord', 'KURIOS', to 'Jehovah' over 230 times, and 'KURIOS' to 'Lord' over 370 times?

I have asked JW's to show me any Greek dictionary or word translation (other than the one they wrote), which equates the word 'kurios' to 'jehovah'.
They have not responded with a source, as there are no sources.

I have shown only some of the numerous inconsistencies in the NWT. Following are many more.

---

Just who or what is the Holy Spirit?
Just who is the Savior according to the NWT?
How many gods are there?
Who is the Redeemer?
How many Redeemers are there?
Note! All verses in this section are quotes from the NWT.

JW's teach that the Holy Spirit is not a person but a force, as mentioned above.

Acts 5:3-4, "Bur Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan emboldened you to play false to the holy spirit (notice that satan is capitalized here but the Holy Spirit is not. That ought to tell you something.) and to hold back secretly some of the price of the field? As long as it remained with you did it not remain yours, and after it was sold did it not continue in your control? Why was it that you purposed such a deed as this in your heart? You have played false, not to men, BUT TO GOD."

Well... First of all, they elevate satan with the capital "S" and then they lower the Holy Spirit by showing no capital letters, and then they go on to call the Holy Spirit GOD. So, did Ananias lie to the Third Person of the Holy Trinity, or to a force?

Acts 13:2, "...the holy spirit said: "Of all persons set Barn'na-bas and Saul apart for me for the work to which I have called them."

The Holy Spirit said? Persons speak, not forces. In this verse, the small lettered holy spirit (again) calls Himself both "me" and "I", words set apart for persons, not forces.

---

Who is the Savior? How many gods are there?

Isaiah 43:3, and 43:11, "For I am Jehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel your Savior....and besides Me there is no Savior."

So Jehovah said he is the Savior and there is no other, and he repeated himself in two verses. Why did he have to say it twice?

Isaiah 49:26, "And all flesh will have to know that I, Jehovah, am your 'Savior' and your 'Repurchaser' (Redeemer), the Powerful One of Jacob."

Isaiah 47:4, "There is 'One Repurchasing' us Jehovah of armies is his name..."

Isaiah 48:17, "This is what Jehovah has said, your 'Repurchaser', the Holy One of Israel..."

Isaiah 49:7, "This is what Jehovah, the 'Repurchaser' of Israel, his Holy One, has said..."

These verses raise a lot of questions. First, Jehovah repeats yet again that he is the Savior. Then, he calls himself the Redeemer. Now, just who is the Repurchaser/Redeemer? He is the one who suffered and died on the cross for our sins. The Redeemer is Jesus Christ and none other. So now is Jehovah saying it is he who suffered and died for us? These verses show that Jehovah and Jesus Christ are one in the same GOD.

Isaiah 59:20, "And to Zion the 'Repurchaser' will certainly come, and to those turning from transgression in Jacob," is the utterance of Jehovah.

Oops, here Jehovah plainly states that the Redeemer will come, which he certainly did, but in the person of Jesus Christ.

Watchtower Society, just who is the Redeemer and how many Redeemers are there?

Isaiah 43:10, "Before me there was no God formed, AND AFTER ME THERE CONTINUED TO BE NONE."

Well, it seems there were not any gods before Jehovah and there never will be any after.

Isaiah 45:21, "...Is it not I, Jehovah, besides whom there IS NO OTHER GOD; a righteous God and a Savior, there being none excepting me."

Hosea 13:4, "But I am Jehovah your God from the land of Egypt, and there was no God except me that you used to know; and THERE WAS NO SAVIOR BUT I."

Here, Jehovah said it again that he alone is the Savior, and he states in these three verses that he is the 'ONLY' God. Why does anyone, especially GOD, repeat himself? He does it to drive home a point. In this case, THERE IS ONLY ONE SAVIOR AND THERE IS ONLY ONE GOD. Also, I thought previously that in John 1:1, the Word was 'A' god, meaning there are multiple gods. It seems there is a contradiction between John 1:1, and Isaiah 45:10 and 21, and Hosea, but only in the NWT. Contradictions and inconsistencies abound in the NWT.

Moses had something to say along these lines. Deut 32:39, "See now that I-I am he And there are no gods (note the lower case 'g') together with me." It sounds like Moses and Isaiah are in agreement that there IS ONLY ONE GOD. But what about John 1:1 and 'a' god? Confused? Isaiah 45:5, "I am Jehovah, and there is no one else. With the exception of me, there is no God." Jehovah again said there is only ONE God. Jehovah repeats himself...Again! He has gotta drive home that point, I suppose.

Isaiah 9:6, "And his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, 'Mighty GOD' (Jesus Christ is the 'Mighty GOD', remember?), Eternal Father, Prince of Peace." Here is a prefigurement of the coming of Jesus Christ, a 'Mighty GOD'. I thought Jehovah said he was the 'ONLY' god repeatedly. Watchtower Society, just how many gods are there? And while you are at it, how many saviors?

1John 4:14, "...the Father has sent forth his Son as Savior of the world." Hmmm, I thought in Isaiah, in a previous example, that Jehovah alone was the Savior, but here he is sending his Son as the Savior." There is inconsistency on top of inconsistency in the NWT.

Luke 2:11, "...there was born to you today a Savior, who is Christ the Lord." This verse says Jesus Christ is the Savior, not Jehovah. But I thought Jehovah had said he was the 'ONLY' Savior many times above.

Tit 1:3, "...under command of our Savior, GOD." Jehovah is GOD (capital 'G'), right? This verse says Jehovah is the Savior.

Tit 1:4, "...peace from GOD [the] Father and Christ Jesus our Savior." This says Jesus Christ is the Savior, not Jehovah. Answers anyone?

Tit 2:10, "...the teaching of our Savior GOD, in all things." This contradicts Tit 1:4, by saying Jehovah is the Savior...again!

Tit 2:13, "...of the great GOD and of [the] Savior of us, Christ Jesus." Now we are back to Jesus Christ as the Savior.

Tit 3:4, "the part of our Savior, GOD..." Back to Jehovah as Savior.

Tit 3:6, "...through Jesus Christ our Savior..." Back to Jesus Christ as Savior.

Phil 3:20, "...also we are eagerly awaiting for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." Still Jesus Christ as the Savior.

I feel like a bouncing ball in reading these verses. I am getting confused. I guess St. Paul must have been confused also when he wrote his Epistle to Titus (but only for the NWT translation). It would appear that he could not decide between Jehovah and Jesus Christ either, as to exactly which one was the Savior. According to the NWT, three of these verses from Titus say Jehovah is the Savior and three say Jesus Christ is. Isaiah 43:11, does say right from the mouth of Jehovah, "...and besides me there is no Savior", yet, I have shown many verses here that the NWT says Jesus Christ is the Savior. I would say for sure that these verses say Jehovah and Jesus Christ are one in the same GOD. You will remember also that in John 1:1, the NWT demoted Jesus Christ to 'a' god (small 'g' for GOD), yet in all the verses above that refer to the Savior GOD, there is a capital 'G'.

I think we had better summarize what we have found, according to what the NWT says that is:

1. Isaiah said there is only one God and only one Savior, and he said both are Jehovah and none other. Also he repeated this in many verses in order to make sure we got the message.

2. John said there is more than one god and you can tell them apart by the way you spell the word 'god'. A capital 'G' for one and a small 'g' for the other. Just a thought... 'a' god, as in John 1:1, could mean more than 2 gods. Why did I have to think of that? I am confused enough.

3. Luke says 'a' Savior in Luke 2:11. That means he thinks there is only one Savior, but then 'a' savior could mean multiple Saviors also in order for us to be consistent with 'a' god in John 1:1.

I guess Luke did not know which way it was.

4. Paul, in Titus, definitely said there are two Saviors. Jehovah was mentioned three times, since Jesus Christ was not mentioned, and there was a capital 'G'. Jesus Christ was mentioned three times by name. But wait, every time Jesus Christ was mentioned, there was a capital 'G' also. Paul appears to disagree with Isaiah except if you throw in the confusion factor of the 'cases' for the letter 'g', then he agrees with Isaiah. Paul must have been confused.

5. Along comes John again in 1John 4:1 to confuse us even more. He appears to agree with Isaiah, but then he disagrees with himself in John 1:1. It sounds like he is confused too.

6. Then Luke decides definitely in Acts 4:12, that Jesus Christ is the Savior. "...there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is not another name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must get saved."

Instead of being 'undecided' as he appeared to be in Luke 2:11, Luke comes out strongly against Isaiah in Acts 4:11.

7. Isaiah wrote in Isaiah 41:14, 43:14, 44:24, 47:4, 48:17, 49:7, 49:26, 54:5, and 54:8, that Jehovah is the Redeemer. He hints in Isaiah 59:20 that another is the Redeemer. The Gospels, Acts, and many other New Testament books read that Jesus Christ is the Redeemer.

Conflicts, and Inconsistencies abound in the NWT.

Are there any Jehovah's Witnesses who care to respond?

---

Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last, all mean essentially the same thing. Alpha and Omega are merely the Greek words for 'First and Last'.

Rev 21:5-6, And the One seated on the throne (it has to be Jehovah, the capital 'O' in 'One' proves it) said: "Look! I am making all things new." Also he says: "Write, because these words are faithful and true." And he said to me: "They have come to pass! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

So it is Jehovah who is the beginning and the end, not Jesus Christ.

Isaiah 44:6, "I am the First and the Last, and besides me there is no god."

So it is Jehovah who is the first and the last, not Jesus Christ.

Rev 1:8, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, says Jehovah GOD", "the One who is and who was and who is coming, the Almighty."

This says it is Jehovah, not Jesus Christ.

Rev 2:8, "...the first and the last, who became dead and came to life [again]." Who other can this mean but Jesus Christ? Did Jehovah die and come back to life? I thought Jehovah said he was the first and the last in Isaiah 44:6 above. Rev 2:8 could be only about Jesus Christ and proves that 'Jehovah' and Jesus Christ are one in the same GOD according to the NWT.

Rev 22:13, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." This would clinch it if we could show who said it. Rev 22:16 proves it is Jesus Christ who said it, "I, Jesus, send my angel to bear witness to you people of these things for the congregations." Not surprisingly, the NWT, in verse 6 said "...These words are faithful and true, yes, Jehovah the God of the inspired expressions of the prophets sent his angel forth to show his slaves (? Slaves?) the things that must shortly take place." So Jehovah sent the angel in Vs 6, and Jesus sent the angel in vs 16. Once again, the NWT proves that Jehovah and Jesus Christ are one in the same GOD. Once again, "Watchtower Society, please show me the Greek word for 'jehovah' in Rev 22:6?"

Jehovah Witnesses deny the immortality of the soul. They say, when we die, we just lie in the grave oblivious to everything. Let them explain these verses which show the immortality of the human soul.

Isaiah 14: 15-16, "However, down to Sheol you will be brought, to the remotest parts of the pit (hmmm they do not believe in hell either). THOSE SEEING YOU WILL GAZE EVEN AT YOU, THEY WILL GIVE CLOSE EXAMINATION EVEN TO YOU..."

How can the dead gaze at you and examine you if they do not have an immortal soul?

Matt 17:3, "And look! THERE APPEARED TO THEM MOSES AND ELIAS CONVERSING WITH HIM." Moses and Elias died hundreds of years before this. How then, did they appear and speak if they were dead in the grave?

1Pet 3:19, "In this [state] also he went his way and PREACHED TO THE SPIRITS IN HEAVEN." What spirits? If you are dead in the grave and cannot hear, then how can you be preached to?

JW's believe only 144,000 are going to be saved in Heaven and the rest will spend eternity in an earthly paradise. They badly misinterpret Rev 7:4 to show this. Every JW I have asked has responded with a "Yes" when I ask them if they have one of these 144,000 'tickets'. How can this be with millions of JW's making the same claim? Of course they all say Charles Taze Russell, their founder, has a ticket. Wait a minute though. Rev 7:4-8 clearly says the 144,000 were all Jews, and Rev 14:4 says they were all male virgins. Was C.T. Russell a virgin Jew? I doubt it. It seems he does not warrant a ticket. According to the NWT, all women are barred also.

Rev 7:9, "After these things I saw, and look! a great crowd which no man was able to number, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, and there were palm branches in their hands." I would say there are many more than 144,000 in this crowd since no one could number them, wouldn't you agree?

---

Who will send the Holy Spirit?

John 14:26 - Jehovah will.

John 16:7 - Jesus Christ will.

Who is the Judge?

Isaiah 33:22 - Jehovah is.

2Tim 4:1 - Jesus Christ is.

---

Luke 4:8 is very clear, "It is Jehovah your GOD you must worship, AND IT IS HIM ALONE YOU MUST RENDER SACRED SERVICE."

Hebrews 1:6 is equally clear, "But when again he brings his Firstborn (capital 'F') into the inhabited earth, he says: "AND LET ALL GOD'S ANGELS DO OBEISANCE TO HIM"."

Angels doing reverence to Jesus Christ with a capital 'F' for Firstborn, could only mean that Jesus Christ is GOD. Remember the small 'g' the NWT used for GOD in John 1:1?

Also, the same Greek word, "proskuneo", meaning, "to worship", is used in both Luke 4:8, and Hebrews 1:6, whereas in the NWT in Hebrews it is translated to "obeisance". Why the difference?

---

They moved one little comma, and by doing so changed the meaning of Luke 23:43 to suit their teaching.

And He said to them: "Truly I tell you today, you will be with me in paradise." NWT

It should read...

And he said to them: "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise." Other Bibles.

You see, they teach that when you die, you are dead in the grave, period. How then could the good thief be with Christ that day in paradise?

Changes Jehovah Witnesses made to Holy Scripture to suit their false teaching seem to be never ending.

---

They changed Zech 12:10 from...

"...And they have looked upon Me, whom they have pierced."

To, "...and they will certainly look to the One whom they pierced through..."

Clearly GOD had said HE was pierced. The NWT says One was pierced. It would be embarrassing for the Watchtower Society to admit that the Son, who was the one pierced, is GOD.

---

They changed Heb 1:8 from...

"...Thy throne, O GOD, is forever and ever..."

To, "GOD is your throne forever and ever..."

The Father calls the Son GOD in this passage, but not in the NWT.

They added the word 'other' four times in Col 1:16-17...

This is the section where Jesus is described as being the creator of all things. Since the JW's believe Jesus Christ is a created being, they inserted these words to show He was before all 'other' created things, thus implying that He too is created. The word 'other' (heteros or allos) does not appear in the Greek text. If the word is not in the Greek text, then please explain to me why it was inserted by the WTS in these verses?

JW's teach that Jesus Christ was Michael the Archangel before he was born of Mary. At that point, Michael disappeared forever. However, the NWT translators forgot that little 'fact', or maybe St. John did, when he wrote the Book of Revelations. For in Rev 12:5, there is Jesus Christ, and in Rev 12:7, there is Michael again. Hmmm, they look like separate persons to me, according to the NWT.

---

Torture stake or cross? JW's teach that Jesus was nailed to a torture stake, with both hands overhead and one nail piercing both, and not to a cross with arms outstretched. The Greek word used here is "stauros" which means a cross or an upright stake. The WTS ignored history which plainly shows us that persons were crucified by Romans using a cross with an upright piece AND a crossbar for the arms. Archaeological finds have proven this. Not only that, they ignored their own NWT which plainly says, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nail<sup>S</sup> and stick my finger into the print of the nail<sup>S</sup> and stick my hand into his side, I will certainly not believe (John 20:25)." Clearly the word "nail" is used in the plural, yet the WTS teaches that a single nail was used through both hands. Do not miss the paragraph under "Some Other Interesting Tidbits", below.

---

*"I and the Father are ONE." John 10:30
If they are ONE, then both have to be GOD.
"The Father is greater than I am." John 14:28
Is there a contradiction here?*

No, not at all. JW's teach that Jesus Christ is man and not GOD.

*Since he spoke as man, which he did in John 14:28, then that verse is correct.
However, almost all other Christians teach that Jesus Christ is GOD AND man.*

He has two natures, one human and one divine.

*Therefore he could speak in his human nature as a man, and the Father is greater in John 14:28.
He spoke in His divine nature as GOD in John 10:30, and is therefore One with the Father.*

---

These are but a few Conflicts, Inconsistencies and Changes, out of hundreds in the NWT, but I think you get the drift. This book is so full of errors that GOD could not possibly have had a hand in producing it. It has been called, 'THE WORLDS MOST DANGEROUS BOOK'.

Now that I have pointed out numerous conflicts and inconsistencies in the NWT, I will ask you to go back and reread the very first sentence in red in this document. Is the NWT from GOD?

Some other interesting tidbits...

The W.T.S. teaches that Jesus did not rise from the dead, but was "etherized". Do they call the day that the Lord rose from the dead "Ether Sunday" (a little humor there from one of my friends)? They also teach that when we die, we just rot in the grave. Hmm, take a look at their founder, Charles Taze Russell's, marked with no less than a pyramid (pyramid? a sure sign of the ocCULT). Be sure to read the inscriptions on it, especially the one that says "RISEN WITH CHRIST".

How can we rot in the grave and at the same time rise with a "risen" Christ who the W.T.S. claims did not rise at all?

Also, since they do not believe in the "cross" as I have mentioned above (the torture stake), there emblazoned on the pyramid is none other than... a "CROSS", and with it a "CROWN", and not just on one side, but on all four sides of the pyramid. Under the Cross and Crown on one side is an inscription which reads, "Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society".

On his tombstone is written, "Laodicean Messenger", which is an obvious reference to Rev 3:14-16, the letter to the Church at Laodicea. If you will look at the first verse of all seven letters to the various Churches in Rev 2 and 3, you will find that it is a different title of Jesus Christ (or GOD) for each Church. In Rev 3:14 his title is "Amen, the faithful and true witness." Compare with Rev 2:8, the Church at Smyrna, the "First and the Last", or Rev 2:18, the Church at Thyratira, the "Son of GOD". So just who is the W.T.S. saying that the "Laodicean Messenger" is? Are they saying Russell is Jesus Christ (or GOD), or are they saying he is the one who was commanded to write the message, Saint John, or are they saying he was a lukewarm Laodicean who will be vomited out of the mouth of GOD in verse 16?

Did you notice the date of C.T. Russell's death on his tombstone? It was on Halloween, a perfect day for the ocCULT.

Dear W.T.S. or any J.W..

*Read again, my title of this page, Conflicts, Inconsistencies, and Changes in the N.W.T...
What is your response to these things emblazoned on your founders ocCULTIC pyramid?
They are in direct conflict with your teaching and with the N.W.T..*

---

I have received non-substantive rebuttals from Jehovah Witnesses regarding this writing.

There again, they complain a lot, but they do not have any valid arguments to refute what I have said in this document.

1. When I ask them to name one JW before 1800, all they answer is Isaiah 43:10,12, "You are my witnesses, said the Lord..." This is the verse they try to use as justification for their existence. Well, Isaiah did not choose them, they chose Isaiah well over 2000 years after he died. This is as bad an answer as the Church of Christ, claiming they are the true Church because of their name, or Baptists claiming the same because of John the Baptist. JW's have no other answer when you ask them to name one JW before 1800.

2. When I ask them to show me the word "jehovah" in some authentic historical writing before 1270, again, they are unable to answer. Instead they point to other Protestant Bibles, all written in 1611 or after, in which the word is used a few times, about four times in the King James. When I reply, 10,000 lies do not make one truth, it falls upon deaf ears. I said, before 1270, not after, in my question.

3. When I ask them to show me a Greek dictionary which equates the Greek word "kurios" (Lord), to "jehovah", they cannot do it.

4. When I ask them to show me the authentic historical documents, to "prove" their false charge that Catholic Church apostatized soon after it was founded, they cannot produce even one.

5. When I ask them why didn't even one of their translators for the NWT know Greek, I am told that "jehovah" did the translating.

6. When I ask them about the "only 144,000 who will be saved", if they have one of those 144,000 tickets, they all respond with, "Yes". Hmmm, about 4.5 million JW's and only 144,000 tickets and each has a ticket? I think something is amiss in their calculations. Besides, there are only 143,999 tickets left, as their founder, C.T. Russell, took the first one (naturally), so they have told me.

7. When I ask for answers as to why they fit perfectly with the following observations, all of which are sure signs of a cult, I receive no answers at all, or a flat out denial, which is the typical answer one would expect from cult:

a. They teach that all other religions outside of theirs were founded by satan, so they must not believe what the others have to say. This false teaching of theirs reminds me of Genesis 3:4-5 and John 8:44. The truth is that all religions were founded by mere human persons save for ONE, the only Church which Jesus Christ founded. This is provable, whereas their false charge is not. Simply ask them for "proof" of what they say. You will find that they do not have any proof whatsoever.

b. They are not to read any material outside of what the WTS teaches. If they accept it as a courtesy, they must throw it away before reading it. This is flat out denial of individual free will, and is as cultic as it comes. It is nothing less than total mind control. Members must believe only what they are told to believe by the Watch Tower Society. History has repeated itself, for Fascism, Nazism, Communism, and other "ism's" demanded similar obedience. And where are they today?

Those who do not profit from the mistakes of the past are doomed to repeat them.

c. If any member leaves JW's, they are immediately shunned or disowned by their families (if JW's) and by fellow believers. This is nothing more than extreme peer pressure designed to keep the members in line. I have talked with JW's who say they live in fear of being isolated by friends and family, and stay feeling trapped, only for those reasons.

d. They cannot celebrate birthdays because Pharaoh had a birthday. They cannot celebrate Christmas because they teach that Jesus Christ is not GOD. They are not patriotic towards the country in which they live. What a dull and drab way to live, to do only what a cult demands.

8. When I ask them....well, I could go on and on, but I am sure that you have the message by now.

I can only conclude that this file is a thorn in their side.

My response is, "If the truth is so painful, it is not my fault that I must bring it out in the open, for we are all commanded by Holy Scripture to search for the truth and to expose error".

"God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

John 4:24

"Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice."

John 18:37

Do those who practice Arianism by denying the divinity of Jesus Christ, hear His voice?

"For he will render to every man according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are factious and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury."

Romans 2:6-8

"Therefore, putting away falsehood, let everyone speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another."

Ephesians 4:25

"The coming of the lawless one by the activity of Satan will be with all power and with pretended signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are to perish, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, to make them believe what is false, so that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

2Thess 2:9-12

"This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth."

1Tim 2:3-4

"We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

1John 4:6

There are many more verses showing that we are obligated to search for the truth.

See, 1Tim 6:5, 2Tim 3:7, Tit 1:1, Tit 1:14, Heb 10:26, Jam 3:14, 2Pet 2:2, 1John 1:6-8, Rev 21:27

---

One final observation: When JW's come to my door, I ask them if they are online. They reply that they are not, as they are taught that the Internet is satanic. I must then ask, for those of you who are online, "If you are taught that the Internet is satanic, then why are you reading this file, and why do you have websites of your own"? If the Internet is satanic, then your websites are also, are they not? I can only conclude that JW's do not abide by their own teaching.

---

"EVERY WORD OF GOD IS TESTED;
HE IS A SHIELD TO THOSE WHO TAKE REFUGE IN HIM.
ADD NOTHING TO HIS WORDS, LEST HE REPROVE YOU, AND YOU BE EXPOSED AS A DECEIVER."

Proverbs 30:5-6

It is obvious who the deceiver is here. It is the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society.

*An honest man alters his ideas to fit the truth.
A dishonest man alters the truth to fit his ideas.*

However, He who has refused to acknowledge the truth in life will be forced to confront it in death.

*I have asked Jehovah's Witnesses many times, to please show me the verse in the Bible which gave the authority for any human person to found his, or her own church other than the ONE which Jesus Christ founded in Matthew 16:18.
Not one has been able to do so. If there is no authority, then there is no credibility in their beliefs or in what they say.
How could there be?*

*Saint Paul said it all in 2Timothy 3:5,
"But understand this: there will be terrifying times in the last days. People will be self-centered and lovers of money, proud, haughty, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, irreligious, callous, implacable, slanderous, licentious, brutal, hating what is good, traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, as they make a pretense of religion but deny its power. Avoid them."
2Timothy 3:1-5*

*The "pretense of religion" and the fact that they "deny its power", means that "they do not have any authority".
How wise Saint Paul was in the last two words of those verses when he said...
"Avoid them."*

Let Us Go and Find the Missing Keys...

---

What are we going to do with all those keys? ...If we ever find them all!

Suppose you owned an invaluable treasure, a priceless one of a kind, more precious than life itself...a Kingdom!

Now you want to protect this Kingdom, so that all may not enter...only the ones who abide by your rules.

Does it make sense to you that twelve people should be given the keys to this kingdom? What if one of the twelve turned out to be not trustworthy? Would you feel at ease knowing that there are twelve sets of keys in the hands of the same number of people, one of whom you cannot trust?

Well of course, I am talking about the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Let us look at Matthew 16:19, and Jesus said, "And I will give thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven..."

Some non-Catholics say the word 'will' means the keys will be given at a future time, and not at the time of that verse. They 'claim' that Jesus actually gave the keys to all of the Apostles in Matthew 18:18 (even though the Bible does not say that), as Jesus gave all of them the power of binding and loosening of sins. They try to tie Matt 16:19 and 18:18 together by some means.

---

My whole purpose of this file is to point out that Judas was one of the twelve at the time, and if all twelve have a set of keys, then he must have received a set also.

Now I will not attempt to ask, "where is Judas now", as GOD does not tell us where anyone goes after death. I will only ask, (the non-Catholics) "Where are the keys which were given (supposedly) to Judas in Matthew 18:18"?

Baptist Secessionism and 'The Trail of Blood'...

Baptist Secessionism:

It is the claim of some Baptist groups that their church is the 'true' church founded by Jesus Christ. They attempt to trace their heritage all the way back to John the Baptist. Their primary 'proof' is a 56 page booklet titled, "The Trail of Blood," written by J.M. Carroll in 1931. In the book, the author attempts to show that historical heretical groups, Montanists, Novatianists, Donatists, Paulicians, Albigensians, Catharists, Waldenses, and Anabaptists were really early Baptists, and they were pursued by Catholics and wiped out. Since there is no evidence of this to show, they claim the 'evidence' was destroyed by the Catholic Church. Interestingly, Baptist theologians reject this story as unfounded and not credible. Nevertheless, some Baptist splinters called "Landmark Baptists", continue to teach it, to the embarrassment of the great majority of Baptists.

---

Let us examine each of these groups...

1. Montanists, denied all second marriages, even after the death of the spouse. They required all virgins wear veils in Church. They denied the forgiveness of sins, thus making a movement without hope.

2. Novatianists, taught that no sin was to be forgiven after Baptism. They too denied second marriages under any circumstances. Novatian covertly had himself declared a Bishop and was subsequently ex-communicated.

3. Donatists, taught that the true Church consisted only of the elect and that Baptisms were only valid when performed by a Donatist.

4. Paulicians, believed in the plurality of gods, held that all matter was bad, rejected the Old Testament, denied the incarnation, said Christ was an angel. They refused to honor the cross, by saying Christ had not been crucified.

5. Albigensians, believed in two gods, one good and the other evil. They rejected all sacraments, declared it was sinful to marry. This promoted sexual permissiveness. Pregnancy was to be avoided and abortion was promoted.

6. Catharists, followers of all the heresies of the Albigensians.

7. Waldenses, taught that the Church should have no property and condemned tithing. Interestingly, they accepted the Holy Eucharist as the Body of Christ.

8. Anabaptists, practiced polygamy and communism. They condemned oaths as unlawful. Anabaptists were founded by Thomas Munser in 1521. This fact alone refutes the Baptist claim to antiquity.

---

In recounting the 'deeds' of these heretical groups, why would anyone want to claim any of them as ancestral 'proof' of their origin?

Now since Jesus Christ promised His Church would last forever, "The gates of Hell will not prevail against it," Matt 16:18, what do you suppose He was doing with His Church during all of these centuries? Was He switching His Church to these heretical groups as they came along, 'zigging' to Montanists, and 'zagging' to Novatianists and so on? That notion is ridiculous. No, He did exactly what He said He would do. He was preserving and protecting His One Holy Catholic Church.

Now in dealing with Sola Scriptura believers as Baptists are, I will insist on playing the Sola Scriptura game also in situations such as this one. The very meaning of the words Sola Scriptura is that everything believable must be found in the Bible, and if something is not in the Bible, then it simply does not exist or it never happened. At least that is what they tell Catholics. However, that same concept can be used by Catholics also for their beliefs of Baptist secessionism. I simply cannot find any verse which even hints that John the Baptist founded a church. Why can't I find it in the Bible? Is there a double standard here for SS believers, one for themselves and another one for Catholics? Where is the evidence? If Evangelical Baptists existed since the time of John the Baptist, then the history books should have many references to them. The writings of the Early Church Fathers, the historians of their day, do not mention Evangelicals or Baptists at all. But what is very interesting is that the writings of scores of them mention the Catholic Church by name, hundreds of times. In the writings of Saint Augustine (354-430) alone, he mentions the Catholic Church, by name, over 300 times.

---

One example I will include here is Saint Ignatius, Letter to the Smyrneans, about 107 A.D.. It is to be noted that Saint Ignatius was an Apostolic Father, meaning that he knew at least some of the Apostles.

8. "You must all follow the lead of the bishop, as Jesus Christ followed that of the Father; follow the presbytery as you would the Apostles; reverence the deacons as you would God's commandment. Let no one do anything touching the Church, apart from the bishop. Let that celebration of the Eucharist be considered valid which is held under the bishop or anyone to whom he has committed it. Where the bishop appears, there let the people be, just as where Jesus Christ is, there is the Catholic Church. It is not permitted without authorization from the bishop either to baptize or to hold an agape; but whatever he approves is also pleasing to God. Thus everything you do will be proof against danger and valid."

You Must Either Keep the Whole Law, or Reject it All...

---

"For whoever keeps the whole law, but offends in one point, has become guilty in all."

James 2:10

---

Obedience is key to keeping the Law and is mandatory for being Catholic. The Bible is full of verses admonishing us to be obedient. Here are just a few:

"All that the Lord has said, we will do, and be obedient." Ex 24:7.

"...so shall you too perish for not obeying the voice of the Lord, your GOD." Deut 8:20.

"For to this very end also did I write, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in all things." 2Cor 2:9.

"Alexander, the coppersmith, has done me much harm; the Lord will render to him according to his deeds. Do thou also avoid him for he has vehemently opposed our words." 2Tim 4:14-15

"Servants, obey your masters,..." Eph 6:5.

"Admonish them to be subject to princes and authorities, obeying commands, ready for every good work,..." Tit 3:1.

"As obedient children, do not conform to the lusts of former days when you were ignorant;..." 1Pet 1:14.

"OBEY YOUR SUPERIORS AND BE SUBJECT TO THEM, FOR THEY KEEP WATCH AS HAVING TO RENDER AN ACCOUNT OF YOUR SOULS; SO THAT THEY MAY DO THIS WITH JOY, AND NOT WITH GRIEF, FOR THAT WOULD NOT BE EXPEDIENT FOR YOU."
HEB 13:17.

I would say Heb 13:17 says it all, wouldn't you agree?

Are you guilty of causing some of the grief mentioned in Heb 13:17, by not being obedient to decisions made by the Pope, the visible head of the Catholic Church, and by the Magisterium? If so, why? Remember, they are keeping a watch over your souls...

"If in your community there is a case at issue which proves too complicated for you to decide, in a matter of bloodshed or of civil rights or of personal injury, you shall then go up to the place which the Lord your GOD chooses, to the Levitical priests (Magisterium) or to the JUDGE (Pope) who is IN OFFICE (The Papacy) at that time. They shall study the case and then hand down to you their decision. According to this decision that they give you in the place which the Lord chooses, you shall act, BEING CAREFUL TO DO EXACTLY AS THEY DIRECT. YOU SHALL CARRY OUT THE DECISIONS WHICH THEY GIVE YOU AND THE VERDICT THEY PRONOUNCE FOR YOU, WITHOUT TURNING ASIDE TO THE RIGHT OR TO THE LEFT FROM THE DECISION THEY HAND DOWN TO YOU. ANY MAN WHO HAS THE INSOLENT TO REFUSE TO

LISTEN TO THE PRIEST WHO OFFICIATES THERE IN THE MINISTRY OF THE LORD, YOUR GOD, OR TO THE JUDGE, SHALL DIE (now, Spiritual death). THUS SHALL YOU PURGE THE EVIL FROM YOUR MIDST." Deut 17:8-12

"In this breastpiece of decision you shall put the Urim and Thummim, that they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of the Lord. Thus HE SHALL ALWAYS BEAR THE DECISIONS FOR THE ISRAELITES OVER HIS HEART IN THE LORD'S PRESENCE." Ex 28:30

Now, just what do these verses prefigure? This is exactly how the Pope and the Magisterium work in conjunction with the Holy Spirit today.

Oh yes, for all of you like, 'We Are The Church', who want the Church to be a democracy run by the people, instead of the hierarchy that it is, I must remind you of something. We are the Church already. We are the body, and Jesus Christ is the invisible head. The Pope is the visible head. Do you really believe the body controls the head? I always thought the head controlled the body.

---

For the feminists, the squeaky wheels who demand inclusive language in the Bible, and in the Liturgy, and elsewhere, are you really interested in the orthodoxy of Catholic teaching, or is trying to force your agenda upon the "Rock" more important to you? Is your "opinion" more important to you than the truth?

GOD has no gender. GOD is pure spirit (John 4:24) and spirits have no gender. However, for over 4000 years GOD has been addressed in the male gender in Scripture:

In the first book of the Bible, way back in Gen 1:5, the very first page of Holy Scripture, "God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night."

In Gen 1:27, "GOD created man in his image. In the image of GOD he created him. Male and female he created them."

In that one verse, GOD is referred to in the male gender three times.

Even in John 4:24, "GOD is spirit, and they who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth."

And in the last book of the Bible, "There shall no more be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall worship him; they shall see his face, and his name shall be on their foreheads." Rev 22:3-4

GOD is referred to in the male gender four times in two verses.

Thousands of times throughout the entire Bible, GOD is referred to in the male gender .

I.C.E.L., the "International Committee on English in the Liturgy", are the ones responsible for putting the inclusive language into the NAB (New American Bible), which was done under pressure to appease the feminists.

Lo and behold, ICEL has been called on the carpet by the Vatican who is making them change it back. Inclusive language is now being removed.

A persons private opinion has no bearing whatsoever on doctrinal truth.

Why should anyone want to deviate from what is true, to what is not true?

---

Notice to ALL dissidents. All who want female priests. All who want an end to priestly celibacy. All who want to change this or to change that, please read very carefully. Church dogma cannot be changed by anyone but Jesus Christ. Please do not put the blame on our Holy Father for something he cannot do. The Catholic Church is a Hierarchy, setup by Jesus Christ Himself in Matt 16:18. It is governed by the visible head, the Pope, in conjunction with the Magisterium and the Bishops and Cardinals, and of course the Holy Spirit. It is not a democracy run by the people. If 98% of the laity want something changed, IT WILL NOT CHANGE if it is in opposition to dogma.

"...but for those who are factious and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness, there will be wrath and fury." Rom 2:8

"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore he who resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of him who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; he is the servant of God to execute his wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be subject, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience." Rom 13:1-5

"I appeal to you, brethren, to take note of those who create dissensions and difficulties, in opposition to the doctrine which you have been taught; avoid them." Rom 16:17

"I appeal to you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment."
1Cor 1:10

"Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor." 1Cor 10:24

"Do not be a stumbling block to Jews or to Greeks and to the Church of God." 1Cor 10:32

"For God is not a God of confusion but of peace." 1Cor 14:33

"Let no one deceive you with empty words, for it is because of these things that the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate with them,..." Eph 5:6-7

"Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is living in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us."
2Thess 3:6

---

James 2:10, holds true for our beautiful Catholic Church. Either you accept all of its teachings, or you reject them all. Either you accept all of the teachings of the visible head of the Church, Pope Benedict XVI, or you reject them all. Either you accept all of the teachings of the invisible head of the Church, Jesus Christ, or you reject them all. There are no exceptions.

LETTER OF THE HOLY OFFICE TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF BOSTON, AUG. 8, 1949.

This letter, proposed on July 27 and approved the next day by the Supreme Pontiff, is directed against that rigorism by which certain members of the institutions "St. Benedict's Center" and

"Boston College" interpret the saying "Outside the Church there is no salvation" to mean that all non-Catholics--catechumens having the explicit intention of entering the Catholic Church excepted--are excluded from eternal salvation. One of these rigorists, Leonard Feeney, unmoved by the warning of Church authority, was excommunicated on Feb. 4, 1953.

3866

Among those things which the Church has always proclaimed and never leaves off proclaiming is contained the infallible proposition by which we are taught that "outside the Church there is no salvation."

3867

Nevertheless, this dogma must be understood in the sense in which the Church itself understands it. For our Savior did not give the contents of the deposit of faith to private judgments, but to the magisterium of the Church. The Church does in fact teach how this most severe precept of Jesus Christ is to be interpreted. For He Himself charged His apostles to teach all nations to carry out all the things which He had commanded. Moreover, not the least among the commandments of Christ is that by which Christ orders us to be incorporated by baptism into the mystical body of Christ, that is, the Church, and to cling fast to Christ and to His vicar, through whom He governs the Church on earth in a visible manner. THEREFORE NO ONE WILL BE SAVED, WHO KNOWING THE CHURCH TO BE DIVINELY INSTITUTED BY CHRIST, NEVERTHELESS REFUSES TO SUBJECT HIMSELF TO THE CHURCH OR DENIES OBEDIENCE TO THE ROMAN PONTIFF, THE VICAR OF CHRIST ON EARTH.

What Blessed Anna Emmerich had to say...

1820-1821

"I see many excommunicated ecclesiastics who do not seem to be concerned about it, nor even aware of it. Yet, they are excommunicated, whenever they cooperate with enterprises, enter into associations, and embrace opinions on which an anathema has been cast. It can be seen thereby that God ratifies the decrees, orders, and interdictions issued by the Head of the Church, and that He keeps them in force even though men show no concern for them, reject them, or laugh them to scorn." - Bl. Anna-Katarina Emmerich (German Augustinian Nun and Stigmatist)

Those Catholics Did It Again!

---

Yep, they sure did:

Here is a listing of things the Catholic Church has done for ALL Christians...

No Matter which Church you belong to, you cannot deny that the doctrines which YOU use, and some which you refuse to use, were handed down by infallible decisions made by the Catholic Church.

---

The Canon, or list of inspired books of the Old Testament was debated in several Church Councils, and by infallible decision by the Catholic Church, was finalized in 397 in the Council of Carthage. Forty-six books were listed as inspired. These same 46 books are in all Catholic Bibles today.

---

The Canon of the New Testament was debated in several Church Councils, and by an infallible decision made by the Catholic Church at the same Council of Carthage in 397, the 27 books included in ALL Bibles today were finalized.

---

The Doctrine of the Holy Trinity was decided at the Council of Nicea I in 325. Jesus Christ, being GOD, was declared equal to the Father and to the Holy Spirit. An infallible decision was made by the Catholic Church on a subject that almost all fundamentalists accept today, yet is NOT defined in Holy Scripture. The doctrine is manifested in the Nicene Creed:

"We believe in one GOD, the Father Almighty, creator of Heaven and earth, of all things both visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of GOD, born of the Father before all time; light from light, true GOD from true GOD; begotten, not created, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For the sake of us men and for our salvation, He came down from Heaven, and was made flesh by the Holy Spirit from the Virgin Mary, and became man; and He was crucified for our sake under Pontius Pilate, suffered, died, and was buried. And on the third day He arose according to the Scriptures; He ascended into Heaven, sits at the right hand of the Father, and is going to come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. His reign will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life; He proceeds from the Father and the son, is adored and honored together with the Father and the Son; He spoke through the prophets. We believe in ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC, and APOSTOLIC Church. We profess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We expect the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen."

Sola Scriptura believers, please show me the verse which defines the 'Holy Trinity'.

The Primacy of the Bishop of Rome, (the Western Church), is affirmed as being over the Primacy of the Bishop of Constantinople, (the Eastern Church). This decision is spelled out in Canon 3, of the First Council of Constantinople in 381.

I have included this one because Protestants insist that the Bishop of Rome was never given primacy in the Catholic Church.

The Blessed Virgin Mary is declared Ever Virgin and the Mother of GOD at the Catholic Council of Ephesus in 431. This is another infallible decision made by the Catholic Church.

---

In the Council of Chalcedon in 451, Jesus Christ is defined as one person with two natures, one divine and one human.

The Virgin Birth is defined and affirmed.

"By not being pupils of truth, they turn out to be masters of error."
A great one-liner from this council...

---

The Second Council of Constantinople in 553 declared, a reaffirmation of the doctrine of the Holy Trinity, that Jesus Christ was not two persons, but one with two natures, that Jesus Christ is GOD, the second person of the Holy Trinity, that Blessed Mary is ever virgin and that she is the Mother of GOD.

---

The defense of Tradition of the Church, whether written or oral, was a firm commitment in the Council of Nicea II in 787. It was affirmed that Church Tradition came from the Holy Spirit and must be preserved and perpetuated. Anyone found to be not perpetuating Tradition...'Let him be Anathema'. The Catholic Church was affirmed to be 'without blemish or wrinkle'. Eph 5:27
Holy images of Jesus Christ, the Blessed Virgin GOD Bearer, Angels, and Saints are to be displayed in the Churches.
These decrees from the only Christian Church in existence at the time, came over 700 years before the start of protestantism.

---

The Fourth Council of Constantinople in 869-870, under canon #1, stated to keep the declarations and teachings of the Holy Fathers. 'We will preserve the Traditions which we have received, either by WORD, or by LETTER'.
Canon #2 stated, 'Obey your leaders, for they are keeping watch over your souls'.
Canon #3 said, 'Icons should be honored and venerated'.
So here again, the Catholic Church decreed to keep the traditions, as St. Paul had taught us in 2Thess 2:15

---

The Council of Trent called in 1545, in response to the protestant reformation, reaffirmed that the Deuterocanonical books were inspired, and will remain in the Canon of the Old Testament where they had been for over 1500 years.
Contrary to what Protestants charge, these books were in the Septuagint (100 B.C.), and the Latin Vulgate, and remain today in all Catholic bibles, and are now even in some King James bibles.

This Council decreed, "If anyone does not receive the entire books with all their parts as they are accustomed to be read in the Catholic Church, and in the old Latin Vulgate edition, as sacred and canonical...let him be anathema."
They were NOT ADDED by this Council, but were merely reaffirmed as canonical.

Is the Catholic Church of Today, the Same Church Found in Scripture?

---

There are many areas where fundamentalists try to show that the Catholic Church of today could not possibly be the same Church which Jesus Christ founded in Matt 16:18. Let us examine two of these areas, Apostolic Succession, and the True Presence in the Holy Eucharist. I will show what non-Catholics teach, and also where they err. Holy Scripture and the teachings and writings of many early Church Fathers are very specific on these two subjects. How could anyone dare to teach counter to such overwhelming evidence? The Catholic Church of today still teaches the same truth it has taught for almost 2000 years.

Apostolic Succession:

Non-Catholics teach that Apostolic Succession ended with the death of the last Apostle, or that we are ALL Apostles, and there is no such thing as Apostolic Succession being handed down over the centuries to the present day Catholic Church. Either of these teachings, of course, is not true as Holy Scripture attests.

The Catholic Church, guided and protected by Jesus Christ (Matthew 16:18-18, Matthew 28:20), and through the Holy Spirit, affirms that the Apostles had special authority given to them by Jesus Christ, and that this authority has been passed down in unbroken succession through the Bishops of the Church for almost 2000 years.

1Corinthians 12:28:

'Some (it does not say 'ALL') people GOD has designated in the Church to be, first, Apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then, gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues'. It is GOD's designation which makes someone an Apostle, and they are designated within the Church. Therefore we are all NOT Apostles.

So now let us see if Scripture says anything about Apostolic Succession.

Acts 1:20-26:

'During those days Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers He said "... For it is written in the Book of Psalms: 'Let his encampment become desolate, and may no one dwell in it.' And: 'May another take his office. Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection." So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two YOU have chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place." Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles. Peter, first among the Apostles, declared the problem and the solution. He decided what conditions were necessary for the consecration of one who would "take an office" in the church. How were the successors of the Apostles established?

Acts 6:6:

'They presented these men to the Apostles who prayed and laid hands on them'.

Acts 13:3:

Then, completing their fasting and prayer, they laid hands on them and sent them off'.

Acts 14:22:

'They appointed presbyters (priests) for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith'.

1 Timothy 4:14:

'Do not neglect the gift you have, which was conferred on you through the prophetic word with the imposition of hands of the presbyteriate'.

2 Timothy 1:6:

'For this reason, I admonish you to stir up the grace of God which is in you by the laying on of my hands'.

Acts 9:15-19:

'But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this man is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before Gentiles, kings, and Israelites." So Ananias went and entered the house; laying his hands on him, he said, "Saul, my brother, the Lord has sent me, Jesus who appeared to you on the way by which you came, that you may regain your sight and be filled with the holy Spirit." Immediately things like scales fell from his eyes and he regained his sight. He got up and was baptized, and when he had eaten, he recovered his strength'. Even Paul, who was called in a special way by God, only became a minister after the laying on of hands by an officer of the Church.
